Mr. Editor, we have a man that looks after the Church and its interests; he is a gentleman and Christian, one that keeps his promise, and all the rules of a Methodist preacher, the Rev. J. H. White, presiding elder of the Philadelphia District. I would say that the Rev. A. J. Kynett, D. D., of the Church Extension Society, preached for me to my people one of his man searching sermons, full of the Holy Ghost, and when the spirit began to fill his soul his face shone with the glory of God, and he left a lasting impression at the Mt. Zion M. E. Church at Greenland, N. J. Our Christmas festival was grand, the singing and speaking was all that could be desired. The opening address was delivered by G. M. Landon, jr., who also rendered the music for the occasion. Our watch meeting night was a grand one; the spirit of God filled the temple. The quarterly conference meeting was a very fine one; reports favorable. After business was finished, there was a motion made to return Rev. A. J. Kynett, D. D., of the Church Extension Society a vote of thanks for the Christian and instructive sermon preached at Mt. Zion M. E. Church on Nov. 30, 1884.

May the SOUTHWESTERN live and flourish with growing success.

[illegible] N. J.

Strengthen them, Fletcher.

By the records of some of the cures of consumption effected by that most wonderful remedy—Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery"—Thousand of grateful men and women, who have been snatched almost from the very jaws of death can testify that consumption, in its early stages, is no longer incurable. The Discovery has no equal as a pectoral and alterative, and the most obstinate affections of the throat and lungs yield to its power. All druggists.

The Russian government prohibited the erection of a Luther monument at Paris, but it paid $450,000 for the building of an "orthodox" cathedral in that Lutheran city.

A Remarkable Case.

Mrs. Henry Ellis, 220 Scott street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, writes: "DR. S. B. HARTMAN & CO., COLUMBUS, O.: I am induced by a sense of duty to the suffering to make a brief statement of your remarkable cure of myself. I was a most miserable sufferer from the various annoying and distressing diseases of delicate persons, which caused me to be confined to my bed for a long time, being too weak to even bear my weight upon my feet. I was treated by the most reputable physicians in our city, each and all saying they could do nothing for me. I had given up all hopes of ever being well. In this condition I began to take your MANALIN and PERUNA, and I am most happy to say in three months I was perfectly well—entirely cured, without any appliances or support of any kind."

Mr. G. A. Brochl, New Portage, Summit County, Ohio, writes: "My wife has been sick for about five years. In the first place the doctor called it leucorrhœa, and treated it about one year, and she grew worse, and turned to ulceration of the womb, and was treated for that two years, but she grew worse and the doctor gave her up. Then I employed Dr. Underwood, one of the best doctors of Akron, but under his treatment she grew worse. She was paralyzed; she had lost all of the sense of feeling and her eyesight. She could not walk for nearly two years. About six months ago Underwood gave her up. She tried your PERUNA. She has taken three bottles, and it did more good than any other medicine. The paralysis has about left her; her eyesight is getting better. We will continue the use of PERUNA until she is well."

Mr. Isaac Nicodemus, Schellsburg, Bedford County, Pa., writes: "I am induced, by a sense of duty to the suffering, to make a brief statement of your remarkable help, as a sufferer of catarrh in my head and throat. I doctored with one of the best physicians in our place for that dreaded disease, catarrh, and found no relief. But in 1883 I lost my speech, and was not able to do any kind of work for more three months. I could neither eat nor sleep. PERUNA and MANALIN did wonders for me. I used three bottles of PERUNA and one of MANALIN, and now I am in better health than I have been for ten years, and I can heartily recommend your medicine to all suffering from that dread disease, catarrh."

Mr. I. W. Wood, Mt. Sterling, Ohio, says: "Your medicine gives good satisfaction. My customers speak highly of its curative properties."

For the Cheapest and Choicest

Family & Fancy Groceries,

SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE

Hams, Bacon, &c., &c.,

—GO TO—

N. E. Sullivan's

GROCERY!

Corner of

Washington and Hampson Streets

CARROLLTON, LA.

nov23-1y

GRATEFUL PRAISE!

A NEW S. S. BOOK. By J. H. Fillmore.

Pure in sentiment, rich in music. Sample copy, in boards, 25 cents; per dozen by express, $3 60; per dozen by mail, $4. Specimen pages free.

FILLMORE BROS.,
No. 185 Race street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dr. Sterling P. Brown!

365 Chippewa Street,

NEW ORLEANS LA.

OFFICE HOURS: From 8 to 10 a. m. and 2 to 4 p. m.

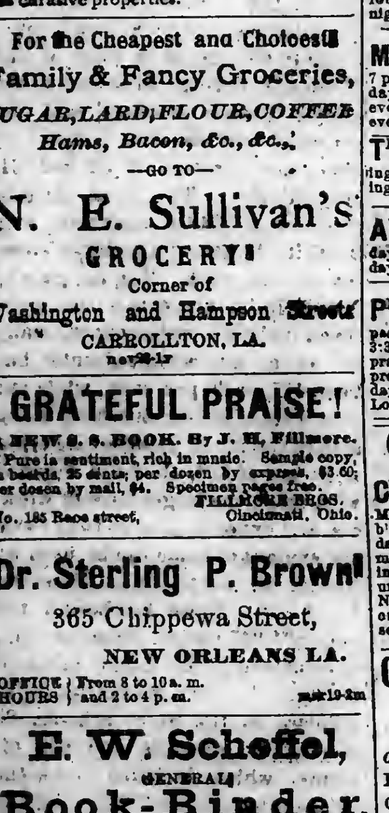
mar19-3m

E. W. Schoffel,

GENERAL

Book-Binder,

Ruler and Blank Book Manufacturer.
37 Natchez St., [up-stairs] New Orleans.
Magazines, Music, Periodicals and Old Books re-bound, Plain or Ornamental. jan29



OLD ONE HUNDRED.

MRS. TENA BURTON,
100.....Franklin Street.....100

Lodging,

With or Without Board.

mar26-6m

The most Durable, Comfortable and Healthful Corset ever sold for the price.

Every pair warranted and satisfaction or money refunded.

L. C. TITCOMB & CO.,
11 Hamburg Street, Boston.

Please mention this paper in writing.

apr23-4teow

Bibles at 1-2 and Old Testaments at less than 1-2 the prices of the English editions, and equal to the English in type, paper, printing and every way. Many agents are out reports of $5 per day and only for a few weeks. Rare chance for agents to make money. Send $1.00 for outfit. TERMS VERY LIBERAL.
The Henry Bill Pub. Co.,
Norwich, Conn.

may14-tf

OPIUM MORPHINE HABIT EASILY CURED. BOOK FREE. Dr. J. C. HOFFMAN, Jefferson, Ga.

mar5-52t

OPIUM and WHISKY HABITS cured at home without pain. Book of particulars sent free. B. M. WOOLLEY, M. D., Atlanta, Ga.

apr2-17t

M. E. Church Directory.

Southwestern Christian Advocate, Office 32 Natchez Street.

LA HARPE STREET CHURCH—Rev. Elijah Clarke, pastor. Sunday services—Prayer meeting, 6 a m; Sunday-school, 9 a m; preaching at 11 a m, 3 p m, and 7 p m; Class-meeting Tuesday night, at 7 o'clock; preaching Thursday night at 7 o'clock; Communion first Sunday evening of each month, at 7:30.

FIRST GERMAN M. E. CHURCH—Corner St. Andrew and Franklin streets; Rev. J. J. Heenle pastor. Preaching at 10:30 a m, and Sunday-school at 9 a m; Prayer-meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.

SECOND GERMAN M. E. CHURCH—Eighth street; Rev. Charles Schuler, pastor. Services: Sabbath at 10:30 a m, and 7 p m; Sunday-school at 9 a m; Prayer meeting Wednesday evenings at 7:30.

ST. MATTHEW M. E. CHURCH—On Varnet Street, Algiers, La. Sunday services: Preaching at 11 and 3; 7:30 at night. Prayer meeting 6:30 in the morning. Class meeting Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. Sunday-school at 1:30. R. C. Barrow, Pastor.

UNION CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Services: Sundays, preaching 11 a. m., 3 p. m., 7½ p. m. Sunday school at 1 o'clock. Class meeting Tuesday nights. Preaching Thursday nights. Prayer-meetings Friday nights. Stephen Duncan, Pastor, 42 Robinson street.

WESLEY CHAPEL—Liberty street, between Perdido and Poydras; Rev. Marcus Dale, Pastor. Services: Sunday 6 a m; prayer meeting, preaching 11 a m; 3 and 7:30 p m; General Class and Love Feast monthly; preaching Thursday eve, 7:30; Class, Monday eve.

SIXTH STREET CHURCH—Between Laurel and Annunciation; Rev. E. Lyon, pastor. Services—Public worship Sabbath 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Communion every second Sunday at 7 p. m. Sunday-school, 1 p. m. Class-meeting Monday evening. Preaching Wednesday evening. Prayer-meeting Friday evening. General Class first Monday night in every month. Prayer service at 5:30 a. m.

CAMP PARAPET CHURCH—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, Pastor. Sunday services—Prayer-meeting, 6 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Sabbath at 1 p. m., Class-meetings. Thursday evening.

HAVEN CHAPEL—JEFFERSON STREET, Carrollton, corner of Plum street. Rev. M. U. B. Mason, Pastor. Services—Public worship at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m., Sunday. Sunday-school, 9 a. m. Class-meeting Monday evening. General Class, second Sunday at 11 a. m., and communion at 7. Preaching Thursday evening.

New Orleans University. A. P. Hoyt, M. A., Acting President, 1428 St. Charles Street.

First Street—Rev. W. G. Montgomery, Pastor. Church corner First and Dryades Streets. Services: Sabbath—5 a. m., prayer meeting; 11, 3 and 7, public worship; communion monthly, on the first Sunday. Sunday-school 1 p. m. Class meeting Monday evening. General class every fourth Monday evening. Preaching Thursday nights.

MOUNT ZION M. E. CHURCH—James W. Hudson, pastor. Regular services 11 a m, 3 and 7 p m; prayer meeting Monday eve at 4 p m. Tuesday night class meeting. Preaching Wednesday eve at 7 p m, and sacrament the third Sabbath of every month.

THOMSON CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Poet street, near Rampart. Sunday Services: preaching at 11, 3 and 7. Prayer meeting 6 in morning. Class meeting 3:30. Z. T. Gayden, pastor.

AMES M. E. CHURCH—Rev. Thomas Stalker, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sunday-school at 9.45 a. m. Prayer meeting, Thursday evening at 7.30.

PLEASANT PLAIN CHURCH—Perdido, between Johnson and Pulaur streets, Rev. W. P. Forest, pastor. Services Sabbath: Preaching at 11 a m, 3:30 and 7:30 p m. Sunday-school at 9 a m; early prayer meeting at 5:30 a m; class, at 5:30 p m; preaching Wednesday and prayer meeting Monday evenings. Sacrament every second Sabbath. Love feast quarterly.

General Church Directory.

CENTRAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Also College Church of Straight University A. M. A., corner Gasquet and Liberty streets, one block off Canal street. Services—Preaching Sundays at 11 a m and 7 p m; Sabbath-school 12:15 p m. Prayer meetings Tuesdays and Friday evenings at 7:30 p m. This church has a fine choir under good leadership, and is centrally located. Northern visitors and all true friends of the colored people are cordially invited to attend its services. Rev. G. W. Bothwell, M. A., pastor.

OUR CLUBBING LIST,

—1885—

Persons sending us cash with their orders can have the SOUTHWESTERN one year together with any one of the following publications, for amount opposite each as named:

Littell's Living Age	$9 00
Outing	3 00
Wide Awake	4 25
Babyland	1 75
Our Little Men and Women	2 25
The Pansy	2 00
Our Little Ones and the Nursery	2 25
American Agriculturist	2 50
Southern Cultivator	2 75
Popular Science Monthly	6 00
New York Medical Journal	6 00
Illustrated Christian Weekly	3 25
Harper's Magazine	5 00
Harper's Weekly	5 00
Harper's Bazar	5 00
Harper's Young People	3 00
American Reformer	2 00
Weekly Inter-Ocean	2 25
Babyhood	2 75

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez street, New Orleans.

Skin Diseases.—"Swayne's Ointment,"

"Swayne's Ointment" cures Tetter, salt Rheum, Ringworm, Sores, Pimples, Eczema, all Itchy Skin Eruptions, no matter how obstinate or long standing.

nov13-1yeow

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS,

17 & 29 West 2d St., New York.

Have now ready

The History of the Negro Race in America.

From 1619 to 1881. Negroes as Slaves, as Soldiers and as Citizens,

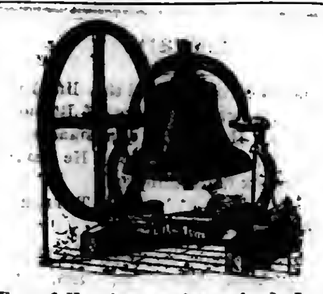
Together with a preliminary consideration of the Unity of the Human Family, and Historical Sketch of Africa, and an account of the Negro Government of Sierra Leone and Liberia. By George W. Williams, first colored member of the Ohio Legislature, and late Judge Advocate of the G. A. R., of Ohio.

Popular Edition: two volumes in one, large octavo, with portrait on steel of the author, $4.

"It is a prodigious compilation, so comprehensive that every student will welcome it, and so full in its whole scope that criticism of special points can not impair it.—World, New York.

"It ought to be read by every colored man in America."—Journal, Indianapolis.

"He has accomplished a noble service for his race."—Zion's Herald, Boston.



☞ This book can be ordered through the office of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, New Orleans, La.

PAYSON'S INDELIBLE INK.

No preparation and only a common pen needed. Established 50 Years. Superior as popular for decorative work on linen. Received Centennial Medal & Diploma. Sold everywhere.

jan29-26teow

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.

Bells For Churches, Schools, Etc.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
24 inches	165 lbs.	300 lbs.	$35 00
26 "	200 lbs.	350 lbs.	45 00
28 "	225 lbs.	375 lbs.	55 00
32 "	375 lbs.	550 lbs.	80 00
36 "	525 lbs.	750 lbs.	100 00
40 "	800 lbs.	1100 lbs.	145 00
44 "	1060 lbs.	1400 lbs.	180 00
48 "	1325 lbs.	1800 lbs.	230 00
54 "	2060 lbs.	2800 lbs.	350 00

Bells for Schools, Farms, Etc. without mountings.

18 inches	75 lbs.	$13 00
20 inches	100 lbs.	18 00
24 inches	165 lbs.	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named, which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.

The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.

On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 32 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.

Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.

VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.

mar5-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY,

The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade.
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.

Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,

TROY, N. Y.

nov29-1yr

McShane Bell Foundry

Manufacture those celebrated Bells and Chimes for Churches, Tower Clocks, &c., &c. Price-list and circulars sent free. Address

HENRY McSHANE & CO.
oct23-1y Baltimore, Md.

An Offer Never Equaled!

THE WEEKLY EDITION

—OF—

The TIMES DEMOCRAT,

NEW ORLEANS,

—AND—

THE WEEKLY EDITION

—OF—

The NEW YORK WORLD,

NEW YORK,

FOR ONE YEAR

Only $2.20.

OR

THE TWO WEEKLIES

—AND A—

Waterbury Watch and Chain

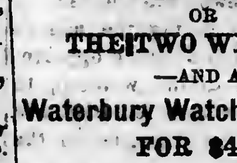
FOR $4.20.

Either Weekly alone is worth more than the price asked for both, as they contain reviews of the news of the world, a vast amount of select literary matter, exhaustive commercial reports, in fact everything is embraced that tends to make a

First-class Family Newspaper.

The subscription price to Weekly Times-Democrat alone is $1.50 for 12 months, 75 cents for 6 months, or 50 cents for 3 months.

Every family in New Orleans not taking the Daily TIMES-DEMOCRAT should keep posted in the



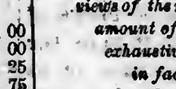
NEWS OF THE WORLD,

by taking these Weeklies, and as an inducement we offer a good serviceable watch for the small addition mentioned above.

The WATERBURY WATCH is a stemwinder, and will run twenty-eight hours. The case is NICKLE-SILVER, and will always remain as bright as a new silver dollar. The Watch has a heavy bevelled edge and a crystal face. The works of this Watch are made with the finest automatic machinery. Every watch is tested in varying positions and is perfect before leaving the factory. Each Watch is put up in a handsome new improved LEATHER-LINED CASE, for safe transportation through the mails.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Taken at the office of THE TIMES-DEMOCRAT, or by mail, when accompanied by subscription price.



BARNES'

Patent Foot and Steam Power Machinery. Complete outfits for Actual Working Business. Lathes for Wood or Metal, Circular Saws, Scroll Saws, Formers, Tenoners, etc. Machines on trial if desired. Catalogue and Price-list free.

W. F. & JOHN BARNES CO.,
No. 187 Ruby St., Rockford, Ill.

AGENTS WANTED for the MISSOURI STEAM WASHER!

I will pay any intelligent man or woman seeking profitable employment to write for Illustrated Circular and terms of Agency for this Celebrated Washer, which by reason of its intrinsic merit is meeting with such wonderful success

J. WORTH, ST. LOUIS, MO., or CHICAGO, ILL.

jan22 26t

CATARRH

Send 50 cts. and symptoms for Trial Treatment, to last 20 days, by mail post-paid. Which will convince the most incredulous that Dr. Brockington positively and permanently cures at small expense, by a pleasant treatment, the worst cases of Catarrh, though the bones of the nose have become affected, causing Loss of Smell, Offensive Breath, Sore Throat, Deafness, Hay Fever, Cough, Bronchitis and Incipient Consumption. No Snuffs, washes, douches, inhalers or atomizers used. Over 7000 cases cured. The best internal treatment ever discovered for this dangerous disease. Address Dr. C. N. BROCKINGTON, (Mention this paper.) 309 FOURTH AVENUE, LOUISVILLE, KY.

oct2-1yr

PHILLIP SAAL,

Dealer in Fancy and Staple Groceries. A Specialty of Butter, Tea, Coffee, and Fine Family Groceries.

503 Dryades Street, (near St. Andrew st.) New Orleans, La.

jan1-1y

Crescent Insurance Company.

Incorporated as a Mutual Company in 1849. Re-organized as a Stock Company in 1880.

CASH CAPITAL.....$600,000.

Has paid paid nearly TEN MILLIONS for losses since 1849. Annual and Term Policies issued on Desirable Fire Business.

W. R. Lyman, President, Chas. H. Dolsen, Vice President, Chas. E. Rice, Sec'y.

TRUSTEES

Joseph Bowling,	Sam. H. Kennedy,	Geo. W. Sentell,	Alfred Moulton,	W. R. Conger
W. R. Lyman,	U. Marinoni,	Chas. H. Dolsen,	John Calder,	A. H. Steward
S. C. Conlon,	Harry L. Flash,	Wm. A. Pheips,	J. J. Reiss,	Louis Prados
Lucien Helery,	Charles Newman,	N. Di Wallace,	Sigmund Katz,	M. Gillis
E. F. W Bachman,	C. K. David,	Wm. Garig,	A. Rosenfeld,	John D. Fiske
Chas E. Rice,	Joseph Kohn,	Chas. M. Whitney,	James T. Rodd.

☞ See our Agents throughout the South.

oct9 1y

THE LITTLE HUCKLEBERRY, FOR CHOLERA INFANTUM.

The soldiers in the late war established the fact that the Huckleberry was much more efficacious in chronic bowel troubles than the Blackberry.

Every one knows the Huckleberry growing alongside the hill, but few have realized the fact that the purple berry contains one of the most valuable astringent healing principles to the bowels.

Walter A. Taylor, Atlanta, Georgia.

Dr. Taylor's Huckleberry Cordial is the most reliable remedy for curing Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera Infantum, Bowel Affections, and all looseness of the bowels, and for relieving the little ones suffering from teething. Prepared from the extracts of Huckleberries. For sale by all druggists at 50 cents a bottle. Send Five Cent Stamp for "TAYLOR'S LITTLE RIDDLE BOOK."

apr2 1y

NOW, NOW, NOW IS THE TIME!

SPRING TIME!

PURIFY YOUR BLOOD

DR. J. H. McLEAN'S

Strengthening Cordial

AND

BLOOD PURIFIER

Is the greatest Blood Purifier in the world.

TRY IT, AND YOU WILL USE IT EVERY SEASON.

It acts as delightfully on the tender Babe, the most delicate Lady and infirm old age, as on the strong man, in imparting Health and Vigor to Nerves and Brain, Blood Vessels, Heart and Liver. When taken, you can feel its life-giving power course through every artery, destroying all diseases of the Blood, and giving Health, Vital Power and Strength to every part of the body. Who will suffer from Liver Complaint or Diseases of the Stomach, Kidneys, Bowels or Bladder, when such a great Remedy is within their reach?

IT WILL CURE:

Sleeplessness, Night Sweats, Sallow Complexion, Hot Flushes, Fainting Spells, Nervousness, Failing Eyesight caused by Weakness, Dyspepsia, Heetic Flushes, Scalding Hot Urine, Brick Dust Deposit, Frothy Urine, Uterine Weakness, Falling of the Womb, Bad Blood, Biliousness, Pimples, Loss of Memory, Feverish Skin, Sluggish Circulation; Cold Feet and Hands, Rheumatism, Peevishness, Obstinate Constipation, Heart Troubles, Bladder Fever, Diarrhœa or Bloody Flux, Lung and Liver Disease, Kidney Troubles, Weak Back, Neuralgia, Pains in Bones, Sick Stomach, Depression, Blues, Dyspepsia, Female Weakness, Pimples, Sores and Blotches on the Face and Skin, Colic Pains.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 6th, 1885.

DR. J. H. MCLEAN, St. Louis, Mo.

DEAR SIR:—Having been troubled with Female Complaint for some time, by the advice of a St. Louis lady, I tried Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier, and am happy to say that it has cured me completely, and I am as well now as ever. I consider it the best medicine for that purpose in the world.

MRS. ELIZABETH HENDRICKS.

G. W. Nowlin, Greenfield, Tenn., writes:—Send me another supply of Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier. It gives such satisfaction and sells so well here that we are unable to keep a supply on hand.

Mingsville, Mo., Jan. 4th, 1885.

DR. J. H. MCLEAN, St. Louis Mo.

DEAR SIR:—I look upon your Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier as the finest medicine in the market. I use it in my family, and all my customers speak of it in the highest terms. I would not be without it in the house if it cost ten dollars a bottle.

Yours truly, JOSEPH W. MINGS.

John O. K. White, San Angelo, Texas, says:—Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is a Never Failing Remedy, and Can Be Relied on.

Leroy, Minn., March 5th, 1885.

DR. J. H. MCLEAN, St. Louis, Mo.

Dear Sir:—Owing to the intense heat last summer in the harvest field, many in this neighborhood were prostrated at work, and many of them are afflicted with chronic diarrhœa and kindred diseases. But by the advice of a friend I used your Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier, and have been as well as ever, although I was more exposed than the majority of those who have been more or less sick ever since.

Yours truly. HAST. MERCHELL.

Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is a Never Failing Remedy, and Can Be Relied on.

$1.00 PER BOTTLE. SIX BOTTLES, $5.00.

DR. J. H. McLEAN, S. E. Corner Broadway and Biddle Street, St. Louis, Mo.

jan1-6m

AN ADVERTISING AGENCY.

Newspapers.

Catalogue.

Advertisement.

Our Lists.

Estimates.

Printing Office.

Our System.

Payment.

We receive and keep on file over 12,000 Newspapers published in every State and Province in America. Over 1000 Daily papers alone arrive every morning. Each paper is examined by careful clerks and the insertions entered in record books. Under our system an advertiser is sure to receive the full value for his money.

We publish the "American Newspaper Catalogue," a volume of 900 pages elegantly bound in cloth, and containing a complete list of the publications of every character in the United States and Canada. On each line we give place of publication, name of paper, class or denomination, page and circulation. In it are catalogued 14,000 periodicals. Sent free on receipt of $1.50.

We can secure the prompt insertion of any advertisement in any publication at the lowest attainable prices. We keep constantly invested over $100,000 "in space" in the best lines of newspapers. Our special lists of Papers will be found especially useful in making up lists for pushing any special lines.

We have, for the convenience of advertisers, made up our Religious List containing the names of all the leading denominational papers with prices. Our Agricultural List containing the names of all the prominent agricultural papers with prices. Our Local List of 1,300 County and City Weeklies and Dailies, arranged by States with publishers' prices and the prices at which we can insert advertisements. These Lists are mailed free on application.

We will furnish to any reputable advertiser who will apply, an estimate showing exact cost of any proposed line of advertising, and when desired, will make up lists and write advertisements, provided the amount desired to be expended is named. We have had a wide experience, and can suggest lines of papers best adapted to the wants of an advertiser.

We keep constantly supplied with the newest styles of type best adapted to the display of advertisements. Send us your copy and we will return with estimate & proof from type without extra charge.

Our organization for correctly following an advertisement in the newspapers is perfect, and our patrons can be assured that correct work from every publisher will be exacted.

To any advertiser entitled to credit, or any one who will furnish us proper references, we will extend any reasonable line of credit. Publishers pay us a commission for all the business we send them, and any advertiser may be assured of obtaining through us lower prices than can be obtained from publishers direct. In no case do we charge advertisers any addition to publishers' rates.

Edwin Alden & Bro.,

N. W. Cor. 5th & Vine Sts., CINCINNATI.

140 Nassau Street, NEW YORK.

Newspaper Advertising Agents.

AGENTS WANTED for Twenty Years of Congress, 1861—1881, by James G. Blaine.

Hon. J. S. Wise of Va. says: "Whoever takes it up, no matter whether he be Mr. Blaine's friend or enemy, will never put it down until he has read the whole." Agents make from $200 to $1000 per month. Address, The Henry Bill Pub. Co., Norwich, Conn.

apr6-1y

"A DELICATE AND FRAGRANT LIQUID FOR PRESERVING, BEAUTIFYING AND RESTORING THE NATURAL COLOR."—It is the best preparation we have ever used. It does all that it claims to do. Its use imparts a pleasant and refreshing sensation to the skin. We recommend your Liquid Pearl to all ladies.

The LIQUID PEARL may be had of all druggists, and of the ladies of all cities and towns in the United States, and will be sent by express, paid by us, on receipt of price, $1.00 per bottle.

CHAMPLIN'S LIQUID PEARL.

end28-2

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low test short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co. 106 Wall Street, N. Y.

Sunday-School and Children.

SECOND QUARTER. STUDIES IN THE ACTS AND EPISTLES. Lesson X. A. D. 68. June 7. God's Message by his Son. Heb: 1, 1-8; 2, 1-4. Golden Text, Heb. 2, 3.

HOME READINGS.

M—God's message by His Son, Heb. 1, 1 8, 2, 1 4.

Tu—The Son above the angels, Heb. 1, 9-14.

W—The Son in Man's nature, Heb. 2, 5 18.

Th—The message to disciples, John 15, 1-27.

F—The heir killed, Matt. 21, 33-46.

S—The danger of neglect, Heb 12, 12-29.

S—The seat of the Son, Psa. 110, 1-7.

QUESTIONS FOR HOME STUDY.

1. The Divine Savior, v. 1-3.

How had God spoken unto the fathers?

Through whom did he afterward speak?

What was the Son appointed to be?

What had God made through him?

What is said of Jesus in verse 3?

To whom is Jesus declared to be superior?

How does the Apostle prove this?

What is the nature of his kingdom?

How is Christ divinely shown? verse 8.

2. The Great Salvation, v. 2, 1-4.

To what danger does the Apostle refer?

How is this danger to be avoided?

What is said of the word as spoken by angels?

What question does the Apostle now put?

By whom was this Gospel first preached?

How and by whom was it confirmed?

PRACTICAL TEACHINGS.

[illegible] this lesson teach—

1. The greatness of God's revelation?

2. The greatness of Man's Savior?

3. The greatness of man's responsibility?

Doctrinal Suggestion—The divinity of Christ.

Suggestions from Programme for Children's Day, June 14th, 1885.

GREAT EVENTS.

Sunday-school—What are the most important events in human history?

Teacher—Those connected with the introduction of Christ's Kingdom upon earth. The organization of the glorious and fruitful branch of the Christian Church is, in the thought of God, of more importance than the founding of an empire.

S. S.—What rendered the organization of our Church in the United States one hundred years ago an event of great importance?

Teacher—It was the timely introduction and adaptation of Christian work to a new country and a growing nation.

S. S.—What are some of the results that have grown out of it?

Teacher—More important of all, many thousands and probably millions of souls have been converted and prepared for Christian triumph. Is the most important being still?

S. S.—What is important in order that when Christians rest from their labors, their works may follow them.

S. S.—How can we profit by the good work of our fathers in the Church?

L.—By using the means and advantages which they provided as agencies of still greater usefulness in the new century upon which as a Church we this year enter.

S. S.—What is the greatest event in history of any individual?

L.—That in which he from the heart chooses Christ as his Savior and King.

S. S.—Is Children's Day a good time for such a choice?

L.—No time can be better. Indeed, the highest object of children's Day is to remind the young of the importance of becoming the children of God.

S. S.—How may this first Children's Day of our opening century become one of the greatest events in the moral history of the world?

L.—By all the children in our Sunday-schools making the wise resolve to devote themselves, soul and body, to the service of the King of kings and Lord of lords.

S. S.—Having made such a resolve, what next should we do?

L.—Devote yourselves to the highest improvement possible by cultivating the minds and talents God has given you.

S. S.—May we all expect to find fields in which to work for God and humanity?

L.—The world is the field. In many parts of it the harvest is ripe, and you are wanted as reapers—in other parts, you are wanted as seed-sowers.

S. S.—Should we all become faithful and skillful Christian workers, what might be expected during the next hundred years?

S.—Great and glorious progress of the Kingdom of God both in our own land and in other nations of the earth.

Important to Sunday-Schools.

Everything wanted for the use of Sunday-schools on Children's Day can be obtained in quantities to suit by writing to Rev. D. P. Kidder, 805 Broadway, New York; prices always low. J. B. McCullough, 1013 Arch street Philadelphia, Pa., or Phillips & Hunt, or Cranston & Stowe, New York or Cincinnati, can furnish "Hints and helps," programmes, and everything needed for Children's Day services. We should lose no time in corresponding with some of these parties on the subject, and make this the greatest Children's Day of the years. There ought to be a service on that day for that purpose in every church in the South. Fall in all along the line, and let not the other section be behind.

In the Dear Old Days.

We differ in creed and politics, but we are a unit all the same on the desirable ness of a fine head of hair. If you mourn the loss of this blessing and ornament, a bottle or two of Parker's Hair Balsam will make you look as you did in the dear old days. It is worth trying. The only standard 50c. article for the hair.

Marriages.

Mr. Jacob Thomas and Miss Nancy Hilt were married at the home of the bride, in Eola, La., April 30, 1885. Both are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

CHAS. MONROE.

Mr. Harry Brown and Miss Lucy Travers were married at the residence of the bride in Paris, Tenn., May 3, 1885.

R. PARMER.

Mr. William Pritchett and Miss Julia Askence were married at the M. E. Church in Paris, Tenn. The Rev. J. L. Massey was present and took part in the ceremony.

R. PARMER.

Mr. Daniel Scott, Jr., and Mrs. Zillia Powels were married at Engelside Hotel, March 4, 1885. Both are members of the M. E. Church at Musson, La.

C. A. TAYLOR.

Stranger Than Fiction

are the records of some of the cures of consumption effected by that most wonderful remedy—Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery." Thousands of grateful men and women, who have been snatched almost from the very jaws of death, can testify that consumption, in its early stages, is no longer incurable. The Discovery has no equal as a pectoral and alterative, and the most obstinate affections of the throat and lungs yield to its power. All druggists.

Obituary.

Mr. James Cula departed this life April 5, 1885. He was a native of Roanoke county, Va. He came to Louisiana since the war with A. P. Calhoun. He leaves a wife and six little children.

C. A. TAYLOR.

Musson, La.

Sister Snka Jones departed this life, in Paulding, Miss., March 30, 1885. She leaves a husband and several children.

R. H. PATTON.

Sermon Sketches.

W. D. GODMAN, D. D.

Theme—Holiness.

Text—1 Peter 1, 16: "Be ye holy for I am holy."

I.—What is the meaning of holy? (a) Consecrated, i. e. set apart to a religious use, Gen. 2, 3; Ex. 3, 5, 20, 8. (b) Clean, i. e. ritually clean, undefiled, Lev. 10, 10; 16, 15-19; Num. 9, 6-13. (c) Morally clean, without sin; 1 Sam. 2, 2; 2 Kings 4, 9; Ps. 22, 3; Is. 6, 3; 2 Cor. 7, 1.

II.—The duty of man to be holy. (a) Because God is holy. 1. This obligation implies that man is in the image of God. 2. All beings possessed of a moral nature are bound to one type of character. The highest of all is pattern for all. (b) There is no other ground for this obligation that is not resolvable into this one. This fulfilled covers all duties.

III.—Our holiness is our happiness, Ps. 97, 11-12. Holiness is likeness to God. God is supremely happy because He is infinitely holy. In proportion as we are holy we shall be like God, in the same proportion happy. We need concern ourselves only about holiness; the happiness will come without a care.

General Church News.

Of the 37,000 native population of Sierra Leone, Africa, 32,000 are professing Christians.

It is said that there is in Elberton, Ga, a congregation called the "Reformed Hard-shell Baptist Church." One of its tenets is that no female member shall wear any dress more costly than calico, nor any head-dress except a sun bonnet.

Many Hebrews have decided, for the purpose of giving the masses of their brethren a better opportunity to attend divine worship, to have Sunday services for those who never enter the synagogues on the Jewish Sabbath.

A circular has been generally distributed among the Hebrews of New York calling attention to the fact, that with a population of at least 60,000 Israelites in that city, the synagogues are deserted and the rabbis preach to empty benches.

A remarkable revival is reported at Greenwich, Ohio, where there have been over 200 hopeful cases of conversion. The meetings were held by the Friends, the Methodists, and the Congregationalists in union. The majority of the converts are adults, and a class of persons has been reached who had been almost given up. Many remarkable answers to prayer occurred, and the interest has spread to Ripley and other places in the vicinity. The meetings were conducted by Noah McLain, a colored man, who is sent out by the Society of Friends, assisted by Geo. Willis, a theological student.

From information furnished by the Census Bureau in relation to the Mormon Church, it appears that in 1850 there were sixteen church organizations and 10,880 sittings; in 1860, twenty-four organizations and 13,500 sittings; in 1870, 189 arganizations and 37,838 sittings; and in 1880, 267 organizations and 65,262 sittings. The actual membership of the Mormon Church according to the Census of 1880, was 79,886.

Pianos & Organs

Of all makes direct to customers from headquarters, at wholesale prices. All goods guaranteed. No money asked till Instruments are received and fully tested. Write us before purchasing. An investment of 2 cents may save you from $50.00 to $100.00. Address JESSE FRENCH, Nashville, Tenn., Wholesale Distributing Dep't for the South.

feb19-1y

Conference Notices.

Plan of Episcopal Visitation.—1885. Fall Conferences.

[ALPHABETICAL.]

CONFERENCE.	PLACE.	TIME.	BISHOP.
Alabama	Edwardsville, Ala.	Nov 26	Mallalieu
Arizona Miss.	Tucson, Arizona	Sept 17	Fowler
Austin	Denton, Texas	Dec. 10	Foster
Black Hills Miss.	Rapid City, Dak.	Aug. 20	Ninde
Blue Ridge	Gastonia, N. C.	Oct. 1	Mallalieu
Bulgaria Miss.	Rustchuk, Bul.	Oct. 1	——
California	Stockton, Cal.	Sept. 3	Fowler
C'l Alabama	Mobile, Ala.	Dec 10	Mallalieu
C'l China mis'n	Kiukiang, China	Oct. 14	——
C'l German	Columbus, Ohio	Sept 10	Harris
C'l Illinois	Fairbury, Ill.	Sept 24	Warren
C'l New York	Syracuse, N. Y.	Oct 8	Merrill
C'l Ohio	Fostoria, O.	Sept 17	Harris
C'l Tennessee	Tullahoma, Tenn.	Oct 15	Mallalieu
Chicago Germ'n	Manitowoc, Wis.	Sept 17	Bowman
Cincinnati	Cincinnati, O.	Sept 3	Harris
Colorado	Pueblo Col.	Aug 20	Andrews
Columbia River	Spok'e Falls	W. T. July 16.	Walden
Dakota miss'n.	Blunt Dak.	Oct 8	Foss
Des Moines	Des Moines, Ia.	Sept 17	Foss
Detroit	Pontiac, Mich.	Sept 10	Warren
East Ohio	Barnesville, O.	Sept 17	Foster
East Tennessee	Knoxville, Tenn.	Oct 22	Hurst
Erie	Sharon, Pa.	Sept 10	Merrill
Foochow	Foochow, China	Nov 19	——
Genesee	Lima, N Y.	Oct 1	Hurst
Georgia	Ellijay, Ga.	Nov 19	Mallalieu
Holston	Johns'n City, Tenn	Oct 15	Hurst
Idaho	Canyon City Oreg.	July 30	Walden
Illinois	Bushville, Ill.	Sept 17	Ninde
Indiana	Spencer, Ind.	Aug 27	Harris
Iowa	Mt. Pleasant, Ia.	Sept 1	Ninde
Japan	Tokio, Japan	Aug 20	——
Kentucky	Covington, Ky.	Oct 1	Harris
Michigan	Grand Rapids, Mich.	Sept 17	Warren
Minnesota	Rochester, Minn.	Oct 1	Andrews
Montana miss'n.	Dillon, Montana	July 1	Walden
Nebraska	Seward, Neb.	Sept 17	Andrews
Nevada miss'n	Bishop's Ck. Nev.	Aug 20	Fowler
New Mexico miss'n	Santa Fe, N. Mex.	Oct 1	Fowler
" Spanish	Peralta New Mex.	Sept 24	Fowler
N China mis'n.	Peking, China	Sept 24	——
N. Dakota "	Wahpeton, Dak.	Sept 17	Walden
N. Nebraska	Ponca, Neb.	Sept 3	Andrews
N. Ohio	Berea Ohio	Sept 3	Merrill
N-w German	LeSeur, Minn.	Sept 24	Andrews
N-w Indiana	Valparaiso, Ind.	Sept 3	Foss
N-w Iowa	Storm Lake, Ia.	Sept 24	Foss
N-w Swedish	Dayton, Ia.	Sept 3	Bowman
Norw'n a Danish	Cambridge, Wis.	Sept 10	Bowman
Ohio	Delaware, Ohio	Sept 24	Foster
Oregon	Roseburg, Oreg.	Aug 27	Walden
Pittsburgh	Allegheny City, Pa.	Sept 17	Merrill
Puget Sound	Tacoma, W. T.	Aug 13	Walden
Rock River	Elgin, Ill.	Oct 8	Fowler
St. Louis Germ.	St Louis, Mo.	Sept 10	Foss
Savannah	Savannah, Ga.	Dec 3	Mallalieu
S. E. Indiana	Brookville, Ind.	Sept 24	Harris
S. California	Santa Barbara, Cal	Sept 10	Fowler
S. German	San Antonio, Tex.	Nov 19	Foster
S. Illinois	Edwardsville, Ill.	Sept 24	Ninde
South India	Bombay India	Nov 19	——
Tennessee	Gallatin, Tenn.	Oct 22	Mallalieu
Texas	Houston, Tex.	Nov 26	Foster
Upper Iowa	Toledo, Ia.	Oct 1	Warren
Utah mission	Park City, Utah	July 2	Warren
West German	Claytonia, Neb.	Sept 3	Ninde
W. Neb. mis'n.	Kearney, Neb.	Sept 10	Andrews
West Texas	Austin, Tex	Dec 3	Foster
West Virginia	Charleston, W. Va.	Sept 24	Merrill
W. Wisconsin	Dodgeville, Wis.	Sept 24	Bowman
Wisconsin	Waukesha, Wis.	Oct 1	Bowman

By order of the Board of Bishops.

WM. L. HARRIS, Secretary.

St. Louis, Mo., May 18, 1885.

San Antonio District—West Texas District.

Third Round.

Pleasanton	June	13-14
San Antonio	"	20-21
Hondo and Fredericksburg	"	27-28
Seguin	July	2- 5
Lavernia and Mt. Pleasant	"	4- 5
Floresville & Riddleville (sup)	"	11-12
Corpus Christi	"	11-12
Goliad and Centreville	"	18 19
Victoria	"	25-26
Victoria circuit	"	25 26
Morales and Edna	"	28
Cuero and Mission Valley	Aug.	1- 2
Hallettsville	"	8- 9
Gonzales	"	15-16
Mt. Vernon	"	22-23
Belmont	"	29-30
San Marcos	Sept.	5 6

G. W. RICHARDSON, P. E.

Meridian District—Mississippi Conference.

Second Round.

Meridian	May	30 31
Meridian circuit	June	4
Enterprise	"	6- 7
Lauderdale	"	11
Shubuta circuit	"	13-14
Shubuta	"	13
Deer Brook	"	16
Waynesboro and State Line	"	18
Quitman and DeSoto	"	20 21
Enterprise circuit	"	27 28
Exprairie	"	27-28
Garlandsville	July	4- 5
Macon	"	7
Masbulaville	"	9
DeKalb	"	11-12
Philadelphia	"	14
Daleville	"	11-12
Paulding	"	13
Hiedelberg	"	18-19
Shuqualak

J. CAMPBELL, P. E.

May 27, 1885.

Notice.

The Palestine District Conference, of the Texas Annual Conference, will convene at Palestine, on July 8, 1885. The following is the programme:

To preach the opening sermon—R. Williams.

To preach the missionary sermon—Samuel Johnson.

Preaching demanded for the times—Wm. Allen.

Duty of local preachers—R. K. Whiting.

Centennial Sermon—Tenola Edwards.

Best mode of conducting Snuday-schools—C. C. Minnegan.

G. W. SMITH,
WM. ALLEN,
C. C. MINNEGAN,
Committee on Programme.

Navasota District—Texas Conference.

Third Round.

San Felipe	June	3- 4
Patterson	"	6- 7
Hempstead	"	13-14
Courtney	"	20-21
Plantersville	"	20-21
Franklin	"	20 21
Hearn	"	24-25
Bryan	"	27-28
Bryan circuit	July	1- 2
Burleson	"	1- 2
Caldwell	"	4- 5
Millican	"	4- 5
Navasota	"	11-12
Anderson	"	18-19
Prairie Plains	"	25-26
Brenham	Aug.	1- 2
Brenham circuit	"	5- 6
Bellville	"	8- 9
Iola	"	1- 2

W. B. PULLAM, P. E.

Shreveport District—Louisiana Conference.

Second Round.

Cane River	May	20
Cotile circuit	"	24
Robelene	"	25
Marthaville	"	27
Pleasant Hill	"	29
Natchitoches and Campte	"	30-31
Grand Cane	June	4
Mansfield	"	6- 7
Bastrop	"	13-14
Monroe	"	18
Onachita City	"	20
Fairfield	"	24
St. James, Shreveport	"	25
Scott circuit	"	28
St. Paul, Shreveport	Jnly	1- 2
Dixon's Cross Roads	"	4- 5

Notice to pastors and places not above mentioned will be given later. As a guide the brethren will do well to cut out this notice and keep it in sight.

Dear Brethren—I beg again to invite your serious attention to the importance of pushing our benevolent collections, and to do so cannot find words more appropriate than those contained in the circular issued March 1, 1885

PIERRE LANDRY, P. E.

The Report of the Missionary Society.

In the last number of the Missionary Review, after giving the statistical tables summarizing the "home strength" and "foreign force and results," Dr. Wilder makes the following observations upon the mission work of our Church, so just, and showing such a comprehension of the subject that we give them entire:

"Most of the figures above, under 'Home Strength,' show healthy growth, though we are sorry to see the smaller income disbursed to foreign missions and also the larger debt. The contributions in the missions too, for various objects, have fallen off the past year, though the present $184,990.72 almost half as much as the whole amount of home funds disbursed to foreign missions is surely very creditable, and shows vigorous efforts toward self support. The year's gain in the numbers of workers in the missions has been small, only three in all, except in case of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society's native workers, and the ordained natives—the number of these has increased by 52 and 34, respectively. The total gain in numbers is 3,246 as contrasted with 2,101 in 1883, showing a large blessing on the work. The net gain in North India alone the past year, (even omitting probationers, many of whom are communicants) has been 417, or 20 per cent., while our own Presbyterian missions along side of the M. E. Missions incurred a net loss of 129, although manned with much the larger force of workers, and expending more than twice the amount of home funds used by the M. E. North India Missions. * * * There has been a net gain of 1,947 native scholars, and, in condensing the fuller table of the annual report, we omitted 1,019 scholars in the high schools, 85 theological students and 642 orphans, which included make the net gain in scholars 3,693. In the work of Sabbath-schools we know of no foreign missions the world over that have had such success in gathering native children into them for Christian instruction. The special characteristics of these schools is that they gather thousands of heathen children and many heathen parents, as well as the children of Christian parents. * * * Of progress in the direction of self support, besides the amount given, as shown in the table, take this example, 'Bro. Andrias, at the beginning of this year, voluntarily gave up his salary. Dressed in the garb of a religious devotee he continued to itinerate, preaching Christ crucified, trusting wholly to his country men for his support. (Here follows the stirring account of this good brother found in the pages of the report). * * This report abounds in similar evidence of the mighty power of God's truth to overcome the prejudices and enlist the hearts of the brethren. Those who fail to read and rejoice in such reports show that their own hearts feel little sympathy with God's work in human redemption."

The Evening Chronicle

Is the cheapest daily in New Orleans, and has a fair and growing circulation. A series of illustrated matter was recently started. A continued story commenced with last Friday's issue. Price, one year, $6; six months, $3; one month, 50 cents; single copies, 5 cents. Address, M. Sagendorph, 23 Bank Place, New Orleans, La.

CHRISTIAN

MEN and WOMEN Wanted are AS AGENTS

For the New and Best-selling Edition of the JAMIESON, FAUSSET & BROWN BIBLE COMTENTARY.

4 vols, nearly 4,000 pp Maps and Illustrations. In cloth, $8; half morocco, $10 per set.

Best terms and exclusive territory. Permanent employment given after a satisfactory trial.

Jerome B. Names & Co.,
154 St. Clair street, Toledo, Ohio.

The work is heartily recommended.

mar5-39t

NEW ORLEANS MARKET

SOUTHWESTERN OFFICE,
May 16, 1885.

LEADING STAPLES.

Readers will remember that the quotations given are for round lots, and higher prices must be paid for small orders.

COTTON, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 8 15-16; Middling 10 7-16; Good Middling, 10 11-16; Middling fair, 11.

SUGAR, ℔ lb—Yellow olarified, 5¼@5½; White olarified, 5¼@5½; Common 4¼@5c.

MOLASSES, in bbls, ℔ gallon—Common, 17@22; fair, 23@25; choice, 41@43c.

RICE, Louisiana, ℔ lb—Common, 4¼@4½ fair, 5¼@5½; choice, 5¾@6.

MOSS, ℔ lb—Mixed, 2@2½; gray, 1@2; black, 3@4½.

GROCERIES.

BUTTER, ℔ lb—Western, 18@25.

COFFEE, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 7½; prime, 9½.

CHEESE, ℔ lb—Western factory 4@8.

CORN MEAL, ℔ bbl—Choice, $2.75.

FLOUR, ℔ bbl.—Fancy, 5.40; Choice, 5.15; Family, $5@——.

LARD, ℔ lb—Choice, 7½.

SALT, ℔ Sack—Coarse, 82½c.; Fine, 10½c.

ESCULENTS—Irish potatoes, ℔ bbl., $2.95@4.00; sweet potatoes, $2.25@$3 ℔ bbl. onions, ℔ bbl. $2.25@2.75; apples, ℔ bbl. $3.00@$4.00; cabbages, $3.50@$3.75 per crate; sour krout, $4.50@7 50 per barrel.

OILS, ℔ gallon—Coal, in cases, 17@—; coal, in bbl. 12@—; linseed, raw, 55@ boiled, 58@—; cotton seed, 32@40.

PROVISIONS.

MESS PORK, ℔ bbl.—Choice, $12.12½.

BACON, ℔ lb—Breakfast, 10; shoulders, 4½@4¾; sides, short rib, 6½; sides, long clear, 6½; hams, sugar-cured, 9½@10½c.

DRY SALT MEAT, ℔ lb—Clear rib sides, 6; clear sides, 6; shoulders, 4.3@4½.

POULTRY AND EGGS.

Louisiana Poultry—Grown chickens 3.50@4.00; young $2,00@$2.50; ducks, $2.00@2.50; geese $4.@$4 50; turkeys $12.@15.

Western Eggs 11@12c per dozen

Louisiana Eggs 12@12½c per dozen.

Feathers—Best live geese feathers 50@75c. ℔ lb. second grades 15@25c.

Western Poultry—Grown chickens $4.50@$5.00 ℔ dozen; young do. $3.25@3.75; ducks $3.50@4.00—; geese $4.00@$5 00, turkeys $15.00@18.00.

GRAIN AND FEED.

CORN, in sacks, ℔ bushel—Yellow, 68; white, 68; mixed, 64.

OATS, ℔ bushel—Western, 48@—.

BRAN, ℔ 100 lbs—Choice, 85.

Hunt's [Kidney and Liver] Remedy has been used over thirty years, and saved thousands from lingering disease and death.

Nashville Tenn., Seed Market.

[Seed quotations for each issue furnished by Messrs. Geo. W. Stockett & Co., Seed Merchants, of Nashville, Tennessee, to whom address communications.]

	per bushel
Red Clover seed	$5 55
Sapling Clover seed	6 00
Red Top or Herds Grass	55
Timothy seed	1 80
Orchard Grass seed	1 70
Blue Grass seed, clean	1 00
" " extra clean	1 25
Tennessee raised German Millet	1 25
Hungarian	1 10
	per pound
White Clover seed	25
Lucerne or Alfalfa Clover seed	25
Alsyke Clover seed	25
Tall Meadow Oat Grass	25
Medow Fescue	25

Rescue Grass, Italian Rye Grass, and English Rye Grass quoted on application. Sacks are extra.

EVERYTHING that is purifying, beautifying and curative for the Skin, Scalp and blood the Cuticura Remedy will do. Nothing in medicine so agreeable, so speedy, and so wholesome. Guaranteed absolutely pure by the analytical chemists of the State of Massachusetts, whose certificates accompany every package. For cleansing the Skin and Scalp of Birth Humors, for allaying itching, burning and inflammation, for curing the first symptoms of Eczema, Psoriasis, Milk Crust, Scald head, Scrofula, and other inherited skin and blood diseases, Cuticura, the great Skin Cure, and Cuticura Soap, an exquisite Skin Beautifier, externally, and Cuticura Resolvent, the new Blood Purifier, internally, are infallible. Sold everywhere. Price, Cuticura, 50c.; Soap, 25c.; Resolvent, $1. POTTER DRUG & CHEMICAL CO. Boston. ☞ Send for "How to Cure Skin Diseases,"

LACTART

ACID OF MILK.

ENDORSED BY THE HIGHEST MEDICAL AUTHORITY.

Healthful and Delicious Beverage and Tonic for Family Use.

Superior to Lime Juice or Lemons.

A Remedy for Dyspepsia and Ills arising from a Disordered Stomach.

Specially recommended as a preventative and relief for Cholera, Sunstroke, Fevers, and valuable in Urinary difficulties.

A Specific for Sea-sickness.

Sold by Druggists.

Avery Lactate Co.,
BOSTON, MASS. apr30-3m

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 20---NO 24. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, JUNE 11, 1885 WHOLE NUMBER 813

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

37 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor

[illegible] per Year, Cash in Advance; [illegible] Months, $1.00; Three Months, 50c.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter, Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

Communications of a business nature must be addressed to the editor.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Line, Agate Type, each insertion.)

[illegible] 8 cents,
[illegible] 7 "
[illegible] 6 "
[illegible] 5 "
One year, [illegible] 4 "
Marriage Notices, 25 "
Special Notices, 8 cents; not less

Editorial Notes.

Always with us, always with us;—
Words of cheer and words of love;
Thus the risen Saviour whispers,
From His dwelling place above.
With us when we toil in sadness,
Sowing much, and reaping none;
Telling us that in the future
Golden harvests shall be won.

With us when the storm is sweeping
O'er our pathway dark and drear;
Waking hope within our bosoms,
Stilling every anxious fear.
With us in the lonely valley,
When we cross the chilling stream;
Lighting up the steps to glory
With salvation's radiant beam.

"That will only be enduring which is done for the soul!"—The Lighthouse.

The Century Company has our thanks for an excellent map and portrait of General Gordon.

Article from Friendship circuit could not be printed because no name was signed to it. Write again and sign it.

Gov. McEnery commuted the sentence of John Baptiste, colored, from hanging to imprisonment for life.

It doesn't require any talent or genius to abuse or insult a man, but it does to give him credit for what he is actually worth.—May Century.

Rev. Benjamin Ward of Lexington Conference, stationed at Hartford, Ky., was married to Miss U. B. Irving, of Bowling Green, May 14, 1885. [illegible] a lady of many fine [illegible]. We wish the happy [illegible] honeymoon.

[illegible] son wrote a [illegible] pastor and [illegible] all mis- [illegible]. That [illegible] We [illegible]

[illegible] pastor at [illegible], wants it [illegible] church stands ready [illegible] and settle all [illegible]. Creditors are requested to correspond with him at that place at once.

If Miss Nellie Watson, sometime teacher at Baton Rouge, afterward Nellie Loyal and Nellie Whitney, a member of Annex Methodist Episcopal Church, New Orleans is alive, and will call upon the editor of this paper in person she can hear something to her interest.

We have learned with pleasure that Straight Congregational University has honored itself and us, and done a graceful thing by conferring the degree of Doctor of Divinity on the Rev. Aristides B. [illegible] of the Louisiana Conference.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

How They Like Our Southern Writers in the Old Bay State.

REV. G. G. VREELAND.

I have been taking and reading your valuable paper for more than a year, if I am not mistaken, and the more I read it the more I desire to continue doing so. I have been especially interested in Drs. Boyd and Newman's letters. Dr. Boyd's letters, "Needs of the Negro," has the right ring in them, and most especially his letter in No. 20, of May 21st; and they should take heed to it, for I think that there is nothing in all this nation that has cast so blighting and withering a curse upon the Negro as the love of strong drink. I hope that he will give us a letter upon policy playing, and lottery with its evil tendencies toward degrading the Negro. Dr. Newman writes strongly of Wendell Phillips, whose name we cherish in fond remembrance, because he stood up so boldly for our freedom, and after that object was accomplished, did not cease to press the claims of the poor, down-trodden Negro before the humanitarians of this age; and though he has gone to meet the fathers and patriots that have laid down their heavy cross for an immortal crown, his life history still speaks in thunder tones, appealing to the hearts of over forty millions of the more highly favored people of America, as well as the millions of other nations, for justice to the American Negro. Dr. Newman's letters on the "Progress of Civilization," shows how deeply he has probed into the history of the nations of the earth; his researches doubtless being assisted by natural observations on a large scale. I have determined to keep the SOUTHWESTERN and preserve it in book form by binding them together, for future as well as present use. May God bless these noble men of our race. Let every Negro that takes the SOUTHWESTERN preserve the paper for the sake of having the work of these heroic specimens of our race.

Dr. Taylor said to me when I sat with him in the pulpit of Scott's M. E. Church in Camden, N. J., on the day of its dedication, "Bro. Vreeland your are not a colored man, and you show that you are not ashamed of being stained with their blood." God forbid that I should deny my affinity with the race, were I as white as snow.

I wish now to state that I am in Fall River, Mass., in charge of a mission in the A. M. E. connection, and in ten days I go to conference. I have suffered much this year, but I do not complain, for the Lord doeth all things well. I know not what the good Lord and the conference may have in store for me, but let my let be cast where it will or may I shall always be conscious of having done my duty toward God and my fellow man.

Our Work.

REV. I. H. WHITE.

Another year has passed, leaving our work still undone. Thankful I am that we are left to work, and are still at work, though we cannot perceive that the work is any nearer accomplished. Some may think that we are to finish the work, or do all or pay all off and be done, but as we understand it, we are not to do all, but to do better, for which there is room. We cannot do all the work; but we can do all of our own only by working until we are called from labor to reward to them who, by patience, continue in well doing. We have served ten months of our conference year; all are yet alive, God be praised; the pastors report better health than they did this time last year; charges have had revivals with favorable results. There is nothing special going on, save that of a new church begun at Port Deposit. All of the charges of the Philadelphia district are improving financially, Yon are well aware by this time that two charges of this district have been transferred, viz: St. John, of Newark, N. J., and Haven, of New Haven, Conn., the former by request of the official board, the latter by the request of the pastor only; or one the place and not the pastor; the other, the pastor, and not the place. When considering the bounds and material of the Delaware Conference, I am at a loss to say where these charges are transferred to. Now we have nineteen charges left on the district, thirteen of which are financially embarrassed, ten are missions. Glad to say we have no long standing debts; but all upon new work dating back not more than five years.

MINISTERIAL SUPPORT.

Our supports though increased to what it has been are too short to enable such supplies as the church needs. Our benevolent, our mission fund ought to be not less than $2,000; three-fourths of which is actually needed at home. Our Conference Board of Church Extension ought to have not less than $1,000 commandable, with which to establish mission work in the much needed upper and lower end of our conference. See here a moment! We have of members and probationers in our conference over 15,000. Fifty cents per year from each would give for Missions $2,000; Church Extension, $1,000; Freedmen's Aid, $1,000; Education, $1,000; Sustentation, $1,000; Conference Claimants, $1,000; Woman's Foreign Mission, $200; Sunday-school Union, $100; Tracts, $100; Bible, $100.

All of which for spreading the glory of God and the salvation of men. To do this will be right, and right will not be done until this is done. But there are so many other things to do, you might say. Well that is so. Now, let us see, there are, besides these benevolences, the pastors support, bishops, presiding elders, house rent, traveling and moving expenses, churches to build and improve, etc, the poor in our own midst to look after. All of this is true, though some of these causes will be assisted in the above collections, But suppose all these supports to otherwise provide for, that is to say, the above collection does not help them, then $4.50 per year, being 2-100 part of a poor man's earnings at 75 cents per day, will pay the above apportionments, and an increased ministerial support, buy, build and improve more churches and parsonages, and pay more debts than has been done in any one year in the history of our conference. I know we have many members who pay and give more than $4 for the support of the Gospel, and 50 cents for the various benevolent enterprises of the church; these ought to give more. Many gives less; the Lord knows they can and ought to give more.

Now dear reader, go to work for God, with a new zeal; never fear of being forced to do more than you can. What can't be done, is never done. See this "that you have the man, the time, the health and a work to do. You are responsible to God for what you do with yourself, your time, health and employment. If you can do no practicable work for God at present, the cause was in the past; it may be that you have exposed your body and thereby lost your health, or that you have been idle when you might have been employed, or spent your means and time in traveling without a call where it was not necessary to go, and for such frivolous and wickedness as smoking and chewing tobacco, or drinking ardent spirits; examine yourself in the presence of the All-wise, if you find any of the above to be true in your case, a speedy repentance is necessary to redeem the time. If the stewards will perform their full duty and send the name, address, age and condition of any person that cannot raise by any means five dollars a year for religious causes, we will forward all such persons a letter of condolence suitable to their causes. But in speaking of embarrassed churches here is $18,000 more than our people can carry at their best, most of this debt is in Philadelphia, a small portion in Delaware and New Jersey. Our people from the South are populating places in these States where they have neither homes nor places to worship; if any one will send us one dollar or more for this purpose, we will send them a certificate, with name of church and place they help to build. New Jersey will help one thousand, Philadelphia will help some no doubt, in Delaware and Maryland our people help each other, as they are all needy. I mean white and colored.

1048 Arch street, Phila., Pa.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Church Festivals.

REV. D. JONES.

It is much to be regretted that the festivals in our churches are still continued to the certain detriment of the religious work of the church. The question is one that admits no argument to establish the fact that they are a source of great injury to the spiritual progress of the work the Master has given the ministers to do.

The faithful pastor labors day after day for weeks and perhaps for months to bring the faith of his church up to the point where the baptism of the Holy Spirit will be received to aid him and his church and awaken the ungodly. Weeks and months are oftimes spent in rescuing sinners from their perilous position. Refreshing showers come down upon the work, the hearts of the true, faithful followers of Christ are warmed up and again encouraged as they behold once more the progress of the work of salvation. God has once more honored the faith of his children and the handshakings, the hallelujahs, the shouts of the victorious army once more ascend to the author of man's salvation. But Lo, here comes Satan also, he has beheld the conflict, watched the slaughter, listened to the shouts of victory. His time is now come and he must neutralize the effect of this glorious work. What shall he do? Why he proposes to the church a little recreation after the arduous battle, tells the church the strain has been great on her for weeks and a little reunion in a festival will give a little period of relaxation and necessary rest, meet old friends and acquaintances and replenish the treasury of the church. Then under his first lieutenant—the festival—begins revival No. 2. The church indulges, the young combats look on and see many questionable acts done by the old veterans of the cross, who have stood up in their classes and declared they had taken nothing for their journey, determined to take soldiers fare, had passed the turning off place, and yet he or she romps and plays and cracks the musty joke, tells the questionable story, oftimes carricature the scriptures for the purpose of adding on a little more steam and to make a point. Young converts now are looking on they want to learn from the more experienced of the church how to conduct themselves in their new relationship, they are now catching the reflex influence of the supposed to be model members of the church. They are now taking their rudimentary lessons and are being mistaught for they are led to believe that if they give to God they must have an equivalent in a saucer of ice cream or sherbet or a dish of palatable or unpalatable food as the case may be, or a chance at a grab bag. The young girl taking her first lesson in the church learns to beg some man who likes to be begged for a treat by some nice looking young girl; the libertine, the plotter against virtue, the destroyer of once happy homes has a good field here for work. Here he can be hatched and matured and fostered. The young convert is catching the degrading thought from the church that the highest object in the work is to get money for the church.

The church discipline condemns balls, dancing parties and circuses, because of the indiscriminate mixing of the several classes together, and the debasing influence exerted upon the morals of the youth of our land, and yet in these questionable gatherings of church festivals we become parties oftimes to the spreading of this venomous outgrowth that poisons society at its roots and brings misery and pain to homes and hearts wherever encouraged, takes the spiritual power out of our churches and makes us the laughing stock of the world. What is the remedy? Pay the preacher a better salary by making greater and more ready sacrifice of the means God has vouchsafed us. It is more blessed to give than to receive, where does the blessing come in if we wait to receive an equivalent for what we give to God. Why wait for the cake and cream and the solicitations of a nice young girl for a treat. Why not put the hand directly in the pocket and give to God and get the blessing. Make it a prayerful duty to give to the cause of Christ, because you love it and the solid progress of the human race. Lay your money directly in the lap of the church and by so doing you help to throttle crime, take away many opportunities for wrong doing from the wrong doers and designing and help the true aim of the gospel of Christ.

The pastor oftimes becomes an unwilling agent in this work simply because the officials are in a financial strait. Something has been arranged and if he is not present it is taken as an evidence of hostility on his part or a lack of confidence in the judgment of those who originated the festival. In our work in many sections it is almost an impossibility for many ministers of the gospel to properly prosecute their work, because simply their minds are distracted by thought of the needs of the family, oftimes unfitted for study and preparation by having their thoughts charged with secular things to the exclusion of spiritual and by such means does he not only suffer, but the church suffers likewise, he is called away from his Bible to assist in some place or subterfuge to make a little money to live on. His ministerial dignity is lowered, his self-respect jeopardized, his manliness put in the balances and he becomes in a large measure spiritless in the battle and renders but a half-hearted service to the church, when he ought to be full of godly zeal, unflinching courage and resistless power.

Winchester, Ky.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Excursions and Their Evils.

REV. A. W. MCKINNEY.

Now that the time of year has come for excursion train rides, we wish to call attention to a few evils usually connected with them.

1st. They are an immense drainage on the purses of our people. They take hundreds and thousands of dollars from the pockets of poor families and pay it into the hands of rich railroad corporations.

Many of the people who thus spend their money in summer suffer for want of fuel and clothes in winter. And besides this direct outlay, they excite the thoughtless ones and draw many from their farms when, were they to consider their interest, they can least afford it.

2d. They are often run for personal and individual benefit and not for the public good.

3rd. The crowd who patronize them are made up without any reference to character or moral standing. Students, Sunday School children, church members, drunkards and gamblers are all jammed and packed in together. And the purest of our girls and women drink in the ribald song and behold the obscene actions of the baser sort.

4th. It creates in the minds of the young a pleasure seeking disposition which will, if allowed to go on, blight and totally ruin the financial success of the rising generation.

5th. They are often run on the Sabbath day and in the name of religion. Thus profaning the day of the Lord and making the people more vile.

6th. To appeal thus to the passions of people in order to build a church or liquidate church debts, is to feed those passions which the church was designed to crucify, and the church that does it is building that which it must afterward pull down, or prove recreant to its great trust. More than this, it is selling precious souls for brick and mortar, plank and boards, and they who do it may well imagine that the brick, mortar, plank and boards are all stained with blood.

Huntsville, Ala.

In the last four years the available receipts of the American Bible Society have fallen short of the expenditures by $255,097.99, says the Record.

The Presbyterians want a $5,000 boat for missionary work in Africa.

From the Districts.

New Orleans District.

L. P. CUSHMAN, P. E.

The Shady Grove and Franklinton circuits, two appointments on the New Orleans District, Louisiana Conference, are located in Washington parish, La., about one hundred miles from New Orleans. April 2 I left my home to make my regular quarterly visits to these appointments. A ride of over seventy miles on the cars brought me to Poplarville, where I was met by Rev. L. Coutrly, preacher in charge of [illegible] Circuit, who had come with a horse and mule to carry me to his charge. The mule being much larger than the horse, and I being larger than Bro. Coutrly, it seemed proper that I should ride the mule. Which proved to be a wise selection through [illegible] is Live Oak, one of the appointments on [illegible] Circuit. In the midst of furious wind and a driving storm we reached the home of Bro. Isaac Lewis, whose guest I was to be during the meeting. We have on this circuit 107 members and 54 on probation, four Sunday schools with 204 scholars enrolled, but most of our people are poor and are not able to give their pastor an adequate support. The report of the stewards showed that they had paid him ninety five cents in money and $4.65 in provisions, and yet we heard no word of complaint from this man of God. Gladly does he give himself to the work of the Lord. We need on this circuit two new churches. With these Methodism will get a better grip and a stronger purchase on the masses. The quarterly meeting was a season of special religious interest to the people. At the close of the sermon Saturday night over twenty young men and women were forward at the mourners bench seeking the pardon of their sins. The Gospel purges men of their sins and fits them for noble use and lofty destinies. God saves the sinner, but he cannot save the sin. The wicked must forsake his sin. The sin must be destroyed. How many of these mourners gave up [illegible] I am not prepared to say. From Shady Grove to Hayes Chapel, the nearest point on Franklin [illegible] is twenty four miles through a pine forest, with no road, but numerous footpaths leading in all directions. I was not acquainted with the route, and did not think it safe to undertake the journey [illegible]. The horses and mules were either too poor for use or were at work in the field, and I must walk, but I could not go without a guide. In this emergency two elect women, Sisters Washington and Moses, who were familiar with the route, volunteered to go along with me. So, taking a stick and putting it through the handle of my valise, one of the Sisters had hold of one end and I the other, and we journeyed on [illegible] how many creeks and bayous we forded I am not able to say, but we kept pressing on, frequently singing—

"Let us cheer the weary traveller [illegible] heavenly road."

At 8 o'clock in the evening we reached the home of James [illegible], whose guest I was to be. After dinner and a little rest, we [illegible] Rev. Greg for Hayes [illegible] This we found to be a [illegible] for cabin. At one end of [illegible] there was a huge fire-place in which there was a blazing fire made of pitch pine, by means of which the Chapel was lighted. After a short rest in front of the fire-place I stood a structure called a [illegible] between this and the fire I [illegible] to stand, but the "fire [illegible] was [illegible] for preaching, and made a change [illegible] necessary. For three [illegible] we held service in this [illegible] and the Lord gave us [illegible] his presence at each service. Sabbath was a clear bright [illegible] and we held in the [illegible] the congregation was [illegible] Collection for [illegible] $1.15.

Franklinton village, the other point of this circuit, is apout 12 miles from Hayes Chapel. Some of the members of the M. E. Church South had expressed a desire to have us hold our meeting in their place of worship, and Bro. Gray had accepted their invitation, and the appointment had been given out, so we hastened to reach this place, where we had a good and attentive congregation, and a pleasant home with a Mr. Wood, a member of the M. E. Church South. Bro. Gray is doing good pioneer work on this circuit. When he went upon it he found nine members and one Sunday-school. He now reports over twenty members and two flourishing schools. Two good sites have been secured upon which to erect churches. One consists of three acres, and is the gift of Mr. Richard Rehes a member of the Baptist Church; the other, the gift of W. N. Babington, Esq., a member of the M. E. Church South. Franklinton is 22 miles from Tangipahoa, the nearest depot on the line of the railroad going to New Orleans, and no teams could be procured. There was but one of two things for us to do—to remain at Franklinton or walk to Tangipahoa; we preferred to walk, and reached the depot in time for the evening train.

"O, blessed work for Jesus,"
O, rest at Jesus' feet;
There toil seems pleasure,
My wants are treasure.
And pain for him is sweet.
Lorn, if I may,
I'll serve another day.

Letters from the Pastors.

B. H. S. Ferguson, of Pontotoc, Miss., writes: "My work is still alive and doing well. We have here a nice people, and they seem to love their pastor, which is manifested by their benevolent acts. Every appointment is filled, and the congregations are large and attentive. The Sunday-schools are now larger than ever before, so we are told. The Holy Spirit is often manifested in our midst, so much as to cause sinners to be converted during our preaching. We have received since the quarterly conference, which was held about a month ago, 15 in full membership and one convert. Pray for our further success, brethren, that God may continue with us.

Rev. J. C. W. Pain, of Holly Springs, Miss., writes: "I entered my work Feb. 13th and found everything very pleasant. There is only one church on the circuit, but we are preparing to build another. The first quarter was April 18 19. Rev. J. C. Eckles, presiding elder, was with us Saturday and Sunday. We had a pleasant time on Saturday and also on Sunday. The elder preached to a large congregation, and then administered the Lord's supper to seventy-five communicants. Collected for presiding elder, $7.50, and pastor, $18.55; total $26.05. Our church was not large enough. We have made it larger, and bought a bell for it. I am doing all I can to build up our work here. I have only collected $2.45 for the SOUTHWESTERN this month. I will try and do all I can by the first of June to collect all the money for my subscription, so as to pay it all up."

Rev. James Browley, of Flatonia, Texas, writes: "I can say for the work that it is now in a growing condition, though at the first of the year everything looked gloomy, but now the cloud is passing off, and we can see a little sunshine. At Schulenburg we have not had any conversions, but two or three have joined, and on my next visit there I have some to take in and baptize. At Mount Henson we have about twelve members. I have visited there regularly, but have not had any one converted; however, the church is alive. I am living at Flatonia, where our church is on the up grade. I started a protracted meeting here on the first of May, and up to date had nine conversions (all men, and some of the worst in town) and the good work still goes on. Our second quarterly conference convened here on the 9th and 10th of this month. Our presiding elder was with us and we had a conference that will not soon be forgotten. We baptized 2 adults and 6 infants. Pray for us."

Rev. C. L. Seward, of Murfreesboro, Tenn., writes: "On the 31st of March, at 9 p. m., quite a storm took place at my residence. After I had spent the last day of March visiting the sick and many others, I saw from the faces of many I met that day that there was something going to take place. I called at the church where many of the sisters and brothers were making some repairs on the altar. I saw, in the faces of the people that something was to take place. At 7 p. m., after I had lain down to take a rest, I heard the tramp of some one, and all at once singing broke out at the door. The ladies of the choir repeated, "O the stars of the elements are falling the moon is going to turn to blood, the ransomed of the Lord are returning home to God; blessed be the name of the Lord. Then the leader—he chose me for a watchman to blow the trump of God—said, "Blessed be the man of the Lord," etc., and then they rapped on the door. I arose and dressed and unlocked the door, and the visitors came walking in. To my great surprise a crowd of finely dressed ladies and gentlemen, marching two and two, took possession of my house, proceeded to the dining room, uncovered the table, put everything into shape and dressed the table to suit their own pleasure with cakes, sacks of coffee, bundles of sugar, cans of fruits, soap, mackerel, fish, matches, preserves and loaves of many kinds. This went on until the table was crowded with the very best. All this time myself and wife were in the sitting-room. Two ladies came in, locked our arms and escorted us to the table. Then the chairman presented the feast to us, after which Rev. T. D. L. Ledbetter, of the A. M. E. Church, sanctified the feast by calling the blessings of the Great Head of all feasts to make that table one of joy and peace to me and family. Then the leader of the choir marched around the table and sang, and then they left us in possession of what they had brought us. The whole crowd gathered in the sitting room, and a few songs were sung. I went in among them to see who was there, and found it mixed up of members of the First Baptist Church, the Second Baptist Church, the A. M. E. Church, and my own Church, about 37 in number. You may be sure I will be glad to see them again. I would have been glad to have had Rev. A. N. Jackson, of Gadsden, Ala., with me, as he is one of the kind that loves sweet things."

Rev. Peter Morgan, Galveston, Texas, writes: "I want to let you know how we are getting along in the Island City. Rev. F. C. Moore held his second quarterly conference in West Tabernacle on the 29th of March. The presiding elder preached a sermon in the afternoon full of the Holy Ghost, after which the sacrament was administered to 270. Collections $21. We had already commenced the protracted meeting, and you must know that things were warm. The presiding elder left us on Wednesday with 32 converts. In 8 or 10 days afterward came Bishop Mallalieu and Dr. Gillett, and these noble heroes broke into the hearts of many a soul in this city. That key which they had to unlock even sinners' hearts, was the word of faith which they preached, and their lovely visit was just what we have been needing in the South for the longest time. May God bless them and keep them. The people wish the earliest return of Bishop Mallalieu and Dr. Gillett to the city of Galveston, for they have left a long perfume here. We had 99 souls saved, the Bishop tried to make me out one hundred, but lacked one. He brought me from 94 to 99 with just one sermon. We had a joyful and happy time with Bishop Mallalieu, Dr. A. H. Gillett, Rev. F. C. Moore, presiding elder, Prof. C. W. Campbell, of Honston Seminary, Rev. R. R. Roberts, of St. Paul's, Galveston. We closed the protracted meeting at Tabernacle the last Sunday night in April. During the meeting many a hard hearted sinner was saved. The total number of accessions were as follows: Souls converted, adults, 137; children, 28; reclaimed, 21; Baptist people taken, 13; making a grand total of 199. All were baptized in the church except 38 or 40 who were immersed. So you see that we are not asleep in this city, for the Lord is with us. Being thus favored we closed in favor of St. Paul, whose pas or helped us much. Bro. R. R. Roberts is doing grandly with his revival, and Bro. McIntyre is moving on finely. And now, Mr. Editor, you will see from the back of this letter that I am on my way to Mississippi for the purpose of getting my oldest sister, who was sold twelve years before I was born. She is now residing at Love's Station, Miss. I expect, if the Lord wills, to be back at my post in fifteen days from date of this letter."

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Intellect of Negroes.

BASIL WASHINGTON.

The opinion that Negroes are naturally inferior in intellect is almost universal among white men, but the belief that they are worse than any other people is, I believe, much less extensive. Indeed, I have heard some, who were by no means admirers of the colored race, maintain that they were very remarkable for kind feelings and strong affections. Homer calls the ancient Ethiopians "the most honest of men," and modern travelers have given innumerable instances of domestic tenderness in the interior of Africa. As a class I am aware that the Negroes, with many honorable exceptions, are ignorant. The fault was in their unnatural situation, not in themselves. Tyranny always dwarfs the intellect. Homer tells us that when Jupiter condemns a man to slavery he takes from him half his merit. The nature of the colored man was debased, first by making him a slave and then very coolly telling him that he must remain a slave because he does not know how to use freedom. We first crush people to the earth, and then claim the right of trampling on them forever because they are prostrate. If we are willing to see and believe, we have full opportunity to convince ourselves that we are highly susceptible of cultivation. St. Domingo produces black legislators, scholars and gentlemen. The very men who had been slaves formed a constitution that would do credit to paler faced statesmen. Americans may well blush at its consistent republicanism.

No one thinks or doubting the intellect of Indians, yet civilization has certainly advanced much farther in the interior of Africa than it did among the North American tribes. I have heard it asserted that the Indians were evidently superior to the Negroes, because it was impossible to enslave them. It must be remembered that the Indians have been fairly met in battle; contending with but one nation at a time, while the whole world was combined against the Negro. Both have been shamefully wronged, but public prejudice, which bows the Negro to the earth, has borne with a far less crushing power upon the energies of the red man. The intellectual inferiority of the Negro is a common, though most absurd, apology for personal prejudice, and the oppressive inequality of the laws; for this reason I shall take some pains to prove to the scientific world that the present degraded condition of our race is produced by artificial causes, not by laws of nature. In the first place, naturalists are universally agreed concerning "the identity of the human type, by which all living creatures that can, by any process, be enabled to perceive moral and intellectual truths, are characterized by similar peculiarities of organization. They may differ from each other widely, but they still belong to the same class. An Eagle and a wren are very unlike each other, but no one would hesitate to pronounce that they are both birds. So it is with the almost endless varieties of the monkey tribe. We all know that beasts, however sagacious, are incapable of abstract thought or moral perception. An ourang-outang may eat, and drink, and dress, and move like a man, but he could never write an ode, or learn to relinquish his own good for the good of his species. The human conformation, however it may be altered by the operation of physical or moral causes, differs from that of all other beings, and on this ground the Negro's claim to be ranked as a man is allowed universally by the learned. The condition of our people in ancient times is very far from indicating intellectual or moral inferiority. Ethiopia held a conspicuous place among the nations. The popular belief that all the gods made an annual visit to the Ethiopians shows the high estimation in which they were held, for we are not told that such an honor was bestowed on any other nation. At one time Achilles is represented as anxious to appeal at once to the highest authority, but his mother tells him, "Jupiter set off yesterday, attended by all the gods, on a journey towards the ocean, to feast with the excellent Ethiopians, and is not expected back at Olympus till the twelfth day." Africa was the birth place and oracle of Minerva, and there Atlas supported both the heavens and the earth upon his shoulders. It will be said that fables prove nothing, but there is probably much deeper meaning in these fables than we now understand; there was surely some reason for giving them such a "local habitation." Why had these things been thus represented unless they implied that Africa was the centre from which religious and scientific light had been diffused? I have come to the conclusion, Mr. Editor and readers, that color is an accident affecting the surface of a man, and having no more to do with his qualities than his clothes; that God had equally created an African in the image of his person, and equally given him an immortal soul, and that a European had no pretext but his own cupidity for impiously thrusting his fellow man from that rank in the creation which the Almighty had assigned him, and degrading him below the lot of the "brute beasts that perish." "O, Africa! mother of heroes, where is thy glory now!"

I can well answer my part as a colored citizen of the United States, I am glad to assert here that I am a scholar of the Institute for Colored Youth in Philadelphia, under the wise direction of Mrs. Fanny J. Coppin, late wife of the Rev. Levi Coppin. Among the number of excellent teachers are, Mr. E. A. Bouchet, Professor of Natural Science, and Mr. Joseph Hill, Professor of Penmanship. Mr. Bouchet is a graduate of Yale College; of a class of 125 he was the fifth. This is a specimen of Negro intellect.

Lamokin, Del.

For the SOUTHWESTERN

A Noble Cause, It Should Meet a Prompt Response.

REV. G. W. SAMS.

The following resolution was presented by Rev. W. O. Emory, and unanimously adopted by the members of the Little Rock Conference, at its late session, and was joined in with most heartily by Rev. M. W. Taylor, Editor of the SOUTHWESTERN, and Bishop Mallalieu, the presiding Bishop:

"Resolved, That we each collect from our various charges $2 per quarter as a conference claimant collection, and forward the same as collected to Rev. G. W. Sams."

The following are the brethren who did not forget their vow made to God and a poor, suffering brother, but have faithfully complied with said resolution for the first quarter, ending May 23rd: Rev. M. W. Taylor, D. D., editor of the SOUTHWESTERN, $2; Bishop Mallalieu, $2; Rev. W. O. Emory, Hot Springs, $3 75; Rev. W. S. Lankford, Wesley Chapel, Little Rock, $4.15; Rev. W. H. Crawford, Van Buren, $2; Rev. A. J. Phillips, Fayetteville, $2.

Six out of 43 have complied. Dear brethren, I certainly would be thankful to you if a larger number of you would remember what you promised, and collect what you can and send it to me. I have some few obligations to meet, and can not meet them for the lack of means. I am still unable to do much of anything. I am very thankful to those dear brethren that have remembered me in my afflictions. May the dear Lord bless all the dear brethren of the Little Rock Conference.

Little Rock, Ark.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Presbyterian General Assembly.

This representative body met in the First Presbyterian Church of Cincinnati, Ohio, Thursday, May 21. When it is known that Dr. Phillip Schaff and such men are members, it is not doubted as a representative body. The election of a Moderator, and the sermon of the retiring Moderator, as well as a resolution by Judge ——, of Washington City, D. C., against the Romish church, created considerable sensation, especially the latter. Some thought the resolution would reflect upon Martin Luther, Melanchton and Calvin, and this was made as one objection to the resolution, because these men had faith in the Romish baptism received by them from the church: On motion of Dr. J. G. Butler the resolutions on Romish baptism were stricken from the records yesterday.

REFORMED PRESBYTERIANS.

The Reformed Presbytery of Philadelphia applied for admission to the Presbyterian Church in the following paper:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, to meet in Cincinnati on the 21st day of May, 1885:

Reverend Fathers and Brethren—The memorial of the Reformed Presbytery of Philadelphia respectfully showeth:

On the 12th day of June, 1868, at a meeting held in Philadelphia, this Presbytery suspended its relations to the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church until action taken by said Synod, by which this Presbytery felt aggrieved, should be rescinded or until this Presbytery should have further light. The Synod to which this action was duly reported by the Presbytery declared the Presbytery to be without the jurisdiction of the Reformed Presbyterian Church.

After waiting till the present time without redress, the Presbytery has now resolved to apply and hereby does apply to be taken with the churches under its care into the fellowship of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in the United States of America, with the understanding that we can retain the great principles of doctrine, discipline and worship we have heretofore held, as was granted by your venerable body in your action in the case of the Pittsburg Reformed Presbytery, May 26, 1870, and your memorialists respectfully request that this venerable Assembly will now receive this Presbytery and refer its members and congregations to the several Synods and Presbyteries to which they would properly belong.

[Signed] ROBT. E. THOMPSON,
Moderator.
WILLIAM STERRETT,
Stated Clerk of Presbytery.

Done at Philadelphia, May 12, 1885.

Extract from the minutes of the Philadelphia Reformed Presbytery:

"At a meeting of the Philadelphia Reformed Presbytery, held on the 12th day of May, 1885, the aforesaid memorial was adopted, and the following persons were appointed commissioners to present it to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in the United States of America, to meet in Cincinnati on the 21st day of May, 1885:

"Ministers—Rev. Theodorus W. J. Wylie, D. D., and Wm. Sterrett, principals, and Rev. Theophilus A. Wylie, D. D, and Rev. Prof. Robt. E. Thompson, general alternates.

"Ruling Elders—Messrs. James Grant and Thomas Carrick, principals; and Messrs. Jacob Jackson and Wm. J. McBride, general alternates.

WM. STERRETT,
Stated Clerk of Presbytery.

The case was referred to a special committee, consisting of Rev. Wm P. Breed, D. D., Dr. James Allison and Elder Geo. Griffiths.

There are twenty-two colored delegates in this Assembly, all of whom, save Hon. Wm. Still of Philadelphia, are from the South. Among these colored delegates are graduates from Lincoln University, Pennsylvania; Auburn College, New York, and our own Central Tennessee College, at Nashville. These represent 12 Presbyteries of about 8 churches each, and 2 Synods, or about 100 churches of 75 members each, or about 7,500 communicants. Several of these delegates have distinguished themselves as orators of no mean ability, as well as capable of assisting materially in the committee work and deliberations of this body. One thing is noticable, and that is the absence of pomp, splendor, braggadocio and assumed dignity characteristic of prominent meetings among exclusively colored bodies. In this case, as in all others where the races blend, every man is accorded just what he can command by culture, modesty and learning. Indeed, there seems less noted men in this body, if high-sounding titles make men noted, than appeared in any colored general conference held since the war.

Hon. Wm. Still lectures at Union M. E. Chapel, Friday evening, 29th inst., on "Reminiscences of the Past."

LEMUEL.

Cincinnati, O.

Temperance.

The Twentieth Anniversary meeting of the National Temperance Society and Publication House was held in the Broadway Tabernacle Church, New York City, Rev. Dr. Wm. M. Taylor, pastor, Tuesday evening, May 12. The large church was filled to the doors with people anxious to listen to the distinguished speaker and these Ira D. Sankey's sweet singing. Clinton B. Fisk, chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, presided. Prayer was offered by Rev. W. T. Brewer, an abstract of the Annual Report was presented by Mr. J. N. Stearns, Secretary of the Society, and addresses were delivered by Rev. Drs. T. L. Cuyler, of Brooklyn, and Daniel Dorchester, of Massachusetts, and Rev. C. H. Mead, of Rensselaerville, N. Y., special missionary of the society among the freedmen of the South. It was a meeting long to be remembered, and the singing by Ira D. Sankey added much to the occasion's interest.

The following resolutions were adopted:

1. Resolved, That, in this centennial year of the temperance reform, we heartily congratulate the friends of temperance throughout the land upon the many and important victories already won, and upon the wide spread and rapidly increasing popular interest in the cause of total abstinence; and for the entire prohibition of the traffic in alcoholic beverages.

2. Resolved, That we earnestly urge all temperance organizations throughout our own country and in other lands to unite in the month of September next in celebrations to duly commemorate the completion of the first century of the temperance reform, so inaugurated by the pioneer labors and the historic essay by Dr. Benjamin Rush, of Philadelphia, "An Inquiry into the Effects of Ardent Spirits upon the Human Body and Mind," first published in 1785.

3. We recommend that temperance literature be distributed during the year 1885 to every household in the land as a centennial temperance seed-sowing; and that we solicit all churches, temperance organizations, and communities generally to make 'centennial offerings' for the circulation of a temperance literature, especially among the freedmen.

4. Resolved, That the missionary work of this Society, especially its important work among the freedmen, which during the past year has been widely extended and largely blessed of God for good, appeals with great force to churches and to all Christian men and women, and should be more amply provided for by generous donations and bequests."

5. Resolved, That we hail with much satisfaction the recent adoption by the legislatures of three additional States—Oregon, Rhode Island and Tennessee—of joint resolutions proposing constitutional amendments for the entire prohibition of the manufacture and sale of all intoxicating beverages.

6. Resolved, That among the significant signs of the times—a practical acknowledgment of the strength and progress of the temperance reformation, and that "prohibition does prohibit"—is the defiant and aggressive attitude of the nations' State and local organizations of brewers, distillers, and liquor venders for defensive and offensive warfare for their continued dominance of parties and to control legislation for the perpetnation and extension of the liquor traffic.

7. Resolved, That this Society is strictly non-partisan in its relations to political parties, its membership including members of all parties; and since it applies one test alike to each and all, that of uncompromising hostility to the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicating beverages, and to the license system by which the liquor traffic, for beverage purposes, is legally sustained and perpetuated, therefore it is truly national, and entitled to the consideration and support of temperance people throughout the entire country.

8. Resolved, That we rejoice in the marked progress of the past year in providing for scientific temperance instruction in the public schools, and we exhort the friends of temperance everywhere renewed and increased vigilance in the educational temperance work among the children in all schools, asylums, and Sabbath, at the fireside, and in juvenile temperance organizations.

9. Resolved, That we have been greatly cheered and strengthened the past year by the numerous and pronounced testimonies adopted by all the leading Christian bodies in the land against injurious social drinking usages and for the suppression of the traffic in intoxicating beverages.

The following were elected officers for the ensuing year:

President: T. L. Cuyler, D.D., of New York.

Vice-Presidents: Mark Hopkins, D. D., Mass.; Wm N Ashman, Pa.; J B Anderson, Tenn.; Hon. H W Blair, N. H.; Geo W Bain, Ky.; Hon. A C Barstow, R. I., J M Buckley, D.D., New York.; Hon. L W Ballou, R. I.; F M Bradley, D C.; Geo W Bungay, N. Y.; Wm Ballantyne, D. C.; A S Barnes, N. Y.; N B Broughton, N. C.; Hon. A H Colquitt, Ga; Rev. W F Crafts, N. Y.; Robt Carter, N Y; Rev. Jos Cook, Mass; J W Chickering, D D, Mass; Rev. H W Conant, R I; Prof N D Camp, Conn; Rev J M Clayton, Ark; E Carswell, Canada; Hon N Dingley, Jr., Me; D Dorchester, D.D., Mass; John Dougall, N Y; Hon Neal Dow, Me; N S Davis, M. D., Ill; W R Davis, D. D., N Y; B F Dennison, Pa; J B Dunn, D D., Florida; J J Estey, Vt; Bishop O D Foss, Minn; Bishop S Fallows, Ill; John B Finch, Neb; J D Fulton, D D., N Y; H H Faxon, Mass; Jno B Gough, Mass; J C Greeley, Fla; Maj Gen. O O Howard, N Y; Bishop Wm L Harris, N Y; R D Harper, D.D., Pa; S D Hastings, Wis; J J Hickman, Mo; A A Hopkins, N Y; Rev W W Hicks, Fla; Herrick Johnson, D. D., Ill; B R Jewell, Mass; J H Kellogg, N Y; Hon Jno D Long, Mass; E J Morris, O; J P Magee, Mass; G K Morris, D. D., Pa; Thos Moulding, Ill; W W Newell, D.D., N Y; F A Noble, D D., Ills; J Nye, Me; Hon J O'Donnell, N Y; J O Peck, D D., Conn; Hon R E Pattison, Pa; Hon H Price, Iowa; Hon R C Pitman, Mass; T L Poulson, D.D, Md; J O Patton, M. D., Ala.; Rev. J C Price, N C; Geo S Page, N J; Wm H Patton, Miss; Hon. S B Ransom, N J; E Remington, N Y; J E Rankin, D. D., N J; J H Roberts, Mass; Thos H Rabe, Pa; Geo H Stuart, Pa; F Schnmacher, O; John P St. John, Kan; C H St. John, Col; P Stryker, D.D., Minn, J Swartz, D. D., Ia; Gen. J. S. Smith, N Y; Col. W F Switzler, Mo; Rev W W Satterlee, Minn; T De Witt Talmage, D.D., N Y: Wm M Taylor, D.D., N Y; J Wofford Tucker, Fla; Hon. J T Tanner, Ala; Rev. Wm Howell Taylor, S C; Rev Geo L Taylor, N Y; Hon. S L Tilley, Canada; B D Townsend, S C; J G Thrower, Ga; L H Trowbridge, D D., Mich; N F Thompson, Ga; Rev. W M Thayer, Mass; Hon R B Vance, N C; Lonis Wagner, Pa; Rev H Woodsmall, La; Bishop J M Walden, O; Bishop H W Warren, Ga; John Wanamaker, Pa; J W C Watson, Miss; Col John W Ray, Ind; Hon. Jos. Weed, Cal; E S Wells, Ill; Rev. A Winter, Conn; Wm T Wilkins, Pa. John Hall, D.D., N Y; P S Henson, D.D., Ill.

Corresponding and Recording Secretary: J. N. Stearns.

Treasurer: Wm. D. Porter.

Managers for Three Years: T L Cuyler, D.D., N Y; Albert G Lawson, D.D., Mass; Rev. W C Steele, N Y; J Finley Smith, N Y; B J Warner, N Y; A D Vail, D D., N Y; Rev. J S Chadwick, N Y; Augustus Taber, N Y; W J Demorest N Y; A A Robbins, N Y.

Unhappy Man.

Why persist in ruining your digestion by eating unwholesome food; and keeping it ruined by doing nothing to restore it to usefulness and right action? Some think that dyspepsia is incurable. They are the ones who have never taken Brown's Iron Bitters. This valuable family medicine makes short work of the tormentor and soon enables the digestive apparatus to do its work. Mr. H.E Collins, of Keokuk, Iowa, says, "I used Brown's Bitters for dyspepsia, and am greatly benefited.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

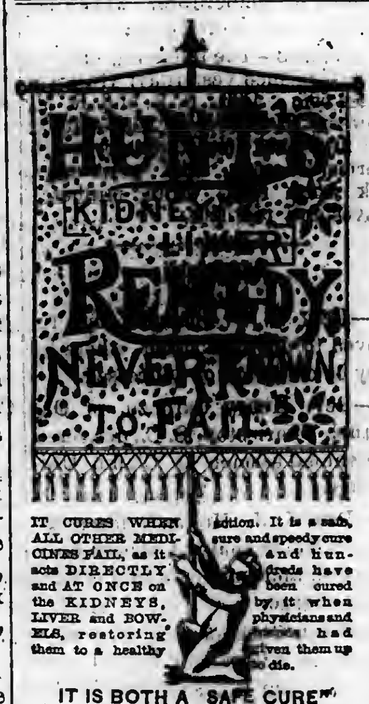
MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my father; his name was Pearis Theamas, and his wife was named Ann Pearis Theamas; she was brought to Texas about 20 years ago; she left him in Laura, La., and after coming to Texas she married Harvey Lnckey, and went by the name of Ann Lnckey. She died in 1880, leaving three children: Amos, Malinda and Elmira. Any information in regard to my father will be gladly received by me. Address Malinda Hill, care of Stephen Coleman, box 25, Waelder, Gonzales county, Texas.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my father, Brazil Ellington, who left Russell county, Alabama, in or about the year 1862 with his master, John Ellington, and went to Texas; but I do not remember what portion of Texas they went to, and they have not been heard from since. My father's wife was named Liddie Webb, who belonged to a man by the name of Wm. Webb Any one who can furnish me information in regard to Brazil Ellington will furnish a long felt desire of mine. Address Mary Winters, formerly Mary Flourney, lock box 265, Birmingham, Russell county, Alabama.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my son, a young man about 26 years of age. His name is Turner Saterfield. He left home Feb. 10, 1874, and I have heard from him once; he was then in Cincinnati, O. He was to leave Cincinnati in a few days for Memphis, Tenn., at the time I heard from him. I think it was in 1877. My name is Permelia Saterfield. His step-father is named Imziah Saterfield. Any information regarding his whereabonts will be gladly received by me. Address Permelia Saterfield, in care of Rev. H. C. Williams, Keys Chapel M. E. Church, Gallatin, Tenn.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my mother. When we parted it was in the year 1827, at Big Black, Miss. Her name was then Millie Black; had a son named Charles Black and a sister named Leah. My name is Ben Black Any information as to their whereabouts will be thankfully received. Address me, care of Rev. B. H. S. Ferguson, Pontotoc, Miss.

MR. EDITOR—I desire to inquire for my father and mother's people. During slavery we belonged to Dr. Harvey, near a town called Canton, Mississippi, or not I do not know. I was very young when we were sold during the war. Mother, grandmother, myself and two other children were sold to a Mr. James Pickens and carried to Mobile, Ala. We left father at his old home; he belonged to Mr. James Mitchell, who lived near Canton. My aunts were named Matilda Harvey, Silvia, Visia and America. We left one brother and one sister, Dr. Harvey took my four aunts, one brother, Benjamin, one sister, Adaline, and others and went to Atlanta, Ga. Mother's name was Lucinda; grandmother's name was Dinah; my sister that was sold with us is named Ella; brother's name is George. Mother and grandmother died shortly after we came to Mississippi, during the war, and left us three little children alone. Any information concerning the above named persons will be thankfully received. My name is now Ludora Snell, my husband's name is R. Snell, a member of the Mississippi Annual Conference. Write me at West Point, Miss.



On Temperance Principle.

Rev. S P Lewis pastor of the Eighth Street Baptist Church, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "Parker's Tonic completely cured me of nervous exhaustion and general debility. I never met with anything so effective. It acts on strictly temperance principles. I take it with me on my vacations. Cures the liquor habit.

Publisher's Agents.

In order to facilitate the transaction of business with our customers we have arranged with Edward Aiden & Bro., Fifth and Vine streets, Cincinnati, O., and 140 Nassau street, New York, making them our Special Publisher's Agents, and giving them charge of the foreign advertising patronage of our paper. All communications in relation to this department should be addressed to them. tf

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
July 17-1y.

IT CURES WHEN ALL OTHER MEDICINES FAIL, as it acts DIRECTLY and AT ONCE on the KIDNEYS, LIVER and BOWELS, restoring them to a healthy action. It is a safe, sure and speedy cure and hundreds have been cured by it when physicians and friends had given them up to die.

IT IS BOTH A SAFE CURE and a SPECIFIC.

It CURES all Diseases of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Urinary Organs; Dropsy, Gravel, Diabetes, Bright's Disease, Nervous Diseases, Excesses, Female Weaknesses, Jaundice, Biliousness, Headache, Sour Stomach, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Piles, Pains in the Back, Loins, or Side, Retention or Non-Retention of Urine.

$1.25 AT DRUGGISTS.

TAKE NO OTHER.

Send for Illustrated Pamphlet of Solid Testimonials of Absolute Cures.

HUNT'S REMEDY CO.,
Providence, R.I.

Plantation Melodies
—AND—
REVIVAL HYMNS.

By MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D.

WITH AN INTRODUCTION
By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.

Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.

Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and portrait. Sent, post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents.

Address, PHILLIPS & HUNT
32 Natchez street, New Orleans

J. T. Newman, M. D.,
—PRACTICING—
Surgeon and Physician,
315 Felicity Street,
NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Makes a specialty of treating colored people. jan15-1y

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches.
History of the U. S.—Ridpath	$3 00
Scripture History—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net	60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) Net	5
History of Methodism.—Stevens (Abridged edition.)	3 00
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Edition of 1884
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol. 1) sett	5 00
Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs	2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scripture; chapters I XXX—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol I) sett	7 50
Plain Account of hristian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill, Net	1 00
Written Sermons.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
Christian Purity—Foster	1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. (chapters XXI-LII)—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer	1 60
Lessons in Logic.—Bowne	40
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged) Stevens	3 00
Defence of our Fathers	85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol. II.—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XXII—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope. Vol. III	7 50
Atonement in Christ.—Miley	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	2 50
Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Recollections.—Kidder	1 50
Written Sermon
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst	3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters XIX-XLIV Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Theological Institutes. Part II.—Watson	5 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written Exegesis
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St Paul.—Conybeare and Howson (Abridged Edition)	1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry
History of Rationalism.—Hurst	3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst	$ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884)
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.—Walk	1 25
To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St. Paul.—Fletcher	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill	1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst	50
Ancient History.—Thalheimer
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	3 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged Edition).—Stevens	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible. Sacraments
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield	2 50
Plain Account of hristian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill	1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven	90
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer	1 60
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol I.) Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Nast	5 00
Era of the Protestant Revolution.—Seebohn	1 25
	75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII—Wakefield	2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.)	45
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. IV. Checks to Antinomianism.—Fletcher	5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher	2 00
Protestant Foreign Missions.—Christlieb	1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez St. New Orleans.

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address, 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

50 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Picture Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 40 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each. The freshest, purest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 50 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent five weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1885 at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Expres for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its bab stories, and its large, beautiful picture

Our Little Men and Women

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY,

An Eight page Weekly, for Boys and Girls

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day or Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 1885.

Removal.

Correspondents and other friends will please take notice that we have removed our office from No. 32 to No. 37 Natchez Street, second floor, rear room. PHILLIPS & HUNT.

A number of subscriptions to this paper among members of the Delaware Conference expire with this issue. Brethren should be prompt in making cash renewals and not miss a number by delay.

The Chautauquan is certainly a valuable periodical. Our young people everywhere should avail themselves of its benefits.

When a preacher is commonly reported to be loose in his morals it is the duty of his elder to cause an investigation, and it is not true Christian esteem for a brother, but something else, in every case where such an investigation fails to be had.

Rev. W. E. Woodbry, being refused a seat in the parquette of the Omaha opera house, has sued for $3,000. Under similar circumstances this editor quietly retired from Washington Hall in New Orleans, and two weeks later had his revenge by being called to the front platform.

After dispatching the butcher [illegible] and being confronted by the angry populace whose real [illegible] she had advanced by her daring act, Charlotte Corday said, "Poor people, you desire my death, but you owe me an altar for having delivered you from a monster."

It is said that the locust of 1885 [illegible] on the left wing. [illegible] to know if that means that they are Methodists. [illegible] for Methodist Mission[illegible] cah for the Book Con[illegible] are increasing not only the preachers and the very insects for their help [illegible]

[illegible] with his back to the [illegible] town stove, we asked [illegible] ready for church. He said he would, and still stood there [illegible] on and on, not ready [illegible] and this while the minister [illegible] Methodist congregation [illegible] morning. This is a sample [illegible]

[illegible] presiding elders, pas[illegible] and other correspond[illegible] a special letter con[illegible] name and address of [illegible] person who constant[illegible] or belongs to the Meth[illegible] Episcopal Church under their [illegible] who owns $25 worth of real [illegible] Vols, who carry on any kind of bus[illegible] for themselves, with the an[illegible] of their business.

Mr. Grady, like many another [illegible] in [illegible] of mind, speaks [illegible] the Negro problem to [illegible] Editors sup[illegible] to be settled by the North. [illegible] spoken what they be[illegible] and wish. But this so called [illegible] has in it two, and [illegible] The first [illegible] GOD, and the other is [illegible] What white [illegible] do is to put as much in [illegible] way to self help and [illegible] as they have taken [illegible] him run his own [illegible]

[illegible] Negroes, both of [illegible] dependant, the latter [illegible] unanimously [illegible] unlawfully to prohibit it. Inquirer.

[illegible] reputable [illegible] such a so[illegible] the Negroes [illegible] there is no [illegible], with [illegible] society. How [illegible] unity in [illegible] course?

Strike a New Line.

What the colored people want is social equality. Perish the thought. Nobody can give them social equality. They must make it and take it for themselves. When they make it they can take it. What the colored people want in the South, as in every other place, is less charity bestowed upon them in the shape of money and other gifts, and more Christian encouragement and counsel; more work and prompter payment; a higher regard for morality and better legal protection for female virtue. There may be a need of financial aid for the poor white people of the South, and, if so, we want them to have it. But with our best judgment we find the conviction bearing down upon us that the great want of the colored people is more and better chances to work for money. They will be more manly and self reliant as they learn by doing it that they can take care of themselves as to money, etc. We need some white people who feel called of God to help us morally and religiously, however, and it is likely that without any sort of a salary save what the colored people can furnish out of their little earnings, the Church can find a host of consecrated men and women to do this work of Christian love among the Negroes. Indeed, with the growth of enlightened sentiment upon this subject, and in view of the blending of their habits until there is very little difference in expression and action between people reared in the South and many of those who came South to work among the colored people. It occurs to us that it would be less expensive and possibly a more successful plan to employ of our native Southern members of the Methodist Episcopal Church in this way. After all, there are some things in common between the Southern whites and blacks, and the more they are brought together under their altered circumstances the better it will be for each class.

Fall in.

They have a fine new brick church in Maysville, Ky., and over a hundred new converts to go into it. During the protracted meeting white people crowded the meetings, and contributed most of the money required to keep up expenses. Things have changed since the time nearly half the congregation there waited in the basement to assure themselves of the truth of a report that this editor was going to preach there, and as he walked up into the audience room they marched out into the street and home.

There is a growth here and everywhere in the South. And we refer to these old experiences as evidences of it. Our white people, all white people of the South, are coming to look upon the new situation differently from what they formerly did, and the change of view progresses with such startling rapidity that it well behooves the Negroes to watch lest they be out stripped in magnaminity by the whites. The needful thing is more race pride and a denouncing of the tom-foolery about miscegenation, amalgamation, assimilation and the like nonsense.

Swearing Out the Color Line.

Mr. James Goggins, a bright mulatto, of Cincinnati, has found a new way of getting his beautiful brown-skinned daughter into the white schools of that city. He, it is said, made affidavit that he was a white man, and his wife a creole, whatever that is, and that, therefore, his daughter had no Negro blood in her. Upon this statement his daughter was admitted, and, as we are informed, now attends the said schools. Well, it cost more to secure this right in this instance that we could afford to pay.

That such methods could be suggested attests the dangerous tendencies of the useless distinctions by which these discriminations are caused, and satisfy every one that they ought to be abated. In less than five years all the Negroes of Ohio will have the rights for which Mr. Goggins has abjured his race, neither will they pay so tremendous a price to get them. When the times are ready for this wiping out of the color line it must not be secured by blotting out the distinguishing type of any race by oath or otherwise. It must be by the elevation of character in all races.

Our Bishops.

We now have twelve regular and one missionary bishop to supervise the general interests of probably 12,000,000 of Methodist or Methodistically inclined people, little and big, and of all nations. This number is too small. It requires too much work of each, and wears them out too soon. For these reasons we were in favor of making six full Bishops at Philadelphia. We must, as matters now stand, make from four to six in 1888; and if he lives and keeps his health till then, of these John H. Vincent should, and we think will, be one of the very first chosen.

Hereafter men must be taken not because of supposed peculiar friendship for this or that class of our members or sections of our work, but because of grace and gifts fitting for this holy eminence in general. Dr. Vincent is a man of a superior type, with such youth of feeling and interest as to fit him for any public Christian station.

Rev. Larkin Carper.

The death of Rev. Larkin Carper, one of the pioneers of our work in Texas, has been made known to us. Although, from his great age and many hard services, this might have been expected at any time, still we did not expect, and have been deeply touched by the news of it. He was a man full of rich and gracious experiences. We sat at his feet to learn wisdom when in San Antonio last winter, and earnestly coveted the opportunity of doing so again. We thank Bro. Mack Henson for pretty full notes of his life. We believe Bro. Henson could find ample material for a book on the same subject, and that it would be a very useful one.

Dedication.

The new Methodist Episcopal church on Carrollton avenue will be dedicated June 21, at 2 p. m., Rev. L. P. Cushman officiating. The corner stone laying for the same church will be had on the 20th, attended with a religious barbecue, at the same place. All things are to be done decently and in order. To this end all orderly people are earnestly requested to be present and participate in all these exercises.

Industry.

The undersigned award is made by the New Orleans International Exposition to S. R. and R. M. Lowery, colored, out of a great number of competitors. These being the only colored ones:

AWARDS—The following awards were furnished yesterday: Group 5, Class 505. 1661, S. R. and R. M. Lowery, Huntsville, Ala.—Medal of first-class for industry, silk worms, cocoons, silk worm eggs, silk worm rack, white mulberry leaves and raw silk.

Personal.

—Rev. L. P. Cushman has removed to 159 Clio street, where he may be called on or addressed.

—Rev. Henry Cardozo, of Old Bethel, Charleston, S. C., delivered the annual sermon at Claflin University.

—Rev. J. J. Holland, for some time in feeble health, has been fully restored, and prospers in his Alabama charge.

—Frank Cushman has been converted, at Wilbraham School, and his father, our Elder Cushman here, is indeed happy.

—Mrs. Rev. I. H. White, of Philadelphia, has lately been in very infirm health. We trust a change for the better may be speedily realized.

—Miss Clara M. Cushman raised $1,100 for the Woman's Foreign Missions in May last. Surely this lady has a heart of love and a tongue of fire to plead for her sisters in the Orient.

—The New Orleans Preachers' Meeting, June 8th, passed resolutions of sympathy with Dr. Taylor in this hour of severe affliction of his son. The resolutions were presented by Rev. Thomas Stalker, of Ames Church.

—The Rev. Levi B. Salmans, under appointment to Mexico, was ordained by Bishop Harris, at the Mission Rooms, on Monday, May 11th.

—Rev. D. W. Hays, than whom our Church has few nobler sons or better men, cheers us with kind words which come very gratefully to us, especially from such a source.

—Rev. S. A. Cowan, supernumerary of the Mississippi Conference, attending Gammon School of Theology, keeps well, and is prosecuting his course vigorously.

—At the recent commencement of the East Tennessee Wesleyan University, the degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred on Rev. T. C. Carter, A. M., editor of the Methodist Advocate, Chattanooga, Tenn.

—Mr. Alfred Adams and Miss Eliza Moss, Mr. Joseph Crump and Miss Amanda Crowill, of Crystal Springs, the ladies being members of the Church, have the congratulations of Mr. John H. Cook with others in their wedded life.

—Dr. Geo. L. Curtiss has hands and head and heart full of work, but withal finds time to keep up our Domestic Hygiene department with matter of priceless value to our people. Such is the uniform voice as it reaches us.

—Clem. Studebaker, Esq., of South Bend, Ind., is a friend who never forgets us. His cards upon our desk tell the story of a visit to our sanctum when we were absent. Our regret is only equaled by our hope of a repetition of the visit, minus the absence.

—Rev. Wm. H. Brown, of Bridgepost, O., has, within a few months, been bereaved of his wife, a child, and his wife's mother, but he says the grace of God was sufficient for him. Elder Cooper and his brother pastors never forsook him. So it should ever be.

—We learn that Sister Mattie, wife of Rev. J. F. R. W. Summerhill, of Springville, Tenn., is very much better of a recent illness, and will soon be again with him on his circuit work. A little time ago they lost their little child aged 15 months.

—Rev. W. Dunkins has succeeded Rev. L. P. Bell, and is attending Central Tennessee College, where his address will be until otherwise announced. We have to thank him for substonial interest in the SOUTHWESTERN.

—Rev. J. H. Reddick, James Methodist Methodist Episcopal Church, Staunton, Va., Delaware Conference, since July, 1884, raised $250 conference money and admitted more than 100 members. Before leaving to attend his conference a donation of $40 was presented to him.

—The Times-Democrat says: "Rev. H. H. French received the degree of B. A.; Rev. Ralph E. Allen that of D. D., at the late meeting of the New Orleans Methodist Episcopal University faculty." We learn that both of these brethren are members of the New England Conference.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton, in May North American Review, says: "The present position of women in the spirit of our creeds and codes is far behind the civilization of the age, and unworthy the representative women of this day.

—Rev. and Mrs. Appenzeller sailed from Nagasaki for Korea March 31. They were accompanied by three other American Missionaries. Dr. Scranton expected to start from Yokohama on the 20th of April. His mother, wife and child will, for the present, remain in Japan.

—Dr. Bayliss, long known and revered by all of its members for his courtesy to it as a whole, and for his individual kindness to a large number of the members personally, as well as for his deep, active and substantial interest in all things appertaining to the bettering of the circumstances of man, the Negro man no less than others. Dr. Bayliss received a hearty welcome upon the occasion of his recent visit to Lexington Conference. His coming was really hailed with genuine joy. All who listened to his straightforward, manly, brotherly, dignified, yet simply pleasant address will, as they think over it, wish for a repetition of these interchanges of courtesy and instructive discourses annually. Indeed, we do not see why Drs. Bayliss, Buckley, Warren, Fry, Edwards, Curry and others do not enter this South country and press the interests of their papers, which is the interest of the Methodist Episcopal Church. They will hurt no interest of the SOUTHWESTERN by visiting each of the Southern conferences, and we wish they would visit them, for the sake of the good effect it would surely produce upon the brethren and the work here.

Church Polity.

MR. EDITOR—Please answer the following question: When a preacher is appointed and goes to his charge, but finds the people either unwilling or unable to pay the moving expenses of himself and family, or when, because they fail to meet his travelling expenses he has to walk to and from his family residence, the distance of about 100 miles, does the conference require that he should remain on that work even though himself and family should suffer?

Answer—It is the duty of every circuit to pay the moving and traveling expenses of those appointed to serve them. The moving expenses include the cost of bringing a newly appointed minister from his old to his present charge. If he has the money, and pays it out for moving, it is the duty of the stewards to immediately refund it to him, upon his arrival. See Dis. 1884, par. 364, page 194, last four lines. The travelling expenses of a preacher are those incurred by him in going from one point to another on his work, if it has more than one preaching place; by attending the annual, district and quarterly conference when there is any cost required in traveling to the latter. The connection is liable for his expenses in traveling to sit on trials, courts of appeals, and to the General Conference.

If there is a deficit after reasonable effort to meet his estimate he can bring his claim to the annual conference, which can divide with him any funds it has at command not otherwise applied, and can also make special provisions to meet necessary cases; provided, the conference cannot be held legally responsible for these claims as for a debt. Dis., page 199, par. 375 376. Furthermore, the stewards are expected to aid the preacher stationed among them in securing a house for his family and to pay the rent of or otherwise provide the same, and to furnish it at least with heavy furniture. See Dis. 1884, pages 200-201, par 377 380. The rent, moving and traveling expenses are not to be taken as any part of the salary of the preacher, but are to be estimated separately, though in making his statistical report to the annual conference they are included. In order to accomplish all this the stewards, pastor and elder are expected to see that all the provisions of the Discipline, pp. 197-199, par. 370 376 are carried out by the stewards. As the preacher cannot see that these provisions are executed by leaving his work, he is expected to remain on it until relieved by the Bishop, or in his absence the presiding elder. He is to go where he is sent, and do the work the conference judges to be needful, and to keep our rules, not for wrath but conscience sake. When the Lord called him and directed the conference in making his appointment, all the circumstances were considered and the "Gifts and calling of God are without repentance." God considers both the family and the people when he dictates these appointments. And he does dictate them. If a church is unable to meet all these obligations, and the conference aid will still be less than the required amount, then it would seem that either a regular or a contingent appropriation from the Missionary Society, ought to be made. In any case the preacher ought to stay on his work until legally changed. This might involve some hardship both to minister and family, but such is the itinerancy as this writer has found it and as the thrilling pages of Methodist history reveal it. Methodist preachers have a glorious heritage of hardships to rejoice in. They will live Godly and they must endure hardships because they are soldiers. A man need not confine himself to one barren spot; his appointment means every place till he comes to the next preacher on every side. Talk with God, consult with the elder, visit the people from house house, and stick to the appointed work. All will come out right in the end.

Schools and Colleges.

Commencement Exercises at Wiley University.

At the suggestion of Rev. R. S. Rust, D D, Secretary of the Freedmen's Aid Society, the day for commencement exercises at Wiley University has been changed to Tuesday, June 9th. The following is the programme of the exercises:

Public examinations Friday, June 5, and Monday, June 8.

Exhibition of the Model School, Friday, June 5, at 8 p. m.

Prize contest in Declamation, Monday, June 8, at 8 p m.

Meeting of Trustees, Tuesday, June 9, at 9 am. Commencement Exercises, June 9, at 11 a. m. Reading of grades and awarding of of prizes Tuesday, June 9, at 2 p. m.

Sunday, June 7, Annual Love Feast at 9 a. m.; Annual Sermon at 3 p. m.; Baccalaureate Sermon at 8 p. m. Sabbath services at Ebenezer M. E. Church.

N. D. CLIFFORD, Pres.

Marshall, Texas.

Alcorn American Missionary College—Hadley, Miss.

Fourteenth Annual Commencement, June 17, 1885, at 10 o'clock a. m.

Sunday, June 14—Sabbath-school exercises at 10 a. m. Baccalaureate sermon at 2:30 p. m., by H. R. Travers, D.D., President Leland University, New Orleans, La. Y. M. C. A. meeting at 7:30 p. m. Trustees meet Tuesday, 16th, at 10 a. m. Examinations Friday, Monday and Tuesday, 12th, 15th and 16th, respectively, from 8 a. m. to 3 p. m., except that there will be a recess for dinner from 12:30 to 1:30 p. m. each day. School closes Wednesday, June 17th. Fall term begins September 17th.

Wednesday, June 17th.—Programme: Part 1st: Begins at 10 a.m: Music—Star Spangled Banner; College Band.

Music—The Rock of Salvation, Chorus.

Prayer.

Music—Huntsman's chorus. Chorus

Declamation—America. A. J. Williams.

Essay—Higher Education for Women. Anna Snodgrass.

Music—Few days. College Band.

Declamation—Love of Applause. Louis Mayer.

Declamation—Owen Lovejoy. Bailey White.

Music—Larboard Watch.

Oration—The 19th Century. J. L. Barbour.

Oration—A Plea for Temperance. J. H. Harvey.

Music—Ring the Bells. College Band.

Debate—Should the Elective Franchise be extended to Women? Affirmative, A. H. Foreman, negative, J. M. Hicks.

Music—Whosoever Will. Chorus.

Graduating Class, June 17—Part 2d. Progress of the Emancipated Slave; John Adam Martin, Kirkwood.

Music—Hail to the Chief; College Band.

Commencement address; Rev. Marshall W. Taylor, D.D., editor SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, New Orleans, La.

Conferring of the diploma by the President.

Music—Clap your hands for joy; Chorus. Benediction. Music; College Band.

Notice.

The Trustees of Philander Smith College will meet to hold their annual meeting, in the college building, Little Rock, Ark., June 9th, 1885. All the members are requested to be present.

G. W. SIMS, Pres.

The handsome card and polite invitation to attend the annual exercises at Leland University came to us too late for service in consequence of protracted absence from the office. Dr. Traver is ot the class of men who are bound to succeed. Besides, he is assisted by an indefatigable corps of teachers and a phalanx of determined working students. We know the olose was a success, because the labor of the year has been earnest.

The Schoo' Board of Newport, Ark., is said to be quite friendly to Negro education. They are now causing a bnilding to be erected there for that purpose to cost $2000.

In the oratorical contest between students of the New Orleans University, as previously noticed in this paper, prizes were won as follows: First prize, Rev. E Lyon, pastor Sixth Street; Second, Rev. M C B Mason, of Carrollton Methodist Episcopal Chnrch; Third, Miss E M Carter, student in the University of high standing.

Programme for Straight University was overlooked in absence of the editor unintentionally.

Gilbert Seminary has opened with a fine ontlook. This is the public school term. They have at present, after two weeks, a roll of 150 names, and every day adds to the number. The hard times will militate against them some because there are those who are unable to pay for books.

Howard University (Congregational) held its annual exercises Friday evening, May 22, in Asbury Methodist Episcopal Church, Washington, D. C., corner 11th and K streets, S. W. Old friends J. H. Weeks, W. T. Anderson, O. D. Robinson, J. G. Harris, G. H. Bled, J. Wheeler, and J. W. Hoffman, were the reception committee. Quite a number of excellent papers were prepared for the occasion, of which the most interesting to us was one on the "Future Glory of Africa," by Mr. Henry T. Johnson, of Newburg, New York. Rev. J. G. Butler, D.D., opened the services with prayer, and Rev. George W. Moore pronnnoced the benediction. The audience was rested by the choicest musical interludes. Howard is doing a good work. Many noble specimens of her man building are to be found among the most useful young men of to-day. We would like to print Mr. Johnson's paper.

An ex-Governor, State Superintendent of Education, the chief and two Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, the chairman of the Senate and House Committees of Education, President of the State Agricultural and Mechanical Society, and the Master of the State Grange are ex officio members of Olaflin University Board of Trustees. They have there a school of competency and many other useful features. We would suggest to those giving prizes that the best prize to offer would be the last year or half-year's tuition free, and a small sum of money. These would be of more value to pupils, and remove all possible temptation from those who deal in books. The last catalogue is before us and it is a good one. It evidences a year of [illegible].

[illegible] Taylor has organized a [illegible] Methodist Episcopal [illegible]

For the SOUTHWESTERN

The West Texas Conference, M E. Church.

C. L. MADISON.

Rev. C. King, one of our worn ont preachers, is very sick, at his home in Georgetown, Texas, and is in a destitnte condition. He has been down for five months, and spent what little he had when taken sick, and needs and must have help from his brethren. Bro. King traveled eight years, and his health failed him, and, being an old man he has not been able to do more than make a living for himself and wife.

The following will show how the people paid him while he served them in 1871-2: At Georgetown, $49.65; in 1873, at Bastrop, $3.35; at Cunningham, three years, $280; in 1877, at Oakland, $50; in 1880, at Seguin, $35; total for eight years, $418. Now, at the end of these eight years, he was neither able to preach or work. Now he is down, and has nothing to depend npon but a sick wife. The people say, "Poor Bro. King, I am sorry for him." I was told that not one of the brethren at Georgetown has set up with him a night since he has been down. The Lord pity those people. Now, let me say to the yonng preachers, take warning from this and prepare now, for your old and sick days, for if you depend npon the conference or people yon will snffer. If yon cannot get a living ont of the ministry, locate and go in the field and work for your living, and preach as a local preacher. Pastors will please read this to their people and ask them for something for Bro. King, and send it to him at Georgetown. If the people will not give anything, send something ont of yonr own scant living. I make this appeal because Bro. King asked me to.

Austin Tex, June 2, 1885.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Keep to the Old Landmarks.

REV. P. H. CARMICHEAL.

"There is an impression, says Mr. Dorchester, in some quarters that serious changes are taking place in the religious thonght of the world that Protestant Christianity is losing its fundamental doctrines and its hold npon the respect of the enltivated minds and that these things bode evil to the churches, whatever their statistical exhibits may show."

We do not take any alarm at these erroneous reports, because from what we learn by reading Mr. Dorchester's problem of religious progress and other men's writings who are watching the times and every public current of sentiment, the changing breezes of opinions, and the different faiths of the age; it's not true. God is in man, saving man. Life is short, time flies fast, the great masses of human beings surges forward, grasping new ideas, new opinions or faiths; but the Lord Jesus is drawing men nearer himself, for that is just what God's dear Son came into this world for to save his people from their sins through His church. Many ways has the Lord to work to save men. "He works to will and to do His will in our hearts. I cannot think that the christian religion is losing any of its power or hold npon the people, it is wielding to day a greater influence over the people than it ever did.

Up to the middle of this present month (May) there had been reported about one hundred thousand conversions in the Methodist Episcopal church alone, to say nothing of other branches of the Christian church. There was converted during the winter past, we may safely say that there has been in onr church 150,000 conversions since December last. Never since Pauls time has the christian church so deeply felt her obligation to convert the world than at the present day. It is useless for us to notice or pay very much attention to the assertions that are being made in regard to the decline of the Protestant religion, but will watch, work and wait, the victory is ours through Him that loves us. The Columbns district I don't think is far behind in the way of conversions this year. There has been abont 200 conversions since Jannary the 1st in fourteen charges and circnits. The preachers and people all over the district are in high spirits over the revivals and crops. Never has there been better prospects for a good crop than the present year. Camp meetings are being talked of very strongly over the work and the indications are that there will be a wonderful gathering of souls during the month of July and then in the fall a wonderful gathering in of money and paying of the laborers who are worthy of their hire. The people now in my district believe more, read more and think more about the Christian religion than they did last year. They are better prepared to hear and receive the gospel of the blessed God. I am trying to preach with such freedom as will establish them more and more in the faith, "Oh, let us so do and pray till the dark continent shall see light.

Columbns, Texas.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Bishop Mallalieu's Visit to Marshall.

BY R. H. HARBERT.

On Sunday, April 19th, Bishop W. F. Mallalieu, Rev. A. H. Gillet, A. M., Dr. W. W. Taylor were published to be here in the interest of Sunday School work and to engage in Bishop Wiley memorial service. Preparations were made for a grand good time. Our distinguished brethren were expected to arrive on Saturday, April 18; one on the train from New Orleans at 10:30 a. m., the other two on the train from Palestine at 3:45 p. m. Going to the forenoon train on which Dr. Marshall W. Taylor was expected to arrive, instead of hearing one marshal in the city of Marshall, we met three Marshalls and one Dyer (not of cloth)—Rev. J. F. Marshall, Mrs. J. F. Marshall, their daughter, Rev. M. J. Dyer, all of the Louisiana Conference. We regretted not seeing the face of Dr. Taylor and hearing his pathetic words, still we rejoice that we gained these good and warmhearted friends from Louisiana who came by a special request of Bishop Mallalieu. Rev. J. F. Marshall and his family were quartered at the Hon. Ed. Brown's residence, while the Rev. Mr. Dyer went to Mr. Walter Porter's. At four o'clock in company with Presiding Elder Weber and the above named brethren, we met the bishop and Bro. Gillet, at which time the rain fell heavily. Having so much planned to do, and but little time in which to do it, Rev. A. H. Gillet passed on to Shreveport, while Bishop Mallalieu remained with us. Taking a carriage, we soon found ourselves at President Clifford's mansion at Wiley University. After introducing the bishop to the president and his wife, and after a few minutes pleasant conversation, the following programme at the suggestion of the bishop was arranged by the committee:

PROGRAMME.

Sunday School service at Ebenezer Church, 9 a. m. Opening and singing by R. H. Harbert; prayer Rev. H. Webb, A. M.; singing, school. An address by Rev. M. J. Dyer, of Boonesville, La.; singing school. An address by Rev. J. F. Marshall of Alexandria; singing school. An address by Bishop W. F. Mallalieu; remarks by Snperintendent and pastor; doxology and benediction.

Bishop Wiley memorial service at Wiley University: 11 a. m. singing. Scripture reading by Prof. N. Coleman; singing. Prayer by Rev. H. Webb; singing. Resolntions read by Prof. N. D Clifford; singing. A paper on the relation of Bishop Wiley to Freedmen's Aid Society by Rev. Freeman Parker. An address—Bishop Wiley's special work for the colored people of the South, by Rev. R. H. Harbert; singing. An address on Bishop Wiley by Bishop W. F. Mallalieu; singing. His last visit to the University by Rev. H. Webb; singing. Prayer by Prof. N. D. Clifford; doxology and benediction.

Three o'clock service at Ebenezer Church; sermon by Rev. J. F. Marshall. Sacrament—Lord's Snpper; doxology and benediction.

Evening service at Ebenezer Church, 7:30 p. m. Sermon by Bishop W. F. Mallalieu.

On Sunday morning, promptly at 9 o'clock, the three Snnday Schools (the college, centenary and Ebenezer) were in their seats ready to receive the treat that had been promised them. Thongh on Saturday it had poured down great showers of rain, yet on that Snnday morning the sky was lighted up with the golden sun rays, the air was balmy and sweet with the odor of highly scented roses, the birds were everywhere filling the air with their melodious warbling and praise to their Creator, and in short everything seemed filled with praise. So were we. The school opened according to programme conducted by the pastor, superintendent and organist (three in one) who made a three or four minute address of welcome to our esteemed guests. Rev. H. Webb, P. E. Marshall District, in his usual, pleasing and impressive way introduced the speakers.

The first speaker, Rev. M. J. Dyer, made quite an impression npon the audience. He spoke of what was necessary to a live school. When the speaker took his seat the eager looks and bright eyes of the school plainly intimated that they wanted to hear him longer. Rev. J. F. Marshall was the next speaker. He took up the work where Bro. Dyer left it and dwelt upon the grand work the old Methodist Church is doing. Her grand educational circles and Sunday School courses, besides many of her other excellent characteristics were brought home to the hearts of the hearers.

We could have gone away with what we had already heard and felt satisfied, if we had not been looking into the pleasing face of Bishop W. F. Mallalieu, and divined from its expressiveness that there was a calm [illegible] here in him that was [illegible] good things. So after sing[illegible]e chorus which be[illegible]r hearts for hea[illegible]od things," the bish[illegible]troduced and said that [illegible] make his address[illegible] ask the pastor and the [illegible] ministers to assist him in the ceremony of baptism of an infant. On arising and turning around we looked into the pleasant faces of two happy Christian friends made glad by the gift from God of a bright, shiny, blue eye little boy whom they were bringing to the the altar to consecrate to the service of Almighty God. As some one says, "suspense is dreadful," We shall have to tell you that these happy two were Prof. N. D. Clifford, President of the Wiley University and his amiable young wife. The ceremony was read by different brethren, and little Girard Packard Clifford was baptised by Bishop Mallalieu in the name of the Father, of the Son and the Holy Ghost. The bishop then proceeded to address the school. The address was intensely interesting from beginning to end, and the schools listened with marked attention. He took us in a moment to the place where the day begins and thence on and on till we had belted the globe. Said the bishop, "If we were over there now where the day begins and were in the right place, we would hear familiar sounds bursting forth from somewhere. Being strangers to the people, place and language, we would begin to wonder how these sweet familiar sonnds got among these people. In an instant we'd remember the old Methodist tunes and even the words that we nsed to sing in onr congregation in America." He showed that among all the nations there were Methodist people singing Methodist tunes. We cannot begin to tell you what the bishop said, we simply desire to show the drift of his great address. He took us around the world and we had time to hear Methodist singing too among all the nations in less time than it takes some of us sometimes to tell a trifling incident. We all did indeed feel that we had had a G. G. time. We regretted to have him stop yet as the hour for the memorial service was near at hand, we praised God with our voices and repaired two by two nicely mated to Wiley University.

We shall not speak of the memorial service to Bishop Wiley (another pen has done that) more than to say that it was so impressive, especially that which the bishop said that we all felt for awhile we were witnessing the closing exercises of the last General Conference which were conducted by our late chief pastors, Bishops Simpson and Wiley. A few white Southerners were ont. Before 3 o'clock after noon, the church was crowded to hear the Rev. J. F. Marshall of Alexandria preach from 1 Cor, xv 57. While the preacher was preaching, brother What you call ums mouth began to pucker up unconsciously, Sister Aintgottiredyet's foot began to pat as her body began to reel to and fro and her head to vacillate like a pendulnm while brother and sister Seldomgethappy were heard to shont out, "Amen! Alleluiah!! Glory to God!!!" The Holy Spirit came npon us and made glad onr hearts. The Lords Supper was administered by the Presiding Elder to hnndreds and the Spirit of God moved npon the hearts of all believers. Indeed we thought of Pentecost with its wonders, but mark yon we did not say we had the cloven tongnes of fire resting upon. A great number of penitents were around the altar after the Lords Supper. Then we praise "God from whom all blessings flow," received the Benediction and went home to return again soon to hear a great sermon from Bishop Mallalieu. I need not tell you that that church was much too small for that time and service. Long before the time for service, the house was crowded to its utmost capacity and hnndreds more lingered about the doors and windows eager to catch the words that were to fall from the lips of a Methodist Episcopal Bishop. The choir of the church furnished the music for all the services. The anthem Makes a Joyful Noise (100th psalm) was sung, prayer was offered and the bishop said that before commencing his sermon he would baptize the infant of the pastor. So the husband and the wife stood before the altar with their little girl Lola Virdelle Harbert to be given to the Lord. The brethren of the Louisiana Conference assisted the bishop in reading the ceremony and he baptized her in the name of the Holy Trinity.

Bishop Mallalieu took for his text John vi. 37. "Him that cometh nnto me I will in no wise cast out." He plunged at once (It shonld be a lesson to us young ministers, some old ones, too) into his snbject. He did not go in to preach a snblime sermon which would charm the intellect and dazzle the brain, but he went in to captivate the heart, the seat of the affections for Christ and to be sure he reached it too. He came to save sinners. Salvation was his theme. Filled with the Holy Ghost as he is, his warmth is felt by his hearers. He feels, therefore, he makes others feel. At the close of the sermon the altar was crowded. We shall long remember his visit to Ebenezer. We thank God for such great, good and hopefnl leaders. Again and the last time in Ebenezer with this Bishop, we rose, praised God, received the benediction and retired to our homes on that night impressed with the Divine presence. On Monday morning at Wiley University the bishop and the Louisiana brethren with others had a glorions time. The Spirit was with the stndents. Brethren Dyer and Marshall spoke as did also the bishop. We can never forget the closing address. They all left Monday, 4 o'clock p. m., for Shreveport, La. On Thursday the Louisiana brethren returned to Marshall and staid two nights more, both preaching for the salvation of souls. When they left one mourner had been converted. May the Lord bless the bishop and these good brethren, and hasten the time when we can meet again in such glorious meetings.

Books and Current Literature.

The Boston Terra Cotta Company has produced a very handsome and unique mantelpeice, representing four kneeling children with doves, the designs being taken from one of Prang's Prize Christmas Cards of a former season, by Miss Anne G. Mors. R. Swain Gifford's painting "Near the Coast," which received one of four prizes of $2,500 each, at the recent New York Prize Fund Exhibition of the American Art Association, will remain in New York and become the property of the Metropolitan Museum. Mr Gifford's work has become widely known by his "Oaks of Filiach in Algiers," Which has been reproduced by L. Prang & Co., in excellent imitation of the water-color effects of the original. By lot the destination of the other three prize plotnres will be: "Le Crepnscule," by Alexander Harrison, to the Mnseum of Fine Arts of St. Louis; "A Rough Day, Entrance to the harbor of Harfleur," by Frank M. Boggs, to the Museum of Fine Arts at Boston; and "The Last Sacrament," by Henry Moller, to the Polytechnic Institute, of Louisville.

A Valuable Book.

We have just received from the enterprising publishers, A. H. Andrews & Co., a most useful little volume suggestively called "Look Within for Five Thousand Facts That Everybody Wants to Know." It contains 75 pages of condensed information on Mechanics, Statistics, History, Medicine, Astronomy, Finance, Mythology, Education, Mathematics, The Bible, Politics, Agriculture, Religion, Science, Temperance, Trade, etc., in fact there seems to be something for everybody and nothing that somebody will not be glad to know. It is embellished with a number of colored diagrams and is by far the most valuable and complete Pocket Cyclopedia we have yet seen. It is offered for sale at the exceedingly low price of 15 cents, for which sum in stamps it will be sent post paid by the publishers, A. H. Andrews & Co., Chicago.

William Edgar Bartley.

William Edgar Bartley, was born at Dover, Ky., Died at Springfield, Ohio, Sunday, May 24, 1885, aged about 30 years. The deceased was always held in esteem from his childhood. His disposition was to be quiet. He was faithful in all his promises. A man that talked but little, and lived much. When a boy he was a regular and punctual Sunday school scholar. He was converted under the preaching of Rev. Arthur Jamison at Dover, Ky., in 1874, and baptized by the same. The subject of our sketch came to Springfield, in February 1882 in company with Dr. Marshall W. Taylor the yonng man's friend, at which place he had made a large circle of warm friends.

The positions he held in Wiley Chapel, M. E. church; were various, from a scholar, he was a Sunday-school teacher, model class leader, a faithful steward of the church, member of the choir, treasurer of the Sunday-school Missionary Society, treasurer of the stewards, and recording steward.

Bro. Bartley was a model Christian, a useful class-leader, and a faithful officer. His last words before he departed this life, were "that he had no fears" "the only thing I regret is to leave my mother and sisters behind, I wish they could go with me." "I have not an enemy in the world" "Farewell mother" "and when he had said this he fell asleep." A great concourse of mourners assembled at Wiley Chapel M. E. Church, of which he was a useful member, and paid the last tribute of respect to his memory which was one of the most solemn services ever held in the church. The floral tributes, one a beautiful cross presented by his class members, and an anchor by the choir, were telling tokens of the high respect he was held by the church.

Thus ended the life of a spotless character, a brilliant Christian, "a burning and shining light" in the church and to the world. He sleeps in Jesus, free from all labor, care, and pain, until the resurrection morn. An aged mother, one brother, and three sisters of a family of twelve are left to mourn the loss of a son and brother.

Springfield.

Two Chicago girls thought it would be just fun to black their faces. Unfortunately they used a preparation which won't wash off. It operates like a dye, chemists say. "It is probably India ink, and if Payson's, they are marked for life.

GOD'S KEEPING POWER.

BY REV. E. T. CURNICK.

1 Peter, 1, 7.

...am kept by power Divine;
...I am Christ's, and He is mine.

...who notes the sparrow's fall,
...safely holds me when I call:

...rings the good from out the ill;
...hen my anguish—"Peace, be still."

...who spans the heaven's sweep,
...my soul in safety keep.

...holdeth all things up;
...ll he let my spirit drop?

...my earthly goods may perish,
...the cross of Christ I cherish.

...in wisdom may bereave me,
...my human idols leave me;

...I say, "The Lord did give;
...of right he may receive."

...ing hearts may well exclaim,
...d be His holy name!"

...my heart and strength do fail,
...love and strength for me prevail.

...shall stand before God's throne,
...be judged for what I've done.

...the stars like green figs fall,
...and moons eclipse, and all,

...ature, as with lightning pace,
...ee she from Jehovah's face.

...shall hear the wicked cry
...the mountains, vast and high,

...Fall, ye rocks and mountains too;
...de us from Jehovah's view."

...or the day of wrath is come,
...and we dread impending doom."

...Then in accents loud I'll cry
...Through the answering sounding sky;

"I am kept by power Divine,
I am Christ's and he is mine.

—Guide to Holiness

Domestic Hygiene.

Teeth, and How to Care for Them.

GEO. L. CURTISS, M. D.

The success of mastication or ...ation of food depends upon ... teeth well used. One of the ... of dyspepsia is the swallow... food that has not been prop... reduced to fineness and min... with the proper amount of ... The teeth are portions of the ... bones so defended by a ... of enamel as to prevent ... by contact with acids ... and fluids.

...t life each jaw is furnish... sixteen teeth, making ... in all. These are ... well developed. ... to the bony ... tooth—the crown, neck ... fang. The crown is entire... ...ed to the action of ... and solids. The neck ... slightly constricted, and ... covered with the ... of the tooth extends ... alveolar cavity of the jaw ... held fast by the membrane ... the cavity, and reflected ... sides of the tooth. If a ... cut lengthwise there will ... several structures ... sound, healthy teeth. The ... is covered with enamel, ... the hardest structure of ... It is "white and glisten..." ...d varies in hardness in ... persons. In those of a ... and vigorous constitution ... and flinty, while in some ... conditions it is soft and ... Especially is this the case ... ...ptives, who are so free ... ...taint. Below the enamel ... dentine, or ivory. It re... bone, but is harder, and is ... of the lacunæ and canali... in bone. From the neck ... extending to the point ... is the cement or outside of ...tine. It is a true bony ... Within the tooth is the ... allied with the pulp. This ... extends the whole length of ... The pulp contains ... blood vessels and nerve ... held together by longi... fibers of white fibrous tis... portion of the tooth is ... with a great sensibility. ... apex of the root a ... through which the ... vessels pass. ... between the first ... of teeth is this: ... are lost a second ... when the sec... ...nothing yet does ... With the enamel and ... they are not ... blood vessels ... may be ... destroyed, and the tooth retain its serviceable character, but it turns black. Such a tooth is said to be dead.

The teeth often become diseased. The enamel becomes cracked or broken, and the dentine is exposed. It soon commences to decay. The decay may burrow under the enamel to such an extent as to make a large cavity covered over by a thin shell. This cavity soon exposes the nerves in the pulp to the action of all substances entering the mouth. Pain is the result. When a person with decayed teeth contracts cold the pulp swells and presses on the nerve, and a "raging pang" is the result. To ease this pain hot applications may be made to the face, which by counter irritation calls the blood away from the congested tooth pulp. As soon as this is done the pain ceases. Sometimes a little cotton, wet with laudanum, is placed in the cavity, and it soothes the aching tooth.

The object of dentistry is two-fold. First to save decayed teeth by preventing further decay; second, by extracting teeth that are beyond saving, and whose presence is a great source of annoyance and pain, and injury to health. In the saving of a decaying tooth all the decayed matter must be carefully removed, and a clean, sound surface left. If any portion of the decay is left it will reproduce and extend its ravages. The cavity must be filled with some substance that is noncorroding. The best known filling is gold foil. When this is skillfully done the tooth may remain a serviceable organ for twenty years.

The present neat and expeditious method of excavating and filling a cavity in a tooth is well described by a reporter: "The drill used at the present day for excavating a tooth is either driven by the foot of the operator, or, better still, by electricity. A four-cell battery furnishes power to a revolving rod which turns two thousand times a minute. The end of the rod is hollow, and into it is fitted a drill which the operator selects from a large number as best suited for the size and depth of the cavity. The construction of the drill has been brought to such perfection that it is possible to drill all around the nerve, then put a cap over it, and over the cap the filling. When the tooth's structure shows that the nerve should be destroyed it is devitalized by a painless process. After the filling process is completed the rough surface of the gold is made even with the rim of the tooth by means of a rapidly revolving corundum wheel propelled by the same electric power as the drill. An hour suffices for the entire operation which ten or fifteen years ago consumed half a day, and was often done very unsatisfactorily in most instances."

The teeth are more greatly injured by want of proper care than by continuous use. The following rules (for the cleansing and preservation of the teeth are said to have received the prize offered by the Philadelphia Odontographic Society some time ago. They are valuable rules for the care of the teeth:

"Cleanse your teeth once, or oftener, every day. Always cleanse them before retiring at night. Always pick the teeth and rinse the mouth after eating.

Cleansing the teeth consists in thoroughly removing every particle of foreign substance from the teeth and gums.

To cleanse, use well made brushes, soft quill or wood toothpicks, an antacid styptic tooth wash, and precipitated chalk. If these means fail, apply to a reliable dentist.

Always roll the brush up and down, lengthwise of the teeth, by which means you may avoid injuring the gums and necks of the teeth, and more thoroughly cleanse between them.

Never use a dentifrice containing acid, alkali, charcoal, soap, salt, or any gritty or powerful detersive substances.

Powders and pastes generally are objectionable. They injure the enamel and soft parts of the teeth, and greatly assist in forming tartar. A wash properly medicated and carefully prepared is pleasanter and more beneficial. It dissolves the injurious secretions and deposits, and the whole is readily removed with the brush and water.

Avoid eating hot food. Thoroughly masticate and insalivate the food before swallowing it. Frequent indulgence in sweetmeats, etc., between regular meals, disturbs the process of digestion, and a viscid secretion is deposited in the mouth (from the stomach), which is very injurious to the teeth.

Never allow any one to extract a tooth, or to dissuade you from having them filled, unless absolutely necessary. Many so-called dentists, actuated by selfish motive, advise extracting, and sacrifice teeth which competent operators can render serviceable for many years.

Carelessness and procrastination are responsible for a large majority of teeth that are lost."

Back Ache? Hunt's Remedy will cure pains in the back or loins, female diseases, nervous prostration and kidney diseases.

Senator Edmunds, of Vermont, goes by invitation of the British Parliament to expound to them American law.

Sick headache? Piles, constipation, bilious headache and dyspepsia, are all speedily cured by Hunt's Kidney and Liver Remedy.

Labor strikes are reported in many quarters.

DR. SANFORD'S
LIVER
INVIGORATOR

...a Reliable Remedy for Liver Complaints and the Diseases caused by a deranged or torpid Liver, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Biliousness, ... Malaria, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaints, ... does the whole, when taken according to directions.

AN INVALUABLE FAMILY MEDICINE
The Only Vegetable Preparation which acts specifically on the Liver.
A PAMPHLET WILL TELL YOU ITS REMEDIAL POWERS.
Sold by Druggists. ... 13teowkly

MADAME FOY'S CORSET
...
PIPE ORGAN
...
HILBORNE L. ROOSEVELT,
Manufacturer of Church Organs,
...

GEORGE LANDRY,
...
Undertaker.
202.....Bienville Street.....202
(Between Hospital and Barracks streets)
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Entrepreneur de Pompes Funebres.
All orders promptly and carefully executed, at moderate prices.
sept25-tf A. LABAT, Asst. Manager.

P. P. ALBERT,
(Successor to L. Biboles, Manager.)
Produce Merchant,
And Dealer in Groceries,
8.....Toulouse Street,.....8
P. O. Box 3249. NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Personal attention given to the sale of all produce entrusted to my care, and prompt returns rendered for same. All orders promptly filled at lowest market rates, for cash. Liberal advances made on consignments when received. Correspondence solicited.
No transactions on Sundays. sept25-tf

...
THIS NEW ELASTIC TRUSS
...
may21-6t

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS
WILL CURE
HEADACHE
INDIGESTION
BILIOUSNESS
DYSPEPSIA
NERVOUS PROSTRATION MALARIA
CHILLS AND FEVERS
TIRED FEELING
GENERAL DEBILITY
PAIN IN THE BACK & SIDES
IMPURE BLOOD
CONSTIPATION
FEMALE INFIRMITIES
RHEUMATISM
NEURALGIA
KIDNEY AND LIVER TROUBLES
FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS
The Genuine has Trade Mark and crossed Red Lines on wrapper.
TAKE NO OTHER.

HEADQUARTERS
—FOR—
Sunday-school Supplies
Consisting of
GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with and without music.
Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, Bible Dictionaries.
Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books, Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Text Books, etc., etc. Also a large assortment of Books suitable for Libraries or presents to children. PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $2 65 to $12 00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock.
W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent
94.....Camp Street,.....94
25tf NEW ORLEANS.

CORPULENCY Receive and notes how to harmlessly, effectually and rapidly cure obesity without semi-starvation dietary, etc. European Mail, Oct. 24th, says: "Its effect is not merely to reduce the amount of fat, but by affecting the source of obesity to produce a radical cure of the disease. Mr. R. makes no charge whatever; any person, rich or poor, can obtain his work gratis by sending 6 cts. to cover postage to F. C. RUSSELL, Esq., Woburn House, Store street, Bedford Sq., London, Eng. may21-13t

A PRIZE Send six cents for postage, and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help you to more money right away than anything else in this world. All, of either sex, succeed from first hour. The broad road to fortune opens before the workers, absolutely sure. At once address, TRUE & Co., Augusta, Maine. feb19-26t

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.
Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9-12, 1883.
Sixty Addresses by American Educators.
Edited by Rev. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.
Svo. 372 pp. Price, stiff paper, $1.50
Cloth..... 1 75
The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:
1. Education and Man's Improvement.
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America.
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Pauperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War.
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—Six tables.
It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents. The authors are nearly all successful in actual work in the fields of which they speak. The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index.
Sent postpaid on receipt of price.
Phillips & Hunt,
37 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

20 YEARS OF CONGRESS.....JAMES G. BLAINE
1,000,000 Copies will soon be sold. The Life and Services of our Great Statesman. From 1861 to 1881. Hon. John S. Wise, M. C. from Virginia, says: "Whoever takes up [illegible] Blaine's friend or enemy, will never put it down until he has read the whole." $200 per month to good responsible agents. Address, The Henry Bill Publishing Company, Norwich, Conn. decl3-52t

The WORLD'S EXPOSITION
Opens Tuesday, December 16, 1884
In the presence of the Presidents of the American Republics, viz: Arthur, of the United States; Diaz, of Mexico; Barrios, of Guatemala; Bogran, of Honduras.
The Colossal Exhibit of all Time!
Sixteen (16) Immense Exhibition Buildings;
One—the largest building ever erected, another—the largest Conservatory in the World.
90 Acres of Space Under Cover!
Low Transportation Rates from all Points.
Ample Accommodations at Reasonable Rates for all Visitors.
During the period of the Exposition, from Dec. 6, 1884, to June 1, 1885 the temperature at New Orleans averages 65 Fahr. The lawns and shrubbery remain green, flowers bloom, fruits ripen, and all kinds of vegetables grow to maturity.
Full information promptly furnished. Address,
M. A. BURKE, Director General,
New Orleans, La.

RAILROADS.

Chesapeake & Ohio R. R.
—VIA—
WASHINGTON
—TO—
BALTIMORE,
PHILADELPHIA,
and NEW YORK
THE ONLY LINE WITH
Pullman Sleeping Cars
—FROM—
Louisville, Cincinnati and Lexington
—TO—
WASHINGTON
WITHOUT CHANGE.
Schedule in effect October 12, 1884

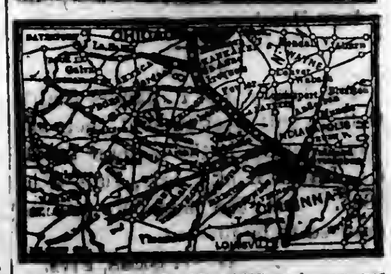
EASTWARD.	No 4 Daily.	No. 6 ex Sunday
Leave Cincinnati	3 10 p m	8 30 p m
Leave Louisville	7 15 p m	7 00 a m
Leave Lexington	10 40 p m	11 45 a m
Leave Winchester	11 15 p m	12 25 p m
Due Mt. Sterling	12 08 a m	1 36 p m
Due Ashland	3 26 a m	5 55 p m
Due Huntington	4 00 a m	6 40 p m
Leave Huntington
Due Charleston	6 36 a m	10 00 p m
Due Clifton Forge	1 30 p m	6 40 a m
Due Staunton	3 57 p m	9 26 a m
Due Charlottesville	5 20 p m	11 05 a m
Due Richmond	9 15 p m	3 25 p m
Arrive Newport News	10 45 a m	8 30 p m
Due Washington	9 50 p m
Arrive New York	6 30 a m

WESTWARD.	No. 3, Daily.	No. 1, ex Sunday
Leave New York	10 00 a m	12 00 nt
Due Washington	5 10 p m	9 10 a m
Leave Newport News	3 50 p m
Leave Richmond	6 25 p m	9 35 a m
Due Charlottesville	10 00 p m	1 45 p m
Due Staunton	11 42 p m	4 57 p m
Due Clifton Forge	1 45 a m	6 4 p m
Due Charleston	9 00 a m	4 25 a m
Due Huntington
Leave Huntington	9 40 a m	8 20 a m
Due Ashland	10 19 a m	7 02 a m
Due Mt. Sterling	1 57 p m	11 05 a m
Leave Winchester	2 30 p m	11 45 a m
Arrive Lexington	3 20 p m	12 45 p m
Arrive Louisville	7 10 p m	5 2 p m
Arrive Cincinnati	8 05 p m	5 35 p m

Lexington Div. trains run by Central time. Main line trains East of Huntington run by Eastern time, which is one hour faster than Central time.
Nos. 1 and 6 run daily, except Sunday. Sleeping cars between Huntington and Clifton Forge.
Nos 3 and 4 run daily, and do not stop for local business. Pullman Sleeping cars and Solid Train between Louisville and Washington and Cincinnati and Richmond without change.
Nos. 2 and 5 runs daily between Richmond and Clifton Forge. Do not run between Clifton Forge and Richmond.
No 1 leave Norfolk, except Sunday, 7 40 a m, Old Point 8 15 a m, Newport News 8 45 a m, arrive at Richmond at 11 35 a m
No. 2 leave Richmond except Sunday 8 20 a m, arrive Newport News 10 45 a m, Old Point 11 10 a m, Norfolk 11 45 a m
Old Dominion Steamers leave Norfolk on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or Saturday at 6 00 p m; arrive in New York next afternoon.
For Rates Tickets, Baggage Checks apply to any office of C. & O. R'y, or Depot or Ticket Office of connecting lines.
C. W. SMITH, Gen'l Manager.
H. W. FULLER, Gen'l Pass. Agt

Ohio & Mississippi R. R
—The Direct and Fast Line to—
Cincinnati,
Louisville,
Washington,
Baltimore,
New York and the East,
In Connection with the
"Great Jackson Route,"
Making the following
FAST TIME:

STATIONS.	Daily
Leave New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss	12:38 a m
Canton	1:30 a m
Durant	2:52 p m
Grenada	4:00 a m
Coffeeville	5:25 a m
Water Valley	6:00 a m
Oxford	6:43 a m
Holly Springs	7:54 a m
Grand Junction	9:15 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St. L. & N. O	11:05 a m
Milan, " " "	12:20 p m
Martin " " "	1:32 p m
Fulton " " "	2:00 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:30 p m
Carbondale "	6:58 p m
DuQuoin "	7:45 p m
Ashley "	8:28 p m
Centralia "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:26 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi	9:29 p m
" Louisville, "	6:50 a m
" Cincinnati "	7:05 a m



SPECIAL INFORMATION.
Passengers living on the line of the C. St. L. & N. O. R. R. will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O. & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.
The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.
2 DAILY TRAINS
FROM ODIN
To WASHINGTON in 27 Hours,
To BALTIMORE in 28 Hours.
This is 5 Hours quicker than the fastest time by any other line.
The Day Express runs entire train consisting of Day Coaches and Palace Sleeping Cars from St. Louis to Washington and Baltimore without change.
The Night Express has Sleepers through without change. No other line from St. Louis offers a Double Daily Through Train Service to the National Capital.
W. W. PEABODY,
President and General Manager.
W. B. SHATTUC,
General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio. jy31tf

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.
The old reliable route to all Eastern cities. Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla. Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leaves:	Arrives.
Express	8:00 a m	7:45 a m
Coast Accommodation	3:35 p m	9:10 a m
Fast Mail	8:20 p m	7:30 p m

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. C. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.
W. E. Kniskern, Ticket Agent; J. T. Harahan, General Manager; John Kilkeny, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; O. M. Dunn, Superintendent N. O. and M. Division. ap26-1y

RAILROADS.

C. I. St. L. & C. Ry.
KANKAKEE LINE.

4 PASSENGER TRAINS each way per day between Cincinnati and Indianapolis.
3 PASSENGER TRAINS each way per day between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Chicago.
2 PASSENGER TRAINS each way per day between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette, Kankake, Seneca and Davenport, Ia.
KANKAKEE LINE.
Entire trains run through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Chicago. Pullman Sleepers and elegant Reclining Chair Cars on Night trains. Parlor Cars on Day Trains.
SHELDON ROUTE.
Commodious Reclining Chair Cars run through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Peoria, Ills. and Keokuk, Ia. Close connection for Burlington, Ia.
KANKAKEE & SENECA ROUTE.
The ONLY LINE running Elegant coaches through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Davenport, Ia.
CONNECTIONS
At Cincinnati, in Central Union Depot, with all trains of the Cincinnati Southern Railway, (Queen & Crescent Route) thus avoiding the tedious omnibus transfer incident to all other lines.
At Indianapolis, in Union Depot, with all lines diverging.
Through Tickets and Baggage Checks to all Principal Points,
Can be obtained at any ticket office, C. I. St. L. & C. Ry., also via this line at all Coupon Ticket Offices throughout the country.
See Agents of this Company for Rates, Routes, &c., or write Grant K. Lowry, Trav Pass. Agt., Wilmore, Ky.
JOHN EGAN,
Gen'l Pass. and Tkt. Agent, Cincinnati, O.

BIG
Great Jackson Route.
Illinois Central R. R. Co.
Double Daily Passenger Trains.

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Passenger No. 2, 9:15 a.m.	Passgr No. 1, 7:00 a.m.
No. 4 St. L. & Chi. Express, 6:00 p. m.	No. 3, Chic. & N O Lim. Ex. 9:00 a.m.
No. 6 Sea Ex., 7:30 a.m.	No. 5 Sea Ex. 6:20 p.m.

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.
Ticket Office: Cor. Carondelet and Canal, (Pickwick Club Building.)
WM. MURRAY,
General Southern Passenger Agent.
J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT KENNEDY, Ticket Agent.

C & O
The Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company have moved their ticket management and business rooms to No. 225 Fourth avenue.
C. O. & S. W. R. R.
THE SOUTHERN TRUNK LINE
—TO—
Louisville, Cincinnati, Washington, Baltimore,
And the Short Line to
Cairo, St. Louis, Chicago and the Northwest.
The Direct Route to
Eastern Seaboard Cities, Texas, Arkansas and the Southwest.
Chesapeake, Ohio & Southwestern R. R.
For Owensboro, Henderson, Paducah and Memphis and all points South and Southwest. Ticket office 225 Fourth avenue. Depot, corner of Fourteenth and Main streets.

	Express Daily	Accom Daily ex Sun'y
Leave Louisville	7 50 a m	4 10 p m
Arrive at Cecelia	10 20 a m	6 45 p m
" Elizabethtown	10 10 a m	7 05 p m
" Grayson Springs	11 12 a m	.....
" Litchfield	11 23 a m	.....
" Central City	2 00 p m	.....
" Owensboro	5 05 a m	.....
" Nortonsville	3 27 p m	.....
" Hopkinsville	9 50 p m	.....
" Madisonville	4 37 p m	.....
" Henderson	6 10 p m	.....
" Evansville	8 10 p m	.....
" Tradewater	4 07 p m	.....
" Princeton	4 47 p m	.....
" Paducah	7 00 p m	.....
" Mayfield	8 27 p m	.....
" Fulton	9 29 p m	.....
" Cairo	10 45 p m	.....
" River	10 10 p m	.....
" Memphis	3 20 a m	.....
" Louisville	7 00 p m	9 35 a m

Tickets now on sale at depot at lowest rates. Call on or address K. H. TALLEY, Ticket Agent Memphis, Tenn.
Or B. F. MITCHELL, Gen Pass. Agt, Louisville, Ky.

ARE YOU GOING TO
KANSAS, MISSOURI, COLORADO, CALIFORNIA OR ANY OF THE WESTERN STATES?
If so you should avail yourself of the advantages that are now offered by the Kansas City Route, the only direct route from the South to the West and Northwest. This line runs its entire trains, with Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars and free Reclining Chair Cars, from Memphis to Kansas City, saving many hours time over any other route. If you are going West you will save money by purchasing your tickets via Memphis and the Kansas City Route. Send for large map of this Short Route; mailed free. Address,
J. E. LOCKWOOD,
Kansas City, Mo.
Or, H. D. ELLIS, Ticket Agent.
31 Madison street, Memphis, Tenn.

BIG PAY to sell our Rubber Stamps. Send for samples. TAYLOR BROS., ap30-13t Cleveland, Ohio

General News Items.

"Keep sober and read good books and papers, especially the Bible, etc.," is the tenth article of the Southern Cultivator's creed, by L. N. Dupree, of Ala.

Mother Josephine Charles, the founder of the order of Sisters of the Holy Family, and an orphan asylum, is dead. She was a good woman full af alms deeds which she did.

There was no confusion in Dr. Sunderlend's church because Mr. Douglass and family took a pew in it recently. Reports to the contrary are fallacious.

Ex-Minister Langston has returned. Minister Thompson was to leave for Hayti on the 9th inst., and if possible secure the release of an American held there for debt.

The Peoples Advocate signalizes its first appearance under new owners, editors, etc., by a ringing condemnation of the practice of some Washington churches selling liquor at their entertainments.

The St. Louis banks save one day by the fast express, which means more than the mere annihilation of space. It is a $1,000,000 per day saved in interest.

Mrs. Marcus Dale and other colored ladies have taken a building and are making arrangements to open a house for infirm colored people in this city. They should be liberally aided.

A Little Rock paper accuses the colored people of that place of selling their votes and principles under the leadership of prominent colored men, and some of them ministers, at a late election. Shame on them, if true, and on the paper if not.

Mr. John M. Stahl, in the Southern Cultivator for June, says, under "Labor and Capital in the South," "One way of getting intelligent laborers is by educating the Negro. But the way is for intelligent Southern people to go to work themselves."

J. L. Ries, engineer, of Little Rock, has been awarded a first prize on a steam engine model in the New Orleans Exposition. He is colored. Equality comes rapidly that way. No it doesn't, either, for the mechanic who cannot make and [illegible] as Mr. Allen is not his equal in genius.

"Is Life Worth Living?

asks the question used by a lady, who was at one time given up by the most eminent physicians, and left to die. Reduced to a mere skeleton, pale and haggard, not able to leave her bed, from all those distressing diseases peculiar to suffering females, such as displacement, leucorrhœa, inflammation, etc., etc. She began using Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription," and also using the "Golden Medical Discovery," and is now, she says, as "good as new." Price reduced to one dollar. By druggists.

OLD ONE HUNDRED.

MRS. TENA BURTON,

100 ..... Franklin Street 100

Lodging,

With or Without Board.

ma31-6m

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS,

17 & 29 West 2d St., New York.

Have now ready

The History of the Negro Race in America.

From 1619 to 1881. Negroes as Slaves, as Soldiers and as Citizens.

Together with a preliminary consideration of the Ethics of the Human Family, and Historical Sketch of Africa, and an account of the Negro Republic of Liberia. By George W. Williams, first colored member of the Ohio Legislature, and late Judge Advocate of the G. A. R. Ohio.

Two volumes in one large octavo, with portrait on steel of the author, $5.

"It is a prodigious compilation, so comprehensive that every student will welcome it, and so just in the whole scope that criticism of special points can not impair it."—World, New York.

"It ought to be read by every colored man in America."—Journal, Indianapolis.

"He has accomplished a noble service for his race."—Zion's Herald, Boston.

☞ This book can be ordered through the office of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, New Orleans, La.

Bibles at 1-2 and Old Testaments at less than 1-3 the prices of the English editions, and equal to the English in type, paper, printing and accuracy. First agent sent over 100 varieties; order at once and secure territory. Earn $100 per week. Each volume has space to make money. Send $1.50 for outfit. Terms very liberal.

The Henry Bill Pub. Co., Norwich, Conn.

may14-tf

OPIUM MORPHINE HABIT EASILY CURED. BOOK FREE. Dr. [illegible] Jefferson, W. [illegible] may28-6m

She Had Confidence.

Mrs. H. C. Harshbarger, Manor Hill, Huntingdon County, Pa., writes: "DR. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, O.: I have been afflicted for three years, caused by over-work too soon after confinement. My kidneys became seriously affected; could not retain my urine day nor night. It was high colored, thick and bloody. My monthlies had left altogether for fourteen months, during which time I was confined to my bed with a beating in right ovaries. The discharge from the womb was so offensive no one could stay in the room. The urine continued bloody, with pain in voiding it, and when in bed would pass from me in my sleep. I have had three doctors attending me regularly, one for four months, one of the others one whole summer, and the third all winter. We had two others in consultation with them, and used twenty bottles of different kinds of patent medicines, all to no good. I then got a bottle of PERUNA, and before I had three-fourths of the bottle taken I quit wetting the bed and could retain the urine sufficient to attend church, which I had not done for three years, and my monthlies came back as natural as ever; indeed, I considered myself a well woman again. Since that time I have had pneumonia. My confidence in PERUNA was so great that I did not send for a doctor. I followed the directions in your "Ills of Life" and am over it, as well as can be expected of one so delicate as I have been. Others in my neighborhood had the same disease, and among them were strong men, and had the best physicians, and yet died, while I sailed through in safety on PERUNA and MANALIN. I sincerely believe, and would say to all the afflicted in the wide world, that PERUNA and MANALIN are the only [illegible] that any one needs in any disease, if used as directed in your book entitled "The Ills of Life."

J. E. Fleming, publisher of the New Dominion, Morgantown, W. Va., writes: "Some months since, I received some of your medicine in exchange for advertising. My wife has taken five bottles of it, and has derived great benefit from it."

Mr. M. C. Pershing, Bradenville, Pa., writes: "My wife has been using PERUNA for some time for weak lungs and liver and kidney complaint, and thinks it is doing her great good. Has used only one bottle as yet. Please send your book on the 'Ills of Life,' as we can't get any from our druggist."

Mr. John Denny, Mt. Vernon, O., writes: "We have a large sale in PERUNA. It gives satisfaction."

For the Cheapest and Choicest

Family & Fancy Groceries,

SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE,

Hams, Bacon, &c., &c.,

—GO TO—

N. E. Sullivan's

GROCERY

Corner of

Washington and Hampson Streets

CARROLLTON, LA.

oct23-1y

An Offer Never Equaled!

THE WEEKLY EDITION

—OF—

The TIMES DEMOCRAT,

NEW ORLEANS,

—AND—

THE WEEKLY EDITION

—OF—

THE NEW YORK WORLD,

NEW YORK,

FOR ONE YEAR

Only $2.20.

OR

THE TWO WEEKLIES

—AND A—

Waterbury Watch and Chain

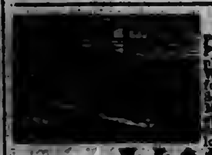
FOR $4.20.

Either Weekly alone is worth more than the price asked for both, as they contain reviews of the news of the world, a vast amount of select literary matter, exhaustive commercial reports, in fact everything is embraced that tends to make a

First-class Family Newspaper.

The subscription price to Weekly Times-Democrat alone is $1 50 for 12 months; 75 cents for 6 months, or 50 cents for 3 months.

Every family in New Orleans not taking the Daily TIMES-DEMOCRAT should keep posted in the



NEWS OF THE WORLD,

by taking these Weeklies, and as an inducement we offer a good serviceable watch for the small addition mentioned above.

The WATERBURY WATCH is a stemwinder, and will run twenty-eight hours. The case is NICKLE-SILVER and will always remain as bright as a new silver dollar. The Watch has a heavy beveled edge and a crystal face. The works of the Watch are made with the finest automatic machinery. Every watch is tested in varying positions, and is perfect before leaving the factory. Each Watch is put up in a handsome new improved SATIN-LINED CASE, for safe transportation through the mails.

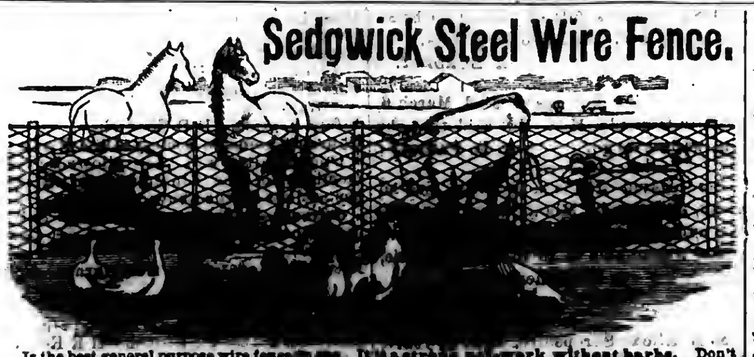
SUBSCRIPTIONS

Taken at the office of THE TIMES-DEMOCRAT, or by mail, when accompanied by subscription price.

BARNES'

Patent Foot and Steam Power Machinery. Complete outfits for Actual Workshop Business. Lathes for Wood or Metal. Circular Saws, Scroll Saws, Formers, Mortisers, Tenoners, etc., etc. Machines on trial if desired. Descriptive Catalogue and Price List Free.

W. F. & JOHN BARNES,



No. 187 Ruby St. Rockford, Ill.

Skin Diseases.—"Swayne's Ointment,"

"Swayne's Ointment" cures Tetter, Salt Rheum, Ringworm, Sores, Pimples, Eczema, all Itchy Skin Eruptions, no matter how obstinate or long standing.

oct23-1year

Sedgwick Steel Wire Fence.

Is the best general purpose wire fence in use. It is a strong [illegible] work without barbs. Don't injure stock. It will turn dogs, pigs, sheep and cattle. The best fence for Farms, Gardens, Stock ranges, and [illegible]. Very neat, pretty styles for Lawns, Parks, School lots, and Cemeteries. Covered with [illegible] paint, or made of galvanized wire, as preferred. It will last a life-time. It is better than boards or hedges in every respect. Give it a fair trial; it will wear itself into favor. The Sedgwick Gate, made of iron pipe and steel wire, defy all competition in lightness, neatness, strength, and durability. We make the best, cheapest, and easiest working all-iron automatic or self-opening gate, and the neatest cheap iron fence now made. The Best Portable poultry coop is also our [illegible]. The best Wire Stretcher, Cutting Pliers, and Post Augers. We also manufacture Russell's excellent Wind Engines for pumping, and Geared Engines for grinding, etc. For prices and particulars ask Hardware Dealers, or address, mentioning paper.

SEDGWICK BROS., Richmond, Ind.

M. E. Church Directory.

Southwestern Christian Advocate. Office 32 Natchez Street.

LA BARPE STREET CHURCH—Rev. Elijah Clarke, pastor. Sunday services—Prayer meeting, 6 a m; Sunday-school, 9 a m; preaching at 11 a m 3 p m, and 7 p m; Class-meeting Tuesday night, at 7 o'clock; Love-feast Thursday night, at 7 o'clock; Communion first Sunday evening of each month, at 7 30.

FIRST GERMAN M. E. CHURCH—Corner St. Andrew and Frank in streets. Rev. J. J. Kiesle pastor. Preaching at 10:30 a m, and Sunday-school at 9 a m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.

SECOND GERMAN M. E. CHURCH—Eighth street, Rev. Charles Schuler, pastor. Services Sabbath at 10:30 a m, and 7 p m; Sunday-school at 9 a m; Prayer meeting Wednesday evenings at 7:30.

ST. MATTHEW M. E. CHURCH—On Varnet Street, Algiers, La. Sunday services: Preaching at 11 and 3; 7:30 at night. Prayer meeting 6 30 in the morning. Class meeting Wednesday, 7:30 p m. Sunday-school at 1:30. R. O. Barrow, Pastor.

UNION CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Services: Sundays, preaching 11 a m., 3 p. m. 7½ p. m. Sunday school at 1 o'clock. Class meeting Tuesday nights. Preaching Thursday nights. Prayer-meeting Friday nights. Stephen Duncan, Pastor, 42 Robinson street.

WESLEY CHAPEL—Liberty street, between Perdido and Poydras; Rev Marcus Dale, Pastor. Services: Sunday 6 a m; prayer meeting, preaching 11 a m; 3 and 7 30 p m; General Class and Love Feast monthly; preaching Thursday eve, 7:30; Class, Monday eve.

SIXTH STREET CHURCH—Between Laurel and Annunciation; Rev. F. Lyon, pastor. Services—Public worship Sabbath 11 a m., 3 and 7 p m. Communion every second Sunday at 7 p. m. Sunday-school 1-p m. Class-meeting Monday evening. Preaching Wednesday evening. Prayer-meeting Friday evening. General Class first Monday night in every month. Prayer service at 5:30 a. m.

CAMP PARAPET CHURCH—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, Pastor. Sunday services—Prayer-meeting 6 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Sabbath at 1 p m. Class-meetings. Thursday evening.

HAVEN CHAPEL—JEFFERSON STREET, Carrollton, corner of Plum street. Rev. M. O. B Mason, Pastor. Services—Public worship at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m, Sunday. Sunday-school 9 a. m. Class-meeting Monday evening. General Class, second Sunday at 11 a. m., and communion at 7. Preaching Thursday evening.

New Orleans University A. F Hoyt, M. A., Acting President 1428 St. Charles Street.

First Street—Rev. [illegible] Montgomery, Pastor. Church corner First and Dryades Streets. Services: Sabbath—9 a. m., prayer meeting; 11, 3 and 7, public worship; communion monthly, on the first Sunday. Sunday-school 1 p. m. Class meeting Monday evening. General class every fourth Monday evening. Preaching Thursday nights.

MOUNT ZION M. E. CHURCH—James W Hudson, pastor. Regular services 11 a m, 3 and 7 p m; prayer meeting Monday eve at 6 p m. Tuesday night class meeting. Preaching Wednesday eve at 7 p m. and sacrament the third Sabbath of every month.

THOMSON CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Peet street, near Rampart. Sunday Services: preaching at 11, 3 and 7. Prayer meeting 6 in morning. Class meeting 3:30. Z. T. Gayden, pastor.

AMES M. E. CHURCH—Rev. Thomas Stalker, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sunday-school at 9.45 a. m. Prayer meeting, Thursday evening at 7 30.

PLEASANT PLAIN CHURCH—Perdido, bet. Johnson and Prieur streets. Rev. W. P. Forest, pastor. Services Sabbath: Preaching at 11 a m, 3:30 and 7:30 p m. Sunday school at 9 a m; early prayer meeting at 5:30 a m: class at 5:30 p m; preaching Wednesday and prayer meeting Monday evenings. Sacrament every second Sabbath. Love feast quarterly.

General Church Directory.

CENTRAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Also College Church of Straight University. M. E. corner Gravier and Liberty streets, one block off Canal street. Services—Preaching Sundays at 11 a m and 7 p m; Sabbath-school 1:15 p m. Prayer meetings Tuesdays and Friday evenings at 7:30 p m. This church has a fine church under good leadership, and is centrally located. Northern visitors and all true friends of the colored people are cordially invited to attend its services. Rev. G. W. Bothwell, M. A., pastor.

OUR CLUBBING LIST,

—1885—

Persons sending us cash with their orders can have the SOUTHWESTERN one year together with any one of the following publications, for amount opposite each as named:

Littell's Living Age	$9 00
Outing	3 00
Wide Awake	4 25
Babyland	1 75
Our Little Men and Women	2 25
The Penny	2 00
Our Little Ones and the Nursery	2 25
American Agriculturist	2 50
Southern Cultivator	2 75
Popular Science Monthly	6 00
New York Medical Journal	6 00
Illustrated Christian Weekly	3 25
Harper's Magazine	5 00
Harper's Weekly	5 00
Harper's Basar	5 00
Harper's Young People	3 00
American Reformer	2 00
Weekly Inter-Ocean	2 25
Babyhood	2 75

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez street, New Orleans.

Dr. Sterling P. Brown

365 Chippewa Street,

NEW ORLEANS LA.

OFFICE HOURS | From 8 to 10 a. m. and 2 to 4 p. m.

mar19 3m

OPIUM WHISKY HABITS cured at home without pain. Book of particulars sent Free. [illegible] M. D., Atlanta Ga.

apr2-1yr

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.

Bells For Churches, Schools, Etc.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
24 inches	1[illegible] lbs	300 lbs	$135 00
26 "	2[illegible] lbs	350 lbs	45 00
28 "	3[illegible] lbs	375 lbs	55 00
32 "	3[illegible] lbs	550 lbs	80 00
36 "	5[illegible] lbs	750 lbs	100 00
40 "	800 lbs	1160 lbs	145 00
44 "	1000 lbs	1400 lbs	180 00
48 "	1345 lbs	1800 lbs	230 00
54 "	2030 lbs	2800 lbs	350 00

Bells for Schools, Farms, Etc. without mountings.

18 inches	75 lbs	$12 00
20 inches	100 lbs	18 00
24 inches	185 lbs	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named, which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.

The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.

On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,

37 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.

Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.

VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.

mar5-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.

The Finest Grade of Church Bells

Greatest Experience. Largest Trade.

Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.

Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,

TROY, N. Y.

nov26-1yr

McSHANE BELL FOUNDRY

[illegible] celebrated Bells, Chimes for Churches, Town Clocks, &c. Price-list and [illegible] sent free. Address [illegible] McSHANE & CO.

Baltimore, Md.

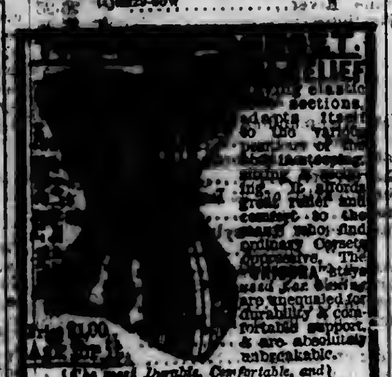
[illegible] CO

jly2 1eow

Baltimore Church Bells

Since 1844 unrivaled for Superiority over others, and made only of Purest Bell Metal, (Copper and Tin.) Rotary Mountings, warranted satisfactory. Price, Circulars, &c., address BALTIMORE BELL Foundry, J. REGESTER & SONS, Baltimore, Md.

apr21 26tow



BARNES'

Patent Foot and Steam Power Machinery. Complete outfits for Actual Workshop Business. Lathes for Wood or Metal. Circular Saws, Scroll Saws, Formers, Mortisers, Tenoners, etc., etc. Machines on trial if desired. Descriptive Catalogue and Price List Free.

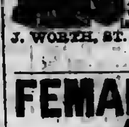
W. F. & JOHN BARNES,

No. 187 Ruby St. Rockford, Ill.

ajan29-eow

(The most Durable, Comfortable, and Healthful Corset ever sold for its price.

Every pair warranted to give satisfaction or money returned.



J. G. FITZPATRICK & CO., Mfrs.,

71 Leonard Street, NEW YORK.

Please mention this paper in ordering.

apr23 4teow

AGENTS WANTED for the MISSOURI STEAM WASHER!

It will pay any intelligent man or woman seeking profitable employment to write for Illustrated Circular and terms of Agency for this Celebrated Washer, which by reason of its intrinsic merit is meeting with such wonderful success.

J. WORTH, ST. LOUIS, MO., or CHICAGO, ILL.

jan22 26t

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

Treated scientifically at home, at very small expense, with absolutely no pain, no exertion, no unnecessary examinations. Permanent cure guaranteed. Book, paid question blank free. Address with stamp, Dr. C. M. BROCKINGTON, (Mention this paper.) 600 4th Ave., Louisville, Ky.

CATARRH

Causing Loss of [illegible], Sore Throat, Deafness, Hay Fever, Croup and Consumption, cured in from one to three months, even though some of parts are affected. No snuffs, washes, douches, inhalers or smoking used. Book and blank free. Address with stamp, Dr. C. M. BROCKINGTON, (Mention this paper.) 600 4th Ave., Louisville, Ky.

oct2-1yr

PHILLIP SAAL,

Dealer in Fancy and Staple Groceries. A Specialty of Butter, Teas, Coffee, and Fine Family Groceries.

503 Dryades Street, (near St. Andrew st.,) New Orleans, La.

jan1-1y

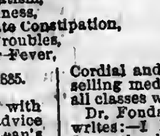
Crescent Insurance Company.

Incorporated as a Mutual Company in 1849. Re-organized as a Stock Company in 1869.

CASH CAPITAL.....$600,000.

Has paid paid nearly TEN MILLIONS for losses since 1849. Annual and Term Policies issued on Desirable Fire Business.

W. R. Lyman, President, Chas. H. Dolsen, Vice President, Chas. E. Rice, Sec'y.



TRUSTEES

Joseph Bowling,	Sam H. Kennedy,	Geo. W. Sentell,	Alfred Moulton,	W. B. Conger
W. R. Lyman,	U Marioni,	Chas. H. Dolsen,	John Walker,	A. H. Sterrett,
S. C. Conlon,	Harry L. Flash,	Wm. A. Phelps,	J. J. Reiss,	Louis Prytania
Louis Delery,	Charles Neuman,	N. D. Wallace,	Sigmund Katz,	St. Gill
E. F. W Beckman,	O. K. David,	Wm. Gerig,	A. Rosenfeld,	John D. [illegible]
Chas E Rice,	Joseph Kohn,	Chas. M. Whitney,	James T. Rodd.

☞ See our Agents throughout the South.

oct9 1y

THE LITTLE HUCKLEBERRY, FOR CHILDREN TEETHING.

The soldiers in the late war established the fact that the Huckleberry was much more efficacious in [illegible] bowel troubles than the Blackberry.

Every one knows the Huckleberry growing alongside the hill, but few have realized the fact that the purple berry contains one of the most valuable astringent healing principles to the bowels.

Walter A. Taylor, Atlanta, Georgia.

apr21 1y

NOW, NOW, NOW IS THE TIME!

SPRING TIME!

PURIFY YOUR BLOOD.

DR. J. H. McLEAN'S

Strengthening Cordial

AND

BLOOD PURIFIER

Is the greatest Blood Purifier in the world.

TRY IT, AND YOU WILL USE IT EVERY SEASON.

It acts as delightfully on the tender Babe, the most delicate Lady and infirm old age, as on the strong man, in imparting Health and Vigor to Nerves and Brain, Blood Vessels, Heart and Liver. When taken, you can feel its life-giving power course through every artery, destroying all diseases of the Blood, and giving Health, Vital Power and Strength to every part of the body. Who will suffer from Liver Complaint or Diseases of the Stomach, Kidneys, Bowels, or Bladder, when such a great Remedy is within their reach?

IT WILL CURE:

Sleeplessness,	Falling of the Womb,	Diarrhœa or Bloody Flux,
Night Sweats,	Bad Blood,	Lung and Liver Diseases,
Sallow Complexion,	Biliousness,	Kidney Troubles,
Hot Flushes, Fainting Spells,	Pimples,	Weak Back,
Nervousness,	Loss of Memory,	Neuralgia,
Failing Eyesight caused by Weakness,	Feverish Skin,	Pains in Bones,
Dyspepsia,	Sluggish Circulation,	Sick Stomach,
Hectic Flushes,	Cold Feet and Hands,	Depression, Blues,
Scalding Hot Urine,	Rheumatism,	Dyspepsia,
Brick Dust Deposit,	Peevishness,	Female Weakness,
Frothy Urine,	Obstinate Constipation,	Pimples, Sores and Blotches on the Face and Skin.
Uterine Weakness,	Heart Troubles,	Colic Pains.
	Bladder Fever,

Milwaukee, Wis., March 6th, 1885.

DR. J. H. MCLEAN, St. Louis, Mo.

DEAR SIR:—Having been troubled with Female Complaint for some time, by the advice of a St. Louis lady, I tried Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier, and am happy to say that it has cured me completely, and I am as well now as ever. I consider it the best medicine for that purpose in the world.

MRS. ELIZABETH HENDRICKS.

G. W. Nowlin, Greenfield, Tenn., writes:—Send me another supply of Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier. It gives such satisfaction and sells so well here that we are unable to keep a supply on hand.

Mingsville, Mo., Jan. 4th, 1885.

DR. J. H. MCLEAN, St. Louis Mo.

DEAR SIR:—I look upon your Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier as the finest medicine in the market. I use it in my family and all my customers speak of it in the highest terms. I would not be without it in the house if it cost ten dollars a bottle.

Yours truly, JOSEPH W. MINGS.

John O. K. White, San Angelo, Texas, says:—Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is the finest I ever used. Have been troubled with Liver Complaint for years, and have tried all the remedies I could hear of, but never found relief until I used your Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier, and have been well as ever, although I was more exposed than the majority of those who have been more or less sick ever since.

Yours truly. HAST. MERCHELL.

Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is a Never Failing Remedy, and Can Be Relied on.

$1.00 PER BOTTLE. SIX BOTTLES, $5.00.

Dr. J. H. McLEAN, S. E. Corner Broadway and Biddle Street, St. Louis, Mo.

jan1-6m

AN ADVERTISING AGENCY.

Newspapers.

Catalogue.

Advertisement.

Our Lists.

Estimates.

Printing Office.

Our System.

Payment.

We receive and keep on file over 12,000 Newspapers published in every State and Province in America. Over 1000 Daily papers alone arrive every morning. Each paper is examined by careful clerks and the insertions entered in record books. Under our system an advertiser is sure to receive the full value for his money.

We publish the "American Newspaper Catalogue," a volume of 600 pages elegantly bound in cloth, and containing a complete list of the publications of every character in the United States and Canada. On one line we give place of publication, name of paper, class or denomination, age and circulation. In it are catalogued 14,000 periodicals. Sent free on receipt of $1.50.

We can secure the prompt insertion of any advertisement in any publication at the lowest attainable prices. We keep constantly invested over $200,000 "in space" in the best lines of newspapers. Our special lists of Papers will be found especially useful in making up lists for pushing any special lines.

We have, for the convenience of advertisers, made up our Religious List containing the names of all the leading denominational papers with prices. Our Agricultural List containing the names of all the prominent agricultural papers with prices. Our Local List of 1,300 County and City Weeklies and Dailies, arranged by States with publishers' prices and the prices at which we can insert advertisements. These Lists are mailed free on application.

We will furnish to any reputable advertiser who will apply, an estimate showing exact cost of any proposed line of advertising, and when desired, will make up lists and write advertisements, provided the amount desired to be expended is named. We have had a wide experience, and can suggest lines of papers best adapted to the wants of an advertiser.

We keep constantly supplied with the newest styles of type best adapted to the display of advertisements. Send us your copy and we will return with estimate & proof from type without extra charge.

Our organization for correctly following an advertisement in the newspapers is perfect, and our patrons can be assured that correct work from every publisher will be exacted.

To any advertiser entitled to credit, or any one who will furnish us proper references, we will extend any reasonable line of credit. Publishers pay us a commission for all the business we send them, and any advertiser can be assured of obtaining through us lower prices than can be obtained from publishers direct. In no instance do we charge advertisers any addition to publishers' rates.

Edwin Alden & Bro.,

N.W. Cor. 5th & Vine Sts., CINCINNATI.

140 Nassau Street, NEW YORK.

Newspaper Advertising Agents.

AGENTS WANTED for A Twenty Years of Congress, 1861–1881, by James G. Blaine.

Hon. J. B. Wise of Va. says: "Whoever takes it up, no matter whether he be Mr. Blaine's friend or enemy, will never put it down until he has read the whole."

Agents make from $200 to $1000 per month. Address, The Henry Bill Pub. Co., Norwich, Conn.

apr1-4t

oct23-1

ROYAL

AKING
OWDER
bsolutely Pure.
...er never varies. A marvel of purity, ... wholesomeness. More economical ... kinds, and can not be sold in ... with the multitude of low test short ... or phosphate powders. Sold only
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO.
106 Wall Street, N. Y.

...y-School and Children.

... QUARTER. STUDIES IN THE ACTS ... EPISTLES. Lesson XI. A. D. 58.
The priesthood of Christ. Heb. 1-12. Golden Text, Heb. 7, 25.

HOME READINGS.

The priesthood of Christ; Heb. ... 1-12.

The tabernacle arrange; Ex. ...dus 40, 1-33.

The yearly sin offering; Lev. ... 1-34.

The great sin offering; Heb. 9, 13-28.

The holy Intercessor; Heb. 7, 19-28.

The new covenant; Heb. 8, 1-13.

The availing sacrifice; Heb. 10, 1-22.

...TIONS FOR HOME STUDY.

... Tabernacle, v. 1-5.

...t is said of the first cove...nt?

...t were the two rooms of the ...bernacle called?

...t furniture was in the first?

...t was in the holy of holies?

... Priest, v. 6-10.

...officiated in the holy place?

...t is said of the high priest?

...t lesson is taught by these ...s?

... were these sacrifices in...capable of doing?

How long were they to be ob...rved?

... Christ, v. 1, 1-12.

...hat was Christ a high priest?

...t is the greater tabernacle ...ured?

... sacrifice did he offer for ...?

... has he gone?

... has he obtained for us?

...CAL TEACHINGS.

... does this lesson teach—

... need of sacrifice?

... need of a mediator?

... excellence of Jesus as ...?

...al Suggestion—The inter... of Christ.

...on Sunday-schools.

The Committee on Sunday-... report that the Sunday-... the Gulf District, Mis... Conference, are in a pros... condition intellectually, re... and financially. Resolved, ... will do all in our power to ... and extend our Sunday-... the Gulf District.

J. H. JENNINGS,
A. B. MCFALL.

Callie Izard writes from ... Texas: "My husband, Rev. ..., who is a subscriber to ... and glorious paper, has ...eed to let me become as ...eacher of this Sunday-...e school, I am glad to ...g exceedingly well. We ... 40 students belonging ...ool, twenty-five of them ... to the Bible class, and ... the primary, of which I ... I think we have a ..., considering our chance ... We expect to have a ... our people and ... on the second Sun... We have already ... preparing for ... day. I have ... I opened it years ago, ... succeed we must ... on our side, and I ... a means of ... gladness ... me much to see old and young come flocking to Sunday-school every Sabbath morning. I hope the Sunday-schools will not forget Children's Day.

Extract from Programme For Children's Day, June 14th, 1885.

Encouragements to Christian Activity.

Sunday school—Why should we all, both young and old, devote ourselves from this time forward more hopefully and actively to Christian work?

Leader—In order to follow the example and obey the command of our divine Master who said: "I must work the works of Him that sent me, while it is day; the night cometh when no man can work."

S. S.—May we all be encouraged thus to work?

L.—Yes. By many promises of the divine word, and by the figures in which Christ illustrates the spread of ... kingdom. Such as the ... of the mustard seed and ... leaven.

S. S.—Does the history of the ... Church ... encourage...

L.—Yes, in successive ages, but ... never more than during the ... century, in connection with ... beloved Church.

S. S.—In what way should we think and speak of the great successes of our Church during its first years?

L.—With gratitdue to God for what he has wrought through its agency, and with strong purpose, God helping us, to do as much better with the system now organized and the means now provided as our increased opportunities will allow.

S. S.—What great obligation rests upon all who have received the truth as it is in Christ?

L.—To let their light shine before men and to contend earnestly for the faith once delivered to the saints.

S. S.—What is the duty of every true soldier enlisted under the banner of Christ?

L.—To put on the whole armor of God that he may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil, and having done all to stand.

S. S.—May we have confidence in that armor?

L.—The weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds.

Marriages.

Mr. Geo. Slum and Miss Caroline Murphy were married at Sandersville, Miss., by Rev. M. Cooper.

Mr. S. J. Edmunds and Miss Cordelia Wright were married at the home of the bride, in Crawford, Miss., Jan. 22, 1885. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. W. Wright. Both are members of the M. E. Church.

At the bride's mothers, April 22, 1885, Mr. A. C. Lowe to Miss Lucy Robinson, in Natchitoches, La., Rev. H. J. Wright officiating.

At the M. E. Church, Greenwood, Miss., Mr. Marion Holman to Mrs. Ella Washington, J. W. Dunn officiating. All the guests enjoyed a sumptuous supper. May the couple live long to the glory of God and the advantages of all around them.

On May 27, Theodore Mason and Miss M. E. Lehman, both of New Orleans, were married by Rev. M. Dale.

At the residence of E. Turner, Monday evening at 8 p. m., Mr. E. Marshall and Miss Fannie Ball, both of New Orleans, were united in matrimony by Rev. M. Dale.

Mr. Peter Black and Miss Lue Steward were married in Benton, Miss., March 24, 1885, both are of Yazoo county. Rev. G. L. Crump officiated.

At the residence of the groom's parents, in Grenada, Miss., Mate Britt and Miss Mattie Avant were united in holy wedlock; Rev. A. D. Payne officiating.

Mr. Jeff Johnson and Miss Lavinia Maynard were married at Shady Grove, La., April 15, 1885; Rev. Bedford Carr officiating.

Mr. E. R. Blake and Miss Mary McCallum were married in Petersburg, Tenn., May 19, 1885. Rev. T. J. Yeager officiating.

Obituary.

Bro. G. W. Adams died at Corinth, Ky., May 11, 1885. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and had been a member of the Lexington conference. He has been preaching for forty years, and died in his 64th year. He leaves a wife and five children to mourn his loss.

B. W. ...

Sister Barbie Phillips died ... 1885. She was a member of ... church, Capleville, Tenn. ... St. James died in Capleville, Tenn., Feb 5, 1885. He was full of faith in Christ. He leaves a wife and two daughters.

A. BURDETT.

Sister Celia Thompson died March 6, 1885, in Grenada, Miss. She said that she was willing to go.

A. D. PAYNE.

Bro. David Johnson quietly passed away, at Grenada, Miss., March 21, 1885. His wife, having been afflicted for five years, was unable to go in to see him die, though she was in the next room.

A. D. PAYNE.

Miss Alice Shropshire, aged 14 years, daughter of Wesley Shropshire, departed this life in Grenada, Miss., March 23, 1885.

A. D. PAYNE.

"It Knocks the Spots," and everything in the nature of eruptions, blotches, pimples, ulcers, scrofulous humors, and incipient consumption, which is nothing more or less than scrofula of the lungs, completely out of the system. It stimulates and invigorates the liver, tones up the stomach, regulates the bowels, purifies the blood, and builds up the weak parts of the body. It is a purely vegetable compound, and will do more than is claimed for it. We refer to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

Conference Minutes.

Plan of ... Conferences ... 1885.
Full Conferences.

[ALPHABETICAL.]

CONFERENCE.	PLACE.	TIME.	BISHOP.
Alabama	Edwardsville, Ala	Nov 26	Mallalieu
Arizona Miss.	Tucson, Arizona	Sept 17	Fowler
Austin	Denton, Texas	Dec 10	Foster
Black Hills Mis.	Rapid City, Dak.	Aug. 20	Hinde
Blue Ridge	Gastonia, N. C.	Oct. 1	Mallalieu
Bulgaria Miss.	Rustchuk, Bul.	Oct. 1
California	Stockton, Cal.	Sept. 3	Fowler
C'l Alabama	Mobile, Ala.	Dec. 10	Mallalieu
C'l China mis'n	Kiukiang, China	Oct. 14
C'l German	Columbus, Ohio	Sept 10	Harris
C'l Illinois	Fairbury, Ill.	Sept 24	Warren
C'l New York	Syracuse, N. Y.	Oct 8	Merrill
C'l Ohio	Fostoria, O.	Sept 17	Harris
C'l Tennessee	Tullahoma, Tenn.	Oct 15	Mallalieu
Chicago Germ'n	Manitowoc, Wis.	Sept 17	Newman
Cincinnati	Cincinnati, O.	Sept 3	Harris
Colorado	Pueblo Col.	Aug 20	Andrews
Columbia River	Spoke's Falls	W. T. July 16	Walden
Dakota miss'n	Blunt Dak.	Oct 8	Foss
Des Moines	Des Moines, Ia.	Sept 17	Foss
Detroit	Pontiac, Mich.	Sept 10	Warren
East Ohio	Barnesville, O.	Sept 17	Foster
East Tennessee	Knoxville, Tenn.	Oct 29	Hurst
Erie	Sharon, Pa.	Sept 10	Merrill
Foochow	Foochow, China	Nov 19
Genesee	Lima N Y.	Oct 1	Hurst
Georgia	Ellijay, Ga.	Nov 19	Mallalieu
Holston	Johnson City, Tenn	Oct 15	Hurst
Idaho	Canyon City Oreg.	July 30	Walden
Illinois	Rushville, Ill.	Sept 17	Hinde
Indiana	Spencer, Ind.	Aug 27	Harris
Iowa	Mt. Pleasant, Ia.	Sept 10	Hinde
Japan	Tokio, Japan
Kentucky	Covington, Ky.	Oct 1	Harris
Michigan	G'nd Rapids, Mich.	Sept 17	Warren
Minnesota	Rochester, Minn.	Oct 1	Andrews
Montana miss'n	Dillon, Montana	July 1	Walden
Nebraska	Seward, Neb.	Sept 17	Andrews
Nevada miss'n	Bishop's Ct. Nev.	Aug 20	Fowler
N Mex'co mis'n	Santa Fe, N. Mex	Oct 1	Fowler
Spanish	Peralta New Mex.	Sept 24	Fowler
N China mis'n	Peking, China	Sept 24
N. Dakota	Wahpeton, Dak.	Sept 17	Walden
N. Nebraska	Fowea, Neb.	Sept 3	Andrews
N. Ohio	Berea, Ohio	Sept 3	Merrill
N w German	LeSeur, Minn.	Sept 24	Andrews
N w Indiana	Valparaiso, Ind.	Sept 3	Foss
N w Iowa	Storm Lake, Ia.	Sept 24	Foss
N w Swedish	Dayton, Ia.	Sept 3	Bowman
Norw'n Danish	Cambridge, Wis.	Sept 10	Bowman
Ohio	De awars, Ohio	Sept 24	Foster
Oregon	Roseburg, Oreg.	Aug 27	Walden
Pittsburgh	Allegheny City, Pa.	Sept 17	Merrill
Puget Sound	Tacoma, W. T.	Aug 13	Newman
Rock River	Elgin, Ill.	Oct 8
St. Louis Germ'n	St. Louis, Mo.	Sept 10
Savannah	Savannah, Ga.	Dec 3
S. E. Indiana	Brookville, Ind.	Sept 24
S. California	Santa Barbara, Cal	Sept 15
S. German	San Antonio, Tex.	Nov 19	Foster
S. Illinois	Edwardsville, Ill.	Sept 24	Hinde
Tennessee	Humboldt, Tenn.	Oct 1	Fowler
Texas	Houston, Tex.	Nov 5	Foster
Upper Iowa	Toledo, Ia.	Oct 1
Utah mission	Park City, Utah	July 2
West German	Claytonia, Neb.	Sept 3
W. Mexican	Kearney, Mex.	Sept 20
West Texas	Austin, Tex.	Dec 3	Foster
West Virginia	Charleston, W. Va.	Sept 24	Merrill
W. Wisconsin	Dodgeville, Wis.	Sept 24	Bowman
Wisconsin	Waukesha, Wis.	Oct 1	Bowman

By order of the Board of Bishops.

WM. L. HARRIS, Secretary.

St. Louis, Mo., May 18, 1885.

Murfreesboro District—Tennessee Conference.

Third Round.

Sparta	June	13-14
McMinnville sta	"	19-21
McMinnville ct	"	20-21
Shelbyville	"	27-28
Tullahoma	July	4- 5
Manchester	"	7- 8
Petersburg	"	11-12
Murfreesboro	"	17-19
Spencer and Eagleville	"	18-19
Murfreesboro sta	"	23-24
Stone River	"	25-26
Woodbury	"	25-26

C. H. BULLINGTON, P. E.

Ohio District.

Second Round.

New Richmond ct, at [illegible] mond	June	22-23
Batavia ct, at Milford	"	27-28
Cheviot ct	July	1- 2
Cumminsville ct, at Lock[illegible]	"	4- 5
Troy	"	10-12
Marion ct, at Rushsylv[illegible] W. W. Heston	"	11-12
Dayton ct, at Dayton	"	14-16
Springfield	"	17-19
Oberlin	"	24-26
Cleveland, by J. F. K. Morland	"	26-28
Cadiz ct, at Cadiz	Aug.	1- 2
Steubenville, by B. Daniels	"	1- 4
Mt. Pleasant ct, at Martin's Ferry	"	5- 6
Flushing ct, at Bridgeport	"	7- 8
Bellaire	"	8- 9
Louisa ct, at Cassville	"	12-13
Ironton	"	15-16
Mayslick ct	"	22-23
Portsmouth, by John Downs	"	29-30
Covington	"	29-30
Augusta, by Jas Taylor	Sept.	5- 6
Maysville	"	5- 6
Aberdeen ct	"	8- 9
Cincinnati	"	12-13

Dear Brethren, do not fail to keep the benevolent interests of the Church before your congregations; urge and take collections as your duty require you. This is one of the avenues to success in the Methodist ministry—a failure in which, without a sufficient reason, is weakening to yourself. Yours ever,

JOSEPH COURTNEY.
70 East Fifth street, Covington, Ky.

Programme.

The first District Conference of the Greenwood district will be held in Winona, Miss., commencing August 14, 1885. The following is the programme of the literary and religious exercises:

Rust University—H R Revels, D.D.
How to succeed in revivals—C L Crump.
Relation of baptized children to the Church—J C Houston.
Pastor's relation to Sunday-school—A S Williams.
Infant baptism—D D Goodwin.
Church Extension Society—Wm Parks.

Opportunity will be allowed other members of the conference to express themselves on the above subjects.

Sermons—Influence of the Holy Spirit on the hearts and minds of men—H Cawthorne.
Possibility of falling from grace—M S Foster.
Love for our neighbor—J C Skinner.
What is Christianity?—D D Goodwin.
Essential fitness for heaven—H R Revels, D.D.
The Word of God—C L Crump.
Reward of Christ's faithful ministers in glory—C A Jordan.

Each pastor is required to bring his quarterly conference journal, which will be submitted to a committee for inspection. Ministers who cannot attend will send a list of the names of all members of the district conference on their circuit. Now brethren we will be ready for you, and you will have full time to get ready for us. O, may the God of the church move you to action.

D. D. GOODWIN,
C. L. CRUMP,
J. D. HOUSTON,
Committee.

Winona, Miss., May 27, 1885.

Nashville District—Tennessee Conference.

Third Round.

Nolensville	June	13-14
Brentwood	"	20-21
Gallatin	"	27-28
Gallatin ct	"	27-28
Hartsville	July	4- 5
Machellsville	"	11-12
Springfield	"	18-19
Dickson	"	25-26
White Bluff	"	25-26
Cumberland	"	25-26
Dover	Aug.	1- 2
Nashville, Braden's Chapel	"	8- 9
" Clark's Chapel	"	8- 9
" Seay's Chapel	"	15-16
" City Mission	"	15-16

Dear brethren, You know I have to hold the meetings this way to get around but I expect to be at the places one night in the week, and if I can I will bring help with me to be at all the places on Sunday. As the Spring is opened look at your assessments and bring up all your benevolent collections.

JAS. PICKETT, P. E.

Pine Bluff District—Little Rock Conference.

Second Round.

Lockesburg ct	June	20-21
Centre Point	"	27-28
Washington	July	4- 5
Fulton sta	"	11-12
Texarkana	"	18-19
Texarkana, 1st Church at 2 p m	"	25-26
Texarkana, 2d Church, at 5 p m	"	25-26
Louisville	Aug.	1- 2
Red Fork	"	8- 9
Pine Bluff	"	15-16
Pine Bluff sta	"	22-23
New Edinburg	"	29-30
Monticello	Sept.	5- 6

Benevolent apportionments for Pine Bluff District:

	Mis'n	Ch. Ex.	F.A.S.	Epis. Fd.
Lockesburg	$12	$6	$6	$1
Centre Point	10	6	6	1
Washington	6	5	5	1
Fulton	1	1	1
Texarkana, 1st ch.	6	5	5	1
" 2d church	6	4	4	1
" circuit	2	1	1
Louisville	7	4	4
Pine Bluff	10	6	5
Pine Bluff ct	3	1	1
Red Fork	2	1	1
New Edinburg	1	1	1

Other benevolences left for the preachers in charge to collect what they can, but we do expect the above apportionments to be met in full, and as much collected for other benevolences as possible

G. B. DONNELLY, P. E.

Columbus District—West Texas Conference.

Third Round.

Lagrange ct	June	27-28
LaGrange	July	1
Columbus	"	11-13
Alleyton and Tolan	"	18-19
Oakland and Brown's Chapel	"	25-26
Wellersburg, by Cuoper	Aug.	1- 2
Schulenburg, by Cogswell	"	8- 9
Waelder and Peach Creek	"	1- 2
Luling	"	8- 9
Lockhart	"	15-16
Weimar ct	"	22-23
Ellenger, by S. Gates	"	22-23
Columbus circuit	"	29-30

Brethren, the district conference will convene in the town of LaGrange on the second day of July. Each one of you will please write your subjects; also the local preachers on subjects of their own selection. Blanks for reports will be furnished at the conference. To this you will take due notice and act accordingly.

P. M. CARMICHAEL, P. E.

San Antonio District—West Texas District.

Third Round.

Pleasanton	June	13-14
San Antonio	"	20-21
Hondo and Fredericksburg	"	27-28
Sequin	July	2- 5
Lavernia and Mt. Pleasant	"	4- 5
Floresville & Riddleville (sup)	"	11-12
Corpus Christi	"	11-12
Goliad and Centreville	"	18-19
Victoria	"	25-26
Victoria circuit	"	25-26
Morales and Edna	"	28
Cuero and Mission Valley	Aug.	1- 2
Mellettville	"	8- 9
Gonzales	"	15-16
Mt. Vernon	"	22-23
Belmont	"	29-30
San Marcos	Sept.	5- 6

G. W. RICHARDSON, P. E.

Notice.

The Palestine District Conference, of the Texas Annual Conference, will convene at Palestine, on July 8, 1885. The following is the programme:

To preach the opening sermon—R. Williams.
To preach the missionary sermon—Samuel Johnson.
Preaching demanded for the times—Wm. Allen.
Duty of local preachers—R. K. Whiting.
Centennial Sermon—Tenola Edwards.
Best mode of conducting Sunday-schools—C. C. Minnegan.

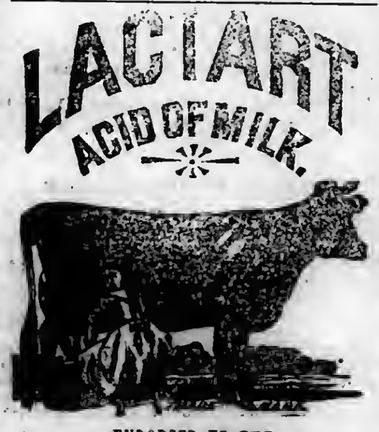
G. W. SMITH,
WM. ALLEN,
C. C. MINNEGAN,
Committee on Programme.

Navasota District—Texas Conference.

Third Round.

San Felipe	June	3- 4
Patterson	"	6- 7
Hempstead	"	13-14
Courtney	"	20-21
Plantersville	"	20-21
Franklin	"	20-21
Hearn	"	24-25
Bryan	"	27-28
Bryan circuit	July	1- 2
Burleson	"	1- 2
Caldwell	"	4- 5
Millican	"	4- 5
Navasota	"	11-12
Anderson	"	18-19
Prairie Plains	"	25-26
Brenham	Aug.	1- 2
Brenham circuit	"	5- 6
Bellville	"	8- 9
Iola	"	1- 2

W. B. PULLAM, P. E.



Warning Notice.

Rev. Geo. W. Leach, at present suspended, announces a camp meeting in Danville, Mo., next August.

In the Dear Old Days.

We differ in creed and politics, but we are a unit all the same on the desirable ness of a fine head of hair. If you mourn the loss of this blessing and ornament, a bottle or two of Parker's Hair Balsam will make you look as you did in the dear old days. It is worth trying. The only standard 50c. article for the hair.

CHRISTIAN
MEN and WOMEN Wanted are AS AGENTS
For the New and Fast-selling Edition of the
JAMIESON, FAUSSET & BROWN BIBLE COMMENTARY.
4 vols., nearly 4,000 pp. Maps and Illustrations. In cloth, $8; half morocco, $10 per set.
Best terms and exclusive territory. Permanent employment given after a satisfactory trial.
Jerome B. Names & Co.,
154 St. Clair street, Toledo, Ohio.
The work is heartily recommended.
m4-5 39t

ENDORSED BY THE HIGHEST MEDICAL AUTHORITY.

Healthful and Delicious Beverage and Tonic for Family Use.
Superior to Lime Juice or Lemons.
A Remedy for Dyspepsia and Ills arising from a Disordered Stomach.

Specially recommended as a preventative and relief for Cholera, Sunstroke, Fevers, and valuable in Urinary difficulties.

A Specific for Sea-sickness.

Sold by Druggists.
Avery Lactate Co.,
BOSTON, MASS. apr30 3m

ORGANS The most beautiful and finest toned in the world. Low Prices, easy payment. Send for Catalogue. Address

Weaver Organ & Piano Co., YORK, PA.

GRATEFUL PRAISE!
A NEW S. S. BOOK. By J. H. Fillmore.
Pure in sentiment, rich in music. Sample copy, in boards 25 cents; per dozen by express, $3 00; per dozen by mail, $4. Specimen pages free.
FILLMORE BROS.
No. 185 Race street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

They Away Trusses
when our ... method is guaranteed to permanen... the worse cases of rupture, without ... use of the knife. Send ten cents in ... stamps for pamphlet and reference... World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, New York.

Nashville Tenn., Seed Market.

[Seed quotations for each issue furnished by Messrs. Geo. W. Stockett & Co., Seed Merchants, of Nashville, Tennessee, to whom address communications.]

	per bushel
Red Clover seed	$5 55
Sapling Clover seed	6 00
Red Top or Herds Grass	55
Timothy seed	1 80
Orchard Grass seed	1 70
Blue Grass seed, clean	1 00
" " extra clean	1 25
Tennessee raised German Millet	1 25
Hungarian	1 10
	per pound
White Clover seed	25
Lucerne or Alfalfa Clover seed	25
Alsyke Clover seed	25
Tall Meadow Oat Grass	25
Medow Fescue	25

Rescue Grass, Italian Rye Grass, and English Rye Grass quoted on application. Sacks are extra.

To keep the doors open, the oil glands and tubes active, and thus furnish an outlet for impurities in the perspiration and blood which cause humiliating blotches, blackheads, and minor skin blemishes; to cleanse, whiten, and beautify the skin; remove tan, freckles sunburn, and oily matter; to keep the hands soft, white, and free from chaps and roughness, prevent contagious skin and scalp diseases, and provide an exquisite skin beautifier and toilet, bath, and nursery sanative, redolent with delicious flower odors and Cuticura healing balsams, is the special duty of the Cuticura Soap. Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great Skin Cures and Beautifiers, and Cuticura Resolvent, the new Blood Purifier, cure every form of Skin and Blood Diseases, from Pimples to Scrofula. Sold everywhere. Price, Cuticura, 50c.; Soap, 25c.; Resolvent $1.00. Potter Drug and Chemical Co., Boston.

E. W. Scheffel,
GENERAL
Book-Binder,
Ruler and Blank Book Manufacturer.
37 Natchez St., [up-stairs] New Orleans.
Magazines, Music, Periodicals and Old Books re-bound, Plain or Ornamental. jan22

Pianos & Organs
Of all makes direct to customers from headquarters, at wholesale prices. All goods guaranteed. No money asked till Instruments are received and fully tested. Write us before purchasing. An investment of 2 cents may save you from $50.00 to $100.00. Address
JESSE FRENCH, Nashville, Tenn.,
Wholesale Distributing Dep't for the South.
feb19-1y

WHETHER CHOLERA
Is coming or not every householder should know that cleanliness and disinfection are the greatest preventives. The principal and surest factor for this purpose is DREYDOPPEL'S BORAX SOAP,
a perfect cleansing, bleaching and purifying soap, making clothes beautifully white and sweet. It should be exclusively used in all departments of a household. DREYDOPPEL'S SOAP is sold in full pound bars only by all wholesale grocers and first-class retailers.

SKIN DISEASES,
Tetter, Salt Rheum, Ringworm, Sores, Pimples, and all Itching Skin Eruptions, are surely cured and prevented by the exclusive use of BERSON'S AROMATIC ALUM SULPHUR SOAP, an exquisite beautifier of the complexion and toilet requisite. 25 cents, by druggists or sent by mail.
Address WM. DREYDOPPEL, M'f'r, 208 North Front Street, Philadelphia, Pa.
Dreydoppel's Disinfecting Powder, 15 cents a large box.
apr30 4-eo

DR. SCOTT'S ELECTRIC CORSETS AND BELTS.
$1.00, $1.50, $2.00, $3.00

Probably never, since the invention of Corsets, has so large a demand been created as now exists for Dr. SCOTT'S Electric Corsets and Belts. Over three thousand families in the city of New York alone are now wearing them daily. ☞ Every Man and Woman, well or ill, should daily wear either the Corset or the Belt.
NURSING CORSET, Price, $1.50.
ABDOMINAL CORSET, " 2.00.

SENT POSTPAID ON TRIAL.
HEALTH COMBINATION ENGLISH SATEEN

A GREAT SUCCESS.
☞ A Good, Live Canvassing Agent WANTED in your town for these splendidly advertised and best selling goods in the market. LIBERAL PAY. QUICK SALES. Satisfaction Guaranteed. Apply at once.

NOS. 1, 2, 3 AND 5 CORSETS ARE NOW DOUBLE STITCHED AND WILL NOT RIP.

If you have any pain, ache, or ill-feeling from any cause, if you seem "pretty well," yet lack energy and do not "feel up to the mark," if you suffer from disease, we beg you to at once try these remarkable curatives. They cannot and do not injure like medicine. Always doing good, never harm. There is no shock or sensation felt in wearing them. There is no waiting a long time for results; electro-magnetism acts quickly, generally the first week, more frequently the first day, and often even during the first hour they are worn their wonderful curative powers are felt. The mind becomes active, the nerves and sluggish circulation are stimulated, and all the old-time health and good-feeling come back. They are constructed on scientific principles, imparting a new life-giving, health-giving current to the whole system. Professional men assert that there is hardly a disease which Electricity or Magnetism may not benefit or cure, and they daily practice the same, so your own physician will inform you.

THE CELEBRATED DR. W. A. HAMMOND, of New York, formerly Surgeon-General of the U. S. Army, lately lectured upon this subject, and advised all medical men to make trial of these agencies, describing at the same time most remarkable cures he had made, even in cases which would seem hopeless.

The Corsets do not differ in appearance from those usually worn; we substitute our flat steel magnetods in place of the ordinary corset steels. These Corsets are all equally charged, differing only in quality and design. They are elegant in shape and finish, made after the best French pattern, and warranted satisfactory in every respect. The above applies equally as well to the Electric Belt for gentlemen. The prices are as follows: $1, $1.50, $2 and $3 for the Corsets, and $3 each for the Belts. We now make all these Corsets in dove and white only. They are sent out in a handsome box, accompanied by a silver-plated compass, by which the Electro-Magnetic influence can be tested. We will send either kind to any address, post-paid, on receipt of price, with 20 cents added for packing or registration, and we guarantee safe delivery into your hands. Remit in post-office Money-order, Draft, Check, or in Currency by Registered Letter. In ordering kindly mention S-W Chris. Advocate, and state exact size of corset usually worn. Make all remittances payable to GEO. A. SCOTT, 842 BROADWAY, N. Y. N. B.—Each Corset is stamped with the English coat-of-arms, and the name of the Proprietors, THE PALL MALL ELECTRIC ASSOCIATION.

Dr. Scott's Electric Hair Brushes $1.00, $1.50, $2.00, $2.50, $3.00; Flesh Brushes, $3.00. Dr. Scott's Electric Tooth Brushes, 50c.; Insoles, 50c.

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 20---NO 25. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, JUNE 18, 1885 WHOLE NUMBER 814.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

37 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor

Terms: $1.50 per Year, Cash in Advance; after Three Months, $2; to Pastors, $1. Six Months, $1; Three Months, 50c.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

All matter not of a business nature must be addressed to the editor.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	5 cents.
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	15 "
Six months (26 times)	25 "
One year (52 times)	40 "
Marriage Notices	25 "
Special Notices	8 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

A truce, ye armies of the living God!
Hence with your mutual plaints and jealousy!
Its meet that brethren—one in flesh and blood—
Shou'd strive to gather for it by the way;
Oh, rather strive the flames of strife to stay,
With ancient friendship to your hearts restored,
Kneel meekly at the throne of heaven and pray,
Father, forgive each past ungentle word,
And bind our hearts in one with love's strong three-fold cord.

By an oversight the name of Prof. Fortson was not attached to an article which appears this week, entitled, "Is it Right."

The Christian Advocate stands way up at the head of religious journals. Always look and you will see this widely circulated sheet.

"Will Drs. Boyd and Newman give their articles in pamphlet form?"—Subscriber.

The gentlemen concerned can now decide it.

"I am saving every copy of the SOUTHWESTERN to bind. It is making history that will be invaluable in the future."—J. G. V.

We have a few bound copies for sale at $2 50 per set.

The Heathen Woman's Friend for June came to us filled with hope, inspiration and help for women by women. The Lord increase their means of effectual working more and more.

Will some of our professional readers tell whether the demonstration of anatomy is essential to the successful study in and graduation from every school of medicine, Allopathic, Homœpathic and Eclectic? Answers may be printed.

Mr. John Wesley Cromwell, of the People's Advocate, Washington, D. C., retires from that position after nine years of service. The paper will continue under Mr. C. M. Lomax as proprietor, F. M. Hamlin, business manager; George O. Richardson and Rev. Walter Brooks, editors. Mr. Cromwell, in retiring, will take with him the esteem of a large circle of friends, and the new comers will doubtless receive a cordial welcome.

"I read the book much before I understood, but at last I felt a pain in my heart. I found things in the book that cut me to pieces," so said an Ethiopian man to his interrogators when asked if he understood the Scriptures. Much reading of the Book is always needful to an understanding of it. Where this reading is attended with a prayerful desire for the pain of heart and contrition to follow. The Rev. M. Lockman, of Louisiana,

For the Southwestern.

Spare Minute Paper.

D. W. HAYS.

Not long ago while at Clinton, assisting Bro. F. L. Donohoo in a protracted meeting I had the pleasure of hearing a sermon preached by a local preacher of our church, who has recently completed his seventy-seventh year. It is not my purpose just now to write respecting the sermon, although it was a very commendable effort. It is of the man, or rather of the class of men of which this one may be taken as a fair sample, concerning whom I wish to indite a few lines. Lawson Cobb, the person above referred to, resides on his own farm with his son-in-law, near Coal Creek, Tenn. Before the war he was a slave and experienced, like his comrades in bondage, many sore afflictions, a true description of which will never be given with pen and ink. He bore arms in the struggle for the preservation of the old flag and seems to be proud of the fact that his services in the army, helped to usher in freedom to the oppressed.

He was converted in early life and has been a preacher for many years, serving at times, in the capacity of a supply on Mountain circuits. I would suppose that his knowledge of books is very meagre, yet he has a tolerable command of language and is moderately expert in quoting the scriptures. His form is tall and erect, and his face has a prominent Grecian outline; his voice is strong and clear and his gestures are those common to speakers of his school. There is constant movement from one side of the platform, and the hands swing incessantly, the left one not infrequently made to act as a prop to the ear or side of the face. I learned that he was in sympathy with the young preacher who is now his pastor, and that he had endeavored to aid him in his work. I delight to think of these grand old men. Who can imagine the vast amount of good they have accomplished in the dark days of the past. Many thousands of the redeemed of the Lord will point to them when we have all been gathered home, as the instruments used to reclaim them from destruction. Without education and polish, such as not few of our young men of today can boast of, they were nevertheless powerful in their generation. If those who have been called to complete the task they so nobly began reap larger and more enduring results, it will be because they are provided with better weapons and have much wider scope. Honor the old heroes! True, they have their infirmities, and now and then you will meet one who has been hustled by crowding events until his temper has become somewhat acidified, but I entreat you to deal gently with the old warrior. Fill his sunset hours with the enlivening ray of brotherly cheer:

For the Southwestern.

Our Future in the South

REV. J. ALLEN ROSS.

In considering the subject under discussion it must be borne in mind that universal education had no considerable support in the South at the close of the war. A sentiment in its favor had to be created, and who has done their part in building up and fostering this sentiment with more self sacrificing devotion than our beloved Zion? The people had to be taught to receive the teachers of the Negro who came from the North as friends, and not foes. An intelligent appreciation of the benefits to be derived from common schools must exist before the schools can reach a point of efficiency. A long fostered prejudice had kept apart the children of the rich and poor. The Negro once educated, elevated, Christianized, would no longer be fitted for slavery. The universal education of the whites would have at once shown the poorer classes their relation to slave labor in its true colors, and hence made them antagonistic to slavery. A firm belief in, or a blind obedience to the dictates of this peculiar institution, was essential to its permanency, hence the state of public sentiment found in the South at the conclusion of the war. But twenty years of prayer and work has accomplished wonders in this fair land of ours. The education and Christianizing of the lower classes of the whites, insures better feeling toward the Negro. It will in our opinion inspire a sense of mutual responsibility between the races, thus leading surely, it may be slow to greater toleration upon one hand, and to the removal of deep-seated distrust upon the other. There will come from this quarter with Christian education broader sympathies, freer play will be given to the best impulses of heart and mind. Restive under a sense of personal degredation, these people and their descendants will be they who most keenly appreciate the unequal burdens laid on our shoulders, and under well defined and understood laws accord to others, what they desire for themselves. In the decay of the old, and building up of the new South, we seldom perceive the leaders of "the sections" originating great ideas that grasped in their brains, arms at once all the people upon this broad land. If a part of our country has not produced large numbers of liberal minded broad hearted men, the reasons therefore are at hand. The immense educational work, secular and Christian, now going forward in the South, not a noisy, but a sleepless, untiring force going forward day by day, hour after hour, sanctified by prayer will change all this in the years now upon us. The future of the Negro in this land cannot forever remain the plaything of partisan leaders, controlled by a prejudice as unnecessary as it is unjust. England's mighty grasp upon the "Green Isle of the Sea" has not prevented the growth of great Irishmen. What they failed to gain by war and rebellion is even now being rewarded my more peaceful means. In the domain of mind and thought, in the field of parliamentary activity, in the establishment of additional primary and secondary institutions of learning the great Irish question is rapidly reaching a solution.

One of the most convincing evidences of our right to ask and expect fair consideration of our needs at the hands of the people generally, is found in the progress already made, and our ability to adjust ourselves to the time in which we live. If it is true as has been said, that there is no future of usefulness and promise for us, unless matters are in the hands of certain ones, then we are illy fitted to meet the requirements of the hour. Of course we prefer that our friends should control in times like these, times pregnant with events affecting our growth and development, but thank Heaven our future is not now to be determined absolutely by the failure or success of parties, for they like individuals are born, live, and die. The destiny of this people is in the care of a higher power, One who will never leave nor forsake us. Parties may be used, and they accomplish good, but under God we will survive even their death. Egypt and darkness is behind, light and perfect liberty is on before. Educated, Christianized, the coming years with all their possibilities are ours. "No power can cause a retrogression, the inspiration of learning is abroad, the flame is unquenchable." "It is the will of God that its progress shall be accelerated by each revolving cycle of years." We are determined to exercise a potential influence upon the fanture of this land. I now present to your consideration some figures bearing upon this question.

Enrollment of colored children in public schools in the late slave States:

Alabama	76,426
Arkansas	25,452
Delaware	2,798
Florida	29,713
Georgia	104,560
Kentucky	22,245
Louisiana	25,850
Mississippi	138,196
Missouri	27,321
North Carolina	97,059
South Carolina	88,632
Tennessee	62,343
Texas	41,559
Virginia	93,860
West Virginia	4,890
District of Columbia	10,541
Maryland	31,827
Total	883,282

Total school population in the above named States, 1,139,099; total not enrolled, 255,817.

Then we have 56 Normal schools, with 9,359 pupils; 43 institutions for secondary instruction with 7,255 pupils; 18 Universities and Colleges, with 2,525 students; 24 schools of theology, 731 students; 4 law schools, 58 students; 3 schools of medicine, 137; and 6 schools for deaf, dumb and blind with 127 students; a total of 15,932 public schools, 154 schools for secondary and inferior education; a grand total for all of 16,086 schools and colleges, with an enrollment of 903,515 pupils and students. For the sake of getting this important matter before the reader with proper clearness I append a statement of the educational statistics of the white youth of school age in the same territory: White children of school age, 4,451,921; white children enrolled, 2,474,189; white children not enrolled, 1,977,732. Can any well-wisher of our race feel discouraged at the tale these statistics tell? There runs through it all an earnest of the days to come. We can feel the blood go leaping to our hearts as we go over these figures, for they tell us more than many of the white brethren can understand. By them we are assured that needed strength is coming to us. Contemplating them we are encouraged. They are eloquent arguments in favor of an assured future of our race. Take another table bearing upon this question, which I believe will throw additional light upon the subject, showing, as it does, the illiteracy of the two races in the same States: Total number of Negroes who cannot write, 10 years of age and upwards, 3,220,878, or 70 per cent. of the entire race in the late slave States 10 years old and upwards. Whites 10 years and upwards, who cannot write, in same States, 3,019,008, or 9-4 per cent. Georgia heads the list of colored illiteracy with a total of 391,482, or 81 6 per cent. and the smallest per centage of illiteracy is found in the State of Missouri, 56,244, or 53.9 per cent. Among the whites Tennessee leads the South with 210,227, or 27 3 per cent., followed closely by Arkansas with 22 per cent., Alabama with 44·7 per cent., Georgia with 22 9 per cent., Kentucky with 214,497, or 22 per cent. of illiterates. The little State of Delaware shows the least number of illiterates among the whites, with a total of 3,998, or 4 3 per cent. These are startling figures, and while this dense cloud of ignorance hangs with portentous warning in plain view of the thoughtful mind. This army of 6,239,876 persons without the advantages of education, casting 1,354,974 votes, representing ten out of the fifty millions of our population, nearly three fourths of the nation's illiterates. We are cheered by the fact that the people of God in these lands are dealing with this stupendous question, and by His guidance they will decide it to the country's good. It has required hundreds of years of civilization and training, preaching and teaching to produce the white man we see about us, the best type of the race the world has yet seen; while we have come in twenty short years from the wilderness to the entering in of the goodly land. The Methodist Episcopal Church has laid her hand to this great task, with 21 institutions established in the South for secondary and higher education among the blacks, 106 professors and instructors, 3,623 students, over 60,000 children taught by teachers prepared for the work in her colleges, she points to the wonders already accomplished, and goes resolutely forward to meet the requirements of the future. With the torch of Christian education in her hand, she goes to the black child and the white, the lowly cabin and stately home, caring nothing for the color of the skin but all for the precious soul and susceptible mind beneath. She says "Arouse! arise! be free!" Again I say the inspiration of learning is abroad. Conditions, I contess, have much to do with the growth and development of a race; yet, a people with the elements of greatness in them can not be seriously affected by such changes as are liable to occur in a government like ours. The various nationalities now resident in America have never entirely lost their individuality nor laid aside all their race peculiarities. Many of the costumes of the fatherland is found in their homes and public life, and I can with truth and perfect propriety say in our public life. While they have taken into their lives much that is new and American, we have incorporated into our public life much that is not truly American. We find societies composed of American citizens that have for their purpose the fostering of a loving remembrance of a far-away home. Parades and celebrations are had, addresses and orations, abounding in beautiful flowers and figures of speech are delivered warming the hearts and quickening the minds of the hearers until, in imagination, they again tread their native hills and plains. The most eminent minds in all the land are sought for to grace these occasions. The spirit that encourages these things cannot be forever forgetful of the patient, faithful and long-suffering Negro. In him are found all the qualifications of higher manhood. His right to occupy a loftier plane has been demonstrated. He has proven himself to be courageous, faithful, patient, teachable, progressive. No revolution has swept over this land without his presence and active participation. No scourge has visited this people but black faces were found among the ministering angels of mercy. Though his place has been an humble one, his conduct has been heroic. We must have education and character, we are told. We have already character, and the figures show that we are getting education. The time must come when this fact will be more cheerfully and fully conceeded upon all sides than at present. Unfortunately the arristocratic tendencies of the times make these tests of personal worth mean a great deal more when applied to us than when applied to others. We must not be understood as asking that the standards of measurement be changed, lowered or removed; only let the parties professing them receive the consideration due them. I do not dream of or hope for political supremacy for us as a race, for this would be anti-American, and we are truly American in every fiber of our being; besides, were it possible it were not desirable. I do not desire isolation as the term is understood when used with reference to ourselves. I look forward to assimilation in the truest and best meaning of the word. We hope for the same protection and encouragement in the race of life as others have in like conditions, and nothing more. This is a God-given inheritance, and though long kept from us, will be decreed after awhile. We may now be at the lowest step in the ladder of upward progress, but we cannot be kept there. They who are responsible for our past cannot retard our future growth without inflicting far-reaching and permanent injury upon themselves. In our darkness we were not alone. The cheering beams of light will fall upon all alike—like the Irish, the German, the Frenchman, and the many other nationalities in America, here in this South, your South, our South, as you may wish to call it, side by side with the white brother, without the blush of shame upon our cheeks because of our color, we will, under God, do our part in the development of its great resources, the building up of its waste places, the uplifting of its lowly ones, the reforming of the continent, the spreading of scriptural holiness over all these lands.

Warsaw, Ky.

Sermon Sketch.

If the enemies of God as a class were as long lived as his friends the state of society would be intolerable. One pious man often outlives several generations of the violent, the dissipated and the debauched. The death of any wicked man is appalling. The signals of distress held out by expiring nature show that all is lost. The wicked often boast in great swelling words what they will do.—Extract from a sermon by Rev. E. W. Bonner, Braden, Tenn.

The Delaware conference arranged the homes of the preachers in a neat ten-page directory, placing in one list general conference officers, in another presiding elders, and finally pastors. It was both unique, enterprising and convenient.

From the Districts.

Proceedings of the Gulf District Conference.

The Gulf District Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church convened in the M. E. Church in Moss Point, Miss., to hold its first district conference for the year 1885, at 9 o'clock a. m., April 23d. Rev. W. McDonald, presiding elder, conducted the opening exercises.

On motion Rev. N. Cannon was elected Secretary, who then proceeded to call the roll, and the following travelling preachers answered to their names: N Cannon, O Gillespie, J H Cook, S H Nevils, D F Dudley, G W Smith, C H Brown and E Harris—8. Total number of conference members, 25.

The following questions were taken up, and the committees appointed.

The presiding elder reported the condition of the work under his charge, and his own work as presiding elder. The report of the Gulf District showed it to be in a favorable spiritual condition. Each pastor reported his charge in a good condition spiritually and financially, and several conversions on the district.

The following committees were appointed: Committee on Examination of candidates for License to preach. Committee on Sunday-schools. Committee on Temperance. Committee on Church Extension. Committee on the apportionment to each charge of the amount to be raised for benevolent purposes. Committee on Freedmen's Aid Society.

The Committee on Church Extention reported as follows:

Resolved, That we are fully convinced that the Church Extension Society have, and is now doing a great work for the cause of Christ's kingdom by aid from the Church Extension Society, and we regret that our collections are so small [illegible] years.

Resolved, That each pastor of the Gulf District raise a collection on his charge for Church Extension before the conference year closes.

S H NEVILS,
G W SMITH,
JNO. CARTER,
A JOHNSON,
J H COOK,
Committee.

The following is the apportionment to be raised this year from [illegible] charge.

St. Louis, $30; Brookhaven, [illegible] Grove, $10; Columbia, [illegible] Springs, $35; Fayette, [illegible] Fayette circuit, $3; George [illegible], Hamburg, $10; Hands[illegible] Hattiesburg, $15; Liberty [illegible] New Hope, $40; Pascagoula, [illegible] Christian, $25; Purvis, [illegible] Summit and Magnolia, $20; [illegible] Chapel, $5; Union Church, [illegible] Vernal, $16. Total $376.

N. CANNON,
O. G[illegible],
J. H. [illegible],
Committee.

Whereas, The SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE has not proved a failure, but has proved a temporal blessing to all who take [illegible]

Resolved, It is the great telegraphic means by which the spiritual and temporal work of the Church can be known; therefore,

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the work that has been put [illegible]

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the head of the Church [illegible] in sending Dr. M. [illegible] D. D., editor of the [illegible], to manage our [illegible]

Resolved, That every minister [illegible] and encourage everybody we can to take [illegible] and pay for the same.

J. H. COOK,
S. H. NEVILS,
H. MAY,
Committee.

[illegible] for the religious and [illegible] for the next district [illegible]

[illegible] official meetings—J K [illegible]

[illegible] O Gillespie, [illegible]

[illegible] J Ford. [illegible] grant—J H [illegible]

On self education—W McDonald.
External evidence—H L Kennedy.
Internal evidence—N Cannon.
Church Extension—O P Head.
Class meeting—J Drayden.
The attributes of God—H May.
Ministerial support—G W Smith.
The fall of man—R Roundtree.
Christian perfection—S H Nevils.
Biblical theology—D F Dudley.
Evangelical repentance—W H McCarty.
Stewards duties—W H Mimms.
The duties of a Methodist preacher—E. Harris.
Power of prayer—P E Bardwell.

Local preachers, exhorters, district stewards, Sunday-school superintendents and class leaders are expected to select their topics.

H. MAY.
N. CANNON,
G. W. SMITH,
Committee.

Notice.

Dear Brother—I mail you this circular to call your attention to the fact that this is the first year of the second century of our American Methodism, and that the great Missionary Society and the whole Church is aroused and impressed with the feeling that there can be raised this year for Missions One Million Dollars. Under these considerations, C. C. McCabe, Corresponding Secretary, has issued a special request, that I should raise the apportionment to the one million standard. Last year our district paid $211. To raise our part of the one million, we will have to raise $325. The present apportionment reached up to $267, so we were $53 behind in the assessment, that $58 distributed between the 2000 full members will be about 2.9-10 cents per member, which you will please make out and add to the amount already asked for Missions and go to work in good faith and raise.

Now, dear Brother, remember that what you cannot raise in your regular collections, you can by the house to house plan. Let us have a vigorous effort upon the part of every pastor.

Please acknowledge the receipt of this at once, and pledge yourself to do all you can for the one million dollars for missions in the Methodist Episcopal Church this year. Yours in the work,

P. M. CARMICHAEL, P. E.

Marshall District—Texas Conference.

Brethren, please have the Bishop's collection ready this quarter. Please take the Bishops and superannuated preacher's collection during this quarter. A Sunday school convention will be held at Jefferson commencing July 22, at 9 a. m., lasting two days, composed of the pastors, local preachers, exhorters, superintendents, teachers and officers on the following charges: Ebenezer, Red Oak, Marshall circuit, Jefferson, Cypress, Hughes Springs, Kildare, Queen City and Pittsburgh; R. H. Harbert, F. Parker and Henry Pemberton, committee on programme. Another Sunday-school convention will be held at Paris, commencing August 12, at 9 a. m., closing the 13th, composed of the pastors, local preachers, exhorters, superintendents, teachers and officers on the following charges: Paris, Paris circuit, Clarksville, DeKalb, Blossom Prairie, Bonham and Sulphur; J. B. McCulloch, Paul Douglass and John Jackson, committee on programme. These conventions are intended to develop home talents, give instruction in Sunday-school work, and awaken a lively interest among the young. We want careful reports from each Sunday-school, and a general rally of all the forces. Let the committees publish programmes as early as possible H. WEBB, P. E.

Lesson from a Mastodon.

The tusks of a mastodon recently found in Illinois weighed 175 pounds each. What a gigantic toothache that animal must have been capable of having. And such neuralgia or nerve-ache, generally proceeds from a disordered condition of the blood. Brown's Iron Bitters enriches and purifies this and drives neuralgia out. Mr. W. W. Redman, Piqua, O., says, "Brown's Iron Bitters permanently cured me of neuralgia."

Letters from the Pastors.

Rev. E. M. Manson, of Brownsville, Texas, writes: "Our second quarter was held on April 1st, by our beloved presididg elder, J. P. Price, and it was one of the best we have had since I have been on this charge. The elder was careful to inquire into all the church work, and urged the stewards and leaders to discharge their duties to the pastor, church and poor. Most of the committees had written reports, which were encouraging, especially the little Methodist Episcopal children; God bless the little band that are coming on in the Mother Methodist Church; may they grow strong in the Lord. Rev. J. W. Hall, of Alamo, and one of his local preachers was with us. We continued the meeting for a week or more, and four professed faith in the Lord Jesus and joined the church. Rev. J. L. Massey, of Mason, came and stayed with us two nights, and gave us two of his best sermons, I think, while here. Rev. A. Burdett, of Memphis, was here during the meeting, and he gave us words of cheer; he spoke in the interest of his new church and for the SOUTHWESTERN. Rev. F. D. Johnson, of the C. M. E. Church, A. Moody and T. J. Searcy, of the Missionary Baptist Church, all made themselves active during the revival by precept and example We have organized a Preachers Union in the town for discussing scriptural text and strengthening each other. Our church is gathering strength gradually, but I hope it will be everlasting; the membership is small, yet they seem to be encouraged, and are doing all they can in town to make their preacher and his wife happy. This little band need some one to feed them regularly every Sabbath, and then they will grow faster and bring forth sons and daughters for God and the M. E. Church. I am ashamed when I look in this county and see that our Church has but one little circuit, while the C. M. E. Church and the Baptist have the entire country, and still they tell me this is a Republican county. I know that some one will say this has nothing to do with the church, but I think it does. I glory in a church that said freedom to the body, to the soul, and from ignorance, and I can't see that I could join one that was a first or third cousin to the contrary.

Tenola Edwards, pastor of Hopewell and Shiloh, writes: "I arrived on my work the first of December, 1884, and found 100 members awaiting my arrival. On one of my appointments we have no church; we are worshipping in a school house, and our people here are all poor farmers but very good people and Christians. We propose to build after the Church Extension plan, and we have taken a subscription amounting to $60. The centennial jubilee was held with much interest and $11.55 collected for education and forwarded to Dr. Bust. The presiding elder held our second quarterly April 25th; reports two conversions and eight accessions. On Sunday Elder J. K. Loggins preached us an awakening sermon from Heb. 2, 3, and also Bro. Wesley Harmes was present. Communicants, 76. I see an appeal to the Church for $1,000,000 for missions, of which Palestine District is asked to raise of that amount the small sum of $91, and, with God's help, I expect to bring up my apportionment. Now, Mr. Editor, I hope the brethren of the Palestine District will not think that I am am taking the place of the presiding elder, yet, notwithstanding, it is my duty to advocate its noble cause. Brethren, assist in this great cause. It is true that Palestine district is poor, but then, with earnest efforts it can raise the amount assessed. The work first lies with the Bishops; they will have the right men for elders, and the elders must impress it upon the preachers; and if the preachers do not impress it upon the people how can the money be raised. As the eunuch said to Philip, "How can I expect some man to guide me?" I agree with the eunuch, how can the people do unless they are instructed how to do? We, as leaders of the flock of Christ, should instruct them in this matter, and with God's help we will accomplish much good. The presiding elder of Palestine District is the right man in the right place, and he has a keen eye, looking to all departments of the church. Finally, brethren, pray for us."

Rev. L. W. Washington, of Green Hill, Yazoo City, Miss., writes: "Our first quarterly conference convened at St. Paul on the 11th ank 12th of April. Dr. Revels presided. Reports from pastors, local preachers, stewards, class leaders and superintendents were read, all of which were favorable. Dr. Revels is well pleased with the work; he delivered a splendid address to the brethren to encourage them. He was very glad to see the improvements that have been made on the church. We have new curtains, for all the windows, and the pulpit is nicely dressed; we have also bought nice chandeliers for our church. The Doctor preached a noble sermon on Sunday, the 12th inst.; it was listened to by a large number of persons; Christians rejoiced and sinners were aroused. Our collection on that day was $26 70. The whole work is alive spiritually and financially. Bro H. Woolfork is a loving brother and a splendid steward. He works for the Church with all his heart. We had a nice time at the marriage of Mr. Norris and Mr. Lee, both of Green Hill. Bro. David Ross is our district steward. He is a nice man and a good Christian. He has a very large family, and in the midst of them he has a fine young man, one of the finest young men of the day, his name is J. R. Ross, He is a school teacher. Brethren let us do more for the cause of Christ this year than ever."

Rev. A. Foster, of Calvert, Texas, writes: "I entered upon my charge next day after conference. I had to pass through my new field to get to my new appointment, where my wife was, and where I had been stationed for three succeeding years. While passing I left appointment for the following Sunday, when I met a fine congregation who listened carefully to what I had to say. The following week I met the leaders and stewards, attended to the business, and arranged for moving, which was done soon. The hard rains last fall ruined the well on what we had taken to be our property heretofore, so as soon as I arrived here I commenced a rally, raised the money, and commenced a new curb from top to bottom, and had the well cleaned out, which cost $27, and some say that the water is better than ever before. It is fine water, but I guess it is about like it was before. When this job was completed the brethren and sisters thought they would commence another, which I hope will never be completed while I stay here; that is what I shall denominate the pound and surprise party. On Saturday night, Feb. 28, at 9 o'clock, a number of well formed musical voices were heard from the gallery of the parsonage fronting the street, singing this well known hymn, "Hark the Voice of Jesus Calling, who will go and work today," with a gentle rap at the door. I thought there could be no harm in so gentle a voice and knock, so I got up and opened the door. Now guess what happened. I will tell you. There were four great baskets well filled, with two sacks of flour, meal, sugar, coffee, rice, apples, butter, bacon, lard, vinegar, pepper, spice, nutmeg, cabbage, turnips, potatoes and money. This is what I call the pound party. And when I came to the money away in the bottom of the fourth basket, I was surprised—that is what I call the surprise party. And as they sang "If I cannot speak like angels, if I cannot preach like Paul, I can be like faithful Aaron, holding up the preacher's hand." Some of this party then sung, "If I can not give my thousands I can give the widow's mite, and the least I do for Jesus will be precious in his sight," so singing put something in my hand. I felt like completing another job. Our first quarterly conference was held January 24-25. It being cold and raining, our presiding elder, C. L. Madison, was present, and we had a good time. Previous to the setting of our second quarterly conference, which convened April 18 19, we thought to fence in the church and parsonage lots. This we could not do, because the church and parsonage are built on part of three lots, two of which do not belong to us. The line between us and the property of the railroad company runs through the southwest corner of our church, and as the parsonage and well lie south of this line they are so placed that they lie on two lots of the property belonging to the railroad company. This property is now in litigation and can not be bought. The parsonage will have to be moved to the north side of the church upon a lot belonging to us, where it should have been built at first. The well we cannot move, therefore it is lost. We brought the matter of moving the parsonage before the people and raised by subscription $110, payable during this month (May). I have promised to send the names of every one that pay one dollar or more to you to be published in the paper. I wrote to Dr. A. J. Kynett to find out what amount this church was indebted to the Church Extension Society. The answer is $90.87. This was brought before the people and arrangements made to raise some of this money. Our protracted meeting commenced April 12th and continued ten days; during this time 21 were converted. During the year previous to this meeting 11 were converted; total conversions this year 32; received by letter 4, by recommendation 4, from Baptist Church 1; total accessions this year 41. Our second quarterly conference was held April 18-19, at which time we had a grand time. Our presiding elder, C. L. Madison, reached us in time to help us in our revival. I could say so much more concerning this hero, his talent counsel and labor, but it is not necessary. Like a plain text of scripture that needs no comment, but speaks out for itself, so is our presiding elder, his labors speak for him. The whole West Texas Conference can say amen to this. The Sunday schools are not what we hope to make them, the Lord helping us. We have built a neat little stable and buggy-house which was very badly needed here. The district conference is to be held here, and we hope to have our parsonage moved and rebuilt by that time, and the property fenced. We are doing all we can for the SOUTHWESTERN, Pray for us."

Rev. H. J. Wright writes from Natchitoches, La.: "We are moving along right nicely, peace and harmony prevails. Last Sunday, June 7, we had a grand time of it at the 11 o'clock speaking meeting or general class; 92 spoke and 4 backsliders received. Bro. Edward Pugh, a preacher, and his wife, from the Baptist Church, were received in full connection upon recommendation. Bro. Page is a fine man and a good preacher. At 3 p. m. 65 partook of the sacrament of the Lord's supper and 7 children were baptized. Collection for the day, for the pastor, $14."

Rev. P. A. Crawford writes from Burnet, "I am doing all I can to build a church here. But times have been hard with us; however, we now have the prospect of good crops and good times. The people are doing all they can for the cause of Christ,"

Rev. William Davis writes from Jackson, La.: "Elder Priestley held our second quarterly conference June 2d, and preached to a good audience at night. We are doing well here. I am now painting our church inside and out. When completed we hope it will be as neat as any of the class on the district. Everything indicates a prosperous years' work."

Rev. M. Lockman, of Locksburg, writes. Rev. G. B. Donnelly, our presiding elder, held our first quarterly conference on the 21st and 22d of March. Everything passed off nicely, and one joined the church. The elder preached some of his good old sermons. Every one was glad to hear him. We have had six or seven of our best pretchers here, and we have about nine hundred or a thousand dollars worth of property; but the way it is now it is not worth two hundred dollars to the Methodist Episcopal Church. All of our churches are built on owner's land, and we have no deeds. The men know we have paid them all we owe them, but they will not give us the deeds. But we must compel them to."

Rev. N. Cannon writes from Handsboro, Miss.: "My second quarterly conference was held on the 9th and 7th of June, at Turkey Creek. Rev. W. McDonald, presiding elder, was on time, and had a full attendance of the members of the conference and they presented good reports. Pastors reported 10 received on probation, 4 conversions, 3 adults baptized, Sunday-schools in a good condition, the circuit in a spiritual condition. Collected and paid to the pastor this quarter $74 25; for travelling and moving expenses $9 50; paid to the presiding elder $20.15; Bishop $1. Our presiding elder met the Sunday-school at 9 a. m., and delivered an address which did the school great good, and preached three glorious sermons; at 11 o'clock a. m. love feast, and at 3 p. m. administered the sacrament to 54 communicants."

Letters From the Laity.

Prof. J. Jones writes from Plaquemine, La.: "Please give space in your invaluable paper for an article from a subscriber. Saturday, the 21st inst., the first quarterly conference of Hurst Chapel for 1885 was held by our dear brother and presiding elder, Stephen Priestley. Sunday morning, the 23d, Bro. P. visited our Sabbath-school, and after we had gone through with the regular exercises he addressed us, and I assure you that he said many interesting and instructive things to the school. He told us of the little children at other points of the district, and the need of thorough, active work among them. Bro. Broussal, of the Baptist denomination, preached for us at 11 o'clock. At 8 o'clock Elder Priestley preached the sacramental sermon, from St. Luke 22, 19. We were made to feel glad and to rejoice in the salvation of our souls. Then the table of the Lord was prepared and thirty-six persons became participants in the glorious feast. The congregation left the church rejoicing, to return at 7 o'clock for love feast, when we witnessed another good time. Rev. Priestley took leave to day on the 11:30 train for the Grosse Tete country. He informed us that he would finish his first round in about two weeks from the time he left here. Our prayers shall ever go up for his continued good health and success in the work that is yet before him. We revere the time-honored divine, especially when we remember how earnest and zealous he is of good works. Our church work is still progressing here. We were more than sorry to give up Rev. Geo. W. Lacey, but the Bishop and his cabinet so decreed, hence we could but bow in humble submission to the mandate of that body. Bro. Lacey was much respected by us. He did more for the church, by his energy and activity, in the two years that he was here than all the other ministers we have had combined. No one could have done more with so few to help. We have, however, in the person of Rev. M. B. Franklin, another good minister in whose hands our interests will not suffer, it is hoped. He is a forcible speaker and a clever gentleman.

Our church, though a small congregation, raised, with what aid we received from the Missionary Society, six hundred odd dollars last year. This year we hope to do more, therefore we earnestly solicit the prayers of our entire Church for our success. Rev. H. B. Parks, of the A. M. E. Church is doing battle for the Lord here. His revival has been in progress but a short time, notwithstanding this some 12 or 15 souls have been converted to Christ, and many more are anxiously seeking his love to know. Rev. P. is an able young divine and courteous gentleman. The people of this section are jubilant over the advent of welcome Spring and the revival of business. The public schools of our parish are in a flourishing condition, and the teachers are laboring hard and taking much pains in "teaching the young idea how to shoot."

The President and Secretary of the parish school board are excellent officials and are much interested in the public schools and they are seeing to it that our people are having their full share of the school fund. The writer has the honor to be principal of the Plaquemine school with five assistants, and about three hundred pupils. We are endeavoring to do our duty.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Pittsburgh Correspondence.

BY CELES.

Since my last letter Pittsburgh has been favored with a visit from the renowned Moody and Sankey. Of course everybody was captivated by the stirring words of the one and the sweet singing of the other, but I must confess that our secular papers expressed some very erroneous views of the results of the meetings. There were three services daily for three days and the attendance averaged five thousand persons. The press of the city put in blazing "headers" and "leaders" that the masses were being moved. In one sense it was true enough, namely that by "masses" was meant large bodies of people. They forgot to state that the particular masses to which reference was had were the church goers. Again, the dailies showed how much at sea they were on religious topics when they loudly exclaimed that the great revival going on at Music Hall should be a lesson teaching the clergy how to go to work in earnest. Nothing more absurd or wilfully perverted was ever written. I have yet to hear of one person who joined any church as the direct result of the Moody meetings, but I have the statistics at hand showing that the Methodist clergymen of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny districts have, during the past winter, received into their various churches over fifteen hundred converts. In many other points I could show where the secular press and public misconceived wholly the question of the relative merits of the regular and the evangelistic work. However, I must not, lest I in turn may be misunderstood and seem to oppose the evangelists too much. I believe they are instruments in God's hands for the doing of much good, but I do not believe in that spasmodic religion which seemed to take our daily editors by storm for the space of nearly a week. While Moody does much, it is my belief that the world must look to the regularly ordained ministry of the churches for its redemption.

In the very heart of our dirty, [illegible] city lies the immense Allegheny [illegible] certainly one of the most [illegible] cities of the dead to be found anywhere. Not long ago [illegible] through some of its [illegible] and [illegible] from the stones dating back [illegible] five decades, that portion [illegible] While wandering [illegible] my eye caught sight of a [illegible] leaning inward from its own [illegible] which marked a grave [illegible] neglected and forgotten. [illegible] I noted the name of Stephen C. Foster, the author of [illegible] which he perhaps, to [illegible] Home," has moved [illegible] all climes, and reaches [illegible] heart in "The Old [illegible] known, perhaps, [illegible] "Way Down [illegible] River," has a [illegible] almost a world-wide [illegible] while the author [illegible] sleeps quietly in his almost forgotten grave, hemmed in from the bustle and confusion which surrounded him in life, his matchless words shall continue to stir the hearts and move the sympathies of multitudes. It had often cast its pathetic spell over my soul, and I placed a flower upon the grave, an humble but loving token of reverence for him whose dust lay beneath the wild grasses on which I stood. I saw other sights in that solemn ground, but the one which struck me most was a modest little stone in the soldiers' plot, bearing this inscription; "Harry B——, —th Illinois Cavalry, died in the Pittsburgh hospital Sept. 9, 186–, from the effect of a shell wound received in the battle of ——. Age, 15 years." There are some Confederate soldiers buried there also, and one of the most significant sights of the year is to see the Grand Army veterans reverently heaping the graves of their old foemen with wreaths and boquets on Memorial Day. Truly, with the veterans of both sides in the civil war there is now no more enmity. The very men who handled the sword for North and South were the first to throw it away and clasp hands over the breech.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Is It Right?

We have noticed for some time, considerable very bad verse, called poetry, in the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE; and we presume that the editor published such, not because of its excellence, but because there might be complaint from the 'poets,' if their doggerel should be cast into the waste basket, their proper place. In short, it is the hardest poetry that was intended to be poetry I ever saw. Much other doggerel appears in the SOUTHWESTERN, and which hurts the reputation of the race rather than helps it. Of course, the race needs to learn to read and write poetry, but only that which is worthy should be published. They can practice verse-writing to their soul's satisfaction, criticising and improving what they write as much as possible; but such stuff as some have had published is too wretched for our religious journals. Our newspapers cannot creditably commend themselves to the intelligent public when they contain such worthless matter. By studying prosody some may learn to compose creditable verse; then let those who think they have poetic genius adopt this plan and produce something worthy of publication. We are not unmindful that the race is in the formative state, and, therefore, perfection is not yet expected; nevertheless, the greatest care should be observed to have the formation good, in order that perfection may be reached in due time.

PROSE WRITINGS.

Much of the prose written by colored people paints its colors too deep and overdraws the pictures. This is often the case when accounts of speeches, sermons, public exercises, etc., are given.

Not long ago a colored minister gave a published notice of an entertainment for the benefit of his church, and he spoke of persons in the Fourth Reader, some of whom might justly be called the refuse of society, as well-known artists, merely because they were on the programme. Very often people, competent to judge, are acquainted with the persons who are represented as making wonderful speeches, sermons, and witness these loaded exercises; and they well know that the speeches, sermons, and other performances are greatly flattered; consequently both the writers and performers are lowered in the estimation of the intelligent public. Let all deserved praise be given, but keep within the bounds of truth. Our purpose is not to discourage writing, but to encourage excellent writing and a true statement of the case. There are some very worthy writers among the correspondents of the SOUTHWESTERN—such as Rev. D. W. Hays, W. H. Nelson, Dr. R. F. Boyd, and others. The readers and supporters of the above named paper, as well as the race need be proud of these men. Some are anxious that the productions of colored persons should be published simply because they are productions of colored persons. But we can countenance the publication of a writing no more simply because it is the production of a colored person, than we can countenance scorning a person because of his color. To do otherwise, seems to manifest great inferiority and ask favor because of inferiority, as well as to develop this terrible race friction with which we have so much trouble.

Greensboro, N. C.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Another One Succeeds.

The Secretary of the Mississippi Conference would most respectfully ask a space in the columns of your most excellent paper to express my gratitude, and ask the brethren and many friends who have written me congratulatory letters upon the success of our late Conference Minutes, to accept my sincere thanks. Among the letters that the secretary has received, is the following: Rev. Wilbur P. Thirkield, B.D. Dean of Gammon school of Theology, Atlanta, writes: "Rev. J. M. Shumpert. Dear brother,—I herewith send you a copy of our catalogue. In return will you favor me by sending me a copy of your Conference Minutes. Having seen a copy, I must take this opportunity to congratulate you on the manner in which your work is done. They would be an honor to any conference. I watch the progress of our work with the deepest interest, and I am glad that I can lend a hand in the solution of the greatest race problem of the centuries. With all good wishes, I am always fraternally yours,

WILBUR P. THIRKIELD.

Rev. A. D. Payne, Grenada, writes: "The Minutes are the best we ever had, and I must say, they are grand, and the Mississippi Conference may well be proud of them."

Rev. J. C. Eckles, presiding elder of the Holly Springs District, says: "Dear Brother Shumpert,—I congratulate you on the success achieved in the publication of Conference Minutes. For correctness and beauty they can scarcely be excelled."

Rev. A. M. Trotter, writes: "Dear Elder, the Minutes have been received and I must say I never saw better. I am highly pleased." For these and many other kind expressions the secretary feels humbly and thankfully for.

Fraternally Yours, J. M. S.

[One by one these brethren stepping to the front proves that the grand work of our heroic old church has not been in vain in the South. The Lord make them a thousand fold so many as they are. Who will be the next? Every one indisputably helps our church and race. —ED.]

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

I have a mother that I wish to find, and I would like for you to publish it in your paper, and I write to you to learn who I must send the letter to to have it published, and your charges. Would have sent the letter with this inquiry but thought it best to notify you. Hoping to hear from you immediately. JANE KENDRICK,

[Send your letter to Phillips & Hunt 37 Natchez St., and if you are not a subscriber send 50 cents with it. If you are a subscriber we will print it free.—ED.]

MR. EDITOR,—I wish to inquire for my people that I left in Tennessee in 1856. We all used to belong to the Widow Cooper, 5½ miles from Charlotte, and I was sold to a man by the name of Wm. Holt; I was with him about 2 years and he broke, and then I was sold again to a man by the name of James T. Armston, and was carried to Arkansas and I remained there about 5 years, and during the war I was brought to Texas. I had a sister by the name of Esster and a brother by the name of Robert Richard, and a sister named Lucinda, and a brother Cyrus. I heard that Cyrus was dead. I am the next. Address Sandy Cooper, Galveston, Texas.

I wish to inquire for my wife's son. He left West Point with Dr. Reiley, and went to Meridian, Texas; but the last time we heard from him Dr. Reiley had moved to Grape Vine, Texas, and the last time he wrote they were at that place. His name is Willie Davison. I have not heard from him in nine months. Any information concerning him will be gladly received. Address T. C. Morgan, care of Rev. R. Snell, West Point, Miss.

I have a letter of inquiry: Sister Green wishes to find her relatives. Ebert Mathis formerly belonged to Nute Freeman, Russell county, Ala. Next brother, named Bill Williams, same, Freeman & Co., third brother, Mose Williams, same as above. The mother of these boys was Mary Freeman; all of Russell county, Ala. The writer of this letter is Julian Green. If you find any of these parties please have them to direct their letters to Julian Green, Harlan, Noxubee county, Miss., in care of J. H. Elliott.

My name was Millie Shofner, I had only two children, both born in Bedford county, Tenn.; the oldest is Eliza Brown, and the youngest Harriet Thompson. I was sold to Gabe Shofner, who brought me to Missouri. All this took place before the war. I left my daughters in Bedford county, Tenn. Any one knowing their whereabouts will please write me at Fayetteville, Ark.

Will pastors inquire among their congregations for a young man named Alfred Davis, who belonged to a Mr. Boyd Smith. He was taken from home by a gambler, and was put in the sale yard. Mr. Jas. Wilson bought him, and took him to Louisiana. His mother was named Delia Owen, and had a sister named Ann Owen. His mother married a man named Paul Winston. Direct letters to Second Baptist Church, Delia Owen, or Delia Winston, Nashville, Tenn.

I never made any effort to find my people before now. Will you please oblige me by publishing this letter. I have two sisters that were sold. Their names are Emily Mathews and Rachel Nelson; my name is Mary Ann Nelson; our father is named George Nelson, and Betsy Nelson. We were sold by the traders in Maryland. We belonged to a man named Henry Pugh, and was brought to New Orleans by the traders and put in a yard called Bruhel's Traders Yard. Please direct letters in care of Union Chapel Church, Class No. 1, Mary Ann Nelson, New Orleans, La.

I desire to inquire for my mother, Matilda Townsend, raised by a man named John Townsend, in Floyd county, Georgia. She was sold there to go with her husband, and left me there. My name was Alex Townsend; now I go by the name of Alex Barnes. In a short while both were carried to Mississippi. Her husband's name was Phil Patrick. The last letter I received from her she was in Mississippi preparing to come to Texas. Any information will be gladly received. Send in care of A. M. Mason, box 6, Victoria, Texas.

How Women Would Vote.

Were women allowed to vote every one in the land who has used Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" would vote it to be an unfailing remedy for the diseases peculiar to her sex. By Druggists.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain; relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

July 17-1y.

Plantation Melodies
—AND—
REVIVAL HYMNS.

By MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D.

WITH AN INTRODUCTION
By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.

Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.

Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and portrait. Sent, post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents.

Address, PHILLIPS & HUNT
32 Natchez street, New Orleans

J. T. Newman, M. D.,
—PRACTICING—
Surgeon and Physician,
315 Felicity Street,
NEW ORLEANS, LA.

☞Makes a specialty of treating colored people. jan15-1y

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches:
History of the U. S.—Ridpath	$3 00
Scripture History.—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net	60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3.) Net	5
History of ethodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.)	3 00
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Edition of 1884
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. 1) nett	5 00
Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs	2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scripture s chapters I-XXX.—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope. Vol. I) nett	7 50
Plain Account of hristian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill. Net	1 00
Written Sermons.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
Christian Purity—Foster	1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law, and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. (chapters XXI-LII)—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
Lessons in Logic.—Saylor. Net	60
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged). Stevens	3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory	85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol. II.—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures: New Testament: Chapters I-XIII.—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology: Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope. Vol. III	7 50
Atonement in hrist.—Miley	1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn	2 50
Intellectual Science—Porter	3 00
Homiletics.—Kidder	1 50
Written Sermon
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst	3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters XIX-XLIV. Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Theological Institutes Part II.—Watson	6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written Exegesis
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St Paul.—onybeare and Howson (Abridged Edition)	1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry
History of Rationalism.—Hurst	3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst	$ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884)
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.—Walker	1 25
To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St. Paul.—Fletcher	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Th: Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill	1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst	50
Ancient History.—Thalheimer
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	3 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged Edition).—Stevens	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible. Sacraments
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield	2 50
Plain Account of hristian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill	1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven	90
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer	1 60
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol I.) Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Nast	5 00
Era of the Protestant Revolution.—Seebohn	1 25
	75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII.—Wakefield	2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.)	45
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol II. Books to Antinomianism.—Fletcher	5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher	2 50
Protestant Foreign Missions.—hristlieb	1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address:
PHILLIPS & HUNT.
37 Natchez St. New Orleans.

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address 55 cents each; 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of 6 new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Clusters.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

12 Cents a Year.

The Picture Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little Sunday paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1885 at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE.

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year,

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Expressly for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful pictures.

Our Little Men and Women.

For Youngest Readers at Home and in School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY.

An Eight-page Weekly, for Boys and Girls

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week-day or Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by SHOWN
PHILLI[illegible]ad illustrations. In $16 per set
37 Natchez St. [illegible] territory. Perfectly satisfactory t[illegible]ial [illegible]e B. Nunnes & Co.
[illegible]r street, Toledo, Ohio.
artily recommended.
mar5-90t

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, JUNE 18, 1885.

Removal.

Correspondents and other friends will please take notice that we have removed our office from No. 32 to No. 37 Natchez Street, second floor, rear room. PHILLIPS & HUNT.

Agents will please make payments on back debts. We need the money. Send all you can, and without delay.

A life of Bishop Wiley will shortly be published by the Western Book Concern, written by Rev. R. S. Rust, D. D.

Trust you will speak again on the amalgamation question and caste, as it exists among our people. Amen to all you have said upon all these questions." Such are the utterances of one of the most promising young colored ministers in this or any other country. There are differences now, but in the end the true men of the race will take our position and stay on it. We have articles coming on caste as it is and was among the Negroes. Just you wait.

The Latest Work from Our Book Concern.

The "Ritual of the Methodist Episcopal Church, adapted to the Discipline of 1884," New York: Phillips & Hunt; Cincinnati, Cranston & Stowe. The new Ritual contains 144 pages, large, bold type, flexible cover. Price 50 cents. Every church is entitled to a pulpit copy of our own Discipline, Hymn and Ritual. These ought to be found on the desk of the Church minister, and remain there always ready for use. Just think of a congregation without its own baptismal service for use or reference at the grave of its dead, but actually borrowing a service from some other church or burying Christians as if they were heathen dead. Get the Ritual for the Church and parsonage at least. But, indeed, every family ought to have it, so well. Send your orders at once.

No Color-Line in It.

A correspondent to the Freeman says Howard University drew the color line by the non-election of a professor of languages the other day. How do you know it drew the color line? Our information concerning this matter lead us to conclude that it was the case. What proof have you that the best man for the place was not elected? Why is it you have such selfish views? At this time we are told there is no room in color. That is when the colored man expects to get something. In this case the election of [illegible] by a board containing [illegible] races on the governing [illegible] We believe [illegible] are members [illegible] know how to [illegible] for their friends, [illegible] that they did observed that Scripture that majority rules and we [illegible]

Will It Follow Here?

[illegible] we had our [illegible] for the [illegible] question was [illegible] over the river [illegible] is considerable in- [illegible] is the case, many [illegible] holding [illegible] case [illegible] doubts [illegible] the fact that the [illegible] and no post mortem [illegible] the whole matter [illegible] The business people [illegible] gleefully pro- [illegible] apart as progressive. [illegible] desire to [illegible] [illegible] prevails [illegible] [illegible] sickness [illegible] trial of this city [illegible] with many [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] may

Eight Weeks on the Wing.

Leaving New Orleans by the Great Southern Railway on March 24, we prosecuted our journey with frequent stops until May 25th, when returning via the Ohio and Mississippi and Illinois Central Railways in a through sleeper from Cincinnati, we reach our original starting point at 9 a. m. on May 27.

Our trip embraced a brief visit to Nashville, Tenn., Litchfield, Elizabethtown, Louisville, Anchorage, Simpsonville, Shelbyville, Obanon, Pewee Valley, Lexington, Versailles, Slickaway, Paris, Cynthiana, Flemingsburg, Falmouth, Maysville and Covington, Ky.; Aberdeen, Troy, Springfield and Cincinnati, Ohio; Shelbyville, Connersville, Newcastle, Rushville, Jeffersonville and Indianapolis, Ind.

On this pilgrimage, besides the railroads already mentioned, we have used the Kentucky Central, Chesapeake and Ohio, Whitewater Valley and Kankakee, and it is our duty to thank them for marked courtesies extended. In the matter of speed, safety and gentlemanly bearing, the employes, management and equipment of these roads is all one could wish.

We have at each place visited made one or more addresses, besides preaching once or twice in the same places. We have mingled freely with the people, colored and white, in these places and along the roads, and our observations tend to the conclusion that there is a slow but steady upward progress in all affairs of a business nature touching the Negroes. There has been a hard winter and a backward spring. These have depressed business somewhat by hindering farmers from out-door work. The frigid and protracted cold weather has told severely upon the health of the colored people. All about you in nearly every home it has left its mark in the form of a dry, tight, hacking cough. As we have observed this is more prevalent among women than men, and we judge it comes from the manner of toil to which colored women are especially devoted, washing and housework as servants. This often requires them to rise early and travel many blocks through all forms of inclement weather, and to do the same at night when returning to their homes. Then too, standing over the washtub with the hot steam pouring over their bodies they become much heated and while in this case often go out to hang up their wash. This is a fruitful source of evil. It cannot be done except at the great peril of health. Of course these hardships are inseparable from the life of toil which the overwhelming majority of colored women are bound to follow. Often the husband has no trade, and in such cases is frequently compelled to go for weeks without work, leaving the support of home to the wife as a result. Often too, colored men seem to act as if they thought their wives and daughters were only fit to serve the wives and daughters of other men. We have known colored ministers and politicians with good salaries and permanent situations leave their wives wash, iron and do such menial service for other people as these people were unwilling to do for themselves.

These public men have been called representative men and leaders of their race too.

There is yet another cause. Our people, as we observe, wear very costly clothes, live pretty high and go on a good many excursions in the summer time. The money thus spent is the surplus they would be able to lay by for winter uses if they were only thoughtful enough to do it. Failing to do it they are compelled to hustle about when winter comes, doing whatever they can get to do, no matter how exposing or unhealthy it may be. They ought to remember this hereafter.

In some communities our people have ceased or never began to buy homes, and the rents consumes them in two ways.

1. It takes all they can earn above victuals and clothes for rent, having nothing for sickness. Then the houses they are able to pay for are always small, meanly situated, dilapidated and unhealthy. Where they have bought homes it is a fearfully frequent rule not to improve them or increase them in value by enlarging or by purchasing others. So that in most cases, in order to save the health of the community in large cities they are run out by public improvements. These observations are not universally, but largely, too largely true.

It is the present duty of the Negroes: 1. To improve the homes they have; clean, paint, whiten, and if possible enlarge and ornament them. 2. To buy good town lots take building association shares and pay for them as they can. People who risk nothing certainly lose nothing, but what do they gain? 3. Those who cannot succeed in getting any money ahead have a call to leave the cities and try farming, and they should heed the call. 4. It is the duty of the hour to organize for life. A $1000 in the hand of a living, active, economic and industrious young man is more useful than $1000 in funeral expenses. 5. We cannot make more of life or less of death. A dead body is manure. A living is a human being capable of great attainments. "Let the dead bury the dead, and the living look to life." Life here and hereafter. 6. Preachers should preach fewer funerals and more sermons, pointing out the objects, aims and end of true life. Co-operation for business purposes is what we need.

Watchman, What of the Night?

When the men who found an excuse for killing Negroes in the danger of their political supremacy in the South shall find that they have that excuse no longer, because the Negro is either so apathetic or divided in his political sentiments and affiliations as to remove the dreaded menace, then they will bestir themselves to look for another excuse. What will it be? Amalgamation! That key note can be so sounded as to redden all the South with Negro blood. We warn the Negroes all over the country, therefore, to eschew it. If it is to come, and ought to come, it will come. Demanding will not hasten it, but the expressed desire for it will furnish fire for the inflamable element of society here and elsewhere. Follow the SOUTHWESTERN. We are looking ahead with no other end in view but the glory of God, the best interest of this country, and the Negroes as a part of it, and the extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church as a means to this end. There are other reasons why we oppose amalgamation as a means of solving the so called Negro problem. But the readers of our paper in the past and future will find them.

Glorified—Whedon.

Daniel Dennison Whedon, D. D., L. L. D., was born in Onondaga, N. Y., March 20, 1808. He died after a protracted and painful illness at Atlantic Highlands, N. J., Monday, June 8, at 5:20 o'clock in the morning, in the residence of Mr. Charles Whedon, his son. He retained his consciousness to the last. The funeral services were conducted in St. Paul's Church, N. Y. and the remains taken to Elizabeth, N. J., for interment. Rev. Drs. Curry, Buckley, S. Hunt, Gregory and Day have been appointed a committee to draft suitable resolution, of which a full account will be found in the Christian Advocate.

Dr. Whedon was a gradnate of Hamilton College. He taught in the Oneida Conference Seminary and Hamilton College in 1833. Was elected professor in Wesleyan University, Middletown. Entered the pastoral work in 1843; in 1845 was chosen professor in Michigan University; in 1856 was elected general book editor at the Methodist Book Concern, and editor of the Quarterly Review, which office he retained until 1884. He was the author of Whedon on the Will, Whedon's Commentaries, and other works. He was a prominent actor on the conservative side of the anti-slavery conflict in our church in 1835 6, and wrote the reply to Rev. La Roy Sunderland's appeal. He wrote vigorously on this subject for seven years. But in 1865 he was able to urge the return of the Wesleyan church to ours, and to express the opinion in the Quarterly Review that their separation from us had "saved us from accepting a slave-holding bishop."

Bishop Harris wrote a constitutional argument to show that we were not a slave holding church, and Dr. Whedon pronounced it the ablest document that had ever appeared in our ecclesiastical history, reading very much like one of Judge John Marshall's decisions, leaving nothing further to be said on either side. His conservative tendencies had previously imperiled his chances for election, but in 1860 he was elected almost unanimously, thus marking the growth of the acceptibility of his views, and consequently their progress toward the views of the great mass of the Church, since these had rather advanced than otherwise. Dr. Whedon was a writer of great beauty and perspicuity. He did not deal in improved postulates, but was given to illustrate by facts, and demonstrate by philosophy. He always began his attack at the weakest part of his opponent's argument, and proceeded thence to demolish the whole. He was always conservative as to Methodist doctrine and policy. A good man has gone to a blessed reward. His family, Church and country are greatly bereaved by his death.

Build and for God.

Some preachers and people have a great faculty for self-assertion or cheek, as it is vulgarly called. They have a magnetism which attracts everything to themselves and a corresponding very little to the Church or God.

Buying land and laying up treasure upon earth has no part in a valid call to the ministry.

If the people are encouraged to buy the homes and get money, and what to do with both it they fear God and have the right culture, they will supply what the ministers lack in these perishable things.

Moreover, they will contribute willingly, not of necessity of this world's goods to the Church, sick and poor. They foster public beneficence and look after widows and orphans, build schools, asylums, churches and parsonages, for these are the homes in which God delights to dwell on earth. They will speak the truth, love their own Church and all others after it. To them the changing will be no more than the changing of the seasons. Each old one will take away some warmth of love, and each new one will bring some duty in ministering to his wants as a means of grace.

But these who aggregate the crowds to themselves when they come and while they remain only scatter and slay them when they retire.

What sort of ministers are they? God probably did not call them at least to be itinerants in our Church. And the Church is little inclined to trust that it can ever give them appointments commensurate with their talents, these faults aside. Indeed, the Church and their brother ministers will be glad when it is said of such "he is dead," either as a preacher or as a man, certainly the former.

Build for God. Feel that you are called for this and nothing else, and then nothing else will disturb you. Did you preach a good sermon which the people praised and enjoyed, don't get proud. "It is not you that work but God that worketh in you, first to will and then to do of His good pleasure." Meet your quarterly conference, pay your elder and your church debts, make no slighting remarks of him or predecessor or a neighbor, it may be a visiting pastor. Some day he may be their or your pastor. Who can tell? Forget yourself, then the elder, other pastors, your people and God himself will think and aid you. Who and what are you, anyhow? Worms and clay, that's all. Let the thought chasten and sweeten all you do. Then it will be done in love and for God.

Personal.

—Rev. Alexander Posey and family left for Madison Saturday.

—Rev. A. McDade and family have arrived in Louisville, from Covington, Ky.

—Bishop Wyman's son, Abraham, is dead. He was a cultivated young man.

—The post-office address of Rev. A. D. Geren is 350½ Melpomene street, this city.

—Prof. W. F. Thirkield of Clark, preached the annual sermon at Rust and Claflin Universities, 85.

—Rev. C. T. Jones, of Wesley Chapel, Jeffersonville, Indiana, is making things lively in his charge.

—The African Methodists have a pastor Swan in Texas, but when they find the equal of our pastor Swan we will give it up.

—Rev. W. T. Franklin is getting along nicely at Steubenville. He recently delivered a very impressive sermon to young men, which we shall print in due time.

—Messrs. Phillips & Hunt have been compelled to lay in a large fresh supply of Dr. Taylor's Plantation Melodies. They now have them subject to order.

—Rev. J. F. Marshall, wife and daughter, after a pleasant visit to New Orleans friends, the closing exercises of the school and the Exposition, have reached their home at Alexandria, well pleased and safe.

—Rev. J. W. E. Bowen has been transferred from the New England Southern Conference to the New York, and stationed at St. John's Church vice Rev. J. W. Parker transfered to the Delaware Conference and stationed at Philadelphia.

—Rev. A. N. Jackson is the preacher in charge at Gadsden, Ala., and has done a grand work. In a two weeks protracted effort he has added to the church twenty five members, and is now using every effort to pay the church debts, The plans he lays before his people are good, and in reach of every one.

—Rev. J. Wesley Parker has been transferred to Philadelphia and his address is 1111 Rodman street. He has lately lost one and has another quite sick child. He has kindly remembered the SOUTHWESTERN withal having renewed his own and sent us other subscribers. We hold Bro. and Sister Parker in high esteem.

—Rev. John Qualls was recently pounded by the members of First Street Church, New Orleans. They first sung "Guide me oh thou great Jehovah." Mrs. Joseph made a neat speech explaining the cause, after which the little group of beneficient nocturnal assailants delivered up several Pounds of comfort, listened to the thanks of Bro. Qualls, and the other Qualls and then quietly retired.

Under the able management of Miss Amanda Craig, Mr. and Mrs. August Almbs, the wife of Rev. H. W. Tate, and her guest, Miss Emma Buchanan, were surprised at the parsonage May 13th 1885, by a large party of parishioners of Wiley M. E. church and others, the special occasion being Mrs. Tate's birth-day anniversary. Mr. Tate was in the secret and took the ladies to church, hanging the house key where the visitors easily secured it. When Mrs. Tate and guests returned home there was the house filled with people, and two long tables loaded with a rich feast, so bountiful that much remained untouched after all were satisfied. It was the completest affair ever tendered the pastor and wife. The following named guests were present:

Mrs. George Ellis, Mrs. Wesley Bradford, Mrs. Pricilla Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Miles, Mr. and Mrs. James Isley, Misses Mattie Spence, Misses Ida Jones, Martha Hull, Mary Chinn, Lettie Chinn, Blanche Bartley, Katie Bartley, Winnie Bartley, Maggie Wilson, Mattie Guy, Lena Echols, Pauline Basey, Amanda Craig, Ida Russell; Mrs. Mattie Rogers, Mrs. Mary Clemons, Mrs Henrietta Wilborn, Mrs. Finley, Mrs Fox, Miss Mary Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. August Almbs, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Haynes, Mrs. Pricilla Perrin, Mrs. Martha Miller of Kentucky. Mrs Ida Conrbine. Mrs. Laura Foles, Mrs. Laura Jackson, Miss Carrie Fulton; Messrs. Henry Dudley, W. D. Hickman, Thomas Bowman, Lewis Speaks, Alexander Wilson; Miss Sallie A. Williams, Mr. S. R. Hylton, A. W. Jones, of Troy, Ohio, George Craig, Mr. Lewis.

Church Polity.

MR. EDITOR—Has a woman the right to preach?—SUBSCRIBER.

Your question is capable of suggesting two answers: 1. Has a woman the right to preach in the Methodist Episcopal Church?

Answer.—The General Conferences of 1880 and 1884 are to the intent that women can not be either licensed or ordained to preach in the said Church. Pages 358 9 Dis. 1884, par. 572, sec. 1-3. If a woman preaches without licenses the Church does not express an objection. The difficulty would be for them to find a pulpit to preach in.

2. Is it right for women to preach at all?

If a woman or a man knows she has God's call to preach, she ought to obey God. But if God does not make such call known to his church as clearly as he does in ordinary cases, the woman not the church must take the responsibility of setting aside church order.

Please inform me what is the duty of a Sunday-school superintendent.—SUBSCRIBER.

Answer—Presuming that you mean to ask us what is the duty of a Methodist Episcopal Sunday-school superintendent, we answer as follows:

1. To superintend while the school is in session, arranging classes, welcoming strangers, keeping perfect order and generally overseeing things is what we mean by superintending.

2. To nominate (in concurrence with the pastor) the teachers of the school. Dis., par. 263, sec. 5, edition of 1884.

3. To report to each district conference, or, where no district conference is held, then to the quarterly conference the condition of his school. Par. 99 and 102, sec. 1, Dis. 1884.

4. To aid the preacher in charge and the committee on Sunday-schools in deciding what books and other publications shall be used in the Sunday-school. Par. 265, Dis. 1884.

5. To attend the Sunday-school, Sunday-school board, quarterly and district conferences and teachers study meetings whenever held.

6. To visit the children and their parents at their homes, and always recognize, speak to and shake hands with them on the street.

Schools and Colleges.

Ebenezer School.

A. J. HOWARD, PRINCIPAL.

Our school at Ebenezer closed May 2d, and I could not remain there to write you for coming here. We examined Friday and Saturday, with our literary exercises Saturday night. Though the winter was severe, and the measles came in upon us just before the close, yet the scholars rallied like little heroes and heroines. Schools were stopping around, but ours continued throughout the heat of the contest, and all who witnessed our closing (I mean the pure stuff) examination, I believe said "well done." Prof. Humphreys, of the white school, was there and told us that the watchword of the world is progress, and for us to go upward, onward. Our beloved pastor, Rev. Lemons, was there also, with his usual stimulating spirit, and he preached for us on the following Sunday for the good of the Sunday-school. And let me say here that we have not a summer Sunday ... but one that runs year in and year out. You will remember that ... you last year that we ... the saloon-keeper; he has put up just on the edge of the corporation, and there he stands with his doggery, but we keep him at bay. Pray for our redemption from ... rum, and that we may be instrumental in carrying the ... for education, civilization and for God.

... ton, Miss.

Colored Professor in Leland Baptist University.

JONAS HENDERSON, B. S. CLASS '84

The school has been in successful operation for about ten years. During this period, three of the young men trained at her fount of knowledge have been employed as instructors in their Alma Mater. Rev. S. Clanton, now missionary agent of the Baptist Publication Society, was the first to enjoy this happy lot. He having resigned to study theology in Morgan Park, was succeeded by Prof. E. W. Warren. The good work done by these two young men has been known to many in our city. Since these friends and members of our race have been called to other work Jonas Henderson stands as a member of the faculty and a representative of his race.

The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary for Louisville white people has in hand and money an endowment of $300,000. The institute for colored Baptists has a legacy of debt amounting to more than ... Circumstances and facilities count for anything there ought to be a wider intellectual ... there is between the different classes of ministers thus made.

The annual catalogue of Central Tennessee College is before us. It contains much needful information, and is well arranged.

Boston University furnishes free tuition to theological students, but a license to preach is required as proof of the applicants proper qualifications. The catalogue is a neat book of 162 pages, and full of matters of interest. We have received a copy.

We have the programme of exercises for commencement week at Lasell Seminary for young women, Auburndale, Mass. The exercises cover the period between June 11-17, 1885.

Hampton has enrolled this year 675 students, of whom 518 are Negroes and 157 Indians. With 360 little colored children in the "Butler" primary day school, this makes over 1,000 pupils who receive instruction on its grounds.

The School of Expression which has just been organized in Boston, judging from its catalogue, which has ... been received, presents the broadest and most thorough course ever offered for the training of the voice, body and mind for all branches of elocution and expression. S. S. Curry has charge of the undertaking, and has organized the school from his private classes. There are already in attendance one hundred and twenty-nine students, thirty-six of whom are college graduates, with candidates from fifteen different professions. All the teachers of the ... are placed upon salaries, the ... money, if any occurs, being ... a private source until the school can be endowed. If the income is greater than the expenses, the surplus is to be applied to a ... fund for a permanent ... A Committee of Trust, ... citizens, is ... to whom donations may be ... Thus, an endeavor is ... the School from all ... and found ... basis.

... Principals.

... of the Eighth ... St. Louis, Mo., ... Texas ... completely ... and ... met with appalling ... are entirely temper- ... take it with me on my ... the liquor habit.

General Church News.

A Pentecostal Mela.

Since Conference there has been an unusually large number of baptisms in Oudh and Rohilkund, twelve at the Misrikh mela, ten at the Golakarn mela, and five at the Tulsipur mela. But the greatest blessing of all was at the Ajudhiya mela last week (March 24), so writes Rev. B. H. Badley: This is one of the largest fairs in North India, and is often attended by 100,000 people, some of whom come hundreds of miles. During the past twenty years we missionaries have been in the habit of attending the mela, and much faithful work has been done here. Rev. Chimman Lal, of Lucknow, and two or three other helpers, along with Rev. A. C. Paul, of Barabanki, and his helpers, went to the mela. They pitched their tent in the very shadow of the lofty temple called "Hanuman's Fort." On the morning of the 24th after singing and prayer, a poor leper came and stood in front of the tent. Some of the bystanders said jestingly "take this man and make him a Christian." The brethren asked him to come inside, but he explained that he was a leper. Notwithstanding, they had him come in and all knelt in prayer. While one of the local preachers was praying the power of God was wonderfully manifested. The leper began to pray to God for mercy, and was at once blessed. With tears streaming down his face he confessed that Christ had saved him. He was a Brahmin, and had made many long pilgrimages to Badrinath, Benares and elsewhere, seeking rest, but all in vain. With a glad heart he rose up, after being baptised, cast aside his Brahmanical cord, gave his necklace to the brethren and started forth to tell the multitude the wonderful story. He brought others to the tent, and as the brethren sang and prayed these were also blessed, and after being instructed were baptised. Some, after listening awhile to the preaching and singing went and brought their wives and children, and thus family after family were baptized. Before the day had closed no less than 101 had been baptized. A wonderful record. On the following day the new converts brought others, and the gracious work went forward. On the one hand were tens of thousands pressing into the heathen temples with their offerings and shouts of victory to the heathen deities; and on the other, these native preachers with their groups of happy converts singing the praises of Christ and joining in the enthusiastic shout, "Isa Masih ki jai!" Victory to the Lord Jesus Christ! Priests and people looked on in amazement. Many drew near to see if there was not some kind of sorcery or slight of hand performance, but all were convinced of the genuineness of the work. Christ was victorious, and scores enlisted under his banner. It was a memorable day. At the close it was found that 102 had been baptized. This was the great day of the mela, and the people began to disperse in all directions. On the third day preaching was resumed, and forty-five others were baptized, making a total of 248. Of these the majority were Brahmins; one-third were women and one-third children. The list of their names with their ages written is before me as I write, and as I glance down the long list I cannot keep from saying for every name, for every man, woman, boy and girl, Praise God! Praise God! Several were old men. Some were men of good position. These all promised on reaching their homes (scattered here and there throughout these provinces) to report to the nearest missionaries or native Christians. We shall do our utmost to follow them, and dearly pray that they may be graciously kept and divinely shepherded. We are praying that this may be but the beginning of a great spiritual harvest in North India. God is with us and our hearts are filled with singing. Pray that the hundreds may grow into thousands this year. Oh, for mighty displays of saving grace!

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Africa's Needs.

BY CAREFUL READER.

My heart was kindled with patriotic enthusiasm when I read the words of your appeal, as if it said, who will go? Africa needs our talents more than America, she needs us in all the stages and walks of life. The farmer, clergyman, doctor, lawyer, school teacher, the soldier, the statesman, oh very much indeed. Africa ought and must be taken for Christ and humanity. She has the muscle, will America furnish the brains? She has land enough to give all her sons and daughters homes. The country abounds in mineral wealth; it only awaits the sturdy strokes of the miner to bring to the surface where it can be utilized and made into valuable exchange, the gold, silver, copper, coal and iron, all of which lay in their beds awaiting their resurrection to rise and bless the land that gave them birth. Who will go? Don't wait to graduate in some college or high school with some high sounding title that means very little in itself. But the brave heart of the farmer, mechanic, the smith, the brickmason, the doctor, teacher, preacher is of far more importance. We need less kid gloves and more bread-makers, men that have the firmness of purpose to do and dare that which is honorably required at their hands in the face of all opposition; men who are willing to risk and stake their lives when their country calls them to duty. Again the same question, who will go? Where are those veterans that so warmly espoused the cause some years ago? Is it possible that all of them have gone, or are they deaf to the entreaties of the Africans on the other side of the Atlantic? Have their hearts become faint and their courage gone? Have none seen the letters on the wall "G. P. or G. T."—the former "go preach," but it could very properly be understood as "go plough," which is much needed; and the latter for "go teach." All right, then, will men see their duties and hasten to perform them, or will they heed them not and continue to bury their talents in napkins? What is the use in praying to the Lord to send the Gospel to the heathen when no one wants to go to carry it; or expect the Lord to send it over there in a letter or telegram? Brethren, you have hands and feet for the Lord; get ready to use them in his cause. Africa must be redeemed, and that by her own sons and daughters. White men can't do it. Brethren, we must do it, and it is high time we were in the field. With many of us the day is far spent, and what have we done to show the Master when he comes? Shall it be nothing but leaves? God forbid! Gird up your loins, my dear brethren, "our distant home discerning, our absent Lord has left us word, let every lamp be burning."

Enterprise, Miss.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Methodist Men and Women's Mutual Aid and Beneficiary Association.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to say to all whom it may concern regarding Bro. Kirby's letter in your paper of May 29th. He says "we informed Revs. Taylor and Hughes." I want to say that the Brother is mistaken as to informing me, and Rev. J. W. Hughes informs me that he has not received any such information regarding the debts of which Bro. Kirby speaks. I wish to inform all officers of the local aids that I do not live live in St. Louis, and any mail directed to me there very likely will not reach me. Again, do not write to me regarding the death of members, for I have no more to do with making assessments and collecting the same than you have; that is the work of the General Manager, Rev. J. W. Hughes. I wish to say to Bro. Kirby, and to each and every policy holder, your policy is good for all it promises if you only do your part.

L. N. TAYLOR.

Evanston, Ill.

FOUR ACTS PLAYED.

Sad Report About Ex President Arthur.

Will the Fifth and Final Act be a Tragedy.

Rochester Democrat and Chronicle

"Dr. Lincoln who was at the"
"funeral of ex-Secretary Freling"
"huysen, says ex President"
"Arthur looked very unwell. He"
"is suffering from Bright's disease."
"During the past year it has as-" "sumed a very aggravated form."

That telegram is act IV. of a drama written by ex-President Arthur's physicians. In act I. he was made to appear in "Malaria," of which all the country was told when he went to Florida.

In act II. he represented a tired man, worn down, walking the sands at Old Point Comfort and looking eastward over the Atlantic toward Europe for a longer rest.

The curtain rolls up for act III. upon the distinguished actor affected with melancholy from Bright's disease, while act IV discovers him with the disease "in an aggravated form, suffering intensely, (which is unusual), and about to take a sea voyage."

Just such as this is the plot of many dramas by play-wrights of the medical profession. They write the first two or three acts with no conception of what their character will develop in the final one.

They have not the discernment for tracing in the early, what the latter impersonations will be. Not one physician in a hundred has the adequate microscopic and chemical appliances for discovering bright's disease in its early stages, and when many do finally comprehend that their patients are dying with it, when death occurs, they will, to cover up their ignorance of it, pronounce the fatality to have been caused by ordinary ailments, whereas these ailments are really results of bright's disease of which they are unconscious victims.

Beyond any doubt, 80 per cent of all deaths, except from epidemics and accidents, result from diseased kidneys or livers. If the dying be distinguished and his friends too intelligent to be easily deceived, his physicians perhaps pronounce the complaint to be pericarditis, pyæmia, septicæmia, bronchitis, pleuritis, valvular lesions of the heart, pneumonia, etc. If the deceased be less noted, "malaria" is now the fashionable assignment of the cause of death.

But all the same, named right or named wrong, this fearful scourge gathers them in! While it prevails among persons of sedentary habits—lawyers, clergymen, congressmen—it also plays great havoc among farmers, day laborers and mechanics, though they do not suspect it, because their physicians keep it from them, if indeed they are able to detect it.

It sweeps thousands of women and children into untimely graves every year. The health gives way gradually, the strength is variable, the appetite fickle, the vigor gets less and less. This isn't malaria—it is the beginning of kidney disease and will end—who does not know how?

No, nature has not been remiss. Independent research has given an infallible remedy for this common disorder; but of course the bigoted physicians will not use Warner's safe cure, because it is a private affair and cuts up their practice by restoring the health of those who have been invalids for years.

The new saying of "how common bright's disease is becoming among prominent men!" is getting old, and as the Englishman would say, sounds "stupid"—especially "stupid" since the disease is readily detected by the more learned men and specialists of this disease. But the "common run" of physicians, not detecting it, give the patient Epsom salts or other drugs prescribed by the old code of treatment under which their grandfathers practiced!

Anon, we hear that the patient is "comfortable." But ere long, maybe, they "tap" him and take some water from him and again the "comfortable" story is told. Torture him rather than allow him to use Warner's safe cure. With such variations the doctors play upon the unfortunate until his shroud is made, when we learn that he died from heart disease, pyæmia, septicæmia or some other deceptive though "dignified cause."

Ex-President Arthur's case is not singular—it is typical of every such case. "He is suffering intensely." This is not usual. Generally there is almost no suffering. He may recover, if he will act independently of his physicians. The agency named has cured thousands of persons even in the extreme stages—is to day the mainstay of the health of hundreds of thousands. It is an unfortunate fact that physicians will not admit there is any virtue outside their own sphere, but as each school denies virtue to all others, the people act on their own judgment and accept things by the record of merit they make.

The facts are cause for alarm, but there is abundant hope in prompt and independent action.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Rough Way.

REV. O. NELSON.

After attending the second quarterly meeting at Blunt Srpings the pastor and myself took our leave on the 14th. We went over the rough way through the high mountains, 9 miles from Blunt Springs, to attend quarterly meeting. We had only one horse between us both, so first one and then the other would ride in order to rest each other. I had the first ride as it was so ordered over the rough mountains. After the first five or six miles before coming to the river I thought it time for Bro. Winn to ride some. Coming to the river we found no man to put us over. I asked, "what shall we do?" and the pastor said "we will ford it." I said "No, we can't; I had rather go back than to try to ford it, because it is too deep." "No," said the pastor, "it is not, I have forded it once before." "All right," said I, "go on, I will see what you do;" and Bro. Winn and the little horse started over the river. A little over half way across the dark, deep waters, the little horse struck a rock and stumbling, down he came with the pastor on his back, and both horse and rider went under the water, where I thought it was a sure case of death; but after awhile Bro. Winn rose to the top where he could see daylight again, and I called to him and asked him how it was with him while at the bottom of the river, and he said "all right, the Lord was with me, and I had said my prayers beforehand." I said "all right, I know the Lord is with you; if He were not you never would have come from the deep." As Bro. Winn is so large and heavy that the little horse could not carry him over the rough way, so it is bad to be too small, but worse to be too large. While he was standing up in the river I asked him "where is the horse? get him or he will drown." He then went on through the dark, deep water for him, and after finding brought him to the shore; and by the Lord's help nothing was lost but his old hat, yet he did well to save himself. At first it was a sad thing, but at last it was very funny to me.

Books and Current Literature.

We would advise all our readers who think of making a Vegetable or Flower Garden to send to D. M. Ferry & Co., Detroit, Mich., and get their valuable and beautiful Seed Annual. This house is entirely reliable, and if you wish to get exactly what you order you cannot do better than intrust your orders to them.

The frontispiece of the July Harper's will be from a charming picture by F. S. Church—a dainty fancy of the repentant Pandora, trying to shut down the cover of the box whence the little ills that are to plague humanity are escaping.

"A Day's Drive with Montana Cow-boys" will be described by the artist Zogbaum in the July Harper's. Mr. Zogbaum spent last summer in the wild West seeking artistic material, and this study is "direct from nature."

Making a World is an exhaustive treatise on Africa, the stupendous movements looking to its civilization, occupation and evangelization by Mr. William Coppinger, secretary of the American Colonization Society. If anybody is well informed and capable of writing or speaking intelligently on these topics Mr. Coppinger ought to be so. And we think that he is. Here is eighteen pages brimming full of matters with which at least every colored man should make himself thoroughly familiar.

Emigration to Liberia is the title of a timely paper from the American Colonization Society. They have carefully considered the subject and their report is therefore all the more entitled to earnest consideration.

The World for Christ, just received at our office, is a fifteen-page pamphlet by O. B. Ward. It is an earnest plea for missions and missionaries.

Bro. J. M. Shampert, secretary of the Mississippi Conference has our thanks for a copy of the minutes of the seventeenth session of that conference. The minute is complete in all points from whence we are able to judge it, and proves the ability of the secretary for such service.

For His Country and Queen: A Record of Lord Wolseley's "Service."—Sitting quietly listening in a club smoking room to "outsider" officers fulminating against Wolseley as a charlatan and a "duffer," I have often wondered whether the vituperators quite realized that the object of their abuse, comparatively young though he be, is more of a veteran, in the true military sense of the word, than almost any other soldier who wears the Queen's uniform. In that sense, a soldier is a veteran in proportion as he has taken part in active service. The lad of twenty three, who at the age of eighteen had marched out from Coimbra in May 1809, and who in the summer of 1814 embarked at St. Jean de Luz on his return to England, was in the military sense of the term more of a veteran, although a soldier for less than six years, than the oldster who had grown grey in an interrupted round of home service. When I met Wolseley first, in 1877, he had been but twenty-one years a soldier; but then he had been campaigning and fighting almost without intermission all that time; and into the years that have elapsed since 1871, he has crowded five campaigns more.—"Wolseley: a Character Sketch," by Archibald Forbes, see The English Illustrated Magazine for May.

Prophylactic Fluid.

THE GREAT FAMILY MEDICINE.

Wonderful Healing Properties of

DARBYS PROPHYLACTIC FLUID

HEALING, CLEANSING, DISINFECTING.

IN CASE -OF- Accidents.

For Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, etc., it is invaluable and gives instant and permanent relief. It immediately allays pain. Nothing is necessary but to apply it directly to the parts affected. It will keep down Inflammation, Gangrene or Proud Flesh, and in a short time will heal without applying anything else. This was fully proved in the military hospitals during the late war. It has performed astonishing cures both in the case of men and animals afflicted with chronic sores. It cleanses and heals obstinate Ulcers, Boils, Carbuncles, Erysipelas and running sores of every kind. It destroys the disagreeable effluvia, arising from Cancers, Abscesses, Ulcers and every kind of purulent discharge.

FOR THE TOILET AND NURSERY.

In the water used in bathing add a small quantity of Darbys Prophylactic Fluid. It is a cleansing lotion for the skin—healing, purifying and refreshing. Removes all taint of Perspiration from the body and whitens and softens the skin. Cures eruptions, Blotches, Prickly Heat, etc. Used as a dentifrice it purifies the breath, preserves the teeth and cures toothache, sore gums, canker, and deodorizes bad breath. Sore or Inflamed Eyes are speedily cured. Perfectly harmless, used internally or externally.

FOR ANIMALS—HORSES, DOGS, ETC.

Scratches, Sores, Galls, Bruises, Cuts or Wounds of any kind quickly and permanently healed by washing with the Fluid. Dr. J. HOUGH, the distinguished Veterinary Surgeon, says: "I find Darbys Prophylactic Fluid all that it is represented. As a local application I believe it to be without an equal." For Colic and Sprains it acts like magic."

Mistemper, Diarrhœa and Worms in dogs quickly cured. It destroys all insect life, vermin on dogs and other animals—cleanses the skin—cures Mange, Scurvy and all kinds of skin diseases.

J. H. ZEILIN & CO., Philadelphia.

june18 26t

NEW SUNDAY SCHOOL MUSIC BOOKS.

HEAVENLY VOICES.

Just out! Entirely new! The very book you want for your Sunday-School. Contains the richest and most beautiful songs ever collected in one volume. Send for sample copy before buying.

SABBATH BELLS.

The finest collection of Sunday songs yet published. Thousands of copies have been sold during the past six mos. It is full of gems. Will mail to any part of the world a sample copy of either Heavenly Voices or Sabbath Bells, upon receipt of 20c. or both for 35c.

FIRESIDE-FRIEND PUB. CO., NEW CARLISLE, O

CHRISTIAN

MEN and WOMEN Wanted are AS AGENTS

For the New and Fast-selling Edition of the JAMIESON, FAUSSET & BROWN BIBLE COMMENTARY.

4 vols., nearly 4,000 pp. Maps and illustrations. In cloth, $8; half morocco, $10 per set

Best terms and exclusive territory. Permanent employment given a ter e satisfactory t ial.

Jerome B. Nunnes & Co.,
154 St. Clair street, Toledo, Ohio.

The work is heartily recommended.

mar5-26t

The Rumseller's Sign.

A gentleman was passing by
A shop where hung this sign,
"Here's where you buy your lager beer,
Cigars, and ale, and wine."

And saw upon the cellar flap
A drunken woman lie,
Just as she fell, a heap of rags,
Remained unconsciously.

He hastened to the bar and said:
"Good sir, please step this way;
One of thy signs has fallen down;
'Tis going to decay."

The publican was stiff with gout,
The pot-boy limp with wine,
And both came hobbling quickly out,
To raise the fallen sign.

"You fool!" they cried, "you must be mad,
What sign d'you mean, and where?"
He pointed to the heap of rags,
And answered, "It is there.

"That is the sign thou sends abroad,
The public daily see—
The finest article thou makes,
Lost for eternity.

"Why don't thee place it where 'twill show,
Within thy window there,
As all respected tradesmen do,
Who show their finest ware.

"And label it, 'To order made,
Our manufacture fine,'
Instead of leaving it down there,
As though ashamed 'twas thine."

—Gems of Poetry.

Domestic Hygiene.

Premonitions of Alcoholic Delirium.

GEO. L. CURTIS, M. D.

Delirium is a mental state "in which the ideas of a person are wild, irregular, and unconnected." It is also described as an aberration, "a roving or wandering of the mind," usually dependant upon some external cause, or internal injury. Delirium tremens is "a violent delirium induced by the excessive and prolonged use of intoxicating liquors." There may be a delirium of joy, in which some great and good fortune so affects the mind as to raise its emotions to the state of ecstacy, which being continued becomes a delirium. There is also a delirium of pursuit, which occurs when the whole heart and mind are set on obtaining a certain object. The attention is so completely fixed on the object as to exclude all other objects and subjects. The coveted thing must be possessed. The entire heart and mind cries out for it. Unless the goal is attained the mind rises to a delirium, becomes unbalanced, and plunges into insanity.

All delusions are dangerous, and if continued must result disastrously. Most delirium may be cured, if taken at the proper time.

Of the delirium resulting from alcohol I desire specially to write. When alcohol in wine, beer, older, whisky, brandy, or in any other form is taken into the stomach it is not digested. Gastric juice has no effect whatever upon it, either to change its chemical character or break it up into such minute particles as to be readily removed from the system, or to take away the evil properties from it. Alcohol in the stomach tends to coagulate the gastric juice and prevent the performance of its office. The unchanged alcohol passes from the stomach into the duodenum with the partly digested food.

The lacteal vessels take up this alcoholized material and pours it into the blood, to become incorporated with it. From the heart it is sent to the lungs, where the blood is not changed, but passes into the arterial state, and is carried by it to the system. A portion of the alcohol is sent to the brain, where it mingles with the constituents of the gray matter of the brain substance and the nerve cells. The albuminous matter of the vesticles is coagulated by the alcohol, and the substance of the brain is hardened and injured. The matter of brain substance is not placed in a healthful condition to interfere with correct and healthful action. Nervous action becomes [illegible] and the poor victim [illegible] the rough [illegible] of an [illegible] drunkard [illegible] all drunkards have attacks of delirium, from alcohol, and know that they are on the confines of the horrors of delirium tremens, or alcohol apoplexy, and death. I will give two or three cases. Mr. A. has sprees at intervals, when his drinking has no moderation. The first day he drinks excessively, still more the second, and "he turns himself loose on the third." Being a heavy and powerful man he can drink an enormous amount of whisky before being overcome. He has been known to drink forty glasses of liquor in one day. By the third day he is exceedingly nervous, every nerve fibre is strained to the highest pitch, soon after he falls into his first drunken sleep. On the third night he invariably dreams that he comes into his room, and, as he describes it, hears "a great noise, as though of something scratching out the carpet under the bed, looking under the bed a large yellow tom-cat with a great bristling tail is seen. The cat is tearing the carpet with its sharp claws." Indifferent to cats or dogs, he undresses and gets into bed, and is instantly stricken with complete paraysis. He cannot move. His brains works without friction, and is wonderfully clear. His vision is penetrating, he can see through the bed, and see the cat on the floor in the corner. His clear sight pierces through the disguise of the creature, and he realizes that it is an eye-destroying, flesh-eating devil. The fiend comes out from under the bed and jumps on the foot-board. Standing there with arched back and swelling tail, the creature utters frightful cries preparatory to leaping upon his face and tearing out his eyes. A terrible fear comes over the man. He tries to call for help, but the words die in his throat. He strives to move, but in vain. The fiery eyes of the devil-cat glare upon him. With a horrid cry it springs on his upturned face and commences its awful work. Spurred by "this supreme horror" he makes another exhaustive effort and awakens. The cat-devil vanishes, but he is unnerved, and trembles like a timid woman. The heart beats at a rate beyond counting, and the pain of the whole body is beyond measure. It now requires three or four days of perfect rest and solitude to in any degree restore his nervous and physical system. Weeks are required to relieve the shatter of nerves and paralyzed brain, and bring it back to the place it occupied before the debauch.

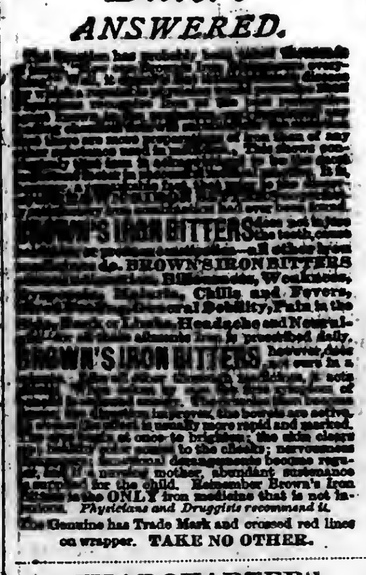
This man knows all the time that he is suffering from alcoholic nightmare, and if he does not waken, the devil-cat will kill him. This phantom follows him with an awful fear of death from alcoholism. To him the tom-cat is the delirium or shadow cast by the coming tremens, which walks like a spectre in the coagulating brain.

It is probable that most spreers have visions more or less horrible, that are "natures warnings to quit drinking." Many of these are concealed from your intimate friends, and it is only occasionally they are mentioned. There is a case I have met with. Mr. Ben says:—Whenever I drink I am haunted by a vision that arises before me as soon as I go to sleep. It is this. My wife, who has been dead some years, is by my side, her soft hand lovingly slipped in mine. We are walking up an oyster-shell path toward our home. Entering our house I realize that it has been deserted, and an unaccountable feeling of dread rolls over me in an icy wave at this discovery. Then my wife speaks softly, "I am afraid." I instantly my mind is flooded with the rebollection of a dreadful horror that I had not thought of for years. I remember that we had abandoned the house because it was haunted. Nightly a spirit walks in the attic, and descends the stairs. The door at the foot of the stairs opens and a column of whitish vapor floats sinuously into the hall; then, turning to the left, it entered my room and passed out of the window. Then comes a voice accompanied by heavy footsteps, sometimes soft, at others heavy, at others as if the infirm steps of age. Again the steps creep along the inside of the partitions. The voice [illegible] in pain. It is the voice of a Negro of hideous aspect and gigantic size, whom one of my ancestors scourged to death. This voice threatens us with direful disasters, and makes the night hideous with his cries. It always comes in the grey of the evening, and stays all night. These horrors terrify me, and my wife seeing that I am unnerved, clings close to me, repeating in trembling tones, "I am afraid, I am afraid, I am afraid." We endeavor to leave the house but cannot, we seek refuge in the parlor, and trembling await, we knew not what. Suddenly a barbaric tune is beaten on the floor above us, as though pounded out with a war club, and the voice speaks tauntingly. "To-night you shall see me." An invisible force draws us to our bed-room. The column of vapor descends the stairs and enters the room and floats out of the window. Then we seek to escape from the dreaded voice of hiding in dark corners, but the voice tauntingly calls us forth. Finally, in despair, we enter the parlor, and there the end comes. Forth from the solid wall strides a gigantic naked Negro, his [illegible] scorches with a whip, blood marks his trail as he walks, he stalks towards us, and with an exultant grin glares fiercely at us. He slowly stretches out his hand to grasp my wife's yellow hair. An overpowering base and cowardly terror seizes me. My only fear is that the black spectre will grasp me instead of my wife. She clings to me with twining arms, threatening "Protect me! Save me!" Bravely I thrust her from me toward the outstretched hand of the negro in black. She looks at me lovingly, not reproachfully, and, with a full forgiving smile on her face, falls dead at my feet. With inflexible scorn the Negro points his bony index finger at me and says, "A coward! The first of his race." He disappears with a crash, which always awakens me."

Such are specimens which I could multiply, of the second stage of alcoholism, the premonitory alcoholic phantasm, which intensifies into the third stage of trembling delirium or demoniac possession, to be followed by the great catastrophe, death. What is beyond science cannot tell, but revelation unfolds it in no measured terms of horrors of darkness and blackness of despair. "Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colors in the cup, when it moveth itself aright. At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder."

"No Physic, Sir, in Mine!"

A good story comes from a boys' boarding school in "Jersey." The diet was monotonous and constipating, and the learned Principal decided to introduce some old-style Physic in the apple sauce, and await the happy results. One bright lad, the smartest in the school, discovered the secret mine in his sauce, and pushing back his plate, shouted to the pedagogue, "No physic, sir, in mine. My dad told me to use nuthin' but Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, and they are a doin' their duty like a charm!" They are anti-bilious, and purely vegetable.



Mr. Alfred B. Sidem, a colored artist of growing fame, has drawn a crayon sketch of General Louis Solomon, president of Haiti, which has been purchased by the instrumentality of Mrs. N. P. Morrell, and it will be presented to the Garnet Lyceum, of Lincoln University. So states the Alumni Sign.

The New England Educational Society has aided 23 young men in securing an education the past year. It is an organization of the New England Conference. The proceedings of the last session are at hand.

Publisher's Agents.

In order to facilitate the transaction of business with our customers we have arranged with Edward Alden & Bro., Fifth and Vine streets, Cincinnati, O., and 140 Nassau street, New York, making them our Special Publisher's Agents, and giving them charge of the foreign advertising patronage of our paper. All communications in relation to this department should be addressed to them.

QUESTION ABOUT Brown's Iron Bitters ANSWERED.

Physicians and Druggists recommend it.
The Genuine has Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. TAKE NO OTHER.

HEADQUARTERS
—FOR—
Sunday-school Supplies
Consisting of
GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with a without music.
Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, Bible Dictionaries.
Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books, Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Text Books, etc., etc. Also a large assortment of Books suitable for Libraries, or presentation to children. PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $2 65 to $100. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock
W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent
Camp Street,
NEW ORLEANS.

CORPULENCY Recipe and notes how to harmlessly, effectually and rapidly cure obesity without exercise, starvation, dietary, etc. European visit. Cost trifle. Cure effect is not merely to reduce the amount of fat, but by affecting the cause of obesity to induce a radical cure of the disease. Mr. B. makes no charge whatever any person, rich or poor, can obtain his work gratis by sending 5 cts. to cover postage to F. C. RUSSELL, Esq., Woburn House, Store street, Bedford Sq., London, Eng.

A PRIZE Send six cents for postage, and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help you to more money right away than anything else in this world. All, of either sex, succeed from first hour. The broad road to fortune opens before the workers, absolutely sure. Address once, TRUE & Co., Augusta, Maine. feb19-26t

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.
Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9-12, 1883.
Study Addresses by American Educators
Edited by Rev. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.
300 pp. Price, stiff paper, $1 25
Cloth, 1 75
The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:
1. Education and Man's Improvement.
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America.
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Pauperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War.
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—ten tables.
It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents. The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak. The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index.
Sent postpaid on receipt of price.
Phillips & Hunt.
37 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

20 YEARS OF CONGRESS, 1,000,000 } JAMES G. BLAINE
Copies will soon be sold. The only history of our Government from 1861 to 1881. Hon. John S. Wise, M. C. from Virginia, says: "Whoever takes it up, no matter whether he be Mr. Blaine's friend or enemy, will never put it down until he has read the whole." $200 per month to good responsible agents. Apply at once. The Henry Bill Publishing Company, Norwich, Conn. dec30-52t

The WORLD'S EXPOSITION
Opens Tuesday, December 16, 1884.
In the presence of the Presidents of the American Republics, viz: Arthur, of the United States; Diaz, of Mexico; Barrios, of Guatemala; Bogran, of Honduras.
The Colossal Exhibit of all Time!
Sixteen (16) Immense Exhibition Buildings:
One the largest building ever erected, another—the largest Conservatory in the World.
90 Acres of Space Under Cover!
Low Transportation Rates from all Points.
Ample Accommodations at Reasonable Rates for all Visitors.
During the period of the Exposition, from Dec. 16, 1884, to June 1, 1885 the temperature at New Orleans averages 65 Fahr. The lawn and shrubbery remain green, flowers bloom, fruits ripen, and all kinds of vegetables grow and mature.
Full information promptly furnished. Address,
E. A. BURKE, Director General,
New Orleans, La.

RAILROADS.

Chesapeake & Ohio R. R.
—VIA—
WASHINGTON
—TO—
BALTIMORE,
PHILADELPHIA,
and NEW YORK
THE ONLY LINE WITH
Pullman Sleeping Cars
—FROM—
Louisville, Cincinnati and Lexington
—TO—
WASHINGTON
WITHOUT CHANGE.
Schedule in effect October 12, 1884

EASTWARD.	No 4 Daily.	No. 6 ex Sunday
Leave Cincinnati	8 10 p m	8 30 p m
Leave Louisville	7 15 p m	7 00 a m
Leave Lexington	10 40 p m	11 45 a m
Leave Winchester	11 15 p m	12 25 p m
Due Mt. Sterling	12 08 a m	1 36 p m
Due Ashland	3 26 a m	5 55 p m
Due Huntington	4 00 a m	6 40 p m
Leave Huntington
Due Charleston	6 36 a m	10 00 p m
Due Clifton Forge	1 30 p m	6 40 a m
Due Staunton	3 57 p m	9 26 a m
Due Charlottesville	5 20 p m	11 05 a m
Due Richmond	9 15 p m	3 25 p m
Arrive Newport News	10 45 a m	6 30 p m
Due Washington	9 50 p m
Arrive New York	6 30 a m

WESTWARD.	No. 3, Daily.	No. 1, ex Sunday
Leave New York	10 00 a m	12 00 nt
Due Washington	5 10 p m	9 10 a m
Leave Newport News	3 50 p m
Leave Richmond	6 25 p m	9 35 a m
Due Charlottesville	10 00 p m	1 45 p m
Due Staunton	11 42 p m	4 57 p m
Due Clifton Forge	1 45 a m	6 40 p m
Due Charleston	9 00 a m	4 25 a m
Due Huntington
Leave Huntington	9 40 a m	6 20 a m
Due Ashland	10 19 a m	7 02 a m
Due Mt. Sterling	1 57 p m	11 05 a m
Leave Winchester	2 30 p m	11 45 a m
Arrive Lexington	3 20 p m	12 45 p m
Arrive Louisville	7 10 p m	5 20 p m
Arrive Cincinnati	6 05 p m	5 35 p m

Lexington Div. trains run by Central time. Main line trains East of Huntington run by Eastern time, which is one hour faster than Central time.
Nos. 1 and 6 run daily, except Sunday. Sleeping cars between Huntington and Clifton Forge.
Nos. 3 and 4 run daily, and do not stop for local business. Pullman Sleeping cars and Solid Train between Louisville and Washington and Cincinnati and Richmond without change.
Nos. 2 and 5 run daily between Richmond and Clifton Forge. Do not run between Clifton Forge and Richmond.
No. 1 leave Norfolk, except Sunday, 7 40 a m, Old Point 8 15 a m, Newport News 8 45 a m; arrive at Richmond at 11 35 a m.
No. 2 leave Richmond except Sunday, 8 20 a m, arrive Newport News 10 45 a m, Old Point 11 10 a m, Norfolk 11 45 a m.
Old Dominion Steamers leave Norfolk on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or Saturday at 6 00 p m, arrive in New York next afternoon.
For Rates Tickets, Baggage Checks apply to any office of O. & O. R'y; or Depot or Ticket Office of connecting lines.
O. W. SMITH, Gen'l Manager.
H. W. FULLER, Gen'l Pass. Agt.

Ohio & Mississippi R. R
—The Direct and Fast Line to—
Cincinnati,
Louisville,
Washington,
Baltimore,
New York and the East,
In Connection with the
"Great Jackson Route,"
Makes the following
FAST TIME:

STATIONS.	Daily
Leave New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss.	12:38 a m
Canton	1:30 a m
Durant	2:52 p m
Grenada	4:50 a m
Coffeeville	5:25 a m
Water Valley	6:00 a m
Oxford	6:43 a m
Holly Springs	7:54 a m
Grand Junction	9:15 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St. L. & N. O	11:05 a m
Milan " " "	12:20 p m
Martin " " "	1:32 p m
Fulton " " "	2:00 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:30 p m
Carbondale "	6:58 p m
DuQuoin "	7:45 p m
Ashley "	8:28 p m
Centralia "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:26 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi	9:29 p m
" Louisville, "	6:50 a m
" Cincinnati "	7:05 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.
Passengers living on the line of the C St. L. & N. O. R. R. will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O. & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.
The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.
2 DAILY TRAINS
FROM ODIN
To WASHINGTON in 27 Hours,
To BALTIMORE in 28 Hours.
This is 5 Hours quicker than the fastest time by any other line.
The Day Express runs entire train consisting of Day Coaches and Palace Sleeping Cars from St. Louis to Washington and Baltimore without change.
The Night Express has Sleepers through without change. No other line from St. Louis offers a Double Daily Through Train Service to the National Capital.
W. W. PEABODY,
President and General Manager.
W. B. SHATTUC,
General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio. jy31tf

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.
The old reliable route to all Eastern cities. Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leaves	Arrives
Express	8:00 a m	7:45 a m
Coast Accommodation	3:35 p m	9:10 a m
Fast Mail	8:20 p m	7:30 p m

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. C. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.
W. B Kniskern, Ticket Agent; J. T. Harahan, General Manager; John Kilkeny, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; O. M Dunn, Superintendent, N. O, and M. Division. a26-1y

RAILROADS.

C. I. St. L. & C. 4
KANKAKEE LINE

4 PASSENGER TRIANS each way per day between Cincinnati and Indianapolis.
3 PASSENGER TRIANS each way per day between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Chicago.
2 PASSENGER TRIANS each way per day, between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette, Kankake, Seneca and Davenport, Ia.

KANKAKEE LINE.
Entire trains run through without change between Cincinnati Indianapolis, Lafayette and Chicago. Pullman Sleepers and elegant Reclining Chair Cars on Night trains. Parlor Cars on Day Trains.

SHELDON ROUTE.
Commodious Reclining Chair Cars run through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Peoria Ills. and Keokuk, Ia. Close connection for Burlington, Ia.

KANKAKEE & SENECA ROUTE.
The ONLY LINE running Elegant coaches through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Davenport, Ia.

CONNECTIONS
At Cincinnati, in Central Union Depot, with all trains of the Cincinnati Southern Railway, (Queen & Crescent Route) thus avoiding the tedious omnibus transfer incident to ALL other lines.
At Indianapolis, in Union Depot, with all lines diverging.

Through Tickets and Baggage Checks to all Principal Points,
Can be obtained at any ticket office, C. I. St. L. & C. Ry., also via this line at all Coupon Ticket Offices throughout the country.

See Agents of this Company for Rates, Routes, &c., or write Grant K. Lowry, Trav. Pass. Agt., Wilmore, Ky.
JOHN EGAN,
Gen'l Pass. and Tkt. Agent, Cincinnati, O.

BIG J Great Jackson Route.
Illinois Central R. R. Co.
Double Daily Passenger Trains

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Passenger No. 2, 9:15 a.m.	Pass'r No. 1, 7:00 a m
No. 4 St. L. & Chi. Express, 6:00 p. m.	No. 3. Chic. & N O Lim. Ex. 9:00 a m
No. 6 Sun Ex., 7:30 a.m.	No. 5 Day Ex. 4:20 p m

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.
Ticket Office: Cor. Carondelet and Canal, (Pickwick Club Building.)
WM. MURRAY,
General Southern Passenger Agent.
J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT KENNEDY, Ticket Agent.

C & O
The Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company have moved their ticket management and business rooms to No. 235 Fourth avenue.
C. O. & S. W. R. R.
THE SOUTHERN TRUNK LINE
—TO—
Louisville, Cincinnati, Washington, Baltimore,
And the Short Line to
Cairo, St. Louis, Chicago and the Northwest.
The Direct Route to
Eastern Seaboard Cities, Texas, Arkansas and the Southwest.
Chesapeake, Ohio & Southwestern R. R.
For Owensboro, Henderson, Paducah and Memphis and all points South and Southwest. Ticket office 225 Fourth avenue, Depot, corner of Fourteenth and Main streets.

	Express Daily	Accom Daily ex Sun'y
Leave Louisville	7 50 a m	4 10 p m
Arrive at Cecelia	10 20 a m	6 45 p m
" " Elizabethtown	10 10 a m	7 05 p m
" " Grayson Springs	11 12 a m	.....
" " Litchfield	11 23 a m	.....
" " Central City	2 00 a m	.....
" " Owensboro	5 05 a m	.....
" " Nortonsville	3 27 p m	.....
" " Hopkinsville	3 50 p m	.....
" " Madisonville	4 37 p m	.....
" " Henderson	6 20 p m	.....
" " Evansville	8 10 p m	.....
" " Tradewater	4 07 p m	.....
" " Princeton	4 47 p m	.....
" " Padneah	7 00 p m	.....
" " Mayfield	8 27 p m	.....
" " Fulton	9 29 p m	.....
" " Cairo	10 45 p m	.....
" " Rives	10 10 p m	.....
" " Memphis	2 30 a m	9 35 a m
" " Louisville	7 00 p m	9 35 a m

Tickets now on sale at depot at lowest rates. Call on or address B. H. TALLEY, Ticket Agent Memphis, Tenn.
Or B. F. MITCHELL, G'n Pass. Agt, Louisville, Ky.

ARE YOU GOING TO
KANSAS, MISSOURI, COLORADO, CALIFORNIA OR ANY OF THE WESTERN STATES?
If so you should avail yourself of the advantages that are now offered by the Kansas City Route, the only direct route from the South to the West and Northwest. This line runs its entire trains, with Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars and free Reclining Chair Cars from Memphis to Kansas City, saving many hours time over any other route. If you are going West you will save money by purchasing your tickets via Memphis and the Kansas City Route. Send for large map of this Short Route, mailed free. Address,
J. E. LOCKWOOD,
Kansas City, Mo.
Or, H. D. ELLIS, Ticket Agent.
31 Madison street, Memphis, Tenn.

General News Items.

Thirty-five members of the American Bible Society have died.

The situation in the Soudan is critical for all but the Mahdi.

A million of people went to the funeral of M. Victor Hugo, and 1000,000,000 wept for him.

The first subscription made to the Exposition now closing was $5,000 by the New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Hon. Frederick T. Frelinghuysen, late Secretary of State, now deceased, was president of the American Bible Society.

England wants Italy to take the Soudan elephant off her hands and tenders her railway plant to Cyprus.

Prince Charles of Hohenzollern, celebrated his golden wedding last October, and died June 2nd aged 73.

Gate City Press says that Mr. J. H. Wimby being imprisoned without grounds will enter suit for damages, in New Orleans.

Major Burke's salary for service as Director General was fixed at $10,000, though $25,000 per year was offered and declined by him.

The Globe Democaat greeting Mr. Jefferson Davis says: He does not know enough of the present administration to form an estimate of it.

Dr. Van Dyke in Pulpit Treasury for June says: "At present it is doubtful whether Congress would enact a law less disgraceful than the average existing law."

Mr. David Dudley Field, in the May North American Review, shows that the cost of laws relating to corporations passed in 1884 was $60,000 and in the last ten years, $600,000.

Dr. Wilson Wilson of Indianapolis, has obtained a verdict in his favor against a billiard room for discriminating against him on account of his color.

The American Congress of churches, held in Hartford, Conn., May 11-13, was an important event. We have received and considered the programme and ritual sent us with interest.

The National Reform Association is to maintain and develop into harmony and completeness, all existing Christian features in the American Government, such as a pure Sabbath, the Bible in our common schools, the suppressing of blasphemy, the family, temperance, religious acknowledgment in the state and national constitutions, righteous men for civil office and so on. We acknowledge the receipt of important documents illustrative of their work.

Passing Events.

BY REV. T. F. MARSHALL.

Spring time, which brings vernal [illegible], is upon us with [illegible] effects. All nature is alive—the song of the bird and the hum of the bee fill the air with music. Every lover of nature finds cause for rejoicing, especially those whose affections and affections fly beyond visible objects to the invisible Creator. They find a voice, also turning their hearts with praises of gratitude to the Giver of every good and perfect gift. The farmer is busily engaged with his implements of agriculture, sowing and cultivating in anticipation of an abundant harvest, for the stock tells him that this is to be the year of years for him. [illegible] you will [illegible] Thirty [illegible] Christ [illegible] Apostle Paul, and [illegible] look at the things [illegible] which are not seen with [illegible]

Gratefulness.

Mr. H. Sampsel, Ottawa, Kansas, writes: "DR. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, O.—Gentlemen: I have suffered for seven years; have tried every thing and many physicians, and all have failed. I went to Pittsburgh, and while there fell on the street, my breath seemed to leave my lungs, and numbness overpower me. I determined to give PERUNA and MANALIN a fair trial. I used four bottles of each, and my trouble left, never, I hope, to return. I left Pittsburgh three weeks ago for Kansas, and thought, as I was going to a new country, I had better take a bottle of MANALIN with me, on account of bad water, etc. I arrived here with one-half bottle. I found one of my friends in a pretty bad condition. The doctors were treating her for chills and fever. I did not know what her trouble was, though I persuaded her to use the MANALIN. She did so, and the first day she was up doing her work. Now this seems strange, but it is, nevertheless, a candid truth. She used it all, and has never had cause to lie down during the day since she took the first three doses."

A Case that was Pronounced Incurable.

Miss C. C. Peck, 714 Jackson street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes: "DR. S. B. HARTMAN & Co.—Gentlemen: I take great pleasure in stating to you the benefit I received from your valuable PERUNA. I have been suffering for about fifteen years with a severe cough and bronchitis (so the doctors call it). I was treated by different physicians, and spent considerable money for different kinds of patent medicines, but received no benefit whatever. Dr. Fox, of this city, claimed I had consumption, and there was no hope for me ever getting better. I was so bad that I coughed almost continually. Mrs. Henry Ellis, a friend of mine, induced me to try your PERUNA. I am happy to say I began to notice a change after I had taken my second bottle. I took eight bottles in all, and now I feel like a new woman. If it hadn't been for PERUNA I think I would be in my grave now. It is a wonderful remedy, and I recommend it to all my friends."

Messrs. Baker Bros., Mt. Vernon, O., write: "Your PERUNA sells well. Customers speak of it as being a good medicine."

Mr. Daniel R. Spry, Portsmouth, O., writes: "I have a good trade in PERUNA. It sells well and gives satisfaction."

For the Cheapest and Choicest

Family & Fancy Groceries,

SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE

Hams, Bacon, &c., &c.,

—GO TO—

N. E. Sullivan's

GROCERY!

Corner of

Washington and Hampson Streets

CARROLLTON, LA.

nov28-1y

An Offer Never Equaled!

THE WEEKLY EDITION

—OF—

The TIMES DEMOCRAT,

NEW ORLEANS,

—AND—

THE WEEKLY EDITION

—OF—

The NEW YORK WORLD,

NEW YORK,

FOR ONE YEAR

Only $2.20.

OR

THE TWO WEEKLIES

—AND A—

Waterbury Watch and Chain

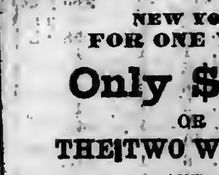
FOR $4.20.

Either Weekly alone is worth more than the price asked for both, as they contain reviews of the news of the world, a vast amount of select literary matter, exhaustive commercial reports, in fact everything is embraced that tends to make a

First-class Family Newspaper.

The subscription price to Weekly Times-Democrat alone is $1.50 for 12 months; 75 cents for 6 months, or 50 cents for 3 months.

Every family in New Orleans not taking the Daily TIMES-DEMOCRAT should keep posted in the



NEWS OF THE WORLD,

by taking these Weeklies, and as an inducement we offer a good serviceable watch for the small addition mentioned above.

The WATERBURY WATCH is a stemwinder, and will run twenty-eight hours. The case is NICKLE-SILVER, and will always remain as bright as a new silver dollar. The Watch has a heavy beveled edge and a crystal face. The works of the Watch are made with the finest automatic machinery. Every watch is tested in varying positions, and is perfect before leaving the factory. Each Watch is put up in a handsome new improved SATIN-LINED CASE, for safe transportation through the mails.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Taken at the office of THE TIMES-DEMOCRAT, or by mail, when accompanied by subscription price.

BARNES'

[illegible] Foot and Steam Power Machinery. Complete outfits for Actual Working Business. Lathes for Metal, Circular Saws, Scroll Saws, &c. Illustrated Catalogue sent free on application. Please state in what paper you saw this notice. W. F. & JOHN BARNES CO., No. 197 Ruby St., ROCKFORD, ILL.

Skin Diseases.—"Swaync's Ointment," "Swayne's Ointment" cures Tetter, Salt Rheum, Ringworm, Sores, Pimples, Eczema, all Itchy Skin Eruptions, [illegible] how obstinate or long standing.

nov12-1yeow

M. E. Church Directory.

Southwestern Christian Advocate. Office 32 Natchez Street.

LA BARPE STREET CHURCH—Rev. Elijah Clarke, pastor. Sunday services—Prayer meeting, 6 a m; Sunday-school, 9 a m; preaching at 11 a m 8 p m, and 7 p m; Class-meeting Tuesday night, at 7 o'clock; preaching Tonesday night at 7 o clock; Communion first Sunday evening of each month, at 7 30.

FIRST GERMAN M. E. CHURCH—Corner St. Andrew and Frank in street; Rev J. J. Kienle pastor. Preaching at 10:30 a m, and Sunday-school at 9 a m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.

SECOND GERMAN M. E. CHURCH—Eighth street; Rev Charles Schuler, pastor. Services: Sbuth at 10:30 a m, and 7 p m; Sunday-school at 9 a m; Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.

ST. MATTHEW M. E CHURCH—On Varnet Street, Algiers, La. Sunday services: Preaching at 11 and 3; 7:30 at night. Prayer meeting 6:30 in the morning. Class meeting Wednesday, 7:30 p m Sunday-school at 1:30. m. C. Barrow, Pastor.

UNION CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Services: Sunday, preaching 11 a m., 3 p. m. 7½ p. m. Sunday school at 1 o'clock. Class meeting Tuesday nights. Preaching Thursday nights. Prayer meetings Friday nights. Stephen Duncan, Pastor, 42 Robinson street.

WESLEY CHAPEL—Liberty street, between Perdido and Poydras; Rev Marcus Dale, Pastor. Services: Sunday 6 a m; prayer meeting, preaching 11 a m; 3 and 7:30 p m; General Class and Love Feast monthly; preaching Thursday eve. 7:30; Class, Monday eve.

SIXTH STREET CHURCH—Between Laurel and Annunciation; Rev. E. Lyon, pastor. Services—Public worship Sabbath 11 a m, 3 and 7 p m. Communion every second Sunday at 7 p. m. Sunday-school 1 p m. Class-meeting Monday evening. Preaching Wednesday evening. Prayer-meeting Friday evening. General Class first Monday night in every month. Prayer service at 5:30 a. m.

CAMP PARAPET CHURCH—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, Pastor. Sunday services—Prayer meeting 6 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Sabbath at 1 p. m. Class-meetings. Thursday evening

HAVEN CHAPEL—JEFFERSON STREET, Carrollton, corner of Pine street. Rev. M. C. B. Mason, Pastor. Services—Public worship at 11 a. m, 3 and 7 p. m, Sunday. Sunday-school 9 a. m. Class-meeting Monday evening. General Class, second Sunday at 11 a. m, and communion at 7. Preaching Thursday evening.

New Orleans University. A. F Hoyt, M. A., Acting President 1428 St. Charles Street.

First Street—Rev. S. L. Montgomery, Pastor. Church corner First and Dryades Streets. Services: Sabbath—5 a. m., prayer meeting; 11, 3 and 7, public worship; communion monthly, on the first Sunday. Sunday-school 1 p m. Class meeting Monday evening. General class every fourth Monday evening. Preaching Thursday nights.

MOUNT ZION M. E. CHURCH—James W Hudson, pastor. Regular services 11 a m, 3 and 7 p m; prayer meeting Monday eve at 4 p m. Tuesday night class meeting. Preaching Wednesday eve at 7 p m, and sacrament the third Sabbath of every month.

THOMSON CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Foot street, near Rampart. Sunday Services: preaching at 11, 3 and 7 Prayer meeting 6 in morning. Class meeting 3:30. Z. T. Gaydon, pastor.

AMES M. E. CHURCH—Rev. Thomas Stalker, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sunday-school at 9 45 a. m. Prayer meeting, Thursday evening at 7 30.

PLEASANT PLAIN CHURCH—Perdido, bet. Johnson and Prieur streets, Rev. W. P Forest, pastor. Services Sabbath: Preaching at 11 a m, 3:30 and 7:30 p m. Sunday-school at 9 a m; early prayer meeting at 5:30 a m; class at 5:30 p m; preaching Wednesday and prayer meeting Wednesday evenings. Sacrament every second Sabbath. Love feast quarterly.

General Church Directory.

CENTRAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Also College Church of Straight University, A. M. A., corner Gasquet and Liberty streets, one block off Canal street. Services—Preaching every days at 11 a m and 7 p m; Sabbath-school 12:15 p m. Prayer meetings Tuesdays and Friday evenings at 7:30 p m. This church has a fine choir under good leadership, and is centrally located. Northern visitors and all true friends of the colored people are cordially invited to attend its services. Rev. G. W. Bothwell, M. A., pastor.

OUR CLUBBING LIST,

—1885—

Persons sending us cash with their orders can have the SOUTHWESTERN one year together with any one of the following publications, for amount opposite each as named:

Littell's Living Age	$8 00
Outing	3 00
Wide Awake	4 25
Babyland	1 75
Our Little Men and Women	2 25
The Pansy	2 00
Our Little Ones and the Nursery	2 25
American Agriculturist	2 50
Southern Cultivator	2 75
Popular Science Monthly	6 00
New York Medical Journal	6 00
Illustrated Christian Weekly	3 25
Harper's Magazine	5 00
Harper's Weekly	5 00
Harper's Bazar	5 00
Harper's Young People	3 00
American Reformer	2 00
Weekly Inter-Ocean	2 25
Babyhood	2 75

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez street, New Orleans.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS,

17 & 29 West 2d St., New York.

Have now ready

The History of the Negro Race in America.

From 1619 to 1881. Negroes as Slaves, as Soldiers and as Citizens.

Together with a preliminary consideration of the Unity of the Human Family, and Histories Sketch of Africa, and an account of the Negro Government of Sierra Leone and Liberia. By George W. Williams, first colored member of the Ohio Legislature, and late Judge Advocate of the G. A. R., of Ohio.

Popular Edition; two volumes in one, large octavo, with portrait on steel of the author, $4

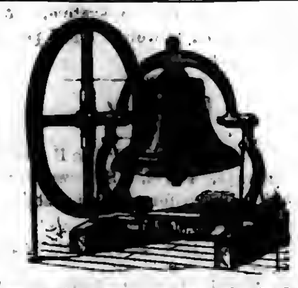
"It is a prodigious compilation, so comprehensive that every student will welcome it, and so just in its whole scope that criticism of special points can not impair it."—World, New York.

"It ought to be read by every colored man in America."—Journal, Indianapolis.

"He has accomplished a noble service for his race."—Zion's Herald, Boston.

☞ This book can be ordered through the office of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, New Orleans, La.

Dr. Sterling P. Brown



365 Chippewa Street,

NEW ORLEANS LA.

OFFICE HOURS { From 8 to 10 a. m. / 2 and 3 to 4 p. m. } mar26 1yr

OPIUM MORPHINE HABIT CURED. HOME without pain. Book FREE. DR. J. C. HOFFMAN, M. D., Atlanta, Ga. apr2-13t

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.

Bells for Churches, Schools, Etc.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
24 inches	165 lbs	200 lbs	$350
26 "	200 lbs	350 lbs	45 00
28 "	225 lbs	375 lbs	55 00
32 "	375 lbs	550 lbs	80 00
36 "	525 lbs	750 lbs	100 00
40 "	800 lbs	1100 lbs	145 00
44 "	1060 lbs	1400 lbs	180 00
48 "	1325 lbs	1800 lbs	230 00
51 "	2050 lbs	2800 lbs	350 00

Bells for Schools, Farms, Etc. without mountings.

18 inches	75 lbs	$13 00
20 inches	100 lbs	18 00
24 inches	165 lbs	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.

The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.

On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,

tf 37 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.

Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.

VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.

mar5-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.

The Finest Grade of Church Bells

Greatest Experience. Largest Trade.

Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.

Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,

TROY, N. Y.

nov21-1yr

McShane Bell Foundry

Manufacture those celebrated Bells and Chimes for Churches, Tower Clocks, &c., &c. Price-list and circulars sent free. Address

HENRY McSHANE & CO.

oct23-1y Baltimore, Md.

P. P. ALBERT,

(Successor to L Bibolet, Manager,)

Produce Merchant,

And Dealer in Groceries,

S ..... Toulouse Street, ... S

P. O. Box 3249. NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Personal attention given to the sale of all produce entrusted to my care, and prompt returns rendered for same. All orders promptly filled at lowest market rates, for cash. Liberal advances made on consignments when received. Correspondence solicited.

☞ No transactions on Sundays. sept28-tf

E. W. Scheffel,

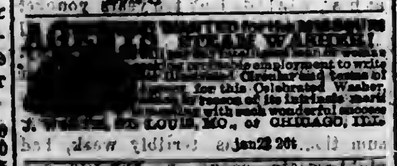
GENERAL

Book-Binder,

Ruler and Blank Book Manufacturer.

37 Natchez St., [up-stairs] New Orleans.

Magazine, Music, Periodicals and Old Books re-bound, Plain or Ornamental. jan22



Pianos & Organs

Of all makes direct to customers from headquarters at wholesale prices. All goods KEPT tuned. No money asked till Instruments are received and fully tested. Writers before purchasing. An investment of 2 cents may save you from $50.00 to $100.00. Address JESSE FRENCH, Nashville Tenn., Wholesale Distributing Dep't for the South.

sep19-1y

J. WOLFE, St. LOUIS, MO., or CHICAGO, ILL. jan22 26t

CATARRH

[illegible] 50 cts. and symptoms for Trial Treatment, to last 20 days, by mail post-paid. Which will convince the most incredulous that Dr. Sweeting can positively and permanently cure at small expense, by a [illegible] treatment, the worst cases of Catarrh, though the cases of the most have become afflicted, causes Loss of Smell, Colds in the Head, Sore Throat, Deafness, Hay Fever, Cough, Bronchitis and Incipient Consumption. No Snuffs, washes, douches, inhalers or atomizers used. Over 1000 cases cured. The best internal treatment ever discovered for this dangerous disease. Address Dr. C. N. BROOKINGTON, [illegible] AVENUE, Louisville, Ky.

oct2-1y

Bibles at 1-2 and Old Testaments at less than 1-3 the prices of the English editions, and equal to the English in type, paper, printing and accuracy. First agent sent out [illegible] on orders at every [illegible] for two weeks. Rare chance for agents to make money. Send $1.00 for outfit. TERMS VERY LIBERAL. The Henry Bill Pub. Co., Norwich, Conn.

may14-tf

GEORGE LANDRY,

Undertaker.

220 [illegible] Rampart Street..... 222

(Between Roseltd and Barracks streets)

NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Entrepreneur de Pompes Funebres.

All orders promptly and carefully executed at moderate prices.

apr25-1y A. LABAT, Asst Manager.

THE NEW ELASTIC TRUSS

[illegible] a Pad different from [illegible] is cup shape, with ball Adjusting Ball in center, adapts itself to all positions of the body, while the ball in the cup presses back the intestines just as a person would with the hand, and a radical cure must follow. Sent by mail. Circulars free. Address [illegible] Co., Chicago, Ill.

may21-6t

OPIUM MORPHINE HABIT FAMILY CURED. BOOK FREE. Dr. J. C. HOFFMAN Jefferson, Wis. may1-26t

PHILLIP SAAL,

Dealer in Fancy and Staple Groceries, A Specialty of Butter, Tea, Coffee, and Fine Family Groceries.

503 Dryades Street, (near St. Andrew st.,) New Orleans, La.

jan1-1y

Crescent Insurance Company.

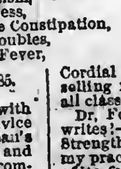
Incorporated as a Mutual Company in 1849. Re-organized as a Stock Company in 1880.

CASH CAPITAL..... .....$600,000.

Has paid paid nearly TEN MILLIONS for losses since 1849. Annual and Term Policies issued on Desirable Fire Business.

W. R. Lyman, President, Chas. H. Dolsen, Vice President, Chas. E. Rice, Sec'y.

TRUSTEES



Joseph Bowling,	Sam H. Kennedy,	Geo. W. Sentell,	Alfred Moulton,	W. B. Conger
W. R. Lyman,	U Marioni,	Chas. H. Dolsen,	John Calder,	A. H. Seward
S. C. Coulon,	Harry L. Flash,	Wm. A. Phelps,	J. W. Ross,	Louis Prados
Lucien Delery,	Charles Newman,	N. D. Wallace,	Sigmund Katz,	M. Gallis
R. F. W. Buchman,	C. K. David,	Wm. Garig,	A. Rosenfield,	John D. Fisher
Chas E. Rice,	Joseph Kohn,	Chas. M. Whitney,	James T. Rodd.

☞ See our Agents throughout the South. oct9 1y

THE LITTLE HUCKLEBERRY, FOR CHILDREN TEETHING.

The soldiers in the late war established the fact that the Huckleberry was much more efficacious in chronic bowel troubles than the Blackberry.

Every one knows the Huckleberry growing alongside the hill, but few have realized the fact that the purple berry contains one of the most valuable astringent healing principles to the bowels.

Dr. Bigger's Huckleberry Cordial is the great Southern remedy for curing Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cramp-Colic and all bowel affections, and restoring the little one suffering such a drainage upon the system from the effects of TEETHING. For sale by all druggists at 50 cents a bottle. Send Two Cent stamp for "TAYLOR'S LITTLE RIDDLE BOOK," for the health of home and amusement of the little ones.

Walter A. Taylor, Atlanta, Georgia.

NOW, NOW, NOW IS THE TIME; SPRING TIME!

PURIFY YOUR BLOOD.

DR. J. H. McLEAN'S

Strengthening Cordial AND BLOOD PURIFIER

Is the greatest Blood Purifier in the world.

TRY IT, AND YOU WILL USE IT EVERY SEASON.

It acts as delightfully on the tender Babe, the most delicate Lady and infirm old age, as on the strong man, in imparting Health and Vigor to Nerves and Brain, Blood Vessels, Heart and Liver. When taken, you can feel its life-giving power course through every artery, destroying all diseases of the Blood, and giving Health, Vital Power and Strength to every part of the body. Who will suffer from Liver Complaint or Diseases of the Stomach, Kidneys, Bowels, or Bladder, when such a great Remedy is within their reach?

IT WILL CURE:

Sleeplessness,	Falling of the Womb,	Diarrhœa or Bloody Flux,
Night Sweats,	Bad Blood,	Lung and Liver Diseases,
Sallow Complexion,	Biliousness,	Kidney Troubles,
Hot Flushes, Fainting Spells,	Pimples,	Weak Back,
Nervousness,	Loss of Memory,	Neuralgia,
Failing Eyesight caused by	Feverish Skin,	Pains in Bones,
Weakness,	Sluggish Circulation,	Sick Stomach,
Dyspepsia,	Cold Feet and Hands,	Depression, Blues,
Hectic Flushes,	Rheumatism,	Dyspepsia,
Scalding Hot Urine,	Peevishness,	Female Weakness,
Brick Dust Deposit,	Obstinate Constipation,	Pimples, Sores and Blotches on the Face and Skin.
Frothy Urine,	Heart Troubles,	Colic Pains.
Uterine Weakness,	Bladder Fever,

Milwaukee, Wis., March 6th, 1885.

DR. J. H. McLEAN, St. Louis, Mo.

DEAR SIR:—Having been troubled with Female Complaint for some time, by the advice of a St. Louis lady, I tried Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier, and am happy to say that it has cured me completely, and I am as well now as ever. I consider it the best medicine for that purpose in the world.

MRS. ELIZABETH HENDRICKS.

G. W. Nowlin, Greenfield, Tenn., writes:—Send me another supply of Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier. It gives such satisfaction and sells so well here that we are unable to keep a supply on hand.

Mingsville, Mo., Jan. 4th, 1885.

DR. J. H. McLEAN, St. Louis Mo.

DEAR SIR:—I look upon your Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier as the finest medicine in the market. I use it in my family and all my customers speak of it in the highest terms. I would not be without it in the house if it cost ten dollars a bottle.

Yours truly, JOSEPH W. MINGS.

John O. K. White, San Angelo, Texas, says:—Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is now in great demand. It gives universal satisfaction and is almost as staple as sugar and coffee in this vicinity.

Leroy, Minn., March 5th, 1885.

DR. J. H. McLEAN, St. Louis, Mo.

DEAR SIR:—Owing to the intense heat last summer in the harvest field, many in this neighborhood were prostrated at work, and many of them are afflicted with chronic diarrhœa and kindred diseases. But by the advice of a friend I used your Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier, and have been as well as ever, although I was more exposed than the majority of those who have been more or less sick ever since.

Yours truly. HAST. MERCHELL.

Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is a Never-Failing Remedy, and Can Be Relied on.

$1.00 PER BOTTLE. SIX BOTTLES, $5.00.

DR. J. H. McLEAN, S. E. Corner Broadway and Biddle Street, St. Louis, Mo.

jan1-6m.

AN ADVERTISING AGENCY.

Newspapers.

Catalogue.

Advertisement.

Our Lists.

Estimates.

Printing Office.

Our System.

Payment.

We receive and keep on file over 12,000 Newspapers published in every State and Province in America. Over 1000 Daily papers alone arrive every morning. Each paper is examined by careful clerks and the insertions entered in record books. Under our system an advertiser is sure to receive the full value for his money.

We publish the "American Newspaper Catalogue," a volume of 900 pages elegantly bound in cloth, and containing a complete list of the publications of every character in the United States and Canada. On one line we give place of publication, name of paper, class or denomination, age and circulation. In it are catalogued 14,000 periodicals. Sent free on receipt of $1.50.

We can secure the prompt insertion of any advertisement in any publication at the lowest attainable prices. We keep constantly invested over $200,000 "in space" in the best lines of newspapers. Our special lists of Papers will be found especially useful in making up lists for pushing any special lines.

We have, for the convenience of advertisers, made up our Religious List containing the names of all the leading denominational papers with prices. Our Agricultural List containing the names of all the prominent agricultural papers with prices. Our Local List of 1,300 County and City Weeklies and Dailies, arranged by States with publishers' prices and the prices at which we can inserr advertisements. These Lists are mailed free on application.

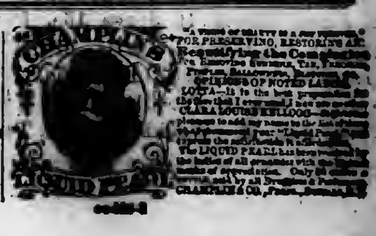
We will furnish to any reputable advertiser who will apply, an estimate showing exact cost of any proposed line of advertising, and when desired, will make up lists and write advertisements, provided the amount desired to be expended is named. We have had a wide experience, and can suggest lines of papers best adapted to the wants of an advertiser.

We keep constantly supplied with the newest styles of type best adapted to the display of advertisements. Send us your copy and we will return with estimate & proof from type without extra charge.

Our organization for correctly following an advertisement in the newspapers is perfect, and our patrons can be assured that correct work from every publisher will be exacted.

To any advertiser entitled to credit, or any one who can furnish us proper references, we will extend any reasonable line of credit. Publishers pay us a commission for all the business we send them, and any advertiser can be assured of obtaining through us lower prices than can be obtained from publishers direct. In no instance do we charge advertisers any addition to publishers' rates.

Edwin Alden & Bro.,



N.W. Cor. 5th & Vine Sts., CINCINNATI.

140 Nassau Street, NEW YORK.

Newspaper Advertising Agents.

NEW AGENTS WANTED for Twenty Years of Congress, 1861—1881, by James G. Blaine. Hon. J. S. Wise of Va. says: [illegible] Blaine's friend [illegible] would be loss read the exhibit." Agents make from $200 to $1,000 per month. Address, The Henry Bill Pub. Co., Norwich, Conn.

"A THING OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER." FOR PRESERVING, RESTORING AND BEAUTIFYING the Complexion [illegible] Eruptions, Tan, Freckles, Sunburn, Roughness, &c. OPINIONS OF NOTED LADIES. SOFIA—It is the best preparation for the skin I ever used. I use no other. CLARA LOUISE KELLOGG—It gives pleasure to add my name to the list of those who use and praise it. [illegible] LIQUID PEARL has been introduced by the ladies of all countries with the greatest success. Only 25 cents a bottle. Sold by all Druggists & Perfumers. CRANDELL & CO., Props., Boston, Mass.

oct16-4

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co. 106 Wall Street, N. Y.

Sunday-School and Children.

SECOND QUARTER. STUDIES IN THE ACTS AND EPISTLES. Lesson XII. A. D. 68. June 21. Christian progress; 2 Peter 1, 1-11. Golden Text, 2 Peter 3, 18.

HOME READINGS.

M—Christian Progress; 2 Peter 1, 1, 11.

Tu—The grace of God; 1 Peter 1, 1 9.

W—Partakers of God; 1 John 3, 1-4.

Th—The getting of knowledge, Prov. 4, 1-13.

F—Patience enjoined; Titus 2, 1-15.

S—The characteristics of charity; 1 Cor. 13, 1-13.

S—Christian counsel; 2 Peter 3, 1-18.

QUESTIONS FOR HOME STUDY.

1. The Christian Salutation, v. 1, 2.
What does Peter call himself?
To whom does he address his epistle?
What is his salutation to them?
2. The Christian Plea, v. 3, 4.
What does divine power secure us?
Through what do we secure these things?
What is said of the promises?
What is to be obtained through them?
3. The Christian Graces, v. 5, 7.
How is one to care for his spiritual life?
How many Christian graces are named?
Name and define them.
4. The Christian Reward, v. 8 11.
What is the result of these virtues?
If these are wanting what then?
What exhortation does the Apostle give in verse 10.
What is first promised to the obedient?
What is said of an entrance into the kingdom?

PRACTICAL TEACHINGS.

Where does this lesson teach—

1. That God is the source of Christian life?
2. The variety and beauty of Christian graces?
3. The blessedness of the Christian reward?

Doctrinal Suggestion—Growth in grace.

Rosemath, Mississippi, Sunday-school.

REV. J. C. S.

We have a good Sunday school and excellent teachers here. We have been trying for some time to get rid of an old debt. Bro. H. Golden has greatly aided in getting rid of it, in presence of the Sunday-school, I made a proposition to the children to help us in our struggle, and promised rewards to the best collectors, collections to be April 12 [illegible] and the following will show the result:

Mrs. Golden, $12.60; S Lenox and wife presented a silver pitcher and [illegible] 75; Mrs. Lenox is not a member of the church. W. Dudley 10c, Rev. [illegible] 50c, F Steward 25c, H [illegible] 25c, Rev. J H Honor of the M. E. Church 50, G H Jackson [illegible] 100, H Jackson 25c, [illegible] 10, L Kelly 75, A Golden [illegible] Jones 55c, W James 25c, [illegible] 10, A H Jones 15c, P [illegible] J [illegible] of the [illegible] 10c, O [illegible] 50c, G [illegible] D Woodley [illegible] 1, T Sullivan 50, J Smith 75, G H Payne $1, R Watts 50c, J Foster 50c, J Brown 10, J Holston 25c, J W Dudley $1, B Johnson 10c H Jackson 10c, H Carter 10c, H Gasway 10c, S Jones 25c, M Burns $1.75, C Roberts $1.75, S Alexander $2, P Shodridge $2, T Burns, one chair, $1.50, J Walker, chair, $1.50, H Mills $1 50, S Smith 30c, B H Young 30, D Hill 35, J Davis 5c, J Holston 5c, S T Jones 5c, Jasper Jones 5c, E Smith 5c, P Smith 5c, Toney Golden 10c, L Lenox 5c, C B 5c, G King 25c, E Davis 75c, D Golden, book, 75, O Burns, $1, Amos Jones 30c, Sophy Dudley 10c, Lucy Holston 20c, Eliza Buck, one book, $1, Susan Golden $1, Louisiana Watts 30c, Dolly Houston 25c, Violet Smith 10c, Harriet Holston 25c, Sentiler Anderson 50c, Hester Fisher 15c, Catherine Golden 50c, Sallie Burns 10c, Rebecca Huing 35c, Katie Garrett 10c, Flora Israel 55c, Jane Golden 25c, Jemima King 25c, Jane Washington 25c, Diana Wright 10c, Lucy Hill 5, Violet Shodridge $1, Hanna Price 50c, Violet Smith 10c, Henrietta Mills 50c, Sarah Jackson 50c, Rosanna Gasway 25c, Rose Washington 50c, Francis Jones 25c, Bettie Golden 30c, Violet Kelley 50c, Amy Jones 50c, Alice Holston 25c, Emma Wilson 10c, Mamie Golden 45c, Manerva Carter 10c, Amanda Harris 30c, Emily Wright 50c, Caroline Williams 5c, Luvenia Voltes 5c, Mollie Davis 15c, Sarah Alexander 10c, Mary Turner 5c, Rosa Craig 5c, Annie Golden 55c, Elizabeth Jackson 5c, Maggie Hill 5c, Ophelia Jones 5c, Rebecca Golden 10c, Biddie Golden 5 c, Ella Smith 5c, Maria Golden 10c, Laura Clark 5c; total amount $71.40.

This ends the griefs of Holly Grove; she is now out of debt and has money in the treasury. This does not include the pastor's salary nor the elder's collection. The elder's visit on the 19th and 20th of April will never be forgotten. Collection $14.85.

Response from Sunday-school Superintendents to the Appeal for a Million for Missions.

The following is a specimen—If the children help, it can be done.

Minneapolis, Minn., May 9, 1885.

Bro. McCabe—Your appeal for $1,000,000 is a "Macedonian cry" for those who sit in darkness, and the Hennepin Ave. M. E. Sunday-school is awake to its importance. Each class has selected a missionary name, and is competing in its collections for Missions for the title of "Banner Class." The first report of the work done under your appeal was given May 3rd. The collection was nearly four times the amount usually taken on Missionary Sunday.

We hope to report collections of eight times the usual amount before the close of the present conference year.

Yours, for the benighted,

SUPERINTENDENT.

In the Dear Old Days.

We differ in creed and politics, but we are a unit all the same on the desirableness of a fine head of hair. If you mourn the loss of this blessing and ornament, a bottle or two of Parker's Hair Balsam will make you look as you did in the dear old days. It is worth trying. The only standard 50c. article for the hair.

Marriages.

At the home of the bride, near Sharon, Tenn., Dec. 7, 1884, Rev. S. P. Danley officiating, Mr. Wilks Fitzgerald to Miss Anna Freeman.

Near Grand Bayou, La., June 4, Rev. D. Shelby officiating, Mr. Nelson Young to Miss Tenly Cnden.

At Martin, Tenn., May 27, Mr. Taylor Silvertooth to Miss Fanny Sanders, Rev. S. B. Danley officiating.

At Fortson, La., May 24, Rev. D. Shelby officiating, Mr. Clinton Mastam and Miss Emma Nastiam.

At Martin, Tenn., June 1, Major R. Ralston to Miss Fanny Yates, Rev. S. B Danley officiating.

At the residence of the bride Hahnville La., Mr. Hypolite Labranch to Miss Louisa Havens, May 23, Rev. Geo. Payne officiating.

Mr. Nathan Smith to Miss Josephine Taylor, at the bride's residence in Hahnville, La., May 25, Rev. Geo. Payne officiating.

Mr. Louis Jones and [illegible] Casey were married at the [illegible] the bride, June 8, 1885, Rev. A. J. Ford officiating.

"I feel bad!" Hunt's [Kidney and Liver] Remedy encourages sleep, creates an appetite, braces up the system, and repairs the wasted powers. $1 25 per bottle at druggists.

Obituary.

Little Lizzie Colquit died in Belleville, Austin county, Texas. She was seven years old. Just before she died she said. "I am going to Jesus.'

REV. R. J. CAMPBELL.

Sister Sophie Dansby departed this life, at State Line, Miss., Feb. 13, 1885; she was a faithful member of our Church and her loss is much regretted by all who know her. She leaves a husband and six children, two brothers and two sisters.

Sister Judy Gains, after long suffering, departed this life, in State Line, Miss. leaving a husband, several children and a host of friends to mourn her loss.

Sister Laer Bibesis died at State Line, Miss. She leaves a husband and many friends to mourn her loss.

M. BROWN.

Sister Mary McCaskill died in Carroll county, Miss., Nov. 20, 1884. She was a faithful member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Sister Amanda Johnson, a member of our church, died in Grenada, Miss., Jan. 22, 1885. Bro. Noah Batchelor, a member and class-leader of our church, died in Greenwood, Miss., March 9, 1885.

H. CAWTHORN.

John Marshall Walden, oldest son of Marshall W. and Kate Taylor; born in Louisville, Ky., Sept. 1, 1874, died in New Orleans, La., June 12, 1885. He was a Methodist Christian.

Sister Matilda Smith, who has been a member of the M. E. Church for eight months, died April 17, 1885. She was 16 years of age. She leaves a mother, two brothers, and two sisters to mourn her loss. Her funeral was attended by many friends. S. W. WRIGHT, Crawford, Miss.

Bro. Ferlye Bonaparte died at Belzora Louisiana, April 15, 1885. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his loss. He was a member of our church.

REV. B. CARR.

Sister Emeline Parmer died at Hockley, Texas, May 10, 1885. She was 60 years of age, and leaves a husband, two sons and a daughter to mourn her loss. She has been a member of the M. E. Church for 15 years, and for 8 years has been a member of the Hockley M. E. Church.

LOUIS BURTON.

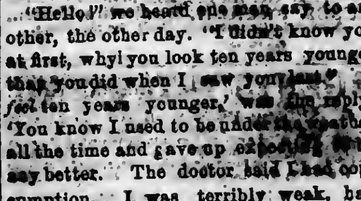
Sister Young, wife of Rev. C. Young, died Dec. 27, 1884. For 18 years she was a member of the M. E. Church at Dallas, Texas, and was 35 years of age, and leaves a husband and three children.

Burleo Luvall, only son of A. J. and Rosy B. Luvall; died in Morgantown, Butler county, Kentucky, [illegible], 1885. He was born Dec. [illegible] years of age. He [illegible] 'Mamma, I am [illegible] and I want you and papa to go too.'

"Hello!" we heard one man say to another, the other day. "I didn't know you at first, why! you look ten years younger than you did when I saw you last." "I feel ten years younger,' was the reply. 'You know I used to be under the weather all the time and gave up expecting to be any better. The doctor said I had consumption. I was terribly weak, had night sweats, cough, no appetite, and lost flesh. I saw Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery advertised, and thought it would do me no harm if it did no good. It has cured me. I am a new man because I am a well one.'

Pains in the back, or loins cured by the best kidney and liver medicine—Hunt's Remedy.

Nashville Tenn., Seed Market.



[Seed quotations for each issue furnished by Messrs. Geo. W. Stockett & Co., Seed Merchants, of Nashville, Tennessee, to whom address communications.]

	per bushel
Red Clover seed	$5 55
Sapling Clover seed	6 00
Red Top or Herds Grass	55
Timothy seed	1 90
Orchard Grass seed	1 70
Blue Grass seed, clean	1 90
" " extra clean	1 25
Tennessee raised German Millet	1 25
Hungarian	1 10
	per pound
White Clover seed	25
Lucerne or Alfalfa Clover seed	25
Alsyke Clover seed	25
Tall Meadow Oat Grass	25
Meadow Fescue	25

Rescue Grass, Italian Rye Grass, and English Rye Grass quoted on application. Sacks are extra.

TO HAVE HEALTH THE LIVER MUST BE IN ORDER.

DR. SANFORD'S

Is a Reliable Remedy for Liver Complaint [illegible] caused by a deranged or torpid condition of the Liver, such as Dyspepsia, Constipation, Biliousness, Jaundice, Headache, Colic, Malaria, Rheumatism, etc. It regulates the bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the [illegible] AN INVALUABLE FAMILY MEDICINE. Thousands of testimonials prove its merits. ASK DRUGGIST WHAT YOU HAVE BEFORE KNOWN.

apr30-13teowmr

MUHO

Conference Notices.

Plan of Episcopal Visitation.—1885. Fall Conferences.

[ALPHABETICAL.]

CONFERENCE.	PLACE.	TIME.	BISHOP.
Alabama	Edwardsville, Ala.	Nov 26	Mallalieu
Arizona Miss.	Tucson, Arizona	Sept 17	Fowler
Anson	Denton, Texas	Dec 10	Foster
Black Hills Miss	Rapid City, Dak.	Aug. 20	Ninde
Blue Ridge	Gastonia, N. C.	Oct. 1	Mallalieu
Bulgaria Miss.	Rustchuk, Bul.	Oct. 1
California	Stockton, Cal.	Sept. 3	Fowler
C'l Alabama	Mobile, Ala.	Dec 10	Mallalieu
C'l China mis'n	Kinkiang, China	Oct. 14
C'l German	Columbus, Ohio	Sept 10	Harris
C'l Illinois	Fairbury, Ill.	Sept 24	Warren
C'l New York	Syracuse, N. Y.	Oct 8	Merrill
C'l Ohio	Fostoria, O.	Sept 17	Harris
C'l Tennessee	Tullahoma, Tenn.	Oct 15	Mallalieu
Chicago German'n	Manitowoc, Wis.	Sept 17	Bowman
Cincinnati	Cincinnati, O.	Sept 3	Harris
Colorado	Pueblo Col.	Aug 20	Andrews
Columbia River	Spokane Falls W. T.	July 16	Walden
Dakota miss'n	Blunt Dak.	Oct 8	Foss
Des Moines	Des Moines, Ia.	Sept 17	Foss
Detroit	Pontiac, Mich.	Sept 10	Warren
East Ohio	Barnesville, O.	Sept 17	Foster
East Tennessee	Knoxville, Tenn.	Oct 22	Hurst
Erie	Sharon, Pa.	Sept 10	Merrill
Foochow	Foochow, China	Nov 19
Genesee	Lima N Y	Oct 1	Hurst
Georgia	Eillay, Ga.	Nov 19	Mallalieu
Holston	Johns'n City, Tenn	Oct 15	Hurst
Idaho	Canyon City Oreg.	July 30	Walden
Illinois	Rushville, Ill.	Sept 17	Ninde
Indiana	Spencer, Ind.	Aug 27	Harris
Iowa	Mt. Pleasant, Ia.	Sept 10	Ninde
Japan	Tokio, Japan	Aug 20
Kentucky	Covington, Ky.	Oct 1	Harris
Michigan	G'nd Rapids, Mich.	Sept 17	Warren
Minnesota	Rochester, Minn.	Oct 1	Andrews
Montana mis'n	Dillon, Montana	July 1	Walden
Nebraska	Seward, Neb.	Sept 17	Andrews
Nevada mis'n	Bishop's Ck, Nev.	Aug 20	Fowler
N Mexico mis'n	Santa Fe, N. Mex.	Oct 1	Fowler
" Spanish	Peralta New Mex.	Sept 24	Fowler
N China mis'n	Peking, China	Sept 24
N. Dakota	Wahpeton, Dak.	Sept 17	Walden
N. Nebraska	Ponca, Neb.	Sept 3	Andrews
N. Ohio	Berea Ohio	Sept 3	Merrill
N-w German	LeSeur, Minn.	Sept 24	Andrews
N-w Indiana	Valparaiso, Ind.	Sept 3	Foss
N w Iowa	Storm Lake, Ia.	Sept 24	Foss
N-w Swedish	Dayton, Ia	Sept 3	Bowman
Norw'n & Danish	Cambridge, Wis.	Sept 10	Bowman
Ohio	Delaware, Ohio	Sept 24	Foster
Oregon	Roseburg, Oreg.	Aug 27	Walden
Pittsburgh	Allegheny City, Pa.	Sept 17	Merrill
Puget Sound	Tacoma, W. T.	Aug. 13	Walden
Rock River	Elgin, Ill.	Oct 8	Fowler
St Louis Germ.	St Louis, Mo.	Sept 10	Foss
Savannah	Savannah, Ga.	Dec 3	Mallalieu
S. E. Indiana	Brookville, Ind.	Sept 24	Harris
S. California	Santa Barbara, Cal	Sept 10	Fowler
S. German	San Antonio, Tex.	Nov 19	Foster
S. Illinois	Edwardsville, Ill.	Sept 24	Ninde
Tennessee	Gallatin, Tenn.	Oct 22	Mallalieu
Texas	Houston, Tex.	Nov 26	Foster
Upper Iowa	Toledo, Ia.	Oct 1	Warren
Utah mission	Park City, Utah	July 2	Warren
West German	Claytonia, Neb.	Sept 3	Ninde
W. Neb. mis'n	Kearney, Neb.	Sept 10	Andrews
West Texas	Austin, Tex	Dec 3	Foster
West Virginia	Charleston, W. Va.	Sept 24	Merrill
W. Wisconsin	Dodgeville, Wis.	Sept 24	Bowman
Wisconsin	Waukesha, Wis.	Oct 1	Bowman

By order of the Board of Bishops.

WM. L. HARRIS, Secretary.

St. Louis, Mo., May 18, 1885.

Lateche District Conference

Will meet in New Iberia, La., Thursday, Aug 13, 1885, at 9 a. m. All persons authorized by the Discipline are expected to attend, and others are invited. We hope to make the session of especial interest, and to do this wish full reports from all charges.

Notice.

There will be a Basket Meeting at Robelia e, on the 21st of June, for the purpose of building a new Church. People of Natchitoches and Marthaville, with their pastors, invited.

W. E. BUTLER, Pastor.

Notice.

To the Pastors of Navasota District:—Sister Easter Morgan's funeral will be preached, by Rev. V. M. Cole, on the third Sunday in Jnue. and the friends and relatives or Sister Morgan, by dropping me a card, can arrive at Millican Saturday night, the 20th, at 1:55 a. m. and 2:45 a. m; and leave Sunday night at 1:05 and 2:45 a. m. All of those from Hempstead up to Navasota coming to Millican will lose Sunday from your home and from Calvert the same.

THOS COLE

Notice.

The Okolona District Conference, Mississippi Annual Conference Methodist Episcopal Church, will convene July 30 and 31, and August 1 2, at Crawford, Miss., at 10:30 a. m. We hope to see a full attendance there. Brethren. please come with your reports showing that you have done something for all of the general benevolences of the church. We hope that special attention has been or will be given to the collection for Rust University. If you have not done anything, go to work now, it is not too late yet; yet all are interested.

D. A. WILLIAMS, P. E.

Programme: Of the Woman's Home Mission Society, D. W. Calvert and C. W. Walton. All must be present.

J. W. PARKS,
B. H. S. FERGUSON,
L. F. WHITE.

Murfreesboro District—Tennessee Conference.

Third Round.

Sparta	June	13-14
McMinnville sta	"	19-21
McMinnville ct	"	20-21
Shelbyville	"	27-28
Tullahoma	July	4- 5
Manchester	"	7- 8
Petersburg	"	11-12
Murfreesboro	"	17 19
Spencer and Eagleville	"	18 19
Murfreesboro sta	"	23 24
Stone River	"	25-26
Woodbury	"	25 26

C. H. BULLINGTON, P. E.

Ohio District.

Second Round

New Richmond ct, at New Richmond	June	23 23
Batavia ct, at Milford	"	27-28
Cheviot ct	July	1- 2
Cumminsville ct, at Lockland	"	4- 5
Troy	"	10-12
Marion ct, at Rushsylvania, by W. W. Heston	"	11-12
Dayton ct, at Dayton	"	14-16
Springfield	"	17-19
Oberlin	"	24-26
Cleveland, by J. F. K. Moreland	"	25 26
Cadiz ct, at Cadiz	Aug.	1- 2
Steubenville, by B. Daniels	"	1- 4
Mt. Pleasant ct, at Martin's Ferry	"	5- 6
Flushing ct, at Bridgeport	"	7- 8
Bellaire	"	8- 9
Louisa ct, at Cassville	"	12 13
Ironton	"	15 16
Mayslick ct	"	22-23
Portsmouth, by John Downs	"	29 30
Covington	"	29 30
Augusta, by Jas Taylor	Sept.	5- 6
Maysville	"	5- 6
Aberdeen ct	"	8 9
Cincinnati	"	12-13

Dear Brethren, do not fail to keep the benevolent interests of the Church before your congregations; urge and take collections as your duty require you. This is one of the avenues to success in the Methodist ministry—a failure in which, without a sufficient reason, is weakening to yourself. Yours ever,

JOSEPH COURTNEY.

70 East Fifth street, Covington, Ky.

Programme

The first District Conference of the Greenwood district will be held in Winona, Miss., commencing August 14, 1885. The following is the programme of the literary and religious exercises:

Rust University—H R Revels, D.D.
How to succeed in revivals—C L Crump.
Relation of baptized children to the Church—J C Houston.
Pastor's relation to Sunday-school—A S Williams.
Infant baptism—D D Goodwin
Church Extension Society—Wm Parks.

Opportunity will be allowed other members of the conference to express themselves on the above subjects.

Sermons—Influence of the Holy Spirit on the hearts and minds of men—H Cawthorne.
Possibility of falling from grace—M S Foster.
Love for our neighbor—J C Skinner.
What is Christianity?—D D Goodwin.
Essential fitness for heaven—H R Revels, D.D.
The Word of God—C L Crump.
Reward of Christ's faithful ministers in glory—C A Jordan.

Each pastor is required to bring his quarterly conference journal, which will be submitted to a committee for inspection. Ministers who cannot attend will send a list of the names of all members of the district conference on their circuit. Now brethren we will be ready for you, and you will have full time to get ready for us. O, may the God of the church move you to action.

D. D. GOODWIN,
C. L. CRUMP.
J. D. HOUSTON,
Committee.

Winona, Miss., May 27, 1885.

Nashville District—Tennessee Conference.

Third Round.

Nolensville	June	13-14
Brentwood	"	20 21
Gallatin	"	27-28
Gallatin ct	"	27-28
Hartsville	July	4- 5
Mitchellsville	"	11-12
Springfield	"	18-19
Dickson	"	25-26
White Bluff	"	25-26
Cumberland	"	25 26
Dover	Aug.	1- 2
Nashville, Braden's Chapel	"	8- 9
" Clark's Chapel	"	8- 9
" Seay's Chapel	"	15-16
" City Mission	"	15-16

Dear brethren, You know I have to hold the meetings this way to get around but I expect to be at the places one night in the week, and if I can I will bring help with me to be at all the places on Sunday. As the Spring is opened look at your assessments and bring up all your benevolent collections.

JAS. PICKETT, P. E.

Pine Bluff District—Little Rock Conference.

Second Round.

Locksburg ct	June	20 21
Centre Point	"	27 28
Washington	July	4- 5
Fulton sta	"	11 12
Texarkana	"	18 19
Texarkana, 1st Church at 2 p m	"	25 26
Texarkana, 2d Church, at 5 p m	"	25-26
Louisville	Aug.	1- 2
Red Fork	"	8- 9
Pine Bluff	"	15-16
Pine Bluff sta	"	22-23
New Edinburg	"	29 30
Monticello	Sept.	5- 6

Benevolent apportionments for Pine Bluff District:

	Mis'n	Ch. Ex.	F.A.S.	Epis. Fd.
Locksburg	$12	$6	$6	$1
Centre Point	10	6	6	1
Washington	6	5	5	1
Fulton	1	1	1
Texarkana, 1st ch.	6	5	5	1
" 2d church	6	4	4	1
" circuit	2	1	1
Louisville	7	4	4
Pine Bluff	10	6	5
Pine Bluff ct	3	1	1
Red Fork	2	1	1
New Edinburg	1	1	1

Other benevolences left for the preachers in charge to collect what they can, but we do expect the above apportionments to be met in full, and as much collected for other benevolences as possible.

G. B. DONNELLY, P. E.

Columbus District—West Texas Conference.

Third Round.

Lagrange ct	June	27-28
LaGrange	July	1
Columbus	"	11-13
Alleyton and Tolan	"	18-19
Oakland and Brown's Chapel	"	25-26
Wellersburg, by Cooper	Aug.	1- 2
Schulenburg, by Coxwell	"	8- 9
Waelder and Peach Creek	"	1- 2
Luling	"	8- 9
Lockhart	"	15-16
Weimar ct	"	22-23
Ellenger, by S. Gates	"	22-23
Columbus circuit	"	29 30

Brethren, the district conference will convene in the town of LaGrange on the second day of July. Each one of you will please write your subjects; also the local preachers on subjects of their own selection. Blanks for reports will be furnished at the conference. To this you will take due notice and act accordingly.

P. M. CARMICHAEL, P. E.

GRATEFUL PRAISE!

A NEW S. S. BOOK. By J. H. Fillmore. Pure in sentiment, rich in music. Sample copy, in boards 25 cents; per dozen by express, $3 00; per dozen by mail, $4. Specimen pages free. FILLMORE BROS. No. 185 Race street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

OLD ONE HUNDRED.

MRS. TENA BURTON,

100 ..... Franklin Street 100

Lodging,

With or Without Board.

mar26-6m

San Antonio District—West Texas District.

Third Round.

Pleasanton	June	13-14
San Antonio	"	20-21
Houdo and Fredericksburg	"	27-28
Seguin	July	2- 5
Lavernia and Mt. Pleasant	"	4- 5
Floresville & Riddleville (sup)	"	11-12
Corpus Christi	"	11-12
Goliad and Centreville	"	18 19
Victoria	"	25-26
Victoria circuit	"	25 26
Morales and Edna	"	28
Cuero and Mission Valley	Aug.	1- 2
Hallettsville	"	8- 9
Gonzales	"	15-16
Mt. Vernon	"	22-23
Belmont	"	29-30
San Marcos	Sept.	5 6

G. W. RICHARDSON, P. E.

Notice.

Third Round.

Queen City	July	11-12
Kildare	"	18 19
Jefferson	"	18 19
Hughe's Springs	"	25 26
Cypress	"	25 26
Paris	Aug.	1- 2
Paris ct	"	8 9
Bonham and Sulphur	"	9 9
Blossom Prairie	"	15 16
Clarksville	"	15 16
Red Oak	"	22 23
Marshall ct	"	22 23
Ebenezer	"	29 30

P. M. CARMICHAEL, P. E.

Those desiring music new books for their Sunday-schools should not fail to notice the advertisements of "Heavenly Voices" and "Sabbath Bells." "Heavenly Voices" is a new book just ready. "Sabbath Bells" has been before the public one season and thousands of them have been sold. See advertisement in this issue.

BEAUTY'S BATH CUTICURA SOAP.

To keep the doors open, the oil glands and tubes active, and thus furnish an outlet for impurities in the perspiration, and blood which cause humiliating blotches, blackheads, and minor skin blemishes; to cleanse, whiten, and beautify the skin; remove tan, freckles sunburn, and oily matter; to keep the hands soft, white, and free from chaps and roughness, prevent contagious skin and scalp diseases, and provide an exquisite skin beautifier and toilet, bath, and nursery sanative, redolent with delicious flower odors and Cuticura healing balsams, is the special duty of the Cuticura Soap. Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great Skin Cures and Beautifiers, and Cuticura Resolvent, the new Blood Purifier, cure every form of Skin and Blood Diseases from Pimples to Scrofula. Sold everywhere. Price, Cuticura, 50c.; Soap, 22.; Resolvent $1 00. Potter Drug and Chemical Co., Boston.

STANDARD
Cane Mills
For Horse and Steam Power.
Evaporators
For Syrup and Sugar.
Known and Used the World Over.

We are the sole makers of the Victor, Creed Western, and Niles Cane Mills, of the Original and genuine Cook Evaporator, and of the Automatic Cook Evaporator.

BLYMYER MANUFACTURING CO.,
CINCINNATI, O.
Manufacturers of Steam Boilers, Iron Machinery, and Refrigerating Machinery. june18 4e

LACTART
ACID OF MILK.

ENDORSED BY THE HIGHEST MEDICAL AUTHORITY.

Healthful and Delicious Beverage and Tonic for Family Use.

Superior to Lime Juice or Lemons.

A Remedy for Dyspepsia and Ills arising from a Disordered Stomach.

Specially recommended as a prevent'ative and relief for Cholera, Sunstroke, Fevers, and valuable in Urinary difficulties.

A Specific for Sea-sickness.

Sold by Druggists.

Avery Lactate Co.,
BOSTON, MASS. apr30-3m

Send for Price List and Circular!

AUTOMATIC

"NO TENSION" SEWING MACHINE.
NOISELESS—LIGHTEST RUNNING.
Most Beautiful and Durable Work, AND DOES NOT INJURE HEALTH.
Willcox & Gibbs S. M. Co., 658 Broadway, N. Y.

nov6-16t eow

PAYSON'S INDELIBLE INK.

No preparation and only a common pen needed. Established 50 Years. Superior and popular for decorative work on linen. Received Centennial Medal & Diploma. Sold everywhere.

jan22-26teow

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 20---NO 26. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, JUNE 25, 1885 WHOLE NUMBER 815.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

37 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor

Terms: $1.50 per Year, Cash in Advance; after Three Months, $2; to Pastors, $1. Six Months, $1; Three Months, 50c.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

All matter not of a business nature must be addressed to the editor.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	8 cents,
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	6 "
Six months (26 times)	5 "
One year (52 times)	4 "
Marriage Notices	25 "
Special Notices	8 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

Yes, the hate of his spirit you well might learn
From his pale, high brow, so bent and stern,
And the glance that at times shot angry light,
Like a flash from the depth of a stormy night.
'Twas Saul of Tarsus, a fearful name,
And wed in the land with sword and flame;
And the faithful of Jesus trembled all
At the deeds that were wrought by the furious baul.
And Saul went on in his fiery zeal,
The thirst of his fury no blood could quell;
And he went to Damascus with words of doom,
To bury the faithful in a dungeon gloom.

We hear that Rev. W. R. Davis, of the Zion Baptist Church, Louisville, Ky., is lying quite ill. We are sorry.

The Lever says, "That" recently people returning from a St. John meeting in Taylorsville, Ill., were egged. The blood of the martyr is the seed of the church.

The Chautauquan for June begins a series of timely articles on "American Museums;" Clarence Cook is preparing them—a guarantee of their value. He begins his paper with the Boston Museum.

More trouble for England seems to be brewing in Zanzibar and Zululand. The Empress of all the Indies is, it seems, to bequeath His Royal Highness Albert Edward a legacy of difficulties in the near future.

"The SOUTHWESTERN is filling an important niche in Methodism, and is doing much to forward the branch of work for which it was intended. We hail it with great delight. God bless you."—A. B. Shedden.

Magnolia reaches spiders, ants, [illegible] what a question to follow the exposition, blood, gore and the Mexican band. We find the latter and have the former more abundantly.

"Dear Brother—Your name, as well as your excellent paper, ranks first here among the people up here. You are doing good. God bless you. I hope you may continue to do so.—H. S. Ferguson.

Mr. Editor—We are very much pleased with your paper. We learn more and more of ourselves every week, and my wife is always glad to receive and read the SOUTHWESTERN. May God bless your future, as he has blessed your past efforts, and much good will be done in our land.—H. S. Ferguson.

For the SOUTHWESTERN

The Elective Course of Study. —Is it Best?

J. J. HOLLAND, B. D.

An enterprise bearing upon its face the semblance of a departure from established custom, precedent or law, must naturally give rise to discussion, and is subjected to earnest, thoughtful consideration. This fact is as true as heaven, and as old as human society itself. Therefore, in considering the subject, we shall present our individual views derived from careful study thereupon. It is a conceded fact that the Methodist Episcopal Church aims in all its ramifications to broaden, and heighten and expand the ideas and minds of men. This is to be effected through her preachers and teachers. These preachers she must prepare for the work or else they can not in any measure perform that work. To meet this demand the courses of study laid down in the Discipline and in vogue throughout the church have been adopted, and to which many, yea rather all of the preachers hitherto have been compelled in a greater or less degree to comply. But the proposal now is to modify the course in order that it may be placed nearer the reach of some whom it is claimed cannot at present grasp the course. And concerning this we ask "Is it best?" We hold, in the first place, it will not facilitate the work of the Church in the South. Granting, for argument sake, that the demand of the Church in this region is far in excess of the supply; that of itself does not seem a legitimate reason why the supply should be rendered less vigorous in kind as this proposition would indicate. Suppose the law governing commodities should be so effected at a time when demand exceeded supply, that to meet said demand an inferior class of the necessaries should be foisted upon the communities, par excellence, would such a process be considered best or subserving the best ends of trade? We think not. While the field is whitening, and while the harvesters are comparatively few, yet it is evident that the better equipped the laborers the more satisfactory the labor. But ours is a progressive missionary Church. This we admit, and that very claim but enhances the necessity for the best equipped material possible in heart and head. We claim to be somewhat conversant with our people in the South, their nature, disposition and character, and find that, like other races, they advance on these lines in the same ratio as the leaders advance. Go into any community throughout this Southland and you will find the preachers the intellectual, moral and religious exemplars. And as he is so is the community. Now, if he, by reason of diligent application and study, can teach that community how much is he not capable of doing for God and the Church? The Methodist Episcopal Church, with her three hundred thousand members, is in the South to stay, and under the province of God vastly to increase, but the field is wide and the work enormous. Other religious denominations are likewise here to stay; hence the growth, the effectiveness, and the permanent character of the work must depend upon the devotion and ability of the ministers to defend her principles. The Board of Bishops have prescribed a course to their minds adequate to the preparation of the ministers for the work of preaching the Gospel under the auspices of the Church. Admitting all that is claimed in behalf of the young man entering the ministry in this section, it does not seem most advantageous thus to discriminate, no matter what the circumstances. Better for the Church, better for the Master's cause if we are compelled to spare some young men, and old ones, too, until such a time as they shall have in a measure, at least, prepared themselves for the work. Conducting them to the goal by a short cut will not help the work. While the Church does not require that every candidate for the ministry must possess the highest order of intellect, yet she has a right to demand that each must possess more or less intellectual training. The regular four years course as it now is covers an area with which every Methodist preacher should be conversant. More than that need not be acquired, less than that ought not be asked.

Secondly, To lower the standard is, to lower the intellectual standing of the minister, and consequently of the conference. Adopting an advanced course of study will not per se elevate the conference standing, but when men know much is required of them they will aspire to do much. And the sooner our conferences wake up to this the better for all concerned. True enough the present course in many of our conferences is not met by the applicants some of whom graduate therefrom. But would lowering the cause remedy this evil? We think not. In a few years a worse, a much worse state would exist. And the status of the ministry would be no better, but the men have not the opportunity though they may have the capacity is urged; capacity will not wait for opportunity but make it. If I have the power to accomplish an object and the will. I'll make a way. There is no better time to begin to scale the intellectual height than now, why squirm and wait for tomorrow. This pleading for leniency towards our young men seeking admission in our conference, though unselfish and noble tingers nevertheless with the "help me Cassius or I sink." If we have not the scholastic training of the older conference, let us master the course, as thoroughly, as capacity will furnish and naught else can be required. Other conferences are working up to the standard and why not us? Why place upon our own brows the insignia of incapacity and miscall it want of opportunity.

Again, suppose we should adopt the "elective course" and carry it into effect, what then? The course in any one of our Southern conferences being thus modified, a young man enters and pursues the studies of said course. But before he graduates from it he desires for just reasons to transfer to some other conference, for example Lexington, Washington, New Jersey or New England conference, where this course is not in vogue. Can it not be readily seen in what a delemma all concerned will find themselves? It seems to us very evident that a conference not using this course would be at a loss how to classify such a one. And more, after a man shall have graduated from the elective course is he the peer of him who has graduated from the regular course? It does not impress us so. Take the institutions of learning and we find in them diff rent courses, and in many an "elective course," if you please; but in awarding diplomas a marked distinction is observed, and the graduate is awarded according to the ground he has covered; the regular classical gradnate only receiving the Bachelor of Arts degree. There it works smoothly, but in our conference there would be much friction. A careful analysis of the regular course will show us that to adopt the other would be retrogression rather than progress.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Notes from Nashville.

BY J BRADEN.

Lawrenceburg is a dilapidated appearing town, the capital of Lawrence county, Tenn. The court house is about as forsaken, friendless, rickety edifice as one rarely sees. Near to this building stands a monument erected to the memory of the brave Tennesseeans who fell in the Mexican war. This consists of a plain shaft of Tennessee marble, about 25 feet high, on a terraced pedestal of masonry. The masonary is falling to pieces, and presents the same condition of neglect as the other surroundings. There are some attractions in this village in the shape of neat cottages, beautiful gardens, pleasant landscape views, and no doubt it is a pleasant home for the good people who live there, but I prefer a town, with less of the tumble down appearance about it. The Methodist Church South was damaged by the wind and fell down. The Presbyterians have a fair church which is used by them and the Southern Methodists. The Roman Catholics have a good church and large congregations, mostly Germans. Our white congregation has no place to meet, and we have no services. This is a place where many Northern people are seeking homes, and no doubt Methodists among them. Our colored people have a church here, and like the town it is in a dilapidated condition. The floor is open, sills are sprung, the pillars under them are tottering, the sash are loose in the frames, and many of the lights are out. Some of the brethren had put on a coat of paint on the inside which shows that they are not wholly forgetful o their place of worship. This church is beautifully situated on rising ground, but to get to it from the town directly with a horse or wagon, is impossible. The rains have washed out several deep gullies, so that some of them are crossed by planks or logs, rendering it inconvenient, if not dangerous to go to church when it is dark. The brethren promised to fix up by the time the winter visits them again. Let all the people say amen. Let all the colored people see to it that their church buildings are cared for. Keep them clean; keep them in repair; and in building new churches, see that they are situated so as to be convenient for the people who are expected to worship in them. Bro. Price, the live presiding elder of the West Tennessee District, was holding his quarterly meeting and a Sunday-school institute at Lawrenceburg, June 6 7. There was a fair attendance of the preachers, who discussed Sunday-school matters to the interest and profit of the congregations who filled the church. I spoke, on education, to a crowded house Saturday night, about one-third being whites, who seem to be deeply interested in the progress of the colored people. On Sunday morning an interesting Sunday-school was conducted by Bro. E. M. Manson. It fell to my lot to preach at eleven o'clock; after the sermon Bro. Price invited seekers of religion, fourteen came forward for prayers, and the meeting continued without interruption, till 3 o'clock when Bro. Manson preached and the sacrament of the Lord's supper was administered. At night Bro. Collier preached and again the altar was crowded with penitents, one was converted. The meeting was continued and on Monday night four converts, Tuesday night seven, and twelve joined the church. The whole church is revived, and with fresh courage the brethren take up the work of gathering in souls and pushing forward the work of the church.

Nashville, Tenn., June 12, 1885.

For the Southwestern.

Round About Rosedale.

MRS. GEO. W. WELLS.

On the 21st of February we found ourselves at the Rosedale crossing, where the Texas & Pacific Railroad crosses the old Louisiana Central Railroad, about three-fourths of a mile from the village. After creeping over a dangerous tiling at a snail's gait, and slipping from side to side on the L. C. R. R., we wended our way to the beautiful Bayou Gross Tete. Here the railroad crosses the stream, but for the present there is no track on the bridge, it having been removed until the high water went down. The east side of the bayou is called the over flowed district, from the fact that every spring since 1874 there is a general inundation of water from the Mississippi river. Were it not for these annual overflows there could be found no spot in Louisiana better adapted to agriculture. Lands that were thoroughly tilled about twenty years ago are to day grown up into dismal swamps. Many a farm that was once the pride of its owner is now but a thing of the past. Numerous mansions, sugar-houses and cabins that cost their thousands, yes tens of thousands, are now festooned with spider-webs, over grown with moss, and are the resorts of bats and the beasts of the forest. We write faster than we travel. Let us get across the bayou to the east bank. Here we were met with a very cordial reception by Bro. Wm. Page, who is proprietor of the only boarding house in the village. The dwelling is built upon pillars four feet high, but notwithstanding this lofty elevation the water finds its occupants even there. This spacious cottage is pure white, with green windows, in front of it is a very large rose bush called the "Seven Sisters," and at a convenient distance in the front and side yards are three of the prettiest weeping willows that one could wish to see. Do away with these overflows and the Page home would be the prettiest place in the village. Bro. Page, who is also a trustee of our church, is the owner of a farm of 12 acres on the L. C. R. R., at a place called Centreville, about a mile and three fourths west of Rosedale. The school board has just completed a beautiful school-house here, which will have a seating capacity of about 150 scholars. This parish has more commodious school houses than any other in the State, excepting Orleans. They propose to build one every year in one of the wards. Long may this school board continue in power. Mr. Charles H. Slack is the popular and thrifty grocer. He is enjoying a measure of success, and has the confidence of the people. Mr. Slack is a warm friend of our church, and the work it is doing. Mount Zion Methodist Episcopal Church has a membership of 105 persons, and a large per cent. of this number are men, which is not often the case in country churches, and in intelligence and manner of worship it can compare with some of the city churches. The protracted effort has just closed with 13 converts, who immediately united with the church. Connected with the church is a large Sunday-school, and several of the scholars are members of the church. There are two Baptist churches, a M. E. Church South, Dr. Dorsey Reid pastor, and an Episcopal church, but it is without a rector. Happily there are no idlers in Rosedale. There is something for every one to do, and everybody finds something to keep them employed. Were there any drones here the working bees would sting them out of the hive. Religion makes a man have pride, it makes him industrious; at any rate it holds good in this place, for nine-tenths of the property-holders are members of either the Baptist or Methodist Episcopal Church. These are the solid men who hold property and manage their own affairs: John Gidery, two town lots; James Ivery, the happy possessor of a 30 acre farm; Worth Lowe Alexander, 12 acres; Isaac Jackson, 12 acres; Henry Jones, 10 acres; Wm. Baker, 10 acres; Marshall Johnson, 10 acres; James Daniels, 4 lots; Ab. Grosse, 4 lots; Riley Williams, 24 acres; H. Brooks, Sr., a farm of 40 acres and two town lots; H. Brooks, Jr., 2 town lots; Strother Carr, 1 lot; Newman Garner, a fine grocery. This goes to show that Rosedale has a grand future.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Notes From St Mary's, Ga.

REV. J. W. FISHER.

MR. EDITOR—Allow me to speak through your valuable paper to the public. St. Marys is a little seaport town, situated on the St. Mary river, which divides Florida and Georgia, and is the healthiest seaport town in this State; it has a population of about 800 inhabitants, and part of these are colored, and in good standing. Among their beautiful homes there are three colored churches in this town—the A. M. E, the Baptist and Methodist Episcopal Church, The M. E. Church is the leading one in the town. A little more work will finish our church house, and then it will be second to none in the Savannah district. We have this year had 7 conversions and 2 backsliders reclaimed. We are alive spiritually. We have at this point a live Sabbath-school, with Mrs. M. A. Harris, an active member of our church, at the head of the army; she is one deserving of much honor for her labors among our children and church. So you see that we are much encouraged in this grand Methodist work. Your paper is of much comfort; it comes to my home every week, and I am delighted in reading it and will pay all I owe it. The Spring is beautiful, the earth is getting warm, the seed are coming forth, and our gardens are looking lovely.

From the Districts.

...reesboro District—Tennessee Conference.

REV. C. H. BULLINGTON, P. E.

I have closed my first round with ...ch joy. At Lebanon Rev. L. M. ...ygood, the pastor, was received ... his congregation cordially; the ...rter was closed with good re...lts.

North Lebanon circuit, B. Ander..., pastor—This work is doing ...ll, the interests are being looked ...er by Bro. Anderson, as it is his ...nner to do on his work.

Alexandria circuit, B. Manson, pas...—This is a promising work; two ...urches are in progress, the mem...rship is fully Methodist and ...uch good can be done here.

...Cana Fork and Carthage, B. F. ...ittley, pastor—I met the Board ...d good reports were read by Bro. ...ittley and others. This is a ... country, a new railroad is an...ipated, which will add to our ...ork here.

Martin Creek, O. Green pas...—This work is in a good con... Father Green is one of the ...eers of this country, has worked ... preached long and done much ... the Master, but has some ...le in traveling the work in ... on account of the rains and ...h water.

Liberty, P. R. Woodson, pastor ...Everything shows fair with the ...esent condition; have only one ...h on this work but a good ...regation and wide awake pas...

...ville, J. C. Wade, pastor—...Wade is moving things ahead ... and will do much good.

...parta, S. Knight, pastor—They ...ve gone in to the work of build... here; the people return many ...ks to Father Seay for the $50 ... gave for this church, though ... the hands of my predeces...r we would be glad to have ... as we are pressed for money.

...nnville, J. H. Green, pas... he has never entered his ..., being supplied by a local ..., J. H. Coppage.

...nnville station—W. C. Mil... appointed here, but could ...ceed and I supplied the ... with A. Martin, a local ...cher.

...llahoma, J. Kenser, pastor—...work is not doing much.

...chester—G. W. House, pas... was sent but remained there ... two weeks and left. I sup... the work with F. Allen, a ...deacon,

...byville station—J. B. Mar..., pastor—This work is in a ...ing state both spiritually and ...erially.

...tersburg, F. Yeargin—This ... getting along very well.

...nce and Eaglesville, T. Wood, ...—Bro. Wood is a worker in ... for the Lord.

...sboro, H. W. Simmons, ...—He will make a success ...r.

...sboro station, C. L. Sew...—I met a full board ... many reports were read. ... to a crowded house, and ... me at the altar.

... River, W. Lillard, pastor—...k is in good condition.

..., D. James, pastor—... is not very good, but ... is a good worker, al... his strength is failing very ... much good can be done here.

... District—Central ... Conference.

REV. A. S. LAKIN, P. E.

... district conference of the ... District convened at ..., Alabama, April 16, 1885, ... Lakin, presiding elder, ... The opening exercises ... by Elder Lakin, ... and singing hymn ... followed by ... The secre... conference called ... a member of the breth... to their names.

... of A. Nichols M. M. ... was elected secretary, ... of A. W. McKinney ... committees were ap... A Committee ... candidates for license to preach; on Home Mission work; Temperance; on the State of the Church; on Sanctity of the Sabbath, and on Sabbath-schools.

The conference was very well attended for the time of the year; about 40 brethren were present; all the pastors were present but two. The morning session adjourned at 12 m., and the evening was given to the meeting of committees.

The second day was given to the hearing of reports. The reports of the presiding elder and pastors shows the work to be in advance of a year ago. The Stevenson work is in bad condition, but the reports of the presiding elder shows some improvements made since conference. Guntersville is reported in bad condition, though the pastor, Rev. J. C. Sammons, has been hard at work. Cedar Grove, B. J. Leigh in charge; the presiding elder reports not much done and the house in bad condition. Triana, A. Nichols in charge, reports his work in good condition ann moving onward. Madison, E. D. Burns is hard at work, has a good Sabbath-school, and is making headway among the yonng people. Oakland, F. Withers reports his work making some progress. Athens, Robt. Carter reports some improvements made and the work promising for the future. Decatur, J. J. Holland in charge, has had some trouble in the past, but under J. J. Holland, the new pastor, there is hope of great success. At Courtland the church is a mile or two from town. N. Shackleford, the pastor, is trying to buy a lot in town on which to build. The reports show that the work is not doing much at present. Huntsville, A. W. McKinney, pastor; the reports of the presiding elder and pastor show the work to be in good condition. Huntsville is the leading church on the district, and will soon have complete the best brick building in the Central Alabama Conference. Scottsboro, M. M. McKinney pastor, reports Scottsboro in good condition; with the help of $100 from the Church Extension Society the house has been rebuilt and we have now a good house of worship.

Third Day—Literary exercises were taken up, and we had one or two very interesting essays read, one by A. W. McKinney on preaching, and another by J. J. Holland on Church Extension. The literary exercises seem to be a new feature on this district, and therefore only a few of the brethren were prepared. The services on Sabbath were very interesting. Several of the brethren lectured the Sabbath-school in the morning. At 11 a. m. the presiding elder preached; at 3 p. m. we had a sermon by Rev. A. W. McKinney that will be long remembered by the people at Decatur, followed by the Sacrament of the Lord's supper, and at night Bro. J. C. Sammons, of Gainesville, preached for us. The reports show some improvement above a year ago, and I hope by the next annual conference the Huntsville District will be able to redeem itself, and not again be placed the last on the list. This conference is now nine years old, and I furnish you figures below showing the membership of the Huntsville district; we have 13 pastoral charges, with from two to four appointments each. Now you can see, brethren, that at some time or other, and at some place or another, and by somebody, we have had some very bad administration. We have pastoral charges, 13; pastors, 13; local preachers, 52; exhorters, 22; full members, 812; probationers, 42; Sabbath-schools, 17; scholars, 673. The minutes of the last Annual Conference only show members, 647; probationers, 40. Brethren, is there not room for improvement?

Van Buren District.

REV. W. R. B. DUNCAN, P. E.

Van Buren District, of the Little Rock Conference.—Fayetteville: Rev. A. J. Phillips has charge and is doing a grand work. The quarterly conference passed off nicely. The pastor's salary was fixed at $400. On Sunday I preached to a large crowd, and a goodly number partook of the sacrament. On this charge our meeting was quite interesting; we had eleven conversions and a good many accessions.

Fayetteville circuit, Rev. D. Gamble, pastor, a student of Wiley University. I found him at work. God was blessing him; one conversion. Our quarterly conference was very well atteded by members and visitors. On Sunday, at 3 p. m., I preached to a fine congregation, and administered the Lord's supper to them. The pastor's salary was fixed at $300. On receiving no letter from the pastor for Fort Smith I had to remove Rev. D. Gamble to Fort Smith, but supplied the work with Rev. H. Moore, local preacher.

Russellville, Rev. Henry McDaniel, pastor—He only came to this place a few days before I came. This charge was a supply, and this brother not being at the conference he failed to know where to go until receiving a notice from me. Bro. McDaniel is trying to move up things. I am praying for him to succeed. We made no assessment because no one was present but ourselves. It is hoped that our second quarter will be a grand success. This is surrounded by a fine farming country.

Morrillton circuit, April 11-12—I arrived in time to meet the pastor with conveyance, and very soon we were off for an eight mile ride out in the country. Here we found the menbers ready and waiting for the first quarterly conference. At 3 p. m. conference was called and a large number of members were present. Church and Sunday school were in fine condition; more than fifty members had been found and organized into classes; this was quite hopeful for success on this district. U. S. Kitchens, pastor in charge. Conway circuit. Here I found our people in good spirits. This place was left at conference to be supplied, and I at once applied to Rev. Allen Akridge, local deacon, and very soon he accepted the appointment. He is an old man comparatively, but looks well to our church interests. As soon as this brother can get help this circuit will be heard from. They promised to pay the pastor $75.50 and board him; he accepted assessment, and said, "Brethren, as soon as the coons leave your corn fields I am coming in, and will ask every man to help me." God bless him in this hard field. Collection $5. Batesville, April 25 26—On my arrival I found the pastor waiting for me; also dinner was soon prepared by Sister Taylor, and we soon sat in his nice little church. I found things in a prosperous condition, members loving and helping their pastor. On Sunday morning a love feast was held, and a blessed time ensued. God was with us in his mighty power. At 3 a. m. I preached to a crowded house, and also preached at night, and administered the sacrament to 49 persons. On Monday night we held the quarterly conference, and all or a majority were present. Estimated the pastor's salary at $366, and the stewards are carrying out our plan of Discipline for raising the pastor's supplies. A resolution was passed that each member pay $1 for church and parsonage property, and that they begin at once and lay plans to build a new house of worship. The brethren responded promptly. I am now looking after a nice house of worship owned by the white members of this place but now going to waste as no one is caring for it. Bro. Taylor is pastor, and is pushing things.

At Jacksonport and Newport Rev. W. H. Higgins is pastor. He was carrying on a revival and teaching school also, and God was blessing the meeting; 6 conversions and 25 accessions. The conference was held at Newport. Our church there is not finished, and this, of course makes it a little difficult to hold the people. This will soon be the future town of Jacksonport for our business men are moving to the new town. Our church can lead if the plan is soon laid. Bro. H. is doing good work at Jacksonport. God bless him.

Dear Brethren, as you will see in connection with the list of appointments of the Van Buren District, second round, the location of our district conference and appointments also, you will be requested to attend. There will be some matters to be attended to, and the presiding elder and pastor cannot attend to it alone. So, brethren, heretofore we have not been caring for our district conference, but hereafter you will have to attend in order to succeed. Young preachers must attend to have their licenses renewed and characters passed; district stewards must attend to see after their duties. What you have to do must be done else you have not attended to your Master's business. District class leaders must be in attendance for the same reason; district Sunday-school superintendents the same, and traveling preachers cannot but attend for the same reason. They ask each member to attend the church services; if they fail some one is very soon after them for neglect of the means of grace. Now, brethren, if you want your words to have power, you must go before your flock attending to your whole ~~duty~~, not in part, but all of your Christian tian duties. Christian ministers, you can never do this with prayer and faith but that a blessing will follow, and they of your society will be greatly strengthened. We will try and purchase reduced rates on the lines of railroads running to this place during conference.

Letters from the Pastors.

Rev. J. L. Perine writes from Lloyd Street charge, Louisville, Ky.: "We held our first quarterly meeting on the 13th and 14th of April, 1885. Bev. W. W. Locke was present and rendered good service; one was received on probation, and this was the third white person that we have received into our church within the last two months; 91 communed. We are moving on nicely, and our Sunday-school in in a prosperous condition. We have one new subscriber for the SOUTHWESTERN, and will send in more soon."

Rev. J. L. Pratt writes from Starkville, Miss.: "We have just closed one of the greatest revivals ever witnessed; we carried it on nearly three weeks, and at nearly every meeting some one would say they had made peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. We had three conversions the night we closed. Fifty souls were converted to Christ, forty-four of whom joined our church; and we baptized thirty-three on last Monday night. Revs. L. F. White, D. W. Calvert, and B. J. Griffin gave us three sermons each, which were great help to the pastor, and we thank them for their help."

Rev. E. M. Manson writes from Brownsville, Tenn.: "I visited S. B. Danley's work and held his quarter for the presiding elder, and found him hard at work for the church and people. He has a nice little school here and the children are getting on fine in their studies; they seem to think a great deal of their teacher and pastor. I gave them a lecture on the subject of how to study their books, heard all their lessons and questioned them on the same. The church is getting on quite well, and has a bright future before it. The debts are somewhat in the way, but I think Bro. Danley, with his corps of working sisters can soon report out of debt. My visit to this place resulted in the conversion of three souls, and since that time they have had 26. Leaving Martins on Thursday night, getting home just before day and looking after home matters a little, on Saturday I started for Foulks station to visit Rev. A. Porter's work, and after driving 40 miles I reached the desired end. Here I met this smiling pastor, his loving wife and dear little children, all glad to see me. After resting awhile we made for the church to hold the quarterly conference, and I must say to the credit of the young pastor and members, things were in good shape. All the committees had written reports; the local preacher had a splendid report. We had a love feast on Sunday long to be remembered. There is a good chance for our church in this neighborhood, for I never met kinder people. On Monday night I preached to J. A. W. Moores' people and gave them words of cheer. Bro. Moores is a little man and a big man, too—little in size, but large in work and intellect."

Rev. W. H. Brown writes from Flushing, Ohio: "I have been on my work and am pleased, and the people are pleased with the appointment, but I hardly know how to go about my work. O, how I miss my dear companion. She had been with me on all of my charges, a helper and a counsellor, and oh, how much I need her help and advice. But she has gone from labor to reward. The past 18 or 20 months to me have been months of much sorrow, for I have passed through the furnace of affliction, "but out of all the Lord has brought me by his love." I believe he designs my distress to consume the gold and refine it. On December 26th death came and stole away our dear little Rebecca, aged two years and five months, the light and hope of the house, and joy of the family. We thonght that we would not be able to bear up under this great bereavement, but His grace proved sufficient. On December 6th death made another visit to us and my sister crossed the dark river—no, thank God, it was not a dark river to her, for the blessed Jesus was with her. The loss of my loving sister, it seemed would break my aching, wounded heart. Then I longed to be out of the body and to be with the Lord. How great and gracious is the Lord! When our loved ones are stepping in the Jordan of death He inspires them to comfort the weeping ones. She asked us all to meet her in heaven, saying, "Weep not, all is well—meet again in a better land." I find myself being more and more weaned from earth. From the grave of my sister, strengthened by her words, yet bowed down with sorrow, I went to my field of labor again, and the Lord was with me. Then came the flood of 1884, and the hard, pressing times which followed. The way sometimes looks dark. My wife used to say, like Moses of old, "Stand firm and see the salvation of the Lord." "William, yon must trust the Lord; do your duty and he will be with you always, even to the end." Her soul was ripe for flying; she was on the border land of heaven eating the fruit that is given to the faithful. On the first day of this year (1885) she was called up higher to enjoy that rest which remains for the people of God. Truly my loss is her gain, but oh how great is that loss to me and my two children! The last thing she asked me to do for her was to sing the hymn, "I would not live always, I ask not to stay where storm after storm rises dark o'er the way." She then turned to me and said, "Go on preaching the Gospel, be sure and meet me in heaven. She also requested me to bring the children up right. Yes, bless the Lord, I'll meet her in heaven. I have always thought that heaven was a very glorious place, but now that so many of my dear ones are there there are new beauties in heaven for me. Yes, there are beauties to me that the eye of my imagination never saw before. O, sweet heaven, how I long to be there. On Sunday, the 12th inst., Mrs. Carter, my wife's mother, passed through the valley of death, I hope to join her sainted daughter in the glory land. One by one they crossed the river, and it will not be long before I too shall join them. O bless the Lord, out of the sting has come forth sweet to me, out of the bitter I have found meat for my soul; out of this affliction and sore peace has come to my heart and a heavenly joy. Yes, by the great consumer of the human family death has taken away my loved ones, my soul is weaned from earth and my soul is far on its heavenly way. I wish to say that in all my affliction my brethren, as far as they know of it, have wiped the tears from my eyes by their Christian kindness. They helped me with kind words and money. Revs. J. A. Ross, C. J. Nichols, J. W. Moreland, W. S. Rollins, G. F. Carr, A. McDade, J. H. Payne, H. W. Tate, S. Woods and our beloved presiding elder, J. Courtney, who proved to me that he is interested in the welfare of all his men."

Rev. J. R. Carnes writes from Goliad, Texas: "Here in this section of the State our people live from 6 to 8 miles from the church, but, yet they come. Our church on Sunday afternoons, is generally filled with anxious hearers; on Sunday evenings our congregations are not very large, from the fact, our people live quite a distance in the country, therefore they cannot remain over for evening services. Our people here seem to be a willing sort of people, but, there is much complaint of the hardness of times, etc. Money seems to be a scarce article among them; our collections are small, quite insufficient to support the pastor. But he is making out to live. There is one thing I would like to note concerning this people. They are very kind to me and seem to try to do all that they can to make me comfortable. They say, they love their pastor and will do what they can to support him. Our Sunday-school is moving on grandly. Mr. J. B. Whitby is our secretary, and Bro. B. Lott is Superintendent, and Miss E. M. Johnson is organist. Our people here hold their class meetings on Sunday afternoons, this seems to be the rule heretofore that has been observed by my predecesors. I think it is undisciplinary, though, done to reach the conveniencts of the people. I think our ministers are understanding the discipline more and more every year. I am in good spirits, and in love with all mankind. I must say while I cannot boast of many conversions as some of my brethren seem able to do, yet, we can say the Lord is blessing us both spiritually and temporally. We had a good occasion to visit Corpus Christi 4 or 6 weeks ago; where we have a little praying band of believers. On my arrival I found 14 souls though left without a pastor last year, and also this, but they would not join any other church; they sought shelter under the watchcare of the Congregational Church here. While under the watch care of said church they contributed to the support of its pastor, as much so as the real members did. Bro. Strong is an able preacher, and a kind Christian gentleman. Bro. Strong made us welcome to his pulpit, while we were making our stay in his city. We met the members on Saturday night as our time was precious, so as to ascertain who were members and who were not, who it was that wanted to be baptized. We found 3 persons to be baptized, they were baptized on Sunday at 5 o'clock P. M. At our evening service we received 6 into the church, 3 into full connection, and 3 on probation. We lectured Monday evening, giving a synopsis of the work done by the M. E. Church in the Southern States etc. This lecture caused those who had formerly been heard to speak in slanderous terms, with reference to our church and its work among the masses, to lay their hands upon their mouths and say no more against her at all. Our people had been told here that the M. E. Church cared nothing for them whatever. In reply to this, I said the M. E. Church had not forsaken her members in Corpus Christi; she had spent several hundred dollars of Missionary money to help the cause here but without any seeming good results. And furthermore, said the writer, it has been said that you would not help support the pastors sent you, they come to our Annual Conference almost in rags and seldom with any Missionary money. So the Conference thought it best to wait until you wanted or showed yourselves appreciators of the aid given you from time to time. This was arousing, at least it aronsed them. Their answer to me was: we have here an intelligent people, also the other churches have intelligent ministers, and, if our ministers cannot cope with the average ministry of the other churches of the city we may as well not have any, for the people will not come to hear them preach. Give us somebody who we are not ashamed of and we will snpport them or do what we can towards doing so. It is a fact, the other churches have good intelligent ministers except the Free Mission Baptist which has no pastor as yet. The writer labored four evenings with this little band and received as compensation for services rendered $30.25. And we have also taken a sub scription of $154.85, to bnild a church, which we hope to commence about September 1st, that is if we can procure any aid to help us in building. On Thnrsday we started for Goliad, our home, came to the Nences, fonnd the ferry boat washed away. We waited np nntil 3 P. M., in the afternoon before we could cross the river. After crossing, we drove a distance of 29 miles to a little town called Papalote where we lodged for the night. The next day we resnmed our march; coming to the Papalote creek, we found it swollen so from the recent rains that we conld not cross. So we remained here until Monday, the Papalote being only a distance of forty miles, we drove from there to Goliad, in one day. The writer would have you remember that the claims of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE were urged in the strongest sense of the word. Our people in Corpus Christi seem willing to take the paper and pay for it too. My people in Goliad love the paper and its able editor. At Centreville, my other preaching point, we have a praying band of Christians. At this point also we hope to build a church this fall. As I have said in the above, money is scarce among our people, bnt we are strnggling to do all we can for the Master. I will here ask one thing of the Editor of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE. Will you please make in the obituary of my wife the following correction: wherein it was stated that the Rev. M. Henson was pastor in charge at Lockhart in 1879. When my wife was converted Bro. Henson was not pastor, the writer himself was pastor at Lockhart in 1879.

Rev. C. Miller, of Tuskaloosa, Ala., writes: "We are building two churches, on my charge. We have received five members in the church, and have a lively Sunday-school. The weather has detained us some, but we are doing all we can for the cause of Christ."

Rev. F. Ross, of Greenup, Ky., writes: "My last Quarterly Meeting convened on the last day of February, and continued two days. We had a good time, 73 partaking of the Lord's Supper. Brother Snider was with us, and preached at 11 o'clock a.m., and 3 o'clock p. m.

Rev. J. L. Perrine, writes from Louisville, Ky., Lloyd Street Chapel: "Our work is still prospering; our first quarterly meeting was held on the second Sunday in April, it being the first Sunday after the closing of our conference. We had a glorious time; the Rev. W. W. Lock, our presiding elder, was with us and preached for us two grand sermons. As usual the elder seems to be encouraged, and is moving on nicely in his work; 91 communed, two persons have been received, both white; our Sunday-school is growing, we feel that we have not reached the place of rest yet, therefore we are toiling up the narrow way. Our class, formed for religious instruction, meets every second and fourth Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. We are taken the Western and the SOUTHWESTERN, and they both are good papers."

Letters From the Laity.

Notes from Sixth Street M. E. Church.

Emannel Harr is, clerk, writes: "The spiritnal and financial condition of the Church is on a steady increase. At the end of the first quarter held three weeks after onr new pastor, Bro. Ernest Lyon took charge the stewards and trustees reports showed that $225 had been collected. The pastor's report showed that 3 back sliders had been reclaimed. We have entered on the second, qnarter full of hope and animation. Our church building is dilapidated, and demands immediate repairs. Every effort is being directed toward this end, and already success is crowning onr labors. At a concert given by the choir on Friday last we realised $75. On the 4th Sunday of last month $36 was raised by sub scription making our collection on building $110. The young men have promised a social for the pnrpose of raising money to renew the front of the church. A band of sisters has already taken in hand the pulpit furniture. Thns we move on by degrees. Our pastor is efficient and well calculated to lead us on to victory. Our Sunday-school is increasing rapidly. The pastor has inaugnrated a new system which is working excellently. We need $700 by the 1st of June to carry on our work. A man cannot invest his money in any better way than by lending it to the Lord. The interest is snre; and this is our voucher, "that our God will repay you out of the abundance of His riches in glory." Should any of the friends into whose hands this should fall, feel like investing this way just address us at Sixth Street M. E. Church, New Orleans. We take this opportunity to thank the following ladies who worked so faithfully in the concert. Mrs. Abbie Lyon, Mrs. Amelia and Susan Wilson, Miss Emma Fisher, Miss Fannie Elliotte, Miss Ophelia Benjamin, Miss Mary Williams, Miss Maggie Gallagher, Miss Thornton, Miss Brown. Committee on refreshments, Mrs. Emma Washington, Amanda Foucha, and Cora Williams; managers, Hiram Wilson, Hall Williams, Adolph Mitchchel, Charlie Willie Bernard.

Mrs. S. V. Payton, of Texarkana, Texas, writes: "We are living about five miles from Texarkana; and our pleasure is so great that we scarcely ever visit Texarkana. I went there on the fourth Sunday to hear Bishop Mallalieu preach, and the Rev. Gillet, the Sunday school agent, lecture. I heard the Bishop preach; bnt the Sunday-school agent did not get here. I am trying to get an education, and striving for that better land. My husband is a worthy man; as is the deacon. I am trying to give my two little boys an education; and I also keep them in Sunday-school. On the 19th of Jnne, we are going to celebrate the 20th anniversary, and expect to have a nice time. We are making a grand improvement, at Hamilton Chapel; and we are raising stock and having a large turn out of our neighborhood.

Mr. W. H. Allen, of Calvert Texas, writes: "Our pastor (Smith) although the times are hard, has been able to raise money enough to start a parsonage. We are only sorry that our other pastors did not attend to it. The Rev. J. H. Whitaker built a fine weather-boarded church and partly seated it, and a parsonage was the next thing needed. A part of the work was lead by a bad-spirited minister who did not wish to receive Smith when he came, but Bro. Smith would have nothing to say to the gentleman until the second quarterly conference. We had a grand time. Rev. B. M. Taylor makes an excellent presiding elder. We would like to have him come again."

Captain A. West writes: "The colored people of Burleson connty, Texas, are doing well as far as I went. Mrs. Bell Taylor is doing more for onr race than any other widow lady in this connty. She is he wealthiest widow in the State of Texas. I next stopped at Mr. Daniel Dabemners, jr. He has a nice place fonr miles sontheast of Dogtown, out on a fine prairie. He also has a fine farm on the Brazos bottom. The next among the wealthiest is Mr. Hoskins. He has a fine steam gin and mill; his farm is in the bottom. On my return I came back by Dogtown, where I met Mr. Jack Oldranm running a nice little market, the only beef market in the town. As to the colored population there is no county in Texas tnat can compete with Burleson."

"Delays are Dangerous."

If yon are pale amaciated, have a hacking congh, with night-sweats, spitting of blood and shortness of breath, you have no time to lose. Do not hesitate too long—'till you are past cure; for, taken in its early stages, consumption can be cured by the nes of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," as thonsands can testify. By Druggists.

Church Extension.

The Church Extension Committee at its last meeting in Philadelphia disproved of the application of St. Paul's Church, Toledo, Ohio, by the passage of the following resolntion:

Resolved that having granted special exception to the Church for a number of years, and having declared last year that thereafter further exception conld not be granted, we feel constrained to decline the request.

The question of appointing an assistant secretary was considered, and the following resolntion was adopted.

Resolved 1. Thut we deem it inexpedient at this time to reqnest the bishop to nomitate an assistant corresponding secretary.

Resolved 2. That the general committee hereby anthorize the corresponding secretary to procure, with the concurrence of the Board of Church Extension, whatever temporary aid he may need in the performance of his official duties.

The appropriations to the varions conferences, and for the Contingent Fund, office expenses and redemption of bonds is $159,450.

For Diarrhea, Dysentery, Inflammatio Of the Bowels.

Take internally from five to ten drops of Darbys Prophylactic Fluid in a tablespoonful of water every hour or two till improvement takes place, There is no danger in taking more of it and more frequently if occasion requires. In chronic cases, or when the stomach refuses to retain anything, nse injeotione of the Fluid and water. We have never known a case that did not readily yield to such treatment and it saved the lives of many.

The annnal report of the United Brethren has been sent us. It shows that they are making a vigorous endeavor to do their share of taking this world for Christ. They have much likeness to onr own in their process of doing the Lord's work.

The Louisiana State Normal School at Natchitoches, has claims of a high order upon the liberality of our citizens. It is set ont to do a much needed work. Its circular for 1885 6 is before ns.

"Woman and Her Diseases" is the title of an interesting illustrated treatise (160 pages) sent, post-paid, for 10 cents in stamps. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

If any one of our snbscribers desires to obtain a copy free, of one of the most attractive of the magazines for children and yonng people, simply send a postal card of D. Lothrop & Co, Boston, Mass., with the following request: Please send me a copy of The Pansy mentioned in the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE. Be sure to give your full name and address.

On Temperance Principle.

Rev. S. P. Lewis pastor of the Eighth Street Baptist Church, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "Parkers Tonic completely onred me of nervens exhaustion and general debility. I never met with anything so effective. It acts on strictly temperance principles. I take it with me on my vacations. Cures the liqnor habit.

It has saved from lingering disease & death hundreds who have been given up by physicians to die.

It cures all diseases of the kidneys, bladder, urinary organs, dropsy, gravel diabetes and incontinence and retention of Urine.

It encourages sleep, creates an appetite, braces up the system, and renewed health is the result.

It cures Pain in the Side, Back or Loins, General Debility, Female Complaints, Disturbed Sleep, Loss of Appetite, and Bright's Disease.

SOLID PROOF

"God loveth a cheerful giver."

Railroad Men.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., Apsil 11, 1883.

"I am satisfied from personal experience and care that HUNT'S Kidney and Liver REMEDY will do just what is claimed for it."—Albert Holt, Paymaster, B. & A. R.R.

"Be just in all thy actions."

The Druggists a Unit.

WORCESTER, MASS., 11, 1883.

"My druggist, Mr. D. B. William handed me the best kidney medicine he knew of. It was HUNT'S Kidney and Liver REMEDY, and acted effectnally in my case. Am pleased to recommend it."—C. H. Draper, 223 Main St.

"To destroy an enemy make him yonr friend."

Marine Engineers.

CLEVELAND, O., Jnne 23, 1883.

"I was troubled with weakness of the kidneys. Did not know the tronble bnt constantly grew worse. Urination was painful and accompanied with blood. Noticing an advertisement of HUNT'S Kidney and Liver REMEDY I procured a bottle. I began immediately to improve in many ways. The second bottle left me without pains. My appetite is now good and I feel renewed vigor, thanks to HUNT'S Kidney and Liver REMEDY."—William Janes, Marine Engineer, 252 Hanover Street.

$1.25 at Druggists.

Send for Illustrated Pamphlet to HUNT'S REMEDY CO., Providence, R. I.

C. N. CRITTENTON, General Agent, New York.

Publisher's Agents.

In order to facilitate the transaction of business with our customers we have arranged with Edward Alden & Bro., Fifth and Vine streets, Cincinnati, O., and 140 Nassau street, New York, making them our Special Publisher's Agents, and giving them charge of the foregin advertising patronage of onr paper. All communications in relation to this department should be addressed to them. tf

apr23-4teow

GEORGE LANDRY,

Undertaker.

392.....Rampart Street.....392

(Between Hospital and Barracks streets)

NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Entrepreneur de Pompes Funebres.

All orders promptly and carefully executeda moderate prices.

sept25-tf A. LABAT, Ass't Manager.

For the Cheapest and Choicest

Family & Fancy Groceries,

SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE

Hams, Bacon, &c., &c.,

—GO TO—

N. E. Sullivan's

GROCERY

Corner of

Washington and Hampson Streets

CARROLLTON, LA.

nov22-1y

GRATEFUL PRAISE!

A NEW S. S. BOOK. By J. H. Fillmore.

Pure in sentiment, rich in music. Sample copy, in boards, 25 cents; per dozen by express, $3.60; per dozen by mail, $4. Specimen pages free.

FILLMORE BROS.

No. 185 Race street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

OLD ONE HUNDRED.

MRS. TENA BURTON,

100.....Franklin Street.....100

Lodging,

With or Without Board.

mar26-6m

Plantation Melodies

—AND—

REVIVAL HYMNS.

By MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D.

WITH AN INTRODUCTION

By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.

Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.

Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and portrait. Sent, post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents.

Address, PHILLIPS & HUNT 32 Natchez street, New Orleans

J. T. Newman, M. D.,

—PRACTICING—

Surgeon and Physician,

315 Felicity Street,

NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Makes a specialty of treating colred people. jan15-1y

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be npon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches.
History of the U. S.—Eidpath	$3 00
Scripture History—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net	60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) Net	5
History of Methodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.)	3 60
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Edition of 1884
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. I) sett	5 00
Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs	2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scripture chapters I-XXX—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol I) sett	7 50
Plain Account of hristian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill, Net	1 00
Written Sermons.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
Christian Purity—Foster	1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introdnction to the Holy Scriptures. (chapters XXI-LII)—Harman	4 60
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
Lessons in Logic,—Swons. Net	60
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged). Stevens	3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory	85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol. II.—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introdnction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII.—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope. Vol. III.	7 50
Atonement in hrist.—Miley	1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn	2 50
Intellectual Science—Porter	3 00
Homiletics.—Kidder	1 50
Written Sermon
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst	3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introdnction to the Holy Scriptnres. New Testament: Chapters XIX-XLIV. Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Theological Institutes. Part II—Watson	6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written Exegesis
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St. Paul.—onybeare and Howson. (Abridged Edition)	1 00
Biblical Hermenentics.—Terry
History of Rationalism.—Hurst	3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst	$ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884)
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.—Walker	1 25
To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St. Paul.—Fletcher	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill	1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst	50
Anolent History.—Thalheimer
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	3 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged Edition).—Stevens	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible. Sacraments
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield	2 50
Plain Account of hristian Perfecttion.—Wesley	30
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill	1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven	90
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. I.) Introdnction to the Gospel Records.—Nast.	1 25
Era of the Protestant Revolution.—Seebohn.	75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII.—Wakefield	2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.)	45
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II. hooks to Antinomianism.—Fletcher	5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher	2 50
Protestant Foreign Missions.—hristlieb	1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,

PHILLIPS & HUNT.

37 Natchez St. New Orleans.

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valnable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Piotnres Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beantiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beantifully illnstrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,

37 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1884 at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beantifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Expres for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful pictures.

Our Little Men and Women

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY,

An Eight-page Weekly, for Boys and Girls

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illnstrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day and Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by

PHILLIPS & HUNT,

37 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, JUNE 25, 1885.

Between January 14 and February 1 four self-supporting churches were organized in Japan in connection with the American Board. These churches start with an aggregate membership of 195. The rule of organization is that each community must not only have a man ready to become pastor, but must also support him themselves.

The last completed story by the late Rev. William M. Baker, author of "His Majesty Myself," etc., is a tale of Texan life, dealing with two brothers who choose different employments, indicated by the title, "Sheep or Silver." It will be published serially in St. Nicholas, beginning with the June number.

Please set us down in favor of the color line when it comes to marriage, and in favor of justice and equality line between the races in all other things. But we believe that in matters ecclesiastical, for many reasons, white men make better pastors and presiding elders for white people than colored preachers would.

"George Bancroft" is the subject of an article in The Chautauquan for June. In this article the writer, Prof. W. W. Gist, calls attention to the positions of public trust which the historian has held, having served as collector at the port of Boston, as Secretary of the Navy under President Polk, as acting Secretary of War, as Minister to England and finally as Minister to Berlin.

If after estimating the salary of the pastor at a certain figure there was an earnest and honest effort to pay it, the failure to do so would constitute a case fraud not actionable before the courts, and possibly not before the church, but certainly actionable before the Court of Heaven. "With what measure ye mete it shall be measured unto you again." Remember that.

They had a severe lightning and thunder storm at Merry Hill, near Galway, Tenn., lately. It killed nine chickens, split a shovel handle, tore up an old almanac, but fortunately missed Mr. Frierson, wife and children, who were sitting by the fire at the time. One of our correspondents thinks it was a judgment sent upon the wicked. A good many wicked would feel happy if they could believe that their judgment would be so light.

Mr. Editor—Although I am a stranger to you, still I am desirous of your success. I am much pleased with the paper and find it much more interesting than heretofore. Hope you may still continue to go ahead in the right. Yours, in love, Mrs. Sophia Smith."

These words and many like them from women of the Negro race is encouragement enough for us. We shall take courage and go forward.

The June Century, which was issued on the first day of June, contains in its table of contents a paper by the Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Kentucky, entitled, "Shall we help the Negro?" in which the writer, who is a Southerner by birth and an ex-Confederate officer, takes the ground that the whites must help the colored people, "teach them, lift them up; and that they may do so, we must treat them as men."

A former enemy of the SOUTHWESTERN now acknowledges that it writes better than ever. It is compelled to be better with Taylor as editor and such writers as Drs. Newman, Boyd, and that able writer of the Arkansas. I like it better; I put it in the hands of the postman every Thursday evening and say, "Send it on, Doctor." W. H. Jackson, Brenham, Texas.

Thank you.

"Is it I?"

Letters from Central Tennessee College, Rust, Clark and Wiley Methodist Episcopal universities, from Honston Methodist Episcopal Seminary and Alcorn American Missionary University, and others are before us. All speak of crowded attendance and hard but successful work in all depratments. Each has brain, heaat and hands full of work for the present and plans for the future. Commencement season approaches and they are preparing for the close which shall mark the launching of many a human craft ont upon the broad sea of life and destiny. Some of them to the sacred rostrnm, some to the esculapian arts, some to skilled mechanical persnits, some to agrarian callings, some to domestic responsibilities, some to pedagogic toils, some to legal walks, some to scientific investigation, some to delve deeper into literary acquirements, some to soar aloft with the inspired muses, some to bask in the sunshine of philanthropy, some to consecrated lives of usefulness, and alas! some to abandonment and sin. Touching the latter how fitting it is that each young gentleman and lady abont to leave the school and return to home, the world and every-day plodding life shonld ask of self the question, "Is IT I?" who shall bring the blnsh of shame to the faculty whose earnest efforts expended in my behalf have thus fitted me for the highest and noblest callings. "Is it I" whose fntnre shall associate the name of an honored parentage with taints of infamy? "Is it I" whose crimes shall paint me a moral leper to be avoided by the trne and manly of my race and kind? To this qnery let the universal answer be: man is what his character is; my character shall ever be a good one. Sermons are being thought ont for yon, listen and take good heed to them; closing addresses from earnest teachers and deeply interested auditors are being put together for you, ponder them well in your minds. Think of them when yon go home, and "when wicked men entice thee consent them not." Have an object in view; seek some place of honest toil; devote your efforts to some honest means of self support forthwith, and stick to it to the end. If monntains confront yon tnnnel them; are there rivers before you? bridge them, and by dauntless conrage and persistent effort make an opening for yourself. Yon must have a model, select the most successful and nseful men for your example.

"Lives of great men all remind us,
We may make our lives sublime."

Carry the life of theory, lived in the school room, with you out into broad world beyond, and rednce it to practice there. If you have become a Christian, hold it fast; if yon are a Methodist yon are one of a band of heroes, stand by the doctrines and Discipline of your Church; you cannot be lonesome in snch a crowd. There is an almost innumerable army around yon. Remember and help your Alma Mater as success comes to your labors. Stand by your parents as they have stood by yon. So may the Lord bless and greatly prosper you.

"Hark from the Tomb."

Col. Robert Tombs, of Georgia, has found an opportunity to be interviewed, and has formulated an opinion on the Negro question to the intent that education hurts it, and that the race is dying out. Marvelous! Now, if a few more of the ancients would rise up and teach us, we might be greatly illuminated upon this subject. Can't somebody interview Col. Geo. W. Craddock, of Kentncky; and His Royal Highness Pharoah, King of Egypt, might have an opinion that would be quite enlightening. Then there is Moses and Solomon, both of them amalgamationists, and hence no doubt close students of the Negro problem. If some enterprising journal would interview them we might obtain some mortal and comparatively modern ideas. Why this dwelling among the Tombs? Why this seeking of the living among the dead?

Col. G. W. Williams.

Col. George W. Williams is one of the best, and one of the most abused colored men in the conntry. Brought np at the feet of one of the most dignified, scholarly and gifted Americans, Williams partakes to an extent after his model; and hence to the masses of men, and to those who know bnt little of him, he appears gilt edged and stilted. Bnt in reality he is not what his painstaking care in dress, his ambition for prominence and exactness in speech, and the choice of polite language might indicate that he is. He is a born gentleman, and by circnmstances forced out of his sphere into servile politics. American politics so far as the Negro is concerned are servile. No Negro has yet reached political eminence in this conntry without a greater or less surrender of originality of opinion and dignity. It may be that none or very few white men have. Williams' first mistake was in entering politics at all; and his second was reentering after he had eschewed politics. His true field is either theology or literature, or both. He is a snccess there.

Bring Again That Which is Lost.

MR. EDITOR—I heard that yonr paper will find all lost people. If your paper will find my people I will be glad. INQUIRER.

No, we do not find them all. Slavery was a great breaker np of families. In some cases it has so completely blotted out the traces that even the argns eyes and loving efforts of the SOUTHWESTERN is baffled in its endeavors to hunt them up. But our facilities for doing it is better than any other paper in the world. We reach fifteen hundred pastors and their congregations all over the South, and we never get tired of trying. Send in your inquiries; we will help you all we can.

Books from the Methodist Book Concern.

At the Sign of the Blue Boar. By Emma Leslie. New York: Phillips & Hunt; Cincinnati, Crauston & Stowe, 1885; is a 12mo., green cloth and gold gilt cover; 22 chapters in 297 pages; tinted pages, large, clear type, and wide margins; price, $1. This is a story of the reign of Charles II. The scene opens in Kidderminster Church, Sabbath morning, 1662, while Mr. Richard Baxter is preaching. It is a story which dives to the depths of non-conformist troubles in London and England. Only two years before Charles II, having come to the throne now recovered from his defeat by Cromwell. Our writer moves in the midst and under the influence of these stirring events; court matters get more than a glance, and St. Bartholomews day is drawn upon heavily. This is a very readable book, its reference to history sacred and secular; its fervent Christian spirit and simplicity of statement, all conspire to make it desirable. It is a commendable work. We commend it to our readers on its own merits.

The Women of the Reformation. By Mrs. Annie Whittenmeyer, with an introduction by Mrs. Kate Brownlee Sherwood. Published by Phillips & Hunt, New York: Cranston & Stowe, Cincinnati. Price, $2. Everything connected with the period of the reforming of doctrinal postulates, and thediscussion of theological dogmas is of value to the Christian reader; but more especially valuable for Christian consideration is the time and the actors in the reformation scenes. Our author has taken for her work to draw out in the noble work a few of the worthy women who, with the men of that period, suffered all things, even death itself, for the purity and perpetuity of the church. The book is a handsomely bound volume, 12mo. with 443 pages, 26 chapters, and 3 illustrations. Let women read this work for moral reformation as earnestly as did their sisters for ecclesiastical reformation before, with the assurance of like final results. This book demands public attention.

From the Golden Gate to the Golden Horn. By Henry Frederick Reddall. New York: Phillips & Hunt; Cincinnati: Cranston & Stowe. Price, $1.25. This volume is a 12mo., brown cloth and gold gilt binding, with 360 pages, 22 chapters, and 59 illustrations, besides a very rich frontispiece representing the Taj Agra, India. This work is a narrative of travels and adventure. Two boys and their father make almost the circuit of the world together. The boys are happy and this is a source of happiness to their father. Hence together they are a happy party. There is a fund of information to be gained from reading this book. Everything is told in that animated and pleasing way which cannot fail of interest to young readers. We wish the work might find its way into many homes. The holy reverence of the boys for the father, and the considerativeness of the father for his children, teach a useful lesson which all should learn and practice.

In January and February alone four hundred and three services and meetings were conducted in London and the country about (reports the Chronicle of the London Missionary Society) by returned missionaries on furlough, occasionally supplemented by other representatives of this society.

Camelia A. Beck in May New Orleans Journal of Education, says: To be a good teacher one should have more than a slight knowledge of human events, and be well prepared to read the signs of the times, and understand their peculiar errors and dangers.

Personal.

—Rev. J. B. Lindsey is in Bowling Green, Ky., and holding the fort.

—Charles Longfellow, a son of the poet, is about to start on a journey around the world.

—Rev. Jesse Price has just closed his second round, and as usual takes time to speak a friendly word with us.

—The late Barrios, President of Guatemala and would-be dictator of Central America, is said to have left an estate of $10,000,000.

—Rev. Marcus McCoomer was recently at home from Indianapolis, visiting his family at Lonisville. He seems to be well pleased with his appointment.

—Rev. Mason Reddick, one of the best and most deserving ministers we know of, has favored us with important news, and has our thanks and well wishes therefor.

—Miss Josephine Cowgill, of the Woman's Home Mission work, this city and State, left this week to spend a short time with her relatives near Custar, Wood county, Ohio.

—Rev. H. L. Trapp, presiding elder of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, Waco, Texas, is pushing his work vigorously and always succeeds, as he deserves to do.

—The degree of D. D. has been conferred upon Rev. A. E. P. Albert, of the Louisiana Conference, by Rust University. He and Dr. Carter have each been thus honored by two universities this season.

—Our thanks are due to pastors who have sent in payments, though small, on back accounts due this office. Keep on, brethren, you are expected to do your best for your church paper. Every dollar helps.

—The address of Rev. W. R. R. Duncan, is box 70, Van Buren, Ark.

—Bro. and Sister Jackson, at Brenham, Texas, are enjoying a pleasant year. One of the fine qualities for which Sister Jackson is distinguished is that she always writes nice things about Mrs. Taylor, and that is always very pleasant for Mrs. Taylor. So she loves Sister Jackson, as her husband also does.

—Mr. and Mrs. Willis, their baby; Mr. Notrham and Mr. Stickelman, of Bishop Taylor's party, have already been prostrated with the fever, from which at last advices they are recovering. Their faith is firm.

—Dr. Felix Oswald in the Chautauquan for June argues ably for the Nicaragua canal declaring that "Nicaragua will compete with Switzerland, Italy, and winter resorts of South California, as well as with our transcontinental railways. Panama will compete with Cape Horn.

—We learn that the pastorate of Rev. T. G. Montgomery, at Shreveport, La., as in this city, is quite a successful one. Not only has he our brotherly esteem, but what is more he has the reverence of those within our home for the faithful performance of his pastoral duties toward them.

—One of the most agreable items of news coming from schools will be that which informs us that our talented, versatile and gentlemanly young friend, Singleton B. Hughes, Esq., of Howard University, has reached the sparkling depths of the Pyhrrian springs, and will gradnate this season. He has worked hard and will, we hope, find a good opening to begin life.

The following notable visttors favor us with a call at home the past week: Mrs. Tillie W. Cabrese, 152 Galvez street, between St. Ann and Dumaine, city; Mrs. Eleanor W. Williams, 30 Robertson street; Mrs. Jerome W. Nolasco, Mattie J. Harvey, bound for Lexington, Ky. Rev. T. J. Johnson and wife; Mrs. Sarah Johnson, of Camp Parapet, Jefferson parish, La.

—Miss Josephine Cowgill has been a constant and desirable visitor to our home in the time of our affliction. She is a daughter of consolation. We regret exceedingly that the time for her departure is near. In her summer vacation and needed recreation she will bear with her the love and prayerful remembrance of all the colored people here. They all love and revere her as a true Christian.

Church Polity.

MR. EDITOR—Please answer the following questions: If a member violates the rules of the church and he be called to a trial, and they refuse to come the first and second times, and send word each time to scratch their names off the church book; and a committee is appointed to go after them, and they come the third time, and still say "scratch my name off," what steps does the committee have to take, if any?

SUBSCRIBER.

ANSWER—The trial should proceed according to Discipline. Every form should be carefully observed, and a careful minute preserved. Your question does not inform us whether the person was guilty of immoral or imprudent conduct. We therefore refer you to Discipline 1884, pp. 132-3, par. 230, 231, 232; trial of an accused member for immoral conduct. Also to trial of an accused member for imprudent conduct, par. 233. You cannot take the name of a full member from the roll except by death, dismissal by letter when the letter is handed to another church, or by expulsion. Therefore, you must try the member in the case you refer to.

Schools and Colleges.

The following programme was executed by Washington and Lee University, Commencement Exercises June 1885:

Sunday, June 14th—11 a. m., Baccalaureate Sermon: Rev. John Hall, D. D., New York; 8:30 p. m., —Address before the Young Men's Christian Association: by Rev. J. H. Eccleston, D. D., Baltimore.

Monday, June 15th—6 p. m.—Annual Regatta.—9 p. m.—Final Celebration of Literary Societies.

Tuesday, June 16th—10 a. m.,—Meeting of the Board of Trustees, 5 p. m.,—Meeting of the Alumni Association. 9 p. m.—Reunion of Alumni and Banquet.

Wednesday, June 17th—11 a.m., —Commencement Exercises: Delivery of Diplomas, Certificates, Prizes, &c. Centennial Poem by Mrs. Margaret J. Preston; was read by Col. J. T. L. Preston—10 p. m.,—Final Ball. Four prize medals are among the remembrances to faithful workers. An excellent catalogue outlines the next year's work. Our copy is thankfully received.

Of late we have occupied an unusual amount of space in interest of our Educational Society. We would now only call attention to its annual report for 1885, and earnestly call upon all our pastors to get and read it.

The Kentucky Colored Teachers State Association and Institute will be held in Lexington, July 6-10. A very interesting programme is laid out for the occasion.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Who is Responsible for Our Dangerous Classes.

REV. E. W. S. HAMMOND.

It is about conceded by all thoughtful and practical people that the wonderful growth of our country has developed a series of evils that threaten to destroy the very foundations of the government, whose great magnaminity has made it possible for their existence. The dangers by which we are environed are so numerous that it is almost impossible to classify them. It is not our province to elaborate upon the forces that make the existence of these evils possible, but rather to fix the responsibility of them, and suggest a remedy for those which demand immediate attention. No one will doubt that organized evil exists, and it is hardly possible not to notice its encroachments in its various and varied forms.

From lately compiled statistics we learn that seventeen per cent. of the population of the Union can neither read nor write. A great cloud of illiteracy, casting its shadows over a large section of our land, and threatening to pour out upon us its blighting influence. This giant evil is one of the very fruitful sources of many of the dangers that threaten our peace and prosperity. Can the institutions of our government be safe when so large a per centage of its citizens have no conception of the sacred benefits of its suffrages? Can you expect substantial progress in matters pertaining to our great national polity when this class hold almost the balance of power? Is it safe to entrust the destinies of the mightiest Republic on earth to this vast force, confined not to any race, or nationality or color, but radiating from a common source, threatening to permeate society, and if not repressed, will inject its virus into the healthy blood of the nation, whose indifference has given it license?

It is the proud boast of America to day that her system of Christian philanthrophy stands without a rival. Vast wealth has been consecrated upon the altars of human amelioration, and almost every part of the habitable globe has felt the thrill of our benevolent impulses. In our own land large sums of money have been bestowed with a lavish hand and a willingness that is marvelous. The churches and other benevolent enterprises have directed the various streams of their benevolence in those channels where its influence was most needed in resisting the spread of illiteracy at least. Without investigating the reasons for its existence, every intelligent citizen knows where this evil predominates. It is a fact beyond controversy, however, that the sums already contributed for this purpose would have been doubled, trebled and even quadrupled had the government given a reasonable assurance that the property accumulated as one of the incidentals of these contributions would have been protected. That there has been a disposition to truckle to the local prejudices of the people there is no doubt. Hence the very agency intended to lift them to a higher and a nobler manhood was regarded by them as an innovation which ought not to be tolerated, and hence it is not strange that they should endeavor to rid themselves of the annoyonce by the use of the torch, the whip, the bullet and the ballot. It is not strange that we are reaping to day the fruit of governmental indifference. It is a sad comment upon the genius of American liberty that while a portion of our common country is trembling upon the very crater of a volcano that threatens each moment to deluge the land with its fiery death, that so many of the custodians of the suffrages of the people are clamoring for the spoils of office.

Who is responsiple for this state of affairs? Is it not a fundamental principle of our constitutional liberties that he who holds the sovereign right of suffrage shall be intelligent'y qualified for a proper exercise of the same? Let the government meet this great responsibility by ceasing to enconrage the evil by educating the ignorant. Make the spelling book the sceptre of national power and you will emancipate from the manipulations of political demagogues that class of our citizens who have so seriously retarded the progress of good government.

Intemperance is very properly classified as a dangerons evil, and no thoughtful person will deny that it very seriously endangers our domestic, social, moral and political happiness. It is a foul blot upon our national escutcheon because the government gives its sanction, and affords its protection to the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liqnors, and thns brings to a painless birth a multitude of evils that very seriously threaten our national peace. The enormous tax assessed upon and collected from this privilege, creates the necessity for an army of officers who very often stand in solid phalanx to resist the friends of temperance, by corrupting the ballot, by which the people are often deliberately deprived of their God given rights. The government that sanctions and protects this nnmitigated evil is largely responsible for its dangerous consequences. We will not enter into its sickening details. The facts are familiar to every order-loving citizen. The appalling statistics reveal to yon an army of criminals organized for deeds of lawlessness and violence, giving inspiration to every enterprise that has for its object the desecration of the Sabbath, and the subversion of morality and virtue. Their minions parade your streets and flaunt their soiled garments into the very face of virtue and morality their flaring placards greet yon at every turn, and like some evil spirit haunt your nightly dreams. Often the sacred sanctuary where prayer was want to be made, and where men were tanght the way of life, now resounds to sinful revelry and the carnival of nnrighteousness. This great oligarchy grows more and more arrogant. It assumes to dictate in matters of public policy. It would determine the destiny of our great political parties, and entrenching itself behind the national authority, it is gradually tightening its hideous coils. It is a self-evident truth that the vacillating and equivocal attitude of several of our temperance organizations, and the conspicuous silence of many of our pulpits, timidity on the part of several of our leading journals, religious and secular moral cowardice on the part of many of our legislators, and general apathy on the part of many of our best citizens, has indirectly contributed toward the success of humanity's greatest foe. The remedy is in the deliberate and determined uprising of the true friends of temperance reform. A fusion of all the scattered forces without regard to party affiliations, sect or denomination, to resist the further encroachments of this monster evil by the intelligent use of the ballot. We will have an end of these movements which so seriously threaten to embroil us with other nations, when we have such a manifestation of public sentiment as will demand a rigid enforcement of the laws. When the employer and the employe recognize the mutual duties, ties and obligations existing between them; when there is a disposition on the part of the former to sympathize with the latter and award that remnneration for faithful service rendered, which will afford a reasonable chance for the development of social and domestic happiness, then will cease these frequent outbreaks which have resulted in such a serious paralysis of our great industrial interests. When our statesmen and legislators rise to the true dignity of their calling as representatives of the sovereign people we shall have an end of the dangerous monopolies which seek to crnsh all competition and turn the channels of wealth to personal aggrandizement. We shall have a more general distribntion of wealth, and greater commercial and industrial prosperity. When the citizens of our common country practice and foster and encourage the great doctrine of human brotherhood, then that dangerous class who entrench themselves behind an nnholy prejndice, fonnded npon the accident of color or the circnmstances that have placed a fellow-man a little lower in the social scale will be nnmbered with the things that were.

A tremendous responsibility rests npon the Christian pulpit. It is by common consent the great oracle of human ethics. Its mission is to give expression to the moral sentiment of the Gospel of humanity. The time will probably never come when its voice will not be the most potent factor in the solution of our national destiny. It must not abate its interest in all questions pertaining to the welfare of the people. It cannot afford to be silent when such tremendous interests are at stake. It must take a bold and courageous stand npon all questions touching our domestic, social, moral and political prosperity. It must be fearless in the defense of national righteousness and the repression of sin. It must cease to tolerate and encourage those who are disposed to pander to the caprices of a morbid sentimentalism, and who are continually feeling after the public pulse in the sole pursuit of personal popularity. If it would have success in its warfare against the popular and questionable amusements of the day, its trumpet must give no nncertain sound. It cannot afford to substitute for the pure Gospel of Christ that merely esthetic, soulless and meaningless religion that ridicules the miracles of the Bible, that apologizes for its delineations of human depravity, that pleases only the eye, that affords only a temporary gratification of the senses, that serves only as an anesthetic for a morbid conscience, from which it is aroused to find itself surrounded by the wreck of that faith which alone could save. But rather give us the pure Gospel of humanity and divine love, and you will reach the masses, permeate the home, elevate society, dignify labor, and preserve the sanctity af the Sabbath.

An equal responsibility devolves upon that most potent instrnmentality for the public weal or woe, the press. "A free press is a great blessing to a free people." Behold its tremendous energies; its divergent rays are permeating the homes of our land. By its agency the great questions of social, moral, domestic and political import are daily brought to our notice. It wields marvelous power for good or evil. A pure press may buttress the walls of our social fabric, and its influence for good can hardly be measured, but if it be venal, corrupt, the tool of soulless corporations, or the vehicle of personal spite and revenge, if it abuse its great liberty by becoming the instrument that would inflame the passions of men; if it would incite to deeds of violence and bloodshed, if its tone be not healthy and elevating, if it does not seek to bring about a better recognition of the relationship existing between the citizens of our common conntry, if it does not devote its best energies to the promotion of a good and pure government; if it apologizes for weakness and corruption in the offices of public trnst and emolument, then it is a curse to a free people, and should not be tolerated and enconraged. A hearty welcome to a pure, conservative press in the mighty conflict for the triumph of truth and righteousness; and may we not with propriety say to all who would see peace bronght out of confusion, and light out of darkness; in the langnage of Israel's great prophet, "Awake, awake, put on thy strength, O Zion, put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city, for henceforth there shall no more come unto thee the uncircumcised and the unclean."

Covington, Ky.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

It Is a Great Mistake to Go North.

REV. H. W. M'ALLISTER.

I think our people make a great mistake when they move North anywhere east of the Mississippi river, from the fact that they have not the facilities to farm on an extensive basis, and they can not get much day labor to do, as a large per cent. of the popnlation are from Europe, and they generally hire their own people, and they will work cheaper than a colored man wants to work. Another disadvantage to the colored people is that the winters are long and very cold. As my readers may know it takes a great deal of fuel and good clothes for five months each year. I have even known hundreds of white people to have to go to the soup-houses dnring these long winters, and some of them were industrious people, but the weather was so cold that they could not do outdoor work. In Indiana and Illinois land is very high. I find that the colored popnlation are not in hardly any kind of bnsiness in the above named States. It seems that the more intelligent part are laborers or waiters abont the hotels. These are facts, so far as I have seen, and for these reasons I think that our people would do better in the Southwest, or at least west of the Mississippi river. Now, I say in good faith that onr people ought to buy land in one county in Arkansas. To my knowledge there are seventy-five thousand aeres of land that can be had for almost nothing; and there are public lands all over the State. Do not rest till you get homes of your own. After awhile land will be as high in the South as it is in the Northeast. So it behooves you to get homes as soon as possible. There is no climate under the heavens that is better adapted to the happiness of our people than that of the South. Hardly two days in the year but what yon can work at most any kind of work. Compare this with four or five months of freezing weather, and believe me that yon are in the garden spot of the world. Let our preachers proclaim it from their pulpits, school-teachers from their desks, politicians from the stnmp, and mothers and fathers from the fireside; and I believe with good faith, that in ten years there will be a change among our people for a grand future. Land is onr great need as well as edncation and other powers. Let every yonng man get forty acres of land. The Puritans were poor when they landed on Plymonth Rock, but they got homes, and from these homes have come some of the greatest men that have lived. "He that has a home has riches." Look at the lands in Texas and the far West. This is our home; let us get homes, educate our children, stndy every interest at stake, be men for God and humanity.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Mrs. Rose Ann Carnes.

REV. J. T. GIBBONS.

Mrs. Rose Ann Carnes, wife of Rev. J. R. Carnes, was born March, 1855; attended school in the town of Alleyton, Texas, in 1868, being then 12 years of age. The Rev. J. R. Carnes then being quite a small yonth, attended the same school. Their yonng hearts there grew affectonate toward each other, but as they were only children, and were not allowed to correspond with each other, yet as they grew in age their love for each other continned to develop until in the spring of 1872, on March 25th, they were united in holy wedlock, in which holy state they lived happily together for nine years. She was truly a devoted wife; no woman more pure and loving. She was a fond mother, whose love for her children seemed to have no bonnds; a faithful friend and companion in life to her husband. She was the mother of four children, the youngest, Calvin Carnes, which only snrvived 12 honrs; he was born on June 6, 1883. From that hour until the day of her death she suffered intensely. Her physician pronounced her disease bronchitis. Great efforts were made to restore her to health again, bnt to no avail; the bronchitis continned on nntil at last it turned into that fatal malady, consumption, in which she rapidly sank until June 6, 1884, and on that sad day, just one year from the time she was first taken, he could only exclaim, "the light and joy of my earthly home went ont." The dear woman whom he had learned to love so dearly, who had shared with him all of his trials, and had trod the rough paths of life by his side for nine years; and who had forgotten her own weariness in her efforts to make his toils less, and her own sorrows in her endeavors to assange his; and spared no pains to make their earthly home the true counterpart of heaven. Sister Carnes was converted in the fall of 1879, during her husband's pastorate, at Lockhart, Texas. She joined the M. E. Church on probation immediately, notwithstanding her relatives were all Baptists. She was baptized and received into full connection in 1882, by the Rev. M. Henson, now of St. Paul M. E. Church, San Antonio, Texas.

Sister Carnes was trnly beloved by all who knew her. So gentle was her nature that those best acquainted with her were snre to love her best. She remained and shared the hardships of her husband even in his most adverse circumstances and when his weekly collections amonnted to only 45 or 60 cents, and rarely $1. Truly this woman woman was one of Zion's beloved daughters. The Rev. S. Gates in speaking of her says: "Sister Carnes was one of the easiest, Christian-like women that I ever saw." His father states, "while her husband, J. R. Carnes, was pastor at Giddings, I being his presiding elder, the two years of his pastorate there, was often at their house, and never met a more affectionate minister's wife in all of my life. Few ministers can claim any more virtuous qualities in their wives than could Brother Carnes for his." It was the writer's good fortune to become intimately acquainted with the Rev. J. R. Carnes and his devoted wife while he was pastor of St. Paul M. E. Church in San Antonio, Tex. Though having a great many friends and acqnaintances in that city, I could never be contented till I was at the home of this eminent minister with his pleasing manners, and the sweet voice and smiles of Sister Carnes would always make me feel that one could not fail to love her as a true Christian woman.

Little Jimmie Carnes, the pride and almost idol of his father and mother, would add greatly to the happiness of those who visited them. The dear little fellow, so promising in his fonrth year, was soon to follow his mother to heaven, by an accidental dose of concentrated lye. Well did that giant of the West Texas Conference bear np under snch sore afflictions. But why should we "sorrow as those having no hope?"

Lone Oak, Texas, April 14, 1884.

Notice.

The Sunday-school convention called for July 22d, at Jefferson, Texas, has been chonged to meet on July 16-17.

A SINGULAR BOOK.

Scintillating with Sarcasm and Brilliant with Truth.

New York Correspondence American Rural Home.

Chap. I. "Has Malaria;" goes to Florida.

Chap. II. "Overworked;" goes to Europe.

Chap. III. "Has Rheumatism;" goes to Ems.

Chap. IV. Has a row with his Doctor!

The above chapters, Mr. Editor, I find in a book recently published by an anonymous author. I have read a deal of sarcasm in my day but I never read anything equal to the sarcasm herein contained. I suspect the experience portrayed is a personal one; in short, the author intimates as much on page 31. Let me give you a synopsis:

"Malaria" as it states, is the cloak with which superficial physicians cover np a multitude of ill feelings which they do not understand, and do not much care to investigate. It is also a cover for such diseases as they cannot cure. When they advise their patient to travel or that he has overworked and needs rest and is probably suffering from malaria, it is a confession of ignorance or of inability. The patient goes abroad. The change is a tonic and for a time he feels better. Comes home. Fickle appetite, frequent headaches, severe colds, cramps, sleeplessness, irritability, tired feelings, and general unfitness for business are succeeded in due time by alarming attacks of rheumatism which flit about his body regardless of all human feelings.

It is muscular,—in his back. Articular,—in his joints. Inflammatory, my! how he fears it will fly to his heart! Now off he goes to the springs. The doctor sends him there, of course, to get well; at the same time he does not really want him to die on his hands!

That would hurt his business!

Better for a few days. Returns. After awhile neuralgia transfixes him. He bloats; cannot breathe; has pneumonia; cannot walk; cannot sleep on his left side; is fretful; very nervous and irritable; is pale and flabby; has frequent chills and fevers; everything about him seems to go wrong; becomes suspicious; musters up strength and demands to know what is killing him!

"Great heaven!" he cries, "why have you kept me so long in ignorance?"

"Because," said the doctor, "I read your fate five years ago. I thought best to keep you comfortable and ignorant of the facts."

He dismisses his doctor, but too late! His fortune has all gone to fees.

But him, what becomes of him?

The other day a well known Wall Street banker said to me "It is really astonishing how general bright's disease is becoming. Two of my personal friends are now dying of it. But it is not incurable I am certain, for my nephew was recently cured when his physician said recovery was impossible. The case seems to me to be a wonderful one." This gentleman formerly represented his government in a foreign country. He knows, appreciates and declares the value of that preparation, because his nephew, who is a son of Danish Vice-Consul Schmidt, was pronounced incurable when the remedy, Warner's safe cure, was begun. "Yes" said his father, "I was very skeptical but since taking that remedy the boy is well."

I regret to note that ex-President Arthur is said to be a victim of this terrible disease. He ought to live but the probabilities are that since anthorized remedies can not cure him, his physicians will not advise him to save his life, as so many thonsands have done, by the use of Warner's safe cure which Gen. Christiansen, at Drexel, Morgan & Co's told me he regarded "as a wonderful remedy."

Well, I suspect the hero of the book cured himself by the same means. The internal evidence points very strongly to this conclusion.

I cannot close my notice of this book better than by qnoting his advice to his readers.

"If, my friend, you have such an experience as I have portrayed, do not put your trust in physicians to the exclusion of other remedial agencies. They have no monopoly over disease and I personally know that many of them are so very 'consciencious' that they would far prefer that their patients should go to Heaven direct from their powerless hands than that they should be saved to earth by the nse of any 'unauthorized' means."

And that the author's condemnation is too true, how many thousands duped, and yet rescued, as he was, can personally testify?

Woman's Home Mission Work.

Mr. Editor—Will yon please insert the following notice. My post-office address is at Navasota, Grimes county, Texas, and I will be very thankful if the friends interested in Woman's Home Mission work will write to me. The auxiliary secretaries will please send their reports at once to the new address; if they do so I shall be able to make out mine in time. I expect to be on the Huntsville district in a few weeks, if the Lord spares me in health and strength.

Your sister in Christ,

ISABELLA HOWELLS,
Cor. Sec'y W. H.M. Society,
Navasota, Texas, June 16, 1885.

A Note from the Century Co.

DOES AVEDRTISING PAY?—The proprietor of a household article recently informed the publishers of a well-known monthly magazine of large circulation that the insertion of a small advertisement twice in the pages of their magazine had brought in more than eight thousand inquiries. And yet some people are still wondering if newspaper and magazine advertising pays?

The M. E. Church.

North China.

In a recent trip to the country about Peking, Rev. H. H. Lowry baptized eleven adults and six children, he says: "Helper Le Jui was much interested in the case of an intelligent inquirer who had come from over fifty miles north of the Great Wall and spent nearly a month at Tsunhua in earnest inquiry. He said he had tried all forms of religions known in China, but with no satisfaction, and he was now convinced that he had found the true faith. At the new station in the city of Lanchow several probationers have been received. All the members of this mission are well."

Within the bonnds of Sita Pur, the former field of Rev. J. E. Scott, the work is prospering. Twelve natives were baptized at one mela by Bros. Bare and Lawson and ten more at another mela by Dr. Johnson and Bro. Lawson. A new day has downed.

The Christian Herald keeps to its purpose heralding Christianity. When good earnest work is wanting, and foes of the truth are to be vanquished, look for and you will find the Herald in the thickest of the fight.

The United Presbyterians have abont $300,000 worth of property among the Freedmen, for which correct titles to $200,000.

If ever yon are in doubt as to a thing being right or wrong, go to your room, and kneel down and ask God's blessing npon it. (Col. ii, 17.) If you can not do this it is wrong. (Rom. xiv, 23.)

Love is better than doctrine, yet false doctrine will always destroy pure love.

It don't pay to have fifty working men and their families live on bone soup and half rations in order that the saloon-keeper may flourish on turkey and champaigne.

THESE BONES OF MINE.

PRINTED BY REQUEST.

Look yonder what I see,
Shall be gathered in the morning,
A band of angels after me—
Shall be gathered in the morning.

CHORUS.

I know these bones are mine,
I know these bones are mine,
I know these bones are mine
Shall be gathered in the morning.

I expect to get to heaven when I die,
Shall be gathered in the morning;
Shout salvation as I fly;
Shall be gathered in the morning.

CHORUS.

I know these bones of mine, etc.

I expect to meet my mother there,
Shall be gathered in the morning;
Who used to join with me in prayer,
Shall be gathered in the morning.

CHORUS.

I know these bones of mine, etc.

Domestic Hygiene.

Are Condiments Nutritious Foods.

GEO. L. CURTISS, M. D.

By condiments is meant that class of substances added to food during the process of cooking, or after the food has reached the table, to season and give relish. Among condiments may be named allspice, pepper, capsicum, nutmeg, sage, thyme, vinegar, mustard, horseradish, cinnamon, aniseed, caraway, cloves, etc. These have been admitted to use one by one as the "refinements of modern cookery" have been developed. Where once they were seldom used, now they are largely employed. The eating public are taking quantities of condiment almost beyond calculation, and the quantity is annually increasing.

Certain questions will be asked: are condiment food? Do they supply wasted tissue with the material required to meet the demand? Is there an abuse of condiments? Does the system require them?

What is food? Flint says: "All articles composed of or containing elements in a form which enables them to be used for the nourishment of the body, either by being themselves appropriated by the organism, by influencing favorably the process of nutrition, or by retarding disassimilation" is food. True food embraces only those principles which are capable of absorption and assimilation." Food must be taken into the mouth and well masticated, during which process it is mixed with saliva. It passes to the stomach where the gastric juice acts upon it to completely change its character. Many things are received into the stomach that cannot be digested. This mass passes to the duodenum, when the absorbing vessels absorb or take up the converted material and throw it into the blood, to be brought into blood in nature's great laboratory, the lungs. The blood alone must contain the essential elements requisite to supply waste and build up the body. It is found that the lacteals or absorbant vessels do reject very much eaten as obnoxious material.

Are condiments rejected? "Chemical analysis shows that the most important and widely applicable foods contain carbon, hydrogen, oxygen, nitrogen and mineral matter, the latter containing phosphates and chlorides. Other things being equal, it may be considered that the comparative nutriment value of two articles is in proportion to the amount of carbon, nitrogen and phosphoric acid they contain."

In the laboratory of the Philadelphia Polyclinic, after careful chemical analysis of a large number of condiments it was found that most of them contain phosphoric acid and nitrogen in small quantities. The richest of all is [illegible] containing one-half of one per cent. Then follow in order [illegible] mustard, thyme, carraway, [illegible] nutmeg and celery, descending to black pepper which contains only eleven-thousandths of one per cent. Nitrogen was also found in small quantities.

[illegible] very as to the value of [illegible] food. Foster says, "[illegible] also contains certain substances known under the name of condiments. Since these bodies perform their functions outside the real body, though within the alimentary canal, they have no better reason to be considered as food than has hunger."

On the other hand, Miss Abbot of the Philadelphia Polyclinic says: "It is of importance to observe that the majority of these condiments are fruits, ripe or nearly so. The seed appropriates to itself the nitrogen and the greatest nutritive properties for the development of the future plant. All nutritive substances fall into two classes; the one serves for the repair of the unoxidizable constituents of the body, the other is destined to replace the oxidizable. Condiments fulfill both of these requirements, as is shown by a study of their composition; the phosphoric acid and nitrogen are taken up by the tissues, as from other substances used in diet. Some articles affect the character of the excretions; this is often due to essential oils; the presence of these in the excretions cannot be said to diminish the value of the substances in supplying to the tissues the necessary elements. The same holds true for condiments; the essential oils conspicuous in them are accorded only stimulating properties; however, it may be observed that the essential oils in tea and coffee are accredited with a portion of the dietetic value of these beverages. It appears that when condiments are used as food, especially for the sick, they may serve the double purpose of rendering food more appetizing, and of adding to its nutritive value. The value of food as a purely therapeutic agent is attracting some attention at present, and in its study we must not neglect those substances which combine stimulant and nutritive qualities."

It is probable that the principal use of condiments is to act as stimulants to the salivary and peptic glands directly, and by indirect action upon the the hipatic, pancreatic and intestinal glands. It is possible to use these stimulants to excess. While some condiments are absorbed by the lacteal vessels others are rejected as worthless.

"Yes, I shall break the engagement," she said, folding her arms and looking defiant; "it is really too much trouble to converse with him; he's as deaf as a post, and talks like he had a mouthful of mush. Besides, the way he hawks and spits is disgusting." "Don't break the engagement for that; tell him to take Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It will cure him completely." "Well, I'll tell him. I do hate to break it off, for in all other respects he's quite too charming." Of course, it cured the catarrh.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any cases where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to find my son. His name is Malekiah Parr, or Malekiah Hymon; he goes by both of these names. I have not heard from him for about six years; he is living in some part of Louisiana, but I do not remember the place; the last time I heard from him he said it was six hours ride by rail from where he lived to New Orleans. He is bright, and his face is very much disfigured by small-pox marks; he has ridges on his face from scratching while suffering with that disease. He is married, and had a little boy which he named Ely Hymon after his father. Any information of him will be gladly received by his mother, Emma Griffis; address me at Clark Chapel M. E. Church, Nashville, Tenn.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my people, who left Monroe county, Alabama, the second year of the war and went to New Orleans with Marine Andrews, who was at that time their master. Mother's name was Fannie Andrews; my father was named Adam Andrews. My brothers were named Henry and Harry Adams. They all went to New Orleans with Marine Andrews, the son of Stephen Andrews. My brother Harry belonged to Hamp Andrews. My name was Harriet Preston, and I belonged to Elizabeth at that time, who was a sister of the Andrews and the wife of Joshua Preston. She was the youngest sister. Please address any information to Harriet Preston, Cochrane's Store, Austin county, Texas.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to learn the whereabonts of my people; they left me on Back river in Virginia; —the river was salt water—near Hamilton, where my mother went every morning to market; my mother's name was Milly Ann Lee and belonged to a Mr. Thomas Skinner; my father was Joseph Lee and belonged to a Dr. Mabre, but I do not remember the doctor's first name; my father was a butcher and lived in Hamilton; my mother had nine children living; the oldest was Margaret and was called Beggy for a short name, and was snbject to fits; the next oldest was Jack, and the third was myself, Lucy Ann, and Susan, Nancy and Lizzie. William and Margaret were the two oldest, and I being very small at the time I can not remember the names of all the children. The cause of our separation was the death of our oldest master and the dividing of the property among his children. We were all taken to a town called Little York, and on my way back home in company with my grandmother Margaret, for whom my oldest sister was named, I was stolen from the wagon and was taken to Richmond, Va., and sold. We went to Little York to be hired out; my father bought my mother and the baby child. I am now a member of the M. E. Church, and I thank God, that my steps were directed to go under the shelter of her broad wing which extends from "Afric's sunny fountains to Greenland's icy mountains, and under the happy flight of the SOUTHWESTERN, through which I I expect to find my long lost people, and at the head of which is a man of my race; and if he has never lost any of his people this way, yet he can almost feel the darting pangs as they dart through the hearts of others, Instead of Lucy Lee I am now Lucy Banks, Preachers, class-leaders. Sunday-school superintendents, and all who are snbscribers of this blessed paper, which I liken to an earthly angel, will please read this to their several churches and people; and if anything can be done to find my people I believe this paper in her flight over the world will bring them if you will read this paper. Please address Lucy Banks, care of Rev. T. J. Smith, Giddings, Lee county, Texas.

A Mother's Love—A Practical Illustration of Its Power.

A mother's love! What a potent thing it is! It will melt the heart of the most hardened criminal, when no other influence would be effectual. No one but a mother knows its full meaning, but every one can appreciate it if they will. It is known, though, that it means sleepless nights, care, inconvenience, and, if necessary, want, hardship and death. But the subject has been too eloquently treated by the sweetest poets and the ablest writers to furnish an essay for these columns. Too many practical illustrations occur in every day life for it to be dwelt upon, so that it is unnecessary to speak of the subject further in order to make the reader understand the full meaning of what is to follow.

Mrs. Henry Schualeu, of Ashland, Ky., writes that her daughter has been cured of deafness which resulted from chronic catarrh. She tells how she had lost all hope of her daughter (her ideal) being cured, and how overjoyed she was at the result. After trying many remedies, she says PERUNA brought a cure, and that the daughter's hearing is restored. She concludes, by speaking in the most flattering terms of PERUNA, and then describes in the most lovely manner the happiness it has brought her, and reviews the distress she experienced while her daughter was afflicted.

Dr. A. R. Ong, Martins Ferry, O., writes: "I have a large trade on your PERUNA. Think it is a grand remedy."

Mr. Robert C. Hannah, Tolesborough, Lewis county, Ky., writes: "I write to inform you of the great benefit I received by the use of your medicines, PERUNA and MANALIN. I had been low spirited and very sick for about six months with a bad cough, and my friends thought I had consumption; tried a number of patent medicines, and most of the doctors in the vicinity (and we have some as good as you can find in the country), but they did me no good whatever. Our merchant, Mr. Gillespie, insisted upon me trying your remedies. I did so, but must say, I had little faith in them at first; before I had consumed my first bottle, I noticed a change for the better, and to-day I am entirely well, and as sound a man as there is in the vicinity. I credit my cure to your valuable remedies, PERUNA and MANALIN, and recommend them to all of my friends."

WOMEN

Needing renewed strength, or who suffer from infirmities peculiar to their sex, should try

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

QUALITY PURITY STRENGTH NOT QUANTITY. On Every Bottle.

Trade Mark

THE BEST TONIC

This medicine combines Iron with pure vegetable tonics, and is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives. It Enriches and Purifies the Blood, Stimulates the Appetite, Strengthens the Muscles and Nerves—in fact, thoroughly Invigorates.

Clears the complexion, and makes the skin smooth. It does not blacken the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—all other Iron medicines do.

MRS. ELIZABETH BAIRD, 74 Farwell Ave., Milwaukee, Wis., says, under date of Dec. 20th, 1884: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters, and it has been more than a doctor to me, having cured me of the weakness ladies have to bear. Also cured me of Liver Complaint, and now my complexion is clear and good. Has been beneficial to my children."

Genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Takes no other. Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

LADIES' HAND BOOK—useful and attractive, containing list of prizes for recipes, information about coins, etc., given away by all dealers in medicine, or mailed to any address on receipt of 2c. stamp.

HEADQUARTERS
—FOR—
Sunday-school Supplies
Consisting of

GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with a without music.

Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, Bible Dictionaries.

Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books, Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Text Books, etc., etc. Also a large assortment of Books suitable for Libraries or presents to children. PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $2 65 to $12 00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock

W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent
94..... Camp Street, ...94
25tf NEW ORLEANS.

CORPULENCY Recipe and notes how to harmlessly, effectually and rapidly cure obesity without semi starvation dietary, etc. European Mail, Oct. 24th, says: Its effect is not merely to reduce the amount of fat, but by affecting the source of obesity to induce a radical cure of the disease. Mr. R. makes no charge whatever; any person, rich or poor, can obtain his work gratis, by sending 6 cts. to cover postage to F. C. RUSSELL, Esq., Woburn House, Store street, Bedford sq., London, Eng. may21-13t

A PRIZE Send six cents for postage, and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help you to more money right away than anything else in this world. All, of either sex, succeed from first hour. The broad road to fortune opens before the workers, absolutely sure. At once address, TRUE & Co., Augusta, Maine. feb19-26t

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9-12, 1883.
Sixty Addresses by American Educators
Edited by REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.
8vo. 272 pp. Price, stiff paper..$1. 25
Cloth..... 1 75

The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:

1. Education and Man's Improvement.
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America.
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Pauperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War.
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—ten tables.

It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents. The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak. The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index.

Sent postpaid on receipt of price.

Phillips & Hunt.
37 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

P. P. ALBERT,
(Successor to L. Bibolet, Manager,)
Produce Merchant,
And Dealer in Groceries,
S ..... Toulouse Street,..... S
P. O. Box 3249. NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Personal attention given to the sale of all produce entrusted to my care, and prompt returns rendered for same. All orders promptly filled at lowest market rates, for cash. Liberal advances made on consignments when received. Correspondence solicited.

No transactions on Sundays. sept25-tf

20 YEARS OF CONGRESS. JAMES G. BLAINE
1,000,000 Copies will soon be sold. The only history of our Government from 1861 to 1881. Hon. John S. Wise, M. C. from Virginia, says: "Whoever takes it up, no matter whether he be Mr. Blaine's friend or enemy, will never put it down until he has read the whole." $200 per month to good responsible agents. Apply at once, The Henry Bill Publishing Company, Norwich, Conn. dec30-52t

ROOSEVELT PORTABLE
PIPE ORGAN.

We have succeeded after many years of study and experiment in producing a portable GENUINE PIPE ORGAN which fills the place between the best reed organ and the church (pipe) organ.

As the various pipes are secured in their places the instrument requires no setting up, but is at once ready for use when unpacked.

It can be sold at a moderate advance above the price charged by reliable makers for their better class of reed organs, and it is just what has long been needed for small Churches, Chapels, Lodges, Sunday Schools and the Parlor.

HILBORNE L. ROOSEVELT,
Manufacturer of Church Organs.
145-147-149 West 18th St., New York.
ap130-6teow

RAILROADS.

Chesapeake & Ohio R. R.
—VIA—
WASHINGTON
—TO—
BALTIMORE,
PHILADELPHIA,
and NEW YORK.
THE ONLY LINE WITH
Pullman Sleeping Cars
—FROM—
Louisville, Cincinnati and Lexington
—TO—
WASHINGTON
WITHOUT CHANGE.
Schedule in effect October 12, 1884.

EASTWARD.	No. 4. Daily.	No. 6 ex Sunday
Leave Cincinnati	8 10 p m	8 30 p m
Leave Louisville	7 15 p m	7 00 a m
Leave Lexington	10 40 p m	11 45 a m
Leave Winchester	11 15 p m	12 25 p m
Due Mt. Sterling	12 02 a m	1 36 p m
Due Ashland	3 26 a m	5 55 p m
Due Huntington	4 00 a m	6 40 p m
Leave Huntington
Due Charleston	6 36 a m	10 00 p m
Due Clifton Forge	1 30 p m	6 40 a m
Due Staunton	3 57 p m	9 26 a m
Due Charlottesville	5 20 p m	11 05 a m
Due Richmond	9 15 p m	3 25 p m
Arrive Newport News	10 45 a m	6 30 p m
Due Washington	9 50 p m
Arrive New York	6 30 a m

WESTWARD.	No. 3, Daily.	No. 1, ex Sunday
Leave New York	10 00 a m	12 00 nt
Due Washington	5 10 p m	9 10 a m
Leave Newport News	3 50 p m
Leave Richmond	6 25 p m	9 35 a m
Due Charlottesville	10 00 p m	1 45 p m
Due Staunton	11 42 p m	4 57 p m
Due Clifton Forge	1 45 a m	6 49 p m
Due Charleston	9 00 a m	4 25 a m
Due Huntington
Leave Huntington	9 40 a m	6 20 a m
Due Ashland	10 19 a m	7 02 a m
Due Mt. Sterling	1 57 p m	11 05 a m
Leave Winchester	2 30 p m	11 45 a m
Arrive Lexington	3 20 p m	12 45 p m
Arrive Louisville	7 10 p m	5 20 p m
Arrive Cincinnati	6 05 p m	5 35 p m

Lexington Div. trains run by Central time. Main line trains East of Huntington run by Eastern time, which is one hour faster than Central time.

Nos. 1 and 6 run daily, except Sunday. Sleeping cars between Huntington and Clifton Forge.

Nos. 3 and 4 run daily, and do not stop for local business. Pullman Sleeping cars and Solid Train between Louisville and Washington and Cincinnati and Richmond without change.

Nos. 2 and 5 run daily between Richmond and Clifton Forge. Do not run between Clifton Forge and Richmond.

No. 1 leave Norfolk, except Sunday, 7 40 a m, Old Point 8 15 a m, Newport News 8 45 a m, arrive at Richmond at 11 35 a m.

No. 2 leave Richmond except Sunday, 3 20 a m, arrive Newport News 10 45 a m, Old Point 11 10 a m, Norfolk 11 45 a m.

Old Dominion Steamers leave Norfolk on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or Saturday at 6 00 p m; arrive in New York next afternoon.

For Rates, Tickets, Baggage Checks apply to any office of C. & O. R'y; or Depot or Ticket Office of connecting lines.

O. W. SMITH, Gen'l Manager.
H. W. FULLER, Gen'l Pass. Agt.

Ohio & Mississippi R. R
—The Direct and Fast Line to—
Cincinnati,
Louisville,
Washington,
Baltimore,
New York and the East,
In Connection with the
"Great Jackson Route,"
Makes the following
FAST TIME:

STATIONS. Leave	Daily
New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss.	12:38 a m
Canton	1:30 a m
Durant	2:52 p m
Grenada	4:50 a m
Coffeeville	5:25 a m
Water Valley	6:00 a m
Oxford	6:43 a m
Holly Springs	7:54 a m
Grand Junction	9:15 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St. L & N. O.	11:05 a m
Milan " " "	12:20 p m
Martin " " "	1:32 p m
Fulton " " "	2:00 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:30 p m
Carbondale "	6:58 p m
DuQuoin "	7:45 p m
Ashley "	8:28 p m
Centralia "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:26 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi.	9:29 p m
" Louisville, "	6:50 a m
" Cincinnati "	7:05 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.

Passengers living on the line of the C. St. L. & N. O. R. R. will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.

The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.

2 DAILY TRAINS
FROM ODIN
To WASHINGTON in 27 Hours,
To BALTIMORE in 28 Hours.

This is 5 Hours quicker than the fastest time by any other line.

The Day Express runs entire train consisting of Day Coaches and Palace Sleeping Cars from St. Louis to Washington and Baltimore without change.

The Night Express has Sleepers through without change. No other line from St. Louis offers a Double Daily Through Train Service to the National Capital.

W. W. PEABODY,
President and General Manager.
W. B. SHATTUC,
General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio. jy31tf

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

The old reliable route to all Eastern cities. Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leaves:	Arrives.
Express	8:00 a m	7:45 a m
Coast Accommodation	3:35 p m	9:10 a m
Fast Mail	8:20 p m	7:30 p m

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. C. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.

W. B. Kniskern, Ticket Agent; J. T. Harahan, General Manager; John Kilkeny, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; O. M. Dunn, Superintendent N. O. and M. Division. a25-1y

RAILROADS.

C. I. St. L. & C. 4
KANKAKEE LINE.

4 PASSENGER TRAINS each way per day between Cincinnati and Indianapolis.

3 PASSENGER TRIANS each way per day between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Chicago.

2 PASSENGER TRIANS each way per day, between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette, Kankake, Seneca and Davenport, Ia.

KANKAKEE LINE.

Entire trains run through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Chicago. Pullman Sleepers and elegant Reclining Chair Cars on Night trains. Parlor Cars on Day Trains.

SHELDON ROUTE.

Commodious Reclining Chair Cars run through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Peoria, Ills. and Keokuk, Ia. Close connection for Burlington, Ia.

KANKAKEE & SENECA ROUTE.

The ONLY LINE (running Elegant coaches through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Davenport, Ia.

CONNECTIONS

At Cincinnati, in Central Union Depot, with all trains of the Cincinnati Southern Railway, (Queen & Crescent Route) thus avoiding the tedious omnibus transfer incident to ALL other lines.

At Indianapolis, in Union Depot, with all lines diverging.

Through Tickets and Baggage Checks to all Principal Points,

Can be obtained at any ticket office, C. I. St. L. & C. Ry., also via this line at all Coupon Ticket Offices throughout the country.

See Agents of this Company for Rates, Routes, &c., or write Grant E. Lewis, Trav. Pass. Agt., Wilmore, Ky.
JOHN EGAN, Gen'l Pass. and Tkt. Agent, Cincinnati, O.

BIG
Great Jackson Route.
Illinois Central R. R. Co.
Double Daily Passenger Trains.

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Passenger No. 2, 9:15 a.m.	Pass'gr No. 1, 7:00 a m
No. 4 St. L. & Chi. Express, 6:00 p. m.	No. 3, Chic. N. O. Lim. Ex. 9:00 a.m
No. 6 Sun Ex... 7:30 a.m	No. 5 Sun. Ex., 8:30 p.m

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.

Ticket Office: Cor. Carondelet and Canal, (Pickwick Club Building.)

WM. MURRAY,
General Southern Passenger Agent.
J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT KENNEDY, Ticket Agent.

C & O

The Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company have moved their ticket management and business rooms to No. 225 Fourth avenue.

C. O. & S. W. R. R.
THE SOUTHERN TRUNK LINE
—TO—
Louisville, Cincinnati, Washington, Baltimore,
And the Short Line to
Cairo, St. Louis, Chicago and the Northwest.
The Direct Route to
Eastern Seaboard Cities, Texas, Arkansas and the Southwest.
Chesapeake, Ohio & Southwestern R. R.

For Owensboro, Henderson, Paducah and Memphis and all points South and Southwest. Ticket office, 225 Fourth avenue; Depot, corner of Fourteenth and Main streets.

	Daily	Express ex Sun'y	Accom Daily
Leave Louisville		7 50 a m	4 10 p m
Arrive at Cecelia		10 20 a m	6 45 p m
" Elizabethtown		10 10 a m	7 05 p m
" Grayson Springs		11 12 a m
" Litchfield		11 23 a m
" Central City		2 00 a m
" Owensboro		5 05 a m
" Nortonsville		3 27 p m
" Hopkinsville		9 50 p m
" Madisonville		4 37 p m
" Henderson		6 10 p m
" Evansville		8 10 p m
" Tradewater		4 07 p m
" Princeton		4 47 p m
" Padnch		7 00 p m
" Mayfield		8 27 p m
" Fulton		9 29 p m
" Cairo		10 45 p m
" Rives		10 10 p m
" Memphis		3 30 a m
" Louisville		7 00 p m	9 35 a m

Tickets now on sale at depot at lowest rates. Call on or address R. H. TALLEY, Ticket Agent, Memphis, Tenn.
Or B. F. MITCHELL, Gen. Pass. Agt, Louisville, Ky.

ARE YOU GOING TO
KANSAS, MISSOURI, COLORADO, CALIFORNIA OR ANY OF THE WESTERN STATES?

If so you should avail yourself of the advantages that are now offered by the Kansas City Route, the only direct route from the South to the West and Northwest. This line runs its entire trains, with Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars and free Reclining Chair Cars, from Memphis to Kansas City, saving many hours time over any other route. If you are going West you will save money by purchasing your tickets via Memphis and the Kansas City Route. Send for large map of this Short Route; mailed free. Address,
J. E. LOCKWOOD, Kansas City, Mo.
Or, H. D. ELLIS, Ticket Agent. 31 Madison street, Memphis, Tenn.

General News Items.

Nebraska—A scientific temperance bill passed both houses by a great majority. A bill was also passed prohibiting the sale of tobacco to minors under fifteen years of age.

West Virginia.—The constitutional amendment was lost in the House of Delegates, after a severe contest, by vote of 42 in favor to 23 against—not the necessary two-thirds, 28 Republicans and 14 Democrats voting in favor, and 23 Democrats against.

Virginia.—The last Legislature passed a local-option law for two counties, but smothered a general local option law in committee. The question will enter largely into selection of the next Legislature.

Michigan.—The House passed the Constitutional Amendment by a vote of 67, the exact two-thirds necessary—all but 2 Republicans and 23 Democrats voting in its favor. The Senate defeated it—18 in favor, 13 against; not the necessary two thirds. The Republicans all voted for it; all Democrats against.

Illinois.—A strong effort has been made to repeal the so called high-license law, but unsuccessfully. A bill to reduce the price of license from $500 to $250 was defeated in the Senate, 14 to 17. The temperance educational bill passed the Senate, and has been reported favorably in the House.

Georgia.—A general local option law passed the Senate, 26 to 12, but was laid over in the House for the July session for lack of time to consider it.

North Carolina.—An "omnibus bill," containing local prohibitory laws for a large number of churches, schools, etc., was passed, but no general law covering the State.

Connecticut.—A law was adopted permitting a transfer of license on approval of county commissioners. Several bills were introduced to weaken the present law, but met with little approval.

Tennessee.—The Senate passed the prohibitory Amendment 20 to 11, and the House by a vote of 65 to 22. It must now receive a two-thirds vote of the next Legislature, which meets two years hence, before it goes to the people.

Indiana.—A bill to allow saloons to keep open from eleven p. m. till midnight was adopted in the Senate, 25 to 19. A scientific education bill passed the House, but was defeated in the Senate. A high-license bill was defeated in both Houses.

Colorado.—A bill was passed to "prevent the sale of liquors to minors," and two bills concerning liquor licenses were indefinitely postponed. Prohibition and high-license have prevailed in nearly half of the local elections of the large towns of the State.

Florida.—A bill amending the Local Option law, making it much more stringent and effective, passed the Assembly and was defeated in the Senate, mainly for lack of time for its consideration.

Pennsylvania.—A scientific temperance educational bill was adopted by an overwhelming majority. A bill to allow the sale of liquors in Fairmount Park was defeated by a large majority.

Mississippi.—The Legislature passed prohibitory laws for eight counties, the Florida district, thirty-three towns, and near eighteen churches and schools. The "gallon law" was so amended as to require a majority to petition for a license before it could be granted.

Alabama.—The Legislature adjourned in favor of local prohibitory laws, for which places between a gallon and a quart was made by the liquor interest of those localities. The Assembly compromised with prohibitionists, but two days before the adjournment

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

Royal Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness? More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO. 106 Wall Street, N. Y.

apr30-1y

Sunday-School and Children.

Second Quarterly Review.

HOME READINGS.

M.—Lessons I, II, Acts 27, 1. 14 44.
Tu.—Lessons III, IV. Acts 28. 1-31.
W.—Lessons V. Eph. 6. 1-13.
Th.—Lessons VI, VII. Phil. 2, 5-16; 4. 4 13.
F.—Lessons VIII, IX. 1 Tim. 15-2 6; 2 Tim. 3. 14-4. 8.
S.—Lessons X, XI. Heb. 1. 1-8; 2. 1-4; 9. 1-12.
S.—Lesson XII. 2 Pet. 1. 1-11.

REVIEW SCHEME.

Lesson I.—What calamity overtook Paul and the ship's company? What assurance did the angel give Paul?

Lesson II.—Recall the incidents of the night of danger? How was the ship's company saved? Notice the contrast between selfishness and love.

Lesson III.—What happened during their stay in Melita? What country did Paul finally reach? What prophecy was fulfilled when Paul reached Rome?

Lesson IV.—To whom did the apostle first preach? After that he declared the Gospel to whom? Learn how God opens the way for preaching.

Lesson V.—What home duties does Paul enjoin? What directions does he give respecting Christian warfare?

Lesson VI.—What is said of the humiliation of Jesus? Of his exaltation? How are we taught the lesson of humility?

Lesson VII.—What does Paul say of rejoicing? Recount the Christian virtues. What is said respecting contentment?

Lesson VIII.—Memorize the faithful saying, (ver. 15.) What charge did Paul deliver to Timothy? Learn the duty of prayer.

Lesson IX.—What does Paul say of—1. The Scriptures? 2. The faithful teacher? 3. The crown? The reward of Bible study and obedience.

Lesson X.—How has God revealed himself to men? What danger is mentioned and how is it to be avoided?

Lesson XI.—What have you learned in this lesson about—1. The tabernacle? The priest? Christ? The excellence of Jesus as priest and sacrifice?

Lesson XII.—What is the purport of the promises? Name the Christian graces. The result of cultivating these, and the reward of care in the religious life.

Mr. L. H. Richardson, Sunday-school Superintendent at Milford, Texas, writes: "Our first quarterly review, passed off on the 29th of last month; all of the officers were present. The school went through the review very well for the first time; our pastor in charge was with us; we had a good time and, the Lord willing, we expect to go on. We are building a Sunday-school house, the same old house, but I am in hopes that we will get our new house up soon. Our presiding elder, W. K. Davis, was with us a few days ago; he liked our Sunday-school exercises very well."

Rev. A. Payne, Hahnville, La., writes:—Expressions of a little boy to his step-father, of our Sunday-school: "Uncle Henry, I am praying to save my soul, and you ought to pray too." "Are you praying?" Said the step-father to the boy. "Yes, sir, I am praying to God because my soul is just as good as them big folk's souls." This boy is only nine years old. Now this is a hint to unconverted parents, neither this boy's step-father nor his mother has religion yet. The scriptures say, "hear oh, father, and tell your children."

"I can't Sleep!" Sufferers from nervous prostration, and wasted vitality can regain health by using Hunt's Kidney Remedy.

Marriages.

At the residence of the bride, near Clarksville, Texas, Mr. Jasper Clements to Miss Mollie Johnson; Rev. Paul Douglass officiating.

At Yazoo City, Miss., June 4, 1885, Mr. George Walton to Miss Anna Leonard.

In Yazoo City, Miss., June 8, 1885, Mr. Lorenzo Newman to Miss Carrie Washington.

In Yazoo City, Miss., June 11, 1885, Mr. James Newman to Miss Amanda Hamock.

At the home of the bride, in New Orleans, La., June 13, 1885, Mr. George Cammack to Miss Matilda Jane Oden; H. C. Armston officiating.

Obituary.

Sister Bell Williams departed this life in Elkhorn, Tenn., May 3, 1885. Also, on the 7th inst., Nathan Williams, son of Sister Bell Williams, fell asleep in Christ.

J. F. R. W. SUMMERHILL.

Mrs. Alice Hall departed this life January 3, 1885, at Petersburg, Tenn. She leaves a husband and two children to mourn her loss. F. J. YEARGIN.

Miss Molly Moore, one of the members of the M. E. Church on the Marlin circuit, departed this life a few days ago; aged 19 years. Mrs. Betty Quash, also a member of our church, died a few days ago, in the 80th year of her age.

REV. C. YOUNG.

Miss Dollie Filmore, danghter of Mr. and Mrs. Filmore, died at Lone Oak, Texas, May 4, 1885; aged 10 years.

REV. J. T. GIBBONS.

Conference Notices.

Plan of Episcopal Visitation.—1885. Fall Conferences.

[ALPHABETICAL.]

CONFERENCE.	PLACE.	TIME.	BISHOP.
Alabama	Edwardsville, Ala.	Nov 26	Mallalieu
Arizona Miss.	Tucson, Arizona.	Sept 17.	Fowler.
Austin	Denton, Texas	Dec 10.	Foster
Black Hills Miss	Rapid City, Dak.	Aug. 20.	Ninde
Blue Ridge	Gastonia, N. C.	Oct 1.	Mallalieu
Bulgaria Miss.	Rustchuk, Bul.	Oct. 1.
California	Stockton, Cal.	Sept. 3.	Fowler
C'l Alabama	Mobile, Ala.	Dec. 10	Mallalieu
C'l China mis'n	Kiukiang, China.	Oct. 14.
C'l German	Columbus, Ohio.	Sept 10.	Harris
C'l Illinois	Fairbury, Ill.	Sept 24.	Warren
C'l New York	Syracuse, N. Y.	Oct 8.	Merrill
C'l Ohio	Fostoria, O.	Sept 17.	Harris
C'l Tennessee	Tullahoma, Tenn.	Oct 15	Mallalieu
Chicago German	Manitowoc, Wis.	Sept 17	Bowman
Cincinnati	Cincinnati, O.	Sept 3.	Harris
Colorado	Pueblo Col.	Aug 20	Andrews
Columbia River	Spokane Falls	W. T. July 16.	Walden
Dakota miss'n	Blont Dak.	Oct 8.	Foss
Des Moines	Des Moines, Ia.	Sept 17.	Foss
Detroit	Pontiac, Mich.	Sept 10	Warren
East Ohio	Barnesville, O.	Sept 17.	Foster
East Tennessee	Knoxville, Tenn.	Oct 22	Hurst
Erie	Sharon, Pa.	Sept 10.	Merrill
Foochow	Foochow, China.	Nov 19.
Genesee	Lima, N Y.	Oct 1.	Hurst
Georgia	Ellijay, Ga.	Nov 19	Mallalieu
Holston	Johnson City, Tenn	Oct 15.	Hurst
Idaho	Canyon City Oreg.	July 30	Walden
Illinois	Rushville, Ill.	Sept 17.	Ninde
Indiana	Spencer, Ind.	Aug 27.	Harris
Iowa	Mt. Pleasant, Ia.	Sept 10.	Ninde
Japan	Tokio, Japan.	Aug 20.
Kentucky	Covington, Ky.	Oct 1.	Harris
Michigan	G'nd Rapids, Mich.	Sept 17.	Warren
Minnesota	Rochester, Minn.	Oct 1.	Andrews
Montana miss'n	Dillon, Montana.	July 1.	Walden
Nebraska	Seward, Neb.	Sept 17	Andrews
Nevada miss'n	Bishop's Ck, Nev.	Aug 20.	Fowler
N Mexico miss'n	Santa Fe, N. Mex.	Oct 1.	Fowler
Spanish	Peralta New Mex.	Sept 24.	Fowler
N China miss'n	Peking, China.	Sept 24.
N. Dakota	Wahpeton, Dak.	Sept 17.	Walden
N. Nebraska	Ponca, Neb.	Sept 3.	Andrews
N. Ohio	Berea, Ohio.	Sept 3.	Merrill
New German	LeSeur, Minn.	Sept 24	Andrews
New Indiana	Valparaiso, Ind.	Sept 3.	Foss
New Iowa	Storm Lake, Ia.	Sept 24.	Foss
New Swedish	Dayton, Ia.	Sept 3.	Bowman
New Zealand	Cambridge, Wis.	Sept 10	Bowman
Ohio	Delaware, Ohio.	Sept 24.	Foster
Oregon	Roseburg, Oreg.	Aug 27.	Walden
Pittsburgh	Allegheny City, Pa.	Sept 17.	Merrill
Puget Sound	Tacoma, W. T.	Aug 13.	Walden
Rock River	Elgin, Ill.	Oct 8.	Fowler
St Louis German	St. Louis, Mo.	Sept 10.	Foss
Savannah	Savannah, Ga.	Dec 3	Mallalieu
S. E. Indiana	Brookville, Ind.	Sept 24.	Harris
S. California	Santa Barbara, Cal	Sept 10.	Fowler
S. German	San Antonio	Nov 19.	Foster
S. Illinois	Edwardsville, Ill.	Sept 24.	Ninde
Tennessee	Gallatin, Tenn.	Oct 22	Mallalieu
Texas	Houston, Tex.	Nov 26.	Foster
Upper Iowa	Toledo, Ia.	Oct 1.	Warren
Utah mission	Park City, Utah.	July 2.	Warren
West German	Clayton'a, Neb.	Sept 3.	Walden
W. Nebraska	Kearney, Neb.	Sept 10	Andrews
West Texas	Austin, Tex	Dec 3.	Foster
West Virginia	Charleston, W. Va.	Sept 24.	Merrill
W. Wisconsin	Dodgeville, Wis.	Sept 24	Bowman
Wisconsin	Waukesha, Wis.	Oct 1.	Bowman

By order of the Board of Bishops.

WM. L. HARRIS, Secretary.

St. Louis, Mo., May 18, 1885.

La Teche District—Louisiana Conference.

Introductory sermon, Aug. 12, at 7:30 p. m.—Wm. Smith.
Missionary sermon, Aug. 13, at 7:30 p. m.—S. E. H. Morant.
Methodism, its doctrines and usages—J F Marshall.
Temperance, how to promote it—R Anderson.
Sunday-school and its officers—M J Dyer
Our work in the South—E Fields.
The benevolent collections and our pecuniary interests—A E P Albert.
Ministerial qualification and deportment—A J Pickett.
Education, character and wealth, their proper claims to power—S E H Morant.
Do benevolent and other societies injure the church?—T Larkins.
How to build churches and promote revivals—A Laster.
Evidences of conversion—H T O Abbott.
Marriage and divorce—C Monroe.
Christian and industrial education—B Boldsn.
Baptism, mode and subjects—P Bibbs.
Church government—J Augustus.
From Egypt to Canaan—A E P Albert.
Ministerial support, a moral obligation.—Wm Smith.
Observance of the Sabbath—G W Williams.
Stewards and their duties—N Randolph.
Why am I a Methodist?—S Green.
Class meetings and qualifications of leaders—E B Richards.
Attendance and deportment at church—Jos Johnson.
Children's Day as it should be—B M Johnson.

Sunday-school, temperance and other anniversaries will be held during the session. Mrs. Barksdale, Mrs. Armstead, Miss Thomas, Mrs. Dr. Albert and other representotives of the Woman's Missionary Society, will address the conference. Revs. S. Duncan, ex-presiding elder, M. C. B Mason, and E. Lyon, representing the Sunday-school interests; Prof. Hoyt, New Orleans University; Dr. Taylor of the SOUTHWESTERN, and Bishop Mallalieu have been invited to attend. Special rates will be arranged with the railroad.

By the committee.

A. E. P. ALBERT, P. E.

Murfreesboro District—Tennessee Conference.

Fourth Round.

Lebanon station	July 31, Aug.	2
North Lebanon ct	"	1- 2
Alexandria	"	8- 9
Cana Fork and Carthage	"	15-16
Martin Creek	"	22-23
Liberty	"	29-30
Cooksville	Sept.	5- 6
Sparta	"	12-13
McMinnville sta	"	18-20
McMinnville ct	"	19-20
Manchester and Hillsboro	"	23
Tullahoma	"	24
Shelbyville sta	"	26-27
Petersburg	"	29 30
Spencer	Oct.	3- 4
Murfreesboro ct	"	6- 7
Stone River	"	8- 9
Woodbury	"	10-11
Murfreesboro sta	"	15-16

District Conference at Liberty, Tennessee, Aug. 25, 26, 27, 28, 29.

C. H. BULLINGTON, P. E.

Ashville District—Central Alabama Conference.

Third Round.

The District Conference will convene at Oxford, Alabama, July 23 at 9 a. m., in the M. E. Church, and every member of the district conference is expected to be at that place on the 23d when the roll is called, and with reports.

Birmingham	June	27-28
Enon	July	4- 5
Blunts Springs	"	11-12
Holston Chapel	"	11-12
Oxford	"	25-26
Collinsville	Aug.	1- 2
Ashville	"	1- 2
Gadsden	"	8- 9
Howells Cross Roads	"	15-16
Centre	"	15-16
Wedowee	"	22-23
Lineaville	"	29 30
Talladega	Sept.	5-6

O. NELSON, P. E.

Indiana District—Lexington Conference.

Second Round.

Simpson Chapel	July	4- 5
Jeffersonville, Ind	Aug.	2- 3
Watson, Ind	"	1- 2
New Albany, Ind	"	4
Corydon, Ind	"	5
Canneltoe, Ind	"	8- 9
Rockport, Ind	"	10-11
Newburg, Iod	"	15-16
Evansville, Ind	"	17-18
Carmi, Ills	"	19-20
Grayville, Ill	"	21
Princeton, Ind	"	22-23
District Conference at Terre Haute	"	24-27
Lawrenceville, Ill	"	29-30
Pinkstaff, Ill	"	31
Greencastle, Ind	Sept.	5- 9
New Castle, Ind	"	12-15
Libsr circuit	"	16-18
Rushville, Ind	"	19-20
Shelbyville, Ind	"	26-27
Cloves, Ohio	Oct.	3- 4
Connersville, Ind	"	10-11
Madisonville, Ind	"	17-18

The following is the programme for the District Conference, to be held at Terre Haute, Ind, August 24 to 27, 1885, commencing at 3 o'clock p. m.:

Rev. S S. Stone will preach the opening sermon.

Subjects for discussion—

What is the duty of the pastor to the Sunday-school?—Revs. M. S. Johnson and J. T. Leggett.

What are the best methods to raise the benevolent money? Rev. C. T. Jones.

What constitutes pastoral success? Revs. McCoomer and C. H. Taylor.

What other qualifications does an educated minister need to make him successful in his work?—Rev. G. Zigler.

What is sanctification, how and when may we become it?—Revs. T. M. Tomkins and F. Hinton.

What are the things that the colored people need to make them a great people? Revs. A. A. Price and T. M. Steward.

What is the outlook for the Indiana District of the Lexington Conference of the M. E. Church?—Chas. P. Jones, P. E.

Notice.

To the pastors and Sunday-school superintendents of the Marshall District, Texas Conference:—A Sunday-school Convention will be held in Paris, Texas, August 12-13, 1885. The convention will take cognizance of all the work of the district west of Texarkana. The following is the programme:

The opening subject, by Presiding Elder H. Webb, on music, and to hold a model school each day.

R. H. Harbert—How to get the old people to attend Sunday-school.

Taylor Moore—Duty of Sunday-school superintendents.

J. B. McCulloch—The benefit of the Good Tidings.

P. Douglass—The best method to improve the Sunday-schools.

V. M. Cole—How to conduct Sunday-schools.

John Jackson—What relation is the Sunday school to the church?

W. S. Bagby—The duty of a pastor to the Sunday-school.

All pastors and Sunday-school superintendents west of Texarkana are expected at Paris on August 11, 1885.

Committee on Programme: J. B McCulloch, P. Douglass and John Jackson.

Sunday-school Institute.

To the pastors, local preachers and Sunday-school superintendents of the Lonisville District, Lexington Conference—You are hereby notified that the first session of the District Sunday-school Institute will meet in Jackson Street M. E. Church, Lonisville, Ky., July 24th, and Short Line Park July 25th. Representatives of the Sunday-school Union will be entitled to be present. The persons named above, with delegates elected by the Sunday-schools, will compose the Institute. Brethren, be present, all who are elected delegates. A programme will be issued by July 5.

J. ALLEN ROSS,
S. G. TURNER,
J. L. PERRIN,
Committee.

Programme

Of the Murfreesboro District Conference, to be held at Liberty, Tennessee, Aug. 26 1885:

Faith in the Holy Trinity—Rev. T. Woods.
The Lord's Supper—Rev. John B. Massey.
The mode of Baptism—Rev. H. W. Simmons.
The resurrection—Rev. B. James.
The immediate state of the dead—W. C. Miller.
Predestination—Rev. C L. Seward.
Justification by faith—J A. C. Ward.
Prayer—Rev. John Kencer.
Regeneration—Rev. Wesley Lillard.
Fall from grace—Felix Yeargan.
Filial Apostacy—Rev. S. Knight.
What relation have baptized children to the church?—Rev. P. R Woodson.
Public Worship—Rev. O Green.
What relation is the Sunday-school to the church?—Rev. B, F. Whitley.
The best manner in making pastoral visits—Rev. B Anderson.
The origin of the Methodist Episcopal Church—G. W. Hoose.
Repentance—Felix Allen.
The witness of the spirit—A. Martin.
The presiding elder, C H. Bullington, is to give account of one hundred years of Methodism.

C. L. SEWARD,
H. W. SIMMONS,
P. R. WOODSON,
Committee.

Notice.

The Okolona District Conference, Mississippi Annual Conference Methodist Episcopal Church, will convene July 30 and 31, and August 1 2, at Crawford, Miss., at 10:30 a. m. We hope to see a full attendance there. Brethren, please come with your reports showing that you have done something for all of the general benevolences of the church. We hope that special attention has been or will be given to the collection for Rust University. If you have not done anything, go to work now, it is not too late yet; yet all are interested.

D. A. WILLIAMS, P. E.

Programme: Of the Woman's Home Mission Society, D. W. Calvert and C. W. Walton. All must be present.

J. W. PARKS,
B. H. S. FERGUSON,
L. F. WHITE.

PROGRAMME

July 30—Sermon, at 10:30 a. m., by Rev T. L. Ingbram, of Honston; alternate, Rev J. B. Biewett, of Caledonia; after which the business of the session will be taken up as per Discipline; the afternoon for committees in each of the four courses of studies, and such other business as may be committed to them. At 8 p. m. the M. E Church South and work among both races, by L. F. White and T. W. Davis, and others.

July 30: Best method for raising benevolent collections—R Scell and J. W. Davis. Church Extension—I. L. Pratt and Wm. Gatewood.

The M. E. Church as a temperance society—M Adams, Jas. Trice and B. J. Griffin.

The Freedmen's Aid and Rust University—Presiding Elder G. Brooks and J. W. Parks.

Saturday night at 4 p. m: Sabbath-school literature—J. J. Harris and G. F. Murry.

Class meeting—Geo. Dobson and G. Carr.

Duty of local preachers—L. J. Terrill and S. Gipson.

Missionary Society and its work—B. H. S. Ferguson, W. S. Gillespie, P. Jamison.

Organization and management of Sabbath-schools—J. J. Freeman and John Everett.

St Lateche District Conference

Will meet in New Iberia, La., Thursday, Aug 13, 1885, at 9 a. m. All persons authorized by the Discipline are expected to attend, and others are invited. We hope to make the session of especial interest, and to do this wish full reports from all charges.

Notice.

There will be a Basket Meeting at Robelsee, on the 21st of June, for the purpose of building a new Church. People of Natchitoches and Marthaville, with their pastors, invited.

W. R. BUTLER, Pastor.

Notice.

To the Pastors of Navasota District:—Sister Easter Morgan's funeral will be preached, by Rev. V. M. Cole, on the third Sunday in June, and the friends and relatives of Sister Morgan, by dropping me a card, can arrive at Millican Saturday night, the 20th, at 1:55 a. m. and 2:45 a. m., and leave Sunday night at 1:05 and 2:45 a. m. All of those from Hempstead up to Navasota coming to Millican will lose Sunday from your home and from Calvert the same.

THOS. COLE.

Notice.

Third Round.

Queen City	July	11 12
Kildare	"	18 19
Jefferson	"	18 19
Hughe's Springs	"	25 26
Cypress	"	25 26
Linden	Aug.	1- 2
Paris ct	"	8- 9
Bonham and Sulphur	"	9- 9
Blossom Prairie	"	15 16
Clarksville	"	15 16
Red Oak	"	22 23
Marshall ct	"	22-23
Ebenezer	"	29-30

H. WEBB.

Books and Current Literature.

Professor Whitney, of Yale College is referred to by the Athenæum, in recent review of his article on "Philogy," in the "Enclopædia Britannica," as "certainly the highest living authority on the science of language in general." Professor Whitney has been engaged for several years in editing the great English dictionary which The Century Co., are to publish on its completion—probably within three years.

June Babyhood is a very valuable number.

Old Highways in China. By Isabelle Williams, of Chefoo, North China, is a 12mo, brown cloth and gold finish, with 25 chapters, 24 illnstrations and 281 pages. Price $1.25. Published by the American Tract Society, 150 Nassau street, New York. The author has been an extensive traveler is an easy graceful writer, a woman and a lover of women. She has given a work here that is brimming full of Chinese life and habits. It is not the national character so much as the social with which she deals. One gets a glance behind the walls, and feels himself much better acquainted with China's people after than before reading. It is especially designed to help by encouraging women in their work among women, and this we esteem it well calculated to do. She came into contact with the people and the result of her observation will appear in the grotesqueness of several of the illustrations, for example that of a Chinese bullock cart on a country road at page 17. Others bring our minds to the rude and uncivil ages when man's worst foe was no beast, but man. Such is the old north Chinese wall, dismal, gigantic and crumbling, it is a constant relic and reminder of the barbaric past. At the first of the work there is a fine map of the scene of the author's travels. Girls especially onght to get and read this book.

The Life of General Gordon, "The Christian Hero." New and revised edition, brought down to the fall of Kartoum, with portrait from a photograph taken at Kartonm, by the author of "Our Queen," "New World Heroes" etc, 12mo, $1.25. cloth and gold, published by T. Y. Crowell & Co., 13 Astor Place, New York. Here is a work about a popular man and upon a living subject. It is so written that it is compelled to be interesting, and it is useful as much for the incidental history it gives as for the main work it has in hand. No one will read its 375 pages without concluding that in himself General Gordon was a good meaning person, full of courage, fertile of resources, and capable of great strategy or diplomacy to carry a point. This is fully shown by proclamation of domestic slavery in the Soudan. He has died in the service of his country and his countrymen will cherish his memory. His death was a sad finale to a groundless war. The book ought to secure a large trade among American readers. After reading it we think decidedly better of General Gordon than when we began to read it. But our enhanced estimate of him has been at the expense of the country he so heroically served.

Royal Blood.

We are all kings and queens in this country, and we have a right to as good blood as that which courses through the veins of emperors. If the blood is poor and the cheeks are pale, it is well known that Brown's Iron Bitters is the great tonic which will give color, vigor, and vitality. Mr. M. K. Gibson, of West Point, Miss., says, "I felt weak and debilitated. Brown's Iron Bitters made me strong and well."

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; It produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

July 17-1y.

Skin Diseases.—"Swayne's Ointment," "Swayne's Ointment" cures Tetter, salt Rheum, Ringworm, Sores, Pimples, Eczema, all Itchy Skin Eruptions, no matter how obstinate or long standing.

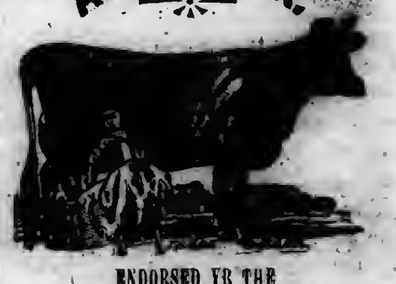
nov13-1yeow

It don't pay to give one man, for $15 a quarter, a license to sell liquor, and then pay $5,000 on a trial on an other man for buying that liquor and committing murder under its influences.—Christian Secretary.

To keep the doors open, the oil glands and tubes active and thus furnish an outlet for impurities in the perspiration and blood which cause humiliating blotches, blackheads, and minor skin blemishes; to cleanse, whiten, and beautify the skin; remove tan, freckles sunburn, and oily matter; to keep the hands soft, white, and free from chaps and roughness, prevent contagious skin and scalp diseases, and provide an exquisite skin beautifier and toilet, bath, and nursery sanative, redolent with delicious flower odors and Cuticura healing balsams, is the special duty of the Cuticura Soap. Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great Skin Cures and Beautifiers, and Cuticura Resolvent, the new Blood Purifier, cure every form of Skin and Blood Diseases, from Pimples to Scrofula. Sold everywhere. Price, Cuticura, 50c.; Soap, 25c.; Resolvent, $1.00. Potter Drug and Chemical Co., Boston.



STANDARD
Cane Mills
For Horse and Steam Power.
Evaporators
For Syrup and Sugar.
Known and Used
the World Over.

We are the sole makers of the Victor, Great Western, and Niles Cane Mills, of the original and genuine Cook Evaporator, and of the Automatic Cook Evaporator.

BLYMYER MANUFACTURING CO.,
CINCINNATI, O.
Manufacturers of Steam Engines, Boilers, Ice Machinery, and Refrigerating Machinery.

June18-4e

LACTART
ACID OF MILK.

ENDORSED BY THE HIGHEST MEDICAL AUTHORITY.

Healthful and Delicious Beverage and Tonic for Family Use.

Superior to Lime Juice or Lemons.

A Remedy for Dyspepsia and Ills arising from a Disordered Stomach.

Specially recommended as a preventative and relief for Cholera, Sunstroke, Fevers, and valuable in Urinary difficulties.

A Specific for Sea-sickness.

Sold by Druggists.

Avery Lactate Co.,
BOSTON, MASS. apr30 3m.

Chautauqua Periodicals.

Chautauqua Assembly Daily Herald,

An eight page paper, printed on a steam power press on the Assembly grounds at Chautauqua, every morning during the meeting in August; 10 numbers in the volume, containing stenographic reports of more than 70 lectures on science, philosophy, religion and practical questions besid s reports of lectures meetings, debates and classroom drills. An invaluable collection.

The first number will appear Saturday, Aug. 1.
Subscription price, - $1 00
In clubs of five or more at one time - - 90.

THE CHAUTAUQUAN,

A first-class Literary Magazine. The organ of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle, containing one-half of the Required Readings of the course with the special department of Local Circles, Questions and Answers on the Books in the course. C. L. S. C. Work and Notes on the Required Readings.

A Literary Department of great merit, furnishing articles from the foremost writers of the country.

Subscription price, - - - - - $1.50
In clubs of five or more at one time - - 1.25
Vol. VI will begin with the October number.

Chautauqua Boys and Girls.

A Daily Paper for the Boys and Girls, to be issued at Chautauqua in August. Pictures of Chautauqua life. Full accounts of all children's meetings.

Subscription price - - - - - 50c
In clubs of five or more - - - - 40c

COMBINATION OFFER.

The Chautauquan and Assembly Daily Herald - - - - - - - - $2.25
The Chautauquan, Assembly Daily Herald and Chautauqua Boys and Girls - - - - - - - - - $2 70

Address: DR. T. L. FLOODY,
Editor and Proprietor.
Meadville, Pa.

je 25-8t

CHRISTIAN

MEN and WOMEN Wanted are
AS AGENTS
For the New and Far-selling Edition of the
JAMIESON, FAUSSET & BROWN BIBLE COMMENTARY.
4 vols., nearly 4,000 pp. Maps and Illustrations. In cloth, $8; half morocco, $10 per set.
Best terms and exclusive territory. Permanent employment given after satisfactory trial.
Jerome B. Names & Co.,
134 St Clair street, Toledo, Ohio.
Th[illegible] heartily recommended.
mar5-39t

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 20---NO 27. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, JULY 1, 1885 WHOLE NUMBER 816.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,
37 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor

Terms: $1.50 per Year, Cash in Advance; after Three Months, $2; to Pastors, $1. Six Months, 75c. Three Months, 50c.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

All matter not of a business nature must be addressed to the editor.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	8 cents.
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	6 "
Six months (26 times)	5 "
One year (52 times)	4 "
Marriage Notices	25 "
Special Notices	8 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

"The membership of Durant circuit, Mississippi, is 272 instead of 212."—J. M. Nevils.

"I read the SOUTHWESTERN with great interest, and notice great improvement."—W. H. Ongley.

A fine new church for our people in Vicksburg, Miss., is contemplated, with Ira B. Griffin for pastor. It ought to succeed.

Snbscriber at Brenham, Texas, must rewrite question, and sign name at the bottom, in order to obtain any reply through the SOUTHWESTERN. Sometimes our acquaintance with the querist aids us in answering.

By almost every mail we receive correspondence from persons who inform us that it is their first letter to a paper. To draw ont an interest and this class of our people at books and paper is an achievement of which we are really proud.

Many friends, among them Mrs. Prof. Westbrooks, of Waco, and Rev. and Mrs. Harbert, of Marshall, and Dr. N. Hill Middleton, of Oakland, Texas, visited us while we were away in the North. We regret it exceedingly. Call again.

The Central Alabama Conference Board of Church Extension meets monthly in Birmingham, Ala. Rev. O. Nelson is President, and I. Townsend, Secretary. Their last was a very interesting session, and a number of applications were considered.

Seeing a letter from one who styles himself a preacher and steward, we are reminded that in many churches they have what is called the elder's steward and the pastor's steward. This is all illegal. Any steward is equal to any other, and joint action is required to transact official duties.

A correspondent in Texas informs us that he bought a lot and built a house upon it, and that then there came along one evening a "VARIOUS wind in the shape of a CYCLOON, and just touched it broadsided and scattered it East, West, North and South. To this I did not say amen."

"We congratulate Colonel W. B. Stokes, U. S. A., upon his words of truth and wisdom touching the growth and high worth of the Negro race in this week's issue of the SOUTHWESTERN. It is always animating to read or hear these great things said by great men of this country. Tell him to write again."—O. Houston.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Garden Spot of the South.

An open door for Methodism—Yazoo, Mississippi, Delta.

REV. J. M. SHUMPERT.

Donbtless a description of this wonderful country will not be uninteresting to the many readers of the SOUTHWESTERN. It may have the appearance of a fairy tale, but he who doubts it will have all his donbts dispelled by a personal inspection, or taking a trip over the Louisville, New Orleans and Texas railroad. This new line is a continuation of the Chesapeake and Ohio road at Memphis, and connects with the Southern Pacific at New Orleans. The country through which the new road runs is no donbt the garden spot of the South, and is probably the most fertile land on earth. A few miles below the city of Memphis, a stream tears itself loose from the Mississippi river, and starting eastbound out in the country, tending South, after flowing seventy-five miles to a range of hills, and then tending West, empties into the Mississippi again about ten miles above Vicksburg. This small river is the Yazoo, it and the Mississippi form a valley 254 miles long by 75 miles wide. This valley or delta is cut up by numerous bayous and creeks. This delta is destined to be the greatest country so far as the production of wealth is concerned, of any section in the United States. The difficulty heretofore has been the trouble from overflow, the Mississippi frequently exhibiting a penchant for spreading over the entire delta clean back to the hills, 75 miles distant, the delta being pretty nearly as level as a floor. The Mississippi has never been properly or sufficiently closed to protect the delta, but the new railroad has settled that question. The road people cannot afford to subject their property to overflow, and subsequently they have gone about the business of building levees that will keep the water of the Mississippi out of the country for all time to come. There are thousands of acres of land in the Yazoo Mississippi Delta that are covered with timber that must need be cleared off to permit the use of the land for planting purposes. As it is, there are already in the delta the finest cotton plantations in the world. The land is so rich that over two bales of cotton (it is said) are produced on one acre. A third of a bale to the acre is a good crop in some sections. Starting from Memphis the traveler strikes what is called the Shoesting District, a part of the country inhabited almost entirely by colored people, and nearly all are Republicans, some of them are office holders, and enjoy the confidence and respect of their fellow citizens. This is the district that the Hon. John R. Lynch once represented in Congress with such great ability. A hill in the section refered to is a rise of five or ten feet. The road follows as nearly as practicable the course of the bayons and creeks in order to utilize the banks of these little streams for a road-bed, they being a little higher than the swamp lands. After leaving the Shoesting district you strike the Deer Creek country, which is settled to a large degree, this runs to the Yazoo river. All of the bayous starting out of the Mississippi between the head and mouth of the Yazoo empty into the Yazoo. It is apparent that the Yazoo was at one time a sea; in making sonndings for fonndations railroad engineers fonnd logs at the depth of several hnndred feet. The water of the sea receded, and in doing so formed channels, cutting the gronnd and forming these bayons and creeks. Where there were eddies the gronnd was deposited. This ground or soil rose above the sea when the water drained off. There are lakes ten and twenty miles long in the delta. These lakes are sections of channel of a river that had existed ages ago. When these levees are completed and the settled country refered to commences in earnest, artificial drainage will be resorted to, and the immense swamps that are now nothing bnt waste land will be turned into rich plantations. Lands that are cleared and in cultivation are worth from $50 to $100, an acre. Swamp land can be bought for the taxes, and there is government land that can be got for nothing. Several Negroes have purchased and own fine plantations in this wonderful country and are rich and independent farmers. Before the Louisville, New Orleans, and Texas railroad was completed last year, the travel in and out of this country was very inconvenient and unsafe for the Methodist Episcopal Church preachers. In consequence of which the fact is the Methodist Episcopal Church has bnt very few churches in this vast region. Bnt the door is now opened and the people are sending for us to come and organize the Methodist Episcopal. Along this new road within the last twelve months quite a number of stations have been built between the City of Memphis and the City of Vicksburg, and at nearly all these places we need a Methodist Episcopal Church for the glory of God and the salvation of this country. The people called Methodist have been telling the world for the last hnndred years that religion is more than a formality, they have taught and the world is believing that religion is something. Between Vicksburg and Rolling Fork the Methodist Episcopal Church is well planted, and all the churches along this line are in sight of the railroad, bnt between Rolling Fork and Memphis on this road we have no churches, but the old Mother Methodist Episcopal Church must be planted there, for within ten years all of this vast territory will be dry and settled. Capital is only waiting for the problem of the levees to be settled, and that is now a certainty, and our church organized there now and grow up with that country we will be a power for good. If the Missionary Committee at their meeting next November will appropriate fifteen hundred or two thousands dollars for new work in Mississippi, this part and several other places can be captured for God and Methodism, and will in a few years be the grandest portion of the Mississippi conference.

J. M. SHUMPERT.

Columbus, Miss.

For the Southwestern.

The Penitent Thief.

REV. J. KENSCER.

The penitent thief was the first trophy of the cross of Calvary. As far as we know he was the first convert to the dying Redeemer. He had a speedy conversion and a very brief career. His Christian life was measured not by years but by minutes. What he had to do he must do qnickly, and he did it; he was a brave witness for Jesus for a few eventful moments, and then passed on to that paradise which is full of pardoned criminals and forgiven sinners. Perhaps he was the only outspoken witness; there were many to call Jesus Lord when he rose trinmphant from the tomb; there was but one to call him Lord as he hung dying on the cross. The converted thief had an hour of repentance and faith, bnt he did a vast deal in that hour; he gave a faithful and outspoken testimony for his Master, and he lived long enough on that torturing cross to teach men to the end of time, four or five important truths. He proves to us: that there is mercy for the vilest sinner. No one, not even the chief of sinners need despair after reading his history; he teaches us that it is not the mere view of Christ that saves souls, A multitude looked that day on the dying Jesus. We read of bnt one who was converted. Where were the rest? My friends, that pardoned thief who saw Jesus bnt once may rise up and condemn you at the judgment seat. Bnt you, who have heard of the Redeemer ten thousand times and never repented, the converted thief teaches you to sieze your opportunity. Perhaps that hour on Calvary was his first opportunity to believe on Christ; certainly it was his last; it was now or never with him. The men who are in heaven are those who seized their opportunities; the men who are in hell are those who lost them. The converted thief teaches you how to pray; his prayer was a model; it was short, it was pointed, it was believing; the man who had not an hour to live could not make long prayers. If you are in earnest for salvation you will be as pointed, as direct, as importunate as he was. Faith saved that sinner, and faith will save you. The converted thief proves to us that God's spirit can regenerate in an instant: I do not doubt that Jesus has saved many a man just as instantaneously; it was a moment's work to believe; it was a moment's work to be pardoned. My impenitent friend, if you can become an heir of heaven in a moment by giving yourself to Christ how can you consent to spend an eternity in the torments of perdition. Do not plead the penitent thief as a warrant for postponing religion to the dying moment, for the last hour in life was probably the first hour in his life in which he had the knowledge of a Savior. He who wilfully postpones religion to a dying hour robs God of his due, cheats his own soul out of the enjoyments which true grace brings, and runs the risk of perishing at last without God and without hope. One was saved at the hour of death to show that there are no limits to the mercy of God in Christ.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Extracts from Letters Written by Gen. Gordon to the Church Missionary Society of England.

The last number of the Church Missionary Intelligencer contains a series of letters showing the attitude of General Gordon towards missions and missionaries. He says of a party of missionaries on their way to Nganda: "You may count on me as you would on yourself to aid, protect and in every way help your people." He writes, "I have told them (the missionaries) my views and my ideas of the line they should adopt with Mtesa (the king) i. e. to let him see clearly, understand their stay depends on his trusting them properly, a thing, however, which he has never done yet to any traveller. * * En passant, I remark that in no case do we hear of the great men of the earth being aiders of the propagation of the Gospel; it is a movement which always begins among the lower classes, and therefore leads their governors to adopt or to protect the faith. From this I maintain that the work must be done away from the Mtesa if he will not aid it. What is our object? It is to benefit, civilize and evangelize Central Africa. What is the best means of doing so? By placing our mission in a country where it would be safe, where all classes of people have access to our missionaries, which is not unhealthy, and where they can obtain food, and whence they could communicate with their homes, and the ranks or position of the converts are of no importance. You want access to willing ears of the many, if possible in places where the questionable Christianity of Europeans and where Arabs have not been. * * * Do you know that Europe owes a very heavy moral debt to Egypt? Do you know that all these slave-traders were brought up to their metier by English, French, etc., etc., adventurers? They, the Arabs, only took advantage of the energy of those European traders. Propose to your committee to give up home for a month, not to give dinner parties for the same time, and to devote the proceeds to the mission. Ask them if they ever felt the slightest inconvenience in giving their five pounds? Did they go for one day without milk for their breakfasts? 'Prophesy to us smooth things.' It is seldom preachers touch on these points, for they would be offended with them, and, of course that must not be done. * * * You need not come to Africa for the martyr's crown, there are plenty to be given in England; Speak out and you will find sharper pricks than you will get from the native lances, and plenty of poison to envenom the wound. * * * I thank God that I died seven or eight years to the honors of the world. * * * I am almost in despair with the slave trade. You can scarcely imagine the difficulties of the question and the intense depths it has among the people. I am, however, decided on the way to cut at the roots. I mean to vacate all the countries bordering on the Negro tribes, and to imprison any one passing to and fro, This is the only way to stop it."

To the missionaries he wrote: "I want you to like my people, not to look upon them as utterly evil. Missionaries must hate father and mother, and their own life also. You are sure to succeed if you will only trust him. Shut your eyes to Stanley, to Egyptian government, to all things, and nothing will go wrong, and you must succeed, though it may not be as you would think the best way. You have counted the cost and embarked in this work for His sake, and though inferior far, for our nation's sake, you must go through with it. Are you missionaries? So am I." The letter must be one which he who runs can read.—The Life.

On the 22d of April our church at Dennison, Texas, was demolished by a cyclone and the parsonage moved from its foundation. They need help. These are the cases that need it.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

On the Ground.

REV. J. J. HOLLAND, B. D.

Some considerable time has passed since we have occupied any space in the organ of our great Church for the Southern work. This apparent apathy sprang not from want of interest or lack of appreciation of the work being done by this worthy church organ; but per force of circumstances. Transition seems to be an inherent property of this life, and sooner or later affects the career of us all. Our ministerial career has felt its impress, and hence the source of this communication. Under the wise economy of the church we have been permitted to change our field of labor, and instead of writing to the SOUTHWESTERN from the hills of Northeastern Ohio as of yore we greet you from the banks of the historic Tennessee river. Our stay in Ohio, all things being considered, was profitable to us and beneficial to all concerned, and we bade adieu to friends with feelings of deepest emotion. The work is young attended by all the embarrassments belonging to such a condition. We leave the verdict as to the result of our two years labors to be rendered by the impartial Arbiter of all human endeavors. The rigidity of the climate made inroads upon our physical constitution, and made the seeking of a more congenial climate imperative upon us. A transfer to the Central Alabama Conference having been effected some three months since, some considerable preparations were necessary preparatory to our coming to our new field of labor. Finally, however, after almost superhuman efforts, the day fixed for our departure came. Sabbath, March 8, will be long remembered by us, for it was upon that day we closed our work in the West and took formal leave of those who, in our weakness we had endeavored to serve during two years, some among whom will ever remain fresh in memory's casket.

Decatur, to which place we have been appointed, is a quiet Southern town, pleasantly situated on the South bank of the Tennessee river, differing in many respects from Northern cities of the same number of inhabitants. To one fresh from the noise and bustle of Yankeedom, the difference is appreciable. A casual glance over the ground assures us that there is much work to be done, concerning the nature and character of which we shall speak in a subsequent communication. The most of the people are aglow with the idea of building a new church, the present being somewhat away from the business center. A more desirable location has been procured, and material for erecting the building obtained, a part of which is upon the new church site. If a lively interest can be mantained, the near future will witness a new building dedicated to the worship of God under the auspices of the Methodist Episcopal Church in this place. The district conference for the Huntsville district convened here on the 16th of April. Each day's experience since returning to the South causes us more fully to realize "that the harvest is great," and while we desire most earnestly to regain our health, we are determined most positively to labor that God might be glorified, the church edified, and the people benefited by our coming.

Decatur, Ala.

From the Districts.

Ashville District—Central Alabama Conference.

REV. O. NELSON, P. E.

The district at this writing stands at the head of the Central Alabama Conference. Notwithstanding it has been a long ways in the rear for nine years, but we feel that we are men of God and have come to where we can be seen, and let each pastor do his whole duty this conference year, and bring up all his benevolent collections, as you promised to do. We are asked to raise for missions alone this year on the district the sum of $48, and I know we can do it. Just think, out of one million dollars we are to raise only $48, as the following will show: Birmingham, $4.50; Enon, $4.50; Village Springs, $3.75; Blount Springs, $2.75; Huntsville, $5; Ashville, $4; Collinsville, $3.75; Gadsden, $3.50; Centre, $3.30; Howells Cross Roads, $4.20; Talladega, $4; Ashland, $3.75; Wedowee, $3. The amounts named above are to the whole circuit or station as the case may be, and therefore, brethren, you see what is required of us on the Ashville District to raise for the missionary society in order to fit out the amount of one million dollars, and I shall expect all the pastors to put the matter before their people at once and take up the collections just as soon as you shall have preached the missionary sermon, and bring the money that you raise for missionary purposes with you to the district conference, and I hope to hear at each quarterly meeting that you have raised all of your money or have caused it to have been done. A small sum is given to each one to bring and I hope none of you will make a gap in the $48. Please go to work at once, and you will be sure to win. Though you may have some who don't want to help you, set him or her aside and go on and let us have the $48 for Dr. Reid.

Meridian District—Mississippi Conference.

REV. J. CAMPBELL, P. E.

We have just finished the first round on the Meridian District. By being present at each meeting we are able to report the work.

Our first quarter for Meridian was held on the 7th and 8th of March; the reports indicated thorough work. Bro. Walden has and is doing a noble work here. His people now are in the midst of a happy revival in which souls are being converted. Our next point to meet was Enterprise. [illegible] Smith, the pastor, had everything in order. This is his first year at Enterprise, but he seems to understand the people, and they are pleased with him.

Rev. P. Blue, at Shubuta and Rev. O. Frierson on the Meridian circuit, are moving on nicely. This is their first year, and we believe they will succeed, for both are good preachers.

Bro. P. B. Crump, at Lauderdale, is getting along well. He is busy in building churches, parsonages, and saving souls for Christ.

Our pastor at Shuqualak, Rev. A. R. Sanders, has a strong will to work for the Master, and he is doing the best he can. Poor health has been a great hindrance to him; nevertheless he is at his post.

Rev. W. H. H. Galliou is doing a good work at Macon. He has made a costly improvement on the Church this year which makes things look much better. The Lord is blessing him and his people. His Sunday-school is grand.

Rev. C. W. Ivy, at Mashulaville, is standing up faithfully, and Rev. J. P. Reeves, on the Deer Brook circuit, is doing the same thing. He is preaching with success.

Bishop made no mistake in sending Rev. W. Jones on the Ex[illegible] circuit. The people are well pleased with him, and we believe the work will prosper in his hands.

Quitman and DeSoto circuit [illegible] the hands of Bro. L. J. S. Bell. He is a young man, full of zeal, and will succeed.

Bro. H. Keys has some opposition to contend with on the Shubuta circuit, but out of all the Lord is bringing him.

Bro. M. Brown, of the Murfreesboro and State Line circuit, and Rev. M. White, on the Enterprise circuit, are moving forward.

Rev. James Jordan is doing a good work on the DeKalb circuit. Our last quarterly meeting with his people was a happy one indeed. We will be able to hold our next quarter in the new church which his people are building. We had a nice time with Rev. A. Butler on the Philadelphia circuit, but was almost discouraged on leaving there, having to walk 15 miles and carry our valise. Yes, walking from Philadelphia, we came to Daleville, where we found Bro. N. Toole and his faithful people going on with a great meeting. Here our spiritual strength was renewed.

Bro. T. A. Cotton, of the Garlandsville circuit, and Bro. R. H. Patton, of the Paulding circuit, are winding up their third year's labor. They are good men and close observers of the Discipline.

We closed our first quarterly round at Heidelberg, with Bro. M. Cooper, on the 2d inst. He is getting along very well with the people, and they love him as a pastor. The brethren have received but little to live upon during the quarter as money is very scarce.

Sometimes they are discouraged,
And think their work is vain,
But the Holy Spirit
Revives their hearts again.

The SOUTHWESTERN is a great help to them. May the Lord bless you in your work as editor.

Rev. E. Lee, presiding elder, writes, to the pastors of the Huntsville District, Texas Conference: "Brethren—You will please see that every family of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and all the families that are friends to our Church and cause, purchase one of our Disciplines; and I trust that each pastor will see that every probationer of his charge reads the same, that they may when being received as full members know what they are answering, and I know they will make better members and Christians. Also have each member take a copy of the SOUTHWESTERN, published at New Orleans."

Address.

To the preachers of the Shreveport District, Louisiana Conference.—Remember, dear brethren, that each pastor is a sub-commander and must lead his company or regiment through the mighty struggle to victory. Preach on each subject. Tell the story of our work. Give each one a whole Sabbath, morning, afternoon and night. Bring the children into the occasion. Call on neighboring pastors to come and help. Don't be satisfied with a few trifles thrown into the basket or on the table, but get the names of donors upon cards, and privately collect of all those who are not mombers and do not attend your church and services. Organize every Sunday-school into a Missionary Society, that it may be a school of liberality, and thus save the coming church from the sin of avarice, and lead them out in holy enterprise for the weal and salvation of the people. Organize monthly concerts for each cause and make for each a grand united rally, and the very God of glory will crown your efforts and bring blessings to your hearts, to your families, to your congregations, and to the world of mankind.

Yours affectionately,
PIERRE LANDRY, P. E.
Donaldsonville, La.

[The above circular is in all its parts or taken as a whole much the best of a great number which have been received by us. But Elder Landry is a suberb man, fertile of original resources. ED.]

Diseases of the kidneys, liver, or urinary organs, are speedily cured by the infallible Hunt's [Kidney and Liver] Remedy.

Perry Davis, the patent pain killer proprietor, it is said has come from wealth to extreme poverty. Such is life. Lay up treasures in heaven. Such never come to poverty.

Letters from the Pastors.

Rev. W. Muir, writes from Jackson street Church, Louisville, Ky.: "Lexington Conference, Rev. W. W. Locke, our presiding elder, was happily surprised April 15, 1885, by the Jackson Street Union Club, which was appreciated very highly by himself and family. Religious services were held by the Club, after which they spread the table for Christian greeting, and also left him about $35 worth of presents. They gave him a Christian social greeting for the return as their presiding elder another year. The elder thanked them for their kindness and hospitality toward him. The following names comprised the club: Miss Lizzie B. Clay, Mrs. Lucinda Obannon, Mrss Laura K. Hays, Miss Faunie May, Mrs. Caroline Morton, Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. Lucinda Slaughter, Mrs. Siddy Todd, Miss Mollie Hiuter, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Alice Wilson, Mrs. Alice Fox, Mrs. Aunie Logan, Miss Florence Griffin, Mrs. Mary Hobbs, Mrs. Nancy Brouley, Miss Katy Wilson, Mrs. Bell Smith, Miss Mary Hiuter, Mrs. Georgia Shannon, Miss Haunah Curtis, Miss Cora Brooks, Miss Harriet Lewis, Mrs. Mary Dover, Mrs. Nannie Ramsey, Miss Sedonia Morton, Miss Emma Welch, Mrs. Cynthia Dowell, Mrs. Lulie Butler, Mr. Thomas M. Jackson, John West, Geo. W. Butler, John Fox and Trueman Williams.

Rev. L. J. S. Bell writes from Quitman, Miss.: "I arrived safe on my new field of labor February 19, and found all looking for the new preacher. Having been sent as pastor of the Quitman and DeSoto circuit, I resolved to be an example of that religion that makes wise the simple; to be religious is to be wise, so I resolved to be wise in the Lord, and in His work, with this thought in mind, I started the year's work. I found a nice room for myself, and on the fourth Sunday in February, at 11 o'clock, we were assembled in Mt. Zion Church at Quitman, where we were introduced to a nice and attentive audience by Bro. T. Weir, one of our local preachers. We preached three sermons during the day, and the congregation gave $5.05. At each point on the circuit I was gladly received. The Lord has been and is still with us, the altogether lovely and fairest of ten thousand. Received into full membership, 21; on probation, 31; total 52, and still the grand work moves on. April 23d we started a revival which God owned and blessed with several converts and several reclaimed; the meeting continued nightly until the 30th, 16 accessions. We were assisted in this meeting by Rev. J. B. Smith, our pastor at Enterprise. On April 30th our beloved presiding elder, Rev. J. Campbell, visited us and refreshed us by his fatherly advice and a powerful sermon from these words, "This day is salvation come to this house," Luke 19, 9, which made a deep impression for good in these parts. We had a grand time in our quarterly conference, the elder kept us charmed in everything he did and said while here. One of the grand features of the session was the presentation of a fine pulpit bible to the church in Quitman by Sister M. J. Carmichael, who, by her untiring energy, solicited donations and paid for the Bible. She is a noble worker for the cause. All those who have no pulpit Bible should go and do likewise. Thus ended one of the best quarterly conferences that it has been our pleasure to attend. All the officers had written reports. Verily the world does move, and we move with it; those who don't move will be run over by the march of progress. Apportionments for 1885, pastor, $270, presiding elder, $36; Bishops, $2; conference claimants, $2.50; benevolent, $30; raised the first quarter for pastor, $40,35; presiding elder, $8.60. We want to build two new churches this year. Pray for our success in this field for the Master and Methodism."

Rev. G. A. Shanklin writes from Belton, Texas: "Our second quarterly conference convened at Belton, May 8 9. All the brethren of Belton were present and reported except those of Kell Branch, who are never present. The meeting passed off very well. Rev. C. L. Madison, our presiding elder, was present and presided. Rev. R. Alonzo, our pastor, had protracted meeting a week, which resulted in the conversion of ten who were added to the church. Notwithstanding the hard times we are doing very well. The elder preached at 11 a. m. and at 3 p. m. and at night. All his sermons were wonderful. At 3 p. m. the elder preached and administered the sacrament, and 70 came forth and partook of the Lord's supper. The collection for the elder was $7.60. I do not know what the benevolent collection was. Rev. C. L. Madison is a fine man. His sober manner commands respect from all who know him; he has a business facility which prompts him to do his duty with regard to God, the Discipline and man. I hope that these few lines will find place in your welcome paper. There is a church one mile east of Moffat, but our house has been burned down. This church has not done much since it belonged to the Belton circuit. It needs to have a church house built and then to rouse the people up.

Rev. Alfred McGlocklin writes from Fairmount, La., Cane River: "By request of Elder Pierre Landry, on account of inability, owing to press of work, Rev. H. J. Wright, of Natchitoches, held our first quarter on the 11th and 12th. The spirit of the Lord dwelt among us, and Bro. Wright preached three very interesting sermons for us. We had a crowded house Sunday at 11 and 7 o'clock; all were lifted up, and we start off in the second quarter much encouraged by the councils and admonitions of Bro. Wright. He is a good worker in the Sabbath-school. We paid the elder's quarterage, $3.75, with $2 over for ourself; think of this with only ten members. Bro. Wright took several subscribers."

Rev. R. H. Patton writes from Paulding, Miss.: "J. Campbell our beloved presiding elder held his first quarterly conference on the 19th of May, and we had a time long to be remembered; he preached a noble sermon, text: "I want to see Jesus," which made a great impression on all. Collection this quarter for pastor $39.70; for elder, $9 50; total $50 20. On the Sunday following I baptized 9 adults and 9 infants, and received into full membership 11 and one by recommendation from the Baptist Church. We are ready to say, like Jacob of old, "The Lord is on this place." We are moving onward. Pray for me."

Rev. Wm. Jamison, writes from Eddyville, Ky.: "I am hard at work getting ready for the district conference, which meets in Sulphur Church, Eddyville, Ky., July 31, at which time we want to have a district camp meeting in connection with the conference, at which time we would be pleased to have you with us. Although we have a great deal of work to do to get ready—our new church is to be plastered and new pews are to be put in, which will cost over $200, but I think all can be done if everything works all right. We have had a very good revival here and five were converted and 6 joined the church, and the church was greatly revived. Bro. Dent has moved to his field of labor, and I have just got moved to mine. Brother Dent has done grand work here in two years, and is well beloved by the community, and could have stayed the third year if the conference had seen fit. He built a new church here but did not get to finish it. This is the way of Methodists, one begins and another finishes. The first quarterly meeting was held on the 17th, and it was a grand success every way. Some of the members say it was the grandest they have had for some time. The presiding elder, Rev. A. Booker, preached two of his grand old Methodist sermons to large houses. He is somewhat of a Sampson in power, an Asbury in spirit and a Wiley to his men. I hope to say more about him at another time. This quarterly meeting brought about a better financial spirit in the church than it has had heretofore. We raised a very large collection. The following gave $1 each: N. Wood, M. A. Wood, J. Marshall, Mac Davis, and William Jamison and Wanber gave 50 cents and 25 cents each. Our work at Willis is in a good condition, although we have the Baptists to contend with there, but we would not mind them if it were not for their preachers tone."

Rev. A. Samuels writes from Covington, Ga.: "We are steadily moving on. The plan of the house is 40x70, 2 feet between joists; we have a stone wall for foundation, it is ready built 6 feet high, 2 feet in width. We are also arranging for a basement under part of the house. The cost of the foundation is $211. We have 20,000 brick on the church ground. We have $230 in the treasury and by reliable subscription. What the Church Extension will do we cannot tell. On a portion of the Church lot we have erected a neat wood building 26x42, for which the lumber dealers donated us most of the lumber. The walls are those of the Church that was burned. We are using all the economy we can. This house is intended for school purposes when the church is finished. I have called on several of our friends North and South to help us, and the white people of Oxford and Covington have been liberal and say they will continue to help if we build a nice church. I would like for some of our Northern friends to consider our condition and put some of their surplus cash where they can reach it. We feel that you have helped us to pray, now we want you to help us to pay. I am very anxious to receive prayers this year and post office orders or a registered letter with them. I hope many will follow the example of Bishop H. W. Warren and wife, when they got up from prayer they sent us some money. We appeal to the Woman's Home Missionary Society or the Woman's Temperance Society, or any individual who sees fit to donate us anything, which would be gladly received and acknowledged."

Rev. Chas. T. Jones writes from Jeffersonville, Ind.: "Our first quarterly meeting, commencing April 24th and closing the 58th, was a meeting of great refreshing from the presence of the Lord. Rev. C. Jones, the presiding elder, came to us with a smiling countenance and cheering words which greatly tended to enliven our meeting. We are much pleased with him as a presiding elder. Sunday morning, afternoon and night the congregations were large. Revs. T. Tompkins, W. L. Muir James L. Perrin, and I. Simes were in attendance. We heard an able sermon by Elder T. Tompkins, at 11 o'clock; in the afternoon at 3 o'clock Elder Jones, presiding elder, delivered a rousing sermon to the great pleasure of his audience, and also at night. The quarterly conference was certainly an instructive one. On Sabbath 82 communed, and our financial receipts ware $27.50. We have raised besides this on old indebtedness and paid $39 30. So God is blessing us and we are moving on gaudly."

Rev. M. Dale, of Wesley Chapel M. E. Church, New Orleans La., waites: "The disciplinary plan for raising the needed amount of money to meet the total expenses of the church, adopted lately at Wesley Chapel Church, promises to work well: The stewards took in on subscriptions for April $90. We hope that soon the stewards will be able to collect the necessary amount in one Sunday's collection, to meet the expenses of the month, without taking a collection every Sunday. Each Sabbath the pastor spends some time in talking to any sinners who he may find in the congregation willing to converse on the subject of religion. The ladies and gentlemen of the church circle have done nobly in rearing a beautiful iron fence in front of the church. The Ladies Union of Wesley Chapel are making a grand effort, and are succeeding in raising the money to finish the double cottage now standing uncovered next the church. Also a committee of gentlemen and ladies will soon give an entertainment for the building. Said committee up to date have sold tickets to the amount of $40, and have the money in hand. Class 16 has just come out of an entertainment, and with that old tried veteran, Wm. Harris, at its head, will be able to present a snug little sum to the church, and all for the building. Don't forget friends, that the three hundred dollars and a fraction already paid on the cottage, was raised in last years administration. The spiritual condition of the church is good, and 11 o'clock services are well attended; the three o'clock services are not behind, and at the night services the attendance can not be larger unless the officers of the church enlarge the building. God has blessed us with 18 converts this year. We thank God that the sons and daughters of Wesley are moving on."

Rev. P. R. Woodson writes from Liberty, Tenn.: "Dear Sir—Allow me to say that I am glad to see that from all the dark places the thick shadows are falling and the glorious sunlight of Methodism and true religion are advancing, the light is penetrating every dark corner. At Temperence Hall, one of my appointments, I found 30 members but no house to worship in; we bought a church lot but found ourselves unable to build a house without help. I dropped Dr. Braden a few lines of our need and he went to work at once and by the wise, prudential plan of John Wesley adopted, the Church Extension Society donated us $100 to assist us in building a houre. We have completed it without debt, and I preached in it the second Sunday of this month to a large congregation; one joined the church; I feel thankful to the Church Extension and to Rev. Dr. Kynett for such kind donations. The spirit of the people is stirred up and their hearts are enthused with Methodism. At Liberty, my next point, the minds of the people are easier; they say they are going to ceil the church, and as they are bringing the lumber I believe they will do it."

Rev. S. Gates, Columbus, Texas, writes: "Soon after Conference at Waco I came to Austin, where I found my son Willie sick, as he has been for nearly two years, with the lingering disease, consumption. I stayed with him one week, then, leaving my family at Austin, I started out for my new field of labor. Arriving in Columbus Dec. 19, 1884, the brethren met me quite pleasantly. I found them preparing to give a festival to pay off some indebtedness of the church, about $45.70; a part of this debt was contracted about three years ago. The entertainment realized $15. The weather was very disagreeable and cold. On the 27th I met the Sunday-school, Bro. A. J. Johnson superintendent. He seems to understand his work well, the number of scholars present was 64. The writer addressed the children and afterwards Mrs. E. Green gave the school sweet, choice pieces of music from the Gospel hymns:

Over the ocean wave, far, far away,
The poor heathen lives waiting the day,
Groping in ignorance dark as the night,
No blessed Bible to give them the light,

Here in this happy land we have the light
Shining from God on word free, pure and bright,
Pity, pity them Christain at home
Haste with bread of life, hasten and come.

I must say here we have over two hundred members and only 64 children in the Sabbath-school. We have Christian teachers all over Texas, and here in Columbus many of ours so say. Now adays Christians in the amen seats can not tell where are their little sons and daughters on Sundays, but they get happy and say amen. Better to bring the little ones to Sabbath-school than to leave them in the streets all day Sunday. Prof. D. P. Allen, of North Carolina, is principal of the city school here; he teaches the Bible class and affords valuable help in Sunday-school every Sunday; although he belongs to the Congregational Church he works well in the M. E. Church; his family are all Methodists. He has a daughter in this State teaching school and she is doing a good work among our people. Rev. R. H. Harbert, of the Texas Conference, was with us and exhibited a scenery with a magic lantern for Wiley University; the audience was very small and he realized only $6. On the 28th Rev. M. Smith, of the Austin District, West Texas Conference, preached for us at 3 o'clock p. m., also Bro. Harbert at 7:30 p. m. On the 3d and 4th of January, 1885, my quarterly conference was held by Elder P. M. Carmichael, and all the brethren except one were present. The business was all attended to and everything passed off nicely. At 3 p. m. the elder was to preach on Sunday but the rain and the inclemency of the weather prevented it. At 7:30 he preached to a small audience, and it rained all the time. Only one committee was appointed at the quarter, of which Bro. Edmund Eason was chairman; it consisted of 8 brethren and 13 sisters; the following are the names of the sisters: Sylvia Thomas, Maria Taylor, Amanda Eason, Phoebe Norman, Amanda Whitfield, Lizzie Johnson, Jane Hunter, Lizzie Barret, Rachel Davis, Katie Waldell, Maria Nails, Celia Henderson, Harriet Harrison, Bettie Tanner, Minerva Putney and Mary Wendell. The work of this committee is to do the necessary repairing on the parsonage and ceiling it overhead, and papering two front rooms. They also built two more rooms to the parsonage and a gallery in the church. The work was done in spite of the hard times and many discouragements. It was completed on the 21st of January. News reached me that my son was sinking daily, so I left Columbus on the 22d and reached Austin on the 23d and found him very sick and low, but with good hopes and faith in the Savior. I asked if he believed the Lord heared his prayers and would save him. He said yes, and stated to Mrs. Gates, "I am not afraid to die, I feel happy and mighty good at this time." His Sunday-school teacher, Miss Ada Madison, visited him very often and talked to him, how she missed him from the class, and often thought of him and wanted him to be a good boy. At the hour of our family prayer he would dress and get ready to kneel at prayer; at meal time he would take his seat at the table whether he could eat or not. On the morning of the 31st of January, at the hour of family prayer, he got up to dress himself, sat up awhile and said to me, "Lay me down upon the bed." I laid him down, and in five minutes afterwards he died. I could hardly realize that he was dead. He is absent, his seat is vacant, Willie is no more. Leaving Austin, my home with my family I arrived at Columbus on the 20th of February. We are here to battle for the Lord. We are looking and hoping for a grand harvest for God."

Rev. A. J. Phillips writes from Fayetteville, Ark.: "Our presiding elder, W. R. R. Duncan, was with us to hold our first quarterly conference according to his appointment, this being his first appointment as presiding elder. He was cordially received by the people, and the congregation engaged in a spiritual season. Quite a number partook of the Lord's supper. The elder urges it upon the people to take care of their preacher. Our quarterly collection was $16; and the next Sunday was the pastor's day and we collected $16. We have adopted the envelope system, and take a collection for the pastor every two weeks. In this way we reach every member of the church who is able to give anything at all and nearly all persons take a part in the envelope system. All of the members tax themselves so much and they try hard to pay. We have just closed up a two week's revival, which resulted in about 11 conversions and about 16 accessions to the church. The church has enjoyed a season of grace ever since conference. Our Sunday-school is still increasing. We have a fine Sunday-school here. We are trying to have our church painted; we hope to be able to paint it and get a bell this year. I am trying to talk up the interest of the SOUTHWESTERN among the people here, and hope to be able soon to send some subscribers for the paper."

Rev. H. C. Armston write's from Peck's Mission, New Orleans, La: "Our Lord commanded his disciples to go into all the world, and teach all nations; and baptize them in his name. And feeling myself a servant of the Lord, and called to preach the gospel, and as the command was to go; I obeyed and went out on Washington street and rented a cow stable for $5, per month for the purpose of holding divine service in. And then I went to work and called the people in, and began preaching to them the gospel of peace, and in the mean time I opened a protracted meeting; and thank the Lord four souls have been happily converted to the Lord and added to the church, and one good sister from Baton Rouge came forward and joined in with us. And we have 8 mourners at the bench seeking Christ in pardoning of their sins. And I opened a Sunday-school, and have gathered in forty-eight adults and children. And the prospects are encouraging. The fields are white already for harvest, and the people are anxious to have a church out there. At this time they are doing all they can to build the church of the Lord in their midst, so there is no time to lose. "Go work in my vine yard, there's plenty to do, the harvest is great and the laborers are few. There's weeding and fencing and clearing of roots. The lost must be gathered, the weary ones led."

Rev. Zale Ross, writes from Cheviot, Ohio: "On the beginning of the new year I received in the church out at Cheviot, 6 converts and one on the 17th, baptized them. The brothers saying there has not been such a time for 6 or 7 years and took up missionary money $39.13."

Rev. A. S. Lockhart writes from Milford and Chambers Creek: "This work has two regular appointments with (38) full members, only two of these owns homesteads. The writer has obtained the help of God to add another worker

Special Rates for "Gospel in all Lands."

The subscription price of "Gospel in all Lands" (monthly) is $2. a year. Ten copies and over to the address of one or more persons, each $1.25 a year. A copy will be sent to any itinerant Methodist preacher in the United States or Canada for one dollar a year, postage paid. Terms in advance. Address "Gospel in all Lands" Mission Rooms 805 Broadway, New York.

Consumption.

Notwithstanding the great number who yearly succumb to this terrible and fatal disease, which is daily winding its fatal coils around thousands who are unconscious of its deadly presence, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovry" will cleanse and purify the blood of scrofulous impurities, and cure tuberculer consumption (which is only scrofulous disease of the lungs." Send 10 cents in stamps and get Dr. Pierce's complete treatise on consumption and kindred affections, with numerous testimonials of cures. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

The bad bankers have had their day. Some of them are in jail and the rest are in Canada. Now it should be the turn of the bad railway managers. Call some of them to account. Their sins are greater than the embezzler's. Every time their temper has given way, of late years, it has cost a million dollars—of other people's money. And these bad managers' nerves are getting worse every day.—Current.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

I wish to inquire for my brother-in-law. His name is Freeman Hart. He left home in 1865, and we have not heard from him since 1866; he was then in Algiers, La. His home is in Montgomery county, Texas. His first owner was Mr. Joe. Perry, and at his death Freeman and all of the family fell to John Hart. His father was named Green and his mother Tempy Hart. Mamma is Sallie Hart, and Uncle is named Hamp Davis. There is Bettie, Margaret and Mary Wirty, Mollie Young, Gosset Washington. If he reads this and will come home he will be well received by.

REV. C. M. MOORE.

I want to find my brother; his name is Henry Perkins. We used to belong to Wm. Perkins, in Carroll county, Mo. He sold me to a Mr. Matlack and he carried me to Little Rock, Ark. There were three brothers of us—Henry, George and Lewis. I was not old enough to know the sisters names; they were very small, but I remember there were three sisters. At the time I was sold I went by the name of Ellen Perkins, but my name is now Ellen Blackburn. Address me at Bolton, Texas.

I wish to inquire for my mother. She lived in Morgan City, La., about six or seven years ago; her name was Rhenor Turner. She gave me to a gentleman by the name of Gilbert Robinson. His wife was named Ann Robinson. I was very small then, and my new mother and father had relatives in Bryan, Texas, and moved here some seven years ago. My name is Millie. I heard from my mother once since I moved away—about 4 years ago. Any information will be gladly received. Address my husband, Joseph Ford, or J. A. Ford, Bryan, Brazos county, Texas.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my mother and sister. I left them in Charleston, S. C., during the war. My mother's name was Patsie Kinslow Grason; my sister's name was Mary Ann Grimes; my brother was Stephen Kinslow Grason. I had another sister named Elizabeth Grason; my grandmother was named Kate Grason, and her husband was Wm. Grason. My name at that time was Crisann Kinslow, but I now go by the name of Crisann Bradshaw. Address any information to me at Columbia, Brazos county, Texas, care of Rev. F. Norwood.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my father, Dick Noel, who belonged to a man by the name of Noel, in Bossier Parish, Lonisiana, about 33 years ago, His wife was named Carrie, and belonged to a man named Whatley, who sold her and her baby son and a man named July to George Roberts; also Henry T. Noel. Address any information of them to R. N. Noel, Brenham, Washington county, Texas.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to find my people. I left them in Washington county, Virginia, on the Salt Works road, twelve miles from Aviton. My mother was named Lovey Goods. I had a sister named Silva, and two brothers, Daniel and Anderson Goods. I have not heard from them since 1840. Please address any information of them to F. J. Yeargin, Petersburg, Lincoln county, Tenn.

MR. EDITOR—I would be glad to find my people whom I have not seen in 22 years. They are named James, Samuel, Harriet and Mary Bush. As I went to St. Lonis I heard from some of them. My mother had three daughters; she died in Texas; my stepfather still lives there. In the name of God I hope to hear from my people. Mr. Editor, if it takes you all the year find my people. Address Bole Nelson, Spring, Hill county, Texas.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my relatives; my mother's name was Millie Limas, father Jack Limas. At the time I left my sister's name was Lonisa Trip Eliza Limas, but she has been sold since then. My brother was named Randall; he belonged to Major Williams; my youngest brother was Virgil; I do not know the man that bought him. My mother, father and youngest sister were brought to Texas; my youngest sister was named Isabella Readers. Please assist me to find my people. I used to belong to a man by the name of St. John Etters. He sold me to Twensley, who brought me to Texas. Any information will be gladly received. Address me at Waco, Texas, in care of S. Marx. My name is now Cathetine Webster.

MR. EDITOR—Please let me inquire through your paper for my brother, Davey Walker; he is a son of old man Mat Walker, who was a great tanner in Coffee county, Tennessee. My name is Mat Williams, my post-office Houston, Wayne county, Tennessee.

I wish to inquire through your paper for my two aunts, who lived in Atlanta, Ga. I heard from them once since Christmas, but not knowing the number of the street they lived on, or any one to direct in care of, they don't get my letters. Now if any of your readers know anything of them they will confer a favor by notifying them that I am anxious to hear from them. Their names are Mary Warren and Martha Gordon. Address me, F. A. Shumpert, lock box 278, Columbus, Miss.

Please let me inquire for my grand-father through your paper. His name was William Jackson, and he belonged to a man by the name of Jackson in Williamson county, Tenn. He was a brickmason, and bought himself before the war, and run a brickyard in Nashville, Tenn. I hope all will help me inquire for him, My mother is named Mary Jackson. Address Fannie Williams, Houston, Wayne county, Tenn.

The farmer last year raised a great crop and received the price of half a crop. This year he sows half a crop and will possibly get the price of a full yield. But Wall street takes it with a most wry face.—Current.

Prophylactic Fluid.

GREAT GERM DESTROYER!

DARBYS PROPHYLACTIC FLUID

Disinfectant, Deodorizer and Antiseptic.

USE IT IN EVERY SICK-ROOM FOR SAFETY, CLEANLINESS AND COMFORT.

IN ALL CONTAGIOUS DISEASES it arrests their spread by DEODORIZING the apartments, rendering the air pure and wholesome; by DISINFECTING the discharges from the patient and the vessels receiving them; by DESTROYING all poisonous matter, malaria, gas and disease germs.

CONTAGION DESTROYED.

A second case of SCARLET FEVER has never been known to occur where the Fluid was used FREELY. YELLOW FEVER has been cured with it after BLACK VOMIT had TAKEN PLACE. Its use in SMALL POX will PREVENT PITTING. The worst cases of DIPHTHERIA have YIELDED to it.

Attendants on the Sick will secure Protection from Infectious Diseases by using the Fluid.

Perfectly harmless, used internally or externally.

As an Internal Disinfectant and Detergent.

Taken or injected or used as a wash it allays inflammation and corrects offensive discharges. The Fluid is a certain cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery and inflammation of the bowels. Being Alkaline in its nature, it will often afford complete relief from Heartburn, Acidity of the stomach and Dyspepsia.

ENDORSED—J. Marion Sims, M. D., Hon. Alex. H. Stephens, Bishop Gilbert Haven, Pierce and others. Send for Pamphlet containing its History and Uses, with Testimonials. Address

J. H. ZEILIN & CO., Philadelphia.

june18-26t

CORPULENCY Recipe and notes how to harmlessly, effectually and rapidly cure obesity without semi starvation dietary, etc. European Mail, Oct. 24th, says: "Its effect is not merely to reduce the amount of fat, but by effecting the source of obesity to induce a radical cure of the disease. Mr. R. makes no charge whatever; any person, rich or poor, can obtain his work gratis, by sending 6 cts to cover postage to F. C. RUSSELL, Esq., Woburn House, Store street, Bedford sq., London, Eng. may21-13t

A PRIZE Send six cents for postage, and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help you to more money right away than anything else in this world. All, of either sex, succeed from first hour. The broad road to fortune opens before the workers, absolutely sure. At once address, TRUE & CO., Augusta, Maine. feb19-26t

OPIUM MORPHINE HABIT EASILY CURED. BOOK FREE. DR. J. C. HOFFMAN, Jefferson, W. mar5-52t

Plantation Melodies
—AND—
REVIVAL HYMNS.

By MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D.

WITH AN INTRODUCTION
By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.

Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.

Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and portrait. Sent, post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents.

Address, PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez street, New Orleans

J. T. Newman, M. D.,
—PRACTICING—
Surgeon and Physician,
315 Felicity Street,
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Makes a specialty of treating colred people. jan15-1y

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches.
History of the U. S.—Ridpath	$3 00
Scripture History—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net	60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) Net	5
History of Methodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.)	3 60
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Edition of 1884
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. I) sett	5 00
Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs	2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scripture a hapters I-XXX—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol I) sett	7 50
Plain Account of hristian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill, Net	1 00
Written Sermons.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
Christian Purity—Foster	1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. (chapters XXI-LII)—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
Lessons in Logic.—Sevens. Net	40
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged). Stevens	3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory	85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol. II.—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology:—Pope. Vol. III	7 50
Atonement in hrist.—Miley	1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn	2 50
Intellectual Science—Porter	3 00
Homilectics.—Kidder	1 50
Written Sermon
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst	3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters XIX-XLIV. Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Theological Institutes. Part II.—Watson	6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written Exegesis
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St. Paul.—onybeare and Howson. (Abridged Edition)	1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry
History of Rationalism.—Hurst	3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst	$ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884)
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.—Walker	1 25
To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St. Paul.—Fletcher	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill	1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst	50
Ancient History.—Thalheimer
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	3 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged Edition).—Stevens	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible. Sacraments
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield	2 50
Plain Account of hristian Perfecttion.—Wesley	30
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill	1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven	90
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. I.) Introdnction to the Gospel Records.—Nast	5 00
Era of the Protestant Revolution.—Seebohn	1 25
	75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII.—Wakefield	2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.)	45
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter	2 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II. hooks to Antinomianism.—Fletcher	5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher	2 50
Protestant Foreign Missions.—hristlieb	1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,
PHILLIPS & HUNT.
37 Natchez St, New Orleans.

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

24 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Pictures Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1884 at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Expres for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful picture

Our Little Men and Women

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY.

An Eight-page Weekly, for Boys and Girls

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day and Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, JULY 1, 1885.

The white race is, we believe, already beginning to decay. It has reached its majority and the signs of dotage are beginning to appear. Our young and vigorous race should avoid amalgamation with it.

A correspondent informs us that "when Christ was crucified Job had the faith to go and beg his body." That is not ignorance, it is carelessness, just as it was for a brother to pray the Lord that "we might have such faith as Paul and Silas had when they were cast in the fiery furnace."

There may be of our readers those whose who differ from our views on the subject of race purity and perpetuation by non-amalgamation with the white race. If so, our columns are open to them for postal-card correspondence on the subject—only they must discuss the subject, not us; and they must avoid any other than pleasant personal references.

We have the painful intelligence that Rev. A. E. Walker, of Asbury Circuit, Jeffersonville District, Southeast Indiana Conference died in pease at his home May 6. He is buried in Walnut Ridge Cemetery, Jeffersonville. He was a good man, a faithful minister and student of books and men, a workman skilled in his calling. The workmen fall but God carries on the work.

We charge a dollar each insertion for printing notices of births. Any man who would not pay one dollar to have it known that he has been enriched by the birth of a child to him ought to live in obscurity all of his days. We want not only a dollar but a photograph of the baby as well. These conditions are absolute, except we so amend as to include a fine dinner and railroad fare with them.

Is there No Room at Your Own Church?

Why should our ministers and members go to hear others of other churches preach who are so ill-bred as to abuse a sister denomination from the pulpit or from the roster? And why, after doing this, should they annoy their pastor with a recital of the gush they heard, and which they would not have heard but for neglecting to be at service in their own church? People ought not to go where they get insulted and then complain.

Wind Work.

Our Church at Avoca, La., was recently blown down by a storm, but steps are on foot to rebuild at once. This is the third case of church demolition already reported this spring. One encouraging fact connected with the matter is that those who are the losers, and who could, if they would, give up in despair, do not do so, but seem to be full of hope and trust in God. There ought to be a careful overlooking of the sites upon which our churches are erected. It may be that we are not happy in the selection of localities. We should have a committee for that.

Editorial Courtesies.

The Newcastle, Indiana Mercury of May 9th, contains the following: "Marshall W. Taylor, D. D., editor of the SOUTHWESTERN ADVOCATE, New Orleans, will preach in the Second M. E. Church [illegible] next at 3:00 p. m., and [illegible] on this (Friday) evening. Bro. Taylor comes well [illegible], and is said to be [illegible] of the heavy artillery of [illegible] in the South. Let us [illegible] like and all turn [illegible] hear him."

We are in receipt of many kindly expressions and personal references [illegible] by the press at New Orleans, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, [illegible], New Haven, Shelbyville, Cleveland, Springfield, Litchfield, Lexington and other cities [illegible]. Never mind, gentlemen, wait until we catch you in or near New Orleans and see if we don't pay you back until we have [illegible] score with heavy interest. You wait.

Merited Recognition.

Few men in the colored wing of our Methodism are better known to the public than the Rev. Edward Waters Savage Hammond. His speech on the subject of a colored Bishop, delivered before the General Conference at Cincinnati, in 1880 has by good judges been pronounced a master-piece of oratory, and it has immortalized his name. As a preacher, scholar and gentleman he has no superior and probably no equal in the Lexington Conference. He has a dignified ambition veiled in well controlled modesty. He has just been relieved from the presiding elderate of the Indiana District of the Lexington Conference and assigned to the pastorate of Covington, Ninth Street charge, which is one of the largest and finest colored churches in the United States. On leaving his district the ministers therein took the following action:

Whereas, Rev. E. W. S. Hammond, presiding elder of this district, so appointed by the beloved and lamented Bishop Wiley, at Springfield, Ohio, in 1881, has completed his term of hard labor in that capacity; and,

Whereas, These four years have been by him devoted to organizing churches, advancing the borders of his work and looking after the best interest of churches, ministers and members, and has deeply impressed himself upon their hearts and affectionate remembrance; therefore,

Resolved, That the thanks and the prayers of his ministers who have served faithfully under, and have been benefitted by the careful oversight of Elder E. W. S. Hammond, are tendered to him. We hope he may be long spared to serve the church, and trust that the future may present an enlarged sphere for his usefulness therein.

(Signed) Warren Johnson, Chas. Jones, Simeon Stone, E. B. Green.

Adopted by a rising vote.

Touching the same subject, and on the same line of just recognition to a very meritorious gentleman, read:

The following action was taken by the Indianapolis Methodist Preachers Meeting, on Monday, April 13, 1885:

To the Cincinnati Methodist Preachers Meeting—The Rev. E. W. S. Hammond, who for four years has been presiding elder of the Indiana District of the Lexington Conference, and is now pastor of the church of that conference in Covington, Ky., and will be one in your midst. We desire to recommend him to you as an eloquent preacher and a scholarly Christian gentleman, and ask for him your hearty sympathy and regard, and trust that you will so co-operate with him in his new field of labor that he may feel that he has found a home among brethren.

S. ALONZO BRIGHT, Pres.
CHAS. D. ASBURY, Sec'y.

The above was presented and read before the Preachers Meeting at Cincinnati, of which he is now a member, and he was accorded a vote of welcome.

The Rev. L. M. Hagood, transferred from the Tennessee to the Lexington Conference and stationed at Cincinnati Union Chapel; was received into the Ministerial Association at the same time and with the same cordial warmth.

Preachers meetings are big things among Methodist preachers in this country. Many of the mighty moral revolutions of our times rise in and sweep out from them. In one of these Gilbert Haven used to forge his thunderbolts against the slave and caste course of our land. But, returning to our subject, Bro. Hammond—Dr. Hammond we wish it was, and hope it soon will be—is a writer of no mean merit, and it is our pleasant duty to announce that his pen has been laid under tribute to the SOUTHWESTERN. Two of his best productions will soon apear in our columns.

The Negro and Property.

The Rev. Dr. Allen, Presbyterian, is authority for the statement that the Negroes in the South now pay taxes on $91,000,000 of property. Upon this fact he bases a calculation for Negro commercial domination in the future, while Prof. Gillam expects the Negroes to outnumber the whites in the South in the near future.

Well, if these seers have seen a reality, and have prophesied truth, then all we have to say is that when the Negroes become more numerous and wealthy than his white brother, the white brother will hardly be able to realize it, because the Negro loves, and will always exhibit the love he feels for his brother in white. Let us take care of the present so that whatever the future may bring we shall not have lived in vain.

Now there Are Two of Us.

Our saccharine contemporary, the Sugar Bowl, informs its readers of whom we are an interested one, that it now, after mature reflection and some hesitation, has passed the Rubicon of doubt and has uplifted the sword of relentless warfare upon miscegeneration, improperly miscegenation. We welcome you to our side. What you now propose to do is precisely what we have been doing steadily and alone for one solid year. We are glad you have awakened to the danger which threatens two otherwise mighty races of men from this source. We are glad you mean to oppose the thing and not the men. Your first duty is to admit that we have outstripped you in our courage to battle with this crime. Then take our hand and nobly fight for the purity and perpetuity of two grand races in their specific distinction, all the while admitting their genuine unity. Here's our hand for the thick of the fight. We have already accomplished two things. The awakening correct thought on the subject, and the concession that a Democratic administration of our Government does not mean Negro slavery. We have but one thing more to do.

Amen.

MR. EDITOR—As I have nothing else to do this morning I will endeavor to write you a few lines. I am so well pleased with your paper that I don't know what to do with myself. I have never seen any one to equal it. I have read many papers, but I would rather read yours than any other. In all of my travels through the far West I have not been satisfied until I came back home and gave myself up to Christ, and have been taking your paper. I have become contented, and found great consolation in reading your paper. Dear Editor, I am trying to be a true and faithful Christian up to my calling. I stood my examination as a local preacher and was recommended in the district conference to attend college in Nashville, Tenn., and if God will allow me to see that time come I will be sure to go. I also wish you, dear editor, would publish this, and also return hearty thanks to you. Hoping to see this in my next paper, I will close by saying we shall look some day with wonder at the trouble we have had. Yours, as true as gold,

REV. W. A. JOHNSON.

What's in a Name?

They are discussing the propriety of changing the name of the Church South. It would be just as well not to do it. With very slight exceptions the name is accurate considered geographically, and so far as we see it is entirely so politically. The political affinities of that Church being as largely Southern as those of the Methodist Episcopal Church are universal. The Methodist Advocate thinks Organic Union would be the best change, and gives some examples of the good results to follow. It is certain that Methodism within the present century so far unite as to make its publishing, missionary and general legislation more effective.

The Rev. A. J. Kershaw, of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, has written a very pungent letter to the Christian Recorder, on the subject of political preachers against the progress of the church. All of which we endorse, and from which we take the following excerpt:

"First, they have not time. Second, politics as now conducted is at variance with the true spirit of Christianity. Thirdly, the minister that enters politics must break the golden rule. Fourthly, the minister-politician has attempted to compel the kingdom of Christ to become a part of the kingdoms of this world. Fifthly, politics is infested with the very disease that ministers are sent to rebuke, and, sixthly, in order to succeed, the political preachers are compelled to violate the general rules of the A. M. E. Church."

The Latest Works from Our Book Concern.

Valeria, the Martyr of the Catacombs. By Rev. W. H. Withrow; D. D., Published by Phillips & Hunt, New York. Cranston & Stowe, Cincinnati. This is like all our works, first class in every mechanical detail, nothing is wanting to make it perfect. It is a 12mo volume with 30 chapters in 229 pages. Highly illustrated and bound in ink cloth and gold gilt Price $1. Valeria is a tale of early Christian life in Rome. It walks abroad in all the height of chaste and beautiful virtue and abounds in a grandeur of imagination not wholly imaginative either, for it has its base in a solid substratum of truth. It explores the crypts or caverns or catacombs near Rome, and rescues from the past those scenes of sorrow, trial and Christian constancy which has attended, marked, distinguished and immortalized every step of the march of our own holy religion. It is full of food for Christian contemplation. It excites, incites, inspires, and thrills the reader, filling him with sympathy for the martyrs to our faith and a purpose to suffer martyrdom himself if needs be so, rather than surrender it. Get it by all means and read slowly through once or twice, it will help you.

Elim's Power of Ease in Zion: By John M. Bamford. Published by Phillips & Hunt, New York, Cranston & Stowe, Cincinnati, 1885. We have here a perfect gem of a book in its mechanical parts. It is a 12mo. Indian-ink cloth and gold gilt binding. It has 16 chapters, each illustrated and opens a significant frontispiece. All within 220 well written pages. Price 80 cents. The writer is an author of note having been frequently before the public before this. But if he was not it would not differ. The work speaks for itself, and the very subject is a study. In the frontispiece a working Christian bows by a stone amid the grass, and wrestles with the Lord in prayer. Beyond is an idle shepherd, with dog and crook, emblems of power, but the distant sheep roam at will and brave every peril without him. It is so amusing to him to see a real Christian pray and work. He is at ease in Zion. So the story tells of conversion, declension, recovery, growth, and full salvation. All in such a well woven life-like way that one sees the characters live and breathe around him. Buy it, it will help you, if you read it.

Bishop Thomson. The life of Edward Thomson, late Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church. By his son Rev. Edward Thomson, M. A. Cincinnati, Cranston & Stowe. New York, Phillips & Hunt. Price $1.25. Bishop Thomson was a ripe scholar, an observant traveler, a sound and yet eloquent preacher, and a bishop of broad comprehensive views. His work in the church will be a sweet ointment to its members while the organization lasts or its history remains. The book before us is the loving testimonial of his son, who like the father whose precious life he preserves and transmits to generations following, began his manhood work as a preacher and teacher. He has excellent endowments for his work and has most faithfully performed the task in hand. This work was one that Bishop Gilbert Haven intended but joined his brother Bishop Thomson in the sweet beyond, before he had the opportunity to begin. It is a 12mo, 336 pages, and 22 chapters. It is well bound in seal brown cloth and gold gilt, and the work is done in the usual good style of our book house. The church has long waited for and will now hasten to get and read it.

Personal.

—The postoffice address of Rev. I. B. Scott, has been changed from Franklin, Tenn., to No. 402 College Avenue, Austin, Texas.

—Last month, Pastor Berthe, of Brest, France. received thirty converted Catholics into fellowship The Presbyterian church at Valparaiso has also added to its numbers 150 Roman Catholic converts.

—Bro. Montgomery writes to us from Shreveport, the Rev. A. Legardy an aged and greatly beloved superannuate minister of the Louisiana Conference residing there had his thigh broken June 5th, being run over by a cart. On account of his extreme age the doctors consider it a serious case.

—Rev. J. J. Durham, delivered the annual address at Fisk University, and received the degree of A. M. He is a graduate af Meharry Medical College, class of 80. About a year since he was appointed agent of the Southern Baptist Association of which church he is a member.

—Miss M. E. Young, who has charge of our Model School during the year, has gone to St. Louis, to visit her brother. Prof. Fry has gone to his home in Little Rock, Ark. We are sorry he found his wife sick. Miss Hitchcock will spend the summer in Leicester, Vt. Prof. Dart expects to spend most of the vacation at Red Bank, near Cincinnati, O. All of the Central Tennessee College.

Church Polity.

Is it the spirit and meaning of the Discipline for a district steward in the absence of any call by the presiding elder to fix the amount to be paid the presiding elder by the charge he represents, and would an estimate made in this way be considered binding on the stewards of a charge?

SUBSCRIBER.

Answer—Decidedly no. It is both the letter and the spirit of the Discipline, (See edition 1884, p 193, par, 363) that there be annually, in every district, a meeting composed of one steward from each circuit and station, to be selected by the quarterly conference, whose duty it shall be, with the advice of the presiding elder, who shall preside in such meeting, to make an estimate of the amount necessary to furnish a comfortable support to the presiding elder, and to apportion the same, including house rent and traveling expenses; and in all cases the presiding elder shall share with the preachers in his district in proportion to what they have respectively received. BUT if there be a surplus of money raised for the support of the preacher in one or more of the circuits or stations in his district, he shall receive such surplus; provided, he does not receive more than his allowance. The minutes of the district stewards meeting shall be kept by a secretary chosen for the purpose, who shall also record the same in a book of which the presiding elder shall be custodian. The district stewards are members of the district conference. Dis. 1884, p. 58 par. 90. The district stewards are to attend the annual district stewards meeting when called by the presiding elder, and to perform the duties specified in par. 363. See Dis. 1884, p. 122, par. 203. And in par. 204 it is expressly provided that a district steward shall be appointed in the quarterly conference after each annual election of stewards. The district steward must be elected and appointed in the last quarterly conference before the annual conference.

So agrees Baker on the Discipline, and Barnes on the duties of official members. The only possible room for escape is at the point where the law says they shall meet when called by the presiding elder. But that only means that he must call and that they must not undertake to meet or fix a salary unless he does call them together. It sometimes happens that pastors have a large influence, and use it unduly with stewards much to the disadvantage of presiding elders. In such an emergency the presiding elder would be justifiable in doing two things for the protection of sound discipline and himself.

1. In using every technicality there was in the law, so as to do no harm himself or to allow it in others.

2. In removing the pastor to another place on his district, where his influence would be less potent to embarrass him.

Finally, a Bishop might, and probably should be called upon to determine the whole matter in an annual conference, and the conference to apply his decision.

Schools and Colleges.

Closing Exercises at Cetral Tennessee College, Nashville.

A good audience crowded the college chapel before the hour. President Braden announced, and the choir sung an anthem. Rev. I. B. Scott led in prayer.

THE PROGRAMME.

Normal—Contained the following selections.

Arithmetic—Miss Bessy Brady, of Nashville.

Grammar—Miss F. F. Ellis, Victoria, Texas.

Music Solo—J. B. Evans.

Academic—F. V. Palmer, Paris, Tennessee.

Music—Times' a thief, full chorus.

Acadia—Botany, Miss I. B. Evans, Franklin, Tennessee.

Music—Mr. Henry May; Trio Misses Evans, Key, and Alexander.

Presentation of Diplomas by President Braden; music by the choir. Then followed a touching memorial service for Bishop Wiley. After this the Alumni Association held their annual meeting with most agreable results. Many distinguished visitors were present and seated upon the platform with the faculty. President Braden is to be congratulated with those whose earnest toil with his own has tendered to work so auspicious a conclusion of the year's labors. The graduating classes acquitted themselves with great ability and evinced full maturity of preparation. Of the distinguished persons present we give the following: On the platform sat President Braden, Dr. R. W. Keeler, President W. H. Stifler, of Roger Williams University; Prof. W. E. Morang, of Roger Williams University; Prof. H. S. Bennett, of Fisk University; Prof. I. B. Scott, of Texas; Prof. H. B. Fry, of Arkansas; Prof J. L. Shearer, of Vanderbilt University; Prof. T. M. Dart, Revs. James Pickett, E. Tyree, A. Philips, H. Primm, W. A. Fortson, J. D. Shingler, Judge Lawrence and Judge T. H. Caldwell, president of the Board of Trustees. Benediction by Dr. W. H. Stifler, of Roger Williams Baptist University.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Methodist Men and Woman's Mutual Aid and Beneficiary Association.

REV. L. N. TAYLOR.

The Methodist Preachers Mutual Aid and Beneficiary Society of the United States of America—who are its founders? Their former reputation at home and abroad? The positions they occupy in the Methodist Episcopal Church as well as their qualifications to lead such a revolution in a great Church like ours? These questions are to the point; some are, we think, premature, as a glance at our article of March 19th and the article of Bro. Hagood will prove. Yes, as has been said, we know each other, and it is with pleasure that I recall the kind receptions given me, both at the home of Bro. Hagood and of his parents. It was his father that presented my petition to the Masonic Lodge, and it was his sainted mother who time and again prepared my meals and bed, and would have me up in time for the early train; and when my first appointment was in the Indian Territory, it was that Godly woman who took my hand in hers and, with an intonation of voice which I shall never forget, bade me go trusting in the promised "lo, I am with yon to the end." All I mean by this is that we know each other, and for all these years not an unkind word has been spoken; so there is now no mnd on onr paddles, and all that is said is in order that a better understanding may be had regarding the Society. As Bro. Hagood is not ignorant regarding some of the facts intended to be brought out by his questions, as our answers will show, so we suppose it is for the purpose of getting the Society clearly before the people—first, the founders, their former reputations at home and abroad, the positions they occupy in the Methodist Episcopal Church.

1st. The Vice President is Rev. William Henry Harrison Brown. Ten years ago he was made presiding elder of the North Missonri District of the Missouri Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Chnrch. He has held every important charge in the conference as pastor, he was elector at large on the Garfield ticket, he was a teacher for several years in the Knights of Labor; he is a Mason and Odd Fellow, and was at the last session of the St. Louis Conference (two weeks ago) made presiding elder of the Lexington Distriot of the St. Louis Conference M. E. Church; he was not only a leader ten years ago, but the St. Louis Conference says he is a leader to day.

2d. The Secretary and General Manager, Rev. Jordan Walker Hughes, began life as a school teacher, but gave it up and entered the traveling connection of the M. E. Church. He may truly be called the founder of Methodist Episcopal Methodism among our people in North Missouri. For four years he was presiding elder on the North Missonri Distriot of the Missouri Conference. He has held every important charge in the conference; then he was transferred to the St. Louis Conference and appointed to the Missouri District, which he traveled for four years; since then he has held the most important charges in the conference, and has held every important charge in the State. As a preacher and financier he stands to-day without a peer in Missouri Methodism. He is the pastor that led Wesley Chapel, our leading church in Missouri, to success when she was and had been for seven years burdened with a heavy debt. In less than three years he raised between five and ten thousand dollars and paid every dollar the church owed; and as a recognition of his financial skill and generalship, the church gave him a month's vacation and paid his way to New York and elsewhere. He is to-day rallying our people in St. Louis, and they are buying another large church on Elliott avenue of which he is the pastor.

3d. The Treasurer, Mr. E. A. Minor, began life as a school-teacher. For 17 years he has been an officer in the M. E. Church; he is a boss mechanic, at times working a number of both white and colored hands. He has good property, and doubtless can give as large a bond as any member of our Church in the State. He is a Knight Templar and one of the grand officers of the Masonic Lodge.

4th. The chairman of the Board of Directors, Rev. Alexander Hubbard, started in life as a school teacher. For four years he was the presiding elder on the North Missouri District, which position he held until last year. He has absolutely held every important charge in the conference. A Christian gentleman above reproach, is at this writing a pastor in our church.

5th. But what about the president? Last week his character was passed by the Missouri Conference, and the Secretary of the conference was ordered to send a check for the money allowed by the conference to the brother in question, to pay his way in school. Also he was made effective, relation changed from supernumerary to effective without the request of the brother, and the Bishop was requested to leave him without an appointment in order that he may continne in school. These are the founders. The people must judge for themselves as to their standing at home (except the President). If the St. Louis and the Missonri Conferences be taken as evidence, and the position of Mr. Minor in the other societies, his standing in the M. E. Church of 17 years, and his standing as a citizen, you must conclude that these are leading men. What has been said can not be rubbed out without rubbing out the records of the St. Louis and Missonri conferences. But you have left us two of your founders, Dr. Jones and Mr. B. P. Toley. We answer the statement is only partially true: First, Dr. Jones was not a founder nor was he ever a member, as he does not belong to our church, He accepted the position of medical examiner for us in St. Louis. Second, It is true that we organized with Mr. Toby as secretary, but it was understood that he was only temporary Secretary and only acted for four months. Are they qualified to lead such a revolution in a great church like ours. If Bro. Hagood means to ask, are the founders of this organization competent to push this Society into the several conferences, organizing the members of our church into divisions, revolutionizing society so far as our church is concerned, independent of the presiding elders, pastors, educators and other wise leading laymen, we answer positively no! and wish to add that the redeeming feature is they have never been foolish enough to think so. But if he means to ask are the founders able with the united aid of the presiding elders, pastors, educators and other wise leading laymen to lead such a revolution in a great church like ours, we answer yes. You acknowledge that there is a great wrong being perpetrated upon our people by other organizations. You do recognize the demand for a society, or you cannot say intelligently that our Society is a step in the right direction which you have said. If what you say is true then you recognize the necessity for a revolution, for that is what our Society means, and you are joined by some of the leading men of our church in that belief. But it will take united action to make it a success. We care not who the officers are; we care not from what section of the Church they are chosen, just so success perches upon our banner. We have no higher ambition than to emancipate our people from those societies which you acknowledge are doing great harm. We are fighting for a principle recognized by yourself and others to be right. The salary of the managers—What has become of the means? Why have not the conferences which hold our membership taken hold of it? These questions will be answered next week. The method will be left until the last.

Mr. Editor, you see we have not entered into the discussion of the merits of the Society. We are only answering Bro. Hagood's questions. Until they are answered no intelligent discussion can be had. We hope the readers of the SOUTHWESTERN will preserve these articles for future reference, for both the inside and outside of this Society will be brought out in this discussion.

Evanston, Ill.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Drol and Innocent.

BEV. A. BOOKER.

1. A brother a few weeks ago, in the district conference, was examining candidates for admission on trial, he asked the candidates "can any of you tell me which one of the old paddyocks walk the closest to God?"

2. A brother's confession in a class-meeting, who had passed the Sabbath morning in playing croquet, said, "Brethren and sisters, I have been doing wrong." Class-leader—"What have you been doing, Bro. P?" "I have been playing crocount, and if God will forgive me for this time I will never play another croconnt or take another ding bat in my hands."

3. A preacher in the Sunnay-school asked the children who were the wise men that came to worship Christ. Scholar—"Don't know, sir." Preacher—"They were the shepherds who kept watch over their flocks by night, children; bear this in mind, bear this in mind."

4. At an annual conference in 1877 an examining committee asked the class if they had studied grammar. Class—"Yes, sir." The examiner said to a brother sitting at the head of the class: "If you had 99 children what would you do with them?" Candidate—"Why, I would do the best as I could with them." The examiner said to the tallyman, "Give him two, that's a good answer in grammar."

5. Prayer for the paesiding elder by one of the laymen of his congregation: "O Lord, stand by our presiding elder, and when he comes to the winty walls of death, come with peace in one hand, pardon in the other, and the Lamb of God in the other one."

A Baptist Sister and a Methodist Sister were in a dispute, one said to the other, "Say what you please about us Baptists; all I want is just to get my head in heaven; that's all I want."

Gen. Toombs on the Negro—Reviewed.

ATLANTA, June 4.—In an interview in the Atlanta Journal on the future of the Negro, Gen. Robert Toombs says that the race will not colonize, but will remain at the South. That there is no danger whatever of a war of races in the future. The Negro race is uneducatable, and the effort to educate them is foolish because it increases crime. "The Negro race will die out," said he. "They are dying out now. The census has been falsely interpreted by Cable, Haygood, Tourgee and others. He will die out, because it is the history of all inferior races. A scrub race, such as the Negroes, is bound to die out but the thoroughbred race, the whites, will live to procreate the species. It is a law of God and cannot change."

He said also: "If God had not intended to make the Negro an inferior race he would not have created him black. You cannot make scholars and statesmen out of him. He was intended not to stand at the blackboard, but to handle the plow and the cotton basket. He will always do the best tilling the soil. He knows that the Southern people are his best friends. Led astray politically, he came back and now votes right. He knows his place socially and will keep it."—Times Democrat.

JOHN L. WIMBY.

I have noticed a few pithy remarks on the "Future of the Negro" as coming from the lips of Gen. Robert Toombs, one of Georgia's most eminent statesmen, and am persuaded that the gentleman has not permitted his views and observations to expand beyond the limits of the Negro in his untutored state during the lamentable days of slavery. In this age of improvement and advancement in the moral, educational and political conditions of all civilized races none can command any higher admiration than the Negro, considering the many obstacles placed before him. Look upon the wonderful achievements of the race in question that have been brought squarely before the critical eye of the world here in our late World's Exposition. To collect up all the evidences to refute the General's remarks is not my object in this article, but will leave that to a discriminating public, suffice it to say that his own State will prove him to be in error. The world is moving on and each succeeding year brings to us messages of prosperity and good cheer on the part of this once persecuted people. The bitterness that has existed between the two races is now rapidly being lost sight of for the fact that the Negro is becoming educated and possessed of wealth, and it is but folly to attempt to hedge him up, because he, like the great Mississippi river, must have an outlet. The General in his old age relates to us the astonishing fact that the Negro race will die out. It ought to be a source of great consolation to every race to know that they will not live in this world of woe always, especially to those who cherish the hope of a brighter and better clime, and I sincerely hope that the General is one of these. All races will die in God's own appointed time and not before. During the time allotted the Negro on this earth it is wonderful to note the progress he has made in the arts and sciences, all without the aid of his former master, who turned them loose upon the great ocean of time as physical and financial wrecks without the aid of a school house. Men to this day whose heads are hoary with age and who have been Pharaohs in their "Golden Age" will exclaim in those well chosen words of Henry Clay, "If I could be instrumental in eradicating that deepest stain, slavery; from the character of my country I would not exchange the proud satisfaction for all the honors ever achieved by the most successful conqueror." The Negro is advancing not only in the accumulation of lands and money but is taking an active part in the affairs of this beautiful world of our Gods, and as a private citizen under the protection of the constitution of these United States will demand and have his rights. The Democratic party in these late years have paid dearly for ballot box stuffing, intimidating and bulldozing, as it has cost them thousands of votes in these Southern States. The Negro as a race asks mercy from any and expects none from all.

These are indeed delicate questions to deal with, any man who has bitter prejudice rooted and grounded in him is not the one to touch them, because if he does he will surely make himself obnoxious to the people he represents as well as rekindle into a flame that smoldering spark of bitterness that slavery has left in the hearts of the Negro and their progenitors. We are taught that God made of one blood all nations of the earth, so it is his business that he saw fit to cut his own image in ebony. These are among the many rich treasures of the sacred Book that God has not permitted man to fathom.

New Orleans, La.

General Church News.

Do not look downward Christian; your home is above; your Father above; your Savior above; your dearest friends, the companions you love, and the righteous nation to which you belong—all are above. Look not down, then; but lift up your head, for your redemption draweth nigh.—Champneys.

American Bible Society.

The stated meeting of the Board of Managers was held at the Bible House, on Thursday, June 4th, 1885, the Hon. E. L. Fancher, L.L.D., Vice-President, in the chair.

Consignments and grants of books for distribution at home and abroad were made to the value of $13,200.

It was reported that one hundred and fifty-four colporteurs are now engaged in the Society's service; and that in April they visited 36,048 families (of whom 4,895 were found destitute of the Bible,) and distributed 16,964 copies of Scripture, of the value of $6,450.

The total receipts for May were $63,431.82, and 100,106 volumes were issued from the Bible House during the same time.

Bartholdi, the sculptor, has given the following statement of the exact dimensions of the Statue of Liberty: "From bottom of plinth to the top of torch, 151.14 feet; height of bottom foundation of pedestal above low-water mark, 13 feet; height of foundation mass, 52.10 feet; height of pedestal proper, 89 feet; total height of top of torch above mean low-water mark 305.12 feet." He emphatically denies the story that the statue was originally intended for Egypt.—Current.

Sumner's Last Day in the Senate.

A friend of humanity, his policy was peace, and the settlement of disputes between nations by arbitration instead of by war was one of his fondest dreams. possessed of such benignant sentiments, on December 2, 1872, he introduced a bill which he requested to have "read in full for information." I shall give it here; for to carry it to the desk was one of my first acts as a page. It was as follows:

"A bill to regulate the Army Register and the Regimental Colors of the United States.

Whereas, the national amity and good-will among fellow-citizens can be assured only through oblivion of past differences, and it is contrary to the usage of civilized nations to perpetuate the memory of civil war: Therefore,

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the names of battles with fellow-citizens shall not be continued in the Army Register or placed on the regimental colors of the United States."

The bill was ordered to be printed, and that was the end of its pilgrimage in Congress. It never became a law. But it was discussed elsewhere! The Legislature of Massachusetts heard of it with deepest indignation. The act of Senator Sumner was stigmatized as "an attempt to degrade the loyal soldiery of the Union and their grand achievements; and a resolution of censure was introduced and passed by the legislature of the State which had made him its senator.

The resolution of censure was an injustice, which would have provoked some men to wath. But with Mr. Sumner it occasioned not anger, but grief. He had served his state for more than twenty years; and it had stood proudly by him in all his efforts. That it should now, after his long and faithful career, misinterpret his motives, and seem to braud him with reproach, was perhaps the saddest blow he had ever sustained. His manner betrayed how it bore upon his mind. Yet when December again appeared, the senator was again found at his seat on the opening day, this time to introduce his famous Civil Rights Bill—the first bill of the session. But, as the days slipped by, his face was less frequently seen in the Senate. December, January, February passed—his visits were few and brief.

On the 10th of March, however, he was in attendance. I remember it well. I had not seen him for quite a while, and he called me to his desk. I thought he looked more cheerful than usual, and I asked after his health. As he whittled a pen, he smilingly chatted with me, and stated that he had come to the Senate to hear pleasant news. He had scarcely made the remark, when Senator Boutwell, his colleague, arose and sent up to the clerk's desk to be read a resolution of the Massachusetts Legislature. As the clerk proceeded, all eyes turned upon Senator Sumner, who was eagerly listening. It was a resolution rescinding the vote of censure! Within a few moments after the reading, the Senator left the Chamber, and, as I parted from him at the door he shook hands kindly, and said: "Good-bye!"

Those were his last words to me, The next day he was dead!—From "Among the Law-makers," by Edmund Alton, in St. Nicholas for May.

What we can do to Prevent a Cholera Epidemic.

But we have not at our command a simple and sovereign remedy by means of which the individual predisposition to cholers may be done away with, and yet we can do something in this direction. Everything which tends to lower the general health and cause depression, but especially those conditions which induce diarrhœa, predisposes to cholera. To these matters every one must look for himself, and his own efforts may be aided by the advice of doctors. The organs of public health may also effect much. Medical treatment should be obtained for the earliest cases of cholera and of diarrhœa. Care must be taken by the authorities and by the community to take measures for the treatment of the sick. But the difficult point in the prevention of cholera is the predisposition in time and place. It is no use urging, as the contagionists do, that we can not change the nature of the soil. One of the established facts concerning epidemics of cholera is the tendency of the disease to rage in those quarters where the greatest filth prevails. All towns which have been provided with good drainage and water supply have lost their susceptibility to cholera. England affords the best example of this act. In 1849 there were recorded 53,237 deaths from cholera, in 1854 the numbers were 20,097, and in 1866 only 14,378, while from 1872 to 1874, when several epidemics prevailed on the Continent, cholera did not reach England. I do not imagine that this immunity was due to the want of predisposition to cholera as regards conditions of time. The case of Fort William in Calcutta may be again referred to, as there, I believe, the immunity from cholera now enjoyed was due not merely to the introduction of a better supply of water, but largely also to the improvement in the other matters of hygiene.—From "Cholera," by Dr. Max von Pettenkofer, in Popular Science Monthly for May.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
July 17-1y.

S. W. Talmadge, a Milwaukee expert, has prepared his first preliminary estimate for the season by States of the probable total yield of wheat in the United States for 1885. The estimate shows the probable yield of winter wheat as 231,000,000 bushels, of spring wheat 130,000,000 bushels, total of winter and spring 391,000,000 bushels. According to these figures the crop of 1885, compared with 1884, will show a shortage in winter wheat of 139,000,000 bushels, spring wheat 13,000,000 bushels; total winter and spring shortage 152,090,000 bushels.

To keep the doors open, the oil glands and tubes active, and thus furnish an outlet for impurities in the perspiration and blood which cause humiliating blotches, blackheads, and minor skin blemishes; to cleanse, whiten, and beautify the skin; remove tan, freckles sunburn, and oily matter; to keep the hands soft, white, and free from chaps and roughness, prevent contagious skin and scalp diseases, and provide an exquisite skin beautifier and toilet, bath, and nursery sanative, redolent with delicious flower odors and Cuticura healing balsams, is the special duty of the Cuticura Soap. Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great Skin Cures and Beautifiers, and Cuticura Resolvent, the new Blood Purifier, cure every form of Skin and Blood Diseases from Pimples to Scrofula. Sold everywhere. Price Cuticura, 50c.; Soap, 22c.; Resolvent $1.00. Potter Drug and Chemical Co., Boston.

Statue of "Liberty Enlightening the World."

The Committee in charge of the construction of the base and pedestal for the reception of this great work, In order to raise funds for its completion, have prepared a minature Statue six inches in height—the statue bronzed; pedestal, nickel-silvered—which they are now delivering to subscribers throughout the United States at One Dollar Each.

This attractive souvenir and Mantel or Desk ornament is a perfect fac simile of the model furnished by the artist.

The statuette in same metal, twelve inches high, at Five Dollars Each, delivered.

The designs of Statue and Pedestal are protected by U. S Patents, and the models can only be furnished by this Committee. Address, with remittance,

RICHARD BUTLER, Sec'y.,
American Committee of the Statue of Liberty.
33 Mercer street, New York.

NEW TESTAMENT.

Matthew and Mark and Luke and John the Holy Gospels wrote,
Describing how the Savior died, his life and all he taught.
Acts prove how God the apostles owned with signs in every place.
St. Paul, in Romans, teaches how man is saved by grace.
The apostle, in Corinthians, instructs, exhorts, reproves.
Galatians shows that faith in Christ alone the Father loves
Ephesians and Philippians tell what Christians ought to be.
Colossians bids us live for God and for eternity.
In Thessalonians we are taught the Lord will come from heaven.
In Timothy and Titus a pastor's rule is given.
Philemon marks a Christian's love, which only Christians know.
Hebrews reveals the gospel prefigured by the Law.
James says that without holiness faith is but vain and dead.
St. Peter points the narrow way in which the saints are led.
John, in his three epistles, on love delights to dwell.
St Jude gives awful warning of judgment wrath and hell.
The Revelation prophesies of that tremendous day
When Christ, and Christ alone, shall be the trembling sinner's stay.—New Orleans Christian Advocate.

Domestic Hygiene.

Disinfection and Disinfectants.

GEO. L. CURTISS, M. D.

The American Public Health Association has by their committee published a most valuable preliminary report on the above subject. It is couched in language that can be easily understood. It is valuable to the medical profession and to the laity. From it I desire to make extracts of what seems to be the most important points, since the paper is too long to be printed entire. "The object of disinfection is to prevent the extension of infectious diseases by destroying the specific infectious material which gives rise to them." Disinfectants accomplish this. A disinfectant is that material which has the power of entirely destroying "living micro-organisms, known in a general way as 'disease germs'" and taking from them the power to propagate. Practical sanitation proceeds on the belief that there are such absolute disinfectants. There is a popular notion that any chemical agent which destroys or masks bad odors, or which arrests putrefactive decomposition," is a disinfectant. "This popular use of the term has led to much misapprehension, and the agents which have been found to destroy bad odors, deodorisers, or to arrest putrefactive decomposition, antiseptics, have been confidently recommended and extensively used for the destruction of disease germs in the excreta of patients with cholera, typhoid fever, etc."

"Recent researches have demonstrated that many of the agents which have been found useful as deodorizers, or as antiseptics, are entirely without value for the destruction of disease germs." This is true, for example, as regards the sulphate of iron or copperas, a salt which has been extensively used with the idea that it is a valuable disinfectant. As a matter of fact, sulphate of iron in saturated solution does not destroy the vitality of disease germs or the infectious power of material containing them. This salt is, nevertheless, a very valuable antiseptic, and its low price makes it one of the most available agents for the prevention of putrefactive decomposition in privy vaults, cesspools etc." Antiseptic agents also exert a restraining influence upon the development of disease germs, and during epidemics is to be used where masses of organic material in the vicinity of habitations can not be completely removed, or where an antiseptic is necessarily a disinfectant. Throughout at all times where it is impossible to remove filth in the vicinity of human habitations they are poor substitutes. "During the prevalence of epidemic diseases, as cholera, typhoid fever and dysentery, it is better to use, in privies, cesspools, etc., those agents which are also disinfectants; and when the contents of such receptacles are known to be infected this becomes imperative." "In the sick-room we have disease germs at an advantage, for we know where to find them as well as how to kill them." "The infectious character of the dejections of patients suffering with cholera and from typhoid fever is well established," this is true of mild cases and the earlier stages. "It is probable that epidemic dysentery, tuberculosis, and perhaps dipthheria, yellow fever, scarlet fever and typhoid fever, may also be transmitted by means of the discharges of the sick. It is therefore of the first importance that these should be disinfected. In cholera, diphtheria, yellow fever and scarlet fever, all vomited material should also be looked upon as infectious. And in tuberculosis, diphtheria, scarlet fever and infectious pneumonia, the sputa of the sick should be disinfected or destroyed by fire." The following standard solutions are highly recommended as disinfectants. 1st. Dissolve choloride of lime of the best quality in soft water, in the proportion of four ounces to the gallon." One pint of this solution may be used for disinfection of each discharge of cholera, typhoid fever etc. 2. "Dissolve corrosive sublimate and permanganat of potash in soft water, in proportion of two drachms of each salt to the gallon." It is used the same as the solution of chloride of lime, only it requires a longer time to be effecive. 3. "To one part of Labarraqui's solution (liquor sodae chlorinatai) add five parts of soft water." This is no more effective than the first, and much more expensive.

"The surface of the bed of a sick person, or of his attendants, when soiled with infectious discharges, should be at once cleaned with a suitable disinfecting agent." Bathing in the 3d solution or Labarraqui's solution accomplishes the desired work. The body of the dead from infectious diseases should be "thoroughly washed with one of the standard solutions above recommended, and then enveloped in a sheet saturated with the same." Clothing may be disinfected by "boiling for half an hour" in water. The "vitality of all known disease germs" may be destroyed by boiling. "No delay should occur, however, between the time of removing soiled clothing from the person or bed of the sick, and its immersion in boiling water. The following is good. 4. Dissolve corrosive sublimate in water, in the proportion of four ounces to the gallon, and add one drachm of permanganate of potash to each gallon to give color to the solution." One fluid ounce of this solution to a gallon of water will make an excellent disinfective for clothing, and furniture. This solution must be kept in a "wooden tub or earthern crock." "Clothing or bedding which cannot be washed may be disinfected by exposure to dry heat in a properly constructed disinfecting chamber for three or four hours. A temperature of 230 deg. Fah. should be maintained during this time, and the clothing must be freely exposed." "Moist heat is far more effective, and it is demonstrated that ten minutes exposure to steam, at a temperature of 230 deg. Fah. will destroy all known disease germs including the most refractory spores." When a proper disinfecting chamber cannot be obtained, infected clothing and bedding ought to be destroyed, provided the value of the clothing would be destroyed by immersion in boiling water, or in one of the disinfecting solutions recommended." In another article I will speak of the sick-room, and the mode of disinfection.

Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets." They operate without disturbance to the constitution diet, or occupation. For sick headache, constipation, inpure blood, dizziness, sour ernetations from the stomach, bad taste in month, billous attacks, pain in region of kidneys, internal fever, bloated feeling about stomach, rush of blood to head, take Dr. Pierce's "Pellets." By druggists,

The M. E. Church.

Centennial Review.

150 years ago the germ of Methodism was warming into life in Oxford University, England.

120 years ago a few seeds of the new life, wafted over the sea, took root in American soil and brought forth abundant fruit.

100 years ago the Christmas Conference gathered the sheaves, and bound them together in "The Methodist Episcopal Church in America." There were 83 traveling Preachers, and 15,000 members in the new Church, with about 60 modest houses of worship worth, perhaps, $30,000. The population of the New Republic numbered 3,000,000, Thus began the history of the new experiment—a free Church in a free country.

January 1st, 1885, Methodism throughout the world numbers 35,000 Traveling Preachers, and 6,320,000 members, and a population closely identified with it of about 25,000,000.

In the United States Methodism has 27,000 Traveling Preachers, and 4,000,000 members, and a population of over 15,000,000, or more than one-fourth of the population of the entire country—56,000,000.

The Methodist Episcopal Church alone numbers, in the United States, 12,800 Traveling Preachers, and 1,800,000 members, having: 19,100 churches, worth $73,000,000; 7,000 parsonages, worth $10,500,000; 144 Colleges and other school properties, worth, including endowments, $14,500,000; Total $98,000,000.

Responsibility is in proportion to strength and opportunities. A great work is before us. Let us enlarge our plans and increase our diligence, and make the Second Century of Methodism more glorious than the first. If Methodism be indeed "Christianity in Earnest," let us be in earnest. "Every one of us shall give account of himself to God."

"A Perfect Flood of Sunshine" will fill the heart of every suffering woman if she will only persist in the use of Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription." It will cure the most excruciating periodical pains, and relieve you of all irregularities and give healthy action. It will positively cure internal inflammation and ulceration, misplacement and all kindred disorders. Price reduced to one dollar. By druggists.

The savings banks of Berlin have on deposit $13,330,950, an increase of $1,776,000 during the past year. The number of depositors is 113,569.

Miss Nellie Kent,

Wellington, Lorain county, O., writes: "Dr. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, O., Gentlemen: I have been a great sufferer from chronic catarrh, bronchitis and neuralgia of the face. I have been taking your PERUNA for one month. The neuralgia and catarrh is almost well, and the cough is much better. I like your PERUNA very much."

C. E. Dupler, aged thirty-four years, of Equality, Illinois, had been affected with a chronic catarrh which he first discovered six years ago. In succession he lost his smell, taste and hearing. The disease was so malignant that it not only attacked the softer parts, but destroyed the bony partition of the nose and seriously affected the external parts. He could only hear a watch ticking by holding it close to his ear. He suffered intense pain in the nose, from which green, dry clots of offensive odor fell. In this condition he presented himself to Dr. Hartman several months ago. He can now hear a watch eight inches from his right and six inches from his left ear. His taste and smell are again returning, and the external part of the nose is quite well. Few more grateful patients ever left a physician's office than Mr. Dupler. He said, "Why in the world was PERUNA not prescribed for me long ago?"

Cramps of the Stomach.

We have the privilege of reporting the following case. Those similarly affected can get the name and address of Dr. Hartman. The lady does not want her name in the papers. For a year, or years, (the writer does not remember the length of time,) this lady had cramps, the most fearful of the stomach, every day and night, "which would be followed by that terrible weakness, which was something wonderful." The suffering and distress of this lady was indescribable and almost unendurable. After all the physicians and medicines had failed, and all hope had almost fled, Dr. Hartman was consulted, and from the first day of taking his PERUNA, the cramps and all bad feeling left her, and now for over a month has been entirely free from every symptom. A more thankful patient no doctor ever had.

Mr. Boggs, druggist, Charlestown, Kanawha Co., W. Va., writes: "PERUNA sells well here and gives good satisfaction. Customers speak well of it."

Dr. J. Anderson, Coshocton, Ohio, writes: "Your PERUNA sells well and gives good satisfaction. I consider it a splendid medicine."

DYSPEPSIA

Is a dangerous as well as distressing complaint. If neglected, it tends, by impairing nutrition, and depressing the tone of the system, to prepare the way for Rapid Decline.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.

Trade Mark. QUALITY P. PURITY NOT QUANTITY. On Every Bottle.

—THE BEST TONIC.

Quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia in all its forms, Heartburn, Belching, Tasting the Food, &c. It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, and aids the assimilation of food. REV. J. T. ROSSITER, the honored pastor of the First Reformed Church, Baltimore, Md., says: "Having used Brown's Iron Bitters for Dyspepsia and Indigestion, I take great pleasure in recommending it highly. Also consider it a splendid tonic and invigorator, and very strengthening."

Genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other. Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

LADIES' HAND BOOK—useful and attractive, containing list of prizes for recipes, information about coins, etc., given away by all dealers in medicine, or mailed to any address on receipt of 2c. stamp.

Chautauqua Periodicals.

Chautauqua Assembly Daily Herald,

An eight page paper, printed on a steam power press on the Assembly grounds at Chautauqua, every morning during the meeting in August; 19 numbers in the volume, containing stenographic reports of more than 70 lectures on science, philosophy, religion and practical questions, besides reports of lectures meetings, debates and classroom drills. An invaluable collection.

The first number will appear Saturday, Aug. 1.

Subscription price, - - - - $1 00
In clubs of five or more at one time - - - 90

THE CHAUTAUQUAN,

A first-class Literary Magazine. The organ of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle, containing one-half of the Required Readings of the course with the special departments of Local Circles, Questions and Answers on the Books in the course, C. L. S. C. Work and Notes on the Required Readings.

A Literary Department of great merit, furnishing articles from the foremost writers of the country.

Subscription price, - - - - $1.50
In clubs of five or more at one time - - 1.35
Vol. VI will begin with the October number.

Chautauqua Boys and Girls.

A Daily Paper for the Boys and Girls, to be issued at Chautauqua in August. Pictures of Chautauqua life. Full accounts of all children's meetings.

Subscription price - - - - - 50c
In clubs of five or more, - - - - - 40c

COMBINATION OFFER:

The Chautauquan and Assembly Daily Herald.....$2.25
The Chautauquan, Assembly Daily Herald and Chautauqua Boys and Girls.....$2 70

Address: DR. T. L. FLOOD, Editor and Proprietor.
je 25-8t Meadville, Pa

HEADQUARTERS
—FOR—
Sunday-school Supplies
Consisting of
GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with music.
Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, Bible Dictionaries.
Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books, Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Text Books, etc., etc. Also a large assortment of Books suitable for Libraries or presents to children. PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $2 65 to $12 00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock
W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent
94..... Camp Street, ...94
25tf NEW ORLEANS.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9-12, 1883.
Sixty Addresses by American Educators.
Edited by REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.
8vo. 272 pp. Price, stiff paper..$1.25
Cloth..... 1 75

The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:

1. Education and Man's Improvement.
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America.
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Pauperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War.
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—ten tables.

It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared, and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents. The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak. The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index.

Sent postpaid on receipt of price.

Phillips & Hunt,
37 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

GRATEFUL PRAISE!

A NEW S. S. BOOK. By J. H. Fillmore.
Pure in sentiment, rich in music. Sample copy, in boards, 25 cents; per dozen by express, $3 00; per dozen by mail, $4. Specimen pages free.
FILLMORE BROS.
No. 185 Race street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

OLD ONE HUNDRED.
MRS. TENA BURTON,
100.....Franklin Street.....100
Lodging,
With or Without Board.
mar26-6m

RAILROADS.

Chesapeake & Ohio R. R.
—VIA—
WASHINGTON
—TO—
BALTIMORE,
PHILADELPHIA,
and NEW YORK.
THE ONLY LINE WITH
Pullman Sleeping Cars
—FROM—
Louisville, Cincinnati and Lexington
—TO—
WASHINGTON
WITHOUT CHANGE.
Schedule in effect October 12, 1884

EASTWARD.	No. 4 Daily.	No. 6 ex Sunday
Leave Cincinnati	8 10 p m	8 30 p m
Leave Louisville	7 15 p m	7 00 a m
Leave Lexington	10 40 p m	11 45 a m
Leave Winchester	11 15 p m	12 25 p m
Due Mt. Sterling	12 08 a m	1 36 p m
Due Ashland	3 26 a m	5 55 p m
Due Huntington	4 03 a m	6 40 p m
Leave Huntington
Due Charleston	6 36 a m	10 00 p m
Due Clifton Ferge	7 30 p m	6 40 a m
Due Staunton	3 57 p m	9 26 a m
Due Charlottesville	5 20 p m	11 05 a m
Due Richmond	9 15 p m	3 25 p m
Arrive Newport News	10 45 a m	6 50 p m
Due Washington	9 50 p m
Arrive New York	6 30 a m

WESTWARD.	No. 3, Daily.	No. 1, ex Sunday
Leave New York	10 00 a m	12 00 knt
Due Washington	5 10 p m	9 10 a m
Leave Newport News	3 50 p m
Leave Richmond	6 25 p m	9 25 a m
Due Charlottesville	10 00 p m	1 45 p m
Due Staunton	11 42 p m	4 57 p m
Due Clifton Forge	1 45 a m	6 40 p m
Due Charleston	9 00 a m	4 25 p m
Due Huntington
Leave Huntington	9 40 a m	6 20 a m
Due Ashland	10 19 a m	7 02 a m
Due Mt. Sterling	1 57 p m	11 05 a m
Leave Winchester	2 30 p m	11 45 a m
Arrive Lexington	3 20 p m	12 45 p m
Arrive Louisville	7 10 p m	5 20 p m
Arrive Cincinnati	8 05 p m	5 35 p m

Lexington Div. trains run by Central time. Main line trains East of Huntington run by Eastern time, which is one hour faster than Central time.

Nos. 1 and 6 run daily, except Sunday. Sleeping cars between Huntington and Clifton Forge.

Nos 3 and 4 run daily, and do not stop for local business. Pullman Sleeping cars and Solid Train between Louisville and Washington and Cincinnati and Richmond without change.

Nos. 2 and 5 runs daily between Richmond and Clifton Forge. Do not run between Clifton Forge and Richmond.

No. 1 leave Norfolk, except Sunday, 7 40 a m, Old Point 8 15 a m, Newport News 8 45 a m, arrive at Richmond at 11 35 a m.

No. 2 leave Richmond except Sunday, 8 20 a m, arrive Newport News 10 45 a m, Old Point 11 10 a m, Norfolk 11 45 a m.

Old Dominion Steamers leave Norfolk on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or Saturday at 6 00 p m; arrive in New York next afternoon.

For Rates, Tickets, Baggage Checks apply to any office of C. & O. R'y; or Depot or Ticket Office of connecting lines.

C. W. SMITH, Gen'l Manager.
H. W. FULLER, Gen'l Pass. Agt

Ohio & Mississippi R. R
—The Direct and Fast Line to—
Cincinnati, Louisville, Washington, Baltimore, New York and the East,
(In Connection with the
"Great Jackson Route,"
Makes the following
FAST TIME:

STATIONS.	Daily
Leave New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss.	12:38 a m
Canton	1:30 a m
Durant	2:52 p m
Grenada	4:50 a m
Coffeeville	5:25 a m
Water Valley	6:00 a m
Oxford	6:43 a m
Holly Springs	7:54 a m
Grand Junction	9:15 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St. L. & N. O.	11:05 a m
Milan " " "	12:20 p m
Martin " " "	1:32 p m
Fulton " " "	2:00 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:30 p m
Carbondale "	6:58 p m
DuQuoin "	7:45 p m
Ashley "	8:28 p m
Centralia "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:26 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi	9:29 p m
" Louisville, "	6:50 a m
" Cincinnati "	7:05 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.

Passengers living on the line of the C. St. L. & N. O. R. R. will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, viz Odin and the O & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.

The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.

2 DAILY TRAINS
FROM ODIN
To WASHINGTON in 27 Hours,
To BALTIMORE in 28 Hours.
This is 5 Hours quicker than the fastest time by any other line.

The Day Express runs entire train consisting of Day Coaches and Palace Sleeping Cars from St. Louis to Washington and Baltimore without change.

The Night Express has Sleepers through without change. No other line from St. Louis offers a Double Daily Through Train Service to the National Capital.

W. W. PEABODY,
President and General Manager.
W. B. SHATTUC,
General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio. jy31tf

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

The old reliable route to all Eastern cities. Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leaves.	Arrives.
Express	8:00 a m	7:45 a m
Coast Accommodation	3:35 p m	9:10 a m
Fast Mail	8:20 p m	7:30 p m

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. C. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.

W. B. Kniskern, Ticket Agent; J. T. Harahan, General Manager; John Kilkeny, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; O. M Dunn, Superintendent N. O. and M. Division. au5-1y

RAILROADS.

C. I. St. L. & C. 4 KANKAKEE LINE.

4 PASSENGER TRAINS each way per day between Cincinnati and Indianapolis.

3 PASSENGER TRIANS each way per day between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Chicago.

2 PASSENGER TRIANS each way per day, between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette, Kankake, Seneca and Davenport, Ia.

KANKAKEE LINE.

Entire trains run through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Chicago. Pullman Sleepers and elegant Reclining Chair Cars on Night trains. Parlor Cars on Day Trains.

SHELDON ROUTE.

Commodious Reclining Chair Cars run through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Peoria Ills. and Keokuk, Ia. Close connection for Burlington, Ia.

KANKAKEE & SENECA ROUTE.

The ONLY LINE (running Elegant coaches through without change, between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Davenport, Ia.

CONNECTIONS

At Cincinnati, in Central Union Depot, with all trains of the Cincinnati Southern Railway, (Queen & Crescent Route) thus avoiding the tedious omnibus transfer incident to ALL other lines.

At Indianapolis, in Union Depot, with all lines diverging.

Through Tickets and Baggage Checks to all Principal Points,

Can be obtained at any ticket office, C. I. St. L. & C. Ry., also via this line at all Coupon Ticket Offices throughout the country.

☞ See Agents of this Company for Rates, Routes, &c., or write Grant K. Lowry, Trav. Pass. Agt., Wilmore, Ky.
JOHN EGAN,
Gen'l Pass. and Tkt. Agent, Cincinnati, O.

BIG
J Great Jackson Route.

Illinois Central R. R. Co.

Double Daily Passenger Trains.

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Passenger No. 2, 9:15 a. m.	Pass'r No. 1, 7:00 a m
No. 4 St. L. & Chi. Express, 6:00 p. m.	No. 3. Chic. N. O. Lim. Ex. 8:00 a m
No. 6 Sun Ex...7:30 a m	No. 5 Sun. Ex. 8:20 p m

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.

Ticket Office: Cor. Carondelet and Canal, (Pickwick Club Building.)

WM. MURRAY,
General Southern Passenger Agent.

J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT. KENNEDY, Ticket Agent.

C & O

The Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company have moved their ticket management and business rooms to No. 225 Fourth Avenue.

C. O. & S. W. R. R.
THE SOUTHERN TRUNK LINE
—TO—
Louisville, Cincinnati, Washington, Baltimore,
And the Short Line to
Cairo, St. Louis, Chicago and the Northwest.
The Direct Route to
Eastern Seaboard Cities, Texas, Arkansas and the Southwest.
Chesapeake, Ohio & Southwestern R. R.

For Owensboro, Henderson, Paducah and Memphis and all points South and Southwest. Ticket office 225 Fourth avenue; Depot, corner of Fourteenth and Main streets.

	Express Daily	Accom Daily ex Sun'y
Leave Louisville	7 50 a m	4 10 p m
Arrive at Cecelia	10 20 a m	6 45 p m
" Elizabethtown	10 10 a m	7 05 p m
" Grayson Springs	11 12 a m	.....
" Litchfield	11 23 a m	.....
" Central City	2 00 a m	.....
" Owensboro	5 05 a m	.....
" Nortonsville	3 27 p m	.....
" Hopkinsville	9 50 p m	.....
" Madisonville	4 37 p m	.....
" Henderson	6 10 p m	.....
" Evansville	8 10 p m	.....
" Tradewater	4 07 p m	.....
" Princeton	4 47 p m	.....
" Padnosh	7 00 p m	.....
" Mayfield	8 27 p m	.....
" Fulton	9 29 p m	.....
" Cairo	10 45 p m	.....
" Rives	10 10 p m	.....
" Memphis	3 30 a m	.....
" Louisville	7 00 p m	9 35 a m

Tickets now on sale at depot at lowest rates. Call on or address R. H. TALLEY, Ticket Agent, Memphis, Tenn.
Or B. F. MITCHELL, Gen. Pass. Agt, Louisville, Ky.

ARE YOU GOING TO KANSAS, MISSOURI, COLORADO, CALIFORNIA OR ANY OF THE WESTERN STATES?

If so you should avail yourself of the advantages that are now offered by the Kansas City Route, the only direct route from the South to the West and Northwest. This line runs its entire trains, with Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars and free Reclining Chair Cars, from Memphis to Kansas City, saving many hours time over any other route. If you are going West you will save money by purchasing your tickets via Memphis and the Kansas City Route. Send for large map of this Short Route; mailed free. Address,
J. E. LOCKWOOD,
Kansas City, Mo.
Or, H. D. ELLIS, Ticket Agent.
31 Madison street, Memphis, Tenn.

General News Items.

The town of Sweden, Me., has neither a doctor nor a lawyer.

Mr. Phineas Allen, an octogenarian and the oldest teacher in Massachusetts, is dead.

Abram Hanson, talented for statue work in clay, is a Leavenworth, Kansas, colored youth.

Gov. St. John has a boom in Illinois. He spoke recently at a dozen towns and had an ovation at each.

The Des Moines African Methodist Episcopal has had two pastors to die in the pulpit, the last being Rev. W. J. Hahn.

London produces 50,000 tons of soot per annum, which is worth $200,000, and is used for a fertilizer at a rate of 10 cwt. per acre.

Governor Pattison has vetoed a Congressional and Legislative apportionment bill, and good many Republicans think it a wise veto.

Mr. Isaac J. Young, a stalwart Republican, one of the "306" has been reappointed collector in the Raleigh District, N. C.

Prof. J. W. E. Bowen was the first elected speaker from his class by a unanimous vote of the faculty of Boston University for the last commencement, Boston School of Theology.

China, which, only six years since had but six miles of telegraph lines, has now completed a system by which Canton, the capital of Southern China, is brought into direct communication with the metropolis of the North.

The Christian Advocate informs us that over 50,000 children turned out in the Western District of Brooklyn, alone, on the occasion their annual Sunday-school reunion.

The American Colonization Society has sent 21,458 to Liberia since the war, of whom 5,752 were recaptured Africans, and 3738 the past year. Applications for transportation were never more numerous than now, says the African Repository.

The discovery of large beds of nitrate of soda in South America is making itself felt in the greater cheapness of this manure, which may now be purchased at 4 to 9 cents per pound, according to purity. At this rate it will pay to use in special crops when forced growth is desired.

The farmers of Rock county, Wis., will receive over 1,000,000 for their tobacco crop, which had the largest acreage of any county in the State. The crop of 1884 in that county amounted to within $181,000 of the total value of the wheat, oats and barley raised in the county. It is estimated that 60,000 cases will be packed this season.

Captain Winship, Providence Police, suffered five years from kidney disease, was cured by Hunt's [Kidney and Liver] Remedy.

Mr. E. M. Collett in the Lever of June 3d, shows that the Negroes of North Carolina did not defeat Prohibition in that State because there are 126,857 white and only 61,592 colored voters there, and the latter could not overcome the former unless they consented and aided them. "The tendency is more and more to prohibition among the Negroes.

Do You Mean Business?

Well, if you have strength to push your business, it is well. But many a man's business has broken down because the man was broken down, and had no push in him. If you want to make a success, build up your system, by the use of Brown's Iron Bitters. Mr. W. M. Winfree, of Petersburg, Va., says: "There is no medicine equal to Brown's Iron Bitters for general debility." It cures dyspepsia, enriches the blood and strengthens the muscles.

Publishing's Agents.

In order to facilitate the transaction of business with our customers we have arranged with Edward Alden & Bro., Fifth and Vine streets, Cincinnati, O., and 140 Nassau street, New York, making them our Special Publisher's Agents, and giving them charge of the foreign advertising patronage of our paper. All communications in relation to this department should be addressed to them. tf

Letters From the Laity.

G W. Shelby writes from Fortson, La.: "After spending 7 years in the grand old Methodist Episcopal Church, and using every means that I could to bring our race to the light of knowledge, and not only that, but to see them take some steps toward leaning to our great Redeemer. I became interested in the matter, and after making up my mind, and saying that I would, after leaving Marshall College, try and see if there is not something that I can do for Christ, while I have so many grand young gentlemen and ladies before me to instruct each day. I began every morning with prayer, and by the help of the Lord I can say that we have six of our dear little boys and girls converted to Christ, and we are moving right along. We ask the prayers of the faithful in our behalf, and that we may convert some more of our boys and girls and be able to lead them to Christ, and we solicit the prayers of conference in our behalf.,'

Sister Laura A. Hamilton writes from Hearne Texas: "I like the paper very much; the more I read it the more I like it; I think the paper is improving so much. When I take up the paper and read of different parts of the world, how the people are progressing both spiritually and temporally, it makes my heart rejoice. We are not having very much success at present, but I hope we will soon. We have had so much false doctrine preached here at Hearne, and are yet having that doctrine preached, until it is hard to get the sinners to believe in Christ's word. The fault is in those preachers who have been here and who are still here, because they have not given them the right instruction, because the sinners do not want to come to Christ with their eyes open, they want to come with their eyes closed, and to dream of their conversion, and not to believe in Christ's word. I would to God that all such preachers would move out of the way. Pray for our success this year. This is my first letter to a paper."

Brother Daniel Landry of Mnsson writes: "We were glad to receive our new pastor; he was not a stranger to me, and both white, and black were glad to see him. We are glad the conference sent us, Rev. C. A. Taylor, and we pledge ourselves to use every means in our power to make him, and his family happy. When he came here his text was one that will long be remembered: ("Think not that I come to destroy the law, nor the prophet. I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill.") We are trying to build a church at Mnsson. The way looked dark until we met our beloved presiding elder; Brother Stephen Priestly, but since he has been with us, we can almost say that victory is on our side. He has brought peace out of confusion and light out of darkness; so we hope to be able to start our new church about the first of April.

Sister P. E. Brown writes from Fairfield, Texas: "Our work at Fairfield, which is yet growing slowly on account of sickness among the teachers and the removal of one of our head teachers, Miss Corene Mellvene of Houston, she has moved back to her old former home. The Sunday-school has missed her, the church has missed her, and also the teachers. She is a great Sunday-school helper. Our presiding elder, Rev. G. W. Smith was with us last Sunday, he preached a stirring sermon which will not be forgotten soon, he is beloved by all. Sister Jones our former superintendent's wife is very sick and has been for several months, she is expected to die every day, pray that she may recover again. Our Sunday-school is on the increase again we hope to have a church sufficient to accommodate our people by the last of this year. We are preparing to observe Children's Day, pray for us that we may get a new church, and our people may become more awakened to a sense of their duty towards the giving of their earthly substance as far as they are able."

M. E. Church Directory.

Southwestern Christian Advocate. Office 32 Natchez Street.

LA HARPE STREET CHURCH—Rev. Elijah Clarke, pastor. Sunday Services—Prayer meeting, 6 a m; Sunday-school, 9 a m; preaching at 11 a m. 3 p m, and 7 p m; Class-meeting Tuesday night, at 7 o'clock; preaching Thursday night at 7 o'clock; Communion first Sunday evening of each month, at 7:30.

FIRST GERMAN M. E. CHURCH—Corner St. Andrew and Franklin streets; Rev. J. J. Kienle pastor Preaching at 10:30 a m, and Sunday-school at 9 a m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.

SECOND GERMAN M. E. CHURCH—Eighth street, Rev Charles Schuler, pastor. Services Sabbath at 10:30 a m, and 7 p m; Sunday-school at 9 a m; Prayer meeting Wednesday evenings at 7:30.

ST. MATTHEW M. E CHURCH—On Varnet Street, Algiers, La. Sunday services: Preaching at 11 and 3; 7:30 at night. Prayer meeting 6:30 in the morning. Class meeting Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. Sunday-school at 1:30. R. O. Barrow, Pastor.

UNION CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Services: Sundays, preaching 11 a m., 3 p. m. 7½ p. m. Sunday school at 1 o'clock. Class meeting Tuesday nights. Preaching Thursday nights. Prayer-meetings Friday nights. Stephen Duncan, Pastor, 42 Robinson street.

WESLEY CHAPEL—Liberty street, between Perdido and Poydras; Rev. Marcus Dale, Pastor. Services: Sunday 6 a m; prayer meeting, preaching 11 a m; 3 and 7.30 p m; General Class and Love Feast monthly; preaching Thursday eve, 7:30; Class, Monday eve.

SIXTH STREET CHURCH—Between Laurel and Annunciation; Rev. E. Lyon, pastor. Services—Public worship Sabbath 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Communion every second Sunday at 7 p. m. Sunday-school 1 p. m. Class-meeting Monday evening Preaching Wednesday evening. Prayer-meeting Friday evening. General Class first Monday night in every month. Prayer service at 3:30 a. m.

CAMP PARAPET CHURCH—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, Pastor. Sunday services—Prayer-meeting, 6 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Sabbath at 1 p. m. Class-meetings. Thursday evening.

HAVEN CHAPEL—JEFFERSON STREET, Carrollton, corner of Plum street. Rev. M. O. B. Mason, Pastor. Services—Public worship at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m., Sunday. Sunday-school school, 9 a. m. Class-meeting Monday evening. General Class, second Sunday at 11 a. m., and communion at 7. Preaching Thursday evening.

New Orleans University. A. F Hoyt, M. A., Acting President. 1428 St. Charles Street.

First Street—Rev. ——. Montgomery, Pastor. Church corner First and Dryades Streets. Services: Sabbath—5 a. m., prayer meeting; 11, 3 and 7, public worship; communion monthly, on the first Sunday. Sunday-school 1 p. m. Class meeting Monday evening General class every fourth Monday evening. Preaching Thursday nights.

MOUNT ZION M. E. CHURCH—James W. Hudson, pastor Regular services 11 a m, 3 and 7 p m; prayer meeting Monday eve at 4 p m. Tuesday night class meeting. Preaching Wednesday eve at 7 p m, and sacrament the third Sabbath of every month.

THOMSON CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Poet street, near Rampart. Sunday Services: preaching at 11, 3 and 7 Prayer meeting 6 in morning. Class meeting 3:30. Z. T. Gayden, pastor.

AMES M. E. CHURCH—Rev. Thomas Stalker, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sunday-school at 9.45 a. m. Prayer meeting, Thursday evening at 7.30.

PLEASANT PLAIN CHURCH—Perdido, bet. Johnson and Prieur streets, Rev. W.P. Forest, pastor. Services Sabbath: Preaching at 11 a m, 3:30 and 7:30 p m. Sunday-school at 9 a m; early prayer meeting at 5:30 a m; class at 5:30 p m; preaching Wednesday and prayer meeting Monday evenings. Sacrament every second Sabbath. Love feast quarterly.

General Church Directory.

CENTRAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Also College Church of Straight University A. M. A., corner Gasquet and Liberty streets, one block off Canal street. Services—Preaching Sundays at 11 a m and 7 p m; Sabbath-school 12:15 p m. Prayer meetings Tuesdays and Friday evenings at 7:30 p m. This church has a fine choir under good leadership, and is centrally located. Northern visitors and all true friends of the colored people are cordially invited to attend its services. Rev. G. W. Bothwell, M. A., pastor.

OUR CLUBBING LIST,

—1885—

Persons sending us cash with their orders can have the SOUTHWESTERN one year together with any one of the following publications, for amount opposite each as named:

Littell's Living Age	$9 00
Outing	3 00
Wide Awake	4 25
Babyland	1 75
Our Little Men and Women	2 25
The Pansy	2 00
Our Little Ones and the Nursery	2 25
American Agriculturist	2 50
Southern Cultivator	2 75
Popular Science Monthly	6 00
New York Medical Journal	6 00
Illustrated Christian Weekly	3 25
Harper's Magazine	5 00
Harper's Weekly	5 00
Harper's Bazar	5 00
Harper's Young People	3 00
American Reformer	2 00
Weekly Inter-Ocean	2 25
Babyhood	2 75

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez street, New Orleans.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS,

17 & 29 West 2d St., New York.

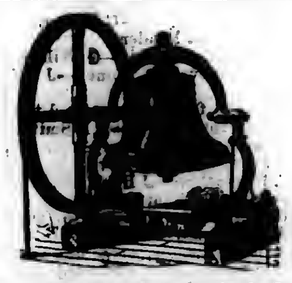
Have now ready

The History of the Negro Race in America.

From 1619 to 1881. Negroes as Slaves, as Soldiers and as Citizens,

Together with a preliminary consideration of the Unity of the Human Family, and Historica Sketch of Africa, and an account of the Negro Government of Sierra Leone and Liberia. By George W. Williams, first colored member of the Ohio Legislature, and late Judge Advocate of the G. A. R., of Ohio.

Popular Edition; two volumes in one, large octavo, with portrait on steel of the author, $4



"It is a prodigious compilation, so comprehensive that every student will welcome it, and so just in its whole scope that criticism of special points can not impair it.—World, New York.

"It ought to be read by every colored man in America."—Journal, Indianapolis.

"He has accomplished a noble service for his race."—Zion's Herald, Boston.

☞ This book can be ordered through the office of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, New Orleans, La.

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.

Bells for Churches, Schools, Etc.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
24 inches	165 lbs	300 lbs	$35 00
26 "	200 lbs	350 lbs	45 00
28 "	225 lbs	375 lbs	55 00
32 "	375 lbs	550 lbs	80 00
36 "	525 lbs	750 lbs	100 00
40 "	800 lbs	1100 lbs	145 00
44 "	1060 lbs	1400 lbs	180 00
48 "	1325 lbs	1800 lbs	230 00
54 "	2050 lbs	2800 lbs	350 00

Bells for Schools, Farms, Etc. without mountings.

18 inches	75 lbs	$12 00
20 inches	100 lbs	18 00
24 inches	165 lbs	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named, which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.

The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.

On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 37 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.

Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.

VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.
mar5-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.

The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade.
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.

Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,
TROY, N. Y.
nov20-1yr

McShaneBellFoundry

Manufacture those celebrated Bells and Chimes for Churches, Tower Clocks, &c., &c. Price-list and circulars sent free. Address

HENRY McSHANE & CO.
oct23-1y Baltimore, Md.

CINCINNATI BELL FOUNDRY CO
SUCCESSORS IN BELLS TO THE
BLYMYER MANUFACTURING CO.
CATALOGUE WITH 1500 TESTIMONIALS CHURCH SCHOOL FIRE ALARM
july3 26teow

Baltimore Church Bells

Since 1844 celebrated for Superiority over others, are made only of Purest Bell Metal, (Copper and Tin,) Rotary Mountings, warranted satisfactory. For Prices, Circulars, &c., address BALTIMORE BELL FOUNDRY, J. REGESTER & SONS, Baltimore, Md.
apr30 26teow

An Offer Never Equaled!

THE WEEKLY EDITION
—OF—
The TIMES DEMOCRAT,
NEW ORLEANS,
—AND—
THE WEEKLY EDITION
—OF—
The NEW YORK WORLD,
NEW YORK,
FOR ONE YEAR
Only $2.20.
OR
THE TWO WEEKLIES
—AND A—
Waterbury Watch and Chain
FOR $4.20.

Either Weekly alone is worth more than the price asked for both, as they contain reviews of the news of the world, a vast amount of select literary matter, exhaustive commercial reports, in fact everything is embraced that tends to make a

First-class Family Newspaper.

The subscription price to Weekly Times-Democrat alone is $1.50 for 12 months; 75 cents for 6 months, or 50 cents for 3 months.

Every family in New Orleans not taking the Daily TIMES-DEMOCRAT should keep posted in the

NEWS OF THE WORLD,

by taking these Weeklies, and as an inducement we offer a good, serviceable watch for the small addition mentioned above.

The WATERBURY WATCH is a stemwinder, and will run twenty-eight hours. The case is NICKLE-SILVER, and will always remain as bright as a new silver dollar. The Watch has a heavy beveled edge and a crystal face. The works of the Watch are made with the finest automatic machinery. Every watch is tested in varying positions, and is perfect before leaving the factory. Each Watch is put up in a handsome new improved SATIN-LINED CASE, for safe transportation through the mails

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Taken at the office of THE TIMES-DEMOCRAT, or by mail, when accompanied by subscription price.

For the Cheapest and Choicest

Family & Fancy Groceries,

SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE Hams, Bacon, &c., &c.,

—GO TO—

N. E. Sullivan's

GROCERY

Corner of

Washington and Hampson Streets

CARROLLTON, LA.
nov23-1y

PHILLIP SAAL,

Dealer in Fancy and Staple Groceries. A Specialty of Butter, Tea, Coffee, and Fine Family Groceries.

503 Dryades Street, (near St. Andrew st.,) New Orleans, La.
jan1-1y

Crescent Insurance Company.

Incorporated as a Mutual Company in 1849. Re-organized as a Stock Company in 1880.

CASH CAPITAL.....$600,000.

Has paid paid nearly TEN MILLIONS for losses since 1849. Annual and Term Policies issued on Desirable Fire Business.

W. R. Lyman, President, Chas. H. Dolsen, Vice President, Chas. E. Rice, Sec'y

TRUSTEES

Joseph Bowling,	Sam H. Kennedy,	Geo. W. Sentell,	Alfred Moulton,	W. B. Conger
W. R. Lyman,	U Marinoni,	Chas. H. Dolsen,	John Calder,	A. H. Steward
S. O. Coulon,	Harry L. Flash,	Wm. A. Phelps,	J. J. Reiss,	Louis Prados
Lucien Delery,	Charles Newman,	N. D. Wallace,	Sigmund Katz,	M. Gillis
E. F. W. Bechman,	C. K. David,	Wm. Garig,	A. Rosenfeld,	John D. Fiske
Chas E. Rice,	Joseph Kohn,	Chas. M. Whitney,	James T. Rodd.

☞ See our Agents throughout the South. oct9 1y

AN ADVERTISING AGENCY.

Newspapers.

Catalogue.

Advertisement.

Our Lists.

Estimates.

Printing Office.

Our System.

Payment.

We receive and keep on file over 12,000 Newspapers published in every State and Province in America. Over 1000 Daily papers alone arrive every morning. Each paper is examined by careful clerks and the insertions entered in record books. Under our system an advertiser is sure to receive the full value for his money.

We publish the "American Newspaper Catalogue," a volume of 900 pages elegantly bound in cloth, and containing a complete list of the publications of every character in the United States and Canada. On one line we give place of publication, name of paper, class or denomination, age and circulation. In it are catalogued 14,000 periodicals. Sent free on receipt of $1.50.

We can secure the prompt insertion of any advertisement in any publication at the lowest attainable prices. We keep constantly invested over $200,000 "in space" in the best lines of newspapers. Our special lists of Papers will be found especially useful in making up lists for pushing any special lines.

We have, for the convenience of advertisers, made up our Religious List containing the names of all the leading denominational papers with prices. Our Agricultural List containing the names of all the prominent agricultural papers with prices. Our Local List of 1,300 County and City Weeklies and Dailies, arranged by States with publishers' prices and the prices at which we can inserr advertisements. These Lists are mailed free on application.

We will furnish to any reputable advertiser who will apply, an estimate showing exact cost of any proposed line of advertising, and when desired, will make up lists and write advertisements, provided the amount desired to be expended is named. We have had a wide experience, and can suggest lines of papers best adapted to the wants of an advertiser.

We keep constantly supplied with the newest styles of type best adapted to the display of advertisements. Send us your copy and we will return with estimate & proof from type without extra charge.

Our organization for correctly following an advertisement in the newspapers is perfect, and our patrons can be assured that correct work from every publisher will be exacted.

To any advertiser entitled to credit, or any one who can furnish us proper references, we will extend any reasonable line of credit. Publishers pay us a commission for all the business we send them, and any advertiser can be assured of obtaining through us lower prices than can be obtained from publishers direct. In no instance do we charge advertisers any addition to publishers' rates.

Edwin Alden & Bro.,

N.W. Cor. 5th & Vine Sts., CINCINNATI. 140 Nassau Street, NEW YORK.

Newspaper Advertising Agents.

GEORGE LANDRY,

Undertaker.

292.....Rampart Street.....292
(Between Hospital and Barracks streets)
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Entrepreneur de Pompes Funebres.
All orders promptly and carefully executed at moderate prices.
sept25-tf A. LABAT, Ass't Manager.

P. P. ALBERT,
(Successor to L Bibolet, Manager,)
Produce Merchant,
And Dealer in Groceries,
8 .....Toulouse Street,..... 8
P. O. Box 3249. NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Personal attention given to the sale of all produce entrusted to my care, and prompt returns rendered for same. All orders promptly filled at lowest market rates, for cash. Liberal advances made on consignments when received. Correspondence solicited.
☞ No transactions on Sundays. sept25-tf

E. W. Scheffel,
GENERAL
Book-Binder,
Ruler and Blank Book Manufacturer.
37 Natchez St., [up-stairs] New Orleans.
Magazines, Music, Periodicals and Old Books re-bound, Plain or Ornamental. jan22

STANDARD
Cane Mills
For Horse and Steam Power.
Evaporators
For Syrup and Sugar.
Known and Used the World Over.

We are the sole makers of the Victor, Great Western, and Niles Cane Mills, of the original and genuine Cook Evaporator, and of the Automatic Cook Evaporator.

BLYMYER MANUFACTURING CO.,
CINCINNATI, O.
Manufacturers of Steam Engines, Boilers, Iron Machinery, and Refrigerating Machinery.
june18-4e

20 YEARS OF CONGRESS. JAMES G. BLAINE

1,000,000 Copies will soon be sold. The only history of our Government from 1861 to 1881. Hon. John S. Wise, M. C. from Virginia, says: "Whoever takes it up, no matter whether he be Mr. Blaine's friend or enemy, will never put it down until he has read the whole." $200 per month to good responsible agents. Apply at once, The Henry Bill Publishing Company, Norwich, Conn.
dec30-52t

PAYSON'S INDELIBLE INK.

No preparation and only a common pen needed. Established 50 Years. Superior and popular for decorative work on linen. Received Centennial Medal & Diploma. Sold everywhere.
jan29-26teow

"A THING OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER." FOR PRESERVING, RESTORING AND Beautifying the Complexion FOR REMOVING SUNBURN, TAN, FRECKLES, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, ERUPTIONS, &c. OPINIONS OF NOTED LADIES.

LOTTA—It is the best preparation for the face that I ever used; now use no other. CLARA LOUISE KELLOGG—It gives me pleasure to add my name to the list of those who recommend your "Liquid Pearl," and express the high estimation in which it is held here. The LIQUID PEARL has been received by the ladies of all countries with the highest marks of appreciation. Only 50 Cents a Bottle, and by all Druggists & Perfumers. CHAMPLIN & CO., Props., Buffalo, N.Y.

eod28-2

AGENTS WANTED for Twenty Years of Congress, 1861—1881, by James G. Blaine.

Hon. J. S. Wise of Va. says: "Whoever takes it up, no matter whether he be Mr. Blaine's friend or enemy, will never put it down until he has read the whole." Agents make from $200 to $1000 per month. Address, The Henry Bill Pub. Co., Norwich, Conn.
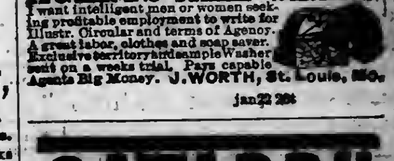
apr9-tf

Pianos & Organs



Of all makes direct to customers from headquarters, at wholesale prices. All goods guaranteed. No money asked till instruments are received and fully tested. Write us before purchasing. An investment of 2 cents may save you from $50.00 to $100.00. Address JESSE FRENCH, Nashville, Tenn.,
Wholesale Distributing Dep't for the South.
feb19 1y

AGENTS WANTED for the MISSOURI STEAM WASHER.

I want intelligent men or women seeking profitable employment to write for Illustr. Circular and terms of Agency. A great labor, clothes and soap saver. Exclusive territory and sample Washer sent on a weeks trial. Pays capable Agents Big Money. J. WORTH, St. Louis, Mo.
jan22 26t

CATARRH

Send 50 cts. and symptoms for Trial Treatment, to last 20 days, by mail post-paid. Which will convince the most incredulous that Dr. Brockington positively and permanently cures at small expense, by a pleasant treatment, the worst cases of Catarrh, though the bones of the nose have become affected, causing Loss of Smell, Offensive Breath, Sore Throat, Deafness, Hay Fever, Cough, Bronchitis and Incipient Consumption. No Snuffs, washes, douches, inhalers or atomizers used. Over 7000 cases cured. The best internal treatment ever discovered for this dangerous disease. Address Dr. C. N. BROCKINGTON, [Mention this paper.] 309 FOURTH AVENUE, LOUISVILLE, KY.
oct2 1yr

DR. BIGGERS HUCKLEBERRY CORDIAL

It is THE GREAT SOUTHERN REMEDY for the bowels. It is one of the most pleasant and efficacious remedies for all summer complaints. At a season when violent attacks of the bowels are so frequent, some speedy relief should be at hand. The wearied mother, losing sleep in nursing the little one teething, should use this medicine. 50 cts. a bottle. Send 2c. stamp to Walter A. Taylor, Atlanta, Ga., for Riddle Book.

Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein will cure Coughs, Croup and Consumption. Price, 25c. and $1 a bottle.

OPIUM and WHISKY Habits cured at home without pain. Book of particulars sent Free. B. M. WOOLLEY, M.D., Atlanta, Ga.
apr2-52t

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans.
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO.
106 Wall Street, N. Y.

Sunday-School and Children.

THIRD QUARTER. STUDIES IN THE KINGS. B. C. 975. Lesson I. July 5. Revolt of the ten tribes, 1 Kings 12, 6-17. Commit to memory verses 6-8.

(Prepared by Rev. E. Lyon, of the Louisiana Conference.)

HOME READINGS.

M.—Revolt of the ten tribes; 1 Kings, 12, 6-7.

Tu.—The revolt predicted; 1 Kings 11, 11-33.

W.—The revolt of Sheba; 2 Samuel 20, 1-13.

Th.—Abner's revolt—2 Samuel 3, 6-21.

F.—An undutiful son; 2 Samuel 15, 7-14.

S.—The only true adviser; Psa. 118, 1-12.

S.—The result of evil doing; Prov. 13, 1-25.

QUESTIONS FOR HOME STUDY.

Q.—When King Solomon died who took his place?

A.—His son Rehoboam.

Q.—As the people were about to crown him what did they ask him to do?

A.—Make their burdens lighter than Solomon had done.

Q.—What would they promise if Rehoboam would do this?

A.—To obey him always.

Q.—What answer did he make?

A.—"Come again in three days and I will answer you."

Q.—What did the old wise men counsel him?

A.—To speak kindly and tell them he would not be hard in his rule.

Q.—What did the young noblemen who had grown up with him counsel him to do?

A.—Tell them you will not do as they ask.

Q.—Which advice did he take?

A.—That of the young princes.

(Repeat the golden text.)

Q.—When the people came again what did he tell them?

A.—"My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it."

Q.—What more did he say?

A.—"He beat you with whips, but I will beat you with scorpions."

Q.—This made them so angry what did they answer back?

A.—"We care nothing for you, if you are David's grandson."

Q.—What did ten of the tribes do?

A.—They left the rule and set up a kingdom of their own.

Q.—What was it called?

A.—The Kingdom of the Ten Tribes, or of Israel.

Q.—Who was their king?

A.—Jeroboam.

Q.—Who stayed with Rehoboam?

A.—The kingdom of Judah and a little tribe of Benjamin.

Q.—What name was given to the kingdom of Judah?

A.—THE LITTLE PEOPLE.

Q.—Why is the little kingdom of Judah so favored and so full of joy?

A.—Because God is there. (Repeat the golden text.)

Q.—Where else is God?

A.—Everywhere, but I love to think of him just this once.

Some of the boys and girls may from your slate, high marks in some unlook out. You know who says bad words, girl that says unkind little girl. Look Show some little a "good time" instead of going to Sunday-school. Look out for them all. They are those who are meant in the Golden text. A companion of such shall be destroyed.

THE LESSON CATECHISM.

1. Whom did Rehoboam succeed as King of Israel?

His father, Solomon.

2. What did the people ask Rehoboam to do?

Make their burdens lighter.

3. What answer did Rehoboam give?

"I will add to your yoke."

4. How did the people receive this answer?

Ten tribes revolted.

5. Whom did the ten tribes afterwards place over them as king?

Jeroboam, the son of Nebat.

Doctrinal Suggestion—God's overruling power.

Marriages.

At the residence of the bride's parents, 201½ Franklin street, New Orleans, La., Mr. Wm. Craig and Miss Lonisa Carter were married, at 7:30 p. m., on Thursday, June 16, 1885; Rev. M. Dale officiating.

Obituary.

Bro. Peter Harden, a member of New Hope Church, died near Clarksville, Texas, March 2, 1885.

Bessie A., infant daughter of C. H. and L. A. Hendricks, aged 1 year, 2 months and 10 days, in Clarksville, Texas, June 4, 1885.

Sister Martha Alfriend, a member of Thompsontown Church, near Clarksville, Texas, April 19, 1885. A husband and two children, with many friends mourn her loss.

Near Springville, Tenn., March 11, 1885, Hurley Greer, infant child of Mr. Cain Greer. Also, near Springville, Tenn., on May 21, 1885, Sister Mary Lee Warren passed from death to her reward, crying "Glory to God at last." Near Mansfield, Tenn., Miss Martha Moody departed this life April 18, 1885. She professed faith in Christ while she was dying. She said glory two or three times, waved her hands and passed away. Near Springville, Tenn., Sister Mary Washum departed this life Feb. 11, 1885, in triumph of faith. She left a husband, mother, sisters and brother to mourn, but their loss is her gain. J. F. R. W. SUMMERHILL.

Sister Hannah Stokes, a member of New Hope Church, near Clarksville, Texas, died April 17, 1885.

Near Springville, Tenn., J. P. W. A. A. Summerhill, son of J. F. R. W. and M. L. C. Summerhill, fell asleep in Christ, May 19, 1885, aged 15 months and 25 days.

Conference Notices.

Plan of Episcopal Visitation.—1885. Fall Conferences.

[ALPHABETICAL.]

CONFERENCE.	PLACE.	TIME.	BISHOP.
Alabama	Edwardsville, Ala.	Nov 26	Mallalieu
Arizona Miss.	Tucson, Arizona.	Sept 17	Fowler
Austin	Denton, Texas	Dec. 10	Foster
Black Hills Miss.	Rapid City, Dak.	Aug. 20	Ninde
Blue Ridge	Gastonia, N. C.	Oct. 1	Mallalieu
Bulgaria Miss.	Rustchuk, Bul.	Oct. 1	——
California	Stockton, Cal.	Sept. 2	Fowler
Central Alabama	Mobile, Ala.	Dec. 10	Mallalieu
Central China mis'n	Kinkiang, China	Oct. 14	——
Central German	Columbus, Ohio	Sept 10	Harris
Central Illinois	Fairbury, Ill.	Sept 24	Warren
Central New York	Syracuse, N. Y.	Oct 8	Merrill
Central Ohio	Fostoria, O.	Sept 17	Harris
Central Tennessee	Tullahoma, Tenn.	Oct 15	Mallalieu
Chicago Germ'n	Manitowoc, Wis.	Sept 17	Bowman
Cincinnati	Cincinnati, O.	Sept 3	Harris
Colorado	Pueblo, Col.	Aug 20	Andrews
Columbia River	Spokane Falls, W. T.	July 16	Walden
Dakota miss'n	Bleut, Dak.	Oct 8	Foss
Des Moines	Des Moines, Ia.	Sept 17	Foss
Detroit	Pontiac, Mich.	Sept 10	Warren
East Ohio	Barnesville, O.	Sept 17	Foster
East Tennessee	Knoxville, Tenn.	Oct 22	Hurst
Erie	Sharon, Pa.	Sept 10	Merrill
Foochow	Foochow, China	Nov. 19	——
Genesee	Lima, N Y	Oct 1	Hurst
Georgia	Milledgeville, Ga.	Nov 19	Mallalieu
Holston	Johnson City, Tenn	Oct 15	Hurst
Idaho	Canyon City, Oreg.	July 30	Walden
Illinois	Beardville, Ill.	Sept 17	Ninde
Indiana	Spencer, Ind.	Aug 27	Harris
Iowa	Mt. Pleasant, Ia.	Sept 10	Ninde
Japan	Tokio, Japan	Aug 30	——
Kentucky	Covington, Ky.	Oct 1	Harris
Michigan	Grand Rapids, Mich.	Sept 17	Warren
Minnesota	Rochester, Minn.	Oct 1	Andrews
Montana mis'n	Dillon, Montana	July 1	Walden
Nebraska	Seward, Neb.	Sept 17	Andrews
Nevada mis'n	Bishop's Ck, Nev.	Aug 30	Fowler
New Mexico mis'n	Santa Fe, N. Mex.	Oct 1	Fowler
" Spanish	Pueblo, New Mex.	Sept 24	Fowler
North China mis'n	Peoting, China	Sept 24	——
North Dakota	Wahpeton, Dak.	Sept 17	Walden
North Nebraska	Fonca, Neb.	Sept 3	Andrews
North Ohio	Berea, Ohio	Sept 3	Merrill
North Pacific	Lebanon, Miss.	Sept 24	Andrews
North Indiana	Valparaiso, Ind.	Sept 2	Foss
North Iowa	Storm Lake, Ia.	Sept 24	Foss
North Swedish	Dayton, Ia.	Sept 3	Bowman
North Wisconsin Swedish	Cambridge, Wis.	Sept 10	Bowman
Ohio	De Awara, Ohio	Sept 24	——
Oregon	Roseburg, Oreg.	Aug 27	Walden
Pittsburgh	Allegheny City, Pa.	Sept 17	Merrill
Puget Sound	Tacoma, W. T.	Aug 13	Walden
Rock River	Elgin, Ill.	Oct 8	Fowler
St. Louis German	St. Louis, Mo.	Sept 10	Foss
Savannah	Savannah, Ga.	Dec 3	Mallalieu
South Indiana	Brookville, Ind.	Sept 24	Harris
South California	Santa Barbara, Cal	Sept 10	Fowler
South Carolina	San Antonio, Tex.	Nov 19	Foster
Southern Illinois	Edwardsville, Ill.	Sept 24	Ninde
Tennessee	Gallatin, Tenn.	Oct 22	Mallalieu
Texas	Houston, Tex.	Nov 26	Foster
Upper Iowa	Toledo, Ia.	Oct 1	Warren
Utah mission	Park City, Utah	July 2	Warren
West German	Claytonia, Neb.	Sept 3	Ninde
West Nebraska	Kearney, Neb.	Sept 10	Andrews
West Texas	Austin, Tex	Dec 3	Foster
West Virginia	Charleston, W. Va.	Sept 24	Merrill
Wisconsin	Dodgeville, Wis.	Sept 24	Bowman
Wisconsin German	Waukesha, Wis.	Oct 1	Bowman

By order of the Board of Bishops.

WM. L. HARRIS, Secretary.

St. Louis, Mo., May 18, 1885.

Programme

Of religious and literary exercises for the district conference of the Waco District, Waco Texas Annual Conference; to be held at Dallas, Sept. 4, 1885:

Opening sermon—Green Bragner.
Missionary sermon—C P Westbrooks.
The life, labor and death of Rev. L Carper—Presiding Elder.
Sacramental sermon—A Jackson.
Relation of the pastor to the Sabbath-school—J A Hall.
How to succeed in revivals—C Young.
Moral obligations—R Reader.
Obligation of family worship—G Wilson.
How to raise benevolent money—J W Robinson.
The proper object of benevolence, and the doctrine of forgiveness—B F Smith.
Duty of stewards—D Humphreys.
Duty of class-leaders—A Taylor.
Duty of local preachers—J Buell.
Family ethics—A Lookhart.
Relation of baptized children to the church—Willis Medlock.

All local elders, deacons, preachers and exhorters will select their own subjects. The pastors will please make out a list of the members of the district conference and bring it to the conference with them. Come one, come all who belong to the district conference, and let us have a grand time. We shall do all we can to make you happy, and you must try to make us happy also.

B. F. SMITH, Sec'y.

Lexington District.

Second Round.

Versailles	July	4-5
New Zion	"	6
Georgetown	"	11-12
Oxford	"	15
Monterey	"	18-19
Winchester	"	22-23
Howard Creek	"	24
North Middletown	"	25 26
Lairs	"	27
Washington	Aug.	1-2
Germantown	"	3-4
Dover	"	5
Tolesbury	"	6
Mt. Carmel	"	7
Flemingsburg	"	8-9
Pleasant	"	10
Corinth	"	24
Carterstown	"	26
Harrisburg	"	28
Asbury Temple	"	29-30
New Providence	Sept.	1-2
Gune Chapel	"	5-6

H. W. WHITE, P. E.

Waco District—West Texas Conference.

Third Round.

Kosse, at Long Branch, by C. Young	July	4-5
Majors, at Rifle Point	"	4-5
Marlin, at Big Creek	"	11-12
Marlin ct, at Carolina	"	18-19
East Waco, at Aquilla	"	20-21
Waco mission, at Mt. Zion	Aug.	1-2
Waco, at St. James	"	1-2
Groesbeck, at Groesbeck	"	8-9
Mexia, at Sandy Creek	"	15-16
Hubbard, at Wesley Chapel, by Robinson	"	15 16
Spring Hill, at West Point	"	22-23
Milford, at Milford	"	29-30
Dallas, at St. Paul	Sept.	6-7
Denison, Pilot Point, by Smith	"	12-13

The brethren will clip this notice and preserve it. Remember the district camp at Dallas, Sept. 4th. The opening sermon will be preached on the 3d. Let us have a grand time. You who have subjects assigned you go to work on them, and remember that abstracts will not go worth a cent. Raise as much of your benevolent money as possible.

W. H. DAVIS, P. E.

Notice.

The Shreveport District Conference will meet in Mansfield, La., on Thursday, August 13, at 9 o'clock a. m. The brethren of the district will take notice and govern themselves accordingly; prepare your essays, make your reports in ample time, and come prepared to have a refreshing time in the name of the Lord. See Dis. page 58, par. 90, as to who are members thereof. All friends are welcomed.

P. LANDRY, P. E.

Louisville District—Lexington Conference.

Second Round.

Lonieville, Lloyd Street	July	4-5
Chaplain	"	4-5
Mt Washington	"	4-5
Anchorage	"	11-12
Jericho	"	11-12
Pewee Valley	"	11-12
Ghent	"	18 19
Wakefield	"	18-19
Lonisville, Jackson Street	"	25-26
Patton Creek	Aug.	1-2
Bedford	"	8-9
Jeffersontown	"	8-9
Lonisville, Coke Chapel	"	16-17
Woodfork	"	15-16
La Grange	"	22-23
Frankfort	"	29-30
New Horn and Lib. Junction	Sept.	5-6
Simpsonville	"	5-6
Shelbyville	"	12 13
Warren	"	12-13
Louisville Mission	"	16-17
Samuel station	"	19-20

W. W. LOCKE, P. E.
1944 Shelby st., Lonisville, Ky.

La Teche District—Louisiana Conference.

Introductory sermon, Aug. 12, at 7:30 p. m.—Wm. Smith.
Missionary sermon, Aug. 13, at 7:30 p. m.—S. E. H. Morant.
Methodism, its doctrines and usages—J F Marshall.
Temperance, how to promote it—R Anderson.
Sunday-school and its officers—M J Dyer
Our work in the South—E Fields.
The benevolent collections and our publishing interests—A E P Albert.
Ministerial qualification and deportment A J Pickett.
Education, character and wealth, stepping stones to power—S E H Morant.
Do benevolent and other societies injure the church?—T Larkins.
How to build churches and promote revivals—A Luster.
Evidences of conversion—H T O Abbott.
Marriage and divorce—C Monroe.
Christian and industrial education—B C Bolden.
Baptism, mode and subjects—P Bibbs.
Church government—J Augustus.
From Egypt to Canaan—A E P Albert.
Ministerial support, a moral obligation.—Wm Smith.
Observance of the Sabbath—G W Williams,
Stewards and their duties—N Randolph.
Why am I a Methodist?—S Green.
Class meetings and qualifications of leaders—E B Richards.
Attendance and deportment at church—Jos Johnson.
Children's Day as it should be—B M Johnson.

Sunday-school, temperance and other anniversaries will be held during the session. Mrs. Barksdale, Mrs. Armstead, Miss Thomas, Mrs. Dr. Albert and other representatives of the Woman's Missionary Society, will address the conference. Revs. S. Duncan, ex-presiding elder, M. C. B. Mason, and E. Lyon, representing the Sunday-school interests; Prof. Hoyt, New Orleans University; Dr. Taylor of the SOUTHWESTERN, and Bishop Mallalieu have been invited to attend. Special rates will be arranged with the railroad.

By the committee.

A. E. P. ALBERT, P. E.

Murfreesboro District—Tennessee Conference.

Fourth Round.

Lebanon station	July 31, Aug.	2
North Lebanon ct	"	1-2
Alexandria	"	8-9
Cana Fork and Carthage	"	15-16
Martin Creek	"	22-23
Liberty	"	29-30
Cooksville	Sept.	5 6
Sparta	"	12-13
McMinnville sta	"	18 20
McMinnville ct	"	19 20
Manchester and Hillsboro	"	23
Tullahoma	"	24
Shelbyville sta	"	26-27
Petersburg	"	29 30
Spencer	Oct.	3-4
Murfreesboro ct	"	6-7
Stone River	"	8-9
Woodbury	"	10-11
Murfreesboro sta	"	15-16

District Conference at Liberty, Tennessee, Aug. 25, 26, 27, 28, 29.

C. H. BULLINGTON, P. E.

Ashville District—Central Alabama Conference.

Third Round.

The District Conference will convene at Oxford, Alabama, July 23 at 9 a. m., in the M. E. Church, and every member of the district conference is expected to be at that place on the 23d when the roll is called, and with reports.

Birmingham	June	27 28
Enon	July	4-5
Bunns Springs	"	11-12
Holston Chapel	"	11-12
Oxford	"	25-26
Collinsville	Aug.	1-2
Ashville	"	1-2
Gadsden	"	8-9
Howells Cross Roads	"	15-16
Centre	"	15-16
Wedowee	"	22-23
Ellesville	"	29 30
Talladega	Sept.	5-6

O. NELSON, P. E.

Indiana District—Lexington Conference.

Second Round.

Simpson Chapel	July	4-5
Jeffersonville, Ind	Aug.	2-3
Watson, Ind	"	1-2
New Albany, Ind	"	4
Corydon, Ind	"	5
Cannelton, Ind	"	8-9
Rockport, Ind	"	10-11
Newburg, Ind	"	15-16
Evansville, Ind	"	17-18
Carmi, Ills	"	19-20
Grayville, Ill	"	21
Princeton, Ind	"	22-23
District Conference at Terre Hante	"	24-27
Lawrenceville, Ill	"	29-30
Pinkstaff, Ill	"	31
Greeneastle, Ind	Sept.	5-9
New Castle, Ind	"	12-15
Libar circuit	"	16-18
Rushville, Ind	"	19-20
Shelbyville, Ind	"	26-27
Cleves, Ohio	Oct.	3-4
Connersville, Ind	"	10-11
Madisonville, Ind	"	17-18

The following is the programme for the District Conference, to be held at Terre Hante, Ind., August 24 to 27, 1885, commencing at 3 o'clock p. m.:

Rev. S. S. Stone will preach the opening sermon.

Subjects for discussion—

What is the duty of the pastor to the Sunday-school?—Revs. M. S. Johnson and J. T. Leggett.

What are the best methods to raise the benevolent money? Rev. C. T. Jones.

What constitutes pastoral success? Revs. McCoomer and C. H. Taylor.

What other qualifications does an educated minister need to make him successful in his work?—Rev. G. Zigler.

What is sanctification, how and when may we become it?—Revs. T. M. Tomkins and F. Hinton.

What are the things that the colored people need to make them a great people? Revs. A. A. Price and T. M. Steward.

What is the outlook for the Indiana District of the Lexington Conference of the M. E. Church?—Chas. P. Jones, P. E.

Notice.

To the pastors and Sunday-school superintendents of the Marshall District, Texas Conference—A Sunday-school Convention will be held in Paris, Texas, August 12-13, 1885. The convention will take cognizance of all the work of the district west of Texarkana. The following is the programme:

The opening subject, by Presiding Elder H. Webb, on music, and to hold a model school each day.

R. H. Harbert—How to get the old people to attend Sunday-school.

Taylor Moore—Duty of Sunday-school superintendents.

J. B. McCulloch—The benefit of the Good Tidings.

P. Douglass—The best method to improve the Sunday-schools.

V. M. Cole—How to conduct Sunday-schools.

John Jackson—What relation is the Sunday-school to the church?

W. S. Bagby—The duty of a pastor to the Sunday-school.

All pastors and Sunday-school superintendents west of Texarkana are expected at Paris on August 11, 1885.

Committee on Programme: J. B. McCulloch, P. Douglass and John Jackson.

Sunday-school Institute.

To the pastors, local preachers and Sunday-school superintendents of the Louisville District, Lexington Conference—You are hereby notified that the first session of the District Sunday-school Institute will meet in Jackson Street M. E. Church, Louisville, Ky., July 24th, and Short Line Park July 25th. Representatives of the Sunday-school Union will be entitled to be present. The persons named above, with delegates elected by the Sunday-schools, will compose the Institute. Brethren, be present, all who are elected delegates. A programme will be issued by July 5.

J. ALLEN ROSS,
S. G. TURNER,
J. L. PERRIN,
Committee.

Programme

Of the Murfreesboro District Conference, to be held at Liberty, Tennessee, Aug. 26 1885:

Faith in the Holy Trinity—Rev. T. Woods.
The Lord's Supper—Rev John B. Massey.
The mode of Baptism—Rev. H. W. Simmons.
The resurrection—Rev. B. James.
The immediate state of the dead—W. C. Miller.
Predestination—Rev. C. L. Seward.
Justification by faith—J. A. C. Ward.
Prayer—Rev. John Kencer.
Regeneration—Rev. Wesley Lilliard.
Fall from grace—Felix Yeargan.
Filial Apostacy—Rev. S. Knight.
What relation have baptized children to the church?—Rev. P. R Woodson.
Public Worship—Rev. O. Green.
What relation is the Sunday-school to the church?—Rev. B. F. Whitley.
The best manner in making pastoral visits—Rev. B Anderson.
The origin of the Methodist Episcopal Church—G. W. House.
Repentance—Felix Allen.
The witness of the spirit—A. Martin.
The presiding elder, C H. Bullington, is to give account of one hundred years of Methodism.

C. L. SEWARD,
H. W. SIMMONS,
P. R. WOODSON,
Committee.

Notice.

The Okolona District Conference, Mississippi Annual Conference Methodist Episcopal Church, will convene July 30 and 31, and August 1 2, at Crawford, Miss., at 10:30 a. m. We hope to see a full attendance there. Brethren, please come with your reports showing that you have done something for all of the general benevolences of the church. We hope that special attention has been or will be given to the collection for Rust University. If you have not done anything, go to work now, it is not too late yet; yet all are interested.

D. A. WILLIAMS, P. E.

Programme: Of the Woman's Home Mission Society, D. W. Calvert and C. W. Walton. All must be present.

J. W. PARKS,
B. H. S. FERGUSON,
L. F. WHITE.

PROGRAMME

July 30—Sermon, at 10:30 a. m., by Rev T. L. Ingram, of Honston; alternate, Rev. J. B. Blewett, of Caledouia; after which the business of the session will be taken up as per Discipline; the afternoon for committees in each of the four conrses of studies, and such other business as may be committed to them. At 8 p. m. the M. E. Church South and work among both races, by L. F. White and T. W. Davis, and others.

July 30: Best method for raising benevolent collections—R Sneil and J. W. Davis Church Extension—I. L. Pratt and Wm. Gatewood.

The M. E. Church as a temperance society—M. Adams, Jas. Trice and B. J. Griffic.

The Freedmen's Aid and Rust University—Presiding Elder G. Brooks and J. W. Parks.

Saturday night at 4 p. m: Sabbath-school literature—J. J. Harris and G. F. Murry.

Class meeting—Geo. Dobson and G. Carr.

Duty of local preachers—L. J. Terrill and S. Gipson.

Missionary Society and its work—B. H. S. Ferguson, W. S. Gillespie, P. Jamison.

Organization and management of Sabbath-schools—J. J. Freeman and John Everett.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET.

SOUTHWESTERN OFFICE,
June 27, 1885.

LEADING STAPLES.

Readers will remember that the quotations given are for round lots, and higher prices must be paid for small orders.

COTTON, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 8½; Middling 9 15 16; Good Middling, 10 3-16; Middling fair, 11 7-16.

SUGAR, ℔ lb—Yellow clarified, 5¼@5¾; White clarified, 5¾@5¾; Common 4¼@4¼;

MOLASSES, in bbls, ℔ gallon—Common, 17@22; fair, 23@25; choice, 41@43c.

RICE, Louisiana, ℔ lb—Common, 4¼@4¾ fair, 5@5¾; choice, 5¾@6.

MOSS, ℔ lb—Mixed, 2@2½; gray, 1@2; black, 3@4½.

GROCERIES.

BUTTER, ℔ lb—Western 20@21.

COFFEE, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 7½; prime, 9½;

CHEESE, ℔ lb—Western factory —@8;

CORN MEAL, ℔ bbl.—Choice, $3.25.

FLOUR, ℔ bbl.—Fancy, 4.37½; Choice 5.15; Family, $5@——.

LARD, ℔ lb—Choice, 6¾.

SALT, ℔ Sack—Coarse, 70c.; Fine, 90c.;

ESCULENTS—Irish potatoes, ℔ bbl., $1 00@1 25; sweet potatoes, $2.50@ ℔ bbl. onions, ℔ bbl. $2.25@2.50; apples, ℔ bbl. $3.00@$4.00; cabbages, $2.00@$2.25 per crate; sour kront, $4.50@7 50 per barrel.

OILS, ℔ gallon—Coal, in cases, 18@—; coal, in bbl. 13@—; linseed, raw, 26; boiled, 63@65; cotton seed, 28@50.

PROVISIONS.

MESS PORK, ℔ bbl—Choice, $11.12½.

BACON, ℔ lb—Breakfast, 9½; shoulders, 6@—; sides, short rib, 6¾; sides, long clear, 6¾; hams, sugar-cured, 9@9½.

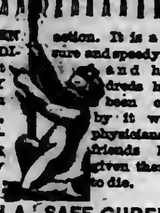
DRY SALT MEAT, ℔ lb—Clear rib sides, 5.6; clear sides, 5.6; shoulders, 3.7@3.9.

POULTRY AND EGGS.

Louisiana Poultry—Grown chickens 3.00@3.27; young $1,50@$2.00; ducks, $2.00@2.50; geese $4.@$4 50; turkeys $9.@12.

Western Eggs 11@12c per dozen

Louisiana Eggs 12@12½c per dozen.



Feathers—Best live geese feathers 40@55c. ℔ lb. second grades 15@25c.

Postmaster-General Vilas has requested the resignation of J. L. Mead, recently appointmented Postmaster at Hazlehurst, Copiah County, Miss. Since his appointment the Department has learned that just after the November elections in 1883, and subsequently to the killing of Matthews, a republican Postmaster, by a man named Wheeler, on the election day, Meade presided over a meeting which was held in Hazlehurst, at which the persons participating took sides, by resolution, with Wheeler.—Nation.

Books and Current Literature.

The Alumni Magazine of Philadelphia, Pa., grows steadily in excellence, catholicity of tone, and we trust also in the extent of its circulation. It stands for the Negro, pleads his cause, tells his story, makes way for him to state his own case, and reveal the depths of his culture, together with the height of his literary finish. The May number is the 5th, and best of the five. It contains articles by Rev. J. C. Price, Mrs. Robert Purvis, Rev. Alexander Crummell, Mrs. Burlinger and Rev. W. F. Brooks. Dr. Mossell and his associates are about a good work. We like it because so far it has kept clear of the rock upon which most colored newspapers or other publishing enterprises have failed. What is the use of sarcastic personalities instead of argument? It seems to apprehend the rule, that when a paincple is demolished the man who was supported by will need no knocking down. $1. per year, postpaid or 30 cents single numbers. It comes quarterly and always filled with that which is needed and useful.

HUNT'S
KIDNEY & LIVER
REMEDY
NEVER KNOWN TO FAIL

IT CURES WHEN ALL OTHER MEDICINES FAIL, as it acts DIRECTLY and AT ONCE on the KIDNEYS, LIVER and BOWELS, restoring them to a healthy action. It is a safe, sure and speedy cure and hundreds have been cured by it when physicians and friends had given them up to die.

IT IS BOTH A SAFE CURE and a SPECIFIC.

It CURES all Diseases of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Urinary Organs; Dropsy, Gravel, Diabetes, Bright's Disease, Nervous Diseases, Excesses, Female Weaknesses, Jaundice, Biliousness, Headache, Sour Stomach, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Piles, Pains in the Back, Loins, or Side, Retention or Non-Retention of Urine.

$1.25 AT DRUGGISTS.

TAKE NO OTHER.

Send for Illustrated Pamphlet of Solid Testimonials of Absolute Cures.

HUNT'S REMEDY CO.,
Providence, R. I.

6

LACTART
ACID OF MILK.

ENDORSED BY THE HIGHEST MEDICAL AUTHORITY.

Healthful and Delicious Beverage and Tonic for Family Use.

Superior to Lime Juice or Lemons.

A Remedy for Dyspepsia and Ills arising from a Disordered Stomach.

Specially recommended as a preventative and relief for Cholera, Sunstroke, Fevers, and valuable in Urinary difficulties.

A Specific for Sea-sickness.

Sold by Druggists.

Avery Lactate Co.,
BOSTON, MASS. apr30 3m

Agents Wanted

Bibles at 1-2 and Old Testaments at less than 1-3 the prices of the English editions, and equal to the English in type, paper, printing and accuracy. First agent sent out reports an order at every call for two weeks. Rare chance for agents to make money. Send $1.00 for outfit. TERMS VERY LIBERAL.
The Henry Bill Pub. Co., Norwich, Conn.

may14-tf

Skin Diseases.—"Swayne's Ointment."

"Swayne's Ointment" cures Tetter, salt Rheum, Ringworm, Sores, Pimples, Eczema, all Itchy Skin Eruptions, no matter how obstinate or long standing.

nov13-1yeow

CHRISTIAN
MEN and WOMEN Wanted are
AS AGENTS
For the Newand Fast-selling Edition of the JAMIESON, FAUSSET & BROWN
BIBLE COMMENTARY.
4 vols., over 2,000 pp. Maps and Illustrations. In cloth, & half morocco, $16 per set.
Best terms and exclusive territory. Permanent employment given after a satisfactory trial.
Jerome B. Names & Co.,
154 St. Clair street, Toledo, Ohio.
The work is heartily recommended.
mar5-39t

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 20---NO 28. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, JULY 8, 1885 WHOLE NUMBER 817.

THE SOUTHWESTERN
PUBLISHED BY
THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,
37 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor

Terms: $1.50 per Year, Cash in Advance; after Three Months, $2; to Pastors, $1. Six Months, $1; Three Months, 50c.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

All matter not of a business nature must be addressed to the editor.

ADVERTISING RATES:
(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	8 cents.
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	6 "
Six months (26 times)	5 "
One year (52 times)	4 "
Marriage Notices	25 "
Special Notices	8 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

Why, oh ye valiant for the Lord of Hosts,
Ye who have vanquished thousands in the fight,
Why cast away your armor, quit your posts,
And basely from exulting foes take flight?
A thousand times ye chased the son of night—
Their castles stormed, and raised your banner high
Above the ramparts; where its folds of light
Sent streaming corruscations o'er the sky
That kindled hope on earth, and thrilled all heaven with joy.

Zion's Herald gives no uncertain sound, it is a most excellent Christian family guide.

Your Sermon Sketches have done me a great deal of good. The SOUTHWESTERN is just the paper for our people.—Rev. J. G. Jones, Aberdeen station.

Times are slowly brightening, and business prospects are better than for a good while. But still there is a call for the utmost economy and frugality that possibly may consist with honesty.

The Cicada tredecim is thirteen not the seventeen-year old locust. It is this species which will appear this year in Southern Illinois, Kansas, Missouri, Georgia, Louisiana, Tennessee and Mississippi.

Mr. Morgan Ashford, a veteran of the late war, who carries the stubb of a missing leg and a vivid recollection of the storming of Petersburg; was the first man in Flemingsburg to take the SOUTHWESTERN. He is a batchelor and soon to be a benedict.

A novel mode of aging whiskey and other liquors is to place a Maxim or Edison light inside of the barrel. Exposure of the liquid to the electric light for a hundred hours, it is said changes the flavor and converts a new liquor into one that resembles a ten-year brand.

Mrs. Delila Parker, of Flemingsburg, Ky., says she feels able to compete with Mrs. Baum, white, either in the culinary or any of the domestic arts. We are bound to say that Sister Parker has us in an equipoise of doubt with strong tendencies favorable to her claims, we shall have to sample a little further.

Rev. J. H. Hargrave, late of Ohio now of Kentucky, says he was greatly opposed to coming into Kentucky before he came, but likes it now. In fact, he says, these Southern people aint half as bad as he was told they were. He is satisfied and perfectly willing to remain. The hospitality of the people has not been overrated. That is true.

For the Southwestern.

Subject—Mode of Divine Revelation.

REV. G. W. THOMAS.

Mode—Manner of existing, or being, method, form, fashion, custom, way, as the mode of speaking by inspiration.

When we say that the Scriptures are a divine authority our meaning is that they are an inspired revelation from God to man. It has been shown that the sacred writers were men of the utmost integrity and entitled to the most implicit confidence of mankind; but since it is possible that honest men may be mistaken, therefore if we had nothing more to urge in behalf of these writers than the excellence of their character, their writings would only be of human authority; something more was therefore required than a pious life, and a mind purified from prejudice and passion, to qualify than for being teachers of the will of God, namely, divine revelation or inspiration; this may be defined to be that extraordinary influence of the spirit upon the human mind by which men are qualified to communicate to others religious knowledge without error or mistake.

1. Inspiration is possible.—The Father of the spirit may act upon the mind of his creatures, and this action may be extended to any degree which the purposes of God may require; he may superintend those who write so as to prevent the possibility of error in their writings, which is the lowest degree of inspiration. He may enlarge their understanding, and elevate their conceptions beyond the measure of ordinary men, this is the second degree; or he may suggest to them the thoughts which they should express, and the very words which they shall employ, so as to make them merely vehicles of conveying his word to others This is the highest degree of inspiration, and no sound theist (a believer in God) will deny that all these degrees are possible.

2. It is reasonable that the sentiments and doctrines developed in the holy Scriptures should be suggested to the mind of the writers by the Supreme Being himself, for they are every way worthy of his character and promotive of the highest interests of man. And the more important the communication is, the more it is calculated to relieve men from error, to stimulate them to holiness; the more reasonable it is to expect that God would make the communication free from every admixture of error.

3. Inspiration is necessary; this is evidenced from the subjects which the Scriptures unfolds:

1. Some past facts are recorded in the Bible which could not possibly have been known if God had not revealed them in a spiritual way.

1. How could Moses, for instance, have given a correct history of the creation of the world, and of the antideluvian times if he had not been divinely inspired?

2. The authoritive language of the Scripture, too, if we admit the veracity of the writers, argues the necessity of inspiration. They propose things, not as matters for consideration, but for adoption; they do not grant us the alternative of receiving or rejecting their instincts; they do not present to us their own thoughts, but preface their communications by "Thus saith the Lord," and on this ground demand our assent.

4. The mode of divine revelation has always been ascribed to the sacred penmen, both by the Jewish and Christian church. By the Jews the law of Moses was accounted the law of God himself, and their other canonical books were held in like veneration. Accordingly Josephus tells us that they were accustomed from their infancy to call these Scriptures the doctrines of God, and that they were ready at any time to lay down their life in vindication of them. The early Christians entertained the same respect for the writings of Moses and the prophets that the Jews did, but they received also by universal consent the Scriptures of the New Testament as being composed of the direction and inspiration of the Holy Spirit, they regarded therefore the Jewish and the Christian Scriptures as oracles to decide all differences in matters of religion, and every sentence in them was looked upon as a divine axiom (self evident) from which there was no appeal. The opinions of the church in the first centuries respecting the mode of inspiration of the sacred writers is plainly set forth in the testimony of the Christian fathers. Clemens, Bishop of Rome, a cotemporary with the Apostles tells us that the Apostles preached the Gospel, being filled with the Holy Ghost; that the scriptures are the true words of the Spirit; and that Paul wrote to the Corinthians true things by the aid of the spirit. Justin Martyr says that the Gospels were written by men full of the Holy Ghost.

2 The sacred writers themselves claimed to be divinely inspired; this is true with regard to the writers of the Old Testament scriptures; the Jewish law giver often reminded those who he addressed of the divine authority of his communications by the well known declaration, "The Lord spake unto Moses;" and the language of David is, "the spirit of the Lord spake by me, and his words was in my tongue;" thus two of the Jewish prophets delivered their predictions, not only in the name of Jehovah, but also as being received directly from Him. Isaiah introduces many of his prophetic messages by the declaration, "thus saith the Lord;" and Jeremiah, and Ezekiel and other prophets ascertaining "the Lord said unto me," or the words of the Lord came unto me, etc. But the plenary (full or complete) inspiration of the Old Testament scriptures is most distinctly asserted by Christ and his Apostles; they recognizing the whole Jewish canon in their threefold divisions of the law, the prophets and the psalms. It is upon the evidence of these scriptures that our Lord proves Himself to be the Messiah, and to them he constantly appeals, both in proving his own doctrines and in refuting the errors of the Jews; but, further, what Moses wrote in the Pentetench is expressly declared by Christ to have been spoken by God himself: "Have ye not read that was spoken unto you, saying I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." What David wrote in the Psalms is declared by St. Peter to have been spoken by the Holy Ghost; this scriptures must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake concerning Judas, Acts 10, 16. St. Paul also bears the most sure testimony to the inspiration of the Jewish prophets. Well spake Isaiah the prophet unto our fathers; but again enlarging the terms which he employs to their utmost latitude; but undoubtedly having a special deference to the Jewish canon, he declares all scriptures are given by inspiration of God. Thus we see that the writers of the New Testament scriptures bear witness to the inspiration of those of the Old, but they claimed the same kind of inspiration for themselves; the proof of this is seen in the general tone of confidence and authority with which they delivered their discourses. To feel the force of this argument we must take a view of the Apostles, first in themselves, and then in their changed condition when the gift of the Spirit had qualified them for the duties of their offices. Behold these weak and discouraged and timid fisher men of Gallilee, who had fled at the apprehension of their Master, and had with difficulty been persuaded of his resurrection; the day of Pentecost arrives and they are all together in one place waiting for the promised comforts; the house is shaken when they are assembled, and the Divine Spirit descends and rests upon each one of them under the external appearance of eleven tongues like as of fire; they are suddenly endowed with new and surprising powers, assume new characters, and speak with new tongues; unlearned, as they were, and discouraged and cowardly as they had proves themselves to be, they now discourse with the greatest readiness and propriety, and with a boldness which nothing could daunt, in every tongue and dialect of the assembled crowds; new courage, new discernment, skill in argument and fortitude in bearing testimony to the truth, appear in all their discourses; with great powers gave the Apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all; Acts 4 33. But the Apostles gave us additional proofs of their claims to divine inspiration: in classing their own teachings with the Scriptures of the Old Testament as being of equal authority with them; hence, St. Paul in speaking of believers as the household of God, declares that they are built upon the foundation of the Apostles and prophets, by their own declaration; it the prophets began their discourses with the solemn formula, "Thus saith the Lord," the Apostles began with the same claim of Divine command. Paul, an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the commandment of God our Savior; St. Paul in his first epistle to Corinthians uses this language: "My speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of man, but in the power of God; he then declares that his doctrine was the wisdom of God in a minister; that it was what none of the princes of this world knew, but that God had revealed it to him by his Spirit. Here the Apostle evidently claims divine inspiration; but to put this beyond all possibility of doubt he expresses himself in terms which cannot be mistaken: "which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but in that which the Holy Ghost teacheth, comparing spiritual things with spiritual, as some render it, adopting spiritual expressions to spiritual things. We have now seen that divine inspiration is possible, reasonable and necessary.

In what sense and to what extent were they supernaturally assisted in writing the Holy Scriptures? This question has given rise to a diversity of opinions; some have had the boldness to deny inspiration altogether, while others have circumscribed it within a very narrow limit. "I think," says Dr. Priestley, "that the Scriptures were written without any particular inspiration by men who, according to the best of their knowledge, and who from their circumstances could not be mistaken with respect to the greater facts of which they were proper witnesses. He assumes, however, that they were liable, like other men, to adopt a hasty and ill-grounded opinion concerning things which did not fall within the compass of their own knowledge. But it is a sufficient refutation of this theory that it directly contradicts what the sacred writers declare of themselves, and is an impeachment of their veracity. Some who advocate the doctrine of divine inspiration limit it to the prophetical parts of the Scriptures, while others extend it to the doctrinal parts also, but not to the historical. There are many who maintain that the inspiration of the sacred writers was only occasionally; that they were not always under that immediate and plenary influence of the Holy spirit which renders their writings the unerring words of God; and that consequently, as they were sometimes left to themselves, they then thought and reasoned like ordinary men. According to this notion, an intermixture of human infirmity and errors by no means was excluded from the sacred Scriptures. But if it is once granted that they are in the least degree alloyed with error, an opening is made for every imaginable corruption. And to admit that the sacred writers were only occasionally inspired would involve us in the greatest perplexity; because, not knowing when they were or were not inspired, we could not determine what parts of their writings should be regarded as the unerring word of God. The true doctrine of plenary inspiration may be drawn from the special promises which our Lord made to his Apostles respecting the gift of the Holy Spirit "But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, He shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you." And again, "when he, the Spirit of Truth, is come he will guide you into all truth, for he shall not speak of himself, but whatsoever he shall hear that shall he speak; and he will show you things to come." If we examine these promises we can hardly fail to see that they must have related to those supernatural endowments which was necessary to render the Apostles infallible teachers of the doctrines of Christianity. The Holy Ghost is here promised, not as the spirit of miracles, but as a spirit of truth; an expression which, if taken in connection with other terms of the passages, manifestly includes an unerring direction in the communication of religious instruction. The Spirit was also promised to abide with them forever; and this promise secured to them his constant operation without chance or intermission, whenever and wherever they were engaged in the execution of their office. Again, the Holy Ghost is called another comforter, from which phraseology the Apostles must have drawn the conclusion that He would fully supply the place of their Master's personal presence; and the distinct promise assures them that the Comforter would teach them all things, bring all things to their remembrance, guide them into all truth, and show them things to come. They could not, from the most obvious meaning of these declarations, expect anything less than the constant help of the Holy Spirit to secure them from all error in communication of religious instruction. But we have a more particular account of the nature and extent of that supernatural influence which these promises imply in the language of our Savior on another occasion: "When they bring you into the synagogues and unto magistrates and powers take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say, for the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say; Luke 120, 11 12. To this is added by Matthew: "For it is not ye that speak, but the spirit of your Father which speaketh in you." Such, then, is the nature of the mode of divine revelation. It is the spirit of God speaking as in man, and teaching them what to say, and how to say it. But if the Apostles were thus divinely assisted in defending themselves before their persecutors, we surely have a right to conclude that they were at least equally assisted in composing their sacred Books as these were to be the rule of faith and practice to the church in all succeeding ages.

Lexington, Ky.

For the Southwestern.

Woman's Home Missionary Societies of Little Rock.

REV W. S LANKFORD.

The young women of Wesley Chapel, having organized themselves into an Auxilliary "Woman's Home Missionary Society," held their first quarterly meeting, and gave their first public entertainment April 22d, to a good house.

The exercises were both interesting and highly edifying, having direct bearing on the great cause of Christian missions

The pastor, W. S. Lankford, spoke encouragingly to the society, and a handsome free will offering was made by the audience, to aid the missionary cause, the pastor taking the lead. Twenty-six enrolled their names for membership, most of whom are students in Philander Smith's College. Miss Anna Richmond, with her usual commanding gracefulness, presided at the organ.

May 22d was the occasion of the first annual meeting of the "Woman's Home Missionary Society" of the Little Rock Conference, which was held in Wesley Chapel.

The church was made to present a lovely appearance, being profusely and tastefully decorated with fragrant flowers.

An interesting programme was carried out, consisting of music, recitations and addresses.

The accomplished secretary, Mrs Lottie Stevens read an interesting sketch of the history of the organization, and in a convincing manner, illustrated the importance of the work.

Something over $20 had been raised for the use of the Parent Society, and a growing interest in the work is being manifested generally.

The society was greatly assisted in the musical department by Mr. and Mrs. Baker, from the same place, all of whom are earnest and intelligent workers, and recent accessions to our church.

On this occasion the pastor occupied a seat in the audience with the "little folks," and the occasion's wife occupied the stand and tried to interest and stimulate her sister workers with an appropriate address, which we will publish in due time.—ED.

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 20---NO 28. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, JULY 8, 1885 WHOLE NUMBER 817.

THE SOUTHWESTERN
PUBLISHED BY
THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,
37 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor

Terms: $1.50 per Year, Cash in Advance; after Three Months, $2; to Pastors, $1. Six Months, $1; Three Months, 50c.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

All matter not of a business nature must be addressed to the editor.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	8 cents.
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	6 "
Six months (26 times)	5 "
One year (52 times)	4 "
Marriage Notices	25 "
Special Notices	8 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

Why, oh ye valiant for the Lord of Hosts,
Ye who have vanquished thousands in the fight,
Why cast away your armor, quit your posts,
And basely from exulting foes take flight?
A thousand times ye chased the son of night—
Their castles stormed, and raised your banner high
Above the ramparts; where its folds of light
Sent streaming corruscations o'er the sky
That kindled hope on earth, and thrilled all heaven with joy.

Zion's Herald gives no nucertain sound, it is a most excellent Christian family guide.

Your Sermon Sketches have done me a great deal of good. The SOUTHWESTERN is just the paper for our people.—Rev. J. G. Jones, Aberdeen station.

Times are slowly brightening, and business prospects are better than for a good while. But still there is a call for the utmost economy and frugality that possibly may consist with honesty.

The Cicada tredecim is thirteen not the seventeen year old locust. It is this species which will appear this year in Southern Illinois, Kansas, Missouri, Georgia, Louisiana, Tennessee and Mississippi.

Mr. Morgan Ashford, a veteran of the late war, who carries the stubb of a missing leg and a vivid recollection of the storming of Petersburg, was the first man in Flemingsburg to take the SOUTHWESTERN. He is a batchelor and soon to be a benedict.

A novel mode of aging whiskey and other liquors is to place a Maxim or Edison light inside of the barrel. Exposure of the liquid to the electric light for a hundred hours, it is said changes the flavor and converts a new liquor into one that resembles a ten-year brand.

Mrs. Delila Parker, of Flemingsburg, Ky., says she feels able to compete with Mrs. Baum, white, either in the culinary or any of the domestic arts. We are bound to say that Sister Parker has us in an equipoise of doubt with strong tendencies favorable to her claims, we shall have to sample a little further.

Rev. J. H. Hargrave, late of Ohio now of Kentucky, says he was greatly opposed to coming into Kentucky before he came, but likes it now. In fact, he says, these Southern people aint half as bad as he was told they were. He is satisfied and perfectly willing to remain. The hospitality of the people has not been overrated. That is true.

For the Southwestern.

Subject—Mode of Divine Revelation.

REV. G. W. THOMAS.

Mode—Manner of existing, or being, method, form, fashion, custom, way, as the mode of speaking by inspiration.

When we say that the Scriptures are a divine authority our meaning is that they are an inspired revelation from God to man. It has been shown that the sacred writers were men of the utmost integrity and entitled to the most implicit confidence of mankind; but since it is possible that honest men may be mistaken, therefore if we had nothing more to urge in behalf of these writers than the excellence of their character, their writings would only be of human authority; something more was therefore required than a pious life, and a mind purified from prejudice and passion, to qualify them for being teachers of the will of God, namely, divine revelation or inspiration; this may be defined to be that extraordinary influence of the spirit upon the human mind by which men are qualified to communicate to others religious knowledge without error or mistake.

1. Inspiration is possible.—The Father of the spirit may act upon the mind of his creatures, and this action may be extended to any degree which the purposes of God may require; he may superintend those who write so as to prevent the possibility of error in their writings, which is the lowest degree of inspiration. He may enlarge their understanding, and elevate their conceptions beyond the measure of ordinary men, this is the second degree; or he may suggest to them the thoughts which they should express, and the very words which they shall employ, so as to make them merely vehicles of conveying his word to others This is the highest degree of inspiration, and no sound theist (a believer in God) will deny that all these degrees are possible.

2. It is reasonable that the sentiments and doctrines developed in the holy Scriptures should be suggested to the mind of the writers by the Supreme Being himself, for they are every way worthy of his character and promotive of the highest interests of man. And the more important the communication is, the more it is calculated to relieve men from error, to stimulate them to holiness; the more reasonable it is to expect that God would make the communication free from every admixture of error.

3. Inspiration is necessary; this is evidenced from the subjects which the Scriptures unfolds:

1. Some past facts are recorded in the Bible which could not possibly have been known if God had not revealed them in a spiritual way.

1. How could Moses, for instance, have given a correct history of the creation of the world, and of the antideluvian times if he had not been divinely inspired?

2. The authoritive language of the Scripture, too, if we admit the veracity of the writers, argues the necessity of inspiration. They propose things, not as matters for consideration, but for adoption; they do not grant us the alternative of receiving or rejecting their instincts; they do not present to us their own thoughts, but preface their communications by "Thus saith the Lord," and on this ground demand our assent.

4. The mode of divine revelation has always been ascribed to the sacred penmen, both by the Jewish and Christian church. By the Jews the law of Moses was accounted the law of God himself, and their other canonical books were held in like veneration. Accordingly Josephus tells us that they were accustomed from their infancy to call these Scriptures the doctrines of God, and that they were ready at any time to lay down their life in vindication of them. The early Christians entertained the same respect for the writings of Moses and the prophets that the Jews did, but they received also by universal consent the Scriptures of the New Testament as being composed of the direction and inspiration of the Holy Spirit, they regarded therefore the Jewish and the Christian Scriptures as oracles to decide all differences in matters of religion, and every sentence in them was looked upon as a divine axiom (self evident) from which there was no appeal. The opinions of the church in the first centuries respecting the mode of inspiration of the sacred writers is plainly set forth in the testimony of the Christian fathers. Clemens, Bishop of Rome, a cotemporary with the Apostles tells us that the Apostles preached the Gospel, being filled with the Holy Ghost; that the scriptures are the true words of the Spirit; and that Paul wrote to the Corinthians true things by the aid of the spirit. Justin Martyr says that the Gospels were written by men full of the Holy Ghost.

2 The sacred writers themselves claimed to be divinely inspired; this is true with regard to the writers of the Old Testament scriptures; the Jewish law giver often reminded those who he addressed of the divine authority of his communications by the well known declaration, "The Lord spake unto Moses;" and the language of David is, "the spirit of the Lord spake by me, and his words was in my tongue;" thus two of the Jewish prophets delivered their predictions, not only in the name of Jehovah, but also as being received directly from Him. Isaiah introduces many of his prophetic messages by the declaration, "thus saith the Lord;" and Jeremiah, and Ezekiel and other prophets ascertaining "the Lord said unto me," or the words of the Lord came unto me, etc. But the plenary (full or complete) inspiration of the Old Testament scriptures is most distinctly asserted by Christ and his Apostles; they recognizing the whole Jewish canon in their threefold divisions of the law, the prophets and the psalms. It is upon the evidence of these scriptures that our Lord proves Himself to be the Messiah, and to them he constantly appeals, both in proving his own doctrines and in refuting the errors of the Jews; but, further, what Moses wrote in the Pentateuch is expressly declared by Christ to have been spoken by God himself: "Have ye not read that was spoken unto you, saying I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." What David wrote in the Psalms is declared by St. Peter to have been spoken by the Holy Ghost; this scriptures must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake concerning Judas, Acts 10, 16. St. Paul also bears the most sure testimony to the inspiration of the Jewish prophets. Well spake Isaiah the prophet unto our fathers; but again enlarging the terms which he employs to their utmost latitude; but undoubtedly having a special deference to the Jewish canon, he declares all scriptures are given by inspiration of God. Thus we see that the writers of the New Testament scriptures bear witness to the inspiration of those of the Old, but they claimed the same kind of inspiration for themselves; the proof of this is seen in the general tone of confidence and authority with which they delivered their discourses. To feel the force of this argument we must take a view of the Apostles, first in themselves, and then in their changed condition when the gift of the Spirit had qualified them for the duties of their offices. Behold these weak and discouraged and timid fishermen of Gallilee, who had fled at the apprehension of their Master, and had with difficulty been persuaded of his resurrection; the day of Pentecost arrives and they are all together in one place waiting for the promised comforts; the house is shaken when they are assembled, and the Divine Spirit descends and rests upon each one of them under the external appearance of eleven tongues like as of fire; they are suddenly endowed with new and surprising powers, assume new characters, and speak with new tongues; unlearned, as they were, and discouraged and cowardly as they had proves themselves to be, they now discourse with the greatest readiness and propriety, and with a boldness which nothing could daunt, in every tongue and dialect of the assembled crowds; new courage, new discernment, skill in argument and fortitude in bearing testimony to the truth, appear in all their discourses; with great powers gave the Apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all; Acts 4 33. But the Apostles gave us additional proofs of their claims to divine inspiration: in classing their own teachings with the Scriptures of the Old Testament as being of equal authority with them; hence, St. Paul in speaking of believers as the household of God, declares that they are built upon the foundation of the Apostles and prophets, by their own declaration; if the prophets began their discourses with the solemn formula, "Thus saith the Lord," the Apostles began with the same claim of Divine command. Paul, an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the commandment of God our Savior; St. Paul in his first epistle to Corinthians uses this language: "My speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of man, but in the power of God; he then declares that his doctrine was the wisdom of God in a minister; that it was what none of the princes of this world knew, but that God had revealed it to him by his Spirit. Here the Apostle evidently claims divine inspiration; but to put this beyond all possibility of doubt he expresses himself in terms which cannot be mistaken: "which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but in that which the Holy Ghost teacheth, comparing spiritual things with spiritual, as some render it, adopting spiritual expressions to spiritual things. We have now seen that divine inspiration is possible, reasonable and necessary.

In what sense and to what extent were they supernaturally assisted in writing the Holy Scriptures? This question has given rise to a diversity of opinions; some have had the boldness to deny inspiration altogether, while others have circumscribed it within a very narrow limit. "I think," says Dr. Priestley, "that the Scriptures were written without any particular inspiration by men who, according to the best of their knowledge, and who from their circumstances could not be mistaken with respect to the greater facts of which they were proper witnesses. He assumes, however, that they were liable, like other men, to adopt a hasty and ill-grounded opinion concerning things which did not fall within the compass of their own knowledge. But it is a sufficient refutation of this theory that it directly contradicts what the sacred writers declare of themselves, and is an impeachment of their veracity. Some who advocate the doctrine of divine inspiration limit it to the prophetical parts of the Scriptures, while others extend it to the doctrinal parts also, but not to the historical. There are many who maintain that the inspiration of the sacred writers was only occasionally; that they were not always under that immediate and plenary influence of the Holy spirit which renders their writings the unerring words of God; and that consequently, as they were sometimes left to themselves, they then thought and reasoned like ordinary men. According to this notion, an intermixture of human infirmity and errors by no means was excluded from the sacred Scriptures. But if it is once granted that they are in the least degree alloyed with error, an opening is made for every imaginable corruption. And to admit that the sacred writers were only occasionally inspired would involve us in the greatest perplexity; because, not knowing when they were or were not inspired, we could not determine what parts of their writings should be regarded as the unerring word of God. The true doctrine of plenary inspiration may be drawn from the special promises which our Lord made to his Apostles respecting the gift of the Holy Spirit "But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, He shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you" And again, "when he, the Spirit of Truth, is come he will guide you into all truth, for he shall not speak of himself, but whatsoever he shall hear that shall he speak; and he will show you things to come." If we examine these promises we can hardly fail to see that they must have related to those supernatural endowments which was necessary to render the Apostles infallible teachers of the doctrines of Christianity. The Holy Ghost is here promised, not as the spirit of miracles, but as a spirit of truth; an expression which, if taken in connection with other terms of the passages, manifestly includes an unerring direction in the communication of religious instruction. The Spirit was also promised to abide with them forever; and this promise secured to them his constant operation without chance or intermission, whenever and wherever they were engaged in the execution of their office. Again, the Holy Ghost is called another comforter, from which phraseology the Apostles must have drawn the conclusion that He would fully supply the place of their Master's personal presence; and the distinct promise assures them that the Comforter would teach them all things, bring all things to their remembrance, guide them into all truth, and show them things to come. They could not, from the most obvious meaning of these declarations, expect anything less than the constant help of the Holy Spirit to secure them from all error in communication of religious instruction. But we have a more particular account of the nature and extent of that supernatural influence which these promises imply in the language of our Savior on another occasion: "When they bring you into the synagogues and unto magistrates and powers take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say, for the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say; Luke 120, 11 12. To this is added by Matthew: "For it is not ye that speak, but the spirit of your Father which speaketh in you." Such, then, is the nature of the mode of divine revelation. It is the spirit of God speaking as in man, and teaching them what to say, and how to say it. But if the Apostles were thus divinely assisted in defending themselves before their persecutors, we surely have a right to conclude that they were at least equally assisted in composing their sacred Books as these were to be the rule of faith and practice to the church in all succeeding ages.

Lexington, Ky.

For the Southwestern.

Woman's Home Missionary Societies of Little Rock.

REV. W. S LANKFORD.

The young women of Wesley Chapel, having organized themselves into an Auxiliary "Woman's Home Missionary Society", held their first quarterly meeting, and gave their first public entertainment April 22d, to a good house.

The exercises were both interesting and highly elevating, having direct bearing on the great cause of Christian missions

The pastor, W. S. Lankford, spoke encouragingly to the society, and a handsome free will offering was made by the audience, to aid the missionary cause, the pastor taking the lead. Twenty-six enrolled their names for membership, most of whom are students in Philander Smith's College. Miss Anna Richmond, with her usual commanding gracefulness, presided at the organ.

May 22d was the occasion of the first annual meeting of the "Woman's Home Missionary Society" of the Little Rock Conference, which was held in Wesley Chapel.

The church was made to present a lovely appearance, being profusely and tastefully decorated with fragrant flowers.

An interesting programme was carried out, consisting of music, recitations and addresses.

The accomplished secretary, Mrs Lottie Stevens read an interesting sketch of the history of the organization, and in a convincing manner, illustrated the importance of the work.

Something over $20 had been raised for the use of the Parent Society, and a growing interest in the work is being manifested generally.

The society was greatly assisted in the musical department by Mr. and Mrs. Baker, from the same place, all of whom are earnest and intelligent workers, and recent accessions to our church.

On this occasion the pastor occupied a seat in the audience with the "little folks," and the superintendent's wife occupied the stand and tried to interest and stimulate her sister workers with an appropriate address, which we will publish in due time.—ED.

From the Districts.

Rev. A. E P. Albert, presiding elder of the LaTeche district, writes that he has been fattening on an abundance of hard work. He reports a general stagnation in money matters, the low price of sugar and the short cotton crop of last year having nearly prostrated every interest on his district. He rejoices, however, in the fact that revivals are now in progress in nearly every charge; churches and Sunday-schools all show signs of a general awakening, and the prospects for the benevolences for the ensuing conference year are most flattering. At Glencoe fifty-six or more have been converted; at Jeanerette thirty were at the anxious seat; at New Iberia nearly every unconverted attendant of the church has been affected; at Opelousas the church is alive as it has not been before in five years, mourners crowding the altar every night; at Washington an occasional convert appears at nearly every service; at Booneville, several have been converted, and the anxious seat is crowded every night; at Cheneyville several have been converted, and some twenty-five or thirty are anxiously exclaiming, "O that I knew where I might find Him." At Alexandria about a dozen have been converted, and many more are seeking Christ. At Pineville our church is now a greater power for good than ever, the altar being crowded with penitent souls nightly. Thus the good work goes on over the whole district. He hopes to build from five to seven churches on Church Extension plan No 1 on his district this year; at least he has splendid prospects for so doing.

Shreveport District—Louisiana Conference.

REV. PIERRE LANDRY, P. E.

Dear Dr. Taylor.—Attended by the blessings of God in more ways than one, learning the ways and by ways of this great territorial as well as ecclesiastical district, I am impelled, by the uniform courtesy and great kindness of the people, ours and all others with whom I am brought in contact, to publicly express my gratitude. I appreciate the more, because deep in their hearts I find my successor, the Rev. S. Duncan, the gifted preacher and pastor of Union Chapel in your city; no one knows him but to revere, and still I am assured by the outlook that in their affection there remaineth a place for me, and that without prejudice to the just claims of Bro Duncan. Why should it be otherwise? I here submit for your inspection the form of a letter which has been sent to each preacher on this district, with accompanying ticket. The plan meets the approval of each pastor, and by it we hope to raise every dollar of assessment against the district.

Goliad—San Antonio District.

G. W. RICHARDSON, P. E.

There are two items that I could not report in my last letter that the people on my district will be glad to know. The first is, we are taking 175 copies of the SOUTHWESTERN on this district; that is one copy for every ten members in full connection. If all the colored membership in the Methodist Episcopal Church would do as well as that your circulation would be 20,000. Bro. Townsend, of Halletts ville, has the largest list of subscribers in proportion to his membership. The second item is, we have had 150 conversions in the last 90 days. The revival season has fairly opened, and in some places it has opened with great power. Bro. Wm. Reed, of Seguin, has had the greatest success up to this date. Two weeks ago he reported 47 conversions. These figures encourage us to hope and pray for a full round thousand recruits this year.

Murfreesboro District.

BULLINGTON, P. E.

[illegible] three, push things [illegible] your benevolent [illegible] quarters mission-ary on the district is $300. We must raise all; Let every one do his part now. Brethren, go right to work at once. Our Church Extension is $70; Freedmen's Aid, $150; Bishop, $40. We must bring these up and something on all the collections. Brethren, our district conference will begin August 25th and close on the 28th. Be ready, and come one and all.

Ashville District—Central Alabama Conference.

REV. O. NELSON, P. E.

This district is now in good standing. The following work will show for itself. In 1884 over 300 souls were converted and joined the M. E. Church, and are still holding on to God. The benevolent money is no longer behind, but is in front, and by the help of God we intend to do our part. We intend for our work to prove what we are doing. When I first come to this district there was only one good house, and that was not finished by a good deal, and now there are eight very good churches, but this of course, leaves us some in debt, which is a little embarrassing. Nevertheless we are pressing on toward the mark, and we feel to-day, as one of old, it is good to be here. We have been requested to raise $48 this year for missions alone, which is $15 more than any other district in the conference. We are willing to do what we can in regard to raising the money. Brethren of the Ashville district, each of you must be prepared to make a healthy report at the district conference, on the above matters, which will convene at Oxford, Alabama, in July, 1885; further notice will be given soon, be ready and come with your benevolent money in order that it may be sent on to the Society. I would like to say something in regard to my preachers not writing more than they do; not because they haven't anything to say, but they do not make good use of their pen; however they are doing the best they can for Christ and his church.

Letters from the Pastors.

Rev. L. J. Terrell writes from New Albany, Miss.: "We are doing very well; we are in better circumstances to do the work of our Master than ever before. I came down from this conference, and after hearing Bishop Mallalieu's counsel to the ministers I took fresh courage to open my mouth, and I can not go back. Methodism does not teach that perfection implies infallibility in judgment or life, but love of God with all the heart."

Rev. R. Williams, of Bonlddy, Heston county, Texas, writes: "The people in this county are having a hard time; many seem to want the paper, but can not get the money; they tell me they will be able to pay in the fall, but I am in a new work and among strange people. As the times open up I think I will be able to get a number of them to subscribe. We held our second quarterly conference May 23d; Rev. S. Allen presided. The meeting passed off nicely, with one convert. The elder administered the Lord's supper to 66 persons."

Rev. A. Swift, of Bagerton, Tenn., writes: "I entered on my circuit right after conference, with a zeal for Christ and his work. I found the people in a good condition; they are poor but are doing the best they can. I made a trip to Lexington, and preached in the court-house. We have two Sunday-schools on this work and need books.

Rev. A. Burdett, of Capleville, Tenn., writes: "My second quarterly meeting was held by Elder Jesse P. Price, at St. John M. E. Church; all of the members were present, and we were glad to see the elder. The elder preached on Sunday, and we had a very pleasant time; he remained with us three days and told us of all the claims of the conference. He found me at Bro. Vaiks; we stayed with Bro. Johnson, and visited Mr. Rivers, the school teacher; the elder speaks very highly of the school. We are in need of a new church here. On Tuesday Bro. Johnson sent us to town in a hack, and we called on Bro. C. Fields at Centenary. I preached for him at night, and we had a good time. We went to Roger's Chapel next night, and the elder preached us a splendid sermon. We are in need of a church here. Bro. J. W. Moore left things all right, and was much loved by the people. The SOUTHWESTERN was spoken of by the elder. We paid the elder $10 and the pastor $19 30. I have been sick the whole time I have been here, and thought I would die, but am better now.

Rev. W. W. Heston writes from Troy, Ohio: "Richard's M. E. Church is fast returning to her first love; the Sunday-school is in a prosperous condition, average attendance 33. Since conference one has joined the church. Rev. J. Courtney was with us on the 29th, the first quarterly conference, and we had a good time. On the 19th 41 of the most superb young people of Troy, with Mrs. F. P. Sewell as their leader, called at the parsonage leaving 45 pounds of provisons and some cash. The pastor is happy and so is his wife."

Rev. Robt. Parmer writes from Paris, Tenn: "The church at this place is doing well; we commenced a protracted meeting in the church in this city on April 26th and closed on May 8th; we had Rev. J. L. Massey with us, from Mason, who preached for us five nights, and the people all wish for his return soon. In this meeting we had 14 conversions, added to the church 12, one preacher from the A. M. E. Church, Bro. John Hudgerson, who has been in this country many years, and who is worth about $2,000. We have at this place some good people. The old people will at last come to the front. They have given many names to our church here, some call us the "blue wing church," but, thank God, we are gaining ground. In all the hard times we have had, and all the dark clouds that have stood between us and our God, we have to some extent seen the bright side."

Rev. W. L. Taylor writes from Purdy circuit; "Rev. Jesse P Price, presiding elder, strikes the key note, not only in the pulpit where he speaks on the psychology of man but also when he lectures on the centennial, Freedmen's Aid Society, and other subjects. He was in our midst on the 28th and 29th of March, and was gladly received by all; and when he left we felt as though we had been bereaved of our best friend. We had a joyful time while at Purdy. In the evening, on returning from church, he was surrounded by little children, who say they love Elder Price and are going to heaven with him. I was appointed here by Elder Price on January 14, 1885; I found a kind, generous people; we went to work and are coming to the front this year. I preached last Monday night at Purdy; by request the text was, "We are embassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God." While preaching God blessed us with the conversion of the worst man in town, and he was added to the church. We are having a good time, and praying that God will give us Jesse Price four years longer as a presiding elder."

Rev. J. L. Perrin writes from Lloyd Street Church, Louisville, Ky.: "From the 4th of March to the 31st we have enjoyed the pleasure of our second revival held during this conference year. We have good meetings and experience the outpouring of the Spirit of the Lord Jesus upon his people. We are glad to say that 16 were happily converted to God; some who were called church-haters and who only came to see what was going on, during this meeting were converted by the spirit and came forward for prayer, and in a few days they would come rejoicing. The meeting continued four weeks and resulted in 24 additions, making a total of 78 additions during our conference year. Our Sunday-school is still increasing. We are greatly encouraged and can happily sing 'Praise God from whom all blessings flow.' I have preached 290 sermons and made several Sunday school addresses; held four or five quarterly meetings, also several addresses on temperance. We have had several converts on this line. We feel that the Lord has blessed and crowned all of our labors with success. Dear Dr. Taylor, we are glad to say that your good paper is welcomely received every week in our home. We will help to increase the number of subscribers. God bless you and family."

Mack Henson, of San Antonio, writes: "I am thankful that on June 28th we collected by subscription $185 40, notwithstanding the hard times. Whenever the people have a mind to work they let the times take care of themselves, and they do their duty, hence the results. Dr. A. J. Kynett will get his six months interest on $800 borrowed money, and we will pay $150 on our new parsonage, and square up some mission debts."

J. T. Gibbons, Lone Oak, Texas, writes: "Please correct a few words in my letter of April 14. I was married in the year 1875, March 25, instead of 1872, and Elder Gates was presiding elder while I was pastor at Giddings."

Rev. J. W. Jackson writes from Carlisle, Ark.: "I have just closed a protracted effort of one week's duration. The Lord has wonderfully visited us with the outpouring of the Holy Ghost. We were blessed with three conversions, all from our Sunday-school—Little Hattie Horn, Miss Maggie Bohannan and Master W. A. Logan. The conversion of Willie Logan caused his father, who is an old sinner, to seek the Lord Jesus Christ. Mr. Logan is still a deep penitent. Accessions to the church three, as follows: Rev. Jonas Simpson, a local elder of the African Methodis Episcopal Church; Sister Ellen Simpson, wife of Bro. Simpson, and Sister Fanny Logan, all of the same denomination; probationers, two. This is the first time in the history of the church at McCreanors that they experienced a revival of religion at this season of the year. I was compelled to close on account of the people being farmers and they are very busy preparing for planting their crops. Rev. W. T. Adams, of the Baptist denomination, did valiant work. God has wonderfully revived His work here, and the old 'Mother Church' is taking the lead and is highly respected and revered by other denominations. I closed the meeting with seven sin-sick souls waiting to be made whole, and a true sign of their deep repentance was that they attended our prayer-meetings and class-meetings. Glory! glory! our God reigneth. Pray for us dear brother. Will do something for the noble SOUTHWESTERN shortly. My district steward, Bro. George Berry, is working hard to build up the Methodist Episcopal Church here both spiritually and financially."

Rev. J. W. Hilton writes from Franklin: "We have a lovely time in our church. I have just closed my protracted meeting with the result of 35 additions to the church and 27 converts. We are now improving the parsonage to a considerable extent—added two rooms and papered the two old ones; have white-washed and painted our church on the inside, and we are moving on grandly.

Rev. Bedford Carr, of Sunset Home, writes: "We have a fine Sunday school, numbering 37 scholars. Mr. Martin Hurd, and Elias Tomass, are the superintendents. Rev. Bedford Carr, preached a fine sermon to a large congregation, a short time ago, taking his text from 16 and 15 verses of St. Mark. And at night the Rev. Thomas Carter addressed them, from the 9th chapter, and the 11th verse of the Acts. The sermon was closed by the Rev. B. Carr, and everything past off beautifully. We are moving along; and would be doing better, if we could get some books, and tracts, and Sunday school papers.

Rev. A. Lockhart, writes from Milford and Chambers Creek: "This work has two regular appointments with (38) full members. Only two of them own home yards. The writer has obtained the help of God to add another worker. Three appointments on this work and now looking for the fourth. At the same time we remember our Lord saying, "He that is careful in little, will also be careful in much." Elder Davis held our first quarterly conference March the 14-15 the conference opens at 3 o'clock p. m. Nearly all of the brethren on time, the report of the pastor showed both the church and the Sabbath-school some addition had been made. Leaders and stewards meeting being observed. Prayer meeting and class meeting began to revive, old fashion Methodism is not dead here. The committee on benevolence report some money on hand. The trustees reports $4 for building purposes. Thus the rain hastens us to our homes. Sunday at 3 o'clock Elder Davis preached a heart stirring sermon. The Lord's supper was administered of which 25 communed, paid the elder $6 50. At night the elder preached a soul reviving sermon. He also gave a lecture. Monday night will not be forgotten, the elder has the prayers of the church."

Rev. A. N. Jackson, of Gadsden Alabama, writes: "The night of May 15 closed a two week's service of meetings in our church here. The interest manifested and influence gained by the church, is said to be unprecedented. Thirteen were happily converted and twenty-five united with the church, some of whom are from the Baptist and Colored Methodist Episcopal Churches in good standing. We had the most valuable assistance of Rev. S. B. Henderson a former co-laborer of mine in the African Methodist Episcopal Church in this State, his preaching was powerful and it is said by many more powerful than any they ever heard in this town. He has joined us and will be employed till conference by my Presiding Elder, Bro. Nelson. The 9th and 10th greatly added to the strength of our meeting, it being the time of our second quarter. Our polished, indefatigable and Christian presiding elder, Osborne Nelson, arrived on the 7th, and pitched right into the battle where he remained day and night till he took his departure the 13th. The quarterly conference was a most pleasant occasion; the presiding elder is always most careful to look after every department of church work. He forcibly speaks of the duties of the pastor and other officers of the church and urges the discharge of them. He unflinchingly sticks to the law of the church, yet, his manner of procedure convinces all that it is in love and accordingly brings all to love him. When he was appointed to this district a year ago it stood No. 4 (of the 4 districts) and now it stands No. 1. During his stay here we effected, through his aid and influence, the organization of a Preacher's Union to meet on Tuesday of each week. The writer was elected president, and Rev. D. R. T. Gully, pastor Baptist church, secretary. Quarterly collection was $22 and by request of presiding elder, the brethren promised to collect all benevolant money this quarter possible."

Rev. E. Jefferson, writes from Hempstead, Texas: "Dear Editor please allow me a space in your columns to report the trouble of the farmers in this county. The following acres have been under water above the railroad bridge. Mr. R. C. Ralston, 300 acres; G. W. Fuller, 200 acres; C. Faulkner, 500 acres; Qualls, 150 acres; and Hadrin, 500 acres. Below the bridge Mr. R. R. McDade, 200 acres; Jones Crook, 300 acres; Peeble's farm, 300 acres; this takes the farms from Rock Island to the mouth of Clear Creek. Dear sir, among these farms lives a great number of our members and these are all their crops, and property has been all mortgaged. Our people are very poor and they can scarcely live on account of these troubles and this is the third crop they have planted this year, so you see the trouble of raising means, and our prospects are very dull for the present, and it seems that there has been a cloud of darkness upon this place ever since this May was a year ago; and brethren pray that God may remove the cloud and smile upon this people again."

Rev. E. Jefferson, writes from Hempstead, Texas: "Our Quarterly conference was held April 4 5 and we had a grand and glorious time, our Presiding Elder, W. B. Pillam was with us and held his quarterly conference, and preached a wonderful sermon at 3 o'clock p. m. He is much beloved by his people here and it is believed that he is the right man and in the right place in the church, and owing to a storm on that day he could not preach but one sermon. And the collection was taken, amounting to $8.20."

Rev. G. W. Rives, of Stark, Miss., writes: "Our first quarterly conference was held by our Presiding Elder, May 5th, 1885. This is a nice circuit, and we have been able to report promptly up to this time. We have paid the pastor $4.50, and the presiding elder $300.85. We have bought books, and the Sunday-school is in good condition. I will be able soon, to send some money to the Sunday-school Union and Tract Society. At Spring Hill, many Baptist are helping our Sunday-school work along. We ask your prayers, that me may gain this field."

Rev. M. M. Muldrew, writes from Wellborn, Texas: "On my arrival here I found but seven members, and it seemed that they had almost denied faith and gone after the world again, but by the power of God I was able to call and they answered, and are moving on again toward Heaven. I started a protracted meeting and was successful in getting fifteen probations and glad to say we are being able to hold our quarterly on the 20th and 21st; the first ever held on this work as there never was a quarter held on this work. The appearance of our presiding elder helps our people very much.

Rev. P. H. Hill writes from Lexington, Miss.: "My Second Quarterly Conference is over. Rev. Dr. Revels was with us, and was abundant in efficient labors, working in the Sunday School at 8 a. m.; love feast at p a. m., and preaching at 11 a. m. His sermons are commented upon as being very able. Rev. R. C. Brown has united with us from the Baptist Church. All reports were presented, showing prosperity. Paid pastor $21, total raised $73; for improvements paid $24 during the quarter. On deposit for church building $20; paid P. E. $10.70. Taken into full connection 32 members, from 60 two years ago our membership has increased to 223 at present."

Rev. J. C. Burton writes from Weir Station, French Camp Circuit: "Our first quarterly conference was held March 28th and 29th. Rev. H. R. Revels, D. D., our beloved presiding elder was on hand; the weather being very cool and rainy, there were not many out at 11 o'clock Saturday to hear the Doctor preach. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the P. E. was in the chair to hold the quarter, everything passed off pleasantly. The reports of local-preachers, exhorters and class leaders were very good; the Doctor gave us a beautiful address on duties of church to their pastor, convincing us that if we would be more liberal and give only one-tenth of our substance to the cause of Christ and be more faithful to our pastor, the doctor said that God would abundantly bless us beyond any reasonable doubt in our crops. Our people never has heard such words fall from any man. The Doctor preached two able sermons, one on Sabbath which seems to frighten the people very much, as they never have heard a colored Doctor of Divinity preach. The Elder administered the sacrament to 50, the collection for him was very small, only $4 80; promise pastor $225; promise the elder $30; bishop $1 50, for Rust University and all other benevolent purposes, $12 50.

No Mystery About It.

There are no mysteries or secrets about the compounding of Brown's Iron Bitters. The preparation of iron is the only one that can be taken without injuring the teeth or stomach. It gives vigor to the feeble, life to the debilitated, and health to the dyspeptic. You need not fear to give it to the most delicate child. Mrs Emma Williams, of Starkweather, Miss., says, "It relieved my daughter of dyspepsia, and myself of general debility."

Letters From the Laity.

Mr. J. R. Rayford writes from Montgomery county, Texas: "My people are going down all the time, I can hear of my color improving in every State but Texas. I am hurt, our girls and boys don't know anything but corn and cotton field, and but a very few of them use proper language, they use this language, "dist, dat, de uder," and for music they don't know what it is. Lord send the happy day when my people will build up themselves from that down cast State, must I grieve on about them or let them go, my heart is full now. Will you send us some good music teachers out here and other teachers, we have work for them. I hope that our preachers will preach this from their pulpits, tell them to preach it, I love my people to my heart, we were slaves once and we are slaves yet, the white people are improving all the time; I hope you will help me talk through your paper to them. Send your girls and boys to some school so we may have bright girls and boys. Our people are sinking all the time, they know but one thing and that is talking about some one, tell them to stop it. We do not want to go to China or Africa to find the heathens, come to Texas and you will find them. There is one thing among them all; filthy talk and whisky drinking, and slang talking and card playing their children are naked one half the time. I have been teaching school in the county of Montgomery for them, but I am afraid that I can't learn them fast enough, they are smart enough, but they don't try to build themselves up. I am a Methodist. Every hair all over the ground I stand on is Methodist, when I look up I believe I see Methodist Heaven.

Mr. M. B. Hubbard writes from Bastrop, La.: "Education is being diffused in most parts of North Louisiana, though we are somewhat crowded owing to the want of teaching force. The few educators engaged are doing all they possibly can. We have associated ourselves together, and now we have the educational banner uplifted, crying to Hamlo sons and daughters to follow. Our white friends seem to be interested in the education of the colored race, without a word of flattery, no better man than J. S Keller, Esq., who is now superintendent, could have been found. He is quite a friend to educators but abhors humbugs. Give this place proper workers and a few more years, and then education will arrive at its zenith."

H. C. Kellum, of Hamilton's Chapel, Texarkana, Ark., writes: "Rev. G. W. Norris preached to a crowded house here on the second Sunday in March. The people seem well pleased with him. Our church at this place has not had the advantages that churches in other places have, but we are not discouraged; we look forward to the time when these dark hours shall fade, and we will come in to rank with other nations. We are but just born here in this dark corner, but our whole heart and mind is turned to the subject of education. I hail the day when this race will no longer be pointed at with the finger of scorn, but will stand on an equal footing with all nations. Our Sunday-school numbers 45, and we hope to continue to increase our number as long as there is a child to be found who does not attend some school."

Rev. G. R. Smith, who calls himself a preacher and steward, at Alleyton, writes from that place and says: "We are still working for the Master. Rev. E. Cogswell, our preacher at this point, has a grand protracted meeting going on; and we are now on the fifth week, and we have had grand success. Elder Gates visited our meeting and preached several instructive sermons which proved beneficial to seeking mourners. Rev, W. H. Mosby, of Lagrange circuit, is with us at present. Our meeting is now coming to a close with fifteen happily converted, and ten have joined our church. We expect to receive 13 or 14 more. It seems that this has been a time of harvest. The Lord has visited Alleyton in our meeting; He has seen fit to convert the worst men in our town, whose business heretofore has been to lead in Sabbath breaking and persecuting the church, gambling, etc. Our loving pastor is working, watching and praying, with the aid of his stewards, class leaders and sisters, and with God in the front, he is going to enlarge the membership of Haven's Chapel, which is the name of Alleyton Church."

Mr. John Mayo, district steward, writes from Union Grove circuit: "Rev. T. W. Davis, our beloved pastor, arrived Feb. 2d, and made his tour on the work; he was heartily received, and all are well satisfied with their new pastor. I am happy to say that the word is alive and is trying with all her might to scale the mountains of obscurity and impediments to make her home upon the table-land of paradise; though the devil, with his satanic influence is trying with profound battlements to inculcate her with scoleration; but from present appearance, to take it as a whole, our work is on the progress. Our first quarterly conference came off April 1-2. Our beloved elder, D. A Williams, was with us, and we had a glorious quarter; the brethren were on time. The elder preached an able sermon at 7 p. m. to nearly 500 people, and administered the sacrament to 86. The Lord was with us. Pray, brethren, that this may be a year of jubilee."

Mr. D. R. Briggs writes from Flatwoods, Tenn.: "Our pastor, Bro. D. Collier, is beloved by us all. He is doing a good work. Our Sunday school is just starting out with fair prospects of success. The church here is on improving ground. We are none too good, but we are trying to be better. The visit to us of Elder J. B. Bradford (in place of our elder, J. P. Price) on the 14th and 15th of March, was a great success, doing us good." Our brother, James Price, a teacher in our Sunday school is doing much good. Our assistant superintendent, Bro. Amos Chappel, is also useful; also Bro. Atkins Chappel. Among the useful workers we must also name Sisters Joan Price and Parlee Chappel, also Bro. Anthony Whitaker. We wish and pray for the success of you and your excellent paper. May God spare you long to bless us."

For the SOUTHWESTERN

The Aged and Infirm Freedmen.

REV. A. E. P. ALBERT.

This class represents one of the most needy, most deserving of active sympathy, and yet the most sadly neglected of the whole Negro race in the country. Northern money has flowed, as freely as the blood they spilled for the union of freedom, from Sumpter to Appomattox; to educate and Christianize, to elevate and prepare for future usefulness the young people of that race. All the religious denominations of the North are more or less engaged in this grand and good work. The South, gradually, overcoming "the bitterness engendered by the war," her poverty, and her settled theories and policies of ante bellum days relative to the Negro, is now spending thousands of dollars annually, and contributing some of her best men and women to the same noble work, including such men as Drs. Callaway, Haygood and others, and even Mrs. Jefferson Davis, we are told is now engaged in teaching a colored Sunday school in Mississippi; but what has been or is being done for the aged and infirm Freedmen? those whose whole muscular manhood was spent in the prison house of bondage? After having exhausted all the strength of their manhood in slavery, this worthy but unfortunate class of people, by the fiat of freedom, were rendered homeless—left with only the earth, on the public highway for a pillow, and the sky for a covering—and like worn out horses, in the barren, stormy winter of life, were cast out to graze upon the commons of an uncharitable world. What, we ask, has been or is being done for them by the people of this country, North or South? Twenty-two years of post bellum history answers nothing! We have no word of disparagement against the men and means employed in reclaiming the wicked and fallen; in advocating and training the young for all the future; nor against the efforts being put forth to thereby solve the Negro problem; rather we would encourage and urge a continuance and a vigorous multiplication of such means and efforts, but we would be false to every prompting of human sympathy, were we to fail to raise our voice and pen to protest, that the aged and infirm Freedmen should not thus be forgotten and neglected. A nobler and worthier class never appealed to public charity. Some of them were servants of our most gallant Southern chivalry. Many of the women of this class were the nurses and foster mothers of some of the best Southern blood. Shall these people, so faithful in every duty, so peaceable and loyal throughout the war, guarding the safety and providing for the comfort of the families of their masters, absent in the war, be now left to dole out a miserable existence in begging their bread from door to door? This ought not so to be. The South, especially, owes a substantial debt to this unfortunate class. The charities of the North, so freely and copiously poured out for the young of the Negro race, should no longer overlook this sad neglect. The Atlanta Constitution, not long since advocated the adoption of some plan to reach and relieve them. And these lines are written after extensive consultation with a number of Southern men, ex-slave holders, who would be in full sympathy with any sound movement for the establishment and maintenance of comfortable homes for aged and infirm colored persons. The National government has its homes for its disabled sailors and soldiers; the benevolences of the South have provided asylums for the crippled and suffering victims of the "Lost Cause;" the various Protestant denominations, the Roman Catholic, the Jews and other religious bodies all maintain homes for their aged and infirm; but the aged and infirm freedmen, our legacy of sufferers, the National victims from the prison house of bondage remain uncared for, and unprovided. Philadelphia, through the munificent liberality of the Quaker, or Friend, Smith and his wife, and William Still, and other philantropists, has established a substantial and comfortable home, where aged and infirm colored persons, of that region of country, can spend their declining years in peace and comfort. The institution is now liberally endowed, is controlled by a non-sectarian Board of Managers, composed of white and colored; and is commanding the success which it so richly deserves. Such a home; thus managed and controlled should be built and supported in every Southern State. The South, especially the former master class, the philantropists of the nation, of whatever race, both North or South, should take hold of this matter jointly, at once, and thereby condone in part, at least, for the almost unpardonable negligence of these remaining relics of slave life lingering amongst us. We suggest meetings for consultation on the part of such as may feel interested in such a movement. Who will be the first to contribute his money, and his help to such a worthy cause?

[This article is on a subject to which we have frequently called attention through the SOUTHWESTERN, and otherwise shows that we have touched the thoughtful mind, and we hope it will now find many supporters. Messrs. Rev. M. Dale and others of New Orleans have already taken very positive and tangible steps looking in this direction, and would be glad no doubt to confer with every lover of the aged and infirm with reference to it. Here is a wide field for honest philanthropy to enter and become conspicuous for good and enduring as well as endearing work.—EDITOR.]

The M. E. Church.

That Mighty Name.

William Reynolds, of Peoria, Ill., the earnest and successful Sunday school worker, tells the following story, which he heard from the lips of the missionary himself:

The Rev. E. P. Scott, while laboring as a missionary in India, saw on the street one of the strangest-looking heathen his eyes had ever lit upon. On inquiry, he found that he was a representative of one of the inland tribes that lived away in the mountain districts, and which came down once a year to trade. Upon further investigation he found that the Gospel had never been preached to them, and that it was very hazardous to venture among them because of their murderous propensities. He was stirred with earnest desires to break unto them the bread of life. He went to his lodging place, fell on his knees, and pleaded for divine direction. Arising from his knees he packed his valise, took his violin, with which he was accustomed to sing, and his pilgrim staff, and started in the direction of the Macedonian cry.

As he bade his fellow missionaries farewell, they said, "We shall never see you again. It is madness for you to go" But he said, "I must preach Jesus to them."

For two days he traveled without scarcely meeting a human being, until at last he found himself in the mountains and suddenly surrounded by a crowd of savages. Every spear was instantly pointed at his heart. He expected that every moment would be his last. Not knowing of any other resource he tried the power of singing the name of Jesus to them. Drawing forth his violin, he began with closed eyes to sing and pray,

All hail the power of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown him Lord of all.

Being afraid to open his eyes, he sang on till the third verse, and while singing the stanza,

"Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestial ball,
To him all majesty ascribe,
And crown him Lord of all.

he opened his eyes to see what they were going to do, when lo! the spears had dropped from their hands, and the big tears were falling from their eyes.

They afterward invited him to their homes. He spent two and a half years among them. His labors were so richly rewarded that when he was compelled to leave them because of impaired health and return to this country, they followed him for thirty miles. "Oh, missionary," they said, "come back to us again!" There are tribes beyond that never heard the Gospel. He could not resist their entreaties. After visiting America, he went back again to continue his labor till he sank into the grave among them. Who would face such dangers but a soldier of the cross? Missionaries are often the bravest men on earth. Such invincible courage, blended with the love of Jesus, will yet conquer the world.—Manual for April.

Dr Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" is a most powerful restorative tonic, and combines the most valuable nervine properties; especially adapted to the wants of debilitated ladies suffering from weak back, inward fever, congestion, inflammation, or ulceration, or from nervousness or neuralgic pains. By druggists.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches.
History of the U. S.—Ridpath $3 00
Scripture History.—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net 60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) Net 5
History of Methodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.) 3 00
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Edition of 1884 .....
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter 1 50

To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. 1) sett 5 00

Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography 2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs 2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scripture chapters I XXX—Harman 4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol 1) sett 7 50
Plain Account of christian Perfection.—Wesley 30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net 1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill, Net 1 00
Written Sermons.

To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.) .....
Christian Purity—Foster 1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast 1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris 3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid 3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. (chapters XXI-LII)—Harman 4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope 1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer. 1 60
Lessons in Logic.—Sevens. Net 40
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher 5 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged). Stevens 3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory 85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol. II.—Reid 3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII —Harman 4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope Vol. III 7 50
Atonement in christ.—Miley 1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn 2 50
Intellectual Science.—Porter 3 00
Homilectics.—Kidder 1 50
Written Sermon .....
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst 3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson 1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters XIX XLIV Harman 4 00
Systematic Theology. Theological Institutes Part II—Watson 6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler 1 50
Written Exegesis .....
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St Paul.—Conybeare and Howson (Abridged Edition) 1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry .....
History of Rationalism.—Hurst 3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst ..... $ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) 05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield 2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884) .....
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.—Walker 1 25
To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter 1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson 1 50
Portrait of St. Paul.—Fletcher 75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines .....
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield 2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill 1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst 50
Ancient History.—Thalheimer .....
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson 1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath 3 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged Edition). —Stevens 3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible. Sacraments .....
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield 2 50
Plain Account of christian Perfection.—Wesley 30
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill.. 1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven 90
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer. 1 60
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol I.) Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Nast 5 00
Era of the Protestant Revolution.—Seehohn. 1 25
75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII.—Wakefield 2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.) 45
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter.. 3 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years .....
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II. Books to Antinomianism.—Fletcher 5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher 2 00
Protestant Foreign Missions.—Christlieb... 1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez St. New Orleans

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Pictures Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1885 at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Express for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful picture.

Our Little Men and Women

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY.

An Eight page Weekly, for Boys and Girls

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day or Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, JULY 8, 1885.

On ar abont September 1st the SOUTHWESTERN will begin a new and very useful feature in religious journalism. Our friends would do well to hold their old and increase their lists, as we contemplate a genuine, pleasing and useful surprise for them, entirely unprecedented in the make up of any of our papers.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR.

Revs. J. H. Stanly, W. H. Evans, Geo. A. Sissle, W. H. Thomas, Abram Southgate, N. L. Carr, D. W. Hoston, M. McCoomer, W. H. Vaughn, M. Walton, N. H. Tolbert, A. Steen, and J. W. Russell of Indiana and Kentucky have our thanks for a large list of new subscribers.

Dr. Marshall had a remarkable revival in Atlanta, we presume free to all, and as Mr. Moody is coming, perhaps the colored people had better hurry up and get converted before he comes. Rev. Sam Jones in Nashville, and Harrison in Louisville.

"His work's reviving all around,
And many have Messiah founnd.
That's the news, that's the news."

"Dr. Taylor—The SOUTHWESTERN comes to the seminary and we are much interested in it. We read it regularly and carefully and are so much attached to it as to attempt to send it a short article. So please do us the favor to publish it as early as possible."—T. A. Fortson.

[Yes, we have reached the conclusion long ago, that the true men of our church have but one way of thinking on this subject. Of this class we regard the writer above as a specimen.—EDITOR.]

They Mean to Raise the $1,000,000 for Mission.

Columbus, Miss., June 4, 1885—Mr. Editor: All of the pastors of the Okolona District, Mississippi Annual Conference, are in perfect sympathy with the plan to raise one million dollars for missions. You may safely look for the District to do our best to advance the cause. We are with the Church heart and soul. Fraternally,

D. A. WILLIAMS, P. E.

Dr. Hartzell, of the Freedmen's Aid Society, addressed the Cleveland Ministers' Meeting on last Monday morning, and was heartily thanked for the statements brought in the meeting. The Saboath preceding he spoke at Geneva Church, H. Webb, pastor, and made a profound impression of the importance of our work among the Freedmen. At the close of the address the regular collection was taken; the people overdoing all former subscriptions by contributing over $900 to the cause this year.—Pittsburgh Advocate.

Why do not our pastors in the large churches inform the traveling public where they are, and as to the order of their services? Send us your card, such as you find all the pastors of our churches in New Orleans have done to their great profit. Look in the "Directory" and make card of that length; send it to us and we will print it one year for $3, but we must have the money cash with the card, or it will not be printed. Who are the enterprising pastors that will first be heard from? This offer is made to all who take the paper.

A Pleasant Incident.

When Mr. D. S. Monroe went to [illegible] he had in his care a gift to the native church in Luckwow, the collection of which has been cordially acknowledged. For some time the communion service in the native church has been necessarily used in order to send the [illegible] vessels to the Hindu congregation for their use. While there, Dr. Reed purchased a handsome communion service for the native brethren and at the last meeting of their [illegible] it was found that that one presented by them had Ye Cannot Serve Two Masters.

We learn from the American Baptist of June 26, and from other sources, that Rev. Geo. A. Sissle of St. Pauls Methodist Episcopal Church, Paris, Ky.; the Rev. Geo. W. Hatton originally of the African, later of the Methodist Episcopal, for awhile an Independent, then again of the Methodist Episcopal, and at present of the African Methodist Episcopal Church; the Rev. S. P. Young of the Missionary Baptist church, and the Rev. C. H. Collins "M. D." originally of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church in America, formerly stationed at Augusta, Georgia and at Israel church Washington, D. C., but at present of the African Methodist Episcopal Church in Cynthiana, Ky., have become associated in the publication of a paper at Paris, Ky., which is to be called the "Gold Eagle" It will be they say "a non sectarian independent political newspaper." Some of the gentlemen connected with the enterprise it will be seen have had considerable experience, and may bring thereby an increased measure of success to the flight of this "Eagle." We trust that it may prove to be not a bird of passage merely but a sojourner with us. We do seriously regret the loss of Bro. Sissle to the pastoral work of St. Paul's church which we presume he will now resign. Since the editorial work of a "Non sectarian political paper" will probably prove to be to him an incongruous task taken in connection with the Methodist Episcopal pastorate. At least that the two callings cannot cohere and thrive in one and the same agent is the history of previous experiments of that character in the Methodist Episcopal ministry. Our great churches like St. Pauls ought to pay their preachers a comfortable salary so as to get the use of them. There is always danger of an association of itinerant ministers formed for a purpose like the above going to pieces at any time. And any failure to meet liabilities must and in the past have injured churches whose pastors were concerned. Knowing that Bro. Sissle knows this, we have without further information reached the conclusion that he means to resign. For we do not believe he would at present willingly imperil any interest of his charge or of our church.

Why They Succeed.

"Harrison reached his zenith two or three years ago. He is just as efficient as ever, but his eccentricities do not elicit as wide comment nor create as much local sensation as formerly. But Jones is fresh and new. His words and ways are the topic of conversation wherever he works"—Michigan Christian Advocate.

We take the above sentences from an article especially intended to explain the works of Rev. Sam'l Jones in Nashville. It is not our belief that it is the eccentricities of evangelists that secures them, either attention or success. We believe that it is their fervent faith in success on the one only line upon which they work and the conditions by which they are surrounded which secures for their meetings the success that attends them. What are the conditions which are peculiar to especially favor the work of Evangelists?

1st. As a general thing there is several congregations united under their leadership.

2d. Several pastors usually agree and others incidentally become connected with this work, all directed by one mind with one purpose.

3 The Evangelist being free from all pastoral responsibilities is consequently free from all sorts of local questions, which otherwise embarrass and hinder as they do the pastors.

4. Pastors who effect the coming and help of Evangelists usually make their pulpit and pastoral work point that way some time before hand. Hence the Evangelist in most cases launches his boat on a tide which was already rising.

Remove these four conditions peculiar and favorable to the work of Evangelists. And our opinion is that they will succeed no better than the average pastor does, and be all the worse for their eccentricities. Even their fervent faith, if without these other conditions through which it could operate. The pastors are probably as fervent and faithful as the Evangelist, but they are rarely attended by the other conditions. Should they be, and they should then the like results as in Jones and Harrisons cases should follow.

The Woods are Full of Them.

The Courier-Journal commends the "Freeman" Mr. Fortune's paper, for giving utterance to the thought that it is not only inconsistent for colored any more than white Republicans to seek appointments at the hands of Democrats. So far we agree and so said before any other colored editor that we know of had so much as conceded the election of Mr. Cleveland, unless Mr. Fortune has done so before us. But the Journal further says: "If Mr. Cleveland should make few appointments of colored men to office, it will be because there are few colored Democrats." Hold on there, Mr. Watterson, we want to put a bug in your ear. There are a great many colored Democrats in the South, the Democratic press of the country, especially of the South, being judge. We have seen Republican majorities which reached up into the thousands melt away like ice-cream and strawberries in the mouth of an overworked editor, in several Mississippi, Louisiana and South Carolina Districts. The explanation uniformly given for this wiping out of Republican majorities has been that the Negroes had gone over to the Democracy. Now, these Negroes must still be there, for if not their votes would have carried, had they been cast and counted, several Southern States for Mr. Blaine. Now they are Democrats, their votes were counted for Mr. Cleveland, at least against Mr. Blaine. Now give them the "usufruct."

Not This Man But Barrabas.

The Boston authorities whose province it seems to be to regulate street preaching have refused to permit it. At the same time Buffalo Bill and his Wild West are permitted to turn the Boston Sabbath into a day of sport and money grabbing. We had reason to expect better things of Boston. The Rev. William F. Davis, lately interdicted from preaching has sung and read the Bible upon the Common against which he says there is no law. The authorities claim that no permits were granted because none was requested and that $800 damages has been done the Common by these meetings. Or which is the same thing that Common is damaged more by religion than by other sorts of gatherings upon it. This theory will not be accepted with any great degree of expedition or unanimity by Christian people. It looks like the old plan of wicked men banding themselves together to do evil, and to set at nought the counsels of the Almighty. But He that sitteth in the Heavens shall laugh at them, and the Lord shall have them in derision.

Books From Our Own Book Concern.

Delivered From Far, Or Hopes realized in Dakota, by Ralph Roberts, New York: Philips & Hunt; Cincinnati Cranston & Stowe; 12 mo., cloth and gold gilt, 20 chapters in 421 pages. Price $1.50. This is just the thing for boys who have an in sight to our American ways of doing things in the far west. It is a pleasing story, always holding the reader close to practical Christianity and gives gratitude for the aid of early guardianship. Just when needed help is found, and so it will ever be. There are many Graces and Mrs. Nobles in our world; so, too, there are many Mr. Bigmans. This tale illustrates our lightning and steam way of doing things and what comes of it. It shows that land hunting is not so good as Christ hunting; and skillfully shows how our free and easy politics may not always be the high road to safety.

Personal.

—Thomas McBeth's catalogue of plants will attract the attention of all gardeners.

—Sister Mary Jane Carmichael has presented our church at Quitman, Miss., with a fine pulpit Bible. Next.

—Miss Barnes and Prof. Newson, of Central Tennessee College, spent a few days in New Orleans, visiting the Exposition.

—Dr. T. A. Walker, delivered the annual address at Leland. He graduated in medicine from Meharry Methodist Episcopal College class of '85.

—Among the deaths of the past week are J. S. Rivers, the stationer; and Wm. Hartwell, of Hartwell & Chambers.

—Prof. J. C. Hazeley has our thanks for a copy of the Methodist Herald and West African Educational Times, published at Freetown, Sierra Leone.

—Thanks to Rev. S. G. Griffin and family for polite invitation to abide with them in Baltimore. We shall do so before the summer is ended, we hope.

—Miss Lizzie Payne has just closed her school of five months, near her home in Jackson, Tenn., she sung quite acceptably at the closing of Lane Institute.

—There are various rumors as to whether Gen. Butler is or is not to write a book, but at any rate he is to appear in literature in the July Harper's upon a subject on which he is authority, that of yachting.

—Mr. A. G. Brown, in Richmond Christian Advocate, objects to the use of classic Greek in the discussion of Baptism. The classic Greeks knowing nothing of the rite, or the Christian signification of the word.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Tracy, wife of T. G. Tracy, Esq., died a few days ago. She was a most excellent lady, and well known to pastors and members of Ames M. E. Church. She had suffered from ill health for years before her death. Our sympathy is extended to Mr. Tracy.

—Rev. J. L. Pratt with the aid of this editor expects to dedicate a new church in August in Starkville, Miss. That charge has recently been blessed with a revival which resulted in 50 conversions in three weeks, three of which were on the night it closed.

—The minister, Rev. A. Southgate, and members of our church at Elemingsburg, Ky., presented Rev. H. W. White, their presiding elder, a splendid family Bible, which was handed to him in the District Conference after a pleasant address by this editor.

—Someone gives the prescription of a remedy that effectually cured the celebrated Vine Hall, who was at one time a notorious drunkard, "Water, one pint; sulphate of iron, five grains; spirits of turpentine, one drachm. Take a wineglassful at each dose, as often as the liquor craving comes on."

—Rev. C. Young of Marlin circuit, Texas, has as we are just informed, lately lost his wife. She was a lady of excellence, well fitted to her high station, that of counsellor and helpmeet for a minister of the Lord Jesus. Bro. Young has the heartfelt sympathy of all his brethren.

—Rev. S. G. Griffin, wife and children, are well and pleasantly located in their new charge at Baltimore. It is an old and well known church with a thousand members. Able to do anything it wishes to, the pastor is able to lead it into the grandest lines of work. Listen for news from Asbury. 190 additions since March 10th.

—"Oeles" or Rev. Chas. L. Smith, of the Pittsburg Advocate, writes a charming letter as well as makes a good editor. His seat is setling firmly under him for years in the future. Among the friends who will remember with love as they become more and more acquainted with the scope and breadth of his manliness are the Negroes.

—Andre J. Dumont, of mixed parentage, and long noted in connection with Louisiana politics, committed suicide by inserting a revolver in the mouth and firing upward. Business and other troubles caused the act of self destruction. He was a Lieutenant in the French army during the ill starred reign of Maximilian, later engaged in business, but afterward returned to Algiers, suburb of New Orleans and the place of his nativity. On the police force, a recorder, State assessor, State Senator and Naval Officer he served with distinction. He was president of the Republican State Executive Committee from 1876 to the day of his death, and the ablest colored man in State politics. He lost recently near $6.000 by fire, was removed from office by the President, made a trip to Central America, but failed to find a business opening, and he frequently told his friends he would destroy himself.

—The Rev. M J. Cramer, D. D., United States Minister at Berne, Switzerland, has just been called to the Chair of Systematic Theology in Boston University. Dr. Cramer, like Dr. Philip Schaff of New York, illustrated the advantage of a German parentage and an American education in combination. He is as familiar with the German language and literature as with the English, and is hardly less so with the French, Italian and Danish. In Hebrew, Greek and Latin he is also thoroughly grounded. He is a graduate of the Ohio Wesleyan University, and was for several years a student in the University of Leipsic. His English and German contributions to the periodical press relate to almost every department of theology, philosophy, literature and art. If collected they would fill several large volumes. At the beginning of the civil war he left the pastoral work to become chaplain of the regiment in which his brother, who afterwards fell in the taking of Vicksburg, had enlisted. After the war, owing to impaired health, he accepted proffered positions in the consular and diplomatic service of the country, but without renouncing his devotions to professional studies. The past four years, under the appointment of President Garfield, he has served as United States Minister to Switzerland. The four years previous, under the commission of President Hayes, he had the honor of filling the same office at the Court of Denmark. His wife, a sister of Gen. Grant, is said to be a most accomplished lady, every way worthy of her distinguished husband. As the same University which now calls into her service the returning representative of the nation has just had one of her regular lecturers selected and sent to England as minister at the Court of St. James, the somewhat singular transposition or interchange is a happy illustration of the serene superiority of the republic of letters to all the revolutions of the political world.

Church Polity.

"It is to be considered a mark of good administrative ability and aptness to teach and elevate the people, (colored especially,) for a presiding elder to refuse to call the district stewards to meet and discharge their duties, and simply request the steward at each charge to agree with the presiding elder as to what his salary shall be?"

SUBSCRIBER.

Answer—You do not in this case ask us for law but only our opinion. Such we give you. It is our opinion that should any presiding elder do as you say, he would thereby prove himself disqualified for the high performance of the important duties assigned him at a vital point. Further such action if taken by any steward would go to show that such steward lacked one of the most important qualities for his office, that of "knowing the Methodist Discipline." Were our pastor under such circumstances we should esteem it our duty to ask the Quarterly conference to take cognizance of such deficiency in any steward. The apportionment of presiding elder's salary must be made to each charge by all the stewards. The presiding elder must call, meet with and advise them when doing this. It becomes also the duty of a pastor to use his best influence to secure a liberal estimate and prompt payment of it. It does not enter into the question of likes or dislikes. After a presiding elder is once appointed he is a fixture until the appointing power changes him or the law limit does it. The peace and prosperity of the churches on his district therefore demand that he receive every possible courtesy and assistance from his brethren, provided nothing in his life and habits is known to be immoral or vicious.

Schools and Colleges.

Record of the Alumni of the Meharry Medical Department at Nashville, Tenn.

CLASS OF 1877.

Dr. J. M. Jamison, our first graduate, practiced several years in Nashville, Tenn., and then removed to Topeka, Kansas, where he now resides. We hear that he is prospering, and has a good practice, a considerable amount of which is among the white people of that city.

CLASS OF 1878.

Dr. Lorenzo Dow Key has practiced medicine at Mason, Tenn., most of the time since his graduation. He remained at his post when others fled from the yellow fever when it visited Memphis and Western Tenn., in 1879. He is married and has one child.

Dr. John C. Halfacre, has been one of our most successful practitioners. He lives at Columbia, Tenn., where he owns a nice home, and has by his upright and manly conduct secured the respect and esteem of all classes.

Dr. J. S. Bass, during the prevalence of the yellow fever at Chattanooga, Tenn., in 1879, volunteered to go to that plague smitten city, and assist in taking care of those who were suffering with that dreaded disease. He was remarkably successful in his treatment, and remained faithful to his self imposed duty, until the fever abated, and on his return to his home at Murfreesboro, he was tendered a public reception by the white citizens of that place. He has a wife and child and owns a good home.

CLASS OF 1879.

Rev. J, P. Andrews, M. D., is a local preacher of the M. E. Church, and was lay delegate to the last General Conference. He is practicing at Chattanooga, and has a wife and child.

Dr. G. M. Anderson has been practicing medicine in Arkansas; is now located at Memphis, Tenn. We hear that he is doin well.

Dr. Joseph H. Ballard had an extensive practice for some years at Jeffersonville, Ind. He now has charge of a postal car running from Indianapolis, Ind., to Columbus, Ohio. He expects to resume the practice of medicine next Spring, either in Indiana or Kansas.

Rev. W. H. T. Jones, M. D., is pastor of a Baptist Church in St. Louis, Mo., and has also a large and lucrative practice.

Dr. J. F. McKinley, after his graduation here attended the Medical Department of Michigan University; and was afterward Demonstrator of Anatomy and Prof. of Physiology in his Alma Mater. He is now one of the prominent physicians of Austin, Texas.

Dr. H. T. Noel is our present Demonstrator of Anatomy and resides in this city. We think but few if any of our graduates have met with better success, or have a larger professional income. He has a wife and one child, and is highly respected.

Dr. B. E. Scruggs resides at Huntsville, Ala., where he first commenced practicing. He went before the Board of Public Examiners, and after a long and severe examination he was granted a license, while the same Board refused to grant a license to a graduate of a celebrated white Medical College, who failed in his examination.

Dr. Jas. E. White has been teaching and practicing in West Tennessee.

CLASS OF 1880.

Br. Wm. B. Denny is a local preacher in the M. E. Church, and in addition to his professional duties has charge of a circuit. He resides in Nashville, and has a wife and one child.

Dr. Wm. A. Hadley has taught school and practiced medicine in the vicinity of Nashville. For six years he was a magistrate of the 13th District of Davidson county. He is now Supreme Master of the Independent Order of Immaculates. and editor and manager of the "Immaculate Banner:"

Dr. E. B. Ramsey, since his gradnation, has practiced in Kansas, Georgia and Texas. He is now located in Houston, Texas, and is succeeding finely.

Rev. C. S. Smith, M. D., is Sunday School Secetary of the A. M. E. Church, and is one of the leading preachers and writers in that Church. He resides in Peoria, Illinois.

Dr. J. H. Wilkins has a flourishing practice at Galveston, Texas, he has a wife and three fine boys.

After graduating, Dr. G. W. McKinney went to Kansas, where he taught school and practiced medine. He afterward returned to Tennessee, joined the A. M. E Conference, and was stationed at McMinnville; after remaining there for the time appointed, he moved to Chattanooga and practiced medicine in that city. He died at his mother's home in Mississippi, July 23rd, 1884.

Dr. H. A. Napier both before and after his graduation, was teaching in one of the public schools in St. Louis, Mo., and also practiced medicine in that city. In 1882 he was appointed principal of the Colored public school in East Nashville. In February, 1883, he was thrown from his buggy and received such serious injuries that he died in a few days. He was a rising man of more than ordinary ability, and one of the best anatomists that has ever attended our school.

Dr. John B. McClellan has been teaching school, and practicing medicine at Murfresboro, Tenn.

CLASS OF 1881.

Dr. Q. B. Neal is successfully following his chosen profession, and is surely and steadily gaining a reputation as a good physician in Austin, Texas, where he has been nearly ever since he gradnated.

Dr. Thomas L. Upshaw practiced and taught school in Arkansas, and then went to Washington, D. C, and graduated in the Medical Deparsment of Howard University, in 1883. He is now clerk in the Pension office at Washington.

Dr. James H. Patton died at his brother's house at Nolensville, Tenn., a few weeks after gradnating. His consistent Christian life, and faithfulness as a student will long be remembered by his teachers and associates. His influence for good lives after him.

CLASS OF 1882.

Dr. James E. Asbury, commenced practicing medicine at Atlanta, Ga., immediately after gradnating; is still there, and is being quite successful.

Dr. W. H. Ballard, is riding over the hills and through the valleys of White Co., Tenn,, with his saddle bags; and has been teaching the "young ideas how to shoot." He is a faithful worker in the Temperance and Sunday-school cause.

Dr. A. G. Banks, is teaching and practicing in Louisiana. We hear that he is doing good work.

Dr. J. J. Durham. A. B., is State Missionary for the Baptist Church in South Carolina. He is regarded as one of the rising young men in his denomination.

Dr. W. J. Gunn, has been favored with universal success in his practice at Tallahassee, Fla. He is respected by both the colored and white people of the city in which he resides.

Dr. R. T. Boyd, since gradnation has taught school and practiced medicine in turn. He is Prof. of Physiology in this College. For several months past he has been traveling and lecturing in Arkansas and Texas, in the interest of his Alma Mater. The public speaks highly of his addresses, and we expect that many young men will, through his effort, be attracted to our school.

Dr. Charles H. Phillips, A. M., is Principal of Lane Institute, located at Jackson, Tenn., and under the care of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church of America.

Dr. John C. Walker, is practicing at Memphis, Tenn.

CLASS OF 1883.

Dr. Lee Roy Fern has been teaching school and practicing medicine near Huntsville, Alabama.

Dr. Z. W. McMorris, is residing at his old home in North Carolina, and is well patronized by the people there, who no doubt have recognized his worth.

Dr. I. E. Mullon, A. B,. has been teaching and practicing at Summit, Mississippi. If his life is spared he will make his mark in his profetsion.

Dr. R. F. Robey has been attending the lectures and enjoying the clinical advantages of the College of Physicians and Surgeons at Chicago, Illinois, and intends gradnating the present session. We expect to hear of his brilliant success in the Lone Star State where he thinks of locating.

Rev. C. K. Wright, resides at Savannah, Ga., and is faithfully doing what we all ought to do, "preaching and practicing."

CLASS OF 1884.

Drs. Middleton and Townsend, who entered upon the practice of medicine as partners, write us from Oakland, Texas: "We are doing nicely, having a practice which, in Summer especially, monopolizes all our time." The last named gentleman thinks of soon having a better half with whom to consult when cases become critical.

Dr. Vaudavell has hung out his shingle at Waco, Texas, informing the people that Meharry has endowed him with sufficient skill to treat their diseases, and from what we hear, they are trnstiug him not in vain.

Dr. Burchett is proving himself equal to the emergencies of his profession in his practice in Memphis, Tenn. We apprehend no failure so long as he abides by the teachings of his Alma Mater.

Dr. Starnes of Victoria, Texas, writes: "I have nothing of which to complain save my constant going." Never murmur, Doctor, as long as you are physically able to go.

Drs. Pratt and Thompson, we learn, have chosen for their field of labor a section of the rural districts of southwestern Ga. They write us from Perry to the effect that their practice is exceptionally good. They particularly allude to the professional deference shown them by their brothers of a brighter hue. We are not surprise at that, for the "mind is the measnre of man."

Dr. B. F. Reed went to New Albany, immediately after graduation to teach school and practice. He was there only a few weeks, when he was taken sick, and after a short illness, died April 13, 1884. He left many friends to mourn his sudden death.

CLASS OF 1885.

Dr. S. W. Anderson, is located at Nashville, where he is getting a liberal practice. He will take a post course in his Alma Mater.

Dr. John B. Banks, has located at Summit, Mississippi. He is enjoying an increasing practice.

Dr. Henry I. Berry, has charge of the Christian Church in Memphis, Tenn. He reports that his practice is growing.

Dr. Sterling P. Brown, is located in New Orleans, La.

Dr. George A. Henderson, is teaching and practicing at Nashville, Tenn.

Dr. Amos S. Jerry, has located at his home in Lake City, Fla.

Dr. Henry M. Sempkins, has hung ont his shingle at Macon, Ga.

Dr. Thaddeus A. Walker, is at his home in New Orleans, La.

The Public Schools of Jackson, La.

WILLIAM DAVIS.

The Public Schools closed here May 12. They had an exhibition at night. The children did well. Mrs Prior, Principal, and Mrs. White Assistant teacher, deserve much credit for the progress the children have made during the term of four months. Mr. Narsworthy the President of the School Board has been taking great interest in trying to keep the scholars in a first class condition.

A fine programme with tickets and compliments of Straight University lies before us. Their Annual Exhibition and concert was given May 28th, at Central church. The kind invitation to partcipate had not then reached us. But we are pleased to learn that as usual their entertainment was of a high order of excellence entirely satisfactory, well attended and successful. It could not be otherwise with so earnest and devoted a director as we judge President Hitchcock to be.

The Lepers of India.

Rev. C. W. DeSouza, of the South India conference, and stationed at at Roorki, has sent to Dr. Reid a photograph of a company of lepers. These unfortunate outcasts of society, excluded from parents and kindred and forbidden to ask alms within the precincts of the populous city of Roorki, are congregated in a collection of mud huts built by themselves in a distant suburb, and are dependent solely upon those who may seek them out in their wretched exile. Many of them are absolutely helpless, all are incurably stricken with the fell disease, while some are literally dissolving away in a living death. The Missionary Society of the Methodist Church in Roorki ministers relief to this wretched company both temporally and spiritually, and it is most cheering to notice the eagerness with which these ministrations are received. Mr. DeSouza says, "If we had more means we could do both more efficiently, and we entreat help on behalf of this most promising mission from all who compassionate the wretched and needy." Any one who has seen these outcasts as they beg by the roadside in India will not question the statement that no more horrible sight greets the eye in that land. This photograph presents only too perfectly the sadly disfigured faces and wasted forms of these victims of disease. A new realization of the sinfulness of sin comes to the mind of one who for the first time sees the effect of this disease, so like in its action upon the body to the corrosion of sin in the soul. Since 1851 an asylum for lepers has been under the care of the London mission in Almora, Kumaon. For some reason, in this hill province the number of lepers seems proportionably greater than on the plains, probably owing to the fact that these people are less cleanly than those of the plains. In a recent report it was stated that this asylum furnishes accommodations for 120 lepers. For many years religious services have been regularly conducted, and upwards of 180 of the inmates have received baptism. The asylum is supported from the proceeds of a small endowment largely supplemented by benevolent contributions. The only relief to the sombre picture presented to a visitor to this place is the fact, so evident, that the poor creatures inside of its walls are as comfortable as they can be made, while those without know nothing of the cleansing of either body or soul.

It is better to make a high profession with a fixed aim to live up to it, than to make a low profession with a perfect willingness to live down to it.

Books and Current Literature

Few things are more fascinating in their way, than a study of the subterranean history of man, whether in caves or in mounds, whether it be to corroborate written history or to take testimony that ante-dates all writing. President Bartlett, of Dartmouth, contributes an interesting article on this topic to the July number of the North American Review. From the men of unknown ages and their works underground, to men grappling with the latest questions of our own day and discussing the parceling out of the earth's surface, is a long step; but in the same number of the Review appears a conversation between David Dudley Field and Henry George, on land and taxation. Another urgent question, which may soon make a very serious issue, the extradition of dynamite criminals, is debated by President Angell, of Michigan University, George Ticknor Curtis, and Justice T. M. Cooley. Dorman B. Eaton, chief the civil service commission, gives his views of the results of that reform. William Clarke, shows the futile character of any scheme for British imperial federation, and Thomas W. Knox gives a brief but interesting sketch of the progress of European influence in Asia. The other articles are one by Rev. Dr. C. H. Parkhurst on the decline of Christianity. These, with the batch of free-hand comments, make up a number of unusual interest. If the allotted age of man were sufficient for a magazine, we might have to part here with an old friend; for the Review has just completed its seventieth year. But outwardly it renews its youth with a new cover, and inwardly it seems more vigorous than ever.

The March number of The Pulpit of To Day, although somewhat late in appearing, is fully equal in excellence to its predecessors. The leading sermons are by Dr. Parker, Archibald G. Brown, Henry Ward Beecher, and the author of "The Recreation of a Country Parson." Arthur Mursell has a lecture on "The Children," which is characteristically a fine piece of wood painting. Sermonic outlines are by Drs. Gervase Smith, Llandels, Maclaren Stalker, and Mark Guy Pearse. The Prayer Meeting Talk is by Wm. F. Faber. To ministers, $1.00 a year. Single number, 15 cts. A. E. Rose, Westfield. N. Y.

In the frontispiece of the July Wide Awake, "The Wonder Story," George Foster Barnes gives the children one of his most charming drawings. On the opposite page John Boyle O'Reilly, the editor of the Pilot, contributes a worth-while poem, "A Builder's Lesson," with a dainty illustration by Hassam. A long and exciting boy's story follows, "Marcus Aurelius." by Octave Thanet, with some especially good pictures by Hassam. Another story of heroic action, is from Mrs. Jessie Benton Fremont, an incident of her own childhood, and entitled "The Big English Bull" A Southern writer contributes a short story for the little ones, called "Perita Jane." The "papers" of the numbers are highly interestng. Wide Awake is $3 00 a year. D. Lothrop & Co.' Publishers, Boston.

Cleveland and His Cabinet, is a handsome picture, suitable for framing. It is clear and bold; those who ought to know say it is true to life. It certainly is a fine piece of workmanship.

Concerning Printed Poison, by Josiah W. Leeds. Philadelphia, 528 Walnut street. Published for the author, 1885. Square 16mo., pp. 42. Price (mailed), 8 cents.

Under the new arrangement whereby The Century is issued in this country on the first of the month and copyrighted here, copyright protection is also secured in Great Britain by issue there a day or two in advance,—a great advantage to contributors, since their articles are now protected in both countries. Arrangements are now in progress whereby St. Nicholas will also be issued in London in advance of its publication here, so as to secure English copyright protection.

Specimen copies of a semi-monthly called the "Library of the Fathers of the Church," contains the confession of St. Augustine, revised from a former translation by Rev. E. B. Rusey, D. D., is an interesting pamphlet.

St. Nicolas for the current month has it full measure of fun and frolic for the boys and girls.

Mr. Henry Gannett in "The June Popular Science Monthly" meets what he understands to be the arguments of Messrs. Gilliam and Tourge by an argument against the alleged more rapid increase of blacks than whites in the South. He thinks that it was the losses of the whites by the war which made it appear the increase of negroes was more rapid, these losses, he says, are being rapidly repaired, and that the real question now becomes how to preserve the negro race, rather than how to prevent its increase.

Negro Education.—Its helps and its hindrances. By Prof. W. H. Crogman, U. D. of Clark University. Great interest is felt in both the speaker and the subject; therefore we bespeak for this little 12 page pamplet a large audience.

In the Southwest.

Rev. Edward Wills, founder and pastor of the University street Baptist church, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I strongly recommend Parker's Tonic to my brother ministers and others. Two bottles completely relieve me in the case of a badly disordered liver, and general debility. It is splendid for nervous prostration.

The General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church met at Houston, Texas, May 21. Their work among the Negro has not been as extensive heretofore as we hope it is to be hereafter.

[From the "Christian Intelligencer," N.Y.]

Pure air in dwellings, and especially in sleeping rooms, is at all times essential to health, but especially in seasons of epidemics. Darby's Prophylactic Fluid is an article which we can with confidence recommend. It is not a patent medicine, but a combination of Chlorine (oxunized) and the Permanganic Acid. Prof. Darby, who has a high reputation both as an author and a man of science, affirms that it is the most powerful disinfectant as well as deodorizer known. Every family should at once procure a bottle of it and use it as a safeguard against all infectious diseases.

Mr. Moody has associated with him in his evangelistic labors Mr. D. B. Towner, late chorister of Union Chapel, Covington, Ky. The engagement is for five years.

We call attention to the advertisement in another column of Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va. The Academic Departments, as well as the professional schools of Law and Engineering, open Sept. 17.

The Southern Christian Advocate, thinks it probable that instead of John Smith and wife the new style is apt to be Mrs. Smith, and John.

To keep the doors open, the oil glands and tubes active, and thus furnish an outlet for impurities in the perspiration and blood which cause humiliating blotches, blackheads, and minor skin blemishes; to cleanse, whiten, and beautify the skin; remove tan, freckles sunburn, and oily matter; to keep the hands soft, white, and free from chaps and roughness, prevent contagious skin and scalp diseases, and provide an exquisite skin beautifier and toilet, bath, and nursery sanative, redolent with delicious flower odors and Cuticura healing balsams, is the special duty of the Cuticura Soap. Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great Skin Cures and Beautifiers, and Cuticura Resolvent, the new Blood Purifier, cure every form of Skin and Blood Diseases from Pimples to Scrofula. Sold everywhere. Price. Cuticura, 50c.; Soap, 25.; Resolvent $1 00. Potter Drug and Chemical Co., Boston.

Plantation Melodies
—AND—
REVIVAL HYMNS.

By MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D.

WITH AN INTRODUCTION
By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.

Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.

Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and portrait. Sent, post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents.
Address, PHILLIPS & HUNT
32 Natchez street, New Orleans

Skin Diseases.—"Swayne's Ointment," "Swayne's Ointment" cures Tetter, salt Rheum, Ringworm, Sores, Pimples, Eczema, all Itchy Skin Eruptions, no matter how obstinate or long standing.
nov13-1yeow

J. T. Newman, M. D.,
—PRACTICING—
Surgeon and Physician,
315 Felicity Street,
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
☞ Makes a specialty of treating colored people. jan15-1y

Bibles at 1-2 and Old Testaments at less than 1-3 the prices of the English editions, and equal to the English in type, paper, printing and accuracy. First agent sent out reports an order at every call for two weeks. Rare chance for agents to make money. Send $1.00 for outfit. TERMS VERY LIBERAL. The Henry Bill Pub. Co., Norwich, Conn.
may14-tf

Cures all Diseases of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder, and Urinary Organs, Dropsy, Gravel, Diabetes, Bright's Disease, Pains in the Back, Loins or Side, Nervous Diseases.

TONIC AND BITTER.
It is Unequaled in Results and Permanent in its Cure.

LIVING TESTIMONY.

Blacksmith.

Having had occasion to use a remedy for kidney troubles I purchased a bottle of HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY, and it completely cured me—have no indigestion, and am hearty and healthy for one of my years (65)."—S. F. Woodbury, Blacksmith, Manchester, N. H.

"Small beginnings lead to large endings."
Carpenter.

"I was troubled with a weakness of the Kidneys I had to pass my water as many as fifteen times during the night. After having used the second bottle of HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY I found that all my trouble was gone." Joseph O. Miller, Carpenter, Xenia, Ohio.

"Be a friend to yourself, and others will."
Fireman.

"I have been a severe sufferer with a weakness of the kidneys, and I took a severe cold while on duty with the fire department. I had terrible pains in my back, and my water troubled me. HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY completely cured me."—H. A. Glass, Columbus, Ohio.

A Sailor

Captain John Kimball, Sailor, New London, Conn., writes:—"I was taken with severe pains in the small of my back in the region of the kidneys. I had the best medical attendance without experiencing any relief. I bought and used a bottle of HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY. Four bottles entirely cured me."

Sold by all druggists. Price $1.25
HUNT'S REMEDY CO., Providence, R. I.
C. N. CRITTENDEN, General Agent, New York.

EDUCATIONAL.

COLLEGE OF
Physicans and Surgeons,
BALTIMORE, MD.

This school offers to Medical students unsurpassed clinical and other advatages. Send for catalogue to
Dr. THOS. OPIE, Dean,
jy8.1m 179 N. Howard Street.

Medical Department of the Tulane University
OF LOUISIANA.

Formerly, 1847-1884, University of Louisiana.

Possesses no rivaled advantages for practical instruction, since the law secures it superabundant materials from the great Charity Hospital with its 700 beds, 8000 sick admitted and 10 000 visiting patients annually. Students are freely admitted to and are taught at the bedside of the sick, as in no other institution. For Circular or additional information, address
S. E CHAILLE, Dean.
P. O. Drawer 261, New Orleans, La.
jy8-1m

Washington and Lee
UNIVERSITY,
LEXINGTON, VA.

Instructions in the usual academic studies and in the professional schools of Law and Engineering. Location healthful; expenses moderate. Session opens Sept. 17. For catalogue, address "Clerk of the Faculty." G. W. C. LEE, President.
jy8-2m

Law School
OF
WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY.
Gen. G. W. C. LEE, President.

Instruction by text books and printed lectures, with courses of lectures on special subjects by eminent jurists. Tuition and fees $80 for session of nine months, beginning Sept. 17. For catalogue and full informa ion address Chas. A. Graves, Prof. of Law, Lexington, Va. jy8-2m

Statue of "Liberty Enlightening the World."

The Committee in charge of the construction of the base and pedestal for the reception of this great work, in order to raise funds for its completion, have prepared a minature Statue six inches in height—the statue bronzed; pedestal nickel-silvered—which they are now delivering to subscribers throughout the United States at One Dollar Each.

This attractive souvenir and Mantel or Desk ornament is a perfect fac simile of the model furnished by the artist.

The statuette in same metal, twelve inches high, at Five Dollars Each, delivered.

The designs of Statue and Pedestal are protected by U. S Patents, and the models can only be furnished by this Committee. Address, with remittance.
RICHARD BUTLER, Sec'y.
American Committee of the Statue of Liberty.
33 Mercer street, New York.

1855. THE NATIONAL NORMAL. 1885.
UNIVERSITY
Over 20 dp'ts maintained. Tuition Reduced to $2.50 to $5 per week. Over 2,500 students annually. Legal Diplomas conferred. Over 5,000 Teachers and Bookkeepers trained here have been helped to good situations. Any young Man or Woman can prepare here any study with Less expense of Time and Money than at any other Institution in the U.S. Catalogue and full information free. Address Prest. ALEX. HOLBROOK, Lebanon, Warren Co., Ohio.
july8-4teow

I give God the gory 'tis our Zion's brightest morn!
hath wrought our wonders in the century that's gone;
greater things we look for in the hundred years to come;
Our Church is marching on!

CHORUS:

Glory, glory, hallelujah! Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah! Our Church is marching on.

Children's Day, our Sunday-schools from hills and valleys pour, songs and prayers gen'rous gifts, our Father to adore;
mighty host,—a million and nine hundred thousand more,—
The young are marching on!

Chorus—Glory, etc. The young are marching on!

his help against the mighty let us loyally advance!
foes shall melt before him in his terrible swift glance;
will keep what he hath conquered with a sleepless vigilance;
Our cause is marching on!

Chorus—Glory, etc. Our cause is marching on!

Christ and education we would high our banners raise,
speed that promised era, when the world our King obeys;
earth's dark habitations are with knowledge all ablaze!
The truth is marching on!

Glory, etc. The truth is marching on!

Domestic Hygiene.

Health Extracts From the Journals.

GEO. L. CURTISS, M. D.

Heredity of Cancer.—The British Medical Journal of recent date gives the following history of heredity. A man aged 57, consulted a doctor, suffering from cancer of the stomach. The hard nodules were readily felt on examination of the abdomen. His mother died of cancer of the stomach; his only sister died of cancer, though he did not know of what part; two uncles died of cancer in the stomach.

The people must be educated to a higher standard of sanitary reform. A better knowledge of hygiene must penetrate their minds. The heads of families must know the deleterious effects of bad air, bad water, bad food, bad medicines, the evils of bad habits, the importance of moderation in all things; they must be taught principles involving ventilation, sewerage, drainage, pollution and many others."—Monitor.]

What should be done with insane criminals? This is the question of the moment. Many, who have been guilty of outrageous crimes, have been cleared on the plea of insanity. While an insane man is not morally responsible for his acts, it is right that he should be restrained from liberty to become a terror to society, and probably repeat his crime. It is undoubtedly true that some persons are periodically insane, the attacks not always of equal intensity. Under such periodical attacks a crime is committed. Medical experts testify to his insanity. Shall he be set at liberty? Common sense says no, but practice says "yes." The New Orleans Courier of Medicine says: "Notwithstanding the fact that the obligation of the prevention of crime is one of the highest duties of society and of others from the commission of crime than the reformation of the convict, society is in need of protection from those who commit homicide or other crimes under the influence of insane impulses as well as those committing the crimes when not insane. If a criminal found insane should be sent to an insane prison for a time corresponding to the term which conviction of the crime would have sent him to the penitentiary."

The use of fictitious insanity to deceive medical experts and juries, because large fees are always given to the experts when the man charged with crime is adjudged upon the plea of insanity, is responsible for the opinion that insanity is to be feigned by any criminal who would have been confined, if he had made no plea of mental disease, and had been found guilty; and as much longer as skilled and properly appointed alienists shall deem necessary."

Hygiene in Relation to the Private Family.—An article in the Sanitary Monitor on this subject says: "Law regulates our being, presides at our birth, developes our bodies, carries them out to maturity and decline. These processes are as natural as the heaving bodies in their appointed courses and would move with the same uniformity did no perturbating agents come in conflict with them. It is a fact, however, that such agents do exist, and that their existence is as yet unavoidable. It is a further fact that we are responsible for them to a larger extent than we are willing to admit. Many are chargeable to ignorance and reckelessness. It is ignorance that makes the child regardless of the path; that makes him fall into the ditch; that makes him reckless of wet feet and wet clothes while sitting in the school room. It is criminal indifference on the part of the instructor not to give his attention to these early lessons—lessons generally impressed on the child by sad experience."

"Many grown persons are not much in advance of children. Can it be supposed that any young lady would lace herself into the shape of a wasp—a deformity rather than a mark of beauty—did she appreciate the absolute necessity to health of an untrammelled heart, an uncompressed liver, and the free and unbiassed expansion of the lungs? Is is not at the bidding of an iguorant vanity that she defies the weather in short sleeves, low neck dress and slipper shoes? I have illustrations of this sort in my own personal experience and observation, resulting in rheumatism, bronchitis, pneumonia, consumption and death.

"Health in the home is health everywhere."

Office Pain.—"Neuralgia has been termed very properly the prayer of the nerve for nutriment. The pain of gout may be termed the groan of an over-burdened lion. Alcoholism, dyspepsia, gout, as well as Bright's disease, are the logical sequences of either our habits or those of our ancestors, and may therefore be classed as preventable and subject to the laws of sanitary reform; but reform within our own doors, at our own tables and sideboards."

A New Way to Pay Old Debts.

Shakespeare tells how this can be accomplished in one of his immortal plays; but the debts to nature must be paid on demand unless days of grace be obtained through the use of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery." It is not a "one-all" but invaluable for sore throat, bronchitis, asthma, catarrh, consumption, and all diseases of the pulmonary and other organs, scrofula or "bad blood." Scrofulous ulcers, swellings and tumors are cured by its wonderful alterative action. By druggists.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my father. He went to Memphis in 1862; the last time I heard from him he was in Louisiana. I was quite a boy when he left. Mrs. Eva Malone told me she saw him in Louisiana in January 1870; he sent sister a ring by Mrs. Malone. I hoped he would have written to me before now. His wife is named Patsy; he had three sons and a daughter. I would be glad to find him. Address any information to Moses Weatherly, Holly Spring, Marshall county, Miss. We used to go by the name of Sneeds, but changed our name to Weatherly.

I wish to find my people. Anna Roberts is my mother; father was named Harry Warf; grandfather, Ned Warf; brother, James Robert. Address Harriet Atkison, Newcastle, Henry county, Indiana. I lived in Clinton, North Carolina.

I have seven brothers and one sister. I left them in Granville county, North Carolina in 1839. We all belonged to a lawyer named Abraham Venable. Mother was named Pinkey and father Joshua. My brothers were Monroe, Addison, William, Dock, Alexander and David Russell, and sister was named Julia Smiley; she was named after a northern school teacher. I married Agnes Channellton, at Mr. K. D. Channellton's, in 1837. Our first child was named Pinkey. Then we moved from Randolph to Cheatham co., North Carolina. Our young mistress married Jackson Gilmore ond carried us there. My sons are named William Monroe, Razamus Ogiby and Alvis Cross. We were then sold to a speculator. My wife and I left our children in Moore county, North Carolina, and went back to Randolph county in 1844, and lived with a man named Billy Lamfens. There was born of us sons named Josiah Greenberry and Dockery Clark; one daughter named Julia Ann Phancillar; another son, named Postilla, who died. We were sold again to a speculator by the name of Spruce McCurry, in Lexington, Davidson county, North Carolina. When the old white people died the estate divided and Greenbury, my son, fell to Mr. Aroy Lawfens, who sold him to Mr. Jerry Addison, a speculator, a partner of McCurry; there was partner with McCurry and Addison, named Add March; these men carried off my son Greenbury and sold him in Memphis, Tenn. The last I heard of him he was in the army and was discharged. My name was Alfred Venable when I lived in Granville county, North Carolina. I now go by the name Alfred Yancey. Pastors will please read this to their congregations. Address Alfred Yancy, Yazoo City, Miss., or Rev. C. L. Crump, Benton, Miss.

MS. EDITOR—In your issue of June 18, 1885, you made an error in your notice of inquiry for the whereabouts of Dr. Kelly, who carried my wife's son Willie Davidson with him. You print Dr. Kelly's name as Dr. Riley, please correct the statement so that perhaps we can hear from the boy and much oblige a constant and close reader.

T. C. MORGAN.

West Point, Miss.

Angusta Nation who resides in Industry, Texas, desires to hear of her children. Her master was James Henry Nation, her children were Henry and Caroline Nation, born in Gonzales, Mississippi. Any information may be addressed to Rev. H. C. Hotmann, pastor Third German Methodist Episcopal Church, 673 North Rampart street, New Orleans.

Nervousness.

The moment there is danger of impairment of the mind from excessive nervous exhaustion, or where there exists forebodings of evil, a desire for solitude, shunning and avoiding company, vertigo and nervous debility, or when insanity has already taken place, PERUNA and MANALIN should be implicitly relied on. But it is never well to wait so long before treatment is commenced. The early symptoms are loss of strength, softness of the muscles, dim or weak sight, peculiar expression of the face and eyes, coated tongue, with impaired digestion; or in others, certain powers only are lost while they are otherwise enjoying comparatively good health. In all these PERUNA and MANALIN should at once be taken.

Mrs. S. Smith, Hillsville, Lawrence County, Pa., writes: "DR. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, O.: I have been a great sufferer for ten years. It seemed as though every organ in my body was diseased at one time or another. I had about given up all hopes, when I commenced taking PERUNA and MANALIN. I immediately began to improve, the soreness and pain disappeared, strength gradually returned, and now I am as well as ever in my life, and I owe it all to your PERUNA and MANALIN. I recommended it to my friends and it gives better satisfaction than any other medicine I ever heard of."

Miss Maria Roderick, Warren, Ohio, writes: "It is with pleasure and many thanks that I write to you to tell you of the great benefit I have derived from the use of the PERUNA. I have used several bottles of your PERUNA, and can safely say it has done me a great deal of good. I have improved ever since I commenced its use."

Mr. T. J. Webber, Plymouth, O., writes: "I am selling your PERUNA, and having a good trade on it. It gives excellent satisfaction."

Mr. Thomas Acton, Brooklyn Village, Cleveland, Ohio, says: "I received a severe wound in my foot by tramping on a spike. It inflamed and was painful and swollen. I had every reason to fear lockjaw. Your simple suggestions as to local application and the taking of your PERUNA and MANALIN were followed to the letter, and, thanks to you, my foot is entirely well, and I am happy."

MALARIA

Enters the system from unknown causes, at all seasons.
Shatters the Nerves, Impairs Digestion, and Enfeebles the Muscles.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

QUALITY—PURITY—NOT QUANTITY. On Every Bottle. Trade Mark

THE BEST TONIC

Quickly and completely cures Malaria, and Chills and Fevers. For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, it has no equal. It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—all other iron medicines do.

FATHER T. J. REILLY, the patriotic and scholarly Catholic Divine, of Arkansas, says:

"I have used Brown's Iron Bitters with the greatest satisfaction for Malaria, and as a preventive of Chills and like diseases, and will always keep it on hand as a ready friend."

Genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other. Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

LADIES' HAND BOOK—useful and attractive, containing list of prizes for recipes, information about coins, etc., given away by all dealers in medicine, or mailed to any address on receipt of 2c. stamp.

Chautauqua Periodicals.

Chautauqua Assembly Daily Herald,

An eight page paper, printed on a steam power press on the Assembly grounds at Chautauqua, every morning during the meeting of 1885; 19 numbers in the volume, containing stenographic reports of more than 70 lectures on science, philosophy, religion and practical questions heald as reports of lectures meetings, debates and classroom drills. An invaluable collection.

The first number will appear Saturday, Aug. 1

Subscription price, ... $1 00
In clubs of five or more at one time . . . 90

THE CHAUTAUQUAN,

A first-class Literary Magazine. The organ of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle, containing on half of the Required Readings of the course with the special departments of Local Circles, Questions and Answers on the Books in the course, C. L. S. C. Work and Notes on the Required Readings.

A Literary Department of great merit, foreign articles from the foremost writers of the country.

Subscription price, ... $1.50
In clubs of five or more at one time . . 1.35

Vol. VI will begin with the October number.

Chautauqua Boys and Girls.

A Daily Paper for the Boys and Girls, to be issued at Chautauqua in August. Pictures of Chautauqua life. Full accounts of all children's meetings.

Subscription price 50c
In clubs of five or more, ... 40c

COMBINATION OFFER:

The Chautauquan and Assembly Daily Herald $2.25
The Chautauquan, Assembly Daily Herald and Chautauqua Boys and Girls $2 70

Address: DR. T. L. FLOOD, Editor and Proprietor.
je-25-8t Meadville, Pa

HEADQUARTERS
—FOR—
Sunday-school Supplies

Consisting of

GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with a without music.

Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, Bible Dictionaries.

Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books, Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Text Books, etc., etc. Also a large assortment of Books suitable for Libraries or presents to children. PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $2 65 to $12 00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock

W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent
94 . . . . . Camp Street, ... 94
25tf NEW ORLEANS.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9-12, 1883.

Sixty Addresses by American Educators.

Edited by REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.
8vo. 272 pp. Price, stiff paper . . 1 25
Cloth 1 75

The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:

1. Education and Man's Improvement.
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America.
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Panperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—ten tables.

It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents. The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak. The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index.

Sent postpaid on receipt of price.

Phillips & Hunt.
37 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

GRATEFUL PRAISE!

A NEW S. S. BOOK. By J. H. Fillmore. Pure in sentiment, rich in music. Sample copy, in boards 25 cents; per dozen by express, $3 60; per dozen by mail, $4. Specimen pages free.

FILLMORE BROS
No. 185 Race street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

OLD ONE HUNDRED.

MRS. TENA BURTON,
100 . . . . . Franklin Street 100

Lodging,

With or Without Board.
mar26-6m

RAILROADS.

Chesapeake & Ohio R. R.

—VIA—
WASHINGTON
—TO—
BALTIMORE,
PHILADELPHIA,
and NEW YORK.
THE ONLY LINE WITH
Pullman Sleeping Cars
—FROM—
Louisville, Cincinnati and Lexington
—TO—
WASHINGTON
WITHOUT CHANGE.

Schedule in effect October 12, 1884.

EASTWARD.	No 4 Daily.	No. 6 ex Sunday
Leave Cincinnati	8 10 p m	8 30 p m
Leave Louisville	7 15 p m	7 00 a m
Leave Lexington	10 40 p m	11 45 a m
Leave Winchester	11 15 p m	12 25 p m
One Mt. Sterling	12 08 a m	1 36 p m
Due Ashland	3 26 a m	5 55 p m
Due Huntington	4 00 a m	6 40 p m
Leave Huntington
Due Charleston	6 36 a m	10 00 p m
Due Clifton Forge	1 30 p m	6 40 a m
Due Staunton	3 57 p m	9 26 a m
Due Charlottesville	5 20 p m	11 05 a m
Due Richmond	9 15 p m	3 25 p m
Arrive Newport News	10 45 a m	6 30 p m
Due Washington	9 50 p m
Arrive New York	6 30 a m

WESTWARD.	No. 3, Daily.	No. 1, ex Sunday
Leave New York	10 00 a m	12 00 nt
Due Washington	5 10 p m	9 10 a m
Leave Newport News	3 50 p m
Leave Richmond	6 25 p m	9 35 a m
Due Charlottesville	10 00 p m	1 45 p m
Due Staunton	11 42 p m	4 57 p m
Due Clifton Forge	1 45 a m	6 40 p m
Due Charleston	9 00 a m	4 25 a m
Due Huntington
Leave Huntington	9 40 a m	6 20 a m
Due Ashland	10 19 a m	7 02 a m
Due Mt. Sterling	1 57 p m	11 05 a m
Leave Winchester	2 30 p m	11 45 a m
Arrive Lexington	3 20 p m	12 45 p m
Arrive Louisville	7 10 p m	5 20 p m
Arrive Cincinnati	6 05 p m	5 35 p m

Lexington Div. trains run by Central time. Main line trains East of Huntington run by Eastern time, which is one hour faster than Central time.

Nos. 1 and 6 run daily, except Sunday. Sleeping cars between Huntington and Clifton Forge.

Nos 3 and 4 run daily, and do not stop for local business. Pullman Sleeping cars and Solid Train between Louisville and Washington and Cincinnati and Richmond without change.

Nos. 2 and 5 run daily between Richmond and Clifton Forge. Do not run between Clifton Forge and Richmond.

No 1 leave Norfolk, except Sunday, 7 40 a m, Old Point 8 15 a m, Newport News 8 45 a m, arrive at Richmond at 11 35 a m.

No. 2 leave Richmond except Sunday, 8 20 a m, arrive Newport News 10 45 a m to Old Point 11 10 a m, Norfolk 11 45 a m.

Old Dominion Steamers leave Norfolk on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or Saturday at 6 00 p m; arrive in New York next afternoon.

For Rates Tickets, Baggage Checks apply to any office of C. & O. R'y; or Depot or Ticket office of connecting lines.

C. W. SMITH, Gen'l Manager.
H. W. FULLER, Gen'l Pass. Agt.

Ohio & Mississippi R. R

—The Direct and Fast Line to—
Cincinnati, Louisville, Washington, Baltimore, New York and the East,
(In Connection with the
"Great Jackson Route,"
Makes the following
FAST TIME:

STATIONS.	Daily
Leave New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss.	12:38 a m
Canton	1:30 a m
Durant	2:52 p m
Grenada	4:50 a m
Coffeeville	5:25 a m
Water Valley	6:00 a m
Oxford	6:43 a m
Holly Springs	7:54 a m
Grand Junction	9:15 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St L & N O	11:05 a m
Milan " " "	12:20 p m
Martin " " "	1:32 p m
Fulton " " "	2:00 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:30 p m
Carbondale "	6:58 p m
DuQuoin "	7:45 p m
Ashley "	8:28 p m
Centralia "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:26 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi	9:29 p m
" Louisville, "	6:50 a m
" Cincinnati "	7:05 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.

Passengers living on the line of the C. St. L. & N. O. R. R. will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.

The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.

2 DAILY TRAINS
FROM ODIN
To WASHINGTON in 27 Hours,
To BALTIMORE in 28 Hours.

This is 5 Hours quicker than the fastest time by any other line.

The Day Express runs entire train consisting of Day Coaches and Palace Sleeping Cars from St. Louis to Washington and Baltimore without change.

The Night Express has Sleepers through without change. No other line from St. Louis offers a Double Daily Through Train Service to the National Capital.

W. W. PEABODY,
President and General Manager.
W. B. SHATTUC,
General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio. jy31tf

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

The old reliable route to all Eastern cities. Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leaves	Arrives.
Express	8:00 a m	7:45 a m
Coast Accommodation	3:35 p m	9:10 a m
Fast Mail	8:20 p m	7:30 p m

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. O. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.

W. B. Kniskern, Ticket Agent; J. T. Harahan, General Manager; John Kilkeny, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; O. M Dunn, Superintendent N. O. and M. Division. ap8-1y

RAILROADS.

C. I. St. L. & C. Ry. 4
KANKAKEE LINE.

4 PASSENGER TRAINS each way per day between Cincinnati and Iodianapolis.

3 PASSENGER TRIANS each way per day between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Chicago.

2 PASSENGER TRIANS each way per day, between Cincinnati, Iodianapolis, Lafayette, Kankake, Seneca and Davenport, Ia.

KANKAKEE LINE.

Entire trains run through without change between Cincinnati Iodianapolis, Lafayette and Chicago. Pullman Sleepers and elegant Reclining Chair Cars on Night trains. Parlor Cars on Day Trains.

SHELDON ROUTE.

Commodious Reclining Chair Cars run through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Peoria Ills. and Keokuk, Ia. Close connection for Burlington, Ia.

KANKAKEE & SENECA ROUTE.

The ONLY LINE running Elegant coaches through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Davenport, Ia.

CONNECTIONS

At Cincinnati, in Central Union Depot, with all trains of the Cincinnati Southern Railway, (Queen & Crescent Route) thus avoiding the tedious omnibus transfer incident to all other lines.

At Indianapolis, in Union Depot, with all lines diverging.

Through Tickets and Baggage Checks to all Principal Points,

Can be obtained at any ticket office, C. I. St. L. & C. Ry., also via this line at all Coupon Ticket Offices throughout the country.

See Agents of this Company for Rates, Routes, &c., or write Grant K. Lowry, Trav Pass Agt. Wilmore Ky.
JOHN EGAN,
Gen'l Pass. and Tkt. Agent, Cincinnati, O.

BIG
J Great Jackson Route.

Illinois Central R. R. Co.

Double Daily Passenger Trains.

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Passenger No. 2 9:15 a.m.	Pass'gr No. 1 7:00 a m
No. 4 St. L. & Cin Express 6:00 p. m.	No. 3. Cnic. N O Lim. Ex. 9:00 a.m.
No. 6 Sun Ex. 7:30 a.m.	No. 5 Sun Ex. 8:20 p.m.

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.

Ticket Office: Cor. Carondelet and Canal, (Pickwick Club Building.)

WM. MURRAY,
General Southern Passenger Agent.

J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT KENNEDY, Ticket Agent.

C & O

The Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company have moved their ticket management and business rooms to No. 225 Fourth avenue.

C. O. & S. W. R. R.

THE SOUTHERN TRUNK LINE
—TO—
Louisville, Cincinnati, Washington, Baltimore,
And the Short Line to
Cairo, St. Louis, Chicago and the Northwest.
The Direct Route to
Eastern Seaboard Cities, Texas, Arkansas and the Southwest.

Chesapeake, Ohio & Southwestern R. R.

For Owensboro, Henderson, Padnoah and Memphis and all points South and Southwest. Ticket office 225 Fourth avenue; Depot, corner of Fourteenth and Main streets.

	Express Daily	Accom Daily ex Sun'y
Leave Louisville	7 50 a m	4 10 p m
Arrive at Cecelia	10 20 a m	6 45 p m
" Elizabethtown	10 10 a m	7 05 p m
" Grayson Springs	11 12 a m
" Litchfield	11 23 a m
" Central City	2 00 a m
" Owensboro	5 05 a m
" Nortonville	3 27 p m
" Hopkinsville	9 50 p m
" Madisonville	4 37 p m
" Henderson	6 10 p m
" Evansville	8 10 p m
" Tradewater	4 07 p m
" Princeton	4 47 p m
" Padnosh	7 00 p m
" Mayfield	8 27 p m
" Fulton	9 29 p m
" Cairo	10 45 p m
" Rives	10 10 p m
" Memphis	3 20 a m
" Louisville	7 00 p m	9 35 a m

Tickets now on sale at depot at lowest rates. Call on or address E. H. TALLEY, Ticket Agent Memphis, Tenn.

Or B. F. MITCHELL, Gen Pass. Agt, Louisville, Ky.

ARE YOU GOING TO
KANSAS, MISSOURI, COLORADO, CALIFORNIA OR ANY OF THE WESTERN STATES?

If so you should avail yourself of the advantages that are now offered by the Kansas City Route, the only direct route from the South to the West and Northwest. This line runs its entire trains, with Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars and free Reclining Chair Cars, from Memphis to Kansas City, saving many hours time over any other route. If you are going West you will save money by purchasing your tickets via Memphis and the Kansas City Route. Send for large map of this Short Route; mailed free. Address,

J. E. LOCKWOOD.
Kansas City, Mo.

Or, H. D. ELLIS, Ticket Agent.
31 Madison street, Memphis, Tenn.

General News Item

San Francisco has one saloon to every eleven voters.

"Thou shalt not drink wine or any thing that may intoxicate."—Buddhist Commandment.

Gov. Colquitt, of Georgia, says the South will be prohibiton by the next presidental election.

California.—The constitutional amendment was defeated in the senate, 9 to 22.

The Chicago & Northwestern rail way requires total abstinence on the part of employes.

Minnesota.—A high license bill fixing the fee at $500 passed the House 390 to 54, bnt was defeated in the Senate.

Thereare 10,000 teetotalers in the railway service of Great Britain and 12,000 among the sailors in the naval service.

Vermont.—A local-option law, designed to take the place of the present prohibitory law, was defeated in the House by a vote of 123 to 73.

At a recent children's meeting in Maine ex Gov. Parham asked: "How many children have ever seen a drunken man!" and not a hand was lifted,

There are four grog-shops to every church in America, and six bartenders to every minister," and yet some folks think the support of the gospel an awful drain upon the people.

Missouri—The House voted 63 in favor of constitutional amendament, 58 against—72 being necessary for its passage. The scientific educational bill passed both houses.

The Country Gentlemen notes the fact that "an industry which has steadily gained ground for some years is that of making unfermented wine."

"This is no party; no sectarian question, and I am convinced that there is no cause more likely to elevate the people in every respect, whether as regards moarls or religion.

Baltimore has a new institution in the shape of a big van, loaded with hot coffee, which is driven about the streets for the accommodation of laborers. A cup of the beverage is sold for three cents.

Lieut. Greely says of his nineteen men who perished in the recent terrible journey to find the North Pole, all but one were smokers, and that one was the last one to die. The seven survivors were non smoking men

A German physician defines the main difference between the effects of whiskey and beer to be: whiskey 'Visky makes yon kill somebody else; mit beer yon only kill yonr self.'

Nevada.—An "anti-treat" law was passed making it unlawful to "treat or entertain gratuitously any other person," with a penalty of from $4 to 20, or imprisonment of from two to ten days, at the discretion of the court. A scientific temperance bill passed the Legislature.

A novel mode of aging whiskey and other liqnors is to place a Maxim or Edison light inside of the barrel. Exposure of the liqnid to the electric light for a hundred hours, it is said, changes the flavor and converts a new liqnor into one that resembles a ten year old brand.

It is announced from Washington that the prohibition of foreign ships from cholera infected ports is to be continued. Nothing has been done about prohibiting intoxicating liqnors from foreign ports.—Nation Temp. Advocate.

Arkansas.—A bill was introdnced to repeal the three-mile law, bnt met with no favor from the Legislatnre. Under the present law a vote is taken on the question of "for" or against license once in two years. By this vote six counties at the last election, and a number of town and other counties, excluded the sale of liquor. The total vote [illegible] stood 32,597 for license [illegible] against.

Massachusetts—A bill was passed requiring all places where liqnor is sold to close by eleven o'clock at night, instead off twelve as heretofore; also prohibiting the sale on election-days from six a. m, to six p. m. A metropolitan police bill and one for scientific instruction are pending, with strong probabilities of passage.

Maine—Very stringent amendments have been made in the prohibitory law. The fine for obtaining orders for liquor from town to town or carrying for sale has been increased from $100 to $500. Other fines have been largely increased Intoxicated persons shall be fined and imprisoned from ten to ninety days. Clerks of courts must advertise within thirty days what disposition has been made of liqnor cases. A scientific temperance educational bill was also adopted.

Wisconsin.—The Legislature passed a high license bill providing a minimum fee of $200 and a maximum of $500 in cities and villages of over 500 inhabitants, and from $100 to $400 under 500, the price of license to be decided upon by popular vote. A temperance education bill was also adopted forbidding the selling of liqnors to drunkards, if notified by wife, friend, or snperintendent of the poor, under a penalty of $50 or thirty days imprisonment.

Cholera does not seize its victims by hazard. It has been ascertained that of every one hundred who die of this disease ninety were in the habit of drinking alcoholics. Had I the power, I would placard every spirit shop in town: "Cholera sold here."—Mrs. Hargraves, M.D., Phila.

Wilson, the inventor of the sewing machine known as the "Wheeler and Wilson," having long been a common drunkard, wandering about in rough garments, dilapidated shoes, and a slouched hat, his gray hair straggling beneath it, has been put in the insane asylnm, a hopeless wreck. It takes more manhood to bear prosperity than to earn it or invert the means of it.

Kansas.—The House passed a stringent amendment to the prohibitory law, 81 to 34, and the senate 30 to 7, It fines prosecuting attorneys $500 if they fail to prosecnte violators of the law, and is expected to greatly aid in the execution of the law. The scientific temperance law passed both branches of the Legislatiure. A proposition to resnbmit the constitutional amendment was voted down by a vote of 71 to 33. A law was also adopted prohibiting the sale or giving away of tobacco in any form to persons under sixteen years of age. A bill changing the name ff "St. John" County was defeated.

The 71st annnal meeting of the Baptist Missionary Union was held Monday June 1st at Saratoga. The report shows that eight missionaries have received appointment, s twenty three have sailed for the fields of their labor, and eight have died during the year. The treasnrer received $395,699 from the appropriation, and the expenditures were $446,315, leaving a deficit of $50,615. The donation from churches increased $11,500 over those of the preceding year. The legacies were $30,000 less and the appropriation was $60,000 more.—Witness.

Oregon.—The Legislatnre did everything the temperance people asked. The measnres passed are: 1. An amendment to the constitution of the State, to be snbmitted to the people, prohibiting the importantion, mannfacture or sale of intoxicating liqnors. 2. A local-option law with stringent provisions, giving each precinct in the State the right to prohibit the sale of liquors in its own bonnds, and fixing the license fee at $300; 3. A law making the study of the physiological effects of alcohol and tobacco a part of the course of common school instruction. The constitutional amendment passed by a vote of 30 to 19 in the House and 18 to 8 in the Senate.

Hunt's Remedy is valuable and its benefits are permanent. Cured me of kidney disease." SULLIVAN FENNER, Providence, R. I.

M. E. Church Directory.

Southwestern Christian Advocate. Office 32 Natchez Street.

LA HARPE STREET CHURCH—Rev Elijah Clarke, pastor. Sunday services—Prayer meeting, 6 a m; Sunday-school, 9 a m; preaching at 11 a m. 3 p m, and 7 p m; Class-meeting, Tuesday night, at 7 o'clock; preaching Thursday night at 7 o clock; Communion first sunday evening of each month, at 7 30.

FIRST GERMAN M. E. CHURCH—Corner St. Andrew and Frank in street; Rev J. J. Kienle pastor Preaching at 10.30 a m, and Sunda.-school at 9 a m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.

SECOND GERMAN M. E. CHURCH—Eighth street; Rev Charles Schuler, pastor Services Sabbath at 10:30 a m, and 7 p m; Sunday-school at 9 a m; Prayer meeting Wednesday evenings at 7:30.

ST. MATTHEW M. E. CHURCH—On Varnet Street, Algiers, La. Sunday services: Preaching at 11 and 3; 7:30 at night. Prayer meeting 6:30 in the morning. Class meeting Wednesday, 7:30 p m Sunday-school at 1:30. E. C. Barrow, Pastor.

UNION CHAPEL M E. CHURCH—Services: Sundays, preaching 11 a m., 3 p. m 7½ p. m. Sunday school at 1o'clock. Class meeting Tuesday nights. Preaching Thursday nights. Prayer-meetings Friday nights. Stephen Duncan, Pastor, 42 Robinson street.

WESLEY CHAPEL—Liberty street, between Perdido and Poydras; Rev Marens Dale, Pastor. Services: Sunday 6 a m; prayer meeting, preaching 11 a m; 3 and 7:0 p m; General Class and Love Feast monthly; preaching Thursday eve, 7:30; Class, Monday eve.

SIXTH STREET CHURCH—Between Laurel and Annunciation; Rev. E. Lyon, pastor. Services—Public worship Sabbath 11 a m., 3 and 7 p m. Communion every second Sunday at 7 p. m. Sunday-school 1 p m. Class-meeting Monday evening Preaching Wednesday evening. Prayer-meeting Friday evening. General Class first Monday night in every month. Prayer service at 5:30 a. m.

CAMP PARAPET CHURCH—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, Pastor. Sunday services—Prayer-meeting 6 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Sabbath at 1 p m. Class-meetings. Thursday evening

HAVEN CHAPEL—JEFFERSON STREET. Carrollton, corner of Plum street Rev. M. O. B. Mason, Pastor. Services—Public worship at 11 a. m, 3 and 7 p. m, Sunday. Sunday-school 9 a. m. Class-meeting Monday evening. General Class, second Sunday at 11 a. m, and communion at 7 Preaching Thursday evening.

New Orleans University A. F Hoyt, M. A., Acting President 1428 St Charles Street

First Street—Rev. C. C. Montgomery, Pastor. Church corner First and Dryades Streets. Services: Sabbath—5 a. m., prayer meeting; 11, 3 and 7, public worship; communion monthly, on the first Sunday Sunday-school 1 p m. Class meeting Monday evening General class every fourth Monday evening. Preaching Thursday nights.

MOUNT ZION M. E. CHURCH—James W Hudson, pastor Regular services 11 a m, 3 and 7 p m; prayer meeting Monday eve at 4 p m. Tuesday night class meeting. Preaching Wednesday eve at 7 p m, and sacrament the third Sabbath of every month.

THOMSON CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Poet street, near Rampart. Sunday Services: preaching at 11, 3 and 7 Prayer meeting 6 in morning. Class meeting 3:30. Z. T. Gaydon, pastor

AMES M. E. CHURCH—Rev. Thomas Stalker, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m Sunday-school at 9 45 a. m. Prayer meeting, Thursday evening at 7.30.

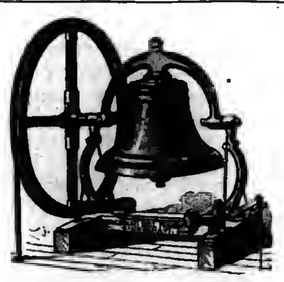
PLEASANT PLAIN CHURCH—Perdido, bet Johnson and Prieur streets, Rev. W.P Forest, pastor. Services Sabbath: Preaching at 11 a m, 3:30 and 7:30 p m. Sunday-school at 9 a m; early prayer meeting at 5:30 a m: class at 5:30 p m; preaching Wednesday and prayer meeting Monday evenings. Sacrament every second Sabbath. Love feast quarterly.

General Church Directory.

CENTRAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Also College Church of Straight University A. M. A., corner Gasquet and Liberty streets one block off Canal street. Services—Preaching Sundays at 11 a m and 7 p m; Sabbath-school 12:15 p m Prayer meetings Tuesdays and Friday evenings at 7:30 p m. This church has a fine choir under good leadership, and is centrally located. Northern visitors and all true friends of the colored people are cordially invited to attend its services. Rev. G. W. Bothwell, M. A., pastor.

OUR CLUBBING LIST, —1885—

Persons sending us cash with their orders can have the SOUTHWESTERN one year together with any one of the following publications, for amount opposite each as named:



Littell's Living Age	$9 00
Outing	3 00
Wide Awake	4 25
Babyland	1 75
Our Little Men and Women	2 25
The Pansy	2 00
Our Little Ones and the Nursery	2 25
American Agriculturist	2 50
Southern Cultivator	2 75
Popular Science Monthly	6 00
New York Medical Journal	6 00
Illustrated Christian Weekly	3 25
Harper's Magazine	5 00
Harper's Weekly	5 00
Harper's Bazar	5 00
Harper's Young People	3 00
American Reformer	2 00
Weekly Inter-Ocean	2 25
Babyhood	2 75

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez street, New Orleans.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS,
17 & 29 West 2d St., New York.
Have now ready
The History of the Negro Race in America.
From 1619 to 1881. Negroes as Slaves, as Soldiers and as Citizens,
Together with a preliminary consideration of the Unity of the Human Family, and Historical Sketch of Africa, and an account of the Negro Government of Sierra Leone and Liberia. By George W. Williams, first colored member of the Ohio Legislature, and late Judge Advocate of the G. A. R., of Ohio.
Popular Edition; two volumes in one large octavo, with portrait on steel of the author, $4
"It is a prodigious compilation, so comprehensive that every student will welcome it, and so just in its whole scope that criticism of special points can not impair it.—World, New York.
"It ought to be read by every colored man in America."—Journal, Indianapolis
"He has accomplished a noble service for his race."—Zion's Herald, Boston.
☞ This book can be ordered through the office of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, New Orleans, La.

CORPULENCY Reduce and notes how to harmlessly, effectually and rapidly cure obesity without semi starvation dietary, etc. European Mail, Oct. 24th, says: "Its effect is not merely to reduce the amount of fat, but by affecting the source of obesity to induce a radical cure of the disease Mr. B. makes no charge whatever; any person, rich or poor, can obtain his work gratis by sending 6cts. to cover postage to F. C. RUSSELL, Esq., Woburn House, Store street, Bedford Sq., London, Eng. may21-13t

BELLS.

The following prices inolude the Mountings.

Bells For Churches, Schools, Etc.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
24 inches	165 lbs	300 lbs	$350 00
26 "	200 lbs	310 lbs	45 00
28 "	225 lbs	375 lbs	55 00
32 "	375 lbs	550 lbs	80 00
36 "	525 lbs	750 lbs	100 00
40 "	800 lbs	1100 lbs	145 00
44 "	1000 lbs	1400 lbs	180 00
48 "	1325 lbs	1800 lbs	230 00
51 "	2050 lbs	2800 lbs	350 00

Bells for Schools, Farms, Etc. without mountings.

18 inches	75 lbs $13 00
20 inches	100 lbs 18 00
24 inches	165 lbs 25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named, which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.
The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.
On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 37 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.
Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.
VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.
mar5-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.
The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade.
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.
Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,
TROY, N. Y.
nov29-1yr

McShane Bell Foundry
Manufacture those celebrated Bells and Chimes for Churches, Tower Clocks, &c., &c. Price-list and circulars sent free. Address
HENRY McSHANE & CO.
oct23-1y Baltimore, Md.

Baltimore Church Bells
Since 1844 celebrated for Superiority over others, are made only of Purest Bell Metal, (Copper and Tin,) Rotary Mountings, warranted satisfactory. For Prices, Circulars, &c., address BALTIMORE BELL FOUNDRY, J. REGESTER & SONS, Baltimore, Md.
apr30 26teow

An Offer Never Equaled!
THE WEEKLY EDITION
—OF—
The TIMES DEMOCRAT,
NEW ORLEANS,
—AND—
THE WEEKLY EDITION
—OF—
The NEW YORK WORLD,
NEW YORK,
FOR ONE YEAR
Only $2.20.
OR
THE TWO WEEKLIES
—AND A—
Waterbury Watch and Chain
FOR $4.20.
Either Weekly alone is worth more than the price asked for both, as they contain reviews of the news of the world, a vast amount of select literary matter, exhaustive commercial reports, in fact everything is embraced that tends to make a
First-class Family Newspaper.

The sub-scription price to Weekly Times-Democrat alone is $1.50 for 12 months; 75 cents for 6 months, or 50 cents for 3 months.
Every family in New Orleans not taking the Daily TIMES-DEMOCRAT should keep posted in the NEWS OF THE WORLD,
by taking these Weeklies, and as an inducement we offer a good serviceable watch for the small addition mentioned above.
The WATERBURY WATCH is a stemwinder, and will run twenty-eight hours. The case is NICKLE-SILVER and will always remain as bright as a new silver dollar. The Watch has a heavy beveled edge and a crystal face. The works of the Watch are made with the finest automatic machinery. Every watch is tested in varying positions, and is perfect before leaving the factory. Each Watch is put up in a handsome new improved SATIN-LINED CASE, for safe transportation through the mails
SUBSCRIPTIONS
Taken at the office of THE TIMES-DEMOCRAT, or by mail, when accompained by subscription price.

For the Cheapest and Choicest
Family & Fancy Groceries,
SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE
Hams, Bacon, &c., &c.,
—GO TO—
N. E. Sullivan's GROCERY
Corner of
Washington and Hampson Streets
CARROLLTON, LA.
nov23-1y

A PRIZE Send six cents for postage, and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help you to more money right away than anything else in this world. All, of either sex, succeed from the first hour. The broad road to fortune opens before the workers, absolutely sure. Address, TRUE & Co., Augusta, Maine. feb19-26t

PHILLIP SAAL,
Dealer in Fancy and Staple Groceries. A Specialty of Butter, Tea Coffee, and Fine Family Groceries.
503 Dryades Street, (near St. Andrew st.,) New Orleans, La.
jan1-1y

Crescent Insurance Company.
Incorporated as a Mutual Company in 1849. Re-organized as a Stock Company in 1880.
CASH CAPITAL.....$600,000.
Has paid paid nearly TEN MILLIONS for losses since 1849. Annual and Term Policies issued on Desirable Fire Business.
W. R. Lyman, President, Chas. H. Dolsen, Vice President, Chas. E. Rice, Sec'y
TRUSTEES
Joseph Poelling, W. R. Lyman, S. C. Conlon, Lucien Delery, R. F. W. Bachman, Chas E Rice, Sam H. Kennedy, U Marionni, Harry L. Flash, Charles Newman, N D. Wallace, C. K. David, Joseph Kohn, Geo. W. Sentell, Chas. H. Dolsen, Wm. A. Phelps, Wm. Garig, Chas. M. Whitney, Alfred Moulton, John Calder, J. J. Reiss, Sigmund Katz, A. Rosenfeld, James T. Rodd, W. B. Conger, A. H. Steward, Louis Prados, M. Gillis, John D. Fiske ☞ See our Agents throughout the South.
oct9-1y

AN ADVERTISING AGENCY.

Newspapers.
Catalogue.
Advertisement.
Our Lists.
Estimates.
Printing Office.
Our System.
Payment.

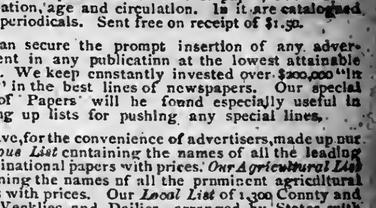
We receive and keep on file over 12,000 Newspapers published in every State and Province in America. Over 1000 Daily papers alone arrive every morning. Each paper is examined by careful clerks and the insertions entered in record books. Under our system an advertiser is sure to receive the full value for his money.
We publish the "American Newspaper Catalogue," a volume of 900 pages elegantly bound in cloth, and containing a complete list of the publications of every character in the United States and Canada. On one line we give place of publication, name of paper, class or denomination, age and circulation. In it are catalogued 14,000 periodicals. Sent free on receipt of $1.50.
We can secure the prompt insertion of any advertisement in any publication at the lowest attainable prices. We keep constantly invested over $200,000 "in space" in the best lines of newspapers. Our special lists of Papers will be found especially useful in making up lists for pushing any special lines.
We have, for the convenience of advertisers, made up our Religious List containing the names of all the leading denominational papers with prices. Our Agricultural List containing the names of all the prominent agricultural papers with prices. Our Local List of 1,300 County and City Weeklies and Dailies, arranged by States, with publishers' prices and the prices at which we can insert advertisements. These Lists are mailed free on application.
We will furnish to any reputable advertiser who will apply, an estimate showing exact cost of any proposed line of advertising, and when desired, will make up lists and write advertisements, provided the amount desired to be expended is named. We have had a wide experience, and can suggest lines of papers best adapted to the wants of an advertiser.
We keep constantly supplied with the newest styles of type best adapted to the display of advertisements. Send us your copy and we will return with estimate a proof from type without extra charge.
Our organization for correctly following an advertisement in the newspapers is perfect, and our patrons can be assured that correct work from every publisher will be exacted.
To any advertiser entitled to credit, or any one who can furnish us proper references, we will extend any reasonable line of credit. Publishers pay us a commission for all the business we send them, and any advertiser can be assured of obtaining through us lower prices than can be obtained from publishers direct. In no instance do we charge advertisers any addition to publishers' rates.

Edwin Alden & Bro.,
N.W. Cor. 5th & Vine Sts., CINCINNATI. 140 Nassau Street, NEW YORK.
Newspaper Advertising Agents.

GEORGE LANDRY,

Undertaker.
292.....Rampart Street..... ...292
(Between Hospital and Barracks streets)
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Entrepreneur de Pompes Funebres.
All orders promptly and carefully executed a moderate prices.
sept25-tf A. LABAT, Ass't Manager.

P. P. ALBERT,
(Successor to L Biboist, Manager,)
Produce Merchant,
And Dealer in Groceries,
8 ..... Toulouse Street,..... 8
P. O. Box 3249. NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Personal attention given to the sale of all produce entrusted to my care, and prompt returns rendered for same. All orders promptly filled at lowest market rates, for cash. Liberal advances made on consignments when received. Correspondence solicited.
☞ No transactions on Sundays. sept25-tf



E. W. Scheffel,
GENERAL
Book-Binder,
Ruler and Blank Book Manufacturer.
37 Natchez St., [up-stairs] New Orleans.
Magazines, Music, Periodicals and Old Books re-bound, Plain or Ornamental. jan22

STANDARD
Cane Mills
For Horse and Steam Power.
Evaporators
For Syrup and Sugar.
Known and Used the World Over.
We are the sole makers of the Victor, Great Western, and Niles Cane Mills, of the original and genuine Cook Evaporator, and of the Automatic Cook Evaporator.
BLYMYER MANUFACTURING CO.,
CINCINNATI, O.
Manufacturers of Steam Engines, Boilers, Ice Machinery, and Refrigerating Machinery.
june18 4e

20 YEARS OF CONGRESS. By JAMES G. BLAINE
1,000,000 Copies will soon be sold. The only history of our Government from 1861 to 1881. Hon. John S. Wise, M. C. from Virginia, says: "Whoever takes it up, no matter whether he be Mr. Blaine's friend or enemy, will never put it down until he has read the whole." $200 per month to good responsible agents. Apply at once, The Henry Bill Publishing Company, Norwich, Conn.
dec30-52t

PAYSON'S INDELIBLE INK.
No preparation and only a common pen needed. Established 50 Years. Superior and popular for decorative work on linen. Received Centennial Medal & Diploma. Sold everywhere.
jan29-26tcow

CHAMPLIN & CO.
ocd28-3

AGENTS WANTED for Twenty Years of Congress, 1861—1881,
by James G. Blaine.
Hon. J. S. Wise of Va. says: "Whoever takes it up, no matter whether he be Mr. Blaine's friend or enemy, will never put it down until he has read the whole." Agents make from $200 to $1000 per month. Address The Henry Bill Pub. Co., Norwich, Conn.
aor9-tf

Pianos & Organs
Of all makes direct to customers from headquarters, at wholesale prices. All goods guaranteed. No money asked till instruments are received and fully tested. Write us before purchasing. An investment of 2 cents may save you from $50.00 to $100.00. Address
JESSE FRENCH, Nashville, Tenn.
Wholesale Distributing Dep't for the South.
feb19 1y

AGENTS WANTED for the MISSOURI STEAM WASHER.
I want intelligent men or women seeking profitable employment to write for Illustr. Circular and terms of Agency. A great labor, clothes and soap saver. Exclusive territory and sample Washer sent on a weeks trial. Pays capable Agents Big Money. J. WORTH, St. Louis, Mo.
jan22 26t

FEMALE COMPLAINTS
Treated scientifically at home, at very small expense, with absolutely no pain, no exertion, no unnecessary examinations. Permanent cure guaranteed. Book and question blank free. Address with stamp, Dr. C. N. BROCKINGTON, (Mention this paper.) 309 4th Ave., Louisville, Ky.

CATARRH
Causing Loss of Smell, Offensive Breath, Sore Throat, Deafness, Hay Fever, Cough and Consumption, cured in from one to three months, even though bones of nose are affected. No snuffs, washes, douches, inhalers or atomizers used. Book and blank free. Address with stamp, Dr. C. N. BROCKINGTON, [Mention this paper.] 309 4th Ave., Louisville, Ky.
oc2 1yr

It is THE GREAT SOUTHERN REMEDY for the bowels. It is one of the most pleasant and effectual remedies for all summer complaints. At a season when violent attacks of the bowels are so frequent, a safe and speedy relief should be at hand. The wearied mother, losing sleep in nursing the little one teething, should use this medicine. 50 cts. a bottle. Send 3c. stamp to Walter A. Taylor, Atlanta, Ga., for Riddle Book.
Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein will cure Coughs, Croup and Consumption. Price, 25c. and $1 a bottle.

OPIUM and WHISKY Habits cured at home without pain. Book of particulars sent Free. B. M. WOOLLEY, M. D., Atlanta, Ga.
apr2-5 eow

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans.
ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co.
106 Wall Street, N. Y.

Sunday-School and Children.

THIRD QUARTER. STUDIES IN THE KINGS B. C. 970. Lesson 11. July 12. Idolatry Established. 1 Kings 12, 25-32 Commit to memory verses 28-31.

(Prepared by Rev E. Lyon, pastor of Sixth Street M. E. Church.)

HOME READINGS.

M—Idolatry established; 1 Kings 12, 25-33.

Tu—A change of kings; 1 Kings, 13, 18 24.

W—The place of God's service; Deut. 5, 1 10.

Th—Idolatry forbidden; Deut, 12, 1-14.

F—The golden calf worshipped; Exod. 32, 1 10.

S—The feast instituted—Lev. 23, 33 34.

S—Punishment of sin; 1 Kings 13, 1-10.

QUESTIONS FOR HOME STUDY.

Where did King Jeroboam make his home?

In Shechem.

How did he strengthen his king dom?

He built walled cities and forts

Where had the children of Israel worshipped?

In the temple of Jerusalem.

Did Jeroboam want them to go [illegible]?

No, he was afraid they would [illegible] toward Rehoboam, and, per[illegible] kill him.

After thinking it over and talking with his wise men what did he do?

He made two golden idols in the form of calves.

What did he say to the people?

"Behold the Gods that brought you up out of Egypt."

What did he make them think?

That it would be too much trouble for them to go to Jerusalem?

Where did he set up the idols for those who lived toward the North?

At Dan.

Where for those who lived South?

At Bethel on the road to Jerusalem?

What did he do for these idols?

Built temples and made priests.

Did he follow God's commands in appointing the priests?

No; he took them from any tribe just as it happened.

Were they good men?

They were very low and wicked.

When the people began to worship the idols what commandment did they break? (Repeat the Golden Rule.)

When did God send to teach them the right way?

The prophets, but they would not hear them.

WORDS FOR LITTLE PEOPLE.

"The Golden text don't mean me [illegible] week, I know, for there are no [illegible] near us." Are you sure, dear [illegible] people? Let us see. Anything [illegible] dear we love God [illegible] God, and anything [illegible] is an idol. Do [illegible] love their own [illegible] much that they do [illegible] things to please self, [illegible] to love God best? Do [illegible] think more of their pretty [illegible] than they do of Jesus? Do [illegible] care so much for play [illegible] do not want God's day to [illegible] do you see now that self, [illegible] play might draw you [illegible] God, and become an [illegible] we love them better than God. Read 1 John 5, 21. Watch and give Jesus your whole heart.

THE LESSON CATECHISM.

(For the entire school). 1. What did Jereboam fear should the people go up to sacrifice at Jerusalem?

That they would return to Rehoboam.

2. What did Jeroboam do to prevent their doing this?

Made two calves of gold for worship.

3. When he had done this what did he say to the people?

Behold thy Gods, O Israel.

4. Where did he set these golden calves?

One in Bethel and one in Dan.

5. What did the people do?

They worshipped them.

Doctrinal Suggestion—The one true God.

Ready For School.

Little Mary lived with her grandmother in a country village. She helped her about the house in the early mornings, and was as busy as a bee. But she did not neglect her lessons for that. No, all were learned, for grandmother was very particular that Mary should be always quite ready for school.

"Is your face clean and your hair neatly brushed?" She often asked. "And have you learned your lessons perfectly?"

"Yes, grandmother. I know all quite well."

"And are you happy? One should always start out to school or to work quite happy. One can do as much again if one is happy."

Mary smiled; she thought it was a strange question. How could it effect the lessons whether she was happy or not? But grandmother was right, and she looked earnestly into Mary's face saying, "There is only One who can make you happy. Give your heart to Him, keep near to Him, and He will give you true joy."—Our Darling.

Report from Secretary of the Sunday-school.

Numbers of scholars now on roll, 100; number of officers and teachers, 16. The expenses of the school this year have amounted to $11.65. Dear sir, we are looking forward for the Children's Day and the money that is raised for the Educational Fund will be sent to its department. Our Sunday-school is flourishing, that we have a large number of books in the library, with this our school is doing fair.

E. J. JEFFERSON, Secy.

Hampstead, Texas, June 11, 1885.

You sigh now because you did not begin a Christian life when you were young. In eternity you may sigh because you did not begin at all. Begin now. Wait not another day. The gate of opportunity stands open for you yet.

Loved by Ladies.

Ladies love delicate and delicious perfume. In Parker's Hair Balsam they not only satisfy this taste, but have an article which arrests falling hair, removes dandruff restores the original color and imparts a beautiful gloss, softness and life. Does not soil the linen, is not a dye, cleanly and economical.

Marriages.

At the residence of Mrs. Agnes Ramsey, in New Orleans, La., June 25, 1885, Mr. Lafayette R. Gray to Miss Mamie A. Burrell, Rev. H. C. Armston officiating.

Mr. George Pollard and Miss Lizzie Coombs were married, in the Presbyterian Church in Sparta, Tenn., June 11, 1885, by Rev. S. Knight. Miss Lizzie is a member of our church and one of our Sunday-school teachers.

Obituary.

Rev. James Patterson died April 19, 1885, in Shreveport, La. He was ready and willing to go, and had me to sing and pray with him. He joined St. James Church on the 18th and died on the 19th. The funeral services were conducted by the following brethren: Rev. P. Tandy, Rev. A. Spears, Rev. S. Davey, Rev. P. Hall, and Rev. S. Armstead. The church was crowded with the friends of the deceased.

T. G. MONTGOMERY.

Nancy, wife of Rev. W. H Crawford, pastor of the M. E. Church, died at her residence in Van Buren, Ark., May 23 1885, aged 45 years. The fuoeral services took place on Snuday, May 24th, and were conducted by Rev. A. J Phillips, pastor of the Fayetteville charge, assisted by Rev. F. Wallace, pastor of Alma charge. The church was crowded, and [illegible] could not get into the house. Elder Phillips preached an able sermon from the 14th chapter and 14th verse of Job. Sister Crawford died in the glorious triumph of faith, after an illness of one week. She was of high Christian integrity, serving God in adversity as well as in prosperity; and her character was above suspicion. She served the M. E. Church in this State for several years, having gone side by side with Bro. Crawford in the work of the Master. A few minutes before she died, after telling all to meet her in heaven, she said, "Now, papa, let me hear you pray one more time with the children before I go;" she then fell sweetly asleep. She leaves Brother Crawford and six children to mourn her loss. Bro. Crawford has lost a devoted wife, the children a kind mother, and the church a faithful worker in Sister Crawford.

S. MARRS.

Conference Notices.

Plan of Episcopal Visitation.—1885. Fall Conferences.

[ALPHABETICAL.]

CONFERENCE.	PLACE.	TIME.	BISHOP.
Alabama	Edwardsville, Ala.	Nov 26	Mallalieu
Arizona Miss.	Tucson, Arizona.	Sept 17.	Fowler
Austin	Denton, Texas	Dec 10.	Foster
Black Hills Mis.	Rapid City, Dak.	Aug. 20.	Ninde
Blue Ridge	Gastonia, N. C.	Oct. 1.	Mallalieu
Bulgaria Miss.	Rustchuk, Bul.	Oct. 1.	——
California	Stockton, Cal.	Sept. 3.	Fowler
C'l Alabama	Mobile, Ala.	Dec. 10	Mallalieu
C'l China mis'n	Kinkiang, China.	Oct. 14	——
C'l German	Columbus, Ohio.	Sept 10.	Harris
C'l Illinois	Fairbory, Ill.	Sept 24.	Warren
C'l New York	Syracuse, N. Y.	Oct 8.	Merrill
C'l Ohio	Fostoria, O.	Sept 17.	Harris
C'l Tennessee	Tullahoma, Tenn.	Oct 15	Mallalieu
Chicago Germ'n	Manitowoc, Wis.	Sept 17	Bowman
Cincinnati	Cincinnati, O.	Sept 3.	Harris
Colorado	Pueblo Col.	Aug 20	Andrews
Columbia River	Spoka'e Falls W. T.	July 16.	Wa'den
Dakota miss'n	Blunt Dak.	Oct 8.	Foss
Des Moines	Des Moines, Ia.	Sept 17.	Foss
Detroit	Pontiac, Mich.	Sept 10	Warren
East Ohio	Barnesville, O.	Sept 17.	Foster
East Tennessee	Knoxville, Tenn.	Oct 22	Hurst
Erie	Sharon, Pa.	Sept 10.	Merrill
Foochow	Foochow, China.	Nov 19.	——
Genesee	Lima N Y.	Oct 1.	Hurst
Georgia	Elijay, Ga.	Nov 19	Mallalieu
Holston	Johnson City, Tenn	Oct 15.	Horst
Idaho	Canyon City Ore'g.	July 30	Walden
Illinois	Rushville, Ill.	Sept 17.	Ninde
Indiana	Spencer, Ind.	Aug 27.	Harris
Iowa	Mt. Pleasant, Ia.	Sept 10.	Ninde
Japan	Tokio, Japan.	Aug 20.	——
Kentucky	Covington, Ky.	Oct 1.	Harris
Michigan	Grand Rapids, Mich.	Sept 17.	Warren
Minnesota	Rochester, Minn.	Oct 1.	Andrews
Montana miss'n	Dillon, Montana.	July 1.	Walden
Nebraska	Seward, Neb.	Sept 17	Andrews
Nevada mis'n	Bishop's Ck, Nev.	Aug 20.	Fowler
N Mexico mis'n	Santa Fe, N. Mex.	Oct 1.	Fowler
" Spanish	Peralta New Mex.	Sept 24.	Fowler
N China mis'n	Peking, China.	Sept 24.	——
N. Dakota	Wahpeton, Dak.	Sept 17.	Walden
N. Nebraska	Ponca, Neb.	Sept 3.	Andrews
N Ohio	Berea Ohio.	Sept 3.	Merrill
N w German	LeSeur, Minn.	Sept 24	Andrews
N w Indiana	Valparaiso, Ind.	Sept 3.	Foss
N w Iowa	Storm Lake, Ia.	Sept 24.	Foss
N w Swedish	Dayton, Ia.	Sept 3.	Bowman
Norw'n Danish	Cambridge, Wis.	Sept 10	Bowman
Ohio	De aware, Ohio.	Sept 24.	Foster
Oregon	Roseburg, Oreg.	Aug 27.	Waldeo
Pittsburgh	Allegheny City, Pa.	Sept 17.	Merrill
Puget Sound	Tacoma, W. T.	Aug 13.	Walden
Rock River	Elgin, Ill.	Oct 8.	Fowler
St Lous Germ.	St Louis, Mo.	Sept 10	Foss
Savannah	Savannah, Ga.	Dec 3	Mallalieu
S. E. Indiana	Brookville, Ind.	Sept 24.	Harris
S. California	Santa Barbara, Cal	Sept 10.	Fowler
S. German	San Antonio, Tex.	Nov 19.	Foster
S. Illinois	Edwardsville, Ill.	Sept 24.	Ninde
Tennessee	Gallatin, Tenn.	Oct 22	Mallalieu
Texas	Houston, Tex.	Nov 26.	Foster
Upper Iowa	Toledo, Ia.	Oct 1.	Warren
Utah mission	Park City, Utah.	July 2.	Warren
West German	Claytonia, Neb.	Sept 3.	Ninde
W Neb. mis'n	Kearney, Neb.	Sept 10	Andrews
West Texas	Austin, Tex.	Dec 3.	Foster
West Virginia	Charleston, W. Va.	Sept 24.	Merrill
W. Wisconsin	Dodgeville, Wis.	Sept 24	Bowman
Wiscon-in	Waukesha, Wis.	Oct 1.	Bowman

By order of the Board of Bishops.

WM. L. HARRIS, Secretary.

St. Louis, Mo., May 18, 1885.

Lexington Conference.

Brethren who owe on their subscription for our conference minutes will please remit without delay, by post-office order, to my address, and oblige,

HENRY W. TATE, Sec'y.

South Center street, Springfield, O.

Central Alabama Conference.

Marion District Conference will commence July 23d, at 8 a. m., in Tuscaloosa. Brethren will please try to be prepared to present every interest of the church. Local preachers will be prepared for examination on the course of study so that their license can be renewed. District stewards will please meet me promptly. On the second day the opening sermon will be preached, on the night of the 23d, by N. H. Speight. The quarterly meeting conference will be in connection with the district conference. Our church at Tuscaloosa is greatly in debt, and we hope to be able to raise at least $100 while there to help our friends and members there. We cordially invite the editor of the SOUTHWESTERN to be with us during the session, as I believe his presence would be of much interest both to his paper and our cause here in Alabama.

E. B. McCAULY, P. E.

Shreveport District—Louisiana Conference.

The following is the programme for the Shreveport District Conference, which will convene at Mansfield, La., August 13, 1885.

Introductory sermon—C D Shallowhorne.
Written sermon—J H Pierre.
Written sermon—A Talford.
Written sermon—H Richardson.
Written sermon—A McGlokline.
Temperance reform—P B McDonald.
The need of an educated ministry—H J Wright.
Christian purity—Samuel Davage.
Is there a God?—S S Wright.
Duties of Stewards—A Venable.
Doctrine of the M. E. Church—H Johnson.
Qualification of Sunday-school teachers—D Shirley.
Witness of the Holy Spirit—S R Hason.
Work for young converts—C Crockett.
A financial plan for stewards—F Harvey.
Way a million for missions—V Chapman.
Duties of preachers to the SOUTHWESTERN ADVOCATE—A Helton.
Is conscience a sufficient guide to salvation?—J Sparks.
The Word of God—W R Butler.
Preachers conduct—A Spears.
The Church Extension Society—T G Montgomery.
Methodism in North Louisiana—Jno Fopp.
Local preachers and exhorters will select their own subjects.
Committee on Programme: V. Chapman, C. B McDonald and H J. Wright.

Programme.

The following is the programme for the Louisville District Sunday-school Institute to assemble in Jackson Street M. E. Church, Louisville, Ky., July 24, 1885:

Call to order, by Rev. J L Perrin, pastor of Lloyd Street M E Church. Singing. Prayer by Rev. A McDade, pastor of Coke Chapel. Singing. Election of temporary President and Secretary. Appointment of committees. Enrollment of members. Permanent organization to consist of a president, three vice-presidents, recording and corresponding secretaries, and executive committee of three. Recess. Reassembling. Opening. Singing. Election of permanent officers. Singing. Address of welcome, by Rev. W L Muir, pastor of Jack-on Street Church. Response in behalf of Institute, by Rev. W. W. Locke, presiding elder. Singing.

SUBJECTS AND SPEAKERS.

What is the object and design of Sunday-school—Rev S S G Turner, Lagrange, Ky.

The Relation of the Sundny-school to the church—Mrs Sarah Clark, Shelbyville, Ky.

Methodist Sunday schools for Methodists—Rev Marshall W. Taylor, D D, editor of the SOUTHWESTERN.

The duty of superintendent and teacher to the Sunday-school—P A Fisher, Lagrange, Ky.

The duty of parents to their children—Rev. W S Rolling, Jericho, Ky.

How shall we reach the non-church going masses, and secure the attendance of themselves and their children in our Sunday-schools—Rev W H Bloomer, Warsaw, Ky.

What is the best method of governing our Sunday-schools?—Mrs. Emma Alexander, Louisville, Ky.

Is it advisable for M. E. Sunday-schools to use other than their own literature?—Rev. C T Lewis, Louisville, Ky.

What is the best method of interesting children in the exercises of the Sunday school?—Mrs. N H Talbert, Pewee Valley, Ky.

What shall we do to interest the old people in our Sunday-school?—Miss Sallie Parker, Pewee Valley, Ky.

In what way, if in any, does the black board exercises interest and increase the success of our Sunday-school work.—Miss Ida Wilson, Indianapolis, Ind.

Could the kindergarten plan be successfully used in infant Sunday-school classes—Miss Levina Sanders, Cincinnati, Ohio.

What are the required qualifications of the teachers in our Sunday-school—Miss Nellie Ross, Louisville, Ky.

Is it possible to attain the highest success in the Sunday school work without instrumental music—Miss Hettie Taylor, Cincinnati, Ohio.

What is the duty of our Sunday-school Board—Miss Fredonie Moton, Louisville, Ky.

Does a teacher in the day-school who fails to attend any Sunday-school perform his whole public duty—Miss Amelia Taylor, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The pastor's relation and duty to the Sunday school—Rev. J. W. Russell, of Anchorage, Ky.

Do Methodist children observe the fourth Commandment—J V McMicken, Taylorsville, Ky.

The following named have been invited to be present and address the Institute: Bishop Thomas Bowman, Bishop J M. Walden, Dr. J. H. Vincent, Dr. H B Ridgaway, Dr. C H Payne, Dr. Alexander Martin, Dr. J H Bayless, Dr. J M Buckley, Dr. A B Leonard, Dr. R S Rust, Dr. Earl Crauston, Dr. Geo Curtis, Hon. Amos Shinkle and Hon. W C D Panw.

Committee: Rev. J A Ross, chairman; Rev. J L Perrin, secretary; Rev. S S G Turner, Rev. Paris Fisher, Rev. Marshall W. Taylor, D D.

Programme

Of religious and literary exercises for the district conference of the Waco District, Waco Texas Annual Conference; to be held at Dallas, Sept. 4, 1885:

Opening sermon—Green Bragner.
Missionary sermon—C P Wealbrooke.
The life, labor and death of Rev. L Carper—Presiding Elder.
Sacramental sermon—A Jackson.
Relation of the pastor to the Sabbath-school—J A Hall.
How to succeed in revivals—C Young.
Moral obligations—R Reader.
Obligation of family worship—G Wilson.
How to raise benevolent money—J W Robinson.
The proper object of benevolence and the doctrine of forgiveness—B F Smith.
Duty of stewards—D Humphreys.
Duty of class-leaders—A Taylor.
Duty of local preachers—J Buell.
Family ethics—A Lockhart.
Relation of baptized children to the church—Willis Mellock.

All local elders, deacons, preachers and exhorters will select their own subjects. The pastors will please make out a list of the members of the district conference and bring it to the conference with them. Come one, come all who belong to the district conference and let us have a grand time. We shall do all we can to make you happy, and you must try to make us happy also.

B. F. SMITH, Sec'y.

Lexington District.

Second Round.

Versailles	July	4- 5
New Zion	"	6
Georgetown	"	11-12
Oxford	"	15
Monterey	"	18 19
Winchester	"	22-23
Howard Creek	"	24
North Middletown	"	25 26
Lairs	"	27
Washington	Aug.	1- 2
Germantown	"	3- 4
Dover	"	5
Tolesbury	"	6
Mt. Carmel	"	7
Flemingsburg	"	8- 9
Pleasant	"	10
Corinth	"	24
Carterstown	"	26
Harrisburg	"	28
Asbury Temple	"	29-30
New Providence	Sept.	1- 2
Guns Chapel	"	5- 6

H. W. WHITE, P. E.

Louisville District—Lexington Conference.

Second Round.

Louisville, Lloyd Street	July	4- 5
Chaplain	"	4 5
Mt Washington	"	4- 5
Anchorage	"	11 12
Jericho	"	11-12
Pewee Valley	"	11-12
Ghent	"	18 19
Wesleyd	"	18-19
Louisville, Jackson Street	"	25-26
Patton Creek	Aug.	1- 2
Bedford	"	8- 9
Jeffersontown	"	8- 9
Louisville, Coke Chapel	"	16 17
Woodford	"	15-16
La Grange	"	22 23
Frankfort	"	29 30
New Horn and Lib. Junction	Sept.	5- 6
Simpsonville	"	5- 6
Shelbyville	"	12 13
Warren	"	12 13
Louisville Mission	"	16 17
Samuel station	"	19 20

W. W. LOCKE, P. E.

1944 Shelby st., Louisville, Ky.

Waco District—West Texas Conference.

Third Round.

Kerrs, at Long Branch, by C. Young	July	4- 5
Mejors, at Rifle Point	"	4- 5
Marlin, at Big Creek	"	11-12
Marlin ot, at Carolina	"	18-19
East Waco, at Aquilla	"	26-27
Waco mission, at Mt. Zion	Aug.	1- 2
Waco, at St. James	"	1 2
Groesbeck, at Groesbeck	"	8 9
Mexia, at Sandy Creek	"	15-16
Hubbard, at Wesley Chapel, by Robinson	"	15 16
Spring Hill, at West Point	"	22-23
Milford, at Milford	"	29 30
Dallas, at St. Paul	Sept.	6- 7
Denison, Pilot Point, by Smith	"	12-13

The brethren will clip this notice and preserve it. Remember the district camp at Dallas, Sept. 4th. The opening sermon will be preached on the 31. Let us have a grand time. You who have subjects assigned you go to work on them, and remember that abstracts will not go worth a cent. Raise as much of your benevolent money as possible.

W. H. DAVIS, P. E.

Notice.

The Shreveport District Conference will meet in Mansfield, La., on Thursday, August 13, at 9 o'clock a. m. The brethren of the district will take notice and govern themselves accordingly; prepare your essays, make your reports in ample time, and come prepared to have a refreshing time in the name of the Lord. See Dis. page 58, par. 90, as to who are members thereof. All friends are welcomed.

P. LANDRY, P. E.

La Teche District—Louisiana Conference.

Introductory sermon, Aug. 12, at 7:30 p. m.—Wm. Smith.
Missionary sermon, Aug. 13, at 7:30 p. m.—S. E. H. Morant.
Methodism, its doctrines and usages—J F Marshall.
Temperance, how to promote it—R Anderson.
Sunday-school and its officers—M J Dyer.
Our work in the South—E Fields.
The benevolent collections and our publishing interests—A E P Albert.
Ministerial qualification and department—A J Pickett.
Education, character and wealth stepping stones to power—S E H Morant.
Do benevolent and other societies injure the church?—P Larkins.
How to build churches and promote revivals—A Lester.
Evidences of conversion—H T O Abbott.
Marriage and divorce—C Monroe.
Christian and industrial education—B Borden.
Baptism, mode and subjects—P Bibbs.
Church government—J Augustus.
From Egypt to Canaan—A E P Albert.
Ministerial support, a moral obligation.—Wm Smith.
Observance of the Sabbath—G W Williams.
Stewards and their duties—N Randolph.
Why am I a Methodist?—S Green.
Class meetings and qualifications of leaders—E B Richards.
Attendance and deportment at church—Jos Johnson.
Children's Day as it should be—B M Johnson.

Sunday-school, temperance and other anniversaries will be held during the session. Mrs. Barksdale, Mrs Armstead Miss Thomas, Mrs. Dr Albert and other representatives of the Woman's Missionary Society, will address the conference. Revs. S. Duncan, ex-presiding elder, M. C B Mason, and E. Lyon, represenating the Sunday-school interests; Prof. Hoyt, New Orleans University; Dr. Taylor of the SOUTHWESTERN, and Bishop Mullalieu have been invited to attend. Special rates will be arranged with the railroad.

By the committee.

A. E. P. ALBERT, P. E.

Murfreesboro District—Tennessee Conference.

Fourth Round.

Lebanon station	July 31,	Aug. 2
North Lebanon ct	"	1- 2
Alexandria	"	8- 9
Cane Fork and Carthage	"	15 16
Martin Creek	"	22 23
Liberty	"	29 30
Cookville	Sept.	5 6
Sparta	"	12 13
McMinnville st	"	18 20
McMinnville ct	"	19 20
Manchester and Hillsboro	"	23
Tullahoma	"	24
Shelbyville st	"	26 27
Shelbyville ct	"	29 30
Petersburg	"
Spencer	Oct.	3- 4
Murfreesboro ct	"	6- 7
Stone River	"	8 9
Woodbury	"	10-11
Murfreesboro st	"	15-16

District Conference at Liberty, Tennessee, Aug 25, 26, 27, 28, 29

C. H. BULLINGTON, P. E.

Ashville District—Central Alabama Conference.

Third Round.

The District Conference will convene at Oxford, Alabama, July 23 at 9 a. m., in the M. E Church, and every member of the district conference is expected to be at that place on the 23d when the roll is called, and with reports.

Birmingham	June	27 28
Enon	July	4 5
Blunts Springs	"	11-12
Holston Chapel	"	11-12
Oxford	"	25 26
Collinsville	Aug.	1- 2
Ashville	"	1- 2
Galleon	"	8- 9
Howell's Cross Roads	"	15-16
Centre	"	15-16
Wedowee	"	22-23
Linesville	"	29 30
Talladega	Sept	5 6

O. NELSON, P. E.

Hunt's Remedy cures speedily bilious headache, costiveness, dyspepsia, strengthens the stomach, and purifies the blood.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

July 17-1y.

A BIG OFFER To introduce them, we will GIVE AWAY 1,000 Self-Operating Washing Machines. If you want one send us your name, address, and express office at once. THE NATIONAL CO., 28 DEY STREET, N. Y.

j 8 2tcow

Throw Away Trusses.

When our new method, without use of knife, is guaranteed to permanently cure the worst cases of rupture. Send 10 cents in stamps for references and pamphlet, World's Disconsary Medical Association Buffalo, N. Y.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET.

SOUTHWESTERN OFFICE,
June 27, 1885.

LEADING STAPLES.

Readers will remember that the quotations given are for round lots, and higher prices must be paid for small orders.

COTTON, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 8½; Middling 9 15 16; Good Middling, 10 3-16; Middling fair, 11 7-16.

SUGAR, ℔ lb—Yellow clarified, 5½@5¾; White clarified, 5¾@5¾; Common 4½@4¾.

MOLASSES, in bbls, ℔ gallon—Common, 17@22; fair, 23@25; choice, 41@43c.

RICE, Louisiana, ℔ lb—Common, 4¼@4¾; fair, 5@5¾; choice, 5¾@6.

MOSS, ℔ lb—Mixed, 2@2½; gray, 1@2; black, 3@4½.

GROCERIES.

BUTTER, ℔ lb—Western 20@21.

COFFEE, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 7½; prime, 9½;

CHEESE, ℔ lb—Western factory —@8;

CORN MEAL, ℔ bbl—Choice, $3.25.

FLOUR, ℔ bbl.—Fancy, 4 37½; Choice 5.15; Family, $5@—.

LARD, ℔ lb—Choice, 6¾.

SALT, ℔ Sack—Coarse, 70c.; Fine, 90c.;

ESCULENTS—Irish potatoes, ℔ bbl, $1 00@1 25; sweet potatoes, $2.50@ ℔ bbl. onions, ℔ bbl. $2 25@2.50; apples, ℔ bbl. $3 00@$4.00; cabbages, $2.00@$2 25 per crate; sour kront, $4.50@7 50 per barrel.

OILS, ℔ gallon—Coal, in cases, 18@—; coal, in bbl. 13@—; linseed, raw, 26; boiled, 63@65; cotton seed, 28@50.

PROVISIONS.

MESS PORK, ℔ bbl—Choice, $11.12½.

BACON, ℔ lb—Breakfast, 9½; shoulders, 6@—; sides, short rib, 6½; sides, long clear, 6¾; hams, sugar-cured, 9@9½.

DRY SALT MEAT, ℔ lb—Clear rib sides, 5.6; clear sides, 5.6; shoulders, 3 7@3 9.

POULTRY AND EGGS.

Louisiana Poultry—Grown chickens 3.00@3.27; young $1 50@$2 00; ducks, $2.00 $2.50; geese $4.@$4 50; turkeys $9.@12.

Western Eggs 11@12c per dozen

Louisiana Eggs 12@12½c per dozen.

Feathers—Best live geese feathers 40@55c. ℔ lb. second grades 15@25c.

The Masonic Grand Lodge of Ohio has adopted a resolution declaring it to be the opinion of the body that the selling of intoxicating drinks should disqualify any one from initiation into or affiliation with any Masonic lodge.

The Colored Congregationalists have a new church in Dallas, Texas.

IF YOU HAVE HEALTH THE LIVER MUST BE IN ORDER.

DR. SANFORD'S LIVER INVIGORATOR

Is a Reliable Remedy for Liver Complaints and is caused by a diseased or torpid condition of the Liver, as Dyspepsia, Constipation, Biliousness, Jaundice, Headache, Malaria, Rheumatism, etc. It revitalizes the bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the system, assists digestion.

AN INVALUABLE FAMILY MEDICINE.

Thousands of testimonials prove its merits.

ANY DRUGGIST WILL TELL YOU ITS REPUTATION.

au 30 13teowm

LACTART

ACID OF MILK.

ENDORSED BY THE HIGHEST MEDICAL AUTHORITY.

Healthful and Delicious Beverage and Tonic for Family Use.

Superior to Lime Juice or Lemons.

A Remedy for Dyspepsia and Ills arising from a Disordered Stomach.

Specially recommended as a preventative and relief for Cholera, Sunstroke, Fevers, and valuable in Urinary difficulties.

A Specific for Sea-sickness.

Sold by Druggists.

Avery Lactate Co.,

BOSTON, MASS. apr. 0 3m

Send for Price List and Circular to

AUTOMATIC

"NO TENSION" SEWING MACHINE.

NOISELESS—LIGHTEST RUNNING. Most Beautiful and Durable Work. AND DOES NOT INJURE HEALTH.

Willcox & Gibbs S. M. Co., 658 Broadway, N. Y.

nov6-16t eow

CHRISTIAN

MEN and WOMEN Wanted are AS AGENTS

For the New and Revised Edition of the JAMIESON, FAUSSET & BROWN BIBLE COMMENTARY.

4 vols., nearly 4,000 pp. Maps and Illustrations In cloth, $8, and more at $10 per set.

Best terms and special territory. Permanent employment given a term satisfactory trial.

Jerome B. Names & Co.,

154 St. Clair street, Toledo, Ohio.

The work is heartily recommended. mar6-39t

OPIUM MORPHINE HABIT EASILY CURED. BOOK FREE. Dr. J. C. HOFFMAN Jefferson, W

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 20---NO 29. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, JULY 15, 1885 WHOLE NUMBER 81.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

37 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor

Terms: $2.50 per Year, Cash in Advance; after Three Months, $3; to Pastors, $1. Six Months, $1; Three Months, 50c.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

All matter not of a business nature must be addressed to the editor.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	8 cents,
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	6 "
Six months (26 times)	5 "
One year (52 times)	4 "
Marriage Notices	25
Special Notices	8 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

The veil through which they dimly saw below,
And, seeing dimly, oft mistook the road,
Is gone; and in the clearer light they know
That such the path of Providence pursued;
Their separation, overruled for good,
Has scattered far and wide the Gospel seed—
On soils distant, diverse, profusely strew'd
And partly fields of various name and creed
Have shared the shower of grace, as greatly they had need.

"Strike, but hide the hand;" is only the motto of a coward.

Rev. Sam Jones declines a home tendered him by admirers in Nashville. 'Tis well.

The American Missionary contains much matter of interest to Southern readers.

The will of the late Miss Jane Holmes, of Pittsburgh, gives over $700,000 in charity.

Sit down with an offender and tell of his faults. This is only possible where a hero is, and Christ with him.

African ants, roaches, grasshoppers, crayfish, and green frogs are all said to be good to eat, but some very sensitive people dislike them.

England had better turn her guns on Liberia, that seems to be nearer to her present capacity and there is a small tract of good land to acquire by it.

We sometimes forget to credit a sentence taken from an exchange. But we never take as an editorial an article a column long without credit as some folks do.

Rev. Elias Cottrell, of C. M. E. Church, formerly of the Theological Department, is the pastor of a large church in Jackson, Tenn. He is making a successful preacher and pastor.—Ex.

Speaking of Emancipation Hon. Frederick Douglass says "If it brought freedom to us, it brought peace and safety to the whites, and hence they may well enough unite in this and similar celebrations, and extend the day as theirs as well as ours."

The Mahdi government feels grateful to England for the offer, but feels obliged but didn't want [illegible] with the Mahdi in [illegible]. Where and when did [illegible] gain [illegible] title to the Soudan? How did [illegible] gain [illegible]. The fate of battles [illegible]. Perhaps it [illegible] of brave Gen-

For the SOUTHWESTERN

Should the Word "Negro" be Applied to the Colored People in this Country, or Any Other.

PROF. T. B. SNOWDEN.

We answer "no!" and in accordance with our answer we shall proceed to argue the question. A great deal has been said and written on this question pro and con, but still there is room, especially for logical argument. No day is so bright that its brightness may not be excelled by some other day. Arguments are seldom so logical that the logic can not be improved. The strongest men often have weaker points than ordinary men. Alexander the Great was truly great, and yet, in controlling his passions he was the weakest of the weak. Pops hath summed up his career and character in one line:

The youth who all things but himself subdued.

It seems to me that some of our strongest men are the weakest on the Negro question. They continually and persistently claim to be what they are not, "Negroes." I heard a half white Bishop say two years ago, "I am proud that I am a Negro. There are a lot of fellows going round who are ashamed to own that they are Negroes, but they are of no account." The word Negro means black, and how a man can be half white and yet black at the same time is past all understanding. The deepest scientific knowledge and the profoundest philosophic thought can never solve the problem. But let us turn to the question under consideration.

1. We will look at it from a linguistic point of view: The word Negro is a Spanish or Italian word, and we do not speak Spanish or Italian, but English. Any race that has words in its own vernacular, adequate to express its ideas need not coin words nor borrow them from another language. Words borrowed from another language should always be translated if translatable. The translation of the word "Negro" is "black." But after we translated the word we cannot apply it to the colored people of this country because many of them are nearer white than black. We are not Africans, either, as some claim, but Americans, as much so as any other element in our body politic, and need not continually be telling people that we are black or any other color. Those who have eyes can see for themselves what my complexion is, and need not be told, and a blind man need not care. When we need to use a word to distinguish us from other citizens, "colored" is the correct word. Webster's definition of color is "any hue or tint as distinguished from white." There is not another word in the English language or any other language that so completely meets all the demands of our varied complexions, and any one who can not be distinguished from white does not belong to the colored race, even if his white father or brother does call him with us, and his colored brother does claim him. Facts are facts, and are stubborn things.

2. Let us argue the question from an analogical and historical point of view. The Spaniards, who established the African slave trade as a regular business, called their captives "Negroes," because they were black. But because the Spaniards called their human prey Negroes is no reason at all why we should call ourselves Negroes. Where is the record of an analogous case? History fails to give it, unless the name was given by some other nation, and not by the nation itself. Any people who settle a country have the right to name that country what they please, and it naturally follows that their name is derived from the name they give their country, and all others who become citizens of that country have the same rights and titles with the settlers and their descendants; and no outside or inside party has any right to alter or amend the natural order of things; and he who does it is an intruder, and should be dealt with accordingly. The white race is called "Caucasian," not because it is white, but because its original abode was near Mount Caucasus. The Mongolians derived their name from the country in which they lived, Mongolia. The Malay is so called because he is a native of Malay or Malacca. The Africans are so called because they live in Africa. A Gaul was an inhabitant of Gaul. The country that was called Gaul is now called France, because a Germen tribe from Francouia, in the 5th century, overrun and conquored Gaul, and established the kingdom of France. The word German is of Celtic origin, and means neighbor, that is, living next to the Gauls. A tribe of Germans settled the "Angle land," and called it England, hence its inhabitants are called English. The aborigines of America were called Indians, from the fact that Columbus and the early navigators conceived the idea that America and India were identical. Thus we might go through the whole catalogue of the nations of the earth, and we would not find one which has taken its name from its color. Men have received names because of certain traits in their character, and their descendants have taken the parents name, but the color was not thought of in those cases. Adam means "red," but his descendants were not called Adams or red men.

3. The capital N point of view:

Some persons, white and colored, say. "If you spell the word 'negro' with a big N, the word is all right, and can be properly applied to the race." How in the world can a big N change the meaning of the word? If you spell devil with a big D, will that change his character? A capitalized devil is just as bad as a small d devil.

When we speak of the white race we do not spell the word "white" with a big W. Then why spell negro with a capital N?

4. Let us consider the oft repeated statement, "I am glad or proud that I am a negro." We believe that the boasted declaration is false in ninty-nine cases out of every hundred, and shall give reasons for the belief that is in us. Talk is cheap, but deeds speak for themselves. We have learned that the meaning of the word "negro" is black.

But many of those "I am proud that I am a negro" boasters, are half white, and not a few of them are so near white, that a stranger would never suspect that they had colored blood in their veins. Is it possible, then, for any one to be proud of what does not exist, and for what he does not wish to exist? It is no sin to be black—but in this country, where so much prejudice exists, even among people of color, it is very inconvenient and annoying to be black—if you will be a man. And as it is totally contrary to human nature to delight in inconveniences and annoyances, we cannot be proud of a condition that brings these things upon us. As we all love to be placed under the the most favorable circumstances, and, other things being equal, a white man is so placed, I believe that if it were possible for every colored man in America to be white before night, there would not be one left to tell the tale on the morrow. But the homes of those "negro" boasters are the strongest proof against their insincerity. On entering their homes, after having listened to their speeches, you would feel sure of finding black wives and children. But alas! you are greeted. either by white wives, or by those as near white as could be had—and other things are not always equal. A man who loves black so well, that he declares that he is black when he is not, ought surely to have married a black woman when one could have been obtained easily. O, ye false boasters! Thy deeds are swift winged witnesses against you—and by your deeds you stand condemned. "But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead!" "Show me thy faith without thy works, and I will show thee my faith by my works." When you meet one of those "negro" sticklers—just say to him, "Why, you are black, with crisped hair, flat nose, high cheek bones, and thick, protruding lips;" (Webster's definition of negro) and if you are not knocked down, I think you can attribute the cause of it, more to the lack of ability or for fear of being disgraced, than to a want of feelings in the accosted friend to do so.

If you should happen to agree to the above definition, and are a single man, and do not wish to be sat upon, you had better not seek the hand and heart of a daughter of one of those fair, and yet would be black men.

We hate to be called "negro" just as much as we do to be called "nigger;" for the latter is simply a degradation of the former. The black races in Africa do not call themselves "negroes," and no one else has any right to give them the name—that the mean slave-hunting Spaniards applied to their human booty.

Let us stop trying to be either white or black, for many of us are neither, but let us be men, good, wise and true men—and let the color take care of itself.

But some will say, "If we lay down the color question we will lose our race pride and identity." There is no danger of the black man losing his, and as for us half white ones, we have no race to be proud of; and no man can deliver us.

The giants among us may be as tall as the sons of Anak, and may use the sling as skillfully as David, the sword as wieldy as Gideon, rhetoric as beautiful and as dazzling as Wendell Phillips, logic as clear cut and colossal as Lord Bacon and Daniel Webster, delivered with brilliant and matchless orarory, and yet they will fail to lift us out of the slough and make us a distinct race. The task is more than Herculean, and we might as well acknowledge it.

My great-grandfather was an Englishman; my grandfather was a Frenchman, and my grandmother was an African; but what am I? The problem is too complex for solution. I am colored it is true, but I cannot lay claim to any distinct race or nationality, and no man with white blood in him can and be honest, and "honesty is the best policy." You might as well call black white and white black, as to call that which is between the two, either, or to try to make a mixed people a distinct race. All such arguments pervert the truth, dethrone the reason and are void of common sense and illogical.

We believe that our editors, writers and speakers will do great service to the colored people in this country if they will now, henceforth and forever drop the word Negro, and use the word colored much less; and may God help them to do it, is our prayer.

Centenary Biblical Institute.

Ohio Politics.

SPRINGFIELD, O., July 2—The Prohibitionists nominated the following State ticket.

Governor—Rev. A. B. Leonard, of Clark County.

Lieutenant Governor—Prof. Wm. Goodell Frost, of Oberlin University, Lorain County.

Supreme Court Judge—Gideon T. Stewart, of Huron County.

State Treasurer—John Danner, of Stark County.

Attorney General—A. E. Cleveng,r of Clinton County.

Member of the Board of Public Works—John S. Neville, of Hardin County.

So far as known, the first four are ex-Republicans, and the two latter are ex-Democrats.

They stand upon the following platform.

"1. We demand an amendment to the constitution of our State forever prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage.

"We are unalterably opposed to the enactment of laws that propose by license, tax or otherwise to regulate the drink traffic, because they provide for its continuance and afford no protection against its ravages. We hold that the proper attitude of all good citizens towards this traffic is one of uncompromising hostility, and that the friends of prohibiton should not suffer themselves to be controlled by either of the old parties, because these parties have shown themselves subservient to the interests of the liquor traffic.

"2. The men who grow rich from all this misery have paralyzed the arm of government. They can be put down only by a movement which controls the legislature and all executive offices. The rum power, like the slave power, must be vanquished by a new party devoted to that express purpose.

"3 The position of the two wings of the great liquor party, the one advocating license declared by the constitution to be illegal, and the other unalterably committed to the principles of taxation and regulation as formulated in the 'Scott law.' declared by our Supreme Court to be unconstitutional, leaves no loyal citizen any alternative but to cast his lot with the party of Prohibition. A temperance man nominated as a republican or democrat will feel in honor bound to defend his party platform, and not to push temperance in a way which might hurt his party by driving off liquor votes. We therefore, urge the friends of humanity to support the candidates of the prohibition party, and to form no alliances with the old parties.

3. Moral efforts for reclaiming the drunkard and extending the pledge of total abstinence must never be relaxed. We heartily congratulate the National Temperance Society and the noble Union of Christian women upon their heroic labors, and bid all workers for temperance, by whatever methods, God speed.

"5. In all offices whose functions are not political—post-offices and many others—men should be appointed, retained and promoted for proved faithfulness and capacity, without regard to party. The corrupting spoils element must be removed from political contests. We demand full protection of the franchise, which is the basis of our civil liberties; and favor the disfranchisement of those who tamper with votes or voters, and the most perfect system of registration.

"We favor a uniform law for the regulation of marriage and divorce in all the States, founded upon the Divine law.

"The Negro race has our hearty sympathy in its efforts to overcome the disadvantages arising from centuries of oppression, and in asserting their civil rights.

"6. We oppose violent changes in the tariff, and such as are made should not be made in the interest of any particular classes, but with a fair and impartial consideration of both labor and capital, producers and consumers.

"7 We heartily endorse the principles embraced in the memorial of the Voters' Union, presented to the several political parties of the State, and we cordially invite the Second Amendment voters to support us in the great conflict between the home and the saloon.

"8. God requires and men needs a Sabbath both for rest and worship, and we view with alarm the encroachments upon and the threatened destruction of the Christian and civil Sabbath through the saloon traffic.

"9. We recognize civil government for man as ordained by his Creator, to whose laws human enactments should conform as an indispensable condition of peace, prosperity and happiness.

Both the ticket and the platform were agreed to with great enthusiasm.

To the Members of the Tennessee Conference.

The centennial collections will be reported at our next conference. What have you done? If you have taken the collection, perhaps you may increase it before conference. The Freedman's department of this centennial collection should meet with a very hearty response. The society is greatly in debt, and needs additional funds to pay teachers, to build new houses, and to aid students in attending school. This centennial collection is a special fund for educational purposes. The Tennessee conference should raise from the churches at least two thousand dollars. The Lexington conference has set about doing this by resolving to raise four scholarships for $500 each, for the Central Tennessee College. The Tennessee conference should not fail to do as well. Will the preachers present this matter to the people. Give a chance to those who have more means and can do so, to subscribe larger amounts than they can pay at once. Some perhaps will agree to pay five, ten, or more dollars a year, for five years, towards the college endowment funds. There are many of the friends of education who can do this and if presented to them will gladly do that much towards establishing this school on a firmer basis. The preachers may pay their subscriptions to the college by their collections. Shall we have a report from every preacher of special collection on account of the Freedmen and Central Tennessee College? The centennial collection for Freedmen is to be devoted to special purposes, and by the action of the conference it may be devoted to the aid of the college within our bounds. Very few of us will take the next centennial collection. Let us leave an example of earnest asking, and liberal giving that shall be worthy of imitation, a hundred years hence. J. BRADEN, Chm'n.

Tenn. Conf. Centenial Com.

Nashville, Tenn., July 1st 1885.

From the Districts,

Gulf District—Mississippi Conference.

REV. W. McDONALD.

Moss Point, Miss., April 22, 1885, the members of this district conference arrived at Moss Point. Rev. O. Gillespie, pastor, was waiting and well prepared to entertain the district conference, and the good people of Moss Point opened their doors and freely received the brethren of the conference, and the conference was never better cared for on the Gulf District. On the 23d the first session of the district conference convened, at 8 a. m., Rev. W. McDonald in the chair. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. W. McDonald, presiding elder. On motion N. Cannon was elected Secretary, and the roll being called the following traveling preachers answered to their names: N Cannon, H Mays, G W Smith, O Gillespie, C H Brown, S H Nevils, J H Cook, D F Dudley, E Harris; eight local preachers answered to the roll and two Sunday-school superintendents, one class leader and one district steward. On motion the following committees were appointed by the presiding elder: Committee on the Appointment of the Local preachers and Preachers in Charge of Circuits. Committee on Benevolent Causes, N Cannon, O Gillespie, J H Cook. Committee on Church Extension: G W Smith, S H Nevils, J H Cook, J L Carter, A Johnson. Committee on Temperance: N Cannon, G W Smith, H Mays. Committee on Sunday-schools and Freedmen's Aid Society.

The following are the amounts of apportionments to each charge: Bay St. Louis, $30; Brookhaven, $30; China Grove, $10; Columbia, $15; Crystal Springs, $35; Fayette, $20; Fayette circuit, $3; Georgetown, $5; Hamburg, $10; Handsboro, $40; Hattesburg, $15; Liberty, $15; New Hope, $40; Pascagonla, $40; Pass Christian, $25; Purvis, $5; Summit and Magnolia, $20; Spring Chapel, $5; Union Church, $30; Vernal, $16; total $376.

Programme of religions and literary exercises for the next meeting: How to hold official meeting—J K Comfort. What is religion?—O Gillespie. Why is the Lord's Supper and Baptism called sacrament?—J Ford. Can a person fall from grace?—J H Cook. Self education—W McDonald. External evidence—H L Kennedy. Internal evidence, N Cannon. Church extension—C P Head. Class meeting—J Drayden. The attributes of God—H Mays. Ministerial support—G W Smith. The fall of man—R Roundtree. Christian perfection—S H Nevils. Biblical theology—D F Dudley. Evangelical repentance—W H McCarty. Stewards duties—W H Mimms. The duties of a Methodist preacher—E Harris. Power of prayer—P E Bardwell. Local preachers, exhorters, district stewards, Sunday-school superintendents and class-leaders are expected to select their own subjects. All the preachers will please save this notice for the next district conference."

Louisville District—Lexington Conference.

REV. W. W. LOCKE, P. E.

The greater number of the members were present at the roll call. The sacrament of the Lord's supper was administered to about 80 persons at the opening of conference. The elder then made some brief remarks on the work of the conference already begun. The elder made a brief report, showing the wonderful progress of his work. The reports of the pastors were read and their work was reported in a prosperous condition. The reports of all the local preachers were also heard and show that their work has been at heart. The reports of the exhorters show their faithfulness to the duty assigned them. The district stewards in their reports show that the work [illegible] present is in good condition [illegible]. The Sunday-schools [illegible] engaged in growing condition, and the pastors generally [illegible] for the up-building of their schools. The class-leaders in in their reports show that the classes of the several charges are in good condition also. The conference was well attended and was highly appreciated by those who attended. Rev. W. W. Locke is a man of special note and ability. He is very plain and frank, and is just the man we have been looking for, and we are glad the Lord so directed Dr. Taylor's mind when he was wondering within his mind, with the Rev. J. Courtney hunting over the many names, that he at last found the name of Willis Worthy Locke, who, when he received the message to come down to us, was taken very ill. But the Bishop, when he asked to be excused from the district, said to him, "What is written is written." But he is well now; the plaster was put where the pain was, and it cured every pain and all the disease, and the man is well and alive. We feel that all the pastors are so filled with courage that they will bring in their sheaves rejoicing at the next annual conference. Though the work is great and heavy we intend to pull through every storm and meet our many warm-hearted brethren at Bowling Green. It seems that every place is supplied with the right man. We ask the sympathy of all who desire to see us go on that we may prosper. Rev. S. G. Turner, with his good people, kindly received and cared for us while we were in their midst. Rev. Turner has become well satisfied, and is doing wonderful work at Lagrange. It is said that he has the best trained Sabbath-school on the district. He has a number of good workers, with Bro. S. A. Fisher and others, who are striving to build up the work in general. A resolution, by Rev. J. A. Ross, was offered and adopted to hold a Sunday-school convention on the 22d of July, and on the 25th a Sunday school union picnic, at the Short Line Park, situated on the L N & C. R. R., near Lagrange.

Bro. Albert informs us that Revivals are in progress in nearly every charge on the LaTeche district, Lonisiana conference since the Annual conference to June 8. There has been 309 conversions, besides a number of backsliders who have returned to their first love. The conversions are distributed as follows: St. Martinsvills, 2; Booneville, 7; Alexandria, 9; Waxia, 10; Cheneyville, 17; Jeannerette, 20; Pineville, 27; Hubertville, 28; Washington, 34; Opelonsas, 35; New Iberia, 50; Glencoe, 70. Total 309. He also says that crop prospects are most excellent.

Letters from the Pastors.

Rev. L. Felder writes from Bryan, Texas: "The presiding elder held my second quarterly conference April 25 26. He preached from the 8th chapter of the Acts, 8th verse; the topic of his text was joy. He administered the Lord's supper to 25, some of whom were Baptists. Our collection was $2.95 for elder, and for pastor, up to date, $14. The reports of the pastor, local preacher superintendent and class leaders were favorable.

Rev. T. P. Philips writes from Ashland, Ala.: "Our second quarterly meeting was held at Ashland, May 23-24. Rev. O. Nelson, presiding elder was present with us and preached two able sermons for us at 11 and 3 p. m., to a large congregation at the court-house; about 200 whites were present, among them lawyers and doctors. We had a large number of converrions. At 9 a. m. Elder Nelson addressed the Sabbath-school; his lecture will long be remembered here by both whites and colored. We have raised for the presiding elder $10.50; for pastor $22.85, this quarter; our district is now in its brightest days, and going on to perfection. We feel that Ashville district, a few years hence will be the light of the Central Alabama Conference, for it stands at the head at the present time."

Rev. M. C. Cavenas writes from Weimar: "We came to the work the second Sunday in December, and met a very good people. We have three preaching places on the work, of which Weimar is the first. At this place we found 10 members, now we have 16. This is the only place on the work that gives me any trouble. Here I have one class-leader and two local preachers who think I am too young; the leader is a steward and trustee, and this man said to a Sister, "keep count of every meal the preacher eats and charge him 25 cents a meal." He told the people that they had no right to give the preacher anything, and all that they had to give bring it to him and he would charge it. One of the local preachers, being a trustee, he said if things did not go to suit him he would lock up the church and put the key in his pocket. They said a great many other things that I shall not write now; but you, who have to do with such men know how it is. I am trying to do good here. From here I go to Dry Branch, one of my preaching places. Here I find a good people; they think a great deal of their pastor, and will do all they can for him. From here I go to Smith Point, where I meet a great many and a very good people. They have not got much money but they give me something to eat. One dear brother here said that before his preacher should suffer he would suffer himself. God bless such men. The work is growing. I found 38 members, now we have 52; 15 conversions, 2 Sunday-schools, 150 people. The Sunday-schools are not as good as they ought to be, but they are growing. We have 16 subscribers for the SOUTHWESTERN.

Rev. S. H. Nevils writes from Hazlehurst, Miss: "We had a grand time in our quarterly conference business. Sunday morning Elder McDonald preached an interesting sermon. At 3 p. m. Rev. Chas. B. Galloway, D.D., editor of the New Orleans Christian Advocate, preached a most powerful and soul stirring sermon, and it seemed that everybody witnessed the presence of the Holy Ghost. The elder and Dr. Galloway administered the Lord's supper to about 48 persons. The elder preached us another soul-reviving sermon at night. We paid the elder $10.35."

Letters From the Laity.

The following is the substance of a pleasant letter from Bro. Charles Murray a thinking local preacher of Morgan City, La: "I am alive and hope to live for ever. I am a young watchman on the walls of the Methodist Episcopal Church. From what I can learn most of our people are members of the Methodist and Baptist churches. There are a good many revivals and baptizings among us, but when they are over we soon forget them, and things get on pretty much as before. If every preacher would teach night school for five nights in the week I think the effect would be beneficial. My subscription is nearly out but don't stop the paper, I must not be without it. I have plenty more to say but will stop at present."

Mr. D. C. Lacy, writes from Groesbnck, Texas: "Rev. J. Buel is our pastor and he is doing a grand work in way of up building. He is loved by all the members of his church here. Up to the present time he has had twelve conversions, ten of whom have already joined our church. Our church is progressing spiritually and the Sabbath-school has about one hundred and thirty scholars in it. We lack some few of our periodicals that are needed in a first class Sabbath- school. Our Presiding Elder, W. H. Davis, was with us on the 23rd and 24th ult. attending the business of the second quarterly conference and we had a grand time on Sunday. His text at 11 o'clock was "Thou art weighed in the balance and art found wanting." At 3 o'clock, "The wages of sin is death but the gift of God, is eternal life." At night, "I will arise and go to my father." One hundred partook of the sacrament of the Lord's supper. seven adults were baptized and five infants also were brought forth for baptism. The collection $13.

Rev. D. J. Price writes from Allen, La.: "Our presiding elder was with us pursuant to appointment, and was gladly received by all. Bro. P. Landry was on time, accompanied by H J. Wright, of Natchitoches. Bro. Wright is an active worker and a quick thinker. Come again Bro. Wright. Bro. P. Landry is just what the SOUTHWESTERN says he is—a thorough man for business, and full of work and logic. Old and young, colored and white are satisfied with Bro. Landry's control of affairs. He is a lover of children, takes care of his young men and cares for his old men. He seems to love his business and works for the welfare of the community. He reminds me of the character of our dear Savior, the phrase of Scripture that says not even a sparrow falls to the earth without God's notice. Bro. Landry is somewhat the same; he notices the very least member of the church, he controls all his affairs without pets or partiality. Our first quarterly conference was held March 26. Bro. H. C. Watson, who was taken from the A. M. E. Church, offered prayer at the opening, after which, on motion of J. H. Pierre, D. J. Price was elected secretary and H. J. Wright assistant. Then Bro. Landry made some remarks, every word was put in its place, and aroused the conference one and all with unanimous amens. We love him, we delight in his counsel and regulations. Then business; when he said that this circuit must try and raise $42 this year. On Thursday night Bro. Wright and the elder preached the Gospel to a crowded house, after which a large number communed. Friday morning away he went on the railroad. God bless him; for him our prayers ascend. At Marthaville we are now building a new church 25x35; we have the lumber, blocks, etc, on the ground. March 29th we had a union meeting, at Marthaville and commenced service at 10 a. m. The following preachers collections: Revs. D Lewis, $1.10; W. R. Butler, $4 40; J. P. Calvin, $1 30; J. M. Carter, $4 25; D. J. Price, $1.15; H. Brown, $1 25; Chas. Mack, $1.25; Jack Abbott, $1 50; J. H. Pierre, $3 50; total, $20. We lack about $40 more to complete our church, which we want to complete by the third Sunday in May, and preach the 11 o'clock sermon in it that day. Pray for us at Marthaville. The people are willing and thrifty; they will go forward; the whites are helping us here. At Allen we are hard at work. We have organived a Woman's Home Missionary Society. The following are the officers: Sisters Hannah Carr, President; Laura J. Price, Vice-President; Mary H. Pierre, Secretary; Francis Mack, treasurer; Marceline Colton, Kneely Summage, Kneely Smyth and Tamar Brown; March 28, 1885. We have also organized a Preacher's meeting at Allen with J. H. Pierre, President, and D. J. Price, Secretary; March 14, 1885. Also a Look-up Legion Society among Sunday-school children was organized with Mary Mobley, President; Lonisa Wiltz, Vice President; V. P. Sallie Secretary; Fanny Bonds, Assistant Secretary; Mary Davis, Treasurer, for the girls; total membership, 30; March 29, 1885. On Easter Sunday, text Matt. 28, 6: "He has risen as he said," at Hason, by J. H. Pierre; at Mt. Moriah, by D. J. Price; at Union, by J. Abbott; at St. Paul, by Chas. Mack. On Thursday night last our love feast meeting at 7 p. m., and we had a good time."

Mr. H. Woodard writes from Springfield, Tennnessee: "Our memorial service of Bishop Wiley, held by the Sunday-school, was a time here that will not soon be forgotten among this people. Collections as follows by name; they say that no preacher would ever report their names to let other people know that they can work and do work for the M. E. Church: Rev. E. Wimley, of the Baptist Church, 10c; Jack Nenols 25c, Millie Green 5c, Mrs. July Brad 50c, J W Lucas 5c, F Green 10c, Miss C Mahoney, 25c, Eddie Wells 5c, Callie Lucas 5c, Richard Adams 5c, Watson Thomas 5c, Samantha Watson 5c, Linie Thomas 5c, Willie Childress 15c, Miss Sarah Morgan 50c, Mrs Maranda Redman 50c, G Swiney 5c, Miss Lee Green 6c, Mary Bradford 5c, Jhannete Edwards 5c, Bettie Williams 5c, Victory Bradford 5c, Rev. W J Young, A. M, E. Church, 25c, Rev. B W Dunlap, Baptist Church, 25c, H Woodard 10c, Miss Mary Green 10c, Henry Bradford 10c, T W Johnson 20c, Chartie Cass 40c, Lue Darton 5c, Laura Lucas 5c, Noavil Hutson 10c, Fannie Borden 5c, Emily McMurry 5c, Lucy Relepaste 15c, Laura Murphy 15c, Willis Hutson 5c, A P Blakemore 50c, Rev. A Harten, Baptist Church, 25c. Also report of the entertainment given by the Sunday-school Saturday night, $7 35; total amount raised $13.15, all for work on the preacher's house. There are some names not mentioned. We are working for Christ's kingdom. Our pastor is one of the working preachers of the M. E. Church of the Nashville district, Tennessee Conference. We had 21 converts and 14 additions; paid the pastor $55; elder $9.05; dismissed 2. We are moving on to the right. We solicit the prayers of all that our pastor in his last year with us may not be forgotten; we would that he were with us longer. There has been more work done since he has been here than any one else has ever accomplished, He is a man of God, it seems his whole heart is in the work."

Addie M. Loudon writes from Quittman, Miss.; Rev. L. J. S. Bell, of Qutman, Miss., attended his regular appointment at Mt. Olive, southeast of Quitman, on the 18th of April, at 11 o'clock a. m., Mr. L. J. S. Bell preached a very able sermon from the text, "The Lord has risen indeed. He brought in so many figures of explanation to prove to the congregation that they have a risen Saviour to day. A deep religious feeling was impressed on the congregation, and shedding of tears. This was an excellent sermon. At 3 o'clock p. m., Parson L. J. S. Bell organized the Sabbath school in the Missionary Society.

At 3 p. m, after singing a glorious hymn, he preached a very interesting sermon from the text, "O Taste and See that the Lord is Good." After he had given the attendance a short sermon many of the Christians came before the altar, bearing witness with the text: "I know I tasted of the Lord Sunday evening." Parson Bell became very happy and a great many more. I thank God for sending us a preacher that can preach the gospel.

Mr. George P. Patrick writes from Galveston: 'I am pleased to offer to you for publication in your valuable columns a most interesting sermon delivered by Prof. Fortson' most ably and forcibly propounded to a large audience at St. Pauls M. E. Church on Sunday, April 26, at 8 p. m. The text selected for the occasion was from the 12th chapter of 2nd Corinthians and 9th verse; My grace is sufficient. I am proud to say, though not a member of the church, but a well wisher and always appreciate a good sermon. Our church has for sometime been quite cold, but the able speaker above named aroused her to a sense of her duty, and watered her plants with a shower of nourishing waters, and she is at present, springing as a cherished flower from a rich bed. We have an intelligent congregation who are always proud to meet, receive and welcome such brethren as we believe Prof. Fortson to be. He has promised to remain in our midst until the 29th. During his short stay much is anticipated in our revival now going on. We would be pleased to have him to remain longer. We regret his departing from us and his stay so short. Our Sabbath school is in a thriving condition, with an average attendance of about 100 scholars.

Bro. J. B. Ledbetter writes from Exprairie circuit: Our first quarterly conference was held April 25, 1785, on Exprairie circuit, and Elder Rev. J. Campbell was present and Rev. W. Jones, pastor. He was met by all of the officers, and the reports were all good. Local preachers, stewards and class leaders were all prepared to meet. The quarter or circuit is in a growing condition; Sabbath schools are in a prosperous condition; number of Sunday Schools, 6; number of scholars, 354; pastor's salary for this year is $500 and paid $47.60, and for benevolences we have adopted $50, for missions $80, for bishops $30; for conference claimants $10, and presiding elder $65. On Sunday the elder preached to a large congregation, he preached from the 19th chapter of Luke, 5th verse; it will be long remembered by us, and administered the Lord's Supper to 107. A collection $20 was taken up for the elder on the 26th. We want to do more for the Lord this year; more for the paper this conference year than we have in the past. Pray for us, Bro. W. Jones is the right man in the right place; he is loved by all.

A Word Against Alcohol in Favor of the People.

REV. W. E. R. DUNCAN.

According to the best report of the statisticians, alcohol cost the people of the United States $1,000,000,000. It costs 90 per cent of all crimes that's committed, nevertheless after it is extensively used according to the source from which it is derived, its total cost is $1,485,000,000. Good men only wish to stop its manufacture as a beverage, and allow enough to remain for medicinal, mechanical and sacramental purposes.

For these purposes we will allow $485,000,000. Then there still remain $1,000,000,000, which is lost and worse than lost every year. But it is said that the whisky sellers pay such large revenue. Suppose that he pays $1 for every gallon he manufactures; when he sells the whisky to the retail dealer does he not add the $1 of revenue? does he not estimate that cost and the additional cost of his license and put it all into the price of the glass which he sells to the consumer? certainly. Then it is the consumer who pays for the revenue and the license and what little whisky he may chance to find in the adulterated whisky he drinks; but who are the consumer? They are found in all the professional pursuits of life. What part does the farmer and mechanic pay of this enormous debt? They nearly pay all of it. How? Does not the merchant and the lawyer and the doctor pay their part? Yes; and they are also beneficial to the country, in fact we could not prosper without the merchant to deliver our goods, and the lawyer to adjust our legal differences and the doctor to heal our desease. These we must and should have. But how can these men live unless they put their whisky bill, whatever it may be upon the price of their goods or their fees, of course a large number of these do not drink; the idea that we wish to convey is that the whisky debt of $1,000,000,000, is finally paid by the farmers and mechanics. It cannot be otherwise, they are the substratum of civil society.

Suppose that this clear loss of $1,000,000,000 was turned into fattening hogs; at $1 per bushel for corn it would fatten 10,000,000 million hogs, weighing 200 pounds each, this would make 20,000,000,000 pounds of meat to supply the United States, or over three hundred thousand pounds for every man, woman and child. In addition to this tremendous cost it causes 90 per cent of all the crimes in our country.

Here is found, also, the greater part of the cost of the criminal prosecutions of our country. It does more, it entails the most fatal disease upon those who are swept into its most terrible grasp. The deaths are scattered all over our country; but when they are gathered up the number of deaths which occur every year cause the most raging epidemic to fall before it. There are in this country 600,000 drunkards who are marching with the greatest rapidity to this horrible death at the rate of 60,000 per year. Here is 60,000 widows and 250,000 children. They are grief stricken and poverty staring them in the face, and they are depending upon the cold charities of the world, and no one coming to their help or to release them. What must this nation do! Only one answer to this question. "Trust in God and do the right." To our people and for our people.

Van Buren, June 13, 1885.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Duty of Christian Women.

BY MRS. E. A LANKFORD.

Every woman should be an active worker in the home missionary field. The report of the corresponding secretary of the M. E. Church held in St. Paul Church, Cincinnati, Ohio, April 24th, show the receipts for the quarter to be as follows:

Total receipts.....$12,569 92
Expenditures..... 10,331 07

Leaving a balance in the treasury to date of $2,238 85. Now this is the work of a single quarter. Christian women of Little Rock shall we not do all in our power to press this glorious work onward?

There are in New Orleans seven schools under the supervision of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, with 530 pupils and an encouraging work is going on in Utah—21 Mormons converted largely through the influence of this society.

A beautiful home, costing $2000, is to be erected at Orangeburg, South Carolina, in honor of Bishop Simpson.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society is a society for women to help women. There is first the American women who can help others, and the American women who need help, and the duty which demands that the help be given. All cannot enter the active field as workers, but all can give their mites to advance the work. Woman can attend to her household duties better if trained to thoroughness by Euclid and Virgil. It is she who can help her neighbor and work after God's manner. The amount of work done by Christian women of this country is not known. During the great crusade, about 10 years ago on bended knees, she prayed for her country's good, and the greatest moneyed monopoly—the liquor traffic—received a deadly blow, and I believe we will yet sound its funeral. Think of the thousands who need her help. The most inspiring and attractive field which invites our efforts is the home. First in importance, and first in number, are the homes of the uninformed, destitute and unfortunate of our race, of our own kith and kin. Thousands of our young men and women are denied even the privilege of common schools. To these we must add the women of far away Alaska, the 130,000 Indian women, bending under burdens. The Chinese of our Western coast, who are slaves sold to the most horrid life; and the women of Spanish America. Some of us think we have enough to do to care for our own benighted [illegible] but does not our blessed Master say, "Bear ye one another's burden?" Does he not forbid selfishness? Has he not said, "Vengeance is mine," and are we not all without regard to rate, color or condition of servitude, sisters and brothers in Christ. We must give all these our help, because it is the [illegible] investment we can [illegible] drink, because [illegible] gives to every [illegible] whether he [illegible] them.

ing it necessary in self defence to keep our homes intact, because we have the opportunity and knowledge, with no new language to learn or perils incident to changes of climate, and lastly and highest of all because it is God's command. We believe that the character of a people depends mainly on its home. Our special aim, therefore, is to improve home enviroments, home education, home industries and home influences. We would cherish no unfriendly feeling of rivalry toward any other organization of our church, or of any other christian church. We wish to strive for the attainment of these worthy ends by means upon which we can, with an assured hope, conscientiously invoke the Divine blessing. With intemperance at home, with ignorance and degradation in our South, with heathenism among our Indians, with polygony and disloyalty among the Mormons, shall we not humble ourselves before God, and cry mightily unto Him for a baptism of power, that every woman going home from this meeting may carry back with her a great awakening light of her individual duty to do all in her power to aid in this grand and glorious work! And now, looking into your earnest faces, I read again our object and united aims to build up within our inner lives and the lives of all about us, characters so pure and good that we may all be prepared for that land, where no pain nor sorrow come, where tears are unknown, and when, in the celestial mansion, with our own precious loved ones, we shall be forever more at home. To this glorious end let us consecrate our time, talents and gifts; and with the blessing of God, enter the field with renewed vigor and hope, working and praying: "Thy kingdom come."

A New Method of Historical Study.

BY WILBUR P. THIRKIELD.

I have found out a new way of studying history. This method puts aside the old, large cumbrous volume, with dates and figures and figments and gratultous moralizings of the historian. It is a sort of living over the great events of history; a seeing of the chief actors in the drama of our national life; the hearing of them in their own words, and feeling the power and pathos of their living speech. It is history given in the living, breathing words of contemporary leaders, rather than in the cold and formal paragraphs of the writer who sits in his study, and gets his scenes and views from books and pamphlets which are, at best, but shadowy reflections of the events and scenes they chronicle.

If history be what the great Spanish writer has called it, "the mother of truth and the depository or great actions," then this new method of historical study should have its place side by side with the old custom of the schools.

The plan of study to which I refer is to take the representative orations that the successive periods in our national history have called forth; by some manual of dates, keep the thread of history and the flow of events; and, through the readings of these orations, get a living view of our national life.

In casting about for some collection of orations to suit my purpose I have lighted upon the series of "Representative American Orations," edited by Prof. Alexander Johnson and published G. P. Putnam's Sons, New York. "British Orations" are issued by them also in the same style. Moore's "American Eloquence" might have been made to serve, but these volumes fit in and fill out our plan of study to perfection. No more beautiful specimens of the book-maker's art ever fell from the Knickerbocker Press, that is famed for its luxurious editions of Irving's writings. In size and type and general dress, they are all that could be desired. The author, well fitted for his task, has edited these orations with great care. The plan of arrangement is admirable. The orations are placed in historical groups, and from colonial times to the days of Civil War and Reconstruction, no important event in our national history is omitted. Every great crisis has its spokesman; each period finds its orator and incarnates itself in his living words, as if God has fitted the man for the hour and the hour for the man.

We see in these volumes the place that oratory has held in our national growth. Our early struggles and later crises were specially adapted to call forth heated debates and furnished a field for the display of the power of eloquence in changing or moulding the course of history. By such study we also learn the spirit and motives of the leaders in our eventful career, and the comments of the editor give us a thread that binds the whole in one continuous history.

To illustrate my idea of the helpfulness of such a method of study, we, for example, catch the spirit of our colonial history in the fiery speeches of Patrick Henry, and the calmer words of Alexander Hamilton and the broad and thoughtful inaugural of George Washington, show us how the young nation was guided through those stormy times. We have also a view of the formation of the constitutional government, and the rise of Democracy in the orations of Fisher Ames, Jefferson, John Randolph, Quincy and Henry Clay.

In the debates of Calhoun, Hayne and Daniel Webster on the Senate floor, we see through what a fire and what a heat our nationality was shaped and our Union was formed. We behold the scene now, as the great orator, with massive brow and flashing eye, in that triumph of American oratory, closes his reply to Hayne with the words: "Dear to every American heart; Liberty and Union, now and for ever, one and inseparable."

It takes an entire volume of orations to give us a view of the anti slavery struggle. This period of our history properly opens with the great speech of Wendell Phillips in Faneuil Hall, on the murder of Lovejoy in 1837. We need no words of the historian to bring the whole scene before us. The speech itself does this. We see the surging, anxious crowd. We hear applauded that sentiment of the officer high in State, condemning to silence the voices of the slave's few defenders, when the spare form and classic face of Phillips are seen struggling to a position on the platform. At last the slave has found a living voice which Garrison's types could not supply. How those words of Phillips, so brave and strong, ring out even to day: "Sirs, when I heard the gentlemen lay down principles which place the murderers of Alton side by side with Otis and Hancock, with Quincy and Adams, I thought those pictured lips [pointing to their portraits in the hall] would have broken into voice to rebuke the recreant American, the slanderers of the dead."

Here we have the moving pictures of history in the speeches of Calhoun on the slavery question; Webster in his infamous compromise speech; Chase and Sumner and Douglas on the Kansas Nebraska struggle. Then follow orations which give us a clear view of secession in the hot debates of the Senate by such men as Crittenden, Robert Toombs, Thaddeus Stevens and "Sunset" Cox.

The stirring history of the period of Civil War and Reconstruction stands forth in the inaugural addresses of Abraham Lincoln and Jefferson Davis; in the speeches of Alexander Stephens, Douglass and Vallandingham; in the ever-to-be-remembered words of Lincoln at Gettysburg in the heat of the conflict, together with his second inaugural address. Garfield on the "Reaction Against Reconstruction; and Atticus G. Haygood's "Thanksgiving Sermon" give a fitting close to this national history, so full of calm and struggle, of the arts of peace and the clash of war. The strange and startling contrasts of the speeches and orations as they stand side by side in these volumes give us a clearer view of the contrasts and crises of our national life than any formal history could portray.

The other day the train bore me along swiftly through the heart of South Carolina, as I sat reading Sumner's scathing reply to the senator from that State, which incited Brooks (of South Carolina) to his dastardly assault upon the Massachusetts Senator. Then I read his mean defense for that cowardly and brutal assault, delivered before the House. I laid aside my book. In imagination, I witnessed that scene on the edge of the "irrepressible conflict" into which the nation was drifting. As I rode by the battle fields once red with the carnage of fraternal blood, I lived over that awful history of Secession and Civil War and cruel, bloody reconstruction era. Then I thought, here am I in the midst of this Southern State, to give a commencement address before the sons of the slaves whom this conflict and blood, in the providence of God, liberated, and in an institution partly supported by this same State of South Carolina. As I rolled along in the cars, I took up another volume and as I read the Thanksgiving Sermon of Dr. Haygood, who turns from the highest honors of the church, to give his powers to the task of negro education, I joined in his paean of praise to God who had saved our nation and freed the slave, and whose hand was guiding us gradually into the green pastures of prosperity, and by the still waters of peace.

There Shall be no Alps.

When Napoleon talked of invading Italy one of his officers said: "But, sire, remember the Alps." To an ordinary man these would have seemed simply insurmountable, but Napoleon responded eagerly: "There shall be no Alps." So the famous Simplon pass was made. Disease, like a mountain, stands in the way of fame, fortune and honor to many who by Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" might be healed and so the mountains would disappear. It is a specific for all blood, chronic lung and liver diseases, such as consumption (which is scrofula of the lungs), pimples, blotches, eruptions, tumors, swellings, fever-sores and kindred complaints.

The annual increase of adult converts to the four Free Church mission in Livingstonia, Africa, is 400 or more than the average congregation in this country.

The clergy of Florida in the past 10 years have increased from 17 to 40, and the list of communicants from less than 700 to 1,994 There have been erected in the same period 42 churches and chapels.

A Lady's Opinion.

Mrs. Geo. Gilbert, Bryan, Ohio, writes: "DR. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, Ohio: I commenced on the fifth bottle of your PERUNA this morning, and should just as soon think of doing without my meals as without my medicine. I have been doctoring for about four years, and kept getting worse all the time and was just giving up in despair when I got one of your books, "The Ills of Life." I was in bed at the time. I read and re-read your book and felt like trying your medicine. My folks thought there was no use in trying anything more, I was too far gone, and might as well make up my mind to die. I told them PERUNA was the medicine I needed, and I intended to try a bottle. It proved a success in breaking the chills, and if it had not done one thing more, I would have been satisfied. But it has done more, and I feel like another person. Everybody that sees me is surprised to see me looking so well, as they all thought I was dying with consumption, and now my own folks have as much to say for the PERUNA as I. I recommend it to everybody I see. There were two of our neighbors in yesterday inquiring about the PERUNA. I gave the one my book to read; told her to bring it back, as I prized it very highly. The other got the name of the PERUNA to send to his son in Chicago. He is a telegraph operator. My disease is something similar to Mrs. Milo Ingram's, though nothing compared to being so bad. There was a lump raised on my collar bone, and it was a long time before it looked like opening. The doctor said he would have to lance it in a few days, but I thought I would attend to that myself, so I put a little fly blister on it and it opened; then I put a poultice on and then salve, and kept the salve on all the time. It got so bad and spread upon my left shoulder, and one place under my left breast. Then there were two places on my head, one near the temple and one back of my ear that was just dreadful. No tongue can tell what I suffered. My head felt so strange sometimes, I thought I was going crazy. Since I have used the PERUNA (I don't use the salve any more) my sores healed up right away. And oh, what a relief it is to get around without chilling and having to suffer with my sores. I feel like letting everybody know all about it."

John Ferguson, Gallitzin, Pa., writes: "Your PERUNA is a good medicine, and we sell lots of it. Will you please send us some more 'Ills of Life,' with a few German."

Despise Not the Day of Small Things.

Little things may help a man to rise—a bent pin in an easy chair for instance, D. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pillets" are small things, pleasant to take, and they cure sick-headaches, relieve torpid livers and do wonders. Being purely vegetable they cannot harm any one. All druggists.

Valuable information for every one who plants a single seed such as could not be obtained from any twenty agricultural text books is to be found free in D. M. Ferry & Co's Seed Annual for 1885, which is mailed to any one sending his name and address to D. M. Ferry & Co, Detroit, Mich.

Hunter's remedy purifies the blood by assisting the kidneys to carry off all impurities

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches.
History of the U. S.—Ridpath	$3 00
Scripture History.—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net	60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) Net	5
History of ethodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.)	3 00
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Edition of 1884
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol. 1) sett	5 00
Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs	2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scripture chapters I XXX—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope,) Vol I) sett	7 50
Plain Account of hristian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill, Net	1 00
Written Sermons.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
Christian Purity—Foster	1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introdnotion to the Holy Scriptures. (chapters XXI-LII)—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology.—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
Lessons in Logic.—Sevons. Net	40
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged). Stevens	3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory	85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church Vol. II.—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introdnction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: chapters I-XIII.—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope Vol. III	7 50
Atonement in christ.—Miley	1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn	2 50
Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Homiletics.—Kidder	1 50
Written Sermon
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst	3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introdnotion to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters XIX XLIV Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Theological Institutes Part II.—Watson	6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written Exegesis
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St Paul.—onybeare and Howson (Abridged Edition)	1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry
History of Rationalism.—Hurst	3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst	$ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
hristian Theology. Introdnction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884)
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.—Walker	1 25
To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism.—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St. Paul.—Fletcher	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill	1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst	50
Ancient History.—Thalheimer
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	3 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged Edition).—Stevens	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible. Sacraments
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield	2 50
Plain Account of hristian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill	1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven	90
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol I.) Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Nast	5 00
Era of the Protestant Revolution.—Seehohn	1 25
	75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII.—Wakefield	2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.)	45
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II. hooks to Antinomianism.—Fletcher	5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher	2 50
Protestant Foreign Missions.—hristlieb	1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,

PHILLIPS & HUNT.
37 Natchez St. New Orleans.

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Pictures Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delay in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT
37 Natchez St., New Orleans

Juvenile Periodicals

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1885 at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Exclusively for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful pictures.

Our Little Men and Women

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely new stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY,

An Eight page Weekly, for Boys and Girls.

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day and Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez St., New Orleans

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, JULY 15, 1885.

Special to Agents.

Forward at once to this office all you have collected, or that you can collect within a short time after reading this. If you can do no better send one subscription, the cash with the name. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

The Savannah Echo, belongs to the never surrendere. It has the consistency and high sense of integrity to maintain its strong Republican affinity in a time of Republican defeat, which is right.

The one crop business is what does the impoverishing work for Louisiana laborers. We must have a diversified crop regime if we would prosper. No money until the sugar or cotton is made will never do for poor people. And it is by no means best for rich ones.

The quarterly conference of Asbury, Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. H. J. wright pastor, have set in motion such action as they deem needful for a more influential expression of temperance sentiment in that community, in co operation with their white temperance fellow citizens there.

Give God the Glory.

Mr. Wm. H. Doyle, late superintendent of mills in Tokio, Japan, and Shanghai, China, has a theory that the supposed enchanted waters alleged to have been discovered in Lourdes by Bernadette, a French girl, has magically saved him from physical and financial ruin. Mr. Doyle may have been a physical and financial bankrupt, and he may be restored from both, but it is, if so, through the help of God, medicine and economic industry. Give God the glory.

A Completed Christian Character.

Faith in God the Father, Son and Spirit.

Virtue in private and public life

Knowledge in things scriptural and spiritual.

Temperance in all things, especially eating, drinking and sexual.

Patience in affliction, enduring the cross and despising the shame.

Goodness in walk and conversation, bridling the tongue and curbing the passions.

Kindness in dealings, especially in our business and domestic concerns.

Love in reference to God and man.

If these things be in us and abound, are plentiful and copious and flourishing, they will make us that we shall neither be barren nor unfruitful as exemplars and teachers.

Ought We to be Called Negroes?

Prof. T. P. Snowden, of Centenary Biblical Institute, thinks that neither the colored people of the United States or any other country should be called Negroes. His main arguments are that the word Negro means a black and that the people in Africa or of African descent are not uniformly black. If they were he holds that a race should not be designated by its color. We have never been overanxious about the word Negro. We found it here when we came; we have inquired into it enough to know that it means black; that when applied to a people it always means a black, or the descendant of a black or very dark person. It [illegible] reminds us of degradation, because we do not anmit that to be [illegible] or skin to the blacks is any sign of degradation. The word is pretty well planted; indeed, so well [illegible] settled upon the race as a [illegible] it would be far less difficult to get the word from any distance may have been attended [illegible] it will be to receive [illegible] an article [illegible] reflections of our

The St. Louis Conference.

The following appointments among the colored members of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Missouri at the last session of the St. Louis Conference, held in Lebanon, Mo., March 26-30, Bishop Charles H. Fowler, presiding:

COLORED APPOINTMENTS.

Rolla District, R H Smith, presiding elder, Sedalia, Mo.
California, Wm. Wheeler.
Clinton and Calhoun, S L Evans.
DeSoto, Edward Anthony.
Farmington and Fredericktown, J W Payne.
Ironton and Potosi, A Abanatha.
Lebanon and Marshfield, R Crosby.
Oceola and Stockton, supplied by Eli Bly.
Rolla and St James, Rich'd Rush.
Sedalia, W R Lawton.
Smithton, Pilot's Grove and Bowman's Church, supplied by Wm. Dives.
Springfield, J W Hill.
Springfield circuit, M Reed.
St. Louis—Elliott Avenue, supplied by J W Hughes.
" Baden and Lowell, supplied by W Campbell.
" Bridgeton & Rock Sp'gs,
" H H McAllister.
" Wesley Chapel, F H Small.
Tipton, Versailles and Otterville, J S Burton.
Lexington District—W H H Brown, presiding elder, Marshall, Mo.
Arrow Rock, Patrick Atkinson.
Brownsville, C M Keeton.
Butler and Harrisonville, J W Brown.
Carthage and Joplin, A Ramsey
Dresden and Lamonthe, supplied by T Dixon.
Georgetown and Mt. Zion, supplied by A Smith.
Greenfield and Mt. Vernon, A Colgan.
Higginsville and Odessa, H Baker.
Holden and Centreview, supplied by B P Toley.
Kansas City, J W Jackson.
Lexington, J W Summers.
Marshall, J D Evans.
Marshall circuit, R Smith.
Neosho and Newtonia, T Williams,
Slater and Gilham, supplied by H Irwin.
Salt Pond and Malta Bend, Benj. Steele.
Warrensburg and Knobnoster, C Tays,
Waverly, W McCutchen.
Wellington, supplied by Dennis Peyton.

By the following it will be seen that the St. Louis Conference is a mixed body. It has seven districts, five of which are composed of white and two of colored members. The appointments above are of the colored districts. What is now the Lexington was previously kown as the Missouri District. There are 149 appointments in the conference of which 36 are colored, or a little less than one-fourth of the whole number. It contains 2,380 probationers of whom 594 or a little less than one-fourth are colored. There are 16,881 members, of whom 2,975 are colored or about one-eighth. The total number of colored members and probationers is 3,565. There are 55 local preachers of col[illegible] 58 deaths of colored members last year; there were 448 baptisms, of which 175 were infants and 273 adults. They have 44 churches valued at $71,675 in a total church property of $560,300 belonging to the conference. There are 21 parsonages valued at $6,945 in a total parsonage property of $60,555. These members paid last year for building and improving churches and parsonages $3,167, and on old indebtedness $3,138, or a total of $6,305, and they owe at present a debt of $9,878. Their current expenses were $250.77, and they supported besides this 53 Sunday-schools containing 330 officers and teachers and 2,532 pupils. From the foregoing figures it appears that these members, including the local preachers, paid nearly $2 per head for church property, besides benevolence and ministerial support. They gave for missions $39.50; Church Extension, $26.03; Sunday-school Union, $11.75; for Tracts, $5.49; for Freedmen's Aid, $25.61; for education, $31.60, for American Bible Society, $5.09; for Woman's Foreign Mission Society, $7.26; for Woman's Home Mission Society, $3.21, or a total of $155.42 for benevolence, or a little over 24 cents each. For ministerial support they paid $16,410.26, and for conference claimants $15.50; for other purposes $1.60, which is for all purposes a grand total of $25,887.10, from which, deducting missionary, Church Extension, and all other grants there will remain about $7.50 per head contributed by the colored members of the St Louis Conference. This though small as compared to the aggregate given in that conference serves well to show that the colored are doing nobly their part with their white brethren, even when the vast disproportion between the wealth of the two classes of members is considered. There is a number of schools under the patronage of the conference, the benefit of which we presume is open equally to the white as the colored members. The Rev. B. W. Timothy, a gilt-edged diamond-backed gentleman from the East, passed through this conference one year ago on his way to the Protestant Episcopal Church, where, after being stationed awhile at Wesley, our best charge in St. Louis, he made his way on to the Church of his present affiliation. It is not likely that any colored conference with one-fourth white members will fail to select one of them for General Conference Delegate. We believe as yet no colored delegate has gone from the St. Louis Conference. A colored reserve delegate was elected in 1884, and was at Philadelphia.

There are some advantages from this admixture, but if in a colored Conference these brethren would undonbtedly become much more rapidly acquainted with all forms of conference business by doing it.

The Lexington Conference at one time sustained a similar resolution to the Kentucky Conference. Its growth and influence is the outgrowth of its altered relations to that body. There is a field white to the harvest in Kansas and Missouri, the gathering of which the Lord has laid upon these brethren.

These are the "Big Dogs."

The tone in which some of our brethren, less fortunate in the matter of book learning and attendance at school than others, write to us and leave the impression upon our mind that they think we appreciate them or their efforts the less for that. Any such impression on their minds would be a cruel error. We regard all men for their worth of character. That a man is white or black or neither is not his fault. It is God's fault or no fault. That a man is poor or rich, small or large, whole or maimed, learned or unlearned in letters, is an accident. We do not measure our esteem for men by the accidents which happen to them. A white man may turn black and a black one white;—some have done so—but we like them nevertheless for that. A sound man to-day may be crippled to-morrow. The scholar may become a lunatic; the rich man may become bankrupt; the giant may be reduced to the stature of a lilliputian; what is the difference? The character is still there. Where the character is there is the man, and none of these accidents touch the character. Character is either good or bad. So God measures it. We love those of good character, and no others. With us the good character makes the "Big Dogs," "the high tone," and all else distinguishable in man or woman.

The Revival Over, then What?

The revival spirit swept the churches in the Southwest this spring. From all points we have been busy heralding the news of sinners saved by grace through faith alone. The ministers have been a living flame, and the churches a seething boiling cauldron to unbelievers. Christians climbed to Pisgah's heights and viewed—

> The land of pure delight
> Where saints immortal reign.

But the revival is closed. Summer, with its sunshine, making life indoors a burden, has come. With it has come also the shows, circuses, picnics, excursions and many other devices of Satan to beguile young converts. Pastors and experienced members of the church must hold a tight rein upon their own actions, so that by needless self-indulgence they may not betray the confidence of and lead these lambs from the fold to the barren fields of temporary pleasure. Sow now that you may gather the fruit of your toil into barns later. Look well to the prayer class and preaching services. Organize these young converts into mission and other bands. They can help you save others and to raise our missionary million besides. "To your tents, oh, Israel!"

Louisiana Politics.

When doctors disagree patients have a chance to heal. General J. Floyd King and Hon. James D. Houston, both prominent Louisiana politicians, are just now reported to be in a rather unfriendly attitude toward each other. So far Mr. Houston has pressed the fighting with a good degree of vigor, at least so states "F. D. M." a special reporter in the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette of May 15th; "there are some important disclosures in the nature of political history which go a long ways toward a confirmation of charges made in the past by Republicans and denied with great energy by Democratic politicians. It was in Tensas parish that the first exodus to Kansas took place. Three hundred Negroes, going under the leadership of Rev. Alfred Fairfax. The excerpt we give below furnishes a key to this hegira of Negroes upon testimony that is very creditable, we suppose. It is true that the Negroes have suffered themselves to be disfranchised in localities where they greatly outnumbered the whites, and where in addition to the Negroes white Republicans were as numerous as were the Democrats. The Negroes did submit to outrage and wrong, but the secret of this passive submission of the Negroes to wholesale disfranchisement will be found to consist in the fact that their white allies were generally passive in the face of the same forms of intimidation. Then, too, it must be admitted that the masses of the Nekroes were prematurely endowed with the right of suffrage. It should have come to them gradually with some sort of qualification. But the Government wanted to show an unparalleled degree of magnaminity to those who had been lately in arms against it. This it could not do for its defeated foes and do less for its wards and allies. The Negroes had fought for the Union, and when those who fought against it received its clemency in the form of pardon and suffrage it was regarded as simple justice as well as political wisdom to balance and off-set it by enfranchising the Negroes. What Mr. Houston is reported to have stated is undoubtedly true so far as it relates to the reversion of political majorities in the heavy Negro districts of the South. But when the case is taken to the court of equity and human justice its reflex action will tend to weaken on a far wider scale than it was ever intended to encompass political strength. A people who learn to set aside and thus become familiar with the suppression of the legally expressed popular will in a limited sphere on a small scale and against a proscribed class of people, will ultimately extend the sphere, widen the scales and practice this political unfairness and injustice against any and every class of people. Thus will they render the idea of free government ridiculous, and the thought of majority rule absurd Then will follow scenes such as those enacted in 1876, and dreaded in each successive quadrennial national election in the United States. The slavery of the laborers incidentally alluded to will be remedied rapidly. Causes which need not be printed in a newspaper are at work and will increase in the energy of their action in the direction of the elevation of all classes of human laborers. If capitalists anywhere presume to arrogate to themselves the right to enslave and thereby render odious and create an aversion to honest toil. they will be speedily taught that labor is united the world over, the color of the laborer to the contrary notwithstanding. If, as stated in this report, the owners of these large plantations dare not grapple with that salient, malignant, deadly foe which, residing in all this swamp country, spreads burning death in the track of his victorious march, but must needs find retreat in the more congenial highlands of Mississippi or farther North while thousands of Negroes willing to labor extract from this malarious valley sachrine or fleecy wealth for them and their children, it would be to the interest of these pensioners on Negro brawn and industry to see to it that their laborers have a place in the common estimate; better than that of slaves. They have no substitute for Negro labor in these swamps, and none will be needed if only this service can be performed by these people mutually to their own and the advantage of their employers. It is useless to deny it, the loss of this labor to the planters would bankrupt them. At last the field for Negro labor becomes more varied, and his competency to cultivate it in all of its increasing variety greatly increases the chances of loss in this direction if the planter does not increase the inducements for his help to remain on the plantation by just and generous treatment. The thing to do now is to do right touching both the matter of politics and labor in the South, and in every other section of the country. Here is the reported statement of Mr. Houston:

"King's district is the Fifth, covering the northeastern territory of Louisiana. It is composed of about ten parishes, and among them are six of the heaviest Negro districts in the State. The parishes of Carroll, Madison, Tensas and Concordia are espaecially strong in Negro population. They are known as swamp parishes, covered with large plantations working whole regiments of hands, and are extremely fertile. The laborers have been in the past, and to a degree still are, the money-making slaves of people who really live in Natchez, or elsewhere in the Mississippi hills. King himself has always been regarded as a citizen of Mississippi until he got his nomination for a Louisiana district. In Tensas parish there are 310 white voters and 3,800 colored, and it is arranged for this parish to give 3,500 Democratic majority. Madison gives 3,100 Democratic majority, and it has 243 white voters and 3,100 colored voters.

In Carroll and Concordia the proportions are about the same. It is such things as these that make the Southern Democrats laugh at the idea of Negro suffrage. Other parishes in King's District, Franklin, Ouachita, Richland, Catahoula and Morehouse, are all overwhelmingly Negro in population. This is the district which King has represented for three or four terms, and which he calmly declares is Democratic. Speaking from that eminence, he declares against ward politicians and ballot box stuffers, and on this issue Houston assails him.

General King now has the floor, or it least he is expected to take the floor. It is said he highly estimates his reputation as a gentleman of honor. He has a good chance to vindicate it. Mr. Houston is waiting for him.

Something New and Proper.

Our brethren out in Victoria, Texas, struck virgin soil when they concluded to hold a "ministerial institute," that is, a meeting for Methodist preachers to talk over Methodist concerns in a free and untrammeled way. This is becoming more and more the rule among our preachers. And where there is most free gentlemanly and loyal investigation into our system there is most useful and influential Methodists. "The pulpit, its work, and how to do it," "is the Methodist Episcopal the Church for the people, and why?" were among the important questions presented and discussed by the meeting in question. Surely a body of Methodist ministers outside of the pulpit, or making pastoral calls, could not be more profitably employed than when trying to find a sound answer for these two most important questions. We wish they might be fully discussed in every preachers' meeting, conference and institute throughout the length and breadth of our land.

The Moon's Atmosphere.

With reference to the solar eclipse of March 16th, Mr. McNeil is quoted in the Siderial Messenger as saying, that the result of his observation though somewhat unsatisfactory, because of the cloudiness of the day, did not corroborate at all those reported by some of the French observers in 1872. "I could not find the slightest trace of any lunar atmosphere." But Prof. Haynes, of Hillsdale College, having a good view in a cloudless sky, confirms this idea as the result of his observation. To settle the astronomical question of atmosphere or no atmosphere of the moon will be to settle not a few important dependent questions.

Ohio Politics.

Rev. Dr. A. B. Leonard, pastor of Central Methodist Episcopal Church Springfield, has been nominated by the Prohibitionists for governor of Ohio, upon a ringing platform, and he has accepted the nomination. In a speech of acceptance he is reported to have said that he "would not abate one jot or tittle of his pastoral duties while attending to those of his candidacy." We know that he does not intend to do so, but it will be difficult to avoid doing it at least mentally. The cause is good, the man is better, but we sincerely wish he was not the candidate and a pastor, since he is both we sincerely hope and pray that he may be elected, and shall do all in our power to aid him. We believe it to be our duty and that of every temperance man to at least shake hands on such occasions as the present campaign in Ohio furnishes. It is not worth while for us to outline what some party should have done in order to secure our support. No party will care a snap for the Prohbition party gives evidence of both purpose and ability to name the successful candidate in the other parties if it cannot make sure the election of its own. As for the matter of intimidation in the South that is a thing we have been hearing of for a good many years just berore election times. But the intimidation still remains. We think there should have been an end of political intimidation in the South before now. True it is better late than never but we are losing faith in the reversion of this miserable business by political organizations. We believe it could have been abated long ago if the dominant party had been both conrageons and willing enough to set vigorously about it. Prohibition is the direct ronte to the abatement of almost every crime political and social. Not one of the thonsands of political murders which have been reported in the South was committed without the aid of liquor. The poor Negro planter could pay all the high prices of heartless plantation store keepers and make money if it was not for liquor. We mean to strike at it now. And when we have another chance we will strike again.

Personal.

—Bro. Fairfax of Gretna, is looking around for a building site.

—Bishop Walden has started upon an Episcopal tour in the west to be gone three months.

—Gov. Colquitt, of Georgia, says the South will be prohibition by the next presidential election.

—It is better to preach the pure Gospel to ten, than to preach self and worldly science to ten thousand.

—Rev. R. C. Barrows, of Algiers, La., is in the midst of an earnest effort for a new church and there is a promise of success.

—Mr. John W. Sou of Dr. Krehbiel assistant editor of the of the Christian Apologist, died at the Love Land camp grounds on the 24th of June.

—Rev. Stephen Coleman, of Waelder and Peach Creek circuit, is a preacher and not a layman as we had it. He has a good progressive Sunday-school.

—Sister Elizabeth Wheaton, prison missionary, is busily at work in Nashville, and we commend her as a meek but worthy and faithful follower of our common Lord to all our friends there.

—Mr. J. H. Pankey, late of Shaw now West University is teaching a 9 months school at New port, Ark. Mr. S. H. Lee, of Fisk University is with him and the school is the product of their united efforts.

—Bro. Cannon, at Moss Point, please the brethren by the generous reception he and his people extended the recent session of the Gulf District Conference which was held there. They tendered him a vote of thanks.

—Rev. Earnest Lyon, was the bearer of Christian sympathy from the New Orleans Preacher's meeting to this editor. Revs. M. Dale and wife, and J. W. Hudson are those who have given Mrs. Taylor their personal presence.

—After a rather severe and protracted illness, we are greatly pleased to hear that Rev. W. H. Ongley of Lonisville, a stannch and valued friend of the SOUTHWESTERN has been restored to firm health again.

—As an evidence of the newly awakened enterprise of the Parisian newspapers it is noted by a correspondent of the New York Sun that on the afternoon of Victor Hugo's death no less than thirty-two reporters surrounded the house eager for news, while at the time of Gambetta's death not a single reporter was present. The change has been wrought by English and American competition.

—Those who are concerned and frequently inquire of our office for Mr B. P. Toley, will please take notice that this gentleman has entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and been appointed as supply on Holden and Centerview Mission by Rev. W. H. H. Brown, presiding elder of the Lexington district, St. Louis conference. The presiding elder's address is Marshall, Missouri, and he would probably convey any matter designed for Mr. Toley.

—The brethren of the Mississippi Conference and the many friends of the Rev. Ira B. Griffin, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Vicksburg, will rejoice to learn that he has recovered from his late attack of illness, and is at his post of duty again. This cheerful news was followed by news of his death.

—The painful intelligence of the death of Mr. James H. Pankey. He died February 28th, 1885. He leaves a beloved wife to whom he had been married 14 months. He was once a student in Rust University under its old name. He was a brother of Mr. S. H. Pankey, a true Christian and much respected. Dr. Rust, who was a true friend to him, will be pained to hear of his death. His life gave great promise of usefulness.

The Rev. G. H. McGraw, to whom leave of absence was granten at the North India conference in January, has been so occupied up to this time in Cawnpore, that he has just now taken passage for home, expecting to start from Calcutta on the 19th of April. Dr. and Mrs. Humphrey and Mr. Hoskins have already arrived in this country. Mr. McGraw has lingered, having assumed the care of building the new home for the ladies of the Woman's Foreign Mission Society in Cawapore.

—The members and friends of Asbury Methodist Episcopal Church, Natchitoches, La., gave a pound party on Tuesday, May 26th and carried to their pastor Rev. H. J. Wright, the following list of articles; 17 pounds of sugar, 50 pounds flour, 10 pounds lard, 10 pounds meal, 5 pounds peanut butter, 10 pounds coffee, 3 pounds rice, 3 pounds soap, 1 broiled chicken, 1 jar pickles, 2 dozen eggs, 1 bottle of coal oil, 3 tin cups, lot of vegetables, plums, and 35 cents in cash. Amounted to about $10 in all, which was certainly a treat to the parson, and especially at this time of the year; and the elder will be here Saturday.

—The Rev. H. H. McAllister, of the Little Rock conference, at its last meeting session was reported absent in Indiana attending school, and he was therefore continued in the studies in the second years' class of deacons and left without an appointment. He has since been appointed by Rev. R. H. Smith, presiding elder of the Polla district, St. Louis conference to supply Bridgeton, and Rock Springs Methodist Episcopal Mission, St. Louis, Missouri, and hence is not now atending school.

—Mrs. E. G. Davis, of Cincinnati, and Mrs. Thompson of Delaware, Ohio, both representing the Woman's Home Missionary Society, lately went to Utah in its interest.

—The students of Houston Seminary, appointed a committee to draft a set of resolutions in their high appreciation of Bishop Mallalieu, and Doctor Gillett, who recently visited the school. The committee met and drafted the following resolutions. signed Rev. W. H. Logan and others.

Resolved, 1. That we the students of Houston Seminary tender our thanks to Bishop Mallalieu and Doctor Gillett, for their much needed and highly appreciated visit and assure them that they will be welcomed any time they may visit us in the future. Resolved, 2 That we ponder in our hearts and keep ever before us the Bishop's timely advice, how to get on in life. Resolved, 3. That we thank Doctor Gillett for his instructions concerning the things most needed to fit us for the work of teaching in both Sunday and Secular schools. Resolved, 4. That we request them to make known to philanthropists and friends to education, North and South the pressing demand for a new building. as the one now used is too small to accommadate the students now in attendance. Resolved, 5. That we assure these distinguished visitors that their presence was no less appreciated than was that of the venerable Doctor Rust, and the sainted Bishop Wiley in 1883. Though Bishop Wiley cannot come to us any more, but we can go to him. Resolved, 6. That a copy of these Resolutions be sent to Bishop Mallalieu and Doctor Gillett, and one to the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE for publication.

If new buildings are really needed the beloved people of Houston having considerable wealth among them, ought to begin the work. The time for self-support in the South has fully come. (ED.)

"What Shall We Do with Our Daughters!"

This question is asked by a well-known lady lecturer. Well, we can do a great many things with them; one thing, we must take good care of their health, and not let them run down and become enfeebled. For the feminine ailments, which may be summed up in one word—debility, we have a sovereign remedy in Brown's Iron Bitters, which has done much good. Miss Mary Greenfield, of Galatia, Ill., writes, "Brown's Iron Bitters cured me of nervous, indigestion and general poor health." Let the other young ladies take the hint.

Sermon Sketches.

Theme—The Fullness of God.

Text—Eph. 3, 19: "That ye might be filled with all the fulness of God."

Introduction—The most remarkable prayer on record, except the prayers of Jesus, begins with verse 14th of this chapter, and ends with the words of the text. It embodies a complete summary of the philosophy of the divine life in man.

Here is: 1. "The inner man," the weak, fallen, sin-diseased soul, but "justified." 2. This weakness "strengthened with might by his spirit." There is no other source of spiritual strength to us. Cf. Rom. 8, 3 4. The indwelling of Christ. The strengthing of the Spirit might prove to be only transient and therefore not saving, if Christ should not come to abide. Cf. John 14: 20 23. As we first received Christ through our faith, so now we can have his abiding only through faith. 4 Love is the element wherein Christ dwells. "God is love," 1 John 4, 8. Christ also is love If he dwell in us then doth love dwell in us. We shall be planted in it, grow in it, and be ourselves transmitted into it. 5. The result is, we are filled with God—glory to Him forever.

This "fullness of God" is "better felt than told," but some prominent facts may be noticed.

I. We are taught of God; John 14, 21-24; 26, 15 26; 16 13; 2 Cor. 3, 18 (a) This does not mean revelation, but illumination of revelations already given. Compare the cited passages. (b) Doubtless every Christian hath this illumination, but it is full-orbed day only to him who is "filled."

II. We are without sin. We have "cleansed ourselves from all filthiness of flesh and spirit;" 2 Cor. 7, 1. We are "cleansed from all unrighteousness," 1 John 1, 7 9. (a) The justified Christian doth not "commit sin;" 1 John 3, 9. That is he doth not habitually and intentionally transgress the law. He may be overcome by sudden temptation and fall into sin, but he must return again in the way he first came to Christ, or he has ceased to be a Christian. (b) Tho man who is "filled with God" lives habitually without sin ontward or inward. Ruffled feelings, disordered nerves, fluctuations of emotion, these are all but ripples on the surface, produced by outward winds. The tide of the soul sets forever toward God. (c) If by sore temptation the holy soul should fall into sin he must return as he first came or he ceases to be not only sanctified but even justified.

III. We are filled with love. God is our Father. All men are our brothers. There is no essential evil. There is no need; no sorrow, for love fills all and conquers all.

Schools and Colleges.

In the first quarter of the current year the accession to our church membership has been 40,000, Presbyterian, 25,000

Bishop Taylor reports the need of $3,000 for repairs and re-opening of Mourovia college.

The Little Rock University now owns the fine residence of ex-Governor Clayton.

The Faculty of Harvard College has decided to make admission examinations in Greek optional with students. This is considered a great victory for the anti classicists. Science, however, must be studied as a substitute.

Mr. Eugene Kelly, a New York banker, adds $50,000 to Miss Caldwell's $300,000 gift for a Catholic university in Maryland.

The citizens of Washington, Ark., have subscribed $4,000 toward building a school-house for Negroes there.

The Faculty of Lafayette College are beginning legal proceedings against local liquor dealers.

Through the Marquand bequest the divinity school of Yale College secures a fund of about $470,000.

The lower house of the New Jersey legislature has adopted a bill requiring the teaching of physiology and hygiene in the public schools and instruction as to the effects of alcohol on the human system.

In the town of Bellaire, Ohio, the school children were the other day requested to bring each one or more potatoes for the benefit of the poor people of the place. At night the potatoes from all the schools were collected and they made 138 bushels.

Edward C. Bruce, reviewing the New Orleans Exposition in Lippincott's for March, says the free schools of the Southern States speak more in statistics than in more concrete forms of display, and the figures are highly satisfactory. School-buildings, year by year, are steadily increasing in number, and graded and normal schools are multiplying rapidly. The colored schools are supplying themselves with colored teachers, which, Mr. Bruce thinks, speaks better for the progress of the race than any other discoverable sign Trip to Gallatin.

J. BRADEN.

We roll out out of Nashville over the Cumberland river, bridged as it is with an iron truss bridge. gas and electric light brightening as the darkness comes on, daylight lingering, these long June days into the hours of night. The Lonisville Nashville and Great Southern Railway has a magnificent road, well appointed cars, gentlemanly conductors, and perhaps a no more pleasant trip can be taken by rail, than over this road. There are some drawbacks on this road to colored people. A suit has been entered in the courts at Gallatin against the road, by a colored lady of Bowling Green, Ky., who had been roughly handled by a conductor and brakeman, and pushed off the car, and injured by the rough treatment there received. The lady was guilty of no other offence than quietly taking a seat as a passenger, in the car set apart more especially for her sex. But there she was guilty of wearing the dress her heavenly Father gave her, which was a shade darker than some of His other children had received, and of which, she had as much reason to be proud as any of the Father's other children of the covering which He had given them. I understand that the order has been issued on this road that ladies may ride in the car set apart for them, whether white or black. This conductor, actuated by his own prejudices, and backed by a depraved, wicked prejudice of many whites in this section, forgot that he ought to be a gentleman, and acctually laid violent hands on a cultured lady, whose home in Bowling Green, is perhaps equal, if not superior to his own and who is as dear to her husband as this conductor's wife is to him. The road will run on, and others will suffer similar outrages because of their dark skins, but the time is not far in the future when passengers who have paid their fare, will be regarded as passengers, and be treated by conductors and brakemen as passengers regardless of color. It is just as sensible to station a man at the car door, and require all who do not wear black broad cloth suits, plug hats, silk dresses, and diamond pins to enter a car with poorer accommodations as to send those who happen to have any visible mixture of African blood, into a car reeking with tobacco, and often vocal with obscenity and blasphemy. As long as railroads sell the same tickets for the same prices, to white and colored, common justice demands that they should have equal accommodations. Till this is guaranteed the courts of the land should be called upon to redress these outrages. Gallatin is a town of about three thousand inhabitants, the capital of Sumner county. It has some evidence of thrift, rather less of sleepiness, characteristic of so many Southern towns, than usual. It's schools are not well managed; For some reason there has been no public schools for the colored people for nearly two years. Our church building is old and not in very good condition, so the brethren have a new church projected; the foundation is nearly finished. The building is to be of brick and according to plan No. 5 of the Church Extension plans. Rev. M. Williams the pastor, one of the students of the Central Tennessee College, is doing his work well. He has gained the confidence of the church and community. It was Children's Day, the pastor conducted the service prepared by Rev. Dr. Kidder, for this day. The exercises were gone through, according to this programme, after which the writer addressed the Sunday-school, and a collection of about $4.50 was taken, against $2 last year. The writer also preached in the afternoon and at night. The brethren wish to have the new church ready for the meeting of conference in October next. It is to be hoped their expectations may be realized. Wages are low here. Farm hands I heard, are working for twelve dollars a month, and board themselves. Women are working in house work for three and four dollars per month doing the entire work of a family. Yet they manage to live, and at the collections Sunday raised thirteen dollars. Do better who can.

Nashville, Tenn., June 15th, 1885.

Loved by Ladies.

Ladies love delicate and delicious perfume. In Parker's Hair Balsam they not only satisfy this taste, but have an article which arrests falling hair, removes dandruff restores the original color and imparts a beautiful gloss, softness and life. Does not soil the linen, is not a dye, cleanly and economical.

The Kenmore University High School.

Near Amherst, C. H. Va., opens its 14th session September 10, 1885. The high grade of scholarship and unusual advantages represented by this school, has gained for it the large patronage it has enjoyed for many years.

Notice.

To the members of the New Orleans Preacher's Meeting:

Notice is hereby given that there will be no more meetings of that body until the first Monday in September. By order of the President.

A. J. FORD, Secretary.

Summer Excursions.

To get the most pleasure, to recuperate or to store up knowledge are questions at this time engrossing the attention of people who wish to make each season yield them something in the way of health, pleasure or knowledge or all of these combined. The C. I. St. L. & C. Ry. (Kankakee Line) which is also known as the "Big Four," has placed on sale Summer Excursion tickets to Denver, Pueblo, and Colorado Springs in Colorado, Milwaukee, Madison, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Yellow Stone Park and the many other popular resorts in Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Dakota and Wyoming Territory. Call on or address the nearest Ticket or Passenger Agent, C. I. St L. & Ry for rates, routes, time-folders, illustrated guide books, eec.

W. H. PAGE, Trav. Passr. Agent, N. W. cor Fourth and Vine sts., Cincinnati, O.
GRANT K. LOWRY, Trav. Pass. Agent, Wilmore, Ky.
JOHN EGAN, Genl. Pass. and Ticket Agent, Cincinnati, O. taug20

Gulf District—Mississippi Conference.

W. MCDONALD, P. E.

Brethren of the above named district, the apportionment to each charge has been published in the SOUTHWESTERN. I hope that each pastor has gone to work to raise his amounts, and if not, begin at once. I do not want the Gulf District to fall behind, and I know it will not if each pastor and officer will do his duty. Brethren, excuses will not do for this apportionment, nothing will do but the money. I pray God's blessings upon each pastor and his work that success may be had.

Brookhaven, Miss., July 7, 1885.

To keep the doors open, the oil glands and tubes active, and thus furnish an outlet for impurities in the perspiration and blood which cause humiliating blotches, blackheads, and minor skin blemishes; to cleanse, whiten, and beautify the skin; remove tan, freckles sunburn, and oily matter; to keep the hands soft, white, and free from chaps and roughness, prevent contagious skin and scalp diseases, and provide an exquisite skin beautifier and toilet, bath, and nursery sanative, redolent with delicious flower odors and Cuticura healing balsams, is the special duty of the Cuticura Soap. Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great Skin Cures and Beautifiers, and Cuticura Resolvent, the new Blood Purifier, cure every form of Skin and Blood Diseases' from Pimples to Scrofula. Sold everywhere. Price, Cuticura, 50c.; Soap, 25c.; Resolvent, $1 00. Potter Drug and Chemical Co., Boston.

The Great Church LIGHT.

PRINK'S Patent Reflectors give the Most Powerful, the Softest, Cheapest and the Best Light known for Churches, Stores, Show Windows, Parlors, Banks, Offices, Picture Galleries, Theatres, Depots, etc. New and elegant designs. Send size of room. Get circular and estimate. A liberal discount to churches and the trade.

I. P. PRINK, 232 Pearl St., N. Y.

jy15-3t cow

A WEALTHY FARMER'S Reliable Testimony.

Take special note of the following history of a very interesting case.

Near the thriving village of Dundee, a few miles west of that quaint old town on the lakes of central New York, Seneca, lives Mr. Daniel Supplee, a substantial man of about 70 years. Mr. Supplee owns a large, and highly cultivated farm, which has for many years had the enviable reputation of being the best farm in all that section. Every crop he plants seems to thrive, and his advice is much sought by younger and less experienced farmers. "About two years ago," Mr. Supplee writes, "I suffered from a very severe attack of Disease. It reduced me in flesh so that I was only skin and bone, my skin was shrivelled and wrinkled badly, my Urine contained such a large percentage of sugar that when it was spilled the sugar would crystalize so as to make a coating plainly visible to the naked eye. My life was despaired of by my family and physicians. Commenced using HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY at this stage of my sickness. I improved steadily and was cured, and am now able to attend personally superintend the management of my extensive farming operations. HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY is a grand medicine for Diabetes and all Kidney Troubles."

A gentleman hearing of these facts and wishing to know further of the matter for himself, wrote to Mr. O. P. McLean, a large Dry Goods Merchant and Grocer of Dundee, and a man of great integrity and worth, asking for information in the matter. He received the following reply.

DUNDEE, N. Y., Jan. 3d, 1885.

DEAR SIR—Yours of 2nd. inst. at hand this morning. I would say that I think the use of HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY in Mr. Daniel Supplee's case certainly saved his life. He was going down very fast previous to its use and began to show an improvement soon after he began to take the Remedy. Mr. W. B. Wheeler, wholesale Grocer, Providence, R. I. is also knowing to all the facts in Mr. Supplee's case.

Yours truly O. P. MCLEAN
WEST SHORE R. R., CONDUCTOR
NEW YORK, Jan 23, 1885.

HUNT'S REMEDY CO:

Gentlemen—Having been afflicted with a severe attack of Kidney trouble, which disabled me from my business, I was persuaded by a friend on the train to use HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY, and be recommended it in the highest possible terms as a sure cure for Kidney Diseases and all troubles of the Urinary Organs. I began to improve rapidly after I commenced taking the Remedy, and it has cured me, besides saving me from a long sickness. I have frequently recommended HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY to my afflicted friends and its use has always resulted in restoring them rapidly to health. I deem it a duty as well as a privilege to recommend so good and reliable a medicine as I have proved HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY to be. Yours,

W. W. C. MEREDITH, Conductor,
N. Y. W. S. R. R.

LACTART
ACID OF MILK.

ENDORSED BY THE HIGHEST MEDICAL AUTHORITY.

Healthful and Delicious Beverage and Tonic for Family Use.

Superior to Lime Juice or Lemons.

A Remedy for Dyspepsia and Ills arising from a Disordered Stomach.

Specially recommended as a preventative and relief for Cholera, Sunstroke, Fevers, and valuable in Urinary difficulties.

A Specific for Sea-sickness.

Sold by Druggists.

Avery Lactate Co.,
BOSTON, MASS.

Statue of "Liberty Enlightening the World."

The Committee in charge of the construction of the base and pedestal for the reception of this great work, in order to raise funds for its completion have prepared a minature Statue six inches in height—the statue bronzed; pedestal nickel-silvered—which they are now delivering to subscribers throughout the United States at One Dollar each.

This attractive souvenir and Mantel Desk ornament is a perfect fac simile of the model furnished by the artist.

The statuette in same metal, nine inches high, at Five Dollars each, delivered.

The designs of Statue and Pedestal are protected by U. S. Patents, and the models can only be furnished by this Committee. Address, with remittance,

RICHARD BUTLER, Sec'y
American Committee of the Statue of Liberty.
33 Mercer street, New York.

JEWETT'S

REFRIGERATORS

Old Testament.

The world was made by God's creative hand.

Monday the Hebrews marched to gain the Promised Land.

Tuesday contains the Law, holy and just and good.

Wednesday records the tribes enrolled—all sons of Abraham's blood.

Deuteronomy, in, records God's mighty deeds.

Here Joshua into Canaan's land the host of Israel leads.

Judges their rebellion oft provokes the Lord to smite.

Ruth records the faith of one pleasing in his sight.

First and Second Samuel of Jesse's sons we read.

Ten tribes in First and Second Kings revolted from his seed.

First and Second Chronicles see Judah captive made;

Ezra leads a remnant back by princely Cyrus' aid.

Holy walls of Zion Nehemiah builds again:

Next Esther saves her people from the plots of wicked men

Job we read how faith will live beneath affliction's rod:

David's Psalms are precious songs to every child of God.

Proverbs, like a goodly string of choicest pearls appear:

Ecclesiastes teaches man how vain are all things here.

The Song of Solomon exalts sweet Sharon's Rose;

Whilst Christ the Savior and the King the "rapt Isaiah" shows.

Weeping Jeremiah apostate Israel scorns;

While plaintive Lamentations their awful downfall mourns.

Ezekiel tells in wondrous words of dazzling mysteries;

Whilst kings and empires yet to come, Daniel in vision sees.

Of judgment and of mercy Hosea loves to tell.

Joel describes the blessed days when God with men shall dwell.

Among Tekoa's herdsmen Amos received his call;

While Obadiah prophesies of Edom's final fall.

Jonah shrines a wondrous type of Christ our risen Lord.

Nineveh's consuming Judah lost—lost, but Nineveh restored.

Micah and Nahum see Nineveh just judgment's rod,

Hear from God's throne coming doom and visions give;

Habakkuk to the Jews to turn, Paradise and live.

Zephaniah wrote to those who saw the Temple built again.

Haggai prophesied of Christ's triumphant reign.

Zechariah was the last who touched the high prophetic chord;

Whose notes sublimely show the coming of the Lord.

Domestic Hygiene.

Disinfection of the Sick Room

GEO. L. CURTISS, M. D.

In a report of a committee on disinfectants to the American Public Health Association, I selected the following [illegible] thought on disinfection of the sick room.

"In the sick room no disinfectant can take the place of free ventilation and cleanliness. It is an axiom in sanitary science that it is impracticable to disinfect an occupied apartment, for the reason that [illegible] are not destroyed by the presence in the atmosphere of a disinfectant in respirable quantity. Bad odors may be [illegible], but this does not constitute disinfection in the sense in which the term is used."

"When an apartment which has been occupied by a person sick with infectious disease is vacated it is to be disinfected," and not used again until thoroughly disinfected. It is not the atmosphere that is to be disinfected [illegible] materials. This can be done to the outer world by burning, when it is successfully accomplished by dilution with air. The object of disinfection in the sick room is, mainly, the destruction of infectious material deposited on [illegible] has been ventilated [illegible] the sick [illegible] it was [illegible] this attempt [illegible] infection [illegible] thor- [illegible] The walls and ceiling, if plastered, should be brushed over with this solution, after which they should be whitewashed with a lime wash. Especial care me taken to wash away all dust from window ledges and other places where it may have settled, and to thoroughly cleanse crevices and out-of-the way places. After this application of the disinfecting solution, and an interval of twenty four hours or longer for free ventilation, the floors and wood work should be all scrubbed with soap and hot water, and this should be followed by a second mon-prolonged exposnre to fresh air, admitted through open doors and windows."

Fumigation with sulphurons acid gas is recommended as an additional precaution, "especially for rooms which have been occupied by patients with small pox, scarlet fever, diptheria, typhus fever and yellow fever. It should precede the washing of surfaces and free ventilation." This mode of disinfection cannot be relied upon for the reason it has but little real penetrating power. If the gas could be united with moisture it would penetrate deeper, and consequently accomplish no good. It may be stated as a law, "that the germs to be destroyed shall be very freely exposed to the disinfecting agent," or where disinfection does not occur.

To fumigate successfully, all apertures of the apartment must be stopped to prevent all escape of gas and "not less than three pounds of sulphur for each thousand cubic feet of pure air space in the room," must be burnt. Place the sulphur in a powder in "a shallow iron pan, which shall be set upon a couple of bricks in a tub partly filled with water, to guard against fire. The sulphur should be thoroughly moistened with alcohol before igniting it.

Cess Pools and Privy Vaults Disinfected.—These in times of epidemic become sources of disease. When the excreta of colored or typhoid fever, undisinfected has been thrown into a privy vault there is necessity for speedily disinfecting the whole mass of matter. It will soon breed additional cases unless it is done. "Use one pound of corrosive sublimate for every five hundred pounds, estimated, of fecal matter contained in the vault or one pound of chloride of lime to every thirty pounds. These disinfectants may be made in solution, and thrown on the mass to percolate through it.

"All exposed portions of the vault, and the wood work about it, should be thoroughly washed down with the disinfecting solution." After thorough disinfection, it is necessary to keep vaults disinfected, especially during an epidemic. This can be easily accomplished by "sprinkling chloride of lime freely over the surface of its contents daily." Should the odor of chlorine be objectionable, a solution of corrosive sublimate and permanganate of potash is good to use as a disinfectant.

It is a difficult matter to make those unacquainted with sanitation and the absolute need for careful attention to these things, see the utility in disinfecting the sick rooms and vaults. But those who have given long attention to the matter know very well that safety lies alone in strict attention to these things. Let the reader believe and act in the lines suggested and he is safe.

Hunt's remedy is not a new compound it has been before the public thirty years.

Bishop Merrill is preparing a book on Methodist law, intended to be a help to pastors and others in the administration of the discipline of the Methodist Episcopal church. It will be in two parts, making a volume of nearly 300 pages.

In the Southwest.

Rev. Edward Wills, founder and pastor of the University street Baptist church, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I strongly recommend Parker's Tonic to [illegible] other ministers and others [illegible] completely relieves me in the [illegible] badly disordered liver, and [illegible] debility. It is splendid for nervous prostration.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

MR. EDITOR—I desire to inquire for my relatives. My mother was named Hannah Hellard; my father was John Hellard; my sisters are as follows: Jencey, Flora and Lucy; brothers are John, Benjamin and Miles Calvern; my mother had twins, but I do not remember their names. I was sold to a man named Bill Haden, and brought to Alabama, from there to Texas. I left my parents in North Carolina; and the last time I heard from them they were in that State. My name was Dianna Hellard; my name is now Diauna Johnson. Any information concerning them will be very thankfully received. Address Dianna Johnson, Goliad, Goliad county, Texas.

MR EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my father, Phil Marshall. The last account I had of him he belonged to Dr. Kinsey, who lived in Palestine, but left and went West, out about San Antonio. The oldest boy was named Jake, belonging to F. Hasel. There were five children of us. The oldest girl was named Sukey, belonging to Harriet McKenzie, and the other two girls, Nancy and Angeline, belonged to Daniel Hasll, and brother Mathew belonged to J. Hasil. Address Amy Sparks, Armour, Limestone county, Texas.

I detire to inquire through your valuable paper for my father. I left him in Marion, Perry county, Alabama, in 1869. I have not heard from him since. His name was Jim Wair, and mother's Anakia Wair. She died the second year after we came out here. Sister Celia is with me. There are only two girls of us, and we want to find our father if he is alive. Our pastors in Alabama will please read this notice from their pulpits, and help us find him. Address Anna Wair, care Rev. J. M. Nevils, Hernando, Miss.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire through your valuable paper for my mother's daughter, who was sold from her when seven years old. She was sold from her and carried away, riding behind a Negro trader. She belonged, as my mother did, to John Green, but he becoming broke sold her and all the children and her husband to different parties. Since that time she has nor heard directly from her. Her name was Martha Norman, though perhaps might be called Martha Green. Father was named Granville Norman, mother Dollie Norman. Address Mrs. T. H. Taylor, Columbus, Texas.

The second visit of Mr. Douglass and wife to Mr. Saunderland's church, Washington, found his seat a little further behind Mr. President, and two ladies discontinued their presence at the service.—Pacific Christian Advocate.

Prophylactic Fluid.

THE GREAT FAMILY MEDICINE.

Wonderful Healing Properties of

DARBYS PROPHYLACTIC FLUID

HEALING, CLEANSING, DISINFECTING. IN CASE -OF- Accidents.

For Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, etc., it is invaluable and gives instant and permanent relief. It immediately allays pain. Nothing is necessary but to apply it directly to the parts affected. It will keep down Inflammation, Gangrene or Proud Flesh, and in short time will heal without applying anything else. This was fully proved in the military hospitals during the late war. It has performed astonishing cures both in the case of men and animals afflicted with chronic sores. It cleanses and heals obstinate Ulcers, Boils, Carbuncles, Erysipelas and running sores of every kind. It destroys the disagreeable effluvia, arising from Cancers, Abscesses, Ulcers and every kind of purulent discharge.

FOR THE TOILET AND NURSERY.

In the water used in bathing add a small quantity of Darbys Prophylactic Fluid. It is a cleansing lotion for the skin—healing, purifying and refreshing. Removes all taint of Perspiration from the body and whitens and softens the skin. Cures eruptions, Blotches, Prickly Heat, etc. Used as a dentifrice it purifies the breath, preserves the teeth and cures toothache, sore gums, canker, and deodorizes bad breath. Sore or inflamed Eyes are speedily cured. Perfectly harmless, used internally or externally.

FOR ANIMALS—HORSES, DOGS, ETC.

Scratches, Sores, Galls, Bruises, Cuts or Wounds of any kind quickly and permanently healed by washing with the Fluid. Dr. J. HOUGH, the distinguished Veterinary Surgeon, says: "I find Darbys Prophylactic Fluid all that it is represented. As a local application I believe it to be without an equal." For Colic and Scours it acts like magic."

Distemper, Diarrhœa and Worms in dogs quickly cured. It destroys all insect life, vermin on dogs and other animals—cleanses the skin—cures Mange, Scurvy and all kinds of skin diseases.

J. H. ZEILIN & CO., Philadelphia

june18-26t

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

FOR THE BLOOD

Combining IRON with PURE VEGETABLE TONICS, quickly and completely CLEANSES and ENRICHES THE BLOOD. Quickens the action of the Liver and Kidneys. Clears the complexion, makes the skin smooth. It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—ALL OTHER IRON MEDICINES DO. Physicians and Druggists everywhere recommend it.

DR. N. S. RUGGLES, of Marion, Mass., says: "I recommend Brown's Iron Bitters as a valuable tonic for enriching the blood, and removing all dyspeptic symptoms. It does not hurt the teeth."

DR. R. M. DELSELL, Reynolds, Ind., says: "I have prescribed Brown's Iron Bitters in cases of anæmia and blood diseases, also when a tonic was needed, and it has proved thoroughly satisfactory."

MR. WM. BYRNE, 26 St. Mary St., New Orleans, La., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters relieved me in a case of blood poisoning, and I heartily commend it to those needing a purifier."

The Genuine has Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other. Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

LADIES' HAND BOOK—useful and attractive, containing list of prizes for recipes, information about coins, etc., given away by all dealers in medicine, or mailed to any address on receipt of 2c. stamp.

Chautauqua Periodicals.

Chautauqua Assembly Daily Herald,

An eight page paper, printed on a steam power press on the Assembly grounds at Chautauqua, every morning during the meeting in August; 19 numbers in the volume, containing stenographic reports of more than 70 lectures on science, philosophy, religion and practical questions besides reports of lectures, meetings, debates and classroom drills. An invaluable collection.

The first number will appear Saturday, Aug. 1

Subscription price, - - - - $1 00

In clubs of five or more at one time - - - 90

THE CHAUTAUQUAN,

A first-class Literary Magazine The organ of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle, containing one-half of the Required Readings of the course with the special department of Local Circles, Questions and Answers on the books in the course C. L. S. C. Work and Notes on the Required Readings.

A Literary Department of great merit, furnishing articles from the foremost writers of the country.

Subscription price, - - - - $1 50

In clubs of five or more at one time - - 1 35

Vol. VI will begin with the October number.

Chautauqua Boys and Girls

A Daily Paper for the Boys and Girls, to be issued at Chautauqua in August. Pictures of Chautauqua life. Full accounts of all children's meetings

Subscription price - - - - - 50c

In clubs of five or more, - - - - 40c

COMBINATION OFFERS:

The Chautauquan and Assembly Daily Herald, ... $2.25

The Chautauquan, Assembly Daily Herald and Chautauqua Boys and Girls $2 70

Address: DR. T. L. FLOOD, Editor and Proprietor. Meadville, Pa

je 25 8t

HEADQUARTERS

—FOR—

Sunday-school Supplies

Consisting of

GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with a without music.

Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, Bible Dictionaries.

Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books; Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Text Books, etc., etc. Also a large assortment of Books suitable for Libraries or presents to children, PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $2 65 to $12 00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock

W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent

94..... Camp Street, ...96

25tf NEW ORLEANS.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9-12, 1883.

Sixty Addresses by American Educators

Edited by REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.

8vo. 272 pp. Price, stiff paper..$1.25

Cloth..... 1 75

The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:

1. Education and Man's Improvement.
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America.
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Pauperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—tables.

It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents. The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak. The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index.

Sent postpaid on receipt of price.

Phillips & Hunt.

37 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

GRATEFUL PRAISE!

A NEW S. S. BOOK. By J. H. Fillmore.

Pure in sentiment, rich in music. Sample copy, in boards, 25 cents; per dozen by express, $3 60; per dozen by mail, $4. Specimen pages free.

FILLMORE BROS.

No. 185 Race street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

OLD ONE HUNDRED.

MRS. TENA BURTON,

100..... Franklin Street.....100

Lodging,

With or Without Board.

mar26-6m

RAILROADS.

Chesapeake & Ohio R. R.

—VIA—

WASHINGTON

—TO—

BALTIMORE, PHILADELPHIA, and NEW YORK.

THE ONLY LINE WITH

Pullman Sleeping Cars

—FROM—

Louisville, Cincinnati and Lexington

—TO—

WASHINGTON

WITHOUT CHANGE.

Schedule in effect October 12, 1884.

EASTWARD.	No 4 Daily.	No. 6 ex Sunday
Leave Cincinnati	8 10 p m	8 30 p m
Leave Louisville	7 15 p m	7 00 a m
Leave Lexington	10 40 p m	11 45 a m
Leave Winchester	11 15 p m	12 25 p m
Due Mt. Sterling	12 08 a m	1 36 p m
Due Ashland	3 26 a m	5 55 p m
Due Huntington	4 00 a m	6 40 p m
Leave Huntington
Due Charleston	6 36 a m	10 00 p m
Due Clifton Forge	1 30 p m	6 40 a m
Due Staunton	3 57 p m	9 26 a m
Due Charlottesville	5 20 p m	11 05 a m
Due Richmond	9 15 p m	3 25 p m
Arrive Newport News	10 45 a m	6 30 p m
Due Washington	0 50 p m
Arrive New York	6 30 a m

WESTWARD.	No. 3. Daily.	No. 1, ex Sunday
Leave New York	10 00 a m	12 00 nt
Due Washington	5 10 p m	9 10 a m
Leave Newport News	3 50 p m
Leave Richmond	6 25 p m	9 35 a m
Due Charlottesville	10 00 p m	1 45 p m
Due Staunton	11 42 p m	4 57 p m
Due Clifton Forge	1 45 a m	6 47 p m
Due Charleston	9 00 a m	4 25 a m
Due Huntington
Leave Huntington	9 40 a m	6 20 a m
Due Ashland	10 19 a m	7 02 a m
Due Mt. Sterling	1 57 p m	11 05 a m
Leave Winchester	2 30 p m	11 45 a m
Arrive Lexington	3 32 p m	12 45 p m
Arrive Louisville	7 10 p m	5 20 p m
Arrive Cincinnati	6 05 p m	5 35 p m

Lexington Div. trains run by Central time. Main line trains East of Huntington run by Eastern time, which is one hour faster than central time.

Nos. 1 and 6 run daily, except Sunday. Sleeping cars between Huntington and Clifton Forge.

Nos 3 and 4 run daily, and do not stop for local business. Pullman Sleeping cars and Solid Train between Louisville and Washington and Cincinnati and Richmond without change.

Nos. 2 and 5 runs daily between Richmond and Clifton Forge. Do not run between Clifton Forge and Richmond.

No 1 leave Norfolk except Sunday, 7 40 a m, Old Point 8 15 a m, Newport News 8 45 a m, arrive at Richmond at 11 35 a m

No. 2 leave Richmond except Sunday 8 20 a m, arrive Newport News 10 45 a m Old Point 11 10 a m, Norfolk 11 45 a m

Old Dominion steamers leave Norfolk on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or Saturday at 6 00 p m, arrive in New York next afternoon.

For Rates Tickets, Baggage Checks apply to any office of C. & O. Ry. or Depot or Ticket office of connecting lines.

C. W. SMITH, Gen'l Manager.

H. W. FULLER, Gen'l Pass. Agt

Ohio & Mississippi R. R

—The Direct and Fast Line to—

Cincinnati, Louisville, Washington, Baltimore, New York and the East,

In Connection with the

"Great Jackson Route,"

Makes the following

FAST TIME.

STATIONS.	Daily
Leave New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss.	12:38 a m
Canton	1:30 a m
Durant	2:52 p m
Grenada	4:50 a m
Coffeeville	5:25 a m
Water Valley	6:00 a m
Oxford	6:43 a m
Holly Springs	7:54 a m
Grand Junction	9:15 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St L & N. O	11:05 a m
Milan " " "	12:20 p m
Martin " " "	1:32 p m
Fulton " " "	2:00 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:30 p m
Carbondale "	6:58 p m
DuQuoin "	7:45 p m
Ashley "	8:28 p m
Centralia "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:26 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi	9:29 p m
" Louisville, "	6:50 a m
" Cincinnati "	7:05 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.

Passengers living on the line of the C. St. L. & N. O. R. R. will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.

The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.

2 DAILY TRAINS FROM ODIN

To WASHINGTON in 27 Hours,

To BALTIMORE in 28 Hours.

This is 5 Hours quicker than the fastest time by any other line.

The Day Express runs entire train consisting of Day Coaches and Palace Sleeping Cars from St. Louis to Washington and Baltimore without change.

The Night Express has Sleepers through without change. No other line from St. Louis offers a Double Daily Through Train Service to the National Capital.

W. W. PEABODY, President and General Manager.

W. B. SHATTUC, General Passenger Agent.

Cincinnati, Ohio. jy31tf

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

The old reliable route to all Eastern cities. Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leaves	Arrives.
Express	8:00 a m	7:45 a m
Coast Accommodation	3:35 p m	9:10 a m
Fast Mail	8:20 p m	7:30 p m

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. C. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.

W. B Knickern, Ticket Agent; J. T. Harahan, General Manager; John Kilkeuy, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; O. M Dunn, Superintendent N. O. and M. Division. a25-1y

RAILROADS.

C. I. St. L. & C. 4 KANKAKEE LINE

4 PASSENGER TRAINS each way per day between Cincinnati and Indianapolis.

3 PASSENGER TRIANS each way per day between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Chicago

2 PASSENGER TRIANS each way per day between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette, Kankake, Seneca and Davenport, Ia.

KANKAKEE LINE.

Entire trains run through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Chicago, Pullman Sleepers and elegant Reclining Chair Cars on Night trains. Parlor Cars on Day Trains.

SHELDON ROUTE.

Commodious Reclining Chair Cars run through without change between Cincinnati Indianapolis, Lafayette and Peoria, Ills. and Keokuk, Ia. Close connection for Burlington, Ia.

KANKAKEE & SENECA ROUTE.

The ONLY LINE running Elegant coaches through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Davenport, Ia.

CONNECTIONS

At Cincinnati in Central Union Depot, with all trains of the Cincinnati Southern Railway (Queen & Crescent Route) thus avoiding the tedious omnibus transfer incident to other lines.

At Indianapolis in Union Depot, with all lines diverging.

Through Tickets and Baggage Checks to all Principal Points,

Can be obtained at any ticket office of C. I. St. L. & C. Ry., also via this line at all Coupon Ticket Offices throughout the country.

See Agents of this Company for Rates, Routes, &c. or write Grant K. Lowry, Trav Pass Ag't, Wilmore, Ky.

JOHN EGAN, Gen'l Pass. and Tkt. Agent, Cincinnati, O.

BIG

Great Jackson Route.

Illinois Central R. R. Co.

Double Daily Passenger Trains.

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Passenger No. 2 9:15 a.m.	Pass'r No. 1..7:00 a m
No. 4 St. L. & Chi Express...6.00 p. m.	No. 3. Ch'c. N O Lim. Ex. 9:00 a. m
No. 6 Sun Ex...7:30 a m	No. 5 Sun Ex. 8:20 p. m

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.

Ticket Office: Cor. Carondelet and Canal, (Pickwick Club Building.)

WM. MURRAY, General Southern Passenger Agent.

J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT KENNEDY, Ticket Agent

C & O

The Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company have moved their ticket management and business rooms to No. 225 Fourth avenue.

C. O. & S. W. R. R.

THE SOUTHERN TRUNK LINE

—TO—

Louisville, Cincinnati, Washington, Baltimore,

And the Short Line to

Cairo, St. Louis, Chicago and the Northwest.

The Direct Route to

Eastern Seaboard Cities, Texas, Arkansas and the Southwest.

Chesapeake, Ohio & Southwestern R. R.

For Owensboro, Henderson, Padneah and Memphis and all points South and Southwest. Ticket office 225 Fourth avenue; Depot, corner of Fourteenth and Main streets.

	Express Daily	Accom Daily ex Sun'y
Leave Louisville	7 50 a m	4 10 p m
Arrive at Cecelia	10 20 a m	6 45 p m
" Elizabethtown	10 10 a m	7 05 p m
" Grayson Springs	11 12 a m	.....
" Litchfield	11 23 a m	.....
" Central City	2 00 a m	.....
" Owensboro	5 05 a m	.....
" Nortonsville	3 27 p m	.....
" Hopkinsville	9 50 p m	.....
" Madisonville	4 37 p m	.....
" Henderson	6 10 p m	.....
" Evansville	8 10 p m	.....
" Tradewater	4 07 p m	.....
" Princeton	4 47 p m	.....
" Paducah	7 00 p m	.....
" Mayfield	8 27 p m	.....
" Fulton	9 29 p m	.....
" Cairo	10 45 p m	.....
" Rives	10 10 p m	.....
" Memphis	3 20 a m	.....
" Louisville	7 00 p m	9 35 a m

Tickets now on sale at depot at lowest rates. Call on or address H. H. TALLEY, Ticket Agent, Memphis, Tenn.

Or B. F. MITCHELL, Gen Pass. Agt, Louisville, Ky.

ARE YOU GOING TO KANSAS, MISSOURI, COLORADO, CALIFORNIA OR ANY OF THE WESTERN STATES?

If so you should avail yourself of the advantages that are now offered by the Kansas City Route, the only direct route from the South to the West and Northwest. This line runs its entire trains, with Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars and free Reclining Chair Cars, from Memphis to Kansas City, saving many hours time over any other route. If you are going West you will save money by purchasing your tickets via Memphis and the Kansas City Route. Send for large map of this Short Route; mailed free. Address,

J. E. LOCKWOOD, Kansas City, Mo.

Or, H. D. ELLIS, Ticket Agent. 31 Madison street, Memphis, Tenn.

General News Item

Another revolution seems to be sprouting in Cuba.

Irish potatoes sell for $2 a bushel in portions of Florida.

Ex Secretary Frelinghuysen went into public life at 53 and died at 77.

The Grant mansion in Philadelphia, being sold at auction brought $22,000.

The proportion of male to female teachers in fourteen representative cities is one to ten.

There is as much money as ever but it is locked up in the vaults. Hence the hard times.

1884 tax returns from Negroes in Georgia, equal 8,021,525, which is $1,431,649 above 1883.

The Riel and Ponndmaker so called rebellion in the Northwest is over. Power has prevailed, whether right or wrong.

The Cimeter, a temperance paper full of news and very useful, always is making a worthy contest and deserves a cordial support.

Disturbances caused by wall paper poisoning take the form of bilious fever, hay fever, or in the most severe types, of nervous prostration.

As an example to the colored boys of this community, we mention the fact that Strick Gray, who died here recently, aged 19 years, left a home to his mother worth $500.—Marietta, (Ga.) Journal.

The Alumni Magazine informs us that Lincoln University has received $10.000 from the estate of the late Hon. W. E. Dodge, the interest of which is to be used for the support of colored students.

Out of $27,000, raised by the United States soldiers and sailors for the Lincoln mausoleum at Springfield, Illinois, $8,000 nearly one third in proportion to numbers not to say wealth, this is a great deal larger share than contributed by the others.

A meeting in London, England, Resolved, that the war in the Soudan was an outrage on the liberty of the Soudanese Africans and like all past European, Indian, and African wars undertaken in the interest of Jewish and other bondholders.

The Georgia Baptist, of Augusta, Ga., says: "The only hope for the colored man in this State and country is a union on some question which will give the moral support of the better classes of all the people." Temperance is that question.

A chalky substance that is very excellent for polishing has been found on a plantation in Wilkes county, Ga. Although a large quantity of it exists there, just what it is is unknown. A specimen has been sent to the State chemist to be analyzed. It is thought to be very valuable.

C. H. Spurgeon says: "The doctrine of endless punishment appals us; we need to be appalled. It makes the spirit sink; the spirit ought to sink before the tremendous evil which comes of sin. If we are lethargic, even under such incentives, what should we be if they were removed?

The yearly consumption of beer in Munich is 470 quarts to each man, woman and child, or about three pints a day for each person. What is actually drunk by the men is, on an average, from two and a half to three quarts per day. There is a brewery for every thousand inhabitants in Bavaria.

The eighty-first annual meeting of the British and Foreign Bible Society was held May 6th, in Exeter Hall, Lord Shaftsbury presiding. The total income for the past year was £253,766; the expenditure for the year amounting to £281,005. The issues for the year [illegible] been 4,161,032 of Bibles, Testaments and portions, bringing the total issues from the commencement of the society to 104,196,865. In nine months 355,000 copies of the Penny Testament were disposed of.

There are 25,000,000 of moderate [illegible] drinkers and [illegible] in the United States, [illegible] may be classed as follows: [illegible] moderate drinkers, 7,000,000 [illegible] drinkers, and [illegible] drunkards. More than [illegible] of the moderate drinkers (be it said to their shame), belong to the professed Church of Christ. Stop all moderate drinking and in five years, there will be no drunkards, and the 250,000 liquor saloons in the United States will be closed. Moderate drinking leads to immoderate, and immoderate drinking makes drunkards.—Christian at Work.

Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" is everywhere acknowledged to be the standard remedy for female complaints and weaknesses. It is sold by all druggists.

The General Conference of 1888.

The Commission of General Conference Entertainment, met in New York city, July 2, for the purpose of fixing the seat of the next General Conference, and transacting certain other business in the interest of that body. Boston and New York each having invited the General Conference, the commissioners after carefully considering the matter, decided in favor of New York. The General Conference of 1888 will, therefore, be held in the city of New York.

A Million for Missions.

More responses from the presiding elders to the appeal for a united effort to raise a million dollars for missions:

F. W. Susportas, Port Royal District, South Carolina Conference: "We will, with God's help, try to reach your estimate. I have no fears that my district will be up in the first ranks this year, as we, are advancing all along the lines."

E. W. S. Peck, Baltimore District, Washington Conference: "I have carefully considered your wise proposition to raise one million dollars. I believe it can be done if all concerned will act according to the plan you suggest. It meets my hearty approval. I shall try and and do my duty in carrying it out on my district."

Daniel Collins, Wytheville District, Washington Conference: "your circular and letter have been read with great care. I heartily indorse it all. Four of the sixteen counties over which I travel are crying daily 'Send us the Gospel, I can only say to them, 'Stand still and I will hear what the Lord will command concerning you.' I believe now is the time for us to raise the one million for missions, that the dark places at home and abroad may be lighted up by the bright light of the Gospel. By the help of God I will try to raise the apportionment allotted me."

We earnestly request a response from every presiding elder in the Denomination. We invite suggestions from all. We desire to find out what is necessary to insure complete success in our effort to raise one million dollars for missions.

JOHN M. REID.
C. O. McCABE.

Many a victim to Bright's Disease has been restored to sound health by Hunt's Remedy.

Bishop Foster is wanted to dedicate a new church in Texas, at Luling next fall or winter.

We call attention to the advertisement in another column of Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va. The Academic Departments, as well as the professional schools of Law and Engineering, open Sept. 17.

Plantation Melodies
AND
REVIVAL HYMNS.

By MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D.

WITH AN INTRODUCTION
By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.

Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.

Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and portrait. Sent, post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents.

Address, PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez street, New Orleans.

Skin Diseases.—"Swayne's Ointment," "Swayne's Ointment" cures Tetter, salt Rheum, Ringworm, Sores, Pimples, Eczema, all Itchy Skin Eruptions, no matter how obstinate or long standing.
nov13-1yeow

Bibles at 1-2 and Old Testaments at less than 1-2 the prices of the English editions, and equal to the English in type, paper, printing and accuracy. First agent sent out reports an order at every call for two weeks. Rare chance for agents to make money. Send $1.00 for outfit. VERY LIBERAL. The Henry Bill Pub. Co., Norwich, Conn.
may14-tf

M. E. Church Directory.

Southwestern Christian Advocate. Office 32 Natchez Street.

LABARPE STREET CHURCH—Rev Elijah Clarke, pastor. Sunday services—Prayer meeting, 6 a m; Sunday-school, 9 a m; preaching at 11 a m, 3 p m, and 7 p m; Class-meeting Tuesday night, at 7 o'clock; preaching Thursday night at 7 o'clock; Communion first Sunday evening of each month, at 7 30.

FIRST GERMAN M. E. CHURCH—Corner S. Andrew and Prank lo streets; Rev J. J. Klenle pastor Preaching at 0 30 a m, and Sunday-school at 9 a m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.

SECOND GERMAN M. E CHURCH—Eighth street; Rev Charles Shuler pastor Services Sabbath at 10:30 a m, and 7 p m; Sunday-school at 9 a m; Prayer meeting Wednesday evenings at 7:30.

ST. MATTHEW M. E CHURCH—On Varnet Street, Algiers, La. Sunday services: Preaching at 11 and 3; 7.30 at night. Prayer meeting 6 30 in the morning. Class meeting Wednesday. 7:30 p m Sunday-school at 1:30. a. C. Barrow, Pastor.

UNION CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Services: Sundays, preaching 11 a m., 3 p. m 7½ p. m. Sunday school at 1 o'clock. Class meeting Tuesday nights. Preaching Thursday nights. Prayer meetings Friday nights. Stephen Duncan, Pastor, 42 Robinson street.

WESLEY CHAPEL—Liberty street, between Perdido and Poydras; Rev Marcus Dale, Pastor. Services: Sunday 6 a m; prayer meeting, preaching 11 a m; 3 and 7 0 p m; General Class and Love Feast monthly; preaching Thursday eve, 7:30; Class, Monday eve.

SIXTH STREET CHURCH—Between Laurel and Annunciation; Rev. E. Lyon, pastor. Services—Public worship Sabbath 11 a m., 3 and 7 p m. Communion every second Sunday at 7 p. m. Sunday-school 1 p m. Class-meeting Monday evening Preaching Wednesday evening Prayer-meeting Friday evening. General Class first Monday night in every month. Prayer service at 5:30 a. m.

CAMP PARAPET CHURCH—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, Pastor. Sunday services—Prayer-meeting 6 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Sabbath at 1 p. m. Class-meetings. Thursday evening.

HAVEN CHAPEL—JEFFERSON STREET, Carrollton, corner of Pinn street Rev. M. C. B. Mason, Pastor. Services—Public worship at 11 a. m, 3 and 7 p. m, Sunday. Sunday-school 9 a. m. Class meeting Monday evening. General Class, second Sunday at 11 a. m, and communion at 7. Preaching Thursday evening.

New Orleans University A. F Hoyt, M. A., acting President 1428 St Charles Street.

First Street—Rev. J. G. Montgomery, Pastor. Church corner First and Dryades Streets. Services: Sabbath—5 a m., prayer meeting; 11, 3 and 7, public worship; communion monthly, on the first Sunday. Sunday-school 1 p m. Class meeting Monday evening General class every fourth Monday evening. Preaching Thursday nights.

MOUNT ZION M. E. CHURCH—James W Hood, pastor Regular services 11 a m, 3 and 7 p m; prayer meeting Monday even at 7 p m. Tuesday night class meeting. Preaching Wednesday even at 7 p m, and sacrament the third Sabbath of every month.

THOMSON CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Poet street, near Rampart. Sunday Services: preaching at 11, 3 and 7 Prayer meeting 6 in morning. Class meeting 3:30. Z. T. Gaydon, pastor.

AMES M. E. CHURCH—Rev. Thomas Stalker, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sunday-school at 9.45 a. m. Prayer meeting, Thursday evening at 7.30.

PLEASANT PLAIN CHURCH—Perdido, bet. Johnson and Prieur streets, Rev. W.P. Forest, pastor. Services Sabbath: Preaching at 11 a m, 3:30 and 7:30 p m. Sunday-school at 9 a m; early prayer meeting at 5:30 a m: class at 5:30 p m; preaching Wednesday and prayer meeting Wednesday evenings. Sacrament every second Sabbath. Love feast quarterly.

General Church Directory.

CENTRAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Also College Church of Straight University A. M. A., corner Gasquet and Liberty streets, one block off Canal street. Services—Preaching Sundays at 11 a m and 7 p m; Sabbath-school 12:15 p m. Prayer meetings Tuesdays and Friday evenings at 7:30 p m. This church has a fine choir under good leadership, and is centrally located. Northern visitors and all true friends of the colored people are cordially invited to attend its services. Rev. G. W. Bothwell, M. A., pastor.

OUR CLUBBING LIST,
—1885—

Persons sending us cash with their orders can have the SOUTHWESTERN one year together with any one of the following publications, for amount opposite each as named:

Littell's Living Age	$9 00
Outing	3 00
Wide Awake	4 25
Babyland	1 75
Our Little Men and Women	2 25
The Pansy	2 00
Our Little Ones and the Nursery	2 25
American Agriculturist	2 50
Southern Cultivator	2 75
Popular Science Monthly	6 00
New York Medical Journal	6 00
Illustrated Christian Weekly	3 25
Harper's Magazine	5 00
Harper's Weekly	5 00
Harper's Bazar	5 00
Harper's Young People	3 00
American Reformer	2 00
Weekly Inter-Ocean	2 25
Babyhood	2 75

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez street, New Orleans.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS,
17 & 29 West 2d St., New York.

Have now ready

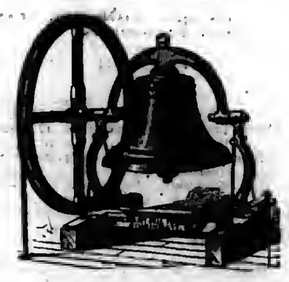
The History of the Negro Race in America.

From 1619 to 1881. Negroes as Slaves, as Soldiers and as Citizens,

Together with a preliminary consideration of the Unity of the Human Family, and Histories Sketch of Africa, and an account of the Negro Government of Sierra Leone and Liberia. By George W. Williams, first colored member of the Ohio Legislature, and late Judge Advocate of the G. A. R., of Ohio.

Popular Edition; two volumes in one, large octavo, with portrait on steel of the author, $4.

"It is a prodigious compilation, so comprehensive that every student will welcome it, and so just in its whole scope that criticism of special points can not impair it.—World, New York.



"It ought to be read by every colored man in America."—Journal, Indianapolis.

"He has accomplished a noble service for his race."—Zion's Herald, Boston.

☞ This book can be ordered through the office of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, New Orleans, La.

CORPULENCY Recipe and notes how to harmlessly, effectually and rapidly cure obesity without semi starvation dietary, etc. European Mail, Oct. 24th, says: "Its effect is not merely to reduce the amount of fat, but by affecting the source of obesity to induce a radical cure of the disease. Mr. R. makes no charge whatever; any person, rich or poor, can obtain his work gratis, by sending 6 cts. to cover postage to F. C. RUSSELL, Esq., Woburn House, Store street Bedford Sq., London, Eng. may21-13t

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.

Bells For Churches, Schools, Etc.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
24 inches	165 lbs	300 lbs	$135 00
26 "	200 lbs	350 lbs	45 00
28 "	225 lbs	375 lbs	55 00
32 "	375 lbs	550 lbs	80 00
36 "	525 lbs	750 lbs	100 00
40 "	800 lbs	1100 lbs	145 00
44 "	1040 lbs	1400 lbs	180 00
48 "	1325 lbs	1800 lbs	230 00
54 "	2050 lbs	2800 lbs	350 00

Bells for Schools, Farms, Etc.
without mountings.

18 inches, 75 lbs	$13 00
20 inches, 100 lbs	18 00
24 inches, 105 lbs	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named, which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.

The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.

On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 37 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.
Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.
VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.
mar5-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.
The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade.
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.
Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,
TROY, N. Y.
nov29-1yr

McShane Bell Foundry

Manufacture those celebrated Bells and Chimes for Churches, Tower Clocks, &c., &c. Price-list and circulars sent free. Address
HENRY McSHANE & CO.
oct23-1y Baltimore, Md.

Baltimore Church Bells
Since 1844 celebrated for Superiority over others are made only of Purest Bell Metal, (Copper and Tin,) Rotary Mountings, warranted satisfactory. For Prices, Circulars, &c., address BALTIMORE BELL FOUNDRY, J. REGESTER & SONS, Baltimore, Md.
apr30 26teow

An Offer Never Equaled!

THE WEEKLY EDITION
—OF—
The TIMES DEMOCRAT,
NEW ORLEANS,
—AND—
THE WEEKLY EDITION
—OF—
The NEW YORK WORLD,
NEW YORK,
FOR ONE YEAR
Only $2.20.
OR
THE TWO WEEKLIES
—AND A—
Waterbury Watch and Chain
FOR $4.20.

Either Weekly alone is worth more than the price asked for both, as they contain reviews of the news of the world, a vast amount of select literary matter, exhaustive commercial reports, in fact everything is embraced that tends to make a

First-class Family Newspaper.

The subscription price to Weekly Times-Democrat alone is $1.50 for 12 months; 75 cents for 6 months, or 50 cents for 3 months.

Every family in New Orleans not taking the Daily TIMES-DEMOCRAT should keep posted in the

NEWS OF THE WORLD,

by taking these Weeklies, and as an inducement we offer a good serviceable watch for the small addition mentioned above.

The WATERBURY WATCH is a stemwinder, and will run twenty-eight hours. The case is NICKLE-SILVER, and will always remain as bright as a new silver dollar. The Watch has a heavy beveled edge and crystal face. The works of the Watch are made with the finest automatic machinery. Every watch is tested in varying positions, and is perfect before leaving the factory. Each Watch is put up in a handsome new improved SATIN-LINED CASE, for safe transportation through the mails.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Taken at the office of THE TIMES-DEMOCRAT, or by mail, when accompanied by subscription price.

For the Cheapest and Choicest

Family & Fancy Groceries,

SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE Hams, Bacon, &c., &c.,

—GO TO—

N. E. Sullivan's GROCERY
Corner of
Washington and Hampson Streets
CARROLLTON, LA.
nov23-1y

A PRIZE Send six cents for postage, and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help you to more money right away than anything else in this world. All, of either sex, succeed from first hour. The broad road to fortune opens before the workers, absolutely sure. At once address, TRUE & Co., Augusta, Maine. feb19-26t

PHILLIP SAAL,

Dealer in Fancy and Staple Groceries, A Specialty of B[illegible] Coffee, and Fine Family Groceries.

503 Dryades Street, (near St. Andrew st.,) New Orle[illegible]
jan1-1y

Crescent Insurance Company.

Incorporated as a Mutual Company in 1849. Re-organized as a Stock Company in 1869.

CASH CAPITAL.....$600,000.

Has paid paid nearly TEN MILLIONS for losses since 1849. Annual and Term Policies issued on Desirable Fire Business.

W. B. Lyman, President, Chas. H. Dolsen, Vice President, Chas. E. Rice, Secy

TRUSTEES

Joseph Poelling,	Sam H. Kennedy,	Geo. W. Sentell,	Alfred Moulton,	W. B. Co[illegible]
W. t. Lyman,	U Marinoni,	Chas. H. Dolsen,	John Calder,	A H. [illegible]
S. C. Coulon.	Harry L. Flash,	Wm. A. Phelps,	J. J. Reiss.	Louis P[illegible]
Lucien Delery,	Charles Newman,	N D. Wallace,	Sigmund Katz,	M G[illegible]
R. F W Bachman,	C. K. David,	Wm. Garig.	A. Rosenfeld.	John [illegible]
Chas E Rice,	Joseph Kohn,	Chas. M. Whitney,	James T. Rodd

☞ See our Agents throughout the South.

AN ADVERTISING AGENCY.

Newspapers.

Catalogue.

Advertisement.

Our Lists.

Estimates.

Printing Office.

Our System.

Payment.

We receive and keep on file over 12,000 Newspapers published in every State and Province in America. Over 1000 Daily papers alone arrive every morning. Each paper is examined by careful clerks and the insertions entered in record books. Under our system an advertiser is sure to receive the full value for his money.

We publish the "American Newspaper Catalogue," a volume of 900 pages elegantly bound in cloth, and containing a complete list of the publications of every character in the United States and Canada. On one line we give place of publication, name of paper, class, or denomination, age and circulation. In it are catalogued 14,000 periodicals. Sent free on receipt of $1.50.

We can secure the prompt insertion of any advertisement in any publication at the lowest available prices. We keep constantly invested over $200,000 "in space" in the best lines of newspapers. Our special lists of Papers will be found especially useful in making up lists for pushing any special lines.

We have, for the convenience of advertisers, made up our Religious List containing the names of all the leading denominational papers with prices. Our Agricultural List containing the names of all the prominent agricultural papers with prices. Our Local List of 1,300 County and City Weeklies and Dailies, arranged by States with publishers' prices and the prices at which we can insert advertisements. These Lists are mailed free on application.

We will furnish to any reputable advertiser who will apply, an estimate showing exact cost of any proposed line of advertising, and when desired, will make up lists and write advertisements, provided the amount desired to be expended is named. We have had a wide experience, and can suggest lines of papers best adapted to the wants of an advertiser.

We keep constantly supplied with the newest styles of type best adapted to the display of advertisements. Send us your copy and we will return with estimate a proof from type without extra charge.

Our organization for correctly following an advertisement in the newspapers is perfect, and our patrons can be assured that correct work from every publisher will be exacted.

To any advertiser entitled to credit, or any one who can furnish us proper references, we will extend any reasonable line of credit. Publishers pay us a commission for all the business we send them, and any advertiser can be assured of obtaining through us lower prices than can be obtained from publishers direct. In no instance do we charge advertisers any addition to publishers' rates.

Edwin Alden & Bro.,

N.W. Cor. 5th & Vine Sts., CINCINNATI.
140 Nassau Street, NEW YORK.

Newspaper Advertising Agents.

GEORGE LANDRY,

Undertaker.

292.....Rampart Street.....292
(Between Hospital and Barracks streets)
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Entrepreneur de Pompes Funebres.
All orders promptly and carefully executed a moderate prices.
sept25-tf A. LABAT, Asst Manager.

J. T. Newman, M. D.,
—PRACTICING—
Surgeon and Physician,
315 Felicity Street,
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
☞ Makes a specialty of treating colored people. jan15-1y

E. W. Scheffel,
GENERAL
Book-Binder,
Ruler and Blank Book Manufacturer.
37 Natchez St., [up-stairs] New Orleans.
Magazines, Music, Periodicals and Old Books re-bound, Plain or Ornamental. jan22

STANDARD
Cane Mills
For Horse and Steam Power.
Evaporators
For Syrup and Sugar.
Known and Used
the World Over.

We are the sole makers of the Victor, Great Western, and Niles Cane Mills, of the original and genuine Cook Evaporator, and of the Automatic Cook Evaporator.
BLYMYER MANUFACTURING CO.,
CINCINNATI, O.
Manufacturers of Steam Engines, Boilers, Ice Machinery, and Refrigerating Machinery.
june18-4e

20 YEARS OF CONGRESS. BY JAMES G. BLAINE
1,000,000 Copies will soon be sold. The only history of our Government from 1861 to 1885. Hon. John S. Wise, M. C. from Virginia, says: "Whoever takes it up, no matter whether he be Mr. Blaine's friend or enemy, will never put it down until he has read the whole." $200 per month to good responsible agents. Apply at once, The Henry Bill Publishing Company, Norwich, Conn.
dec30-52t

PAYSON'S INDELIBLE INK.
No preparation and only a common pen needed. Established 50 Years. Superior [illegible] work on linen. Received Centennial Medal & Diploma. Sold everywhere.
jan30-26teow

"A TRIFLE OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER." FOR PRESERVING, BEAUTIFYING AND Beautifying the Complexion there is Nothing Equal to CHAMPLIN'S LIQUID PEARL. For Removing Sunburn, Tan, Freckles, Pimples, Blotches, Blemishes, Etc. OPINIONS OF NOTED LADIES. LOUISA—It is the best preparation I ever used. The fact that I ever used it proves it. CLARA LOUISE—It is a pleasure to add my name to the list of those who recommend your Liquid Pearl. It does all you claim for it. I cheerfully express the satisfaction it has given me. The LIQUID PEARL has no equal. Ladies, insist upon having it. Take no substitute. Beware of imitations. Each genuine bottle bears the fac-simile signature of the inventor. For sale by all druggists. Price, $1.00 per bottle. CHAMPLIN & CO., Cleveland, O. oct26-2

AGENTS WANTED for Twenty Years of Congress 1861—1881, by James G. Blaine. Hon. J. S. Wise of Va. says: "Whoever takes it up, no matter whether he be Mr. Blaine's friend or enemy, will never put it down until he has read the whole." Agents make from $200 to $1000 per month. Address The Henry Bill Pub. Co., Norwich, Conn.
apr9-tf

Pianos & Organs Of all makes direct to customers from headquarters, at wholesale prices. All goods guaranteed. No money asked till Instrument is received and tested. Write us before purchasing. An investment of 2 cents may save you from $50.00 to $100.00. Mailed free. JESSE FRENCH, Nashville, Tenn., Wholesale Distributing Dep't for the South.
feb19 1y.

AGENTS WANTED for the MISSOURI STEAM WASHER
I want intelligent men or women seeking profitable employment to write for Illustr. Circular and terms of Agency. A great labor, clothes and soap saver. Exclusive territory and sample Washer sent on 6 weeks trial. Pays capable Agents Big Money. J. WORTH, St. Louis, Mo.
jan22 26t

FEMALE COMPLAINTS
Treated scientifically at home, at very small [illegible] lately no pain, no caustics, no unnecessary [illegible] exposure; cure guaranteed. Book and question blank free with stamp. Dr. C. N. BROCKINGTON, 309 4th Ave., [illegible]
(Mention this paper.)

CATARRH
Causing Loss of Smell, Offensive Breath, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Hay Fever, Cough and Consumption, cured in from one to six months, even though bones of nose are affected. No [illegible] ons, douches, inhalers or atomizers used. Book and blank free. Address with stamp, Dr. C. N. BROCKINGTON, 309 4th Ave., [illegible]
[Mention this paper.]
oct2 1yr

It is THE GREAT SOUTHERN REMEDY for bowels. It is one of the most pleasant and [illegible] remedies for all summer complaints. At a moment's notice violent attacks of the bowels are so frequently fatal, a speedy relief should be at hand. The mother need not be kept losing sleep in nursing the little one teething, if she will use this medicine. 50 cts. a bottle. Send for circular. Walter A. Taylor, Atlanta, Ga., for Biddle [illegible]

Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein will cure Coughs, Colds and Consumption. Price, 25c. and $1 a bottle.

OPIUM and WHISKY Habits [illegible] Home without pain. [illegible] apr2-6 %

ROYAL
BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.
...never varies. A marvel of purity, ...wholesomeness. More economical ...ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in ...with the multitude of low test, short ...or phosphate powders. Sold only ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co. 106 Wall Street, N. Y.

...day-School and Children.

...QUARTER. STUDIES IN THE KINGS. ...Lesson III. July 19. Omri ...1 Kings 16, 23-34. Com... memory verses 30-33.

...by Rev. E. Lyon, pastor of Sixth Street M. E. Church.)

HOME READINGS.

...Omri and Ahab, 1 Kings 16, ...34.

...bijam's wicked reign; 1 Kings ...8.

...revolution of Asa; 1 Kings ...24.

...The Acts of Nadab; 1 Kings ...34.

...evil of Omri and Ahab re... ...; Micah 6, 1-16.

...worshipped; Judges 2, 1-13. ...'s displeasure with the ...; Prov. 15, 1-9.

...QUESTIONS FOR HOME STUDY.

...the kings of Judah good ...men.

...was it with the kings of ...?

...was more wicked than any ...that been before him?

...city was founded while he ...?

...was most wicked of all the ...Israel?

...did he marry and let rule ...?

...did she drive the people to ...?

...did she build a temple to ...?

...did she do with God's ...?

...course did God say should ...on the man who rebuilt the ...Jericho?

...book was it before any ...do it?

...Who was king who re...

...curse fall upon him?

WITH LITTLE PEOPLE.

...you abominate a thing you ...you may keep away from it; you ...have opportunity at all to do ...That is just the way God ...ard sin. Repeat the golden

---

...Mallalieu and Others at New Iberia, La.

...to say that the Bishop and ...agent Gillet, E. Lons, ...and M. C. B. Ma... Carrollton; William Smith, ...and the presiding elder ...district. The Sunday ...tion convened at 4 ...the Bishop in the chair. ...beautifully decor... ...and flowers; ...over the pulpit was ...Bishop Mallalieu." A ...by E. Lyon, and ...First lecture ...day-school agent, fol... ...P. Albert and ...Bishop's lecture was ...such as never ...as ...T ...w... ...h. ...t ...of six ...soon in ...Our people never ...they were to see ...to hear his instruc... ...was decided ...the date and ap... ...in ...ence of ...

St. James are ready to do anything for the cause of Christ. We are doing all we can for Christ and his kingdom. The people of New Iberia nearly all have little farms of their own and are doing their own work. I think that in a few years this church will be the leading church on the district, because our people are in their own homes and are likely to remain here. If this letter is too long boil it down, as Bro. Cushman used to say to the boys. God bless the Bishop wherever he is.

A. J. PICKETT.

New Iberia, La.

Marriages.

At the residence of the bride, near Rio, Miss,, Feb. 12, 1885, Mr. George Ford and Miss Lucy Jane Cole; Rev. A. Butler officiating.

At the residence ot the bride, in Franklin, Tenn., May 28, 1885, by Rev. A. N. C. Williams, Mr. Henry Eason and Mrs. E. B. Porter. The bride is a member of Wiley Chapel M. E. Church, and Mr. Eason is a member of the Christian Church.

H. PRIMM.

At Palestine, Texas, July 1, 1885, Rev. Robert Williams to Mrs. Millian Gibbs; Rev. Aaron Taylor officiating.

Obituary.

Sister Mary Stafford died May 16, 1884, of consumption, aged 30 years. She was a faithful member of the Church for 13 years, and died in the triumph of faith. She left one child and many friends to mourn her loss. C. W.

Bro. W. Johnson Howe was a member of Mt. Zion Chapel for 16 years, also a trustee, and always true to his trust. He died June 6 very suddenly leaving four sons and many friends to mourn his loss.

A. W. WRIGHT.

Crawford, Miss.

Sister Rosa Murry died April 8, 1885, aged 70 years. She was a faithful member of the M. E Church for 30 years, and died in the faith.

S. KNIGHT.

Sparta, Tenn.

Sister Eliza Russell, for 16 years a member of Pleasant Grove Church, Brenham circuit, departed this life May 17, 1885, in full triumph of faith, aged 74 years. She leaves a daughter and a host of friends to mourn her loss, but their loss is her eternal gain. Rest thou blessed saint until we come.

W. H. JACKSON.

Sister Matilda Ray a member of the M. E. Church, died June 19, 1885. She died in Christ. Sister Cherry Lowry died May 23, 1885. Sister Farril Cockrell died Feb. 22, 1885. These sisters were good members of Clark Chapel, but they have left the church here and gone to the Church above where parting is no more.

A. PHILLIPS.

Nashville, Tenn.

Rev. Joseph Patterson died April 19, 1885, in Shreveport, La. He was ready and willing to go, and had me to sing and pray with him. He joined St. James Church on the 18th and died on the 19th. The funeral services were conducted by the following brethren: Rev. P. Landry, Rev. A. Spears, Rev. S. Davage, Rev. P. Hall and Rev. S. Armstead. The church was crowded with the friends of the deceased.

T. G. MONTGOMERY.

Rev. L. Carper, one of the oldest members and foremost ministers of West Texas Conference, located at last session of our conference on account of ill health, passed to his eternal rest Sunday morning, a few minutes after 10 o'clock, in the 66th year of his life on earth. He had preached 50 years; was ordained deacon by Bishop Burns, in Missouri in 1845, held his relation to to the church, was ordained elder by Bishop Matthew Simpson in 1865 or 1866, at the first conference, held at Austin, Texas. Bro. Carper had lingered along ever since Conference, never at any time confined to his bed more than a day; was treated occasionally by Dr. G. J. Starnes. This Sabbath morning, April 26, after helping Sister Eliza Carper cook breakfast, etc., wash the dishes, placed them away nicely, and while she and the children got ready for Sunday-school, said, "tell Bro. Mack I will not be able to preach for him to day," sat down in a chair, from which he fell over on his face and expired in less than 20 minutes without a struggle.

MACK HENSON.

Of 142 boarders at Augusta Female Seminary all but forty-six are professing Christians.

Conference Notices.

Plan of Episcopal Visitation.—1885. Fall Conferences.

[ALPHABETICAL.]

CONFERENCE.	PLACE.	TIME.	BISHOP.
Alabama	Edwardsville, Ala.	Nov 26	Mallalieu
Arizona Miss.	Tucson, Arizona	Sept 17	Fowler
Austin	Denton, Texas	Dec. 10	Foster
Black Hills Miss	Rapid City, Dak.	Aug. 20	Ninde
Blue Ridge	Gastonia, N. C.	Oct. 1	Mallalieu
Bulgaria Miss.	Rustchuk, Bul.	Oct. 1
California	Stockton, Cal.	Sept. 3	Fowler
Central Alabama	Mobile, Ala.	Dec. 10	Mallalieu
Central China mis'n	Kinkiang, China	Oct. 14
Central German	Columbus, Ohio	Sept 10	Harris
Central Illinois	Fairbury, Ill.	Sept 24	Warren
Central New York	Syracuse, N. Y.	Oct 8	Merrill
Central Ohio	Fostoria, O.	Sept 17	Harris
Central Tennessee	Tullahoma, Tenn.	Oct 15	Mallalieu
Chicago German	Maeltowoc, Wis.	Sept 17	Bowman
Cincinnati	Cincinnati, O.	Sept 3	Harris
Colorado	Pueblo Col.	Aug 20	Andrews
Columbia River	Spoka'e Falls W. T.	July 16	Walden
Dakota miss'n	Blunt, Dak.	Oct 8	Foss
Des Moines	Des Moines, Ia.	Sept 17	Foss
Detroit	Pontiac, Mich.	Sept 10	Warren
East Ohio	Barnesville, O.	Sept 17	Foster
East Tennessee	Knoxville, Tenn.	Oct 22	Hurst
Erie	Sharon, Pa.	Sept 10	Merrill
Foochow	Foochow, China	Nov 19
Genesee	Lima, N Y.	Oct 1	Horst
Georgia	Ellijay, Ga.	Nov 19	Mallalieu
Holston	Johnson City, Tenn	Oct 15	Hurst
Idaho	Canyon City Oreg.	July 30	Walden
Illinois	Rushville, Ill.	Sept 17	Ninde
Indiana	Spencer, Ind.	Aug 27	Harris
Iowa	Mt. Pleasant, Ia.	Sept 10	Ninde
Japan	Tokio, Japan	Aug 20
Kentucky	Covington, Ky.	Oct 1	Harris
Michigan	G'nd Rapids, Mich.	Sept 17	Warren
Minnesota	Rochester, Minn.	Oct 1	Andrews
Montana miss'n	Dillon, Montana	July 1	Walden
Nebraska	Seward, Neb.	Sept 17	Andrews
Nevada miss'n	Bishop's Ck, Nev.	Aug 20	Fowler
N Mexico miss'n	Santa Fe, N. Mex.	Oct 1	Fowler
" Spanish	Peralta New Mex.	Sept 24	Fowler
N China mis'n	Peking, China	Sept 24
N. Dakota	Wahpeton, Dak.	Sept 17	Walden
N. Nebraska	Ponca, Neb.	Sept 3	Andrews
N. Ohio	Berea Ohio	Sept 3	Merrill
N w German	Lesaur, Minn.	Sept 24	Andrews
N w Indiana	Valparaiso, Ind.	Sept 3	Foss
N w Iowa	Storm Lake, Ia.	Sept 24	Foss
N w Swedish	Dayton, Ia	Sept 3	Bowman
Norw'n Danish	Cambridge, Wis.	Sept 10	Bowman
Ohio	De aware, Ohio	Sept 24	Foster
Oregon	Roseburg, Oreg.	Aug 27	Walden
Pittsburgh	Allegheny City, Pa.	Sept 17	Merrill
Puget Sound	Tacoma, W. T.	Aug 13	Walden
Rock River	Elgin, Ill.	Oct 8	Fowler
St Lous German	St Louis, Mo.	Sept 10	Foss
Savannah	Savannah, Ga.	Dec 3	Mallalieu
S. E. Indiana	Brookville, Ind.	Sept 24	Harris
S. California	Santa Barbara, Cal	Sept 10	Fowler
S. German	San Antonio, Tex.	Nov 19	Foster
S. Illinois	Edwardsville, Ill.	Sept 24	Ninde
Tennessee	Gallatin, Tenn.	Oct 22	Mallalieu
Texas	Houston, Tex.	Nov 20	Foster
Upper Iowa	Toledo, Ia.	Oct 1	Warren
Utah mission	Park City, Utah	July 2	Warren
West German	Olaytonia, Neb.	Sept 3	Ninde
W. Neb. mis'n	Kearney, Neb.	Sept 10	Andrews
West Texas	Austin, Tex	Dec 3	Foster
West Virginia	Charleston, W. Va.	Sept 24	Merrill
W. Wisconsin	Dodgeville, Wis.	Sept 24	Bowman
Wisconsin	Waukesha, Wis.	Oct 1	Bowman

By order of the Board of Bishops.

WM. L. HARRIS, Secretary.

St. Louis, Mo., May 18, 1885.

Chattanooga District—East Tennessee Conference.

Fourth Round.

Soddy	July	18-19
Big Spring	"	25-26
Ebenezer	Aug.	1- 2
Sweetwater	"	8- 9
Washington	"	15-16
Kingston	"	22 23
Robertsville	"	29-30
Chattanooga station	Sept.	5- 6
Jasper	"	12 13
Riceville	"	19 20
Cleveland	"	26 27
Chattanooga ot	Oct.	3 4
Gogorgetown	"	10 11

The district conference will convene in Roane co., Tenn., Aug. 20, at 9 a. m., a full attendance is desired. The pastors will please notify the local preachers and exhorters, superintendents of Sunday-schools and class-leaders from each charge to represent the Sunday-school work and class meetings. All members of the district conference should come with written reports.

E. PROVINE, P. E.

Programme

Of the Sunday-school convention to be held at Clark's Chapel, August 15, 1885. Come one, come all. A grand procession will march from the church to the grove. Service will be opened at 8 o'clock a. m., by Rev. C. H. Bullington, Address of welcome by G. G. Gordon.

Rev. B F Whitley—Needs of the Sunday-school

Dr. W H Ballard—Punctuality.

R T Gordon—The need of education.

J R Reasonover—Duty of the teacher.

A F Whitley—Progress of Negroes.

Rev. O Green—Duty of parents.

G L Oakley—Duty of the secretary.

G S Manier—How to conduct a Sunday-school.

R W Baird—Best method of teaching.

J C McKinley—Education.

C B Whitley—Temperance.

B J Anderson—Foundation of Sunday-school.

B E James—Benefit of Sunday-school.

Rev C H Bullington—Character of young men and ladies.

A C Allen—Should parents attend Sunday-school.

M Allen—Why young men and ladies do not attend Sunday school.

There will be a grand barbecue.

R. A. DOWELL, Supt.

G. G. GORDON, Sec'y.

Programme.

The following is the programme of religious and literary exercises of the Navasota District of the Texas Conference:

Opening sermon by Rev. J L Smith, assisted by F D Bookman.

To preach the missionary sermon—J K Loggins, assisted by L Felder.

On baptism and its nature—J E Shackleford.

On what is meant by "one Lord, one faith one baptism—B M Taylor.

Which came first faith or repentance?—W Hamilton.

What are the Gates of Heaven—W H Jackson.

What are the Gates of Hell?—A Thomas.

What is the best method of reviving a Sunday-school—M Reddick.

Ought traveling preachers suffer during their ministerial work, and if so why ought they?—Thomas Cole and J S Whitaker.

What do the committee on missions of the annual conference mean when they apportion so much money to each district, and what becomes of said money?—F Gilmore and J H Holland.

Why are you a Methodist—W W Brown.

What is the highest office in the ministry according to scripture, and why is it?—R J Campbell and M Muldrew.

Is it right to preach funeral sermons when the person has been dead several years, and if so, why is it—L H Horn and Silas Bolden.

Other members of the conference can choose their own subjects from the programme.

JOHN A. TILLORY,
A. ALEXANDER,
E. JEFFERSON.

Programme.

The following is the programme of the Sunday-school Convention to be held at Jefferson, Texas, Marshall District, July 17-18 1885:

Model Sunday-school—Rev. R H Harbert.

How to organize a Sunday-school—W Wesley.

The Superintendent—Freeman Parker.

The model teacher—Scott Couley.

How shall we secure the attendance of the young people on our Sunday school—Henry B Pemberton.

What and how shall we teach the young people—J R Price.

How can we get our parents to attend and love our Sunday-school—R Beaver

What relation does the Church sustain to the Sunday-school—A W Parker.

Reasons for studying and teaching the catechism in our Sunday-school—S S Reid.

The benefits of the black-board—Susie Nash

How long should a Sunday-school session be held—DeWitt Frierson.

How to interest the infant class—Marina Roberts.

The importance of music—R H Harbert.

What Sunday school helps should we use—Rev. W Ripsion

Teachers meeting—W M Jackson.

How to improve our Sunday-school—W Wesley B S.

Bad habits of Sunday-school officers and teachers—H Webb.

A model Sunday-school will be held each day before the exercises, conducted by Rev. R. H. Harbert. All the pastors, superintendents and teachers on the part of the district are expected to attend.

This convention is to enliven and improve all our Sunday-schools. Those whose names are on for exercises are expected to make thorough preparation and write.

H. WEBB,
R. H. HARBERT,
FREEMAN PARKER,
H. B. PEMBERTON.
Committee.

Shreveport District Conference.

The following prominent ministers and brethren have been invited and are expected to be present, at least some if not all, viz:

Bishop W F Mallalieu, D D, Presiding Bishop; Rev Dr. J C Harrizell, Assistant Secretary of the Freedmen's Aid Society; Rev. Dr. Marshall W Taylor, editor of the SOUTHWESTERN; Rev. Dr A. E. P. Albert, presiding elder of LaTeche District; Rev L P Cushman, presiding elder of New Orleans District; Rev. Emperor Williams, presiding elder of Lafourche District, Rev. S Priestley, presiding elder of Baton Rouge district; Rev. T Stalker, pastor of Amer M. E Church; Rev J W Hudson, pastor of Mount Zion; Rev. John Quarles, pastor First Street M. E. Church; Rev. A F Hoyt, President of New Orleans University; Rev. Reese Thompson pastor at Baton Rouge; Rev. W P Forrest, pastor of Pleasant Plains; Rev. Marcus Dale, pastor of Wesley Chapel, New Orleans; Rev. J F Marshall, pastor at Alexandria, and others.

P. LANDRY.

Natchitoches, La., July 8, 1885.

Lexington Conference.

Brethren who owe on their subscription for our conference minutes will please remit without delay, by post-office order, to my address, and oblige,

HENRY W. TATE, Sec'y.

South Center street, Springfield, O.

Central Alabama Conference.

Marion District Conference will commence July 23d, at 8 a. m., in Tuscaloosa. Brethren will please try to be prepared to present every interest of the church. Local preachers will be prepared for examination on the course of study so that their license can be renewed. District stewards will please meet me promptly. On the second day the opening sermon will be preached, on the night of the 23d, by N. H. Speight. The quarterly meeting conference will be in connection with the district conference. Our church at Tuscaloosa is greatly in debt, and we hope to be able to raise at least $100 while there to help our friends and members there. We cordially invite the editor of the SOUTHWESTERN to be with us during the session, as I believe his presence would be of much interest both to his paper and our cause here in Alabama.

E. B. McCAULY, P. E.

Shreveport District—Louisiana Conference.

The following is the programme for the Shreveport District Conference, which will convene at Mansfield, La., August 13, 1885.

Introductory sermon—C D Shallowhorne.

Written sermon—J H Pierre.

Written sermon—A Talford.

Written sermon—H Richardson.

Written sermon—A McGlokins.

Temperance reform—P B McDonald.

The need of an educated ministry—H J Wright.

Christian purity—Samuel Davage.

Is there a God?—S S Wright.

Duties of Stewards—A Venable.

Doctrine of the M. E. Church—H Johnson.

Qualification of Sunday-school teachers—D Shirley.

Witness of the Holy Spirit—S R Hason.

Work for young converts—C Crockett.

A financial plan for stewards—F Harvey.

Why a million for missions—V Chapman.

Duties of preachers to the SOUTHWESTERN ADVOCATE—A Hilton.

Is conscience a sufficient guide to salvation?—J Sparks.

The Word of God—W R Butler.

Preachers conduct—A Spears.

The Church Extension Society—T G Montgomery.

Methodism in North Louisiana—Jno Fopp.

Local preachers and exhorters will select their own subjects.

Committee on Programme: V. Chapman, P. B McDonald and H. J. Wright.

Programme.

The following is the programme for the Louisville District Sunday-school Institute to assemble in Jackson Street M. E. Church, Louisville, Ky., July 24, 1885:

Call to order, by Rev. J L Perrin, pastor of Lloyd Street M E Church. Singing. Prayer by Rev. A McDade, pastor of Coke Chapel. Singing. Election of temporary President and Secretary. Appointment of committees. Enrollment of members. Permanent organization to consist of a president, three vice-presidents, recording and corresponding secretaries, and executive committee of three. Recess. Reassembling. Opening. Singing. Election of permanent officers. Singing. Address of welcome, by Rev. W L Muir, pastor of Jackson Street Church. Response in behalf of Institute, by Rev. W. W. Locke, presiding elder. Singing.

SUBJECTS AND SPEAKERS

What is the object and design of Sunday-school—Rev S S G Turner, Lagrange, Ky.

The Relation of the Sunday-school to the church—Mrs Sarah Clark, Shelbyville, Ky.

Methodist Sunday-schools for Methodists—Rev. Marshall W. Taylor, D D, editor of the SOUTHWESTERN.

The duty of superintendent and teacher to the Sunday-school—P A Fisher, La grange, Ky.

The duty of parents to their children—Rev. W S Rollins, Jericho, Ky.

How shall we reach the non church going masses, and secure the attendance of themselves and their children in our Sunday-schools—Rev W H Bloomer, Wingaw, Ky.

What is the best method of governing our Sunday-schools?—Mrs. Emma Alexander, Louisville, Ky.

Is it advisable for M. E. Sunday-schools to use other than their own literature?—Rev. C T Lewis, Louisville, Ky.

What is the best method of interesting children in the exercises of the Sunday school?—Mrs. N H Talbert, Powee Valley, Ky.

What shall we do to interest the old people in our Sunday-school?—Miss Sallie Parker, Powee Valley, Ky.

In what way, if in any, does the black board exercises interest and increase the success of our Sunday-school work.—Miss Ida Wilson, Indianapolis, Ind.

Could the kindergartou plan be successfully used in infant Sunday-school classes.—Miss Lovina Sanders, Cincinnati, Ohio.

What are the required qualifications of the teachers in our Sunday-schools—Miss Nellie Ross, Louisville, Ky.

Is it possible to attain the highest success in the Sunday school work without instrumental music—Miss Hettie Taylor, Cincinnati, Ohio.

What is the duty of our Sunday-school Board—Miss Fredonie Morton, Louisville, Ky.

Does a teacher in the day-school who fails to attend any Sunday-school perform his whole public duty—Miss Amelia Taylor, Cincinnati, Ohio

The pastor's relation and duty to the Sunday school—Rev. J. W. Russell, of Anchorage, Ky.

Do Methodist children observe the fourth Commandment—J V McMicken, Taylorsville, Ky.

The following named have been invited to be present and address the Institute: Bishop Thomas Bowman, Bishop J M. Walden, Dr. J. H. Vincent, Dr. H B Ridgaway, Dr. C H Payne, Dr. Alexander Martin, Dr. J H Bayless, Dr. J M Bockley, Dr. A B Leonard, Dr. R S Rust, Dr. Earl Crausson, Dr. Geo Curtis, Hon. Amos Shinkle and Hon W C D Pauw.

Committee: Rev J A Ross, chairman; Rev. J L Perrin, secretary; Rev. S S G Turner, Rev. Paris Fisher, Rev. Marshall W. Taylor, D D.

Programme

Of religious and literary exercises for the district conference of the Waco District, Waco Texas Annual Conference; to be held at Dallas, Sept. 4, 1885:

Opening sermon—Green Bragner.

Missionary sermon—C P Westbrooks.

The life, labor and death of Rev. L Carper—Presiding Elder

Sacramental sermon—A Jackson

Report on the pastor to the Sabbath-school—J A Hall.

How to succeed in revivals—C Young.

Moral obligations—R Reader.

Obligation of family worship—G Wilson.

How to raise benevolent money—J W Robinson.

The proper object of benevolence and the doctrine of forgiveness—B F Smith.

Duty of stewards—D Humphreys.

Duty of class-leaders—A Taylor.

Duty of local preachers—J Buell.

Family ethics—A Lockhart.

Relation of baptized children to the church—Willis Medlock.

All local elders, deacons, preachers and exhorters will select their own subjects. The pastors will please make out a list of the members of the district conference and bring it to the conference with them. Come one, come all who belong to the district conference and let us have a grand time. We shall do all we can to make you happy, and you must try to make us happy also.

B. F. SMITH, Sec'y.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; It produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
July 17-1y.

Joyous Happy children are looked the greatest boon of mankind. The indispensable qualification for this condition is health, and it is the aim of the manufacturers, indorsed by hundreds, that Ridge's Food is the best food for a growing child. The use of Ridge's Food is invaluable as an alternative meal for the child, and the mother can often rise the standard by adopting it as directed. For Invalids. In cans—35c. up. WOOLRICH & CO., on label.

CHRISTIAN
MEN and WOMEN Wanted are
AS AGENTS
For the New and Fast-selling Edition of the
JAMIESON, FAUSSET & BROWN BIBLE COMMENTARY.
4 vols., nearly 4,000 pp. Maps and Illustrations in cloth, $8; half morocco, $10 per set.
Best terms and exclusive territory. Permanent employment given a ter's satisfactory trial.
Jerome B. Names & Co.,
154 St. Clair street, Toledo, Ohio.
The work is heartily recommended.
mar5-39t

Central Tennessee College,
NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE. Chartered in 1866.
Under the Auspices of the Freedmen's Aid Society of the M. E. Church.
—COURSES OF STUDY—
ENGLISH, NORMAL, BUSINESS, ACADEMIC, COLLEGIATE, THEOLOGICAL, MEDICAL, LAW AND INDUSTRIAL
Pharmacy and Dentistry to be added soon.
More than twenty teachers connected with all the departments, and over four hundred students enrolled last year. Six buildings, conveniently and pleasantly located. The private rooms of the young men and young women are in different buildings.
Any person of good moral character may be admitted as a student, at any time, but it is better to enter at the beginning of the school year. Theological students are granted reduced rates.
Special attention given to training teachers.
The Session Begins Monday, September 7, 1885.
Medical and Law Departments, October 5, 1885.
EXPENSES—Tuition $1 per month, four weeks. Tuition, board, room, fuel, etc., school month, $8.50 to $10. Tuition for the session in Medical and Law Departments, $30.
For further information, circulars or catalogues, address,
j. 15 REV. J. BRADEN, Nashville, Tenn.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET.

SOUTHWESTERN OFFICE, June 27, 1885.

LEADING STAPLES.

Readers will remember that the quotations given are for round lots, and higher prices must be paid for small orders.

COTTON, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 8¼; Middling 9 15-16; Good Middling, 10 3-16; Middling fair, 11 7-16.

SUGAR, ℔ lb—Yellow clarified, 5¼@5⅝; White clarified, 5⅝@5¾; Common 4¼@4½;

MOLASSES, in bbls, ℔ gallon—Common, 17@22; fair, 23@25; choice, 41@43c.

RICE, Louisiana, ℔ lb—Common, 4¼@4½; fair, 5@5⅜; choice, 5¼@6.

MOSS, ℔ lb—Mixed, 2@2½; gray, 1@2; black, 3@4½.

GROCERIES.

BUTTER, ℔ lb—Western 20@21.

COFFEE, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 7½; prime, 9½;

CHEESE, ℔ lb—Western factory —@8;

CORN MEAL, ℔ bbl—Choice, $3.25.

FLOUR, ℔ bbl.—Fancy, 4 37½; Choice 5.15; Family, $5@——.

LARD, ℔ lb—Choice, 6¾.

SALT, ℔ Sack—Coarse, 70c.; Fine, 90c.

ESCULENTS—Irish potatoes, ℔ bbl. $1 00@1 25; sweet potatoes, $2.50@ ℔ bbl onions, ℔ bbl. $2 25@2.50; apples, ℔ bbl $3 00@$4.00; cabbages, $2.00@$2 25 per crate; sour krout, $4.50@7 50 per barrel

OILS, ℔ gallon—Coal, in cases, 18@—coal, in bbl. 13@—; linseed, raw, 26; boiled, 63@65; cotton seed, 28@50.

PROVISIONS.

MESS PORK, ℔ bbl—Choice, $11.12½.

BACON, ℔ lb—Breakfast, 9½; shoulders, 6@—; sides, short rib, 6½; sides, long clear, 6¼; hams, sugar-cured, 9@9½.

DRY SALT MEAT, ℔ lb—Clear rib sides, 5.6; clear sides, 5.6; shoulders, 3 7@3 9.

POULTRY AND EGGS.

Louisiana Poultry — Grown chickens 3.00@3.27; young $1.50@$2.00; ducks, $2.00@2.50; geese $4.@$4 50; turkeys $9.@12.

Western Eggs 11@12c per dozen

Louisiana Eggs 12@12½c per dozen.

Feathers—Best live geese feathers 40@55c. ℔ lb. second grades 15@25c.

EDUCATIONAL.

COLLEGE OF
Physicans and Surgeons,
BALTIMORE, MD.
This school offers to Medical students unsurpassed clinical and other advatages. Send for catalogue to
Dr. THOS. OPIE, Dean,
jy8.1m 179 N. Howard Street.

Medical Department of the Tulane University
OF LOUISIANA.
Formerly, 1847-1884, University of Louisiana.
Possesses unrivaled advantages for practical instruction, since the law secures it unparalleled materials from the great Charity Hospital with its 700 beds, 8000 sick admitted and 10 000 visiting patients annually. Students are freely admitted to and are taught at the bedside of the sick, as in no other institution. For Circular or additional information, address
S. E CHAILLE, Dean.
P. O. Drawer 261, New Orleans, La.
jy8-1m

Washington and Lee
UNIVERSITY,
LEXINGTON, VA.
Instructions in the usual academic studies and in the professional schools of Law and Engineering. Location healthful; expenses moderate. Session opens Sept. 17. For catalogue, address "Clerk of the Faculty." G. W. C. LEE,
j. 8-2m President.

Law School
OF
WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY.
Gen. G. W. C. LEE, President.
Instruction by text books and printed lectures, with courses of lectures on special subjects by eminent jurists. Tuition and fees $80 for session of nine months, beginning Sept. 17. For catalogue and full information address Chas. A. Graves, Prof. of Law, Lexington, Va. jy8-2m

KENMORE
University High School,
NEAR AMHERST, C. H., VA.
FOURTEENTH SESSION begins Sept. 10, 1885. H. A. STRODE (Math. Medalist, U Va.). Principal, W. ARCHER, M. A. U. Va., in charge of Languages. A High Grade Select School. For catalogue address the Principal. jy15-8t

Albemarle Female Institute,
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA.
Full corps of superior teachers; course of instruction thorough and extensive; location healthful and accessible; scenery beautiful; surroundings most attractive; terms very moderate; order catalogue.
W. P DICKINSON, Principal.
jy15-1m

WANTED LADIES AND GENTLEMEN who wish to make $3 to $4 a day easily at their own homes. Work sent by mail. No canvassing. Address with stamp Crown Mf'g. Co., 234 Vine St., Cin'ti, O.
j. 15 4t

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 20---NO 30. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, JULY 23, 1885 WHOLE NUMBER 819

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

27 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor

[illegible] Yearly, Cash in Advance; [illegible] to Pastors; $1.

[illegible], $1; Three Months, 50c.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

[illegible] Preachers of the Methodist Episco[illegible] are authorized Agents.

[illegible] may begin at any time and the [illegible] as long as paid for.

[illegible] by Registered Letter [illegible] or by Express, at [illegible].

[illegible] business letters must be addressed.

ADVERTISING RATES.

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

[illegible] 2 cents.

[illegible] 7 "

[illegible] 6 "

[illegible] 5 "

[illegible] 4 "

[illegible] 25 "

[illegible] 3 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

The power of godliness—the vital power—
Was thine, oh, Methodism! to propagate,
To call from heaven the fertilizing shower
The earth in holiness to new create;
Thine was the calling, holy, high and great
To spread the quickening, sanctifying zeal
Throughout the scattered Church's wide estate;
That like the leaven hidden in the meal,
It might through all the lump its working life reveal.

The Morning Star wants reform in the municipal administration or no change.

The Western Book Concern shows its prosperity by calling in outstanding bonds.

The unterrified solicitor is abroad looking for subscribers to the next New Orleans Exposition.

No sewers and improperly constructed vaults in Plymouth, Pa., explain the fearful ravages of low fever there.

A German physician defines the main difference between the effects of whisky and beer to be: "Visky makes you kill somebody else; mit beer you only kill yourself."

The Voice says: Altogether too many Negroes are admitted to the bar in the South. It is because they get in there at the front door. Open other front doors and you will mollify intemperance.

Eight thousand iron workers will probably go on a strike in the Mahoning, to come back again when their money is spent, and the spree is over, at about the same wages from which they struck.

Prof. Bingham, of North Carolina, and Hon. Carl Schnrz, have written upon the Southern problem. But the comment of the Independent is to the intent that they have not quite settled it. Meantime the Negro goes steadily onward manifestly working out his destiny by the laws of God.

The Hebrew Standard says the Toronto Masons have expelled one of the craft for agnosticism. This is a denial of the knowledge of the existence of God. So that Free Masons, judging from this case, must at least admit and believe that the knowledge of the existence of the Deity is attainable.

The Ohio Falls Express joins in the call for chaste newspapers for the family, and better observance of the Christian Sabbath by the [illegible] of Sunday excursions. The colored clergy of Louisville [illegible] in the movement. [illegible] will not our New Orleans [illegible] help along the [illegible] tone?

For the SOUTHWESTERN

Memorial of Rev. Ira B. Griffin, of the Methodist Conference.

J. M. SHUMPERT.

Rev. Ira Butler Griffin is dead, and it has filled my heart with sorrow. I can scarce give expression to the thoughts that arise as to the feelings of my heart. For several years we have been intimate friends. We attended Rust University together, and were pastors with our circuits and stations adjacent for several years; and our close intercourse was maintained up to the time of his death. I was enabled to form a just estimate of those qualities of head and heart which he exemplified. I knew his heart as he knew mine. His energy of character and indomitable perseverance, the traits that command success, were "known and read by all men" who came within the circle of his acquaintance. Often have we taken counsel together, and the thought of seeing him no more in this world is sad to me. Christianity does not repress weeping or crush back tears, but, thanks be to God, Christian grief finds vent heavenward in cheerful submission to the Divine will, and in sweet union with the great Divine sympathizer, who knows what it is to weep over the grave of friends, and who hath ever "borne our griefs and carried our sorrow."

But what a sense of loss we feel. What a vacancy in the Mississippi Conference. On the morning of the 7th instant one of her most promising young men went out. A short but busy and eventful life was closed, a warm heart ceased to beat, and a weary, overtaxed brain ceased to throb.

Bro. Ira B. Griffin was admitted on trial in the Mississippi Conference, held at Grenada, January, 1876, and was assigned to Elijah Chapel by Bishop Gilbert Haven, and in 1877 was reassigned by Bishop Wiley. This being his first charge, he was very acceptable to the people, and did a grand work. Admitted into full connection, ordained deacon at Oxford, at the annual conference held January, 1878, and was assigned to Holly Springs Circuit by Bishop Harris; in 1879 was reassigned by Bishop Andrews from the Conference held at Yazoo City. Bro. Griffin was ordained an elder by Bishop Harris, at Macon, January, 1880, and was appointed to Holly Grove and Wesley Chapel, and in 1881 Bishop Foss appointed him to Greenwood. Again, in 1882, Bishop Peck appointed him to the Holly Springs Circuit. Bishop Hurst in 1883 reappointed him to the Holly Springs Circuit. During these years, while upon the Holly Springs Circuit, he attended school at Rust University, was a faithful student, and made many friends among both students and teachers, who speak of him in the highest terms. Bishop Wiley appointed him to Starkville from the conference held at Jackson for the conference year of 1884. At this place he did a grand work, greatly endeared himself to the people, and built a fine new church that will be a beautiful monument to his memory for many years to come.

For the sake of building a new church at Vicksburg, and not without due consideration and consultation with him, and he having expressed a willingness to go and build it, Bishop Mallalieu at our last annual conference, held at Aberdeen, appointed him to Vicksburg. But, alas! his excessive labors were telling on a constitution already enfeebled with disease, that he had been fighting for several years, and when he reached Vicksburg his health was greatly impaired. The illness which had followed him for some time was developing alarming symptoms, though neither his friends nor himself expected so sudden a termination. After arriving at Vicksburg and commencing his work he was not there but a few weeks before he was prostrated with a severe hemorrhage. Boarding at Mr. Thomas Miller's he received every attention that human hands could bestow. From this attack he somewhat recovered, but very soon relapsed again. Then I went with him to Cooper's Wells, near Raymond, Miss., but having very poor accommodations there, he only stayed a few days, and then went to Starkville and stopped with Mr. Morris' family, when they did all they could for their former patron that they all loved so much. But he slowly declined till, on the morning of July 7, at 10 o'clock, the weary wheels of life stood still. A little while before he died he said to Bro. I. L. Pratt: "If any one ask you how I died, tell them I am ready, willing and waiting to go; I am like everybody else, I want to live as long as I can." Mrs. E. S. Spriggs assisted Mr. Morris' family in waiting upon Bro. Griffin through his illness and rendered valuable service.

Another able minister of the Mississippi Conference has fallen True to his God, true to his Church and true to his people. He has left us but still is not wholly gone. His example still calls his people upward to a higher life. The young herald of the Gospel, and a noble Christian minister rests from his labors.

Many hours we've spent together,
In the happy days gone by;
But you've gone before us, Ira,
To your home beyond the skies,
Yes, dear Bro. Griffin, you have left us,
On this earth we'll meet no more,
But there is one comfort left us,
You're not dead but gone before.
Ira B. we'll sadly miss you,
In the church and conference, too,
But we know you're waiting for us
In your happy home above.

Columbus, Miss., July 15, 1885.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Pharisees—Their Organization and Faith.

REV. DANIEL JONES.

The subject given to me to present in this paper to this district conference is one that is far reaching, and will necessarily require careful research, from the fact that the various sects of Jews were numerous at the time we must begin to search for the organization of the Pharisees. They were a very large and influential sect among the Jews, and in their origin were, no doubt, a pure and holy people; the probability is they obtained their name Pharisees, meaning Separatists from the Greek word Paiash, to separate. One of the most prominent motives we find that prompted them to effect a separate organization distinct from all other Jews was that they claimed the Jewish national worship had become polluted, corrupt, licentious in the highest degree, and that they as a sect must of necessity separate themselves from the great body of the Jews from the national worship of that race, and become a body of individuals collectively. Organized in the interests of pure morals and a higher, purer, loftier standard of Jewish worship, they declared it to be be their purpose to merge out into a clearer atmosphere of a well regulated and holy religious life. Their object was to organize themselves into a distinctive sect for the purpose of forming a nucleus around which might rally all the disaffected ones of the entire Jewish race. While this tribe or sect sought to aggrandize itself and form an organization which should be par excellence the type of all that was lofty and pure in morals, culture and religion. As we examine the ground work of their faith we find it was not in the Supreme Author of the universe, and all that is good in the universe, but their faith was purely in themselves and their superior knowledge, arrogating to themselves a lofty superiority in the arts, sciences and literary embellishments that raise mankind to its highest intellectual eminence, and give solidity and strength to the noblest attributes of his nature.

They were remarkable for their rigid way of living. They kept up their fasts regularly every second and fifth day of each week, and besides submitted themselves to austerities. They were close students of the law, and great sticklers for its strict observance. They pretended to more holiness than others, adding other and voluntary sacrifices to those that were already commanded. Doing, therefore, at that period what we now denominate in our articles of religion works of superogation or voluntary works over and above God's commandments, and cannot be taught, we are admonished without arrogancy and impiety.

The Pharisees were noted for their desire for outward show and hypocritical pretences of sanctimoniously performing their vows to such a degree that the Great Teacher himself, the Searcher of all hearts, the despised Nazarene, positively rebukes them in the plain and positive language found in Matt., 23, 23 28: "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy and faith; these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat and swallow a camel. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess. Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter that the outside of them may be clean also. Woe unto you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones and of all uncleanness. Even so ye also outwardly appear right, even unto men, but within are ye full of hypocrisy and iniquity."

This is a part of the terrible arraignment that Jesus subjects them to after looking deep into their hearts. He discovers that the faith of the Pharisees is not in himself or God's word, but in themselves. By their outward forms and show they succeeded in gaining the good opinions of the people, and were by most of the populace esteemed to be persons of the greatest learning and sanctity, but they steadily corrupted the word of God by their selfish expositions and commentaries. In their egotism they steadily and most persistently substituted human tradition in the place of Divine truth. Many of them were wicked, violent men. Nevertheless there were exceptions, and others, we are convinced, actually did live what they professed.

This peculiar Jewish sect of Pharisees first began to make its appearance as a distinct sect of religious worshippers in the time of Antiochus Epiphanes, about 160 or 170 years before Christ. They laid great stress upon the traditions of their fathers, and loved them with supreme devotion. In fact, to such a degree did they reverence the traditions of their ancestors that they made them co-ordinate with the Scriptures. As a sect they were highly ritualistic and bigoted in the extreme. The rule and measure of their lives was to exalt themselves and make their sect the type and pattern of all that was excellent and pious in the entire hierarchy of the Jews. One writer who is eminent in the Scriptures, Dr. Adam Clark, says that the Pharisees neither begun nor ended their works in God. In fact they had no respect for his name in the performance of any of their works in the time of Christ. What they accomplished was simply to be seen of men, and they received their reward, which was simply human applause. On scrutinizing the organization, as well as the faith of the Pharisees, a careful study of their rites, ceremonies, and professedly religious acts, brings the conviction that they had really no religion. In fact, were total strangers to its soothing, sacred influences, and knew nothing of its nature. The faith they claimed to have availed them nothing, simply because it was a faith in human objects and human forms. Their purifications and washings were those prescribed by the law. They had no living, vitalizing faith such as would cause them to observe that inward purity which was typified by that which was without. Pharisees and all others may appear to be clean without, and yet be full of uncleanness within, but in the sight of God outward purity will avail nothing; it must be the washing of regeneration, and the renewing of the Holy Ghost. Not the Pharisaical faith that makes clean the outside of the cup and platter, but the application by a pure and genuine faith of the blood of Jesus Christ to our hearts, and the hearts of all sinners, causing them to exclaim, I know that I have passed from death unto life because I love the brethren.

Winchester, Ky.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Reason for Night.

A SERMON BY REV. E. HENDERSON.

Text: Col., ch. 1, v. 12. The darkness of paganism, separated between this world and that which is future, it changed the character of the earth, by making it the only hope and home of man, and thus left him no care beyond that of multiplying his present enjoyments. What paganism did by its darkness God will also do by His Holy Spirit, breaking the darkness from our hearts, and let His light shine in our souls. What external Christianity effects in doctrine, inward and vital Christianity effects in the habit and tendencies of the mind. It connects time with eternity, and the earth with heaven. Gladly does every true Christian confess himself to be a stranger and pilgrim upon the earth, and they that say such things, observes the Apostle, say them in truth, and really feel, as well as profess, that they are strangers and pilgrims on the earth. Night and sleep are related to each other. The reason of night, my friends, is the frailty of man needing repose; but when it is said no night is in heaven, that very expression indicates an activity which never wearies. My friends the saints in heaven are in light as it respects purity, and darkness is an emblem of sin, light of holiness. There is in this an effecting truth to nature. Evil begets darkness. Our blessings have their dawn, their noon, and their setting. Our affections deepen from the dusk of evening to the gloom of midnight, and then the morning breaks with some new comfort. Such are the alternations of the present state, and there is not an earthly blessing which is not fading away like the light of day. But there the saints of God are in eternal light. No sickness blasts, no death devours, no families are broken up, no Rachel weeps for her children, no father exclaims, "O, Absalom, my son, my son," no temptation throws a dark cloud before the sun of heavenly manifestation; no fears that I shall one day fall by the hand of my enemies. So, my dear friends, you see that God will forever take care of his people. We come, it is true, out of darkness into light.

Dear brethren, how many texts are obscure; nay, is there one the clearness of which we see the full length and breadth, and depth and hight. Before I see God in heaven he must manifest himself to me here. I must be a man sanctified, hallowed to God, before I can ever approach that holy place; and, my dear brethren and sisters, make it your business to go on unto perfection, and to be filled with all the fullness of God. We are not yet in the greater light. The illuminated circle about us is surrounded with haze; the prominent parts of things, like the tops of hills, catch the beam of day which is breaking from eternity, while the valley and the distance lie hid in the shade. I will close by repeating the last words of Dr. Eddy, sing and pray till eternity dawns. So let us pray and fight on through. We may fall on the battlefield. Our flags will be seen above the smoke of the battle. Amen.

LaGrange, Texas.

The Montana Advocate says: That De Pauw University, Indiana, is taking on proportions of which the church is not conscious. Already six special educational buildings are ready for use, and the entire outfit in part of structures is ten. Within a year $80,300 have been outlaid for new buildings, $41,000 for more grounds, $16,000 for salaries, And nearly 10,000 for other expenes. An observatory is being equipped by Mr. R. M. Kimm, of Madison, Ind. The grounds include 150 acres. Prof. Gobin sends us a point of news which makes us glad that education is not all in a Methodist university. He says an interesting revival is in progress in the university. There are daily, a noon prayer meeting in the college department, a similar meeting in the preparatory school, and all meet for a congregational service at night About twenty have been converted, and many lukewarm Christians have been revived.

From the Districts,

The Woman's Home Missionary Society in Waco, Texas.

C. P. WESTBROOKS.

Mrs. L. A. Westbrooks, president of the Woman's Home Missionary Society at Goliad, Texas, moved to Waco where she saw [illegible] felt that something must be done for our girls. She organized [illegible] Waco, April 20, 1885. The night that she organized the presiding elder, W. H. Davis, was with us. Society has met once since. [illegible] enrollment of 118 members. The people of Waco take hold just as you make it plain. The ladies desires her presence in every [illegible] in the Waco district. The [illegible] expresses in the strongest [illegible] that they desire to accomplish [illegible] in the near future [illegible] had so filled with the [illegible] work of [illegible]

G. JONES, P. E.

[illegible] District Lexington Circuit [illegible] round is made as elder. We began [illegible] Indianapolis Ind., [illegible] pretty good meeting, but [illegible] we thought [illegible] There was some [illegible] of the pastors [illegible] Bro. McConnell will [illegible] on to Jeffersonville [illegible]

REV. S. T. JONES, pastor. [illegible] time, and Revs. Muir [illegible], with a goodly number [illegible] came over and helped [illegible] T. M. Tompkins gave us a [illegible] the morning with a good [illegible] Well, he is a good team [illegible] to Watteon Ind., Rev. T. [illegible], pastor. This is a [illegible] country charge, we had a [illegible] meeting here and had the [illegible] of receiving into our [illegible] good brother which the [illegible] not baptised that same [illegible] and we closed the meet[illegible] big shout in the camp [illegible] to Rexport, and Cannel[illegible] Rev. M. S. Johnson, pas[illegible] we found things in [illegible] the fourth person we [illegible] the wife of the ex pastor, [illegible] over the grave of a dear [illegible] begging for a change to be [illegible] a good many of the [illegible] friends asking for a [illegible] we tried to comfort all [illegible] could. So we had a [illegible], the pastor left [illegible] Monday morning to see his [illegible] We had love feast on [illegible] night without the bread [illegible], no one prepared it. [illegible] good deal of the milk of [illegible] kindness. I think the pas[illegible] succeed. We went to [illegible] and did the best we [illegible] without a pastor. On we go [illegible], Ind., Rev. F. Hinton [illegible]. We know no place where [illegible] to have a good church [illegible] in Evansville, but sad to [illegible] have none; our work is in [illegible] hope, we shall have to at once [illegible] some other preacher to this [illegible] or we shall loose what little [illegible] have here. Newburg is a little [illegible] better, but just how Bro. Hinton [illegible] seven in family is to get along [illegible] cannot see. He is a good [illegible] that no pastor. On we go [illegible], Ind., Rev. F. White [illegible] we found the people and [illegible] had said happy and full [illegible] and are determined to pay [illegible] debt this year. They can [illegible] boasting than any people [illegible] with. Bro. White is [illegible] good work. Lisle Station, [illegible] work, we preached [illegible] Tuesday night and admin[illegible] Lord's Supper to eight [illegible] to our astonishment [illegible] belong to our church [illegible] other sheepfold [illegible] to Lawrenceville [illegible] some pastor, a good [illegible] but he was some [illegible] rescued. We had a [illegible] in his work and we [illegible] and richer. So on [illegible] our battery next at [illegible], Methodism[illegible]. We have [illegible] over $300 [illegible] members, [illegible] very poor, indeed, [illegible] worth [illegible] the debt. About two years ago the pastor and the trustees made application to the church extension board for a loan of $400, with the promise of raising, or had $600, and with this $600 would pay all of the indebtedness. The board granted them the loan, and they raised the [illegible] one would get up and explain. Rev. A. A. Price is pastor and he would do well if it was not for this debt. Bloomington is a part of this circuit. We had a good time at this place. The church is in good condition.

Palestine District.

G. W. SMITH, P. E.

Prejudice to say to the many readers and friends of the SOUTHWESTERN that the members of the Palestine District Conference assembled at Palestine July 8, 1885. All the pastors were present. On account of the hard times many of the delegates could not reach the appointed places. From the reports of the pastors the work is growing.

Mr. Editor, in holding all my quarters I have held up the collection for missions, and asked each pastor to report the amount on hand. The result was that ten of them answered, they have paid $[illegible]. This advance necessary to raise $1,000,000 is $91. Thank God we will raise over the assessment. Right here I will say where there is a will there is a way.

Mr. Editor, just as the brethren say, if some of the other districts will agree to do with less of the missionary money, and put it on the Palestine district, it will be a grand field. The other districts can be run with less missionary money. I mean more money to help to open new work. The best towns are lying out. You and all others can see what the Palestine district needs from the amount I have received up to date, outside of the missionary appropriation has been $1 17, and paying $7 house rent. The brethren were well pleased at the camp, and Sunday the brethren were empowered by the Holy Ghost, and on Monday left for their fields of labor.

We ask the prayers of the army of God.

Palestine, Tex., July 14, 1885.

Letters from the Pastors.

Rev. W. Jones writes from Macon, Miss: "Elder Campbell held his quarterly conference on the Exprairie circuit on the April 25 26, the religious services being conducted by the elder; after which, on motion Brother J. H. was elected Secretary. Then the roll was called and a good number of the brethren answered to their names. The call from the reports first from the pastors and then from the local preachers, who gave their reports and the class leaders and Sunday-school superintendent all gave in good reports. The elder preached at 11 o'clock a. m.; the district steward took up a collection of $53.80; the elder administered the sacrament to about 225 members. Number of Sunday-schools, 7; number of scholars, teachers and officers 325. Committee estimated the pastor's salary at $920. Paid on the elder's salary $65; on Bishop $3; on Missions $5, on education, $100! Membership about 500."

Rev. John H. Smith writes from St. Peter's Church, Lake Providence, La: "I entered my work on the 7th of February, 1884, and it was very cold. I met the Sunday-school; 12 scholars being present. I preached at 11 o'clock from Luke 2, 10, "Behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all people." Collection $3.30. Our people are poor but willing, so we are having a good time here. There were snows and cold, and the people had muddy roads, yet we are bound to the front."

Rev. H. W. Simmons writes from Murfreesboro circuit, Tenn.: "Our third quarterly [illegible] at Rover Chapel April 18, 19, presiding Elder Bullington in the chair, it was acknowledged by the brethren as being the best in every respect ever witnessed here. The brethren came out with a working spirit. Nearly all had written reports. On Sunday morning the elder breathed more life into our Sabbath-school by one of his lively addresses. In the afternoon he preached and administered sacrament to 46 communicants. The elder's sermons and lectures will be long remembered by all who heard him. Our people have learned to love him and earnestly invoke the blessings of divine Providence upon him. Collected for the presiding elder $6 25; received this quarter 28 into full connection; probationers 2; received by letter 2; dropped 2. In our week's protracted meeting during the month of March we had 8 conversions. Now, as the weather is fine we hope to do much to the edification of the Redeemer's kingdom."

Rev. A. Thomas writes from Gald[illegible], Texas: "See here, bishop, don't you hear those lambs crying as they mutter in the crying? About the first of September, 1884, we came to this place. We found that Methodist ought to have a church here. Pastors before me saw such a fine chance, but they did not attempt it. Through conversation I found some members here, and felt it my duty to help them. I went to work in a private house with a few members, conversed with my elder and members, and then bought of Mecain & Scott four acres of land at $200 on two years' time, with four payments, which I thought good. Then I bought of Rowe & Jenkins lumber to the amount of $135, which built a house 20 by 30 feet. I have in hand a subscription list to the amount of $60, which I have failed to collect. The A. M. E. Baptist left their church in debt $385. I paid $15.

Rev. Simon Evens writes from Terrebonne: "I arrived on the charge on the 5th of February, and found the people in excellent spirits. They received me kindly, and are doing all they can to make me comfortable and happy. Our financial and spiritual condition is in a good state. Our P. E, Emperor Williams, held his first quarter. Sixty-one partook of the sacrament. The Sunday School is in a prosperous condition. We are pushing the canvass for the SOUTHWESTERN. Send papers for Alfred Bird, Henry Williams and Aaron Robinson.

Rev. E. E. Cooper writes from Oakland and Brown's Chapel: "I have four preaching places, and have held protracted meetings at each place, and the good Lord met us. We had conversions at each place. They were from all ages, from eight to forty years old.

"As this is our third and last year on this work we want it to be the greatest. Up to this date we have had on this work 140 converts, and as many added to the church. This has been accomplished in two years and four months.

Our second quarter was a success. The presiding elder made us glad to be there. We had also W. H. Stevens with us, and he preached a good sermon for us. At the quarter all had written reports, and all was good. The preacher had visited and prayed with forty three families, preached thirty sermons, received into full membership nineteen, on probation twenty-six, subscribers for the Southwestern forty five, Sabbath Schools four, converts in Sunday School Society eighteen; paid preacher this quarter $92, presiding elder $16 40. This is very good for the time of year.

"Our camp meeting will start on the 15th of July. We are looking and praying for a good time. This is a great work for camp meeting. We have some of the very best people in the bounds of the West Texas Conference. Our visiting friends are always well pleased when they come.

"Mrs. C wants to thank the following sisters for aiding us in getting a Singer sewing machine: Emma Harris, S. E. Isaacs, Kate Granger, Tennie Granger, David Cain, R. Walker, Chatty Hamilton, Jen[illegible] Hopkins.

"The ministers of the Waco Sabbath School Temperance Conference do not [illegible] Rev. A. G. Jackson and Ed. Finley each paid 50 cents for the Missionary Society. This is long, but please publish it."

Rev. F. Harvey writes from Mansfield, La: "The Lord has been with us. We had a grand time. The elder has been with and held our first Conference. The sum of $12 was taken up by collection for the elder, and $6 40 for the preacher. D. Mancher joined the church. At night he preached an excellent sermon. We thank the Lord that we are getting along so well. Our school house is in good condition. The times are hard, but we intend to raise every dollar we can this year for the church."

Rev. H. Roundtree writes from Union Church, Jefferson county, Miss.: "Rev. W. A. Dosey, though hindered in the early part of the year by weather, is doing good work here. He was with us at Hickory Block the fourth Saturday and Sunday in April, and Sunday morning at 9 a. m. he catechised the children, and heard verses from the Scripture. We have a fine Sunday School here, and at 11 a. m. the pastor preached to a large congregation from the text: "And he said unto the dresser of the vineyard, so these many years I come seeking fruit and find none." We had an old fashion jubilee this year, which resulted in fifteen additions to the church, three in full. The collections were $11. At 3 p. m. we had a love feast with seventy eight persons present, who told what religion had done for them."

Rev. J. E. Land writes from Memphis, Tenn.: "Centenary Chapel is having a glorious time, such that I have longed to see. Elder J. P. Price was with us on the 23d and and 24th day of April. The elder preached a delightful discourse, and administered the Lord's Supper to eighty five, and labored all that week in the protracted meeting. No elder will be missed more than Rev. J. P. Price. In the three years he has never missed one appointment. Neither will a congregation miss a pastor more than we will Rev. C. L. Field. A week previous to the elder's arrival Rev. C. L. Field entered a battle for the Lord, which resulted in sixteen converts. During our protracted meeting there have been twenty-six accessions to the church. At 11 o'clock last Sunday there were eleven sprinkled at the church, thence to the water where there was a large crowd gathered. When we came up to the bank the crowd seemed to be wild and full of sport, but Rev. C. L. Field has managed himself so as to demand the respect of all who know him. By a few words he quieted them by saying that all who have been properly raised and have respect for Christianity will show it by their actions. The people observed his admonition nicely. There were four immersions.

"Our Sunday School is preparing for Children's Day, and our aim is to raise the largest collection in the State for this purpose, but as it is said, better is the end of a thing than the beginning, and we are working to make this a year of jubilee."

John Qualls, of First Street M. E. Church, New Orleans, writes: "Our church work is still improving, temporally and spiritually. I was appointed here through Bishop Mallalieu for the year 1885; was kindly received, and entered at once on my work, having a protracted meeting. The Lord blessed us with thirty converts—Brothers and sisters joining from other churches with letters, backsliders reclaimed. Sunday School is brightening up. Our superintendent and Brother Gordon Taylor and other young men are rallying the host. The local preachers are taking an active part. Sister Julia Chapman, one of our promising young ladies, with a host of others, are [illegible] as a rock with their pastor in making the Sabbath School what it ought to be. We desire the prayers of all for this young class of working people.

Temporally we are working well; the preacher and trustees seeing we had not seating capacity for the people attending our church we went to work. We have a building committee. The addition will be 25 by —. It is already weather boarded and slate roofed, and the work still goes on. You know a friend in need is a friend indeed. Remember thy Creator in the days of thy youth; help the cause of God and he will help you. Many desire me to write frequently to the paper, but my motto is, "Less talk and more work."

Rev. J. J. Harris writes from Corinth, Miss.: "I reached this desired destination February 14, 1885. After an introduction and general hand shaking we speeded our way to the Sunday School on Sunday morning, and found a few of our little band of workers gathered for the occasion. Allow me to say here that the Sunday School is under the superintendency of Prof. T. F. G. Murray, and is bound to prosper. Two weeks were spent in singing, praying, preaching and visiting. Our first quarterly conference was held April 11 and 12. Owing to a delay of the train Elder D. A. Williams could not hold the quarter until Saturday night, the 11th. However, everything passed off nicely. Sunday morning our much esteemed presiding elder lectured to the Sunday School, which was listened to, and enjoyed by all present. At 3 o'clock p. m. the presiding elder ascended the pulpit, and in thunder tones poured forth the words of God. He held the congregation spell-bound for some time, sending his voice heavenward The sermon was enjoyed by all who heard him. At 7:30 p. m. the presiding elder told us all about reconciliation. He left no stone unturned. Elder Williams is one of those men who never bends the Gospel-bow unless the arrow finds the foe. We paid the presiding elder $15, and the pastor for moving and traveling expenses $18 75; on salary $17 60.

Rev. J. H. Smith writes from St. Peters' Chapel, Lake Providence, La.: "The time of our services is Sunday morning, prayer meeting at 5 a. m.; Sunday School at 9 a. m.; preaching at 11 a. m.; class meeting at 1 p. m., Sunday; preaching at 3 p. m. and 7 p. m.; prayer meeting at 5 p. m. Sunday evening; preaching Wednesday night at 7.30; Friday night prayer meeting at 7:30.

[Price 50 cents. Please remit. All church cards 50 cents—ED.

Rev. H. J. Wright writes from Natchitoches, La.: "Our first quarterly conference convened here on the 22d, at 11 o'clock a. m., Rev. Pierre Landry, presiding elder, in the chair. Brother David R. Mickelberry was elected secretary. The business of the conference was all in order. All reports were written out, and when called were read. The business was dispatched by this method, and intelligently. Perfect harmony prevailed, and all were benefited by attending. Brother Landry is equal to the emergency; a large district and a large man. We are to take a trip twelve miles south of here on the Texas and Pacific Railroad, and the juncture of the Tap road, leading from here to the mail track of the Texas and Pacific Railroad, being previously notified that Mr. James O. Johnson, a large land owner there, who has a fine saw and shingle mill and store at this place, had given to us one acre of fine land, bounded east by Old River, west by the Texas and Pacific Railroad, north by the Tap road. He has built and completely finished a neat church for our use at a small sum. The land he has given us, and he only charges us $150 for the church, seats and pulpit extra. The building is 18 by 24, 12 feet story, and built of cypress lumber, sawed shingles, with two pair of sash on a side. It is right in the town. We accepted of the house. We now want our friends to come to our rescue. He says pay him $50 cash, and he will wait two years for the balance. He wants a church there and a school. We cannot dedicate the church until we make a payment on the place. We were perfectly satisfied with our trip. We reached home in time for a good love feast. The elder enjoyed his trip on the start, and much more on the home stretch. He preached one of his enjoyable sermons on Sunday night to a good house to their delight and satisfaction. Monday night we [illegible] feasted seven miles west at Newton, at one of our churches there. On Tuesday night I accompanied him on his journey a short distance. This was his first trip to Marthaville, and we [illegible] a little [illegible] in [illegible] our home. We enjoyed the hospitality of Brother Jack Abbott, who [illegible] his boys after the elders. He encouraged Brother Landry by saying the next would be Pierre, after him and Rev. J. H. Pierre, his pastor. From here to Allen we enjoyed a good trip. The quarter over the writer did the preaching to a mixed congregation. The elder aided and administered the sacrament. We turned back toward that great civilizer to go further on the iron-horse. Friday night we traveled on the iron horse from Marthaville to Sodus Station or Pleasant Hill. The ride was pleasant, but when we arrived there we met a storm, which we rambled in one mile amidst the pine woods. Brother John Sparks, small in stature but loud in the pulpit, lead the trio, Landry followed, then myself and Brother Johnson with the elder's baggage brought up the rear. It was dark, lightning flashing, the hail came down upon us in copious showers. It was fully as large as a goose egg. We had taken shelter on the way side. Then John lead off. We went duck fashion in a trail at a squirrel's gait. We never looked behind. We found the house. Imagine my trip as the first trial of a presiding elder. I was laboring under difficulties. My experience as a presiding elder is not very commendable. We found the hill all right. We do not wish to comment on the churches we saw. We think they are a disgrace to the Louisiana Conference. Brethren, when you build churches build them like churches, and in a workmanship manner. Here we took a back track, and relinquished our ambition for any further traveling on this line. Taking the Sunday morning train we went to Prudhomme Station or Cypress Postoffice on the Texas and Pacific Railroad. We arrived at 7:30 o'clock a. m., and found a good friend, Stephen Hamilton, to take us in. We preached in the church on the Natchitoches charge work to an appreciative gathering of thirty members, organized a board of stewards, trustees, class leaders, and appointed Brother Stephen Henrieter superintendent of the Sabbath School. He was formerly a Catholic. We gain an entrance in this community. "The leaven shall leaven the whole." We made a good day's work, and left for home at 7:30 p. m. We relinquish all pretense, if any we ever had, as presiding elder. We are home again. Our bed on a bench was hard enough. The different cooks, the different ways, the different water, the excess and the non-affection of many, the different beds, some soft, some hard, some lean, some fat! And oh, my! the different cooks, as the little boy would say. Corn bread rough and corn bread tough. Thank God, we got corn bread enough. Our leader and chief felt aloft to let us go, but we felt like we had gone far enough. We enjoyed his company admirably, and his lectures and debates at the different points were of great interest to us as a young man. We hated to part with him. Brother Landry is a scholar and a gentleman of business tact and ability of a degree above the average. We only pray that this four years will be as pleasant as those of his predecessor, Rev. Stephen Duncan, who is beloved by everybody. If any man was loved in the Shreveport district Stephen Duncan certainly was. We entertain the highest Christian love for our beloved Christian brother, Rev. Stephen Duncan. He may die, but his name will live in the memory of these people. God bless him and his Christian home.

Letters From the Laity.

Martin Van Buren, of Marthaville, La., writes "that only $3 was raised for the Sunday School Union on that charge, and not $5 as reported by Dr. J. Price. The pastor is sick in bed."

J. E. Foster writes from Columbia charge: "About three weeks ago the Rev. J. K. Comfort and Mr. C. B. Hart, in conjunction with my self, called together the members and friends of Zion Ridge Church, and had a general discussion of matters pertaining to education and the necessities of our children in the future. We formed a society to be known as the Education Society of Zion Ridge. Since that time we have called two meetings, raised $13 60, and ordered a bill of 32,000 feet of lumber, out of which we expect to build a house 40 by 60 feet, and two stories high. The lower story of said house is for our church, and the upper story is for a school house. We are thoroughly convinced that an education is the beginning of wisdom, and that the beginning of wisdom is to fear God, and the end of it is to love him. Consequently we are trying to sanctify our wisdom, and look forward into futurity, and consider what will be the condition of our children; also of our fellow Africo Americans in ages hence, as well as what it is at present."

Prof. B. J. Cooke, of Vaiden, Miss., writes: "The Second Quarterly Conference of the Vaiden Circuit, Greenwood District, was held May 23 and 24, at Good Hope Church. Rev. Dr. H. R Revels, presiding elder, officiated. The Conference convened on the 23d promptly at 5 o'clock p m, all the members present. The Doctor requested a secretary, and the writer was unanimously elected. The Doctor then opened by reading, singing and prayer, after which the roll was responded to by all the members of the last quarter. The work was reported to be in a thriving condition spiritually. On Sunday the Doctor delivered an able and highly appreciated address to the Sunday School, and at 10 o'clock the love feast was well attended. At 11 o'clock the church was filled to its utmost capacity to listen to the eloquent sermon. The Doctor was received by all as a father in Israel. The Lord's supper was then administered to a large number of souls, after which a collection was taken up for the Doctor, which was large, showing the esteem they have for him as a leader of the race. When Rev. A. G. Haygood came here from the Conference he found the work in a sluggish condition, but by the aid of the Lord, and his admirable Christian qualities, he is rapidly improving the work. Brethren pray for us."

Mr. J. W. Davis writes from Athens, Miss. "Rev. D. A. Wilburn, presiding elder, was with us May 30 and 31, and held our Second Quarterly Conference at Quincy Circle, about seven miles north of Athens. The reports showed that the church is in a good condition spiritually, and added to the church [illegible] $74 80; for pastor, $6; for presiding elder, $14 80. The presiding elder preached an excellent sermon from 5th chapter, 19th verse of II Corinthians: God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself; he then administered the Lord's supper to sixty-two souls. We are trying to build up the cause of Christ and Methodism.

For the Southwestern.

Methodists of Mississippi.

REV. J. M. SHUMPERT, P. E.

All the Methodists of Mississippi should know the precise facts about the Wesley Chapel Methodist Episcopal Church—in Vicksburg, of which much has been said and but little done.

In 1872 an effort was made to build a brick church 40x70 I think. The corner-stone was laid and the walls were carried to the first story. The payments were not met and work was suspended in consequence. Since then earnest efforts by different ministers and friends have been made to complete the old church, but have met with continued failures. At nearly every annual conference for the past 13 years resolutions and petitions have been considered relative to finishing the church, but the church was so encumbered with old debts that the members were not really responsible for, that nothing could be done. We have a noble band of faithful workers at Vicksburg, and in proportion to their numbers they do more towards supporting the Gospel than any other church in the State. The writer of this article having been appointed to the Jackson district by Bishop Wiley a year ago, and first visiting Vicksburg and carefully examining into the state of affairs there, and seeing the condition of our people, it was soon found out that our people could not support the pastor and build the church themselves; so, through the kindness of our missionary committee, at their annual meeting last November, the last session of our annual conference was enabled to appropriate $200 for the support of the pastor this year, in order that the people could the better go about the work of building the new church.

Rev. Ira B. Griffin, one of our most successful pastors and a young herald who knows not failure as to the conducting of church affairs, was appointed to the charge of our church at Vicksburg by Bishop Mallalieu at the last session of the Mississippi Conference, and although we have the worst looking church in Vicksburg, the most uninviting to people of refined taste in the city, yet Bro. Griffin has succeeded in filling the church to overflowing, and quite a number have united with our church recently. But the present church site is bad, the encumbrances and the circumstances to which we are surrounded makes it necessary to purchase a lot elsewhere, so we have gone to work and have purchased a beautiful lot in a nice part of the city. It is pronounced to be one of the best church lots in the city. We are now preparing to build a church there to be worthy of the cause of Christ and Methodism.

But the people having to pay for a new lot they are not able to complete their church without help.

Dear brethren, the whole Mississippi Conference is interested in the church at Vicksburg. All want the church finished. We all rejoice to know how well our church is organized throughout the State, beginning at Holly Springs, Oxford, Grenada, Yazoo City, Canton, Jackson, Meridian, Macon, Columbus, Aberdeen, Corinth, etc., but when we strike Vicksburg we hang our heads. Brethren, this ought not, and by the grace of God it shall not be so long. The word is Vicksburg must be "captured," and the fort must be held for Christ and the Methodist Episcopal Church. Quite a number of the brethren of the Conference have promised that when we were ready to begin work they would assist us in their neighborhoods or elsewhere, as they could. Let us hear from you, brethren, as to what it is your pleasure to do. Shall we build? Shall we wait? Shall we sell? Shall we [illegible] Let us hear from you soon, brethren, as to what you conceive to be your duty in the premises, and we will be governed accordingly. Yours truly,

I. B. GRIFFIN.

The Freeman.—As its name implies, is a journal of strong religious principles, and is devoted to the welfare of its readers, and to the truth, fearless, and uncompromising in the advocacy of what it conceives to be right.

Kentucky Colored Teachers Association.

The Kentucky Colored Teachers' Association of the State heard Miss Warfield, on "The Manuel Education of Women," and Mrs. L. C. Clarke, of Mount Sterling, on "Woman's Adaptability to Teach."

Their officers were elected as follows: President, W. H. Perry, Louisville; First Vice President, W. H. Mayo, Frankfort.

Other Vice Presidents—First District, H. Shirley; Third District, R. D. Blythe; Fifth District, N. T. Peyton; Seventh District, T. A. Reid; Eighth District, J. S. Hathway; Tenth District, Mrs. L. C. Clarke.

Secretary—Miss Mary E. Britton, Lexington.

Treasurer—H. S. Henderson, Lexington.

The Committee on Resolutions recommended a reading circle, a vocacy of school work in the churches, an arbor day, a column for the colored schools in the Courant, to be conducted by J. M. Maxwell. Indignation was expressed at those railroads which refused first class privileges to members of the association. The acts of the last Legislature, improving the school laws were commended, and a committee recommended to obtain further legislation for the colored schools.

This committee consists of the President and Messrs W. T. Peyton, H. Scroggins, W. J. Simmons, J. S. Hathaway and H. Shirley. Thanks were tendered to all who aided the work of the association, and contributed to the comfort and pleasure of its members while here. The new officers, on taking their seats, made appropriate remarks upon the position and prospects of the association. After short addresses by Jno. V. Hodges, Superintendent of schools here; Prof Bartholomew, of Louisville, and Hon. J. Desha Pickett, State Superintendent, the meeting closed subject to the call of the State Board of Education.

The following is a list of the teachers who were present: Prof W. J. Simmons, Louisville; J. S Hathaway, Mt. Sterling; W. H Perry, Louisville; J. H. Newman Mrs. Belle Jackson, Mrs. E. A Henderson, Miss Lou McMillan, Mrs. E. W. Jackson, Misses Susie M. Klug, Hattie Ross, Ella Ross, E la Taylor, Messrs. J. B. McConnell, C. C. Monroe, H. L. Gowens, Lexington; Mr. Henry Shirley, Glasgow; Mrs. Mary McClure, Mt. Sterling; Miss Hannah Scott, Mt. Gilead; Mrs. S. C. Cluke, Montgomery county; Thos. E. Jones, Rev. Chinn, H. S. Henderson, Lexington; F. P. Adams, Mt. Gilead; W. H. Mayo, Frankfort, S. M Thomas, J. H. Elkins, Keene; Mattie Jackson, Princeton, Ind.

Any physician who has used it will certify to the excellence of Hunt's Remedy. Hunt's Remedy is a standard remedy for dropsy and kidney disease. GILBERT CLARK, M D

With His Hat Full of Money.

A merry frolic was engaged in by several members of the Stock Exchange between 1 and 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. A bright looking colored boy, known as the "little black piper," was taken in to the board room while business was in progress and induced to play popular tunes on his fife. The lad is but 14 years of age, of small stature, and remarkably black skin. He cut an amusing figure among the brokers, and seemed to enjoy his adventure keenly. He manipulated his shrill instrument with the skill of an old professional, and stirred up the "bulls" and "bears" to a high pitch of enthusiasm. He rattled off a lively Irish jig, which set half a dozen brokers dancing across the floor. Chairman Mitchell rapped loudly with his hammer, and sternly fined such members as he was able to detect participating in the disorder.

The little piper was kept in the board room for about a quarter of an hour, during which time he played almost incessantly. Brokers amused themselves by throwing coins at him and stuffing money in his pockets. He left the exchange with his hat literally full of money. He counted $45 that the brokers had given him.—N. Y. Times.

The aching back, the sallow skin, the hollow eye, give way speedily before Hunt's Remedy.

April in History.

April is a great month in history. Among the noted persons who were born in that month are: Henry Clay, Toomas Jefferson, Washington Irving, General Grant, and Madame Destaeh. The list of those who died in April includes Shakespeare, Wordsworth, Franklin, Darwin, Liebig, Handel, De Tocqueville, Buffon, Goldsmith, Prof. S. F. B. Morse, Bishop Heber, President Harrison, and President Lincoln. Among the noted events of the month were: The Edict of Nantes, the close of the Thirteenth war, the battle of Lexington, the inauguration of Washington as the first President, the battle of San Jacinto, the bombardment of Fort Sumpter, the Battle of Shiloh, the surrender of Lee and the assassination of Lincoln.

One would think, from the public attention given to the appointment of the Cook at the White House, that the main question were an Oriental one—whether or not the cook is to poison the President and become Chief Executive himself.—Current.

No Wonder.

A MAN WHO SUFFERED MENTAL AND PHYSICAL AGONY EIGHT YEARS PROCLAIMS HIS HAPPINESS.

Mental agony is dreadful, but when that and physical ailment combine, it is simply terrible. Such was the condition of Geo. W. Frampton, of Huntingdon, W. Va., for eight years. He was a sufferer of necrosis—that is, the leg bone at the ankle was inflamed and mortified, which caused running sores. He says: "Pieces of bone the size of a silver three cent piece came out of the sores on my leg. The discharge from the sores was almost continual, and I was unable to walk. For eight years I have been doctoring. I had been under the treatment of a physician at Newport, Ky., for a year; another at Burlington, O., attended me for three years, and a doctor here at Huntingdon worked with me for a long time. None of them did me any good, and they all finally said my case was hopeless. A few months ago I commenced trying PERUNA, and now I am well. I can walk as good as anybody, and have perfect use of my limbs."

Mr. Alf. Luck, Wooster, Ohio, writes: "DR. HARTMAN, Columbus, O. I have been a great sufferer from that dreaded disease, chronic catarrh of the stomach. I have thoroughly tried your MANALIN, and it has done me more good ten-fold than all the doctors' prescriptions, and I have used legions of them."

Mr. Edgar Harte, Smeltzer P. O., Elk county, Pa., writes: "I have bought several bottles of your PERUNA, and find it to be of great benefit. I also gave it to some of my friends; they experienced the same result."

Mr. L. R. Wollen, 45 and 47 Ross street, Pittsburgh, Pa, writes: "I am taking PERUNA with good results, and can highly recommend it to all. I have applied at the different drug stores for one of your books. They claim they have none on hand at present. Please do me the favor to send me one."

W. W. Russell, druggist, Canonsburg, Pa., writes: I handle your medicine, PERUNA. I have sold immense quantities of it, and consider it a staple article. I have a great many customers who think there is no medicine like it for a tonic or for building up the system. I recommend it as a safe and reliable remedy."

Calista Fishel, Malvern, Ohio, writes: "I take pleasure in recommending the use of PERUNA and MANALIN to any one afflicted with any form of lung or bronchial trouble. I have been for some time troubled with a very severe cough, and have used four bottles of PERUNA entirely cured me.

Medford, Mass., June 20

Avery Lactate Co.—I advise all my dyspeptic patients to use LACTART, (lactic acid) as a beverage in preference to all other drinks.

PEARL MARTIN, M. D.

These scientific and medical testimonies can be multiplied by the hundreds. The best class of physicians are ranging themselves on the side of opposition to the use of alcohol in any form.

Delicate diseases of either sex, however induced, speedily and permanently cured. Book of particulars 10 cents in stamps. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches.
History of the U. S.—Ridpath	$3 00
Scripture History.—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net	60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3.) Net	5
History of Methodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.)	3 00
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Edition of 1884
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. I) sett	5 00
Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs	2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures, chapters I XXX—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol I) sett	7 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection	30
Wesley
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill. Net	1 00
Written Sermon.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
Christian Purity.—Foster	1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Current Ethics.—Henry and Harris	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. (chapters XXI-LII)—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology.—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
Lessons in Logic.—Devens. Net	40
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism.—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged.—Stevens	3 00
Defense of our Fathers.—Emory	25
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church Vol. II.—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters (XIII.—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology.—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope. Vol. III	7 50
Apologetics Theology.—Miley	2 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn	3 50
Intellectual Science.—Porter	2 00
Homiletics.—Kidder	1 50
Writers' Greek.
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology. —Crooks and Hurst	3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters XLIV-XLIV.—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Theological Institutes. Part II.—Watson	2 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written Exegesis.
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St. Paul.—Conybeare and Howson (Abridged Edition)	1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry
History of Rationalism.—Hurst	3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst	$1 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church.—(Edition of 1884)
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.—Walker	1 25
To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism.—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St. Paul.—Fletcher	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill	1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst	50
Ancient History.—Thalheimer
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	3 00
History of Methodism. Abridged Edition).—Stevens	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible. Sacraments
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield	2 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill	1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven	90
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol I.) Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Nast	1 25
Era of the Protestant Revolution.—Seebohm	75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII.—Wakefield	2 50
Logic.—Devens. (Old and Primer Edition.)	40
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter	2 00
Review of the course of the three preceding years
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II. Introduction to Antinomianism.—Fletcher	5 00
History of the Methodist Episcopal Church.—Stevens	3 00
Protestant Foreign Missions.—Christlieb	1 50

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-talks, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter, than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with notes) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Youngest Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners [illegible] nearly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been [illegible] and made beautiful by a new [illegible] engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Picture Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful [illegible] pictures, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1885 at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE.

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Exclusively for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful [illegible]

Our Little Men and Women.

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely [illegible] stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY.

[illegible] Only 75 Cents a Year.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, JULY 23, 1885.

The American Baptist.—It is not too late, and only by continuous absence from our office for the last sixty-four days were we prevented from making mention of an important change in this excellent paper. The Louisville Bulletin has ceased to exist, being merged into the Baptist. The Adams brothers, former proprietors of the Bulletin, retire from responsible journalism, and Dr. W. J. Simmons from the chief editorship of the Baptist. We shall miss the doctor. He is a gifted and versatile writer. We wish him and the Adams brothers full and continuous success, and the paper, under its new regime, the best.

Amende Honorable.

In our notice about the secretaryship of the Tennessee Conference we erred in stating that Rev. L. H. Hagood was the first colored man elected to that position, and called attention herein. The facts are that Rev. C. W. S. Woods, at the Murfreesboro session of that conference, in 1878, was so elected, and upon his withdrawal from our church we believe Rev. D. W. Kurfees elected to fill the position. Honor to whom honor is due.

Birmingham Again.

Birmingham, Ala. The name is somewhat familiar to most of our readers. Well, our pastor, Rev. S. L. Gandy, of that place, has with his invincible energy and determined officiary and members just completed a fine $3000 church edifice, all but the bell. This he has given up for lost. To get one of our size is to get a good one. This is well known in all these parts. Hence those who want a fine church and a bell to correspond naturally look to Bro. Sanders has been lead to us for it. We always thought that something good would come out of Birmingham, but we know now that something good has gone into it—a fine church with one of our bells is a guarantee.

Destruction of Our Forests.

During the year 1880 145,778,137 cords of wood were used in the United States. It cost $321,962,373. Estimate that this will nearly double the annual consumption of wood for fuel alone, it is not hard to see that except the best forest laws are enacted and enforced we shall soon be either compelled to find a substitute for lumber or import it. The effects of the extensive cutting of the forests is apparent in irregular seasons, and dangerous inundations, which have become frequent in recent years. The climate is decidedly changed in a measure by these causes by preserving the forest. It is now a patriotic duty for every man who can to plant a tree annually, and nurse it into life and growth.

Let Us Hear from Some More Like Them.

Sisters Eleanora Moore, Agnes Caldwell and others of Shiloh Church, near M. Smith is the stand head. The new church was finished, and before the day of dedication these noble women had thoroughly cleaned it up, planted trees in the yard, and brightened things up in all directions. We have a good many points, and a good many others. At all events, effort to improve, enlarge, rebuild, or in some way add something to enhance the beauty and value of the churches, SOUTHWESTERN has been receiving compliments for its helpful influence and people on the parsonages.

"Who Art Thou That Judgest Another Mans' Servant."

We say it deliberately, there is not a more unchristian and unmanly habit common among Methodist preachers than the habit of making unkind, often untruthful criticisms of the work a preceding pastor has been able to do. It is done by new presiding elders sometimes also.

Before a man can sit in honest judgment upon the actions of a brother man, it is needful that he should know every element that enters into the case. If he is unable to obtain such information he is incompetent to decide the case on its merits, and where it is possible to avoid it he should therefore not attempt any decision.

What is really very poor work might, if all the circumstances were known, prove to be the best of work. The presiding elders and Bishop ordinarily are enough to sit in judgment upon the effectiveness of ministers.

When there is a fault in the conduct of a predecessor, which must be looked into, it is the duty of those who are acquainted with it, to certify the case up to the presiding elder in a bill of charges or complaints.

Where there is too much cowardliness to do this, there is very little of that essence of man and womanhood upon which true gentlemanship, not to mention Christianity, is built.

The People's Church, Boston.

The Rev. John W. Hamilton, than whom few more gifted minister occupy any pulpit of this period, after a continuous missionary pastorate, under which the success of the enterprise was assured, has been removed from the Methodist Episcopal People's Church, of Boston, to Somerville, Mass.

It seems on first thought that some such flexible polity as would especially foster the growth of great Metropolitan enterprises should be formulated. But when we come to think more deeply, it will be seen that we are now in possession of such flexibility of system as will allow evangelistic efforts everywhere. Our losses, if there be such in local concerns, are more than overbalanced by our adaptibility to meet the greatest demands of the ever-widening widest sphere. We have most, but we cannot have all of the advantages, both of a congregational and a connectional polity. Certainly denominations feel proud of such churches as Plymouth, Talmage's Tabernacle, and the People's Church; but if their growth and best development depends on exoterio conditions we cannot afford them. We must itinerate, and in this way equalize burdens and bounties as well as distribute gifts and graces.

Call Them Negroes!

We are not inclined to follow Prof. Snowden through his entire argument on this question. The most of it could be admitted without touching the real question at issue at all. "Should the word Negro be applied to the colored people of this country or any other?",

This is the form of the question as our learned and philological critic has been pleased to state it.

But we think himself would admit that, his is not the most definite form in which to put it. Suppose we put it in this way:

"Should the descendants of black Africans in this country or any other be called Negroes?"

Then the answer must be yes, and for two reasons:

1. Because the condition of a child is commonly allowed to follow that of the mother.

So nearly all the amalgamation between the white and black races has been through black women, that the exceptions only proves the rule.

[illegible] the Negro race in [illegible] descriptive [illegible] follow the condition of its mother, or root race, which, in this case, is black color with certain well defined physiological development.

Admitting that the Negro means black and when spelled with a capital letter and one g nothing more. The question then to be considered is not whether it come to a certain people by their consent and seeking. But, whether having come to them, it is not just as proper to be retained as a race name as any other word would be. And in view of the fact that a given race had been so described for a long time, whether it would not be more so.

Even if the history of analogous cases should not be agreeable to it. Though mere statement of such disagreement is insufficient proof at this point.

The first man ever on this earth was called by a name descriptive of color, and the aboriginal Americans were called red men. They can be called neither—Americans nor Indians—without great confusion. Red men describes them exactly. Because there is no other such men on earth.

2. Words change their meaning by continuous employment different from that first intended. Talent used to mean—metal used for money. It now means intellect. It is thought that baptize used to mean only immersion, it now means effusion as well. Eternity used to mean the life time of the oldest hills, but it now means the age of God. So, too, Negro used to mean the black, whereas by use it is made, in our time and country, to mean any descendent of the black race of men.

The true signification of the word Negro to-day is a black or the descendant of a black African.

With this meaning, to get which we strain none, but simply follow the well established philological law, that words continuously used, in a certain way ultimately change their meaning. It more fittingly applies to the descendants of the black African than any other known word can. Because this signification, with few exceptions, is understood and accepted by the entire human family.

The word Methodist was never formally accepted by the followers of Mr. Wesley, and was originally applied to them as a term of derision. It followed them, however, and now no other term would as fully meet their case. It once meant a blind fanatic, it now means a Christian in earnest. So we find that whether considered from an ethnological or philological stand-point, this word fits the descendants of the black African quite well.

But what about the term colored men and colored people. Well, this term had its first application to the Negro down among the Spaniards also. It was used to distinguish their slave children from their slave chattels. France in Haiti took it up, and the blacks and mulatoes of the Negro republic finally fell into the use of it themselves. So we have "Free Blacks and colored men" often appearing in the historic State papers of Tonisaint, Desalines and others there. Besides its enphoniousness it is a constant reminder of the shame and disgrace which has been heaped upon us by a one sided illegal amalgamation, inspired and carried on by force, treachery, lust and lechery. The term colored men is so descriptive of the cruel wrong and outrage for hundreds of years practiced upon our helpless mothers that we should never hear it without both shame and indignation. Give us any other name. The degradation put upon the word Negro was the outgrowth of avarice, that of which the word colored is a perpetual symbol was of hell-born lust. Call us any thing, every thing but that.

The learned professor spends much time discussing the practices of men and in denying their claims to race pride, etc. Our readers know too well to expect us to make any reply to him there. We are dealing with sentiments in the abstract not with men and their sentiments in the concrete. Suffice it to say that we believe in and shall use the word Negro as the name of the black African race and their descendants. For the reasons hastily given above, the word colored is no less offensive than the word Negro taken on the professor's own grounds. Because it, too, is descriptive of complexion, and he holds that a race should not be so described. It is as descriptive but far less definite than Negro. I can easily mean Mexican, Indian, Japanese, Arab, Mestizo, Chine, or Mullato, when I say Colored. But the law of applied limitation compels me to mean "one of the black African race or its descendants', when I say Negro.

In Such a Case Count on Us.

"Jeffersonville, Ind., May 27, 1885.—Rev. Dr. Taylor—Dear Sir: I earnestly request you to attend our district conference, which shall convene at Eddyville, Ky., July 31, 1885. I assure you one hundred subscribers for your paper if you will put in your appearance and remain with us over Sunday. Please answer at once, and address me at Hardinsburg, Ky. Respectfully yours in Christ,

"A. B. BOOKER."

[We always attend meetings with such assurances. Bros. Booker and White, of Lexington, always make and keep such promises.—ED.

Personal.

—Mrs. Bryant, of Macon, Ga., sister to Mrs. J. H. Taylor, of Louisville, is dead.

—S. E. Cowan's correspondents will address him at Macon, Miss., until October.

—Dr. Henry Bascom Ridgaway has been elected president of the Garrett-Biblical Institute.

—The Rev. W. H. Goler, of Salisbury, N. C., delivered the address to the graduating class of Bennett Seminary, June 11.

—Dr. T. B. Caldwell publishes a paper called the Messenger at Nashville. He is an honored minister in the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

—Bishop T. U. Dudley is receiving numerous compliments from the colored peoples' papers. We have known him personally, and have liked him from the start. We like him better now, though.

—We hear that Hon. G. W. Williams is busy with his last volume of the History of Reconstruction. The Gate City Press says that he received no salary from the State Department.

—Bishop Foss, being introduced, was given a seat upon the platform of the Presbyterian General Assembly. In doing so he said, "I am very glad to find myself among so many bishops this morning."

—From Iberville South, July 11; We are in receipt of a communication from Mr. E. N. Harrington, of Rosedale, giving a detailed account of the picnic which was given by the school children to Rev. George W. Wells, their teacher. He closed his school (public) on the 29th of May, with an enrollment of 123 scholars. This voluntary tribute of the children to their esteemed teacher was well deserved, for we know that he has devoted himself faithfully to his labors. The scholars deserving special mention were: Eugenia A. Bolden, Annie Brooks, Ella Cutts, Leona Clarke and George Dorsey. The attendance of parents and friends was large, and all were highly pleased with the progress their children had made under the direction of Rev. Geo. W. Wells.

Church Polity.

MR. EDITOR—Can two Sunday-school Superintendents, both belonging to the same charge and school, be abproved in the Methodist Episcopal Church?—SUBSCRIBER.

Answer—The first Superintendent of each of our Sunday-schools must be approved by the quarterly conference. There may be assistants in each school but they are not subject to quarterly conference action; except the first, who, being a member, shall sit and vote therein. Many schools have two or three superintendents, but the first is the responsible one, and should be a member of our Church. It sometimes happens that a charge has more than one Sunday-school on it; each of these are entitled to at least one superintendent, and each of whom are entitled to a seat in, and must be approved by the quarterly conference of that charge. The first superintendents of all our schools, at least, should be members of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Baton Rouge Preacher's Meeting.

In accordance with notices received from Presiding Elder S. Priestley, the ministers of the Southern portion of the Baton Rouge District met in Baton Rouge July 14, for the purpose of organizing a Preacher's Meeting. After a statement of the object, and an able address upon the importance of such an organization among the ministers of the district, the following were elected officers:

Reese Thompson, President; C. A. Taylor, Vice-President; Geo. W. Wells, Secretary; Sanders Carroll Assistant Secretary; John P. Franklin, Treasurer. By general consent the presiding elder appointed the two standing committees: Committee on Monthly Programme, Reese Thompson, chairman; Moses P. Franklin, Andrew Branch. Committee on Rules, Geo. W. Wells, Bedford Carr, E. Harrison. The Rev. Reese Thompson, of Wesley Chapel, delivered an excellent address upon the benefits of a preachers' meeting. Geo. W. Wells, "What should be dissussed in a preachers meeting." Jno. P. Franklin, "How to govern a church." Adjourned to meet the first Tuesday after the first Sunday monthly, at 9:30 o'clock a. m.

R. THOMPSON, Pres.
GEO. W. WELLS, Sec'y.

Schools and Colleges.

Freedmen's Schools—A Revival Agency.

S. B. DARNELL, B D.

Our forms of worship are the same wherever that great little volume, the Discipline, is followed. In the various phases of society the methods of conducting revivals, however, are differently applied. Among the people of whom we write strange and sometimes weird scenes occur, but they are none the less genuine as the fruits abundantly demonstrate. The unusual manifestations are very like the triumphs of Methodism fifty years ago. They are clearly traceable to the traditions and conceptions of former times. But, as the majority of the colored people were born since the war began, and another culture has environed them, many look for religion to be obtained by other methods, and to be revealed by other manifestations. There are some leaders of the race inclined to be averse to the Christian faith, because of the different iation and sometimes duplicity practised toward them by the nominal Christian State and the professed Christian Church; yet the fact is still patent the religious bias of the race is very strong in these later born sons of Ham. To whom shall these young men and women look for guides to their inquiring faith? Who shall point out to them the true path of penitence and the royal way that leads to peace with God? A few will take the counsel of their elders in faith; but many want to know the way of the Lord more perfectly, and seek intelligent assistants to shape their future religious career.

There is no agency that is better adapted to or more efficient than the institutions founded and sustained by the various evangelical denominations for the education of the Freedmen. These schools will have the training of the educators of these millions. The thorough conversion of the students at the schools or their culture in the divine life in its higher forms of doctrine and experience, will develop a power for good beyond the finite mind to estimate. The arduous pursuit of knowledge tends to change the fiber of the mind, and in this transition period the whole foundations of life and character are subject to slight and subtle influences. Some strange wanderings from the faith of the fathers show adversely how thorough these changes become. Life takes on new attractions, new aspirations spring up, new resolves are formed, new hopes and purposes fill the mind. When the young man or woman stands on the platform to deliver his own or even another's thoughts to an audience of his peers, and becomes conscious of his ability to hold their attention, excite pleasurable emotions, and instruct them in wise ways, the horizon of his future wideus beyond the visions of his parental home. The maps of his geography stretch out into plains, hills and mountains which he traverses, and the spots loom up into great cities along whose streets he hastens with wondering eyes; likewise the crooked lines he learned were rivers now now form pleasure paths along which he sails, or over whose bosom he sends the merchandise he buys and sells to profit. At the threshold of this new life dawning upon the mind is the opportune moment to transform the desires, passions, all the feelings and purposes. This period is spent in the classic halls of our schools. To no persons will these students look for their pattern in life or counsel for future years as to the teachers and supervisors of these institutions. Shall we be faithful to our trust and serious obligations? We may be all absorbed in the material and cares surrounding us or in the intellectual welfare of those crowding our classes, and they come to shine like stars, but there will be no heat in their light. Polar winter may possess their natures, whereas the fires of the soul if kindled and kept aglow will be a tropical summer and will blaze and burn with a radiance almost divine.

The Northwestern University.

JAMES CLEMENT AMBROSE.

To-day is the end of the twenty-seventh annual commencement week here, and I think that the readers of the SOUTHWESTERN may like briefly to look in upon the university that has just graduated 175 students in general learning and the professions, besides 51 from its academic school. Of the former number 58 are lawyers, 43 doctors, 24 Methodist ministers, 22 batchelors in art and science, 15 musicians, 7 elocutionists and 6 artists. Little more than 30 years ago a few friends of liberal education met in Chicago to pray and plan for a University that should cultivate large scholarship and morality at the West, and somehow find itself the means to do it with. This year's entry in the results is indicated above. For means they prayed, and purchased here a tract of wild and handsome land, paying $25,000, only they had to postpone payment of $24,000. They laid out a village, called it Evanston, sold from time to time halt the lots, kept the others for perpetual lease, gave their personal notes of $8000 for Chicago lots now occupied by the Grand Pacific Hotel and valued at $700,000, and leased at an annual rent of seven and one-half per cent on valuation. These investments and some noble gifts now afford the University an endowment of more than two million dollars; and this village its fathers planted has become the educational suburb of of the Garden City, affording elegant homes to 8,000 people, with forty acres of rare old forest and and campus on the shore of Lake Michigan occupied by University buildings. It is twelve miles from the city, and all University property is free from taxes. All this is a large growth from that meeting of a few men with very little money but they planned for pure morals and Christianity in scholarship, and God smiled on their investments. They secured a charter containing a clause forbidding forever the sale of liquors within four miles of the [illegible], and this prohibition has [illegible]ly prohibited; we have not had a saloon since the foundation of things. All the colleges of the University, save the medical, are open to ladies, and have been so during fifteen years, with constant public approval of co education. There is, too, quite a sprinkling of colored students. One who first graduated in law finished the two [illegible] in one, and mean while paid his way wholly by his own labor, and stood near the head of his class. The week of commencement exercises has drawn together large audiences, including many strangers, and the public programme has exhibited choice scholarship and oratory. The trustees created a new chair of political economy and history, and elected thereto Dr. Robert Shepard, of Chicago. They appropriated $50,000 for further improvements. Two new buildings for the theological college are ordered, and a hall of science soon will be. A physical laboratory will open in September. Professors number 71 and students nearly 1000.

Evanston, Ill.

Gretna Colored Academy.

MR. EDITOR—The grandest exhibition that has ever been given in Gretna took place last night in the Gretna Colored Academy under the auspices of its most esteemed teacher and principal, Prof. Adams. The scholars, numbering about 100 and being well trained by their celebrated music teacher, Professor A. W. Ross, made a great impression on the audience in their grand opening by singing,

"Whosoever heareth shout, shout the sound."

The girls all being tastefully dressed in white, while the boys were dressed in dark suits. After singing prayer was offered by Rev. M. T. Fairfax; after prayer an address was delivered by Mr. Wm. Van Buskirk, showing the great disadvantages against which the school had to battle in being established, the great necessity of teaching morality in the schools of to-day, and the wonderful advancement being made by the present generation, the eminent men of the colored race holding positions of profit and trust. Then the courageous little Misses charmed the audience with their well prepared speeches. First presented to the audience was Miss Martha Jacobs, a little girl not yet six years of age; and the [illegible] her so loudly and [illegible] that it was very difficult for one to hear the latter part of her speech. Next came Miss Amelie Jeanne, who created quite a sensation by displaying her eloquence on a piece entitled "Remember child, remember." She was applauded with cheers from every lip and in the meantime received boquets from her admirers too large for her delicate hands to carry. In this way over twenty five went through with their speeches. After little ones had gone through with their pieces the higher classes of the academy were called and examined separately in their different branches by a competent examining committee, music being served alternately. To the entire satisfaction of the patrons and the public in general the examination was a perfect success in all the branches. The audience was held spell bound by the wonderful mathematical skill displayed by scholars of eight and ten years of age. Great applause was given to little Misses Nancy Winesbury, daughter of Mr. Ned Winesbury; Henriette E. Brown, daughter of Judge C. F. Brown; Elida Briscoe, daughter of Mr. Sidney Briscoe, and many others of that class for the [illegible] in which they acquitted themselves in the study of English grammar—the parsing of sentences being done with so much ease by them. Next came the members of the Normal Department. Master George Winesbury acquitted himself [illegible] to his instructor; he, [illegible] a declamation—it [illegible] that those [illegible] Then was called Miss Matilda Brisco, who delivered a declamation to the satisfaction and astonishment of the audience, after which she was examined in geography, physiology, morals and manners, U. S. history, English grammar and arithmetic; and after she had gone through with her examination she was pronounced by the best educated ladies and gentlemen present to be the superior of any girl of her age known in the village of Gretna, with no exception whatever. Master George Minor, the superior mathematician among the scholars, was not examined at all, as it was too late to continue the examination after 2 o'clock a. m. The school being so large and the time so short, it was utterly impossible to examine all of the scholars, therefore a few of each class were taken and examined to the satisfaction of all who witnessed the exercises. Among the many visitors were to be seen Mr. N. Chesses and Mr. D. Tervelon, Miss D. Duncan and Miss Pamela Castelanos, and many others of note too numerous to mention. After examining 19 or 20 of the total number of scholars belonging to the academy the closing address was delivered by Judge C. F. Brown. After the exercises were over all hands resorted to the lunch hall, situated in the same yard, to enjoy the refreshments that had been prepared for the occasion. Deputy Sheriff Wilson and police officer Rousselle were present, but so lovely did the people conduct themselves the officers were not disturbed once. At 2:15 a. m. the school closed until Sept. 1, 1885.

C. F. BROWN,
W. L. VAN BUSKIRK
G. W. WILSON,
NELSON H. SELICO.

Marshall, Harrison county, Texas, May 26, 1885—Mr. Editor: I am teaching in the Sunday school and I find it makes me feel more like a Christian than ever, and I read more, and learn something every Sunday, and I have the SOUTHWESTERN to read every day in the week, and I learn something every day I live. E. T. JOHNSON.

[That is right.—ED:

We have lately received applications for diplomas in the Medical Department from Massachusetts and from Manitoba, Canada. We wish to have it distinctly understood that our college is not a "diploma mill", and that the conditions for gradnation are actnal attendance for the required length of time, and an attainment of 75 per cent in a rigid written examination in all the studies in the conrse.—Meharry Med. Col.

The Edinburgh University Student's Holiday Mission, a series of evangelistic services held by young men during the spring vacation, is reported as highly successful. Meetings have been held in all parts of Scotland, even as far north as Jno. O'Groat's. Professor Drnmmond, author of "Natural Law in the Spiritual World," has taken a leading in these services.

Miss Emma E. McAdoo and Miss Emma A. Unthank, both of Greensboro, N. C., from the Normal, and Mr. Jordan D. Chavis, of Greensboro, and Mr. John P. Morris, of Ashland, N. C., from the college preparatory department of Bennett Seminary, graduated at the late commencement. Programme received too late to print.

General Church News.

The Two Reforms.

The anti-slavery reform was organized in 1840 and triumphed in the election of Abraham Lincoln in 1860. Below we give the names of the candidates and the number of votes which they polled respectively:

1840	James G Birney.....	7,059
1844	James G Birney.....	62,300
1848	Martin Van Buren.....	291,263
1852	John P. Hale.....	156,149
1856	John C. Fremont.....	1,341,262
1860	Abraham Lincoln.....	1,867,352

The Prohibition movement was organized in 1872. Whether it will triumph in 1888 or 1892 depends [illegible] the fidelity and [illegible] We regard it as morally certain that the final triumph of the movement will not occur later than the latter of the two dates mentioned. Below we give the names of its candidates and the number of votes they polled respectively:

1872	Bisck and Cussell.....	5,608
1876	Smith and Stewatt.....	9,757
1880	Dow and Thompson.....	19 305
1884	St. John and Daniel	155,446

—Lever.

The Austin Citizen, secular; Herald of Truth, African Methodist Episcopal; The Colored Methodist, Colored Methodist Episcopal Church in America, and the Baptist Preacher, all Negro journals, all in Texas, we trust all prosperous, and so all happy.

The Independent lets fly at all that stands in the way of right eousness with such energy that we are ever anxious to have it come. It stands at the head of independent journals.

Examination of the public school Eutaw, Alabama, Wednesday and Thursday, July 15th and 16th. Primary Department.—Wednesday, July 15th, 9 a, m., spelling, reading, primary geography, primary arithmetic.

Higher Department.—Thnrsday, July, 16th, 10 a. m., English grammar, arithmetic, geography, history, writing, elocution and hygienical physiology.

An Exhibition py the Primary and higher departments.—Monday and Tuesday nights, July 20th and 21st.

Admittance Fee: Adults, 15 cents, children (under 12 years) 10 cents. Yon are respectfully invited to attend. S. W. Jackson, principal.

LACTART with water and sugar, or soda water, makes a delightfully refreshing and invigorating drink, and is a certain preventive of dyspepsia.

Books and Current Literature

Miss Rose G. Kingsley, a daughter of Charles Kingsley, contributes the article on "George Eliot's County," Warwickshire, to the July Century. George Bancroft has written for the same number a brief paper on Henry Clay, with anecdotes of Clay and Calhoun.

Pulpit Treasury, for June has a fine portrait of Rev. J. D. Wither spoon and a sermon by him of the God of Jeshurun.

Celestial Empires. By Rev. E. F. Burr, D. D. published by the American Tract Society 150 Nassau St, New York, price $1.50, This is a 12 mo volume bound in purple gold and cloth containing 18 chapters in 302 pages. Its author the Rev. Enoch Fitch Burr, is a Congregational minister, and the writer of several other very able works. In this case he has undertook to write on a scientific subject without divorcing himself in any wise from faith and love for the scriptures of divine truth. It is an excellent work easily understood, because written in the plain language of the people for whom it is intended. In writing upon astronomical subjects, the author has a mighty field and many gifted pens ahead of him, but there is plenty of room and there ought to be a good demand for a work like this. For our own part we accord it a cheerful welcome to our case. We can remember one of the first gifts from our mother after we had become able to read; it was Burritt's Geography of the Heavens. We kept it a long time, read it a great deal, for useful books were not so plentiful with us, and lost it. This book more than fills the vacum and is therefore donbly welcome to us personally, We hope the writer shall be profited by writing it, as much as we expect to be from closly reading it.

By courtesy of Rev. James M. King D. D, we have a copy of the protest of the Evangical Alliance of the United States against the Senate Bill introduced Jan., 6, by Senators Gibbs and Murphy, entitled an act to secure inmates of institutions for the care of the poor, freedom of worship. They oppose the bill regarding it as an effort to suppress religions freedom; and as an effort to aid Romanism. It should be carefully read.

Pulpit and Easel. By Mary B. Sleight. "We have in hand the manuscript of a new serial story by Miss Mary B. Sleight, the publication of which we shall commence in a few weeks. We confidently expect that it will be greatly enjoyed by our readers; the more so, that our own good opinion of its merits is supplemented by that of so excellent a judge as Edward Eggleston, the well known editor and story writer. Dr. Eggleston has read the story in manuscript, and writes us:—

"I do not know that I have ever read—certainly I have not read of late years—a distinctively religions story that pleased me so much as the one you are about to publish from the pen of Miss Sleight. If I were editing a religious paper, I should count it the greatest good fortune to secure a story so admirable as a work of art, and so excellent in its spirit and teachings." The work is now ready, it fulfils every promise and will no doubt meet an anxious patronage. 12 mo. Cloth. Illustrated. $1.25. T. Y. Crowell & Co., Publishers, 13 Astor Place, New York.

Politeness of Rev. Wilbur F. Steele, we have the minutes of the 17th session of the North Carolina Conference. It is a neat volume of 36 pages, besides extra pages and accompanying documents of importance. Thanks.

The coming of Babyhood, just the thing for mothers, for May, is hereby acknowledged.

Outing, the Wheelmans glory, is on hand, and full of sport.

The Southern Journal of Health, devoted to climate, hygiene and Sanitary science, by Horatio P. Gatchell, is a repository of valuable contents.

The New Orleans Journal of Education has been recieved. It contains matter of importance to teachers and all engaged in school work.

"Catechism on Alcohol" in German. The "Catecism on Alcohol," written by Miss Julia Colman, and which has had the remarkable sale of 175,000 copies, has been translated into German, and is now ready for use in that language. It gives the fundamental truths of the temperance reform in clear, plain, concise, and simple language, and every child in the land should have one. Single copies in English or German, only five cents; 60 cents per dozen. Address J. N. Stearns, Publishing Agent, 58 Reade Street, New York.

Lactart in the Harvestfield.

The following from a letter received by the Avery Lactate Company from Hon. J. M. McCullough, Cincinnati, under date June 9, is of interest to farmers. He says: "During my trip I shall spend much of my time on farms throughout the West, and when harvesting begins, as it will next week, I shall have Lactart in use in many harvest fields. I think so highly of it as a drink that, had I the making of the laws governing labor, I would require every employer to provide Lactart as part of the daily drink of his help. This would increase both the physical and mental power of the laborer or employe, and prove a good financial investment for the employer as well." Mr. McCullough's point is that Lactart not only counteracts the enervating effects of the warm and sometimes brackish water which farmers are often compelled to drink in the field, but renders it wholesome and invigorating, sustaining strength and serving as a protection from sunstroke.

The Syrian Protestant College at Beirut is fuller than ever, having now on its roll 182 students. It has eleven American professors and instructors, beside seven native teachers, in different departments.

Joyous Happy

Children are indeed the greatest boon of mankind. The indispensable qualification for this condition is health, and it is the claim of the manufacturers, indorsed by hundreds, that Ridge's Food is the best food for a growing child. The use of Ridge's Food is invaluable as an alternate meal for the child, and the mother can often raise the standard by adopting it as directed. for invalids. In cans—35c. up. WOOLRICH & CO., on label.

ROOSEVELT PORTABLE

Pipe Organ,

We have succeeded after many years of study and experiment in producing a portable GENUINE PIPE ORGAN which fills the place between the best reed organ and the church (pipe) organ.

As the various pipes are secured in their places the instrument requires no setting up, but is at once ready for use when unpacked.

It can be sold at a moderate advance above the price charged by reliable makers for their better class of reed organs, and it is just what has long been needed for small Churches, Chapels, Lodges, Sunday Schools and the Parlor.

HILBORNE L. ROOSEVELT,
Manufacturer of Church Organs.
145-147-149 West 18th St. New York.
apr30 6teow

OPIUM MORPHINE HABIT EASILY CURED. BOOK FREE. Dr. J. C. HOFFMAN, Jefferson, Wash.

[illegible] TO introduce them, we will GIVE AWAY 1,000 [illegible] NATIONAL CO., [illegible]

Just Published.

ISAAC W. WILEY,

LATE BISHOP OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

A MONOGRAPH

Edited by RICHARD S. RUST, D.D., LL. D.

8vo. Pp, 240,

Portrait and Engraving of Foochow Mission Cemetery.

Beveled boards, Silk Cloth, $1.50.

This volume is now ready. It contains twelve sketches, prepared by as many different writers, each presenting a separate phase of the Bishop's history and character, as follows.

I. Early Life and Ministry, Henry A, Buttz, D. D., Madison, N. J.
II. Mission Life. Erastus Wentworth, D.D., Sandy Hill, N. Y.
III. The Educator. William V. Kelley, D. D., Middletown, Conn.
IV. Editor and Author. Bishop J. M Walden, LL. D, Chattanooga, Tenn
V. The Bishop. Bishop Stephen M. Merrill, D. D, Chicago, Ill.
VI. Residence in New England, Prof. Luther T. Townsend, D. D., Boston, Mass.
VII. Freedmen's Aid Society. Richard S. Rust, Cincinnati.
VIII. Woman's Home Missionary Society. Elizabeth L. Rust D. D., Cincinnati.
IX. The Philanthropist. Marshall W. Taylor, D. D., New Orleans, La.
X. The Literary Character. Samuel W. Williams, A. M., Cincinnati.
XI. The Orator. James M Buckley, D. D., New York.
XII. The Man. Isaac W. Joyce, D. D, Cincinnati.

These are followed by an account of the closing scenes of his life and the memorial services held in Cincinnati and elsewhere, with extracts from the editorial sketches published in our Church papers. The volume fittingly concludes with the prayer offered by Bishop Wiley at the close of the last General Conference. In the great variety of style and the topics introduced, as well as in the outlines of a life devoted to the cause of Christ and his Church, the reader will find no lack of interest, and will find much to profit and instruct. Send order at once. Put the book into the hands of your family, and into the Sunday-school library.

Cranston & Stowe,
Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis.

We want our ministers all over the South to send and get this Book. There is in it much which is of especial importance to our colored preachers and people.—EDITOR.

Central Tennessee College,

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE. Chartered in 1866.

Under the Auspices of the Freedmen's Aid Society of the M. E. Church.

—COURSES OF STUDY—

ENGLISH, NORMAL, BUSINESS, ACADEMIC, COLLEGIATE, THEOLOGICAL, MEDICAL, LAW AND INDUSTRIAL.
Pharmacy and Dentistry to be added soon.

More than twenty teachers connected with all the departments, and over four hundred students enrolled last year. Six buildings, conveniently and pleasantly located. The private rooms of the young men and young women are in different buildings.

Any person of good moral character may be admitted as a student, at any time, but it is better to enter at the beginning of the school year. Theological students are granted reduced rates.

Special attention given to training teachers.

The Session Begins Monday, September 7, 1885.
Medical and Law Departments, October 5, 1885.

EXPENSES—Tuition $1 per month, four weeks. Tuition, board, room, fuel, etc., school month, $8.50 to $10. Tuition for the session in Medical and Law Departments, $30.

For further information, circulars or catalogues, address.

j.15 REV. J. BRADEN, Nashville, Tenn.

KENTUCKY MILITARY INSTITUTE.

At Farmdale P. O., Franklin Co., Ky., six miles from Frankfort. Has the most healthful and beautiful location in the State. Lit by gas as well as heated by steam. A full and able College Faculty. Expenses as moderate as any first-class college. Forty-third year begins September 7th. For catalogues, etc., address as above.

COL. R. D. ALLEN, Supt.

jy23 6t

EDUCATIONAL.

COLLEGE OF

Physicans and Surgeons,

BALTIMORE, MD.

This school offers to Medical students unsurpassed clinical and other advatages. Send for catalogue to

Dr. THOS. OPIE, Dean,
jy8.1m 179 N. Howard Street.

Medical Department of the Tulane University OF LOUISIANA.

Formerly, 1847-1884, University of Louisiana.

Possesses unrivaled advantages for practical instruction, since the law secures it superabundant materials from the great Charity Hospital with its 700 beds, 8000 sick admitted and 10.000 visiting patients annually. Students are freely admitted to and are taught at the bedside of the sick, as in no other institution. For Circular or additional information, address

S. E CHAILLE, Dean.
P. O. Drawer 261, New Orleans, La.
jy8-1m

Washington and Lee

UNIVERSITY,

LEXINGTON, VA.

Instructions in the usual academic studies and in the professional schools of Law and Engineering. Location healthful; expenses moderate. Session opens Sept. 17. For catalogue, address "Clerk of the Faculty." G. W. C. LEE, jy8-2m President.

Law School

OF

WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY.

Gen. G. W. C. LEE, President.

Instruction by text books and printed lectures, with courses of lectures on special subjects by eminent jurists. Tuition and fees $80 for session of nine months, beginning Sept. 17. For catalogue and full information address Chas. A. Graves, Prof. of Law, Lexington, Va. jy8-2in

KENMORE

University High School,

NEAR AMHERST, C. H., VA.

FOURTEENTH SESSION begins Sept. 10, 1885 H. A. SUBODE (Math. Medalist, U. Va.), Principal, W. ARCHER, M. A. U. Va., in charge of Languages. A High [illegible] School. For circulars [illegible]

Albemarle Female Institute,

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA.

Full corps of superior teachers; course of instruction thorough and extensive; location healthful and accessible; scenery beautiful; surroundings most attractive; terms very moderate. Send for catalogue.

W. P DICKINSON, Principal.
je15-1m

Glendale Boy's School

A first-class Home School. New term commences Thursday Sept. 17th, 1885. Send for terms and circulars. E. A. HAIGHT, Principal, Kirkwood, Mo.

jy2 8t

Statue of "Liberty Enlightening the World."

The Committee in charge of the construction of the base and pedestal for the reception of this great work, in order to raise funds for its completion, have prepared a minature Statue six inches in height—the statue bronzed; pedestal, nickel-silvered—which they are now delivering to subscribers throughout the United States at One Dollar Each.

This attractive souvenir and Mantel or Desk ornament is a perfect fac simile of the model furnished by the artist.

The statuette in same metal, twelve inches high, at Five Dollars Each, delivered.

The designs of Statue and Pedestal are protected by U. S Patents, and the models can only be furnished by this Committee. Address, with remittance,

RICHARD BUTLER, Sec'y.
American Committee of the Statue of Liberty.
33 Mercer street, New York.

1855. THE NATIONAL NORMAL. [illegible] Tuition $2.50 to $5.00 a week. Over 1,500 [illegible] UNIVERSITY Over 30 dep'ts maintained. All professions represented. Legal Diplomas conferred. Over 1,000 [illegible] trained here have been helped to [illegible] Any [illegible] Man or [illegible] ready [illegible]

A BIRD OF PARADISE.

Would I describe a flame of finest zeal,
Such as Apostles felt, and seraphs feel,
Such ecstacies in ament and trait divine
Such tenderness and purity Wale were thine;
Time to cross an ocean of distress,
To dwell with Jesus in "the wilderness"
To taste the prophet's wormwood, grief and gall,
To complain with Job and symbolize with Paul
Bliss him to suffer pain, reviling, loss,
Yet glory in the conflict and the cross.
"Fightening without and fears within"
Certain,
Smile at reproach and triumph o'er pain
Pity the victim, see them upward move,
Love all below the sky, heart all love;
Loved such as many a holy martyr crowned
When the flame's fiery anguish wrapped him round;
A thread of duty, diligence and zeal,
Directed thy short life's revolving wheel;
Though brief and sharp thy pilgrimage of pain,
Heaven died, no hour escaped in vain;
Though earthly mortal, was thy moral race
The youth in nature was a sire in grace;
Early victor, death, in manhood's early bloom,
Met ripe for bliss he triumphed o'er the tomb.
Then when the crimes of graceless Heavens read,
And men by priests by sin were led;
Then on a car by flaming cherubs driven,
Conducted the pure, loves spotless soul to Heaven.

Domestic Hygiene.

By GEO. L. CURTIS, M. D.

"Alcohol has no place in the human system, but is an irritant poison."—Dr. Thos. Stewart, Washington, D. C.

"As I recollect, food is what puts strength into a man; a stimulant is that which takes strength out of him. * * * And, in fact, so far as I know English statistics, there are more men poisoned by alcohol than by all other poisons put together. We have great horror of arsenic and fifty other things, but in fact they are but a trifle in relation to the direct, immediate, absolute and certain suffering which is caused by alcohol."—Dr. James Edmunds, London.

"Alcohol is well known to the physicians of Mobile and New Orleans that the victims of yellow fever are [illegible]."

"Alcohol is a poison forever at [illegible]."—Dr. Thos. Stewart, Washington, D. C.

"Alcohol is a substance capable of entering into the composition of the blood, muscle, liver, or any part which is the seat of the vital principle."—Baron Liebig, Europe.

"Take a look at the whole course of alcohol from the first stage to the last, we can see no good when [illegible] is applied by [illegible] beverage. Every step that seems [illegible] is at best nonsensical; and every step that seems to be [illegible] is hurtful beyond anything I can express in this short work. In short, in whatever way alcohol acts on the body, whether it acts slowly and by successive stages, or rapidly, so as to produce all its evil action in one short charge, it acts as a reducer of the powers of life."—Dr. Richardson, England.

"Spirituous liquors of all kinds [illegible] fevers and [illegible] the diseases [illegible] to be caused by [illegible] are produced by the [illegible] tea, [illegible] wines [illegible]."—Dr. Rush, America.

"Alcohol [illegible] all intents a [illegible] poison, [illegible] the body [illegible] as it can."—Dr. Mark [illegible]

"Alcohol [illegible] subjected to alcohol [illegible], that is small or moderate [illegible] it does not kill. It [illegible] to the action of [illegible] they always be swallowed [illegible] a fatal dose."—Dr. Youn [illegible]

"Alcohol is not shown to [illegible] any food value by any [illegible] experiment."—Dr. [illegible]

"Alcohol [illegible] is a poison [illegible] to the [illegible] of all kinds [illegible] fevers and [illegible] the diseases [illegible] to be caused by [illegible] are produced by the [illegible] tea, [illegible] wines [illegible]."—Dr. Rush, America.

"Alcohol [illegible] all intents a [illegible] poison, [illegible] the body [illegible] as it can."—Dr. Mark [illegible]

"Alcohol [illegible] subjected to alcohol [illegible], that is small or moderate [illegible] it does not kill. It [illegible] to the action of [illegible] they always be swallowed [illegible] a fatal dose."—Dr. Youn [illegible]

"Alcohol is not shown to [illegible] any food value by any [illegible] experiment."—Dr. [illegible]

International Medical Congress in 1876 at Philadelphia.

"Alcohol is one of the commonest causes of death, ranking next to consumption."—Dr. Drysdale, England.

"Alcohol! that you are a rank poison; quite as much deserving that name as arsenic, hemlock, prussic acid, and strychnine. You have murdered our brothers and sisters; you are a murderer."—Dr. Ridge.

"The diseases of beer-drinkers are always of a dangerous character, and in case of an accident they can never undergo the most trifling operation with the security of the temperate. They almost invariably die under it." Dr. Edwards.

"The history of epidemics proves that pyritic diseases are from eight to twelve times more destructive among dram-drinkers than among the temperate classes; rich or poor, young or old, abstainers are only contaminated by diseases that decimate drunkards. On no other point is the testimony of physicians of all schools, all times and all countries, more consistent and unanimous."—Dr. Felix L. Oswald.

"I never suffer ardent spirits in my house, thinking them evil spirits. If the poor could see the white livers and the shattered, nervous systems which I have seen, as the consequence of drinking, they would be aware that spirits and poison mean the same thing."—Sir Astley Cooper, England.

"It is a mistaken notion that ale, [illegible] communicate strength, and it is disgraceful to see medical men endeavor to propagate the error."—Dr. O'Sullivan.

"Total abstinence from alcohol and all other brain poisons, as articles of diet and refreshment, is an imperative and personal duty."—Dr. McCulloch.

If you experience a bad taste in the mouth, sallowness, yellow color of skin, feel stupid and drowsy, appetite unsteady, frequent headache or dizziness, you are "bilious," and nothing will arouse your liver to action and strengthen up your system like Dr Pierce's 'Golden Medical Discovery.' By druggists.

The M. E. Church.

American Bible Society.

The stated meeting of the Board of Managers was held at the Bible House, on Thursday, May 7th, 1885, the Hon. E. L. Fancher, L. L. D., Vice-President, in the chair.

Religious services were conducted by Secretary Hunt.

Various communications from foreign countries were presented to the Board, including reports from several of the Society's foreign agents.

Appropriations for the work of translating, printing, and distributing the Scriptures in Persia, China, Russia, India, France, and South America, were made to the amount of $41,703; making the aggregate sum appropriated for the foreign work of the Society for the current year $72,850.

Grants and consignments of books were made for distribution in the United States and in other lands, of the aggregate value of about $12,400.

It was reported that one hundred and [illegible] colporteurs are now engaged in the work of the fourth general supply.

One Bible Society was recognized as auxiliary in Mississippi, and one in Iowa.

The total receipts for April were $28,283 44, and 117,250 volumes were issued from the Bible House during the same time.

The Annual meeting of the Board of managers of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, of the M. E. Church, will be held in Philadelphia, Oct 23, 1885. Delegates and friends of the cause wishing to attend are earnestly requested to send name and residence at once, to Mrs. Wm. Amat, 244 Baymiller [illegible], Cincinnati, chairman of [illegible] committee on transportation, that [illegible] may be [illegible] corresponding [illegible]

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my father; his name is Lewes Emperor Williams; his last owner's name was Wm. Evans; he lived in Goliad at the time he left. His wife is named Eliza Williams and she had three children when he left, step-daughters of his, whose names were Maria Skip, Sarah Skip and Lucy Skip, and an own daughter named Rachel Williams, who he never saw. Pastors will please read this to their congregations. He was a Methodist. Address Rachel Williams, Cuero, DeWitt county, Texas.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my wife's people. Her father's name was Cain Russell and mother Phoebe Russell. They belonged to Perry G. Russell, and lived near Mashulaville, Miss. They were living with him when the war closed, and left there with a man by the name of Jason Briant and went to Memphis, Tenn. Their children were Mary, William, Abbie, Selia, Dina, Lawrence, Henry, Elizabeth, Washington, and one named Bella who died. Mary and her husband left there, and said they were going to Ohio. We have never heard from them since they left. We left William and Abbie in Mashulaville. We are living near Wrightsville, Ark. Selia is my wife; she has been married twice. And information will be thankfully received. Address Jas. L. Triplett, Wrightsville, Ark.

JAMES L. TRIPLETT.

In the Southwest.

Rev. Edward Wills, founder and pastor of the Universalty street Baptist church, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I strongly recommend Parker's Tonic to my brother ministers and others. Two bottles completely relieve me in the case of a badly disordered liver, and general debility. It is splendid for nervous prostration.

Anarchy in Africa.

We learn from African travelers of the existence by custom, in some of the West African states, of a general anarchy and tolerated hostility during the interregnum between the death of a king and the enthronement of his successor. When the King of Ashantee dies, his women destroy his treasures, and general unrestricted license, robbery, and murder prevails in the country, and a similar season of disorder ensues on the death of the chief in Whydah, Benin, and other states. Waitz remarks, in his "Anthropology of Savages," concerning the duration and extent of this license: "Usage has limited the anarchy to a definite and short time, and it is admitted by all that the disorder in no way works a real dissolution of all social bonds, but is only to be regarded as a sudden relaxation of them which, notwithstanding that all sorts of outrage are let loose, is always controlled by custom, and induces no material damage to society." In Ashantee, the season of unrestraint may last for five days; in other states it may continue for a considerably longer time, as in Loango, where it prevails for months. In Dahomey, the death of the king is not made known for eighteen months, while the heir, assisted by the highest officers, reigns in his name during this whole period. The eighteen months seems to mark the time during which a legal anarchy formerly prevailed, though it may now have been done away with.—Popular Science Monthly.

Never profess to ask God for anything you do not want. Tell him the truth about yourself, however bad it makes you; and then ask him for Christ's sake to forgive you what you are and to make you what you ought to be. (John IV, 24.)

The latest tea-table luxury—Iced tea (a la Rose). [illegible] Delicious and refreshing. Try it. Druggists and Grocers.

OH! MY BACK
Every strain or cold attacks that weak back and nearly prostrates you.
BROWN'S IRON BITTERS
PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.
QUALITY P PURITY NOT QUANTITY
Trade Mark. Every Bottle.
THE BEST TONIC
Strengthens the Muscles, Steadies the Nerves, Enriches the Blood, Gives New Vigor.
DR. J. L. MYERS, Fairfield, Iowa, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the best Iron medicine I have known in my 30 years' practice. I have found it specially beneficial in nervous or physical exhaustion, and in all debilitating ailments that bear so heavily on the system. Use it freely in my own family."
Genuine has trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other. Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.
LADIES' HAND BOOK—useful and attractive, containing list of prizes for recipes, information about coins, etc., given away by all dealers in medicine, or mailed to any address on receipt of 2c. stamp.

Chautauqua Periodicals.

Chautauqua Assembly Daily Herald,

An eight page paper, printed on a steam power press on the Assembly grounds at Chautauqua, every morning during the meeting in August; 19 numbers in the volume, containing stenographic reports of more than 70 lectures on science, philosophy, religion and practical questions; besides reports of lectures, meetings, debates and classroom drills. An invaluable collection.

The first number will appear Saturday, Aug. 1.
Subscription price, $1 00
In clubs of five or more at one time, 90

THE CHAUTAUQUAN,

A first-class Literary Magazine. The organ of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle, containing one-half of the Required Readings of the course with the special department of Local Circles, Questions and Answers on the books in the course, C. L. S. C. Work and Notes on the Required Readings.

A Literary Department of great merit, furnishing articles from the foremost writers of the country. $1.50
Subscription price, 1.35
In clubs of five or more at one time
Vol. VI will begin with the October number.

Chautauqua Boys and Girls

A Daily Paper for the Boys and Girls, to be issued at Chautauqua in August. Pictures of Chautauqua life, fun, accounts of all children's meetings.
Subscription price 50c
In clubs of five or more, 40c

COMBINATION OFFER:

The Chautauquan and Assembly Daily Herald, $2.25
The Chautauquan, Assembly Daily Herald and Chautauqua Boys and Girls, $2 70

Address: DR. T. L. FLOOD, Editor and Proprietor. Meadville, Pa ja 25-8t

HEADQUARTERS
—FOR—
Sunday-school Supplies
Consisting of
GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with a without music.
Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, Bible Dictionaries.
Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books, Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Text Books, etc., etc. Also a large assortment of Books suitable for Libraries or presents to children. PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $2 65 to $12 00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock
W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent
94..... Camp Street, ...98
25tf NEW ORLEANS.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.
Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9-12, 1883.
Sixty Addresses by American Educators.
Edited by REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.
8vo. 272 pp. Price, stiff paper..$1.25
Cloth..... 1 75
The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:
1. Education and Man's Improvement.
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America.
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Pauperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War.
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—to tables.
It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents. The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak. The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index.
Sent postpaid on receipt of price.
Phillips & Hunt.
37 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

GRATEFUL PRAISE!
A NEW S. S. BOOK. By J. H. Fillmore.
Pure in sentiment, rich in music. Sample copy, in boards, 25 cents; per dozen by express, $3 60; per dozen by mail, $4. Specimen pages free.
FILLMORE BROS.
No. 185 Race street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

OLD ONE HUNDRED.
MRS. TENA BURTON,
[illegible] Franklin Street, [illegible] 10
Lodging
[illegible] Rooms [illegible]
mar26-6m

RAILROADS.
Chesapeake & Ohio R. R.
—VIA—
WASHINGTON
—TO—
BALTIMORE, PHILADELPHIA, and NEW YORK.
THE ONLY LINE WITH
Pullman Sleeping Cars
—FROM—
Louisville, Cincinnati and Lexington
—TO—
WASHINGTON
WITHOUT CHANGE.
Schedule in effect October 12, 1884.

EASTWARD.	No 4 Daily.	No. 6 ex Sunday
Leave Cincinnati	8 10 p m	8 30 p m
Leave Louisville	7 15 p m	7 00 a m
Leave Lexington	10 40 p m	11 45 a m
Leave Winchester	11 15 p m	12 25 p m
Due Mt. Sterling	12 08 a m	1 36 p m
Due Ashland	3 26 a m	5 55 p m
Due Huntington	4 00 a m	6 40 p m
Leave Huntington
Due Charleston	6 36 a m	10 00 p m
Due Clifton Forge	1 30 p m	6 40 a m
Due Staunton	3 57 p m	9 26 a m
Due Charlottesville	5 20 p m	11 05 a m
Due Richmond	9 15 p m	3 05 p m
Arrive Newport News	10 45 a m	6 20 p m
Due Washington	9 50 p m
Arrive New York	6 30 a m

WESTWARD.	No. 3 Daily.	No. 1. ex Sunday
Leave New York	10 00 a m	12 00 nt
Due Washington	5 10 p m	9 10 a m
Leave Newport News	3 50 p m
Leave Richmond	6 25 p m	9 35 a m
Due Charlottesville	10 00 p m	1 45 p m
Due Staunton	11 42 p m	4 57 p m
Due Clifton Forge	1 45 a m	6 40 p m
Due Charleston	9 00 a m	4 25 a m
Due Huntington
Leave Huntington	9 40 a m	6 20 a m
Due Ashland	10 12 a m	7 02 a m
Due Mt. Sterling	1 57 p m	11 05 a m
Leave Winchester	2 30 p m	11 45 a m
Arrive Lexington	3 2? p m	12 45 p m
Arrive Louisville	7 10 p m	5 2? p m
Arrive Cincinnati	6 05 p m	5 2? p m

Lexington Div. trains run by Central time. Mountain trains East of Huntington run by Eastern time, which is one hour faster than Central time.
Nos. 1 and 6 run daily, except Sunday. Sleeping cars between Huntington and Clifton Forge.
Nos. 3 and 4 run daily, and do not stop for local business. Pullman Sleeping cars and Solid Train between Louisville and Washington and Cincinnati and Richmond without change.
Nos. 2 and 5 run daily between Richmond and Clifton Forge. Do not run between Clifton Forge and Richmond.
No. 1 leave Norfolk except Sunday 2 40 a m, Old Point 8 15 a m, Newport News 8 45 a m, arrive at Richmond at 11 35 a m.
No. 2 leave Richmond except Sunday 8 20 a m; arrive Newport News 10 45 a m, Old Point 11 10 a m, Norfolk 11 45 a m.
Old Dominion steamers leave Norfolk on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or Saturday at 6 00 p m; arrive in New York next afternoon.
For Rates, Tickets, Baggage Checks apply to any office of C. & O. Ry. or Depot or Ticket office of connecting lines.
C. W. SMITH, Gen'l Manager.
H. W. FULLER, Gen'l Pass. Agt.

Ohio & Mississippi R. R
—The Direct and Fast Line to—
Cincinnati, Louisville, Washington, Baltimore, New York and the East,
In Connection with the
"Great Jackson Route,"
Makes the following
FAST TIME.

STATIONS.	Daily
Leave New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss.	12:38 a m
Canton	1:30 a m
Durant	2:52 p m
Grenada	4:50 a m
Coffeeville	5:25 a m
Water Valley	6:00 a m
Oxford	6:43 a m
Holly Springs	7:54 a m
Grand Junction	9:15 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St. L. & N. O	11:05 a m
Milan " " "	12:20 p m
Martin " " "	1:32 p m
Fulton " " "	2:00 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:30 p m
Carbondale "	6:58 p m
DuQuoin "	7:45 p m
Ashley "	8:28 p m
Centralia "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:26 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi	9:29 p m
" Louisville, "	6:50 a m
" Cincinnati "	7:05 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.
Passengers living on the line of the C. St. L. & N. O. R. R. will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O. & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.
The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.
2 DAILY TRAINS
FROM ODIN
To WASHINGTON in 27 Hours,
To BALTIMORE in 28 Hours.
This is 5 Hours quicker than the fastest time by any other line.
The Day Express runs entire train consisting of Day Coaches and Palace Sleeping Cars from St. Louis to Washington and Baltimore without change.
The Night Express has Sleepers through without change. No other line from St. Louis offers a Double Daily Through Train Service to the National Capital.
W. W. PEABODY, President and General Manager.
W. B. SHATTUC, General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio. jy31tf

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.
The old reliable route to all Eastern cities through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leaves.	Arrives.
Express	8:00 a m	7:45 a m
Coast Accommodation	2:35 p m	9:10 a m
Fast Mail	8:30 p m	7:30 p m

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. O. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.
W. L. Danley, Ticket Agent; J. T. Harahan, General Manager; John Kilkeny, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans, La.
[illegible] Superintendent, [illegible]

RAILROADS.
C. I. St. L. & C. 4
"KANKAKEE LINE"

4 PASSENGER TRAINS each way per day between Cincinnati and Indianapolis.
3 PASSENGER TRAINS each way per day between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Chicago.
2 PASSENGER TRAINS each way per day, between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette, Kankakee, Seneca and Davenport, Ia.
KANKAKEE LINE
Entire trains run through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Chicago. Pullman Sleepers and elegant Reclining Chair Cars on Night trains. Parlor Cars on Day Trains.
SHELDON ROUTE.
Commodious Reclining Chair Cars run through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Peoria, Ill., and Keokuk, Ia. Close connection for Burlington, Ia.
KANKAKEE & SENECA ROUTE.
The ONLY LINE running Elegant coaches through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Davenport, Ia.
CONNECTIONS
At Cincinnati, in Central Union Depot, with all trains of the Cincinnati Southern Railway (Queen & Crescent Route) thus avoiding the odious omnibus transfer incident to all other lines.
At Indianapolis, in Union Depot, with all lines diverging.
Through Tickets and Baggage Checks to all Principal Points.
Can be obtained at any ticket office C. I. St. L. & C. Ry., also via this line, at all Coupon Ticket Offices throughout the country.
Ticket Agents of this Company for tickets, Routes, &c., or write. Grant K. Lewis, Trav. Pass. Agt., Wilmore Ky.
JOHN EGAN, Gen'l Pass. and Tkt. Agent, Cincinnati, O.

BIG J Great Jackson Route.
Illinois Central R. R. Co.
Double Daily Passenger Trains.

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Passenger No. 2 9:15 a. m.	Passenger No. 1. 7:00 p. m.
No. 4 Express 6:00 p. m.	No. 3. Express 8:00 a. m.
Chi Express 6:00 p. m.	No. 5 Express 8:00 a. m.
No. 6 Sun Ex. 7:30 a. m.	No. 8 Sun Ex. 8:30 p. m.

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.
Ticket Office: Cor. Carondelet and Canal. (Pickwick Club Building.)
WM. MURRAY, General Southern Passenger Agent.
J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT KENNEDY, Ticket Agent.

C & O
The Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company have moved their ticket management and business rooms to No. 225 Fourth avenue.
C. O. & S. W. R. R.
THE SOUTHERN TRUNK LINE
—TO—
Louisville, Cincinnati, Washington, Baltimore,
And the Short Line to Cairo, St. Louis, Chicago and the Northwest.
The Direct Route to Eastern Seaboard Cities, Texas, Arkansas and the Southwest.
Chesapeake, Ohio & Southwestern R. R.
For Owensboro, Henderson, Paducah and Memphis and all points South and Southwest. Ticket office 225 Fourth avenue; Depot, corner of Fourteenth and Main streets.

	Express Daily	Accom Daily ex Sunday
Leave Louisville	7 50 a m	4 10 p m
Arrive at Guthrie	10 20 a m	6 45 p m
" Elizabethtown	10 10 a m	7 05 p m
" Grayson Springs	11 12 a m	.....
" Litchfield	11 23 a m	.....
" Central City	2 00 p m	.....
" Owensboro	5 05 p m	.....
" Nortonsville	3 27 p m	.....
" Hopkinsville	9 50 p m	.....
" Madisonville	4 37 p m	.....
" Henderson	6 10 p m	.....
" Evansville	8 10 p m	.....
" Tradewater	4 47 p m	.....
" Princeton	7 00 p m	.....
" Paducah	8 27 p m	.....
" Mayfield	9 29 p m	.....
" Fulton	10 45 p m	.....
" Cairo	10 45 p m	.....
" Rives	10 10 p m	.....
" Memphis	2 20 a m	.....
" Louisville	7 00 p m	9 35 a m

Tickets now on sale at depot at lowest rates. Call on or address R. H. TALLEY, Ticket Agent Memphis, Tenn.
Or B. F. MITCHELL, Gen. Pass. Agt. Louisville, Ky.

ARE YOU GOING TO
KANSAS, MISSOURI, COLORADO, CALIFORNIA OR ANY OF THE WESTERN STATES?
If so you should avail yourself of the advantages that are now offered by the Kansas City Route, the only direct route from the South to the West and Northwest. This line runs through entire trains, with Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars and free Reclining Chair Cars, from Memphis to Kansas City, saving many hours time over any other route. If you are going West you will save money by purchasing your tickets via Memphis and the Kansas City Route. Send for large map and folder, sent free. [illegible]
J. E. LOCKWOOD, General Agent,
81 Madison street, Memphis, Tenn.

General News Items.

It is good to get religious, but it [illegible]

Public Advocate, strictly partisan, bright and learned, generally educated.

The Chicago & Northwestern railway requires total abstinence on the part of employes.

It is said boiled water is best in cholera times, and freedom as to other articles of diet.

It dont pay to have one citizen in the county jail because another citizen sells him liquor.

The Methodist Messenger. A name that comes and brings good cheer from the door's hasta in the pal [illegible] when it comes.

In a Cologne court a person was recently fined $12 for refusing to take the oath, on the plea that he did not believe in God.

Dr. Dodgiass says Gen Grant is improved in his general condition, but suffers very much as the throat disease progresses.

It is a singular fact that nearly all the London newspapers buy their print paper in Germany, and nearly all the Paris newspapers buy their paper in England.

The Michigan Christian Advocate, has lost a bold and bull-ant editor, but it has not lost in the [illegible] consistency, accuracy of its religious views. The new editor understands and does the work perfectly.

The despised milkweed can be used to advantage. Its seed yield a finer oil than linseed, its gum is as good as India rubber, and its fiber resembles Irish poplin when spun.

The Khedive of Egypt has appointed a governor for Dongola in the Soudan, whom he cannot sustain in his government. Hon. Ahmed Suleman is King by force of arms in the Soudan.

Lieut. Greely says that of his nineteen men who perished in the most terrible journey to find the North Pole, all but one were smokers, and that one was the last to die. The seven survivors were non-smoking men.

At other African ports, a ship can take in or unload a cargo every day of the week, but in Liberia [illegible] work on the Sabbath day is forbidden by law. That is the result of Christianity.

[illegible]

[illegible] drink

[illegible] Druggists

[illegible] of ill [illegible] be removed at once [illegible] itself, [illegible] tagious. [illegible] study [illegible] and [illegible] record- [illegible] is that no poultry [illegible] remedies for certain [illegible] describing symptoms, [illegible] committed.

Loved by Ladies.

Dr. Tutt's delicate and delicious perfume is Parker's Hair Balsam they not only [illegible] this taste, but have an artistic [illegible] arrests falling hair, removes [illegible] restores the original color and [illegible] beautiful gloss, softness and [illegible] to all the times, is not a dye, [illegible] and economical.

Mr. W. D. Howells is engaged upon a new serial story for The [illegible] Magazine, to follow "The Rise of Silas Lapham," which will be finished in the August number. [illegible] of the new story [illegible] possible, during the [illegible] will be completed in [illegible] of the magazine. It [illegible] with the fortunes of [illegible] born in Boston, and with [illegible] of the [illegible] he has tried to help him [illegible] will therefore [illegible] one of the pecu- [illegible] of American life. [illegible] can be fresh, and [illegible] group than [illegible] usually begins upon [illegible] the novel. In the min-

[illegible] "Hunyadi Janos" [illegible] Bitter, [illegible] Sores, Pimples, [illegible] Eruptions, [illegible] long standing. [illegible]

Not Infirmities.

Bishop Foster, with a discerning eye and a fitness of the life and the profession, asks these close, pointed questions of those professing holiness: "Your tempers. How are they? Do you become impatient under trial; fretful, when chided or crossed; angry, revengeful, when injured; vain, when flattered; proud, when prospered; complaining, when chastened; unbelieving, when seemingly forsaken; unkind, when neglected? Are you subject to discontent; to ambition, to selfishness? Are you worldly, covetous of riches, of vain pomp and parade, of indulgence or honor, or ease? Are you unfeeling, contemptuous of others, seeking your own, boasters, proud, lovers of your own selves? Beware! These are the sediments of the old nature. Nay if they exist in you, in however small a degree, they are demonstrative that the old man of sin is not dead. It will be a sad mistake if you detect these evils within, and yet close your eyes to them and continue to make professions of holiness. These are not infirmities; they are indications of want of grace."

D. M. FERRY & Co., Seedsmen, Detroit, Mich., have sent us a copy of their Seed Annual for 1885. It is more beautiful and valuable than ever. The hints on the formation and management of gardens, as well as the cultural directions it contains have evidently been prepared by careful hands, and cannot fail to be of great service to all who garden, whether for profit or pleasure.

Summer Excursions.

To get the most pleasure, to recuperate or to store up knowledge are questions at this time engrossing the attention of people who wish to make each season yield them something in the way of health, pleasure or knowledge or all of these combined. The C. I. St. L. & C. Ry. (Kankakee Line) which is also known as the "Big Four," has placed on sale Summer Excursion tickets to Denver, Pueblo, and Colorado Springs in Colorado, Milwaukee, Madison, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Yellow Stone Park and the many other popular resorts in Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Dakota and Wyoming Territory. Call on or address the nearest Ticket or Passenger Agent, C. I. St. L. & C. Ry. for rates, routes, time-tables, illustrated guide books, etc.

W. H. PAGE, Trav. Pass. Agent, N. W. cor. Fourth and Vine sts. Cincinnati, O.
GRANT H. LOWRY, Trav. Pass. Agent, Wilmore, Ky.
JOHN EGAN, Gen'l. Pass. and Ticket Agent, Cincinnati, O. tan20

Many a victim to Bright's Disease has been restored to sound health by Hunt's Remedy.

The Morning Star a Catholic organ with strong denominational ideas is a welcome visitant to our sanctum.

To keep the doors open, the oil glands and tubes active and thus furnish an outlet for impurities in the perspiration and blood which cause humiliating blotches, blackheads, and minor skin blemishes; to cleanse, whiten, and beautify the skin; remove tan, freckles sunburn, and oily matter; to keep the hands soft, white, and free from chaps and roughness, prevent contagious skin and scalp diseases, and provide an exquisite skin beautifier and toilet, bath, and nursery sanative, redolent with delicious flower odors, and Cuticura healing balsams, is the special duty of the Cuticura Soap. Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great Skin Cures and Beautifiers, and Cuticura Resolvent, the new Blood Purifier, cure every form of Skin and Blood Diseases from Pimples to Scrofula. Sold everywhere. Price, Cuticura, 50c.; Soap, 35c.; Resolvent, $1.00. Potter Drug and Chemical Co., Boston.

Plantation Melodies
—AND—
REVIVAL HYMNS.

BY MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D.

WITH AN INTRODUCTION
By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.

Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.

Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and [illegible] sheet, post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents.

Address, PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez street, New Orleans

[illegible] "Hunyadi's Ointment," "Hunyadi Ointment" cures Tetter, salt [illegible] Sores, Pimples, Eczema, Eruptions, no matter [illegible] long standing.
may3-1y

M. E. Church Directory.

Southwestern Christian Advocate. Office 32 Natchez street.

LAFAYETTE STREET CHURCH—Rev. Elijah Clarke, pastor. Sunday services—Prayer meeting, 6 a m; Sunday-school, 9 a m; preaching at 11 a m; 3 p m, and 7 p m. Class meeting Tuesday night, at 7 o'clock; preaching Thursday night at 7 o'clock; Communion first Sunday evening of each month, at 7 30.

FIRST GERMAN M. E. CHURCH—Corner St. Andrew and Franklin street; Rev J. J. Kiehle pastor. Preaching at 10:30 a m, and Sunday-school at 2 p m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.

SECOND GERMAN M. E. CHURCH—Eighth street, Rev Charles Schuler, pastor. Services 8 o'clock at 10:30 a m, and 7 p m; Sunday-school at 9 a m; Prayer meeting Wednesday evenings at 7:30.

ST. MATTHEW M. E. CHURCH—On Varnet Street, Algiers, La. Sunday services: Preaching at 11 and 8; 7:30 pt night. Prayer meeting 6 30 in the morning. Class meeting Wednesday, 7:30 p m. Sunday-school at 1:30. R. C. Barrow, Pastor.

UNION CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Services: Sunday, preaching 11 a m., 3 p. m 7 p. m. Sunday school at 1 o'clock. Class meeting Tuesday nights. Preaching Thursday nights. Prayer meetings Friday nights. Stephen Duncan, Pastor, 12 Robinson street.

WESLEY CHAPEL—Liberty street, between Perdido and Poydras; Rev Marcus Dale, Pastor. Services Sunday 6 a m, prayer meeting, preaching 11 a m; 3 and 7 40 p m; General Class and Love Feast monthly; preaching Thursday eve, 7:30; Class, Monday eve.

SIXTH STREET CHURCH—Between Laurel and Annunciation; Rev. F. Lyon, pastor. Services—Public worship Sabbath 11 a m., 3 and 7 p m. Communion every second Sunday at 7 p. m. Sunday-school 1 p. m. Class meeting Monday evening. Preaching Wednesday evening. Prayer meeting Friday evening. General Class first Monday night in every month. Prayer service at 5:30 a. m.

CAMP PARAPET CHURCH—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, Pastor. Sunday services—Prayer-meeting 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Sabbath at 1 p. m. Class-meetings. Thursday evening.

HAVEN CHAPEL—JEFFERSON STREET, Carrollton, corner of Pine street. Rev. M. O. Mason, Pastor. Services—Public worship at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Sunday Sunday-school, 9 a. m. Class meeting Monday evening. General Class, second Sunday at 11 a. m. and communion at 7. Preaching Thursday evening.

New Orleans University A. P. Hoyt, M. A., Acting President 1428 St. Charles Street.

First Street Church—Rev. John Quinn, Pastor. Church corner First and Dryades Streets. Services: Sabbath—5 a. m., prayer meeting, 11, 3 and 7, public worship; communion monthly, on the first Sunday. Sunday-school 3 p. m. Class meeting Monday evening. General class every fourth Monday evening. Preaching Thursday nights.

MOUNT ZION M. E. CHURCH—James W Hudson, pastor. Regular services 11 a m, 3 and 7 pm; prayer meeting Monday eve at 4 p m. Tuesday night class meeting. Preaching Wednesday eve at 7 p m, and sacrament the third Sabbath of every month.

THOMSON CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Poet street, near Rampart. Sunday Services: preaching at 11, 3 and 7. Prayer meeting 6 in morning. Class meeting 3:30. Z. T. Gaydon, pastor.

AMES M. E. CHURCH—Rev Thomas Stalker, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sunday-school at 9.45 a. m. Prayer meeting, Thursday evening at 7 30.

PLEASANT PLAIN CHURCH—Perdido, bet Johnson and Prieur streets, Rev. W. P. Forest pastor. Services Sabbath: Preaching at 11 a m, 3:30 and 7:30 p m. Sunday-school at 9 a m; early prayer meeting at 5:30 a m; class at 5:30 p m; preaching Wednesday and prayer meeting Monday evenings. Sacrament every second Sabbath. Lovefeast quarterly.

General Church Directory.

CENTRAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Also College Church of Straight University A. M. A., corner Gasquet and Liberty streets, one block off Canal street. Services—Preaching Sundays at 11 a m and 7 p m; Sabbath-school 12:15 p m. Prayer meetings Tuesdays and Friday evenings at 7:30 p m. This church has a fine choir under good leadership, and is centrally located. Northern visitors and all true friends of the colored people are cordially invited to attend its services. Rev. G. W. Bothwell, M. A., pastor.

OUR CLUBBING LIST,
—1885—

Persons sending us cash with their orders can have the SOUTHWESTERN one year together with any one of the following publications, for amount opposite each as named:

Littell's Living Age	$9 00
Outing	3 00
Wide Awake	4 25
Babyland	1 75
Our Little Men and Women	2 25
The Pansy	2 00
Our Little Ones and the Nursery	2 25
American Agriculturist	2 50
Southern Cultivator	2 75
Popular Science Monthly	6 00
New York Medical Journal	6 00
Illustrated Christian Weekly	3 25
Harper's Magazine	5 00
Harper's Weekly	5 00
Harper's Bazar	5 00
Harper's Young People	3 00
American Reformer	2 00
Weekly Inter-Ocean	2 25
Babyhood	2 75

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez street, New Orleans.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS,

17 & 29 West 2d St., New York.

Have now ready

The History of the Negro Race in America.

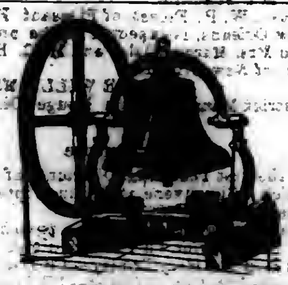
From 1619 to 1881. Negroes as Slaves, as Soldiers and as Citizens,

Together with a preliminary consideration of the Unity of the Human Family, and Historical Sketch of Africa, and an account of the Negro Government of Sierra Leone and Liberia. By George W. Williams, first colored member of the Ohio Legislature, and late Judge Advocate of the G. A. R., of Ohio.

Popular Edition; two volumes in one large octavo, with portrait on steel of the author, $4

"It is a prodigious compilation, so comprehensive that every student will welcome it, and so just in its whole scope that criticism of special points can not impair it."—World, New York.

"It ought to be read by every colored man in America."—Journal, Indianapolis.



"He has accomplished a noble service for his race."—Zion's Herald, Boston.

☞ This book can be ordered through the office of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, New Orleans, La.

CORPULENCY Recipe and notes how to harmlessly, effectually and rapidly cure obesity without need starvation dietary, etc. European Mail, Oct. 24th, says: "Its effect is not merely to reduce the amount of fat, but by affecting the source of obesity to induce a radical cure of the disease. Mr. B. makes no charge whatever, any person, rich or poor, can obtain his work gratis by sending 6 cts. to cover postage to F. C. RUSSELL, Esq., Woburn House, Store street Bedford Sq., London, Eng. may21-18t

A PRIZE Send six cents for postage, and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help you to more money right away than anything else in this world. All, of either sex, succeed from first hour. The broad road to fortune opens before the workers, absolutely sure. At once address, TRUE & Co., Augusta, Maine. ap12-26t

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.

Bells For Churches, Schools, Etc.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price.
24 inches	165 lbs	300 lbs	$35 00
26 "	200 lbs	350 lbs	45 00
28 "	225 lbs	375 lbs	55 00
32 "	375 lbs	550 lbs	80 00
36 "	525 lbs	750 lbs	100 00
40 "	800 lbs	1100 lbs	145 00
44 "	1060 lbs	1400 lbs	180 00
48 "	1335 lbs	1800 lbs	230 00
54 "	2050 lbs	2800 lbs	350 00

Bells for Schools, Farms, Etc. without mountings.

18 inches	75 lbs	$12 00
20 inches	100 lbs	18 00
24 inches	165 lbs	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named, which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.

The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.

On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.

Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.

VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.
mar5-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY,
The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.
Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,
TROY, N. Y.
nov24-1yr

McShane Bell Foundry

Manufacture the celebrated Bells and Chimes for Churches, Tower Clocks, &c., &c. Price-list and circulars sent free. Address
HENRY McSHANE & CO.
oct23-1y Baltimore, Md.

Baltimore Church Bells
Since 1844 celebrated for Superiority over others, are made only of Purest Bell Metal, (Copper and Tin,) Rotary Mountings, warranted satisfactory. For Prices, Circulars, &c., address BALTIMORE BELL FOUNDRY, J. REGESTER & SONS, Baltimore, Md.
apr30 26teqw

An Offer Never Equaled!

THE WEEKLY EDITION
—OF—
The TIMES DEMOCRAT,
NEW ORLEANS,
—AND—
THE WEEKLY EDITION
—OF—
The NEW YORK WORLD,
NEW YORK,
FOR ONE YEAR
Only $2.20.
OR
THE TWO WEEKLIES
—AND A—
Waterbury Watch and Chain
FOR $4.20.

Either Weekly alone is worth more than the price asked for both, as they contain reviews of the news of the world, a vast amount of select literary matter, exhaustive commercial reports, in fact everything is embraced that tends to make a

First-class Family Newspaper.

The subscription price to Weekly Times-Democrat alone is $1 50 for 12 months; 75 cents for 6 months, or 50 cents for 3 months.

Every family in New Orleans not taking the Daily TIMES-DEMOCRAT should keep posted in the

NEWS OF THE WORLD,

by taking these Weeklies, and as an inducement we offer a good serviceable watch for the small addition mentioned above.

The WATERBURY WATCH is a stemwindor, and will run twenty-eight hours. The case is NICKLE-SILVER and will always remain as bright as a new silver dollar. The Watch has a heavy beveled edge and crystal face. The works of the Watch are made with the finest automatic machinery. Every watch is tested in varying positions, and is perfect before leaving the factory. Each Watch is put up in a handsome new improved SATIN-LINED CASE, for safe transportation through the mails.

SUBSCRIPTIONS
Taken at the office of THE TIMES-DEMOCRAT, or by mail, when accompanied by subscription price.

For the Cheapest and Choicest
Family & Fancy Groceries,
SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE
Hams, Bacon, &c., &c.,
—GO TO—
N. E. Sullivan's GROCERY
Corner of
Washington and Hampson Streets
CARROLLTON, LA.
nov23-1y

PHILLIP SA[illegible]
Dealer in Fancy and Staple Groceri[illegible] Tea
Coffee, and Fine Fun[illegible] 503 Dryades Street, (near St. Andr[illegible] N[illegible] La.
jan1-1y

Crescent Insurance Company.
Incorporated as a Mutual Company in 1849. Re-organized as a Stock Company in 1[illegible]
CASH CAPITAL.....$600,000.
Has paid paid nearly TEN MILLIONS for losses since 1849. Annual and Term Policies issued on Desirable Fire Business.
W. R. Lyman, President, Chas. H. Dolsen, Vice President, Chas. E. Rice, Secy
TRUSTEES
Joseph Rowling, W. R. Lyman, S. O. Coulon, Lucien Delery, E. F. W. Bachman, Chas. E. Rice, Sam H. Kennedy, U Marioni, Harry L. Flash, Charles Newman, C. K. David, Joseph Kuhn, Geo. W. Santell, Chas. H. Dolsen, Wm. A. Phelps, N. D. Wallace, Wm. Ga[illegible] Chas. M[illegible]tney, Alfred Moulton, John Calder, J. Reid, Edmund Ke[illegible] Jas. T. Rodd, W. B. Ca[illegible] A. F. [illegible] Louis Pra[illegible] M. [illegible] Jo[illegible] Pa[illegible]
☞ See our Agents throughout the South

AN ADVERTISING AGENCY.

Newspapers.
Catalogue.
Advertisement.
Our Lists.
Estimates.
Printing Office.
Our System.
Payment.

We receive and keep on file over 12,000 Newspapers published in every State and Territory in [illegible]. Over 1000 Dailies alone arrive every morning. Each paper is examined by careful clerks and the insertions entered in record books. Under our system an advertiser is sure to receive the full value for his money.

We publish the "American Newspaper [illegible] a volume of 800 pages elegantly bound containing a complete list of the publications of every character in the United States and Canada. Our [illegible] give place of publication, [illegible] denomination, age and circulation. In it are [illegible] 14,000 periodicals. Sent free on receipt of [illegible]

We can secure the prompt insertion of any advertisement in any publication at the lowest attainable prices. We keep constantly invested over [illegible] space in the best lines of newspapers. Our [illegible] lists of Papers will be found especially useful in making up dists for pushing any special line of

We have, for the convenience of advertisers, made our Religious List containing the names of all the leading denominational papers with prices. Our Agricultural List containing the names of all the prominent agricultural papers with prices. Our Local List of 1500 Country City Weeklies and Dailies, arranged by States with publishers' prices and the prices at which they will take advertisements. These Lists are mailed free on application.

We will furnish to any reputable advertiser who will apply, an estimate showing exact cost of any proposed line of advertising, and when desired will make up lists and write advertisements, provided the amount desired to be expended is named. We have had large experience, and can suggest lines of papers best adapted to the wants of an advertiser.

We are constantly supplied with the newest styles of type best adapted to the display of advertisements. Send us your copy and we will return with [illegible] proof from type without extra charge.

Our organization for correctly following an advertisement in the newspapers is perfect, and our patrons can be assured that correct work from every publisher will be exacted.

To any advertiser entitled to credit, or any one who can furnish us proper references, we will extend any reasonable line of credit. Publishers pay us a commission for all the business we send them, and any advertiser can be assured of obtaining through us lower prices than can be obtained from publishers direct. In no instance do we charge advertisers any addition to publishers' rates.

Edwin Alden & Bro.,

N. W. Cor. 5th & Vine Sts., CINCINNATI.
140 Nassau Street, NEW YORK.

Newspaper Advertising Agents.

GEORGE LANDRY,

Undertaker.

293.....Rampart Street.....293
(Between Hospital and Barracks streets)
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Entrepreneur de Pompes Funebres.
All orders promptly and carefully executed at moderate prices.
sept25-tf A. LABAT, Ass't Manager.

J. T. Newman, M. D.,
—PRACTICING—
Surgeon and Physician,
315 Felicity Street,
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
☞ Makes a specialty of treating colored people. jan15-1y

E. W. Scheffel,
GENERAL
Book-Binder,
Ruler and Blank Book Manufacturer.
37 Natchez St., [up-stairs] New Orleans.
Magazines, Music, Periodicals and Old Books re-bound, Plain or Ornamental. jan22

Bibles at 1-2 and Old Testaments at less than 1-2 the prices of the English editions, and equal to the English in type, paper, printing and accuracy. First agent sent out reports an order at every call for four weeks. Rare chance for agents to make money. Send $1.00 for outfit. TERMS VERY LIBERAL.
The Henry Bill Pub. Co., Norwich, Conn.
may14-tf

WANTED LADIES AND GENTLEMEN who wish to make $8 to $4 a day easily at their own homes. Work sent by mail. No canvassing. Address with stamp Crown M'f'g. Co., [illegible] Vine St., Cin'ti, O.
jy15 4t

20 YEARS OF CONGRESS, JAMES G. BLAINE
1,000,000 Copies will soon be sold. The only history of our Government from 1861 to 1881. Hon. John S. Wise, M. C. from Virginia, says: "Whoever takes it up, no matter whether he be Mr. Blaine's friend or enemy, will never put it down until he has read the whole." $200 per month to good responsible agents. Apply at once, The Henry Bill Publishing Company, Norwich, Conn.
dec30-52t

PAYSON'S INDELIBLE INK.
No preparation and only a common pen needed. Established 50 Years. Superior and popular for decorative work. Received Centennial Medal & Diploma. Sold everywhere.
jan26-1y

ed29-2

AGENTS WANTED for Twenty Years of Congress,
1861—1881,
by James G. Blaine.
Hon. J. S. Wise of Va. says: "Whoever takes it up, no matter whether he be Mr. Blaine's friend or enemy will never put it down until he has read the whole." Agents make from $5.00 to $10.00 per month. Address, The Henry Bill Pub. Co., Norwich, Conn.
apr9-tf

Pianos & Organs
Of all makes direct to customers from headquarters, at Factory prices. All goods warranted. No [illegible] asked till Instrument are received and fully tested. Write us before purchasing. An investment of 2 cents may save you from $50.00 to $100.00. Address
JESSE FRENCH, Nashville, Tenn.
Wholesale Distributing Dep't for the South.
feb19-1y

AGENTS WANTED for the MISSOURI STEAM WASHER.
I want intelligent men or women seeking profitable employment to write for Illustr. Circular and terms of Agency. A great labor, clothes and soap saver. Exclusive territory and sample Washer sent on a weeks trial. Pays capable Agents Big Money. J. WORTH, St. Louis, Mo.
jan22 26t

CATARRH
{Send 50 cts. and symptoms for Trial Treatment, to last 20 days, by mail post-paid.} Which will convince the most incredulous that Dr. Bradfield's Catarrh Remedy positively and permanently cures at small expense, by a pleasant treatment, the worst cases of Catarrh, though the senses of the nose have become affected, causing Foul Breath, Offensive Breath, Sore Throat, Deafness, Hay Fever, Coughs, Bronchitis and Incipient Consumption. No Snuffing, douches, inhalers or atomizers used. Over 7000 cases cured. The best internal treatment ever discovered for this dangerous disease. Address Dr. C. J. BRADFIELD, M. D. [Mention this paper.] 820 FOURTH AVENUE, LOUISVILLE, Ky.
apr2-1y

It is THE GREAT SOUTHERN REMEDY for the bowels. It is only [illegible] pleasant and efficacious remedies for all summer complaints. At a season when violent attacks of the bowels are so frequent, some speedy relief should be at hand. The wearied mother lost of sleep in nursing the little one needing, should use this medicine. 50 cts. a bottle. Send 3c. stamp to Walter A. Taylor, Atlanta, Ga., for Riddle Book.

Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein will cure Coughs, Croup and Consumption. Price, 25c; and $1 a bottle.

OPIUM and WHISKY HABITS [illegible] at home with [illegible] particulars sent free. [illegible]

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.
...powder never varies. A marvel of purity, ... and wholesomeness. More economical ... ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in ... with the multitude of low test, short ... or phosphate powders. Sold only ...
ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co.
106 Wall Street, N. Y.

Sunday-School and Children.

QUARTER. STUDIES IN THE KINGS ... B. C. 940. Lesson IV. July 26 Elijah the Tishbite. 1 Kings 17, 1-16 Committ to memory verses 8-9.

(Prepared by Rev. B. Lyon, pastor of Sixth Street M. E. Church.)

Golden Text—So he went and did according unto the word of the Lord: 1 Kings 17, 5.

QUESTIONS FOR HOME STUDY.

What is the first we know of the prophet Elijah?

What was the message?

Why did God send such a message?

Where did God bid Elijah go as soon as he had spoken?

How did he live there?

Where did God send him after the brook dried up?

At the gate of the city whom did he see?

What did she answer?

What was she going to do?

Then what did the good prophet tell her?

What had the Lord said?

Did that poor woman have faith enough to obey?

What happened to her boy while Elijah lived with her?

What did God give Elijah power to do.

TALKS WITH LITTLE PEOPLE.

Perhaps some boy or girl who is studying this lesson will say, "if God would only tell me what to do as plain as he told Elijah all those things, I would be glad to do it." This letter I am writing to you now is speaking to you, although you cannot see my face or hear my voice, is it not? God as surely speaks to you in the blessed Bible. Everything you ought to do you can find there, and that you may understand it He has given you your parents and teachers to explain it. So, if you really want to obey, you can be as sure what he wants you to do as Elijah was. Will you change John 2, 5, by putting me in place of you, and I will answer the me?

Doctrinal suggestion—God's care over his people.

Rev. J. M. McCullough, after using LACTART for twelve months, writes thus: "If I had the making of the laws governing labor, I would require employers to provide LACTART as a daily drink for their help, thus improving their mental and physical powers. It would prove a financial investment."

Marriages.

At the residence of the bride's father, July 15, 1885, John Townsend and Miss Mehitable Merrick were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. M. Dale officiating.

Scarlet Fever and Diphtheria, ... prevented by contagion, by the transfer of living matter from a person suffering with the disease. These particles of living matter come from the skin, the membranes ... of the mouth, nose and throat, and from the intestines and urinary ... These infectious germs and ... of disease should be disinfected ... and thoroughly with ... Wood, the great ...

Obituary.

... Brown died June 15, ... of faith. He was a ... and ...

T. G. MONTGOMERY.

... leaving a mother one brother and two sisters to mourn her absence, but their loss is her gain. She had entered her 16th year.

H. ROBINSON.

"Isn't that Mrs. Holmes? I thought the doctors gave her up. She looks well now."

"She is well. After the doctors gave up her case she tried Dr. Pierce's 'Favorite Prescription' and began to get better right away. I heard her say not long ago that she hadn't felt so well in twenty years. She does her own work and says that life seems worth living, at last. 'Why,' says she, 'I feel as if I had been raised from the dead, almost.'" Thus do thousands attest the marvelous efficacy of this God-given remedy for female weakness, prolapsus, ulceration, leucorrhœa, morning sickness, weakness of stomach, tendency to cancerous disease, nervous prostration, general debility and kindred affections.

Conference Notices.

Plan of Episcopal Visitation.—1885. Fall Conferences.

[ALPHABETICAL.]

CONFERENCE.	PLACE.	TIME.	BISHOP.
Alabama	Edwardsville, Ala.	Nov 26	Mallalieu
Arizona Miss.	Tucson, Arizona	Sept 17	Fowler
Austin	Denton, Texas	Dec. 10	Foster
Black Hills Miss	Rapid City, Dak	Aug. 20	Ninde
Blue Ridge	Gastonia, N. C.	Oct. 1	Mallalieu
Bulgaria Miss.	Rustchuk, Bul.	Oct. 1	——
California	Stockton, Cal.	Sept. 3	Fowler
Central Alabama	Mobile, Ala.	Dec. 10	Mallalieu
Central China	Kiukiang, China	Oct. 14	——
Central German	Columbus, Ohio	Sept 10	Harris
Central Illinois	Fairbury, Ill.	Sept 24	Warren
Central New York	Syracuse, N. Y.	Oct 8	Merrill
Central Ohio	Pomeroy, O.	Sept 17	Harris
Central Tennessee	Shelbyville, Tenn.	Oct 14	Merrill
Chicago German	Manitowoc, Wis.	Sept 17	Bowman
Cincinnati	Cincinnati, O.	Sept 3	Harris
Colorado	Pueblo, Col.	Aug 20	Andrews
Columbia River	Spoke'n Falls	W. T. July 16	Walden
Dakota miss'n	Blunt, Dak.	Oct 8	Foss
Des Moines	Des Moines, Io.	Sept 17	Foss
Detroit	Pontiac, Mich.	Sept 10	Warren
East Ohio	Barnesville, O.	Sept 17	Foster
East Tennessee	Knoxville, Tenn.	Oct 22	Hurst
Erie	Sharon, Pa.	Sept 10	Merrill
Foochow	Foochow, China	Nov 19	——
Genesee	Lima, N. Y.	Oct 1	Hurst
Georgia	Milledgeville, Ga.	Nov 19	Mallalieu
Holston	Johnson City, Tenn.	Oct 15	Hurst
Illinois	Rushville, Ill.	Sept 17	Ninde
Indiana	Spencer, Ind.	Aug 27	Harris
Iowa	Mt. Pleasant, Ia.	Sept 10	Ninde
Japan	Tokio, Japan	Aug 20	——
Kentucky	Covington, Ky.	Oct 1	Harris
Michigan	Grand Rapids, Mich.	Sept 17	Warren
Minnesota	Rochester, Minn.	Oct 1	Andrews
Nebraska	Seward, Neb.	Sept 17	Andrews
Nevada Miss'n	Bishop's Ck.	Nov. Aug 20	Fowler
New Mexico miss'n	Santa Fe, N. Mex.	Oct 1	Fowler
" Spanish Peru	Las Vegas, New Mex.	Sept 24	Fowler
North China miss'n	Peoting, China	Sept 24	——
North Dakota	Wahpeton, Dak.	Sept 17	Walden
North Nebraska	Ponca, Neb.	Sept 3	Andrews
North Ohio	Berea, Ohio	Sept 3	Merrill
North-w German	LeSeur, Minn.	Sept 24	Andrews
North-w Indiana	Valparaiso, Ind.	Sept 3	Foss
North-w Iowa	Storm Lake, Ia.	Sept 24	Foss
North-w Swedish	Dayton, Ia.	Sept 3	Bowman
Norwegian Danish	Cambridge, Wis.	Sept 10	Bowman
Ohio	Delaware, Ohio	Sept 24	Foster
Oregon	Roseburg, Oreg.	Aug 27	Walden
Pittsburgh	Allegheny City, Pa.	Sept 17	Merrill
Puget Sound	Tacoma, W. T.	Aug 13	Walden
Rock River	Elgin, Ill.	Oct 8	Fowler
St. Louis German	St. Louis, Mo.	Sept 10	Foss
Savannah	Savannah, Ga.	Dec 3	Mallalieu
South Indiana	Greencastle, Ind.	Sept 24	Harris
South California	Santa Barbara, Cal	Sept 10	Fowler
South German	San Antonio, Tex.	Nov 19	Foster
South Illinois	Edwardsville, Ill.	Sept 24	Ninde
Tennessee	Gallatin, Tenn.	Oct 22	Mallalieu
Texas	Houston, Tex.	Nov 26	Foster
Upper Iowa	Toledo, Ia.	Oct 1	Warren
West German	Olaytonia, Neb.	Sept 3	Ninde
West Nebraska	Kearney, Neb.	Sept 10	Andrews
West Texas	Austin, Tex.	Dec 3	Foster
West Virginia	Charleston, W. Va.	Sept 24	Merrill
West Wisconsin	Dodgeville, Wis.	Sept 24	Bowman
Wisconsin	Waukesha, Wis.	Oct 1	Bowman

By order of the Board of Bishops.

WM. L. HARRIS, Secretary.

St. Louis, Mo., May 18, 1885.

Jackson District—Mississippi Conference.

Third Round.

Vicksburg ct	Aug	6
Vicksburg	"	8-9
Mayersville	"	13
Rolling Fork	"	15-16
Bolton	"	22-23
Edwards	"	29 30
Clinton	Sept.	1
Steen's Creek	"	3
Jackson	"	5-6
Jackson circuit	"	5-6
Canton	"	12 13
Canton circuit	"	12-13
Madison	"	14
Pelahatchie	"	17
Brandon	"	19 20
Trenton	"	22
Lake	"	24
Forrest	"	26 27
Morton, at Silvester	"	29
Hickory	Oct.	3-4
Conunkey	"	3-4

The first district conference for the Jackson district, Mississippi Conference, M. E. Church, will convene in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Bolton, Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, Aug. 20, 1885. A large attendance is earnestly requested to be present. J. M. SHUMPERT, P. E.

Morristown District—East Tennessee Conference.

Fourth Round.

Knoxville ct	Aug.	1-2
Clinton and Coal Creek ct	"	8-9
Greenville	"	15-16
Arcadia	"	22-23
Johnson City	"	20-30
Morristown sta	Sept.	5-6
Tazewell	"	12-13
Warrensburg	"	19-20
Russellville	"	26 27
Knoxville sta	Oct.	3-4
Newport	"	10-11
Mossy Creek	"	14-15
Dandridge	"	18-19

The district conference will be held at Coal Creek, in Anderson county, Tennessee, commencing on the 5th day of Aug., 1885, and the pastors will please try to bring up all of the assessments for benevolent causes to the district conference.

S. J. HARRIS, P. E.

Baton Rouge District—Home Mission Work.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Home Mission work for the Baton Rouge District, will commence Sept. 24, in Baton Rouge. The President of each auxiliary society is expected to be present with full reports. The following is the programme:

Annual sermon—S Priestley.
Difficulties of the work—Hester Williams
Pastor's relation to the work—R Thompson.
Pastor's influence in Sunday-school—C A Taylor.
[illegible] of the work by each auxiliary President.
Is the mission work [illegible] the children—Mrs. W Wells.
Are our women [illegible] in home mission work?—General discussion.
Does the mission work help the pastor?—M P Franklin.

Rev. W. P. Forest, of Pleasant Plains, New Orleans, is expected to be present, also Mrs. Marcus Dale and M. C. B. Mason, of New Orleans.

HESTER WILLIAMS,
District Manager Baton Rouge District.

Programme

Of the first Tennessee District Conference which will convene at Mason, Tipton co., Tenn., Aug. 25, 1885:

The opening sermon will be preached by W L Taylor, on Tuesday night.
Faith in the Holy Trinity—S B Danley.
The resurrection of Christ—J B Bradford.
Temperance—W L Taylor.
Will the soul be utterly destroyed—A F Line.
Regeneration—H Dunlap.
Purgatory—G G Harden.
Christian men's goods—R Palmer.
Steward's work—D Collier.
The sacrament—A Burdett.
Baptism—J A W Moore.
Methodist Literature—J L Massey.
Membership of the church—E M Mason.
Means of grace, part 1, chaptor 3—J F R Summerhill
The mission of the M E Church—J W Hall.
Church debts and how to contract them—G W Marsh.
Is there a hell?—A Swift.
The attributes of God—C L Fields.
How to conduct revivals—A Porter.

The local preachers and exhorters will choose their own subjects.

Our District Sunday-school Institute will begin on Friday. We hope to have all the charges represented by the superintendents, and statements of how he or she conducts Sunday school. Bring your journals, etc.

M. M MANON, Sec'y.
J. A. W. MOORE,
J. W. HALL
Committee.

Notice.

The Houston District Camp meeting, Texas Conference, to be held at the Asbury-Simpson Camp Ground near Harrisburg, will commence July 16. As all the preachers of the Houston district have had nine months notice it is expected they will be camped on the ground with their congregations the first day. As the ground is convenient for other districts and a part of the West Texas Conference we give all their pastors and congregations a hearty invitation to come and join us.

P. MORGAN,
Sec'y Camp Meeting Association.

Notice.

The Sunday-school convention will convene at Hempstead July 23rd. All the superintendents and pastors on each charge on the Navasota District are expected to attend. W. B. PULLAM, P. E.
Houston, July 2.

Chattanooga District—East Tennessee Conference.

Fourth Round.

Soddy	July	18-19
Big Spring	"	25-26
Ebenezer	Aug.	1 2
Sweetwater	"	8-9
Washington	"	15-16
Kingston	"	22 23
Robertsville	"	29-30
Chattanooga station	Sept.	5-6
Jasper	"	12 13
Riceville	"	19 20
Cleveland	"	26 27
Chattanooga ct	Oct.	3 4
Georgetown	"	10-11

The district conference will convene in Roane co., Tenn., Aug. 20, at 9 a. m., a full attendance is desired. The pastors will please notify the local preachers and exhorters, superintendents of Sunday-schools and class-leaders from each charge to represent the Sunday-school work and class meetings. All members of the district conference should come with written reports. E. PROVINE, P. E.

Programme

Of the Sunday-school convention to be held at Clark's Chapel, August 15, 1885. Come one, come all. A grand procession will march from the church to the grove. Services will be opened at 8 o'clock a. m., by Rev. C. H. Bullington, Address of welcome by G. G. Gordon.

Rev. B F Whitley—Needs of the Sunday-school
Dr. W H B Hard—Punctuality.
R T Gordon—The need of education.
J R Reasonover—Duty of the teacher.
A F Whitley—Progress of Negroes.
Rev. O Green—Duty of parents.
G L Oakley—Duty of the secretary.
G S Manier—How to conduct a Sunday-school.
R W Baird—Best method of teaching.
J C McKinley—Education.
C B Whitley—Temperance.
B J Anderson—Foundation of Sunday-school.
B E James—Benefit of Sunday-school.
Rev C H Bullington—Character of young men and ladies.
A C Allen—Should parents attend Sunday-school.
M Allen—Why young men and ladies do not attend Sunday school.

There will be a grand barbecue.

R. A. DOWELL, Supt.
G. G. GORDON, Sec'y.

Programme.

The following is the programme of religious and literary exercises of the Navasota District of the Texas Conference:

Opening sermon by Rev. J L Smith, assisted by F D Bookman.
To preach the missionary sermon—J K Loggins, assisted by L Felder.
On baptism and its nature—J E Shackleford.
On what is meant by "one Lord, one faith one baptism—B M Taylor.
Which came first faith or repentance?—W Hamilton.
What are the Gates of Heaven—W H Jackson.
What are the Gates of Hell?—A Thomas
What is the best method of reviving a Sunday-school—M Reddick.
Ought traveling preachers suffer during their ministerial work, and if so why ought they?—Thomas Cole and J S Whitaker.
What do the committee on missions of the annual conference mean when they apportion so much money to each district, and what becomes of said money?—F Gilmore and J H Holland.
Why are you a Methodist—W W Brown.
What is the highest office in the ministry according to scripture, and why is it?—R J Campbell and M Muldrew.
Is it right to preach funeral sermons when the person has been dead several years, and if so, why is it?—L H Horn and Silas Bowles.
Other members of the conference can choose their own subjects from the programme.

JOHN A. TILLORY,
A. ALEXANDER,
E. JEFFERSON.

Programme.

The following is the programme of the Sunday-school Convention to be held at Jefferson, Texas, Marshall District, July 17 18, 1885:

Model Sunday-school—Rev. R H Harbert.
How to organize a Sunday-school—W Wesley.
The Superintendent—Freeman Parker.
The model teacher—Scott Conley.
How shall we secure the attendance of the young people on our Sunday-school—Henry B Pemberton.
What and how shall we teach the young people—J R Price.
How can we get our parents to attend and love our Sunday-school—R Beaver
What relation does the Church sustain to the Sunday-school—A W Parker.
Reasons for studying and teaching the catechism in our Sunday-school—S S Reid.
The benefits of the black-board—Susie Nash.
How long should a Sunday-school session be held—DeWitt Frierson.
How to interest the infant class—Marina Roberts.
The importance of music—R H Harbert.
What Sunday-school helps should we use—Rev. W Ripetoe
Teachers meeting—W M Jackson.
How to improve our Sunday-school—W Wesley B S.
Bad habits of Sunday-school officers and teachers—H Webb.

A model Sunday-school will be held each day before the exercises, conducted by Rev. R. H. Harbert. All the pastors, superintendents and teachers on this part of the district are expected to attend.

This convention is to enliven and improve all our Sunday-schools. Those whose names are on for exercises are expected to make thorough preparation and write.

H. WEBB,
R. H. HARBERT,
FREEMAN PARKER,
H. B. PEMBERTON.
Committee.

Shreveport District Conference.

The following prominent ministers and brothers have been invited and are expected to be present, at least some if not all, viz:

Bishop W F Mallalieu, D D, Presiding Bishop; Rev. Dr. J C Hartzell, Assistant Secretary of the Freedmen's Aid Society; Rev. Dr. Marshall W Taylor, editor of the SOUTHWESTERN; Rev. Dr. A. E. P. Albert, presiding elder of LaTeche District; Rev. L P Cushman, presiding elder of New Orleans District; Rev. Emperor Williams, presiding elder of Latourche District, Rev. S Priestley, presiding elder of Baton Rouge district; Rev. T Stalker, pastor of Ames M. E. Church; Rev J W Hudson, pastor of Mount Zion; Rev. John Quarles, pastor First Street M. E. Church; Rev. A F Hoyt, President of New Orleans University; Rev. Reese Thompson, pastor at Baton Rouge; Rev. W P Forrest, pastor of Pleasant Plains; Rev. Marcus Dale, pastor of Wesley Chapel, New Orleans; Rev. J F Marshall, pastor at Alexandria, and others.

P. LANDRY.
Natchitoches, La., July 8, 1885.

Lexington Conference.

Brethren who owe on their subscription for our conference minutes will please remit without delay, by post-office order, to my address, and oblige,

HENRY W. TATE, Sec'y.
South Center street, Springfield, O.

Central Alabama Conference.

Marion District Conference will commence July 23d, at 8 a. m., in Tuscaloosa. Brethren will please try to be prepared to present every interest of the church. Local preachers will be prepared for examination on the course of study so that their license can be renewed. District stewards will please meet me promptly. On the second day the opening sermon will be preached, on the night of the 23d, by N. H. Speight. The quarterly meeting conference will be in connection with the district conference. Our church at Tuscaloosa is greatly in debt, and we hope to be able to raise at least $100 while there to help our friends and members there. We cordially invite the editor of the SOUTHWESTERN to be with us during the session, as I believe his presence would be of much interest both to his paper and our cause here in Alabama.

E B McCAULY, P. E.

For convenience and economy LACTART surpasses all other acid beverages and as a healthful, cooling summer drink it has no superior. All Druggists.

Mrs. A. T. Stewart has by deed conveyed to the corporation of the Cathedral of Incarnation, the Cathedral edifice with the Bishop's house and St. Paul's school at Garden City, Long Island. The property is evalued at $2,000,000, and the gift includes an endowment of $15,000 a year in perpetuity.—Ex.

LACTART [lactic acid] is a natural renovator—it exists in the mother's milk and in the gastric juices. It is not only delicious to the taste, but the most healthful of all beverages. Druggists and Grocers.

The Damoclean sword, which has been suspended over the theological faculties of France for some time past, has at last fallen, and has been partial in the selection of its victims. By a vote of 261 to 214 the legislative body has decided to abolish the Catholic faculties entirely, but, "for special political reasons," to continue those of the Protestant Church, depriving them, however, of their stipend.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; It produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
July 16-1y.

Hay-Fever.

The cause of Hay-Fever is obscure, but rationally we may conclude it owes its origin to the heat of the sun, but most likely it is due to the pollen of vegetation. It is a fact that Hay-Fever prevails most frequently when the various grasses are giving off their pollen.

We know that large quantities of pollen float in the air during the summer months, and that the number of cases of Hay-Fever depends on the amount present, which increases in warm damp weather, decreases when it is very dry and hot, and often disappears after heavy rain.

The most obvious course in the treatment of Hay-Fever, but not always the most easy one, is to avoid exposure to pollen. Sufferers from the complaint should avoid hay ricks and much exercise in the country during the hay season, and should remain to a great extent within doors. Where circumstances admit, change to the seaside is highly desirable and generally effects a speedy cure.

One of the most prominent physicians of the South, says: All treatment of Hay Fever heretofore has been found by the profession almost useless in preventing the recurrence of this disease, and I am fully satisfied that all internal treatment fails to control or even modify it. Our only hope to benefit that large class, subjects of Hay-Fever, is by the local application of such remedies as will in some measure control it. Last summer, just around my location, were five or six persons, great sufferers from Hay Fever, who in the height of the attacks were almost instantly relieved by the use of The AIR Medicator and Injector, a simple, inexpensive instrument, (manufactured by the MEDICATED AIR REMEDY Co., 36 Arcade, Cincinnati, O.,) charged with Iodine, Carbonic Acid, Quinine, Tincture Opium, Morphine or other known remedies, by this instrument the air (the natural element for the respiratory tract) is freighted or charged with medicines, and then with sufficient force to penetrate every passage or duct connected with the tract, it is pumped into the parts affected, thus carrying the needed medicines to the seat of the disease.

Without doubt, it is only by bringing into immediate contact with the mucous membranes lining the air passages, remedies that we know will abort the attacks and afford relief to the sufferer, that a cure can be effected. Experience has demonstated that the use of The Air Medicator and Injector laden with the above will abort it, and in no instance has it been found to fail.

A Sensible Style for Dwelling Houses.

A few words as to domestic architecture. Our rural dwellings are, almost universally throughout the country, of wood. In consequence it is difficult to overcome their box like appearance and identify them with the landscape. An average village, unless so embowered as to conceal its construction, looks too much like an accumulation of dry goods crates. The nearest approach to harmonization with nature is generally to be found in old weather beaten farm houses, nestling in their fields among the orchards almost as naturally as the great bowlders in the pastures. A landscape photograph into which the average trim dwelling intrudes is a proof of how trying to natural beauty is the usual abode of man in this country. Well-meaning efforts have been made to remedy this ugliness by the addition of adornment, which, however, being for the most part purposeless, and adding to the cost without any corresponding benefit, only aggravates the evil. The jig sawed work drops away, the gay paint washes off, and a distressing shabbiness ensues. Even when such a house is kept in smart repair, the change of fashion in "architectural millinery" makes it look ridiculous, like a woman with a last year's bonnet. Really good architecture, however, looks as well fifty years hence as it does to day, whatever the prevailing style may be. In building a house, the true way is to make its plan as convenient as possible, and let its exterior conform thereto. Symmetrical lines and good proportions give a house its artistic character, and not its ornamentation. The best houses are those which have little or no ornamentation for ornamentation's sake,—although useful features, like verandas, dormers, and bay windows, may serve the purposes of ornamentation. For a wooden house nothing more substantial, economical, or pleasing to the eye can be devised than one designed in good proportion, without any ornamentation whatever, and entirely covered with shingles, stained, perhaps in two or three tints. The stain, in wearing away will not become shabby, like paint, but the surface will assume weather-beaten grays, soft and harmonious, and slightly varying, according to the original hue. The stain may be renewed when desired, or the natural hues which Nature gives allowed to stay, as they have been imparted by her kindly touch. Then, as vines clamber over the walls, and trees and shrubbery grow up roundabout, from year to year the house will gain character as a home and become dearer to the hearts of the dwellers therein.—From Outing for June.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET.

SOUTHWESTERN OFFICE,
June 27, 1885.

LEADING STAPLES.

Readers will remember that the quotations given are for round lots, and higher prices must be paid for small orders.

COTTON, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 8½; Middling 9 15 16; Good Middling, 10 3-16; Middling, fair, 11 7-16.

SUGAR, ℔ lb—Yellow clarified, 5¼@5½; White clarified, 5¾@5¾; Common 4¼@4½; MOLASSES, in bbls, ℔ gallon—Common, 17@22; fair, 23@25; choice, 41@43c.

RICE, Louisiana, ℔ lb—Common, 4½@4¾ fair, 5@5¼; choice, 5¾@6.

MOSS, ℔ lb—Mixed, 2@2½; gray, 1@2; black, 3@4½.

GROCERIES.

BUTTER, ℔ lb—Western 20@21.

COFFEE, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 7½; prime, 9¼; CHEESE, ℔ lb—Western factory.—@9

CORN MEAL, ℔ bbl—Choice, $3.25.

FLOUR, ℔ bbl.—Fancy, 4.37½; Choice 5.15; Family, $5@—.

LARD, ℔ lb—Choice, 6¼.

SALT, ℔ Sack—Coarse, 70c.; Fine, 90c;.

ESCULENTS—Irish potatoes, ℔ bbl., $1 00@1 25; sweet potatoes, $2.50@ ℔ bbl. onions, ℔ bbl. $2 25@2.50; apples, ℔ bbl. $3 00@$4.00; cabbages, $2.00@$2 25 per crate; sour kront, $4.50@7 50 per barrel

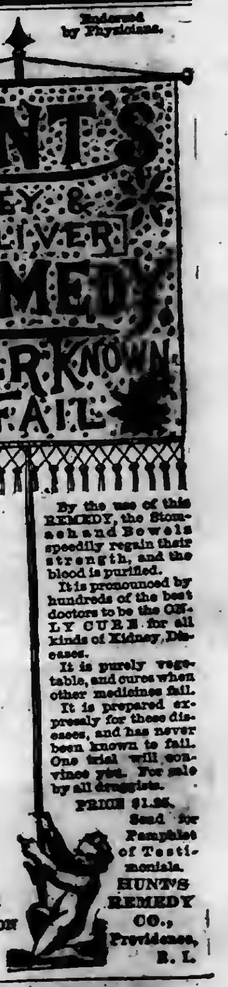
OILS, ℔ gallon—Coal, in casks, 18@—; coal, in bbl 13@—; linseed, raw, 26; boiled, 63@65; cotton seed, 28@30.

PROVISIONS

MESS PORK, ℔ bbl—Choice, $11.12½.

BACON, ℔ lb—Breakfast, 9½; shoulders, 6@—; sides, short rib, 6½; sides, long clear, 6¾; hams, sugar-cured, 9@9½.

DRY SALT MEAT, ℔ lb—Clear rib sides, 5.6; clear sides, 5.6; shoulders, 3.7@3.9.



POULTRY AND EGGS.

Louisiana Poultry—Grown chickens 3.00@3.27; young $1.50@$2.00; ducks, $2.00@2.50; geese $4.@$4 50; turkeys $9.@12.

Western Eggs 11@12c per dozen.

Louisiana Eggs 12@12½c per dozen.

Feathers—Best live geese feathers 40@55c. ℔ lb. second grades 15@25c.

Thirty Years Record. Endorsed by Physicians.
HUNT'S
KIDNEY & LIVER REMEDY
NEVER KNOWN TO FAIL

CURES ALL DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS LIVER, BLADDER AND URINARY ORGANS DROPSY GRAVEL DIABETES BRIGHT'S DISEASE PAINS IN THE BACK LOINS OR SIDE NERVOUS DISEASES RETENTION OR NON-RETENTION OF URINE.
By the use of this REMEDY, the Stomach and Bowels speedily regain their strength, and the blood is purified.
It is pronounced by hundreds of the best doctors to be the ONLY CURE for all kinds of Kidney Diseases.
It is purely vegetable, and cures when other medicines fail.
It is prepared expressly for these diseases, and has never been known to fail. One trial will convince you. For sale by all druggists.
PRICE $1.25.
Send for Pamphlet of Testimonials.
HUNT'S REMEDY CO., Providence, R. I.

CHRISTIAN
MEN and WOMEN Wanted
AS AGENTS
For the New and Fast-selling Edition of the
JAMIESON, FAUSSET & BROWN BIBLE COMMENTARY.
4 vols., nearly 4,000 pp. Maps and Illustrations. In cloth, $8; half morocco, $10 per set.
Best terms and exclusive territory. Permanent employment given after a satisfactory trial.
Jerome B. Names & Co.,
154 St. Clair street, Toledo, Ohio.
The work is heartily recommended.
mar5-39t

Send for Price List and Circular!
AUTOMATIC
"NO TENSION" SEWING MACHINE.
NOISELESS—LIGHTEST RUNNING.
Most Beautiful and Durable Work,
AND DOES NOT INJURE HEALTH.
Wilcox & Gibbs S. M. Co., 658 Broadway, N. Y.
nov6-18t eow

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 20---NO 31. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, JULY 30, 1885 WHOLE NUMBER 8

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

37 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor

Terms: $2.50 per Year, Cash in Advance; [illegible] Three Months, $1; to Pastors, $1. Six Months, $1; Three Months, 50c.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

All matter not of a business nature must be addressed to the editor.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time [illegible] 8 cents.
One month (4 times) 7 "
Three months (13 times) 6 "
Six months (26 times) 5 "
One year (52 times) 4 "
Marriages [illegible] 25 "
Special [illegible] 5 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

Thus had the old destroyed in his rage,
Bloated with envy thus and filled with wrath,
Entered our peaceful, hopeful heritage,
And scattered coals of hell about his path.
The horrid fires of discord, toll it not in Gath,
In God's own cherished husbandry are rife,
And threaten all our joyous hopes with death.
Up brethren, up, and quench the brand of strife;
Work, struggle, pray for peace and concord as for life.

The Baltimore Methodist always carries a heavy stock of good reading.

Agents must not allow people to receive, who do not pay for this paper.

Agents are advised to collect the papers' accounts sharply, and not to create a debt.

The Gazette Times can be classed with the best of the colored weeklies as a society paper.

If you have not paid for your paper this year or last, send the money to this office, or hand to your pastor.

The Virginia Critic sets sail for its second annual voyage of life with good indications of increased usefulness.

The New York Weekly Herald always brings a laugh with it. Its illustrations are alternately funny and [illegible], but ever instructive.

The minutes of the Delaware Conference, held in Salisbury, Md., May 28 to June 3, 1885, have been received. E. A. Monroe, secretary, Wilmington, Del.

We wish to keep a record of [illegible] and therefore request all who have [illegible] our friends [illegible] paper to notify us [illegible]

Whig is still [illegible] the Rev. Dr. Tucker [illegible] understands how [illegible] of free advertising.

[illegible] educated and [illegible] Africans [illegible] place.

[illegible] women who [illegible] qualified [illegible] Missionary [illegible] whom [illegible] available, is [illegible]

For the SOUTHWESTERN

The Methodist Men and Women's Mutual Aid and Beneficiary Association.

REV L. N. TAYLOR.

The Methodist Preachers' Mutual Aid and Beneficiary Society of the United States of America, Why was it organized?

All to whom it may concern—If you examine the minutes of our spring and fall conferences you will find that the salary of our ministers South and West do not average $500. That is what is promised; but the actual cash paid is less than $300. Nine-tenths of the present pastors are not receiving sufficient salary to enable them to take care of their loved ones now while they are young and in the vigor of their manhood, much less save up money for old age; therefore we are pressing forward to certain suffering and want if we are spared to reach old age, or if we die in our present condition we will leave our families without a home, and in some cases without the means to give us a decent burial.

You will also find that our superannuated preachers do not receive on an average of $20 a year. You will also find that the widows of our preachers do not receive on an average $12 per year.

This, we think, can be greatly changed, and that the benefits of those who have given all their time and life to our grand Methodism can be greatly increased by such an organization. This is one of the objects of this society.

Second—It was organized for the protection of the homes and families of our laymen, and to encourage them in their efforts to get homes, by organizing them into divisions of 5000 each, with their pastors, for the purpose of raising $800 by the small sum of 40 cents per month, to be paid thirty days after the death of a preacher or layman; said sum to be paid to their family or legatees.

Third—Because there is a popular demand for a society into which our wives, daughters, mothers, sisters and all of the better class of ladies and gentlemen can enter without coming into contact with all sorts of low and vicious persons, as is so often the case in our other societies, or some of them. To say there is no such demand is to say that there is no better class, and that the race has not made any progress in moral elevation in twenty years, which no man, who is acquainted with the facts, and has the interest of truth, and is right at heart, will affirm.

Fourth—Because, though the ministers and members of almost all of our churches are sick and tired of the present class of societies flooding the land, and they recognize them as financial burdens and moral cancers, yet they are in them. The pastor is there in order to check their demoralizing tendencies as much as possible, yet we cannot get our church members out of them until we give them something better. A society they want and will have, and bad men see that, and if we do not give it to the people they will, and that is the way bad men have gotten such a hold on the people. They have partially provided for a felt want.

Fifth—Because we believe that we, as their chosen spiritual teachers, owe it to God, the church, and the people we serve to unite and strike those fetters from them, and provide for them in a way that will save them money and educate them in economy and morality.

Sixth—Because we believe that the church whose ministry leads off in this work is the church which will do more to overcome the great evil, and to whose altars the more intelligent will crowd, and the church which will do the most to help the people to help themselves.

Seventh—Because we believe that if the same amount of energy that is being put forth now by bad men to induce our people to buy ribbon strings, badges, tinsel, swords, painted sticks, red feathers, bunting, banners, and a hundred and one other things, was put forth by good men who love the race and are zealous of its record, several million dollars more would annually find its way into real estate than there is doing so to-day.

The third question, Is this society a necessity? If what is said above is true, and we say it in the face of thousands—yes, more than six millions of people—fearless of contradiction; if what is said in regard to the salary of our preachers, the care of our superannuates and widows, is true, and we say it at the risk of being held accountable at the bar of our conference for truth and veracity, and yet we say it in the face of the records of the conferences, which can be had for $1 50, fearless of contradiction, and not at all uneasy about our ecclesiastical head, then it is necessary for us to do something for our protection against poverty and want when old age forces us to retire from the ministry. If it is true that there is a demand by the better class of our people for relief from other societies yet demanding a society that will give the necessary protection without demoralizing tendencies, and if our society can afford the relief sought, then it is a necessity.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

What Is Man.

A SERMON TO YOUNG MEN—REV. W. F. FRANKLIN.

Text: Ps., 8, 4. I. What man was. Some have claimed and vigorously advocated that man sprung from the lower species of animals such as the monkey and the ape, and attained his present state of intelligence and civilization through a long process of development. This is not the original man of which the Bible gives account. On the other hand, according to the doctrines of the Holy Writ, man leaped from the plastic hand of God, a full developed creature, with faculties capable of an indefinite degree of expansion. Though here to day and gone to-morrow, man is not the mere work of chance. Oh, the hand that created us is divine, and there is a divinity that shapes our ends, though fallen and degraded now it was not always so. Man was once in his beautiful Eden home, surrounded by everything calculated to enhance his comfort and promote his happiness, but at an unguarded moment the tempter came into the garden and whispered the voice of delusion in man's ears. He harkened to the siren song, and reached forth the hand of disobedience, and plucked the forbidden fruit, and all was lost. Driven out from that once happy home—misery, woe and desolation have marked their footsteps. The man we now see is only a type or shadow of the original man; but thanks be to God, through the precious blood of Jesus, we can eat of the tree of life, and live forever. Though cast away he is not forgotten; though downtrodden he shall be lifted up; though a stranger in a foreign land he shall return and come home to Zion with songs and everlasting joys upon his head. Well might the angels sing glory to God in the highest; on earth peace and good will toward all men.

II. What man is. Though man be fallen he is the crowning piece of mechanism. He is the grandest piece of machinery that walks the earth. In short he is the capstone of nature's great works; he is a giant in intellect; a monarch in reason; an emperor in thought. Look at his majestic form, his flashing eye, and classic brow. Man is a mystery to himself, of all the wonderful phenomena in nature. Man is the unsolved problem. There is an impelling force within him that propels him forward. He knows not what, therefore, the proper study of mankind is man. He can go back to the pyramids of the ancients, and walk down through the lapse of ages to the monuments of the present, and stand erect, and sweep with mental vision across the plains of the unknown future. When history lifted her luminous head and flashed her sparkling eye down the horizon of ages, man was there to carve his name; and so long as the wheels of eternity shall turn man shall act his part. Man is a restless being; his very nature is the law of progression. Like ethereal flames, and the upheaving billows, his aspirations ever ascend upward, but the higher he rises the higher will his horizon be. He can never reach his ideal standard. It is the nature of the immortal spirit to raise that standard higher as he goes from strength upward and onward.

Once more let us notice man. Behold him sailing over the billows of the mighty reef. Look at his steam cars sweeping across the plains and whirling through the tunnels of the mountains. Look at the magnificent temples, monuments of his architectural skill, lifting their domes skywards. Look at him reaching up his proud hand, snatching the lightning from the clouds, making it subservient to his purposes in bearing messages to distant lands. He made his name a tower of strength. Beneath his living voice kings quail and empires reel. He can grasp his pen in hand, and with one masterly stroke make the nations of the earth tremble. But after all what is man; a flower of the morning, a worm of the dust. He must at last stretch upon the death couch, and lift his dying eyes to heaven for aid. Oh! none but Jesus can do helpless sinners good. Then the great object of life should be to so live as we hope to die.

III. What man shall be. While our present man is only a shadow of the original man, he is but a type of the future man. It doth not yet appear what we shall be; but we know that when He shall appear we shall be like him; for we shall see Him as He is. We shall all be changed in a moment; in the twinkling of an eye shall put off mortal and put on immortality. We shall be disencumbered of [illegible]able, and be transformed after the blessed image of the son of God. With the true Christians this transformation is gradually going on under the sanctifying influence of the Holy Spirit. This world is far from what it is destined to be. Under the gentle influence of Christianity it shall yet bloom and blossom like a primeval Eden. This great change must be wrought by the promulgation of the Word of God, and God has said of his Word that goeth forth out of His mouth it shall not return unto me void. But it shall accomplish that which I please, and shall prosper in the things whereto I sent it. Oh! this Gospel of the son of God is destined to revolutionize the earth, and bring a revolted world back to God. Though man be fettered in the bonds of iniquity and steeped in the galls of bitterness the Gospel shall liberate and purify him; though he be plunged in the sea of despair, and buried in a slough of despond, the Gospel shall pluck him out, lift him up, and devote him to heaven; though man be defiled with sin and polluted with degradation, he shall yet stand out on the high plains of redemption, and be in favor with his God. Washed in the blood of the lamb, he becomes an heir of God and a joint heir with the Lord Jesus Christ. Now, in conclusion, dear hearers, we are hastening on to the judgment; we must soon press the dying pillow, and gasp in the icy arms of death. Then bury my body beneath the clods of the valley, or hide it in the mountain caves, or plunge it beneath the waves of the sea. I shall hear voice of love that quickens from the dead and come forth at the blast of the trumpet. Turfy graves shall burst, tombstones leaping, and dead bodies getting up to meet their God; while the wicked shall cry to the rocks and mountains to fall on us, and hide us from the face of Him that sits upon the throne; and the great day of His wrath. While the righteous shall fly away beyond the wreck of matter and the crush of worlds, and sing farewell to chaos and old night, and rest upon Zion's hill in the sweet fields of Eden, and bathe our souls in the perfect sunlight of our God. And we will praise Him throughout ceaseless ages. Amen!

Latimer Church, Steubenville, O.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Lexington Correspondence.

The large circulation of your paper in this section, and the interest manifested in the management by our citizens, prompts me to drop you a line from Old Kentucky.

We have not yet ceased to congratulate ourselves upon the honor paid our city by the presence of the teachers of our common schools during the last week. This marks an important period in the history of the colored people of Kentucky. The ability displayed in the able papers and in the frequent debates during the session, showed wonderful progress made by them; and this is all the more creditable when it is remembered that they have a very weak school system to aid them. A gentleman, whose opinions are worthy of note, and whose known sentiments are not such as to lend a color to the imputation of partiality, remarked that the ability displayed here in the essays and the discussions on points of school law, and the relation of government to people, would have been creditable to any officer of our State government. At the close of the session a grand reception was tendered Rev. W. J. Simmons, assistant commissioner of the New Orleans Exposition and the teachers. The reception was held at the Courthouse. When the guests had all been seated Mr. Z. R. Jackson, who conducted the ceremonies, introduced Mr. Henry Scroggins, proprietor of the "Curd," who, in behalf of the resident teachers and citizens, in his most happy manner welcomed the guests. A response was made by Prof. Simmons, who said he was proud of the part the colored people of Kentucky took in the Exposition, which showed great progress.

Mr. W. H. Perry, principal of one of the schools at Louisville, was then introduced and responded on behalf of the visiting teachers.

Rev. Marshall W. Taylor, D. D., arrived in our city on Saturday, and was the guest of Rev. W. H. Evans. He lectured to the Sabbath School on Sunday morning, and preached morning and evening to large and appreciative audiences.

By invitation he dined at the Gurd House with some friends on Monday. Tuesday he will join his family at Obannon, Ky., and very probably will attend the Grand Lodge of Old Fellows, which will be in session here during the week.

For the Southwestern.

Rev. Ira B. Griffin Dead.

[This sad fact has been already announced in the SOUTHWESTERN. This further action will show the high estimate his brethren put upon Bro. Griffin—ED.]

WHEREAS, A dispatch from Starkeville, Miss, announced the death of our beloved pastor, I. B. Griffin, who left us a few weeks ago for the springs. The sad event occurred on the 7th instant, but was not surprising, as Bro. Griffin had been in failing health for some time; and

Whereas, Bro. Griffin was loved and esteemed by his members for his many Christian attributes of heart and mind, and enjoyed the friendship and respect of a wide circle of acquaintances; therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the M. E. Church Sunday School mourn the loss of our dear pastor and teacher; that we found in him a man of God and a leader of men.

Resolved, That we deplore his death, although we bow in humble submission to the will of God.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with his family in their great bereavement.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE for publication.

A. CAMPBELL,
MRS. M. M. JOHNSON,
MRS. C. MIDDLETON,
Committee.

Winchester, Clarke county, Ky., has four colored churches, viz: Methodist Episcopal, brick; Colored Methodist Episcopal in America, frame; Missionary Baptist, frame, and Campbellite or Christian, frame. The Colored Methodist has the largest house, and the Methodist Episcopal Church the largest congregation. Both of the Methodist churches own their parsonages, and the two others rent. Rev. J. F. Hammins is the Baptist, Rev. Daniel Jones the Methodist Episcopal, Rev. Dennis Walker the Colored Methodist, and Rev. W. H. Huffman the Christian pastor. The Methodist Episcopal, — members; Colored Methodist Episcopal, 168; Missionary Baptist, 216. The Christian Church is supposed to have about 60 members.

Letters from the Pastors.

Rev. W. H. Jackson, Brenham Circuit, writes: "Elder E. Jefferson, of Hempstead, held our second quarter on the 23d and 24th, at Big Springs. It was a grand session. Part of the members were promptly on hand. Bro. Jefferson dispatches business with haste and satisfaction. While there is little said through the papers about Bro Jefferson he is the Methodist hero, and only expects his praise and reward from his Master in heaven. He is one of the first members in the organization of the Texas Conference. Report from the pastor in charge showed some spiritual work done, but financial work was very dull; with a promising outlook in the future. Bro. Jefferson met the Sunday School on Sunday, and its noble superintendent, G. W. Young, and said many encouraging words to them. In fact he preached as interesting a sermon as I have ever listened to, which I will send you for publication. After the sermon forty-four communed were baptised five infants. There was a collection of $5 10 for the presiding elder. Bro. Jefferson worked a new impression upon the minds of the stewards, etc. The pastor's salary is $300; that of the presiding elder is $50. Rev. J. H. Bailey, of the Missionary Baptist, was received on the elder's order. According to discipline we are praying for Bishop Taylor's success, and trying to collect some money for him.

Rev. A. J. Pickett writes from New Iberia: "We have a splendid little church about three miles from New Iberia. It was given to us by Sister Eaton, who has been a member of our church for several years. When I arrived here in February, 1885, I found her hard at work building this little church on her plantation. It is a very neat little church. We are now engaged in a protracted meeting. We have thirteen meaning souls at the anxious seat of Christ. Pray for our success. At St. John's Church, New Iberia, we had a grand time on May 1. We had two additions—one from the Baptist and the other from the Presbyterian Church. The people at New Iberia are stirring. They believe in going forward. They will do all they can for the church. They love the good old way.

Rev. J. J. Garrett, Forest, Miss., writes: "We have closed the saloons in our town. A minister was killed here in 1875 for working against intemperance. When I came here the people told me to have nothing to do with fighting whisky. I told them that was my mission. So I went to work and built a two-story lodge for that purpose. Then I turned five or six out of church for signing petitions, and now we are all right on that line. The pastor of the M. E. Church South, white, would come to my house at night and by day, and we would talk over the matter, and plan for effective work. We won the victory."

Rev. Robert Williams writes from Jacksonville Circuit, Texas Conference: "We have enjoyed our second quarterly conference. Our presiding elder, Rev. G. W. Smith, was with us and preached a wonderful sermon. Everybody was pleased with his sermon. The Lord's supper was administered to fifty-eight persons. We have paid the presiding elder $6 40, and the pastor $21 70. So pray for us.

Rev. Samuel Gates writes from Columbus, Texas: "I found my church preparing to give an entertainment to pay off the indebtedness of $44 75, which was contracted three years ago. The members and friends of the church gave liberally to the entertainment, but the inclement weather deterred many that would have otherwise attended. They cleared $17. I organized the Sunday School on the 21st, with sixty-four in attendance. I spoke a few words of encouragement to them. Bro. A. J. Johnson is the newly elected superintendent. He understands his business. We are well up to the time, and have a fine corps of teachers; most of them, however, are school teachers. Prof. D. P. Allen, the principal teacher of our day school here, is doing grand work. He is assisted by his daughter, who is teaching at Oak land. They are both members of our church, and they take great pleasure in working in the Sunday School. Their home is in North Carolina. At 3 p. m. I preached a sermon. The gathering was very good. At 7:30 p. m. the writer preached to a large congregation. Our church should be enlarged to accommodate our large membership. On Dec. 24 the Sunday School had their Christmas tree. Several very nice presents were received. On the 25th, at 8 p. m., Rev. R. H. Harbert, of the Texas Conference, exhibited scenes from the Bible in the interest of the Texas Conference School. On the 25th, at 3 o'clock p. m., Bro. Smith, of the Austin district, preached. Bro. R. H. Harbert preached at 7:30 p. m. The trustees are Bros. J. Zumwalt, M. Anderson, J. Tolan, J. Yancy and E. Eason. They are preparing and building more rooms to the parsonage. A committee of sisters, with Bro. E. Eason, chairman, are preparing two of the rooms with furniture and paper. My first quarter was held Jan. 3 and 4 by Elder P. M. Carmichael. All the brethren were on hand except one. Everything passed off nicely.

Rev. M. Reddicks, Brenham, Texas, writes: "Rev. W. B. Pullam held our second quarter May 16 and 17. The members of the conference were promptly on hand with good reports, showing great success. The presiding elder met the Sunday School and its superintendent and lectured to them at 3 p. m. He preached us a noble sermon as he always does. His text was, "But the path of the just is as the shining light." etc., Prov. 4, 18. It was truly mixed with holy fire, for many cried out amidst its burning. There were 125 communed. He preached at 7:30 p. m. another burning sermon, and many souls came forward for prayer. A collection of $16 15 was made for the elder. Owing to bad weather the collection was small. Our protracted meeting then closed, with five converts and ten probationers. Up to the second quarter they paid the pastor $110 10 and the presiding elder $36 45; total, $146 65. Missionary collection, $7 25. We are going forward to perfection. We are doing but little or nothing for the paper, but they say times are hard. I have not forgot it, however. Pray for us that we may build up our Zion."

Rev. J. F. Marshall writes from Alexandria, La: "We have lately been blessed with a glorious revival, during which nine professed religion and many others were awakened. While thus engaged the glad announcement that our resident Bishop and Sunday School agent, Bishop W. F. Mallalieu, D. D., and Rev. A. H. Gillet, A. M., would be with us on the approaching Sabbath, April 5, filled our hearts with joy and eager expectation. But his notice that on account of important business that required his personal attention prevented his coming at present, produced an effect to the opposite that is hard to describe. We were more than fortunate, though, in having with us a man so filled with the spirit of the Master, versatile and adapted to emergencies as the Rev. A. H. Gillet, our indefatigable Sunday School agent. With the assistance of our earnest and efficient presiding elder, Rev. A. E. P. Albert, all went off well, and the wish of the people is for the day that shall bring them together under so pleasant and encouraging circumstances again—the day when the Bishop does come. It was Easter Sunday, and beautiful and bright did the sun shine forth in brilliant rays, recalling to thoughtful minds the morning when the "Son of Righteousness" arose "with healing in his wings, and shed forth a glorious light of Gospel truth on a world of moral darkness and spiritual ignorance. At 11 a. m. the Sunday School, under the superintendence of Miss M. A. E. Thomas, received timely words of instruction and encouragement from Bro. Gillet, who, while adapted to any work of the church, sees in the Sunday School the best field of labor. The next hour for worship was 3 p. m. Rev. A. E. P. Albert preached the Resurrection sermon, and all present seemed to imbibe the theme with which the preacher was full. It was a time of great rejoicing. At 7:30 p. m. Bro. Gillet introduced and conducted the Chautauqua Sunday vesper service, and closed the services of the day with a sermon that left a deep impression upon the people from Hebrew 3, 19.

Rev. B. H. S. Ferguson writes from Pontotoc, Miss.: "Our first quarterly conference was held on Wednesday, April 8, and was largely attended. Elder D. A. Williams, our much loved presiding elder, was with us, and gave some good earnest instructions concerning Christ, his church, the M. E. Church, and its different principles, and was received with open hearts. All reports showed somewhat an attempt to improve. At night the elder preached to a large congregation, and administered the Lord's supper to about forty-two or more. Collections, $5 50; presiding elder, $14 75."

Rev. T. Larkins writes from Pineville, La.: "I was kindly and gladly received by the people at this place. The church is in good condition, with a good Sunday School, numbering sixty-five scholars. Eighteen persons joined the church on probation. We have just finished the belfry on the church. It is a fine job, costing $12, and is paid for. We are trying to save souls for Christ's kingdom. Pray for us. On the 5th of April our beloved presiding elder, Rev. A. E. P. Albert, was with us, and held the first quarterly conference. All reports were in order. The elder, at night, preached a good sermon from these words, found in the 16th chap. of Mark, 15th verse, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." It was a blessed sermon, and a happy time. Many came forward to the mourners bench to be prayed for. We are always glad to meet our presiding elder. He found everything in peace and love. Mr. John Watts, a fine man, good hearted, painted our belfry for us. All he lacks is religion. Our thanks are due him for his good works. Pray that he may be converted to the Lord. Our church at Avoca was blown down by a heavy wind Saturday night, April 11. We are going to work to rebuild it immediately. The brothers are not discouraged. They say it must be put up better than before by the Lord. Yours in Christ."

Rev. Columbus A. Jordan writes from Yazoo City Circuit, Miss: "I think your many readers would like to hear from this part of the Master's vineyard. At the close of the annual conference I was appointed to this work by Bishop Mallalieu. From the conference I came to my work, and arrived here on the 10th of February, and found the brethren waiting and looking for their preacher. They received me with gladness. I am happy to say that after being on this Circuit one year I went to the conference and was reappointed by our honorable bishop. I found every member anxious for my return. Our first quarterly conference convened on April 7, at 4 o'clock p. m. Dr. H. R. Revels occupied the chair. On account of the rain on Monday night all of the brethren were not present. But, however, we had a quite a large congregation, and everything passed off in order. The committee estimated the salaries as follows: Pastor, $135; presiding elder, $25 50; bishop, $5. Paid pastor, $13 60; paid elder, $5 25; collections for benevolence, $2 30; estimation for all benevolence, $12; received in full membership 1; by certificate, 1; excluded, 2. On account of the rain the elder did not administer the sacrament, but Rev. D. D. Goodwin came home on the third Sunday and administered the sacrament to thirty-one. At night we had a good old-time Methodist love feast. Many spoke for their Master, and our hearts were made glad and our souls rejoiced in the God of our salvation. At 11 a. m. Rev. D. D. Goodwin preached a soul-stirring sermon from Mat., 9th chap., verse 17. We are determined to do more for the Master this year than we ever have done before.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Truth.

W. H NELSON.

Truth is a term very broad and comprehensive. It is general and particular, and may be restrictive or unrestrictive in its nature and applications. When, really, a definition of it is sought terms used to define it go on to an unlimited degree. Properly speaking it is an indefinite, incomprehensible and infinite principle. When our Savior was in the world, Pilate once, while Christ was before him to be judged, asked him, "What is truth?" But this Roman Governor was so full of this world and all questions of less importance, that he did not remain to hear the great teacher say, after asking, what truth is. It may have been pleasing to Christ to have said more about it, had Pilate earnestly sought and desired it. Had Christ said more about it perhaps man today would have some more definite knowledge of it and of its sundry applications. Though, as it is, he is left to receive it in its broad and generic sense of application. He must receive it, imparted by Biblical instruction, as the all and important basis upon which the entire plan of salvation rests, and as the basis of all moral and ethical law in the world. To the disciple Christ once spoke of truth definitely, and yet very indefinitely (when his own character is considered) when he said: "I am the Truth." Here, to be understood as the truth, that teaches the knowledge of God and directs men in the way to Him. Christ is here understood as the truth in opposition to all false religion and theories then in existence. He was the truth in opposition to all shadows which were not the truth of God in the Jewish economy. But this single assertion is also more extensive and it admits us into the broader and more prolific meaning of the word. Generally speaking, men call real and reliable statements truth. The speaking that which is a fact and speaking it plainly without equivocation, the disposition to be reliable and certain, are in the more common and less technical sense called the motive, words, and action of truth. But it, more generally, has a broader meaning than that which is so shortly reached and comprehended. Christ being the truth and pattern for all to go by, it is to be readily concluded that all he says, does, or teaches, is the truth; what he has said, done, and taught, covers the whole sphere of man's duties and relations to man and to to God. Hence, in our further discourse, we would notice truth in two aspects; first, the value of truth to man, and second, the potency of truth in life. The first value of truth is light. It is a light because it maketh manifest. Without it there could be no manifestation or distinction between good and bad or moral and immoral. Just as the abstract principle of truth holds as the basis of ethics and religion, and guides them safely against all error, it likewise enters all secular learning and plays the vanguard in the hearts of scientists, and philosophers. Truth is the one and singular aim of the mathematician, and the scientist, aside from it, has no compass and is at any moment liable to be lost in the abyss of sporadic wandering, while the philosopher must needs bind it about his neck and write it upon the table of his heart if he would not appear simply ridiculous. Truth in general is to the world morally, what the sun is to the universe physically and materially—its life and preserver. But its prime object is the illumination of the benighted minds of men in the will of God and of their relations to him. No one would be able to approach unto God in holiness, or be made holy unless he had first been instructed in the Word. When Christ professed to be the truth that teaches the doctrine of God, he had reference to the word which was to be a light unto every man's path. That word was he himself and he was that word. So great is its lustre that men by it stand in perfected relations knowing just what to say, do or teach. They know their limits, when they trespass, and when they do not. (2) But when we come to consider moral codes, as such, their origin, development, and system, we find that in them truth is all and the keystone to the whole fabric. To the moralist, truth is an anchor sure and steadfast. It is his helm by which he steers the theories and deduces practical examples. Strictly speaking, there can be no morality aside from truth as a basis and process of development; for truth is morality and morality is truth. Whatever pertains to men's duties, and actions, is clearly seen by its appreciation. To the moralist, it is of a two-fold application. It first reaches him as a principle which contains man's highest interest. He, secondly, is to look into it and find that highest good and afterward set it forth forth in such a manner, that it may be utilized. The study of morality by the aid of the Bible (truth) and man's own observation, has been so systematically arranged, by the moralist, that it is both theoretically and practically set forth. Under this great arrangement of moral study, men are placed as free moral agents, with privileges to accept or reject whatever is prescribed or enjoined. This great liberty of man, determines, to some extent, man's relations to all and to the higher Power. He understands that he may act, choose, refuse, deny, or gratify himself of those things which one placed before him. It is by truth he learns the nature of a choice and how to seize the best. He takes by the same virtue the soundness of all subjects involving both good and bad and lets the unsoundness pass. The refuse always being clearly made manifest by the virtual appreciation of that which is reliable. Under no circumstances may man be without the best issues of life, if he but accept the whole truth as the first and ultimate concern of life. (3) In no department of life is truth in word and act more necessary and valuable than in legal proceedings. And yet it is true, that in no department is it more prevented, and so often changed into a lie. Respecting the action of men, there is to be seen too often in legal proceedings some concerted bribery. Men seem to forget what virtue, justice, and judgement, there ought to be in all these deeds. Truth is the only guarantee and perpetuating principle in law. Now a days only the man who has money may expect much favor of the law. The moneyed too often may expect favor even if they be the shedders of their brother's blood. They are too often loosened to go forth as champions of blood and vice. They too often find themselves honored in the homes and families of those who profess to be loyal citizens and Godly. As long as a Christian nation connives at the gross immoralities of lawless wrecks, it can never remove from it a foul blot and guilty blood. The poor, because he can't hire bribers and pay heavy fees to the attourneys, should not be driven away in his innocence as guilty, but should have every justice that truth would give in a Christian country. But regarding the words of men, they are too often brought upon the stand and there swear before the court with unlifted hand to heaven, which is to say God shall be their witness, and they answer to things of which they have no knowlege. Such untruthfulness turns aloose wickedness, and will sap the foundation of all law and order of society. How often do we hear of an impartial and just jury? The question, in my mind, is to whither shall a Christian nation drift whose legal system is perverted with lying. God says the wicked shall not, though hand joined in hand, go unpunished. Too often is the name of God used just too keep up the custom in administering the oath. There should cease to be so much perverting of truth by falsifying witnesses. There should cease to be so much ungodly bribery, and there should be conscientious truth, fair, square, and honest dealing both with the rich and the poor.

(4) Equally essential is it to all business transactions and affairs. No man can in commercial relations be too careful to observe truth backed by strict honesty. In all the various transactions both general and particular, there is an evident phase of its valuableness. For men may not be always together, nor where they may see after their income which must be entirely entrusted into the hands of others, who are thus reached. These trusted ones, are steward who at certain seasons, are to give an honest account of their stewardship. Then it behooves them to work faithfully and report truthfully. (5) Nowhere is truth more essential than in the church. There it is to be seen in many phases. The church is called the pillar and ground of the truth. Then it is needed to perpetuate in each and every department, the life, influence, and character of Christ. There it is needed to keep out all sin, error, and false doctrine. Then it is needed to characterize the life of every member and to be a designating mark by which the whole society may be known. Then it is needed to consolidate a discipline by which, as a rule, men shall go and when deviating, by it be dealt with. Truth in the church is to be defined in the lines of all its members, as the essence, virtue and ground of their faith, as set up in the world, they form their lives by it, they thereby live in others whom they draw from error.

(6) Life, individual, without truth is a failure in spite of itself. For, first, truth being the basal stone as well as crown of all moral and virtuous living, men are unwilling to accept the statements, positions, and person, of those who do not value it. But, secondly, men who do not value their own person and words, are rarely willing to trust themselves, hence they cannot be trusted. They are often found without plans, reasons, or motives in life; thus going to no end nor height. Washington it is said, so valued the truth in his personal character, that he never told a lie and when slow on a certain day to come to his army his men began to prepare for his burial. But how few men are so exact. So many appoint and disappoint. They say at such an hour and fail behind several. Reliability cant be too highly prized. Whenever a man allows himself to become unreliable, he soon sinks into the lowest scales of humanity, and unless very energetic and reformative, never rises again to the original level.

Secondly—We notice secondly, that truth has a great power for good. It is mighty as being invincible. It is so in its nature, in its teaching, and in its application. It always accomplishes something which it leaves as a crying result. It goes over every individual life, rectifies and keeps it. And in a mighty force it comes to the entire universe, as the only correction for human error. And however anxious men may be to thwart its mission to them in their sins, or into the world at large to correct, reprove, and doctrinate, it will in spite of all resistance, make its port. It will come to bring light to shine in darkness and such a light as will be the life of men. From the nature of its teaching and the invincible effort to reach every one, it can never be turned. It does not only have its fruits; but sets them forth to be garnered by all who will partake of them. Even as an overcoming current it sweeps the earth and fructifies the whole.

It may be considered potent because indestructible under any contrary force. It may be crushed to the earth, but in due time will rise again. It may be hid and so closed that it will appear as false, yet it will professedly unvail its face and come to the light of itself. It may be murdered and buried in in the sands of time, but its resurrection is certain and sure to come claiming the victory. No unquenchable fires, no tortures, no persecutions, and wrathful anathemas, no time nor eternity, no strategem nor satire, can destroy truth or cause its lustre to be totally eclipsed. Truth is an eternal and immortal principle; having its origin in eternity, it must survive time and return whence it come to abide forever. It has never been abashed nor frustrated. It has led its thousands to give their lives for its sake choosing to testify to it rathes than live. It has led its thousands to prison and opened the doors to their joys It has seized the hearts of many thousands of Luthers, Wesleys, and compelled them to move with agitating shakes, all of Christendom. It has caused many thousand scientific hearts of intellectual research, to bow at its throne and utter things strange to be heard. These principles of truth have been blasonly brought forth often as in the case of Galileo on the earth's rotation, to receive only rebuke and stigmatizing; nevertheless, they have been uttered and have won their signal victories. Whenever any one becomes taken with its burden it preys upon him until he delivers, "Truth crushed to the earth will rise again."

Truth will live and survive all error. It must be noticed that it is relatable to error in two ways. First it must be on amicable terms, with it, and secondly, it must work to overcome and supplant it, wherever found, truth is the best and only exponent of error and without it no man could separate himself from the evil or error. There are always to be found two principles, a right and a wrong offering themselves to man and always at the same time. They may be seen and known to conflict. These opposites, truth and error, continue overcoming and being overcome in every man's life less or more. But truth is destined to survive finally, even the dissolution of the world. These conflicts are in the moral strife of life, and they are always many, while there is but one ground on which each may lawfully stand, and there is but one guide, which is the truth in hand. It is potent in as much as it is characteristic of God. It is in theology given as one of God's attributes of perfections of nature. Hence it is divine and heavenly. It is begotten of heavenly originality. Man must look for it where ever there is to be seen the righteousness of God. When one finds himself standing under its overture, he realizes, at once, himself to be in a world of fact, in a world of duties, and in a world of immortal realities for time and eternity.

Marion Ala.

How women Differ from Men.

At least three men on the average jury are bound to disagree with the rest just to show that they've got minds of their own; but there is no disagreement among the women as to the merits of Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription." They are all unanimous in pronouncing it the best remedy in the world for all those chronic diseases, weakness and complaints peculiar to that sex: it transforms the pale, haggard, dispirited woman, into one of sparkling health, and the ringing laugh again "puts supreme" in the happy household.

A man in Indiana killed so ... at a single shot. He used a ... shotgun, but only ... barrel.

The ... are upon us and ... as well as the most delic...

The M. E. Church.

Wrecked Churches.

We have more than once called attention to the necessity for a "Special Relief or "Emergency Fund," for the aid of churches upon which unforeseen and unavoidable calamities have fallen.

In September, 1881, a devasting fire swept over a large section of northern Michigan, leaving only a blackened path of indiscriminate ruin. Churches, school-houses, and dwellings were all gone, and the people left in helpless poverty. We were constrained to aid in re building the churches, and within the next two years appropriated for that purpose, by donations and loans, over ten thousand dollars, going much beyond the amount authorized for that conference, but "necessity knows no law," and the work had to be done.

Our Manual for July, 1883, contains a report of the aid furnished to the church at Deadwood, of the joy of the people when it was completed, and then of their disappointment and despair as the church, with the very ground upon which it stood, was swept away by storm and flood, leaving where it stood the bed of the new channel made by the mountan torrent. Appeal was made to the Church at large, and we did what we could to repair the loss, but they have not yet recovered from the effects of that calamity.

We are now called upon to trace along the map where the crosses show the churches aided by our Board the track of the hurricane of Sunday night, June 14. On the morning of that day happy families gathered in these churches to celebrate Children's Day. Gladness reigned there as elewhere, but the night brought the fearful storm, leaving desolation and death in its track. We take from our table a few of the letters which have reached us from this scene of ruin.

Mount Hope, Nebraska, West Nebraska Mission.—It might be called Mt. Despair now. With a donation of $200, they had built a neat church. Rev. A. Collins, pastor, writes June 16:

Our peautiful little church at Mt. Hope was utterly destroyed by a terrific wind storm. We had spent a delightful day with friends and Christians, who had come early in the morning for the appointed services. All felt it was good to be there, and rejoiced together that we had such a pleasant place of worship nearly ready for dedication. It is now in ruins, and we are again left a flock without a fold. Our people expended all they could command in the erection of this church, and are willing to mortgage the crops of the coming harvest if they can replace it, but this cannot be done without aid from abroad. Can the Board of Church Extention help us in this emergency? We shall await your answer with great solicitude. We are offered $125 for the foundation and the wreck. If you cannot help us we will sell and return the money to you, as we feel in honor bound to do. Shall we sell or rebuild?

A special relief or emergency fund would enable us to respond promptly, and have these brethren in their church before snow flies, but we have only the amount regularly authorized by the General Committee for use within that mission, and that is all promised. What shall we do? If every pastor would take this collection and secure the full amount asked, our contingent fund would help solve the problem. "Will they do it? We must answer this appeal, but all promises must be kept. And this is not the only case.

Ponca, Nebraska, North Nebraska Conference. We gave them $250 and loaned $250 last year with which they were building a church by our plan No 7, at a cost of about $4000. The pastor, Rev. James B. Priest, now writes:

Sunday night, June 14, our quiet little village was struck by a hurricane from the south west, and our fine new church, just completed and soon to have been dedicated, was blown to the ground and completely ruined. It was a brick structure, built after Church Extension plan No 7. We had just held our Children's Day concert—a delightful service—but our church is now a mass of ruins. It was insured against fire and lightning, but not against wind, so we are without insurance and have a debt of $1000 due your Board. I have tried to rally our forces, but up to this time it seems almost a hopeless case. We dare not increase our debt. We will do all we can, but nearly all our members have suffered more or less from the storm. Not to rebuild is death to our society, and to rebuild without aid is impossible. Can you not help us in some way? Is there not some special emergency fund from which you can aid us? If possible for the sake of Christ's children, help us!

The presiding elder of the district, Rev. D. Marquette, says in this case:

The district will do what it can for the relief of Ponca. Our District Conference has pledged $114, and many will lend a helping hand but we cannot hope for the full amount needed. Is there any provision by which you can help in such an emergency? Have you a contingent fund from which relief might come? It is difficult to conceive of circumstances that call more urgently for sympathy and help. Can you give us any encouragement?

Every one who reads these lines will feel that a prompt and generous answer should be returned, but words will not meet the case. Money is required. One generous collection in every church would provide the means for the needed response. Dare we go on faith that the collections will be every-where taken? But here are other cases.

Marcus, Iowa, N. W. Iowa Conference.—In 1881 we helped these brethren, under the frontier plan, by donation of $250 and loan of $250. They had completed their church and returned the amount borrowed. Now the pastor, Rev. L. C. Woodford, sends this sad message:

Our church in Marcus is a shapeless; total wreck from the tornado that swept this country Sunday night, June 14 Children's Day services were the last held in the church. We were insured against loss by fire, but not against wind.

A terrible hail-storm accompanied the wind and the crops are fearfully injured. Our membership is small, and nearly all have suffered by loss of property—houses, barns, fences, etc., besides injury to crops—so that it will be utterly impossible to rebuild without help. We have started a subscription; and already brethren are coming up nobly, giving three or four times what they are really able to do. We have sold the wreck for $170 and have on subscription $850. To this we may be able to add $200 more but that amount is insufficient, and time must be given on some of our subscriptions. What can you do for us? A gift of $500 would cause us to triumph gloriously. Can we have it?

How gladly would we answer "Yes" if that would furnish the money; but it will not. These letters drive us back upon the treasury only to find that the amounts regularly authorized for the work within the Conference have all been promised and we have presumed largely upon the "Frontier Plan." Yet something must be done.

Eagle Grove, Iowa, N. W. Iowa Conference.—With the aid of a donation of $250 and loan of $250 an excellent church was built by our plan No. 5 B, in 1882, at a cost of $2,000. They had recently enlarged and beautified it at an additional outlay of about $1,000. It had been re-opened the last Sunday in May, and two weeks thereafter, with the room beautifully decorated with flowers, amid singing of birds they celebrated Children's Day. Within a few hours the church was a total wreck. The pastor, Rev. Charles B. Winter, sends to his brethren and fellow-laborers a most touching appeal. He says.

Here we are, a society not four weeks old and weak financially. Every member and friend in the community having within the past two weeks strained every nerve to lift the last dollar of indebtedness on the building and improvements, yet we are without a house to worship in. Under no circumstances could a loyal Methodist preacher give up in despair, and especially with the prospects which we have here as a town and church in the future. But what shall we do? My brethren and sisters meet me on the ruins of the house of worship, and say, "By the blessings of God we will build again." The majority of the society have given every dollar they can for the present.

By a wise provision of our official board we were insured against wind-storms in the sum of $1000, and have that as a nucleus for a building fund. We cannot build for less than $3000.

The presiding elder, Rev. R. C. Glass, writes concerning this case and others:

The most destructive storm that ever passed over northwestern Iowa visited this section the night of June 14. Three of our churches in this conference were totally destroyed, and some others badly damaged. It was not a cyclone, but a wide spread hurricane. May its like never visit us again!

The circular appeal of the pastor at Eagle Grove tells the sad story of that church. There is nothing left for us but to rebuild. Many of our people and of the community at large have been so damaged personally that they cannot help, so we are in greater need of aid from the Board of Church Extension. What can you do for us in this extremity? Let us hear from you at an early date.

We reply to all these letters and appeals encouraging the brethren to arise and build, looking for such aid as we may be able to give; and that we may help with some measure of generosity, we reproduce their appeals in the Manual. We confess that these letters make us feel very much as we imagine a mother would feel with her children crying for bread with the flour to make it still growing in the harvest field. She would look anxiously to the coming harvest. So we look to the approaching conferences for the annual collections. Dare we hope for such increase as will enable us to respond to those extraordinary calls? What a great relief it would be if some wealthy layman would send generous offerings for the creation of an emergency or special relief fund out of which we could respond promptly and generously to such distressing appeals.—Manual for July.

LACTART, delicious with water and sugar only—25 and 50 cents. Druggists and Grocers.

Rhode Island—The Constitutional Amendment passed the Senate, 31 in favor, none against; and the House, 53 in favor, none against. It must now pass the next Legislature before being submitted to the people.

SPRING FEVER

At this season nearly every one needs to use some sort of tonic. BROWN enters into almost every physician's prescription for those who need building up.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

Trade Mark. Quality Not Quantity. On Every Bottle.

—THE BEST TONIC.

For Weakness, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it HAS NO EQUAL, and is the only Iron medicine that is not injurious. It Enriches the Blood, Invigorates the System, Restores Appetite, Aids Digestion. It does not blacken or injure the teeth, cause headache or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do

Dr. G. E. BENLEY, a leading physician of Springfield, O., says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its action excels all other forms of iron. In weakness, or a low condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity. It is all that is claimed for it."

Genuine has trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other. Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

Larger size 32-page Book—useful and ornamental, containing list of prizes for reading, information about colleges, etc., sent only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., Baltimore, Md., on receipt of 2c. stamp.

Human Calves.

An exchange says:—"Nine-tenths of the unhappy marriages result from human calves being allowed to run at large in society pastures." Nine-tenths of the chronic or lingering diseases of to-day originate in impure blood, liver complaint or billousness, resulting in scrofula consumption (which is but scrofula of the lungs), sores ulcers, skin diseases and kindred affections Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" cures all these. Of Druggists.

The Journal of Education for June has an interesting article on the education of the colored people by Wm. O. Rogers, the editor. He advocates industrial education as a requisite for the natural progress of the race in the South.

For Pionies, excursions and yatching try LACTART. .25 and 50 cents. Druggists and Grocers.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches.
History of the U. S.—Ridpath	$3 00
Scripture History.—Smith, (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net	60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) Net	5
History of Methodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.)	3 00
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Edition of 1884
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol. 1) sett	5 00
Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs	2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scripture chapters I XXX—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol 1) sett	7 50
Plain Account of christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill, Net	1 00
Written Sermons.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
Christian Purity—Foster	1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. (chapters XXI-LII)—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology.—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
Lessons in Logic.—Stevens. Net	40
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged).—Stevens	3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory	85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church Vol. II.—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII.—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope. Vol. III.	7 50
Atonement in Christ.—Miley	1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn	2 50
Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Homiletics.—Kidder	1 50
Written Sermon
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst	3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters XIX XLIV Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Theological Institutes Part II.—Watson	3 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written Exegesis
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St Paul.—Conybeare and Howson (Abridged Edition)	1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry
History of Rationalism.—Hurst	3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst	$ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884)
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.—Walker	1 25
To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St. Paul.—Fletcher	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill	1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst	50
Ancient History.—Thalheimer
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	3 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged Edition).—Stevens	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible. Sacraments
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield	2 50
Plain Account of christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill	1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven	90
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol I.) Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Nast.	5 00 1 25
Era of the Protestant Revolution.—Seabohn.	75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII—Wakefield	2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.)	45
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons Vol IV. Articles of Antinomianism.—Fletcher	5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher	2 50
Protestant Foreign Missions.—Strickland	1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez St. New Orleans.

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-Talks, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Pictures Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1885 at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Expressly for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful pictures.

Our Little Men and Women

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY,

An Eight page Weekly, for Boys and Girls

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day or Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, JULY 30, 1885.

Agents are held responsible for all subscriptions, and we need the money. Begin collections now; do not wait until conference time.

The Current, covered, handsome, convenient, versatile, pure and beautiful. It will always supply the best literary taste.

The minutes of the Virginia Conference, Bishop Foster presiding, E. H. Vaughn, secretary, have reached us. It is a neatly executed piece of workmanship. Thanks.

The Princess Beatrice now has her $30.000. That is probably fair, but nothing to boast of when you come to consider the disadvantage of being born for a throne. "Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown."

The Fourth of July was well celebrated in Lexington, Ky. The United Brothers of Friendship paraded with banners and music, and afterwards had a picnic in the Colored Peoples' Fair Ground, where some excellent addresses were made.

Le Roy Sunderland died at Hyde Park, Mass., on the 19th ult., aged eighty three. He became a Methodist preacher in 1823, and for many years was an eloquent preacher and anti slavery leader. He finally became an infidel, and died an enemy to the church.

The Louisville Hotel requires waiters to uncover when passing, but in lieu of compliance the old crew had the dignity to walk out. American blacks, poor and all, raise their hats and bend their bodies only to God, ladies, and distinguished gentlemen, none of whom demand it.

NEW TRACTS—Pocket Series.—119, "Songs in the Night," by R. H. H., 12 pp., 10 copies 8c, by mail 10c; 120, "A Well-Drilled Man," by Rev. Wm. V. Kelly, D.D., 16 pp., 10 copies 11c, by mail 13c; 121, "The Roller Skating Craze as Seen in the East," by Rev. J. M. Buckley, D.D., 8 pp., 10 copies 6c, by mail 7c; 122, "The Rink Mania," by Rev. Arthur Edwards, D.D., 8 pp., 10 copies 6c, by mail 7c; 123, "A Furor of Folly," by Rev. C. W. Smith, D D., 8 pp., 10 copies 6c, by mail 7c.

European Sociology.

Speaking of foreign etiquette, Harper's Bazar says: "It must be remembered in visiting Rome that a party, a dinner party in particular, cannot be agreeably arranged if the 'blacks' (!) and 'whites' (!) are invited together." We do not know what this means, but presuming that it means what it would mean if spoken of New Orleans instead of Rome, it is in conflict with some things we have been told about the unprejudiced condition of European sociology. There is a previous condition which degrades the "black" in the mind of those who were enabled by his docility to put him in it. Until by Titanic effort he is able to wipe out all the effects of this condition in himself, his black color will be regarded as the symbol of inferiority. Should he attempt to avoid this affect by escaping from the color itself, it will be evidence that he believes his misfortune is his color rather than that his circumstances are. Hence there is nothing to do but to hold on to the color and rise so high above the circumstances as to give the color a new and honorable significance, just as Crowther, Blyden, Toussaint, Dessalines, Garnett, Gaines, Stephens, Delaney, and many others have done. Rise above the present condition, and carry the [illegible] as you go; its vindication, its [illegible] its resurrection. We don't [illegible] a law, but to redeem [illegible]

Our Colored Chieftains.

Is a new chart, well executed and contains the pictures of 23 persons, five of whom are white and eighteen Negroes. The whites are Lincoln with Congressmen O'Hara and Smalls on either side of him. These are followed by the hers of Vicksburg, Donaldson and Appomattox alone. At the bottom is a renowned trio, Sumner in the centre, with Garrison and Phillips on each side of him. By what law of the use of words these white philanthropists and heroes are called "colored chieftains we fail to ascertain from the chart or otherwise. Douglass, Lynch and Bruce for the upper trio. Greener and Price are at the top; then Bishop Payne and Prof. Brawley; after them Prof. Page and Henri Herbert. On the right, looking from bottom, we have Pledger, Hood, Langston and Dickerson, the second and fourth from the bottom being Bishops. On the opposite side is Bishop Turner, Judge Gibbs, W J. Simmons and Col. J. Lewis. Then there are pictures representing the announcement of freedom, a cotton field in bloom, troops in battle, Jubilee Hall of Fisk University, the National Capital, Lincoln's crumbling monument, and his immortal statue. Eight inscriptive tablets, with crossed flags, a tri colored shield supported by a screamer held by an eagle; it is an ingenious design and has several really great men—some great for what they have accomplished for the race, some for what they have accomplished for themselves; some for what they have said, some for saying nothing. Some are well known, some need not be. Some are well versed in Scripture, and one, at least, in polka. All of them are men of which the race has no established cause to feel ashamed. As to their chieftainship, taken as a whole, that is quite another, and it would be a serious matter if they made the statement sincerely and anybody believed them.

The world will agree that some of them are leaders of men, and in an important sense, first of their race, Douglass, Payne, Dickerson, Turner, Greener, and our own Col. Lewis, are large men. Others have made a good start, but their peer could be easily found, and the number multiplied by thousands. Since they were at it we recall a number who might, possibly should have been. Why, there is Cromwell, Crummel, Tanner, Arnet, Williams, Pinchback, Clarke, Downing, Fortune, Straker and Gratious. How many more among the living, and since they went among the dead what array of names the tomb suggests. One or two falls saved them from being all mulatto men, and earned the Antillian title colored rather than Negro, but that is only a little innocent pleasantry, since every one will distingnish the Negro type clearly enough in the most of them. We do not know what use the proceeds of the sale of this chart is to be applied to to the endowment of a chair for the creation or invention of colored chieftains in the future lest by any mishap the race might run out, and these become the last of their line. Cromwell started to give us a number of single pictures suitable for framing, each forming a group of one, so that we could select. It is to be hoped that this will be done, as we really need wall ornaments of men of our own race along with the others. Fiske University should feel complimented, and pay well for such an advertisement.

Gen. U. S. Grant.

Gen. Grant died peacefully at Mt. McGregor, New York, last Thursday morning near eight o'clock. Says the Evening Chronicle, of New Orleans: "America is sad to-day. The soul of the greatest commander that ever led her soldiery to battle has departed from its earthly tenement. It was not his privelege to fall at the head of her troops, under wounds inflicted by a vulnerable or a valorous enemy. He was pursued by an insidious [illegible] stretched beyond all human power to combat, and which hour by hour sapped the strength of an iron constitution, and taxed the indomitable courage of its possessor. Crowned with the highest civic and military honors by his country, and during his career the recipient of every possible form of affectionate regard, Ulysses Simpson Grant has been cut down before Time in his sixty third annual visitation could whiten his honored head.

Gen. Grant was born at Point Pleasant, Clermont county, Ohio, April 27, 1822, the eldest of six children of hard working parents. He entered West Point Military Academy at the age of 17, and in 1843 graduated twenty-first in a class of 43, receiving a commission as brevet second Lieutenant. He served in the 4th Infantry eleven years, and was in every battle of the Mexican war except Buena Vista. He received two brevets for gallantry, and served finally at Canadian posts, in California and Oregon. In 1843 he married Julia T. Dent, daughter of a St. Louis merchant. In 1848 he resigned his captaincy and operated a farm near St. Loius. He afterward moved to St. Louis, tried and failed in the real estate business, and in 1860 went into the leather trade with his brother at Galena, Illinois. At the breaking out of the war he lived in a little house on a hill and was unknown to influential public men of his city and State. Six days after the fall of Fort Sumpter he was drilling a company of Galena volunteers; four days later he took it to Springfield, and then wrote a letter offering his services to the government in any capacity. He took command of the Twenty-first Illinois Infantry and reported to Gen. Pope in Missouri. His subsequent record is familar to all. His patience under the coldness of superior officers, jealous of the honors which his splendid fighting qualities speedily brought to him, commended him to a President greatly embarrassed by dissensions from that source, and in March 1864, he was called from a series of unbroken military triumphs to recieve a lieutenant general's commission. Lincoln and Grant met on this occasion for the first time. He immediately assumed command of the army of the Potomac, and in combination with Sherman and Sheridan began to administer those decisive attacks which from that time on crushed out the life of Confederacy.

His magnanimous conduct toward Lee and his command at the surrender, and subsequently in his intercourse with the leaders of the South, has caused every feeling of resentment to disappear in a section where blood was shed in streams, and thousands fell before his military powers. A united country mourns an honored son, the world the winner of battles without comparison in ancient or modern history. His private virtues were equal to his patriotism and military genius. Says Gen. Beale, an intimate friend for fifteen years: "In all my daily companionship with him, at home or abroad, I never heard Gen. Grant make a remark which could not be repeated with propriety before a room full of ladies."

He was a devoted husband and father, simple and unpretentious in daily habits. Every advancement in life came to him unsought, and he discharged every trust with conscientious fidelity. America has cause to mourn for she may never see his like again, and his deeds are inseparable from her history.

Whatever may or may not have taken place as a result of Mr. Douglass and wife's visit to Dr. Sunderland's church, it cannot be decided that anything touching the attitude of Washington churches toward the Negro race, per se, is proved by it, for the reason that his is not a representative case. The amalgamation element enters into it, and right or wrong the element in this country who favor or will in any way favor amalgamation are a large minority.

Apples of Gold in Pictures of Silver.

"I would offer you my Christian sympathy in the loss of your son."—W. D. Godman, La.

"I tender you my sincere condolence."—J. T. Newman, N. O.

"In this time of trouble you have my prayers."—M. McCoomer, Indiana.

"I am a living witness that your affliction by the death of your loved ones in late years has been very severe; yet you have borne it all with Christian fortitude. You have our fullest sympathy."—Joseph and Fredonia Courtney, Kentucky.

"You have our most profound sympathy in this hour of bereavement."—E. W. S. Hammond and wife, Kentucky.

"We sincerely pray for you."—Mary, Amelia and Hettie Taylor, Cincinnati, O.

"Dear Brother and Sister Taylor, we send you our sympathies. It is consoling to know that Marshall, Jr., was a Christian."—William, Catharine and Lucy Echols, Augusta, Ky.

"You have our kindest wishes for yourself and family."—J. J. Holland and wife, Ala.

"Accept our sincere condolence. Having recently passed through the same, we know how to feel for you."—J. F. Marshall and wife, Alexandria, La.

"I have just learned, with profound regret and sorrow, of the death of your lovely and promising little son. Myself, and the quarterly conference now in session, join in extending sympathy and condolence to you and Sister Taylor."—A. E. P. Albert, Alexandria, La.

"May our Father in heaven be about you and yours in this moment of separation."—J. Allen Ross, Frankfort, Ky.

"May all you need be supplied in this period of affliction.—A. B. Leonard, wife and children, Ohio.

"I feel for you most sincerely."—Annie M. P. McSpadden, Chatham, Ontario, Canada.

"God alone can give the needed comfort to you and your dear wife."—George L. Curtis, Indiana.

"You and family have my prayers."—S. S. G. Turner, Lagrange, Ky.

These specimen letters from persons who knew us and our boy, and what right both we and Methodism had to hope for much that would be strong and manly from him had he lived, tell their own story.

Thanks to one and all.

Found His Wife and Lost His License.

DANVILLE, Mo., April 21, 1885—Rev. M. W. Taylor, D.D.: Please publish the following and oblige George W. Leach:

The way I came to the State of Missouri was in search of Mrs. A. K. Leach, who was born in Montgomery county in 1854. A few years since she was sold and sent to Kentucky by a negro trader. On Sept. 18, 1884, she returned to Montgomery county, Missouri, to visit her father, whom she had not seen since she was a girl ten years of age. She being sick sent for me, and as any good husband should do, I came to see her. Then I left the State of Kentucky with the expectation of returning within twenty days. After arriving in Missouri I wrote to the presiding elder of the Louisville (Ky.) District, and the presiding elder of the North Missouri District also wrote, asking that I be transferred to the Missouri Conference. The reason I settled in Missouri was on account of being burnt out at Frankfort, May 15, 1884. I was moved by the presiding elder of the district from Frankfort to Sulphur, Henry county, Ky. I stayed there until the Dec. 1, 1884, and then came to Louisville and saw the presiding elder. When I started to Missouri he told me he knew I had had a hard time, and to do the best I could until other arrangements were made. The elder was also with me at the ticket office when I inquired the fair to St. Louis.

[The most important phase of this matter is that Bro. Leach having been separated from his first wife by a slavedealer, married again; this wife dying he married another. This latter wife he took with him to Missouri when he went to look after his first wife, and of whom, if we correctly understand him, he now speaks as if she was still his wife. Under the peculiar conditions by which our social matters have been surrounded, cases of this kind may often occur; but in every case the last must be regarded and retained as the only wife. A man can't have two, and he can't divorce himself. Slavery having divorced him he must take the consequences.

Personal.

—The post office address of Rev. Samuel Allen has been changed from Navasota to Woodville, Texas.

—Rev. Arthur Jameson is earnestly at work on his Harrodsburg Ky., charge, and is succeeding nicely.

—Rev. L.W. Miles, of Chapel, has been bereaved by the loss of two of his children at his home near Simpsonville Ky., lately.

—Rev. Moses Hall Presiding Elder of the Mt. Sterling Dist. Ky., Conference Colored Methodist Episcopal Church in America, held a successful quarterly meeting at Winchester, June 28.

—Rev. Jesse Henry of the Lexington Conference, has completed the erection of a new church, at Shurburn; which he dedicated by the assistance of Rev. Daniel Jones on Sunday, June 28.

—Rev. C. W. Campbell, principal of Houston Seminary, Houston, Texas, made a pleasant visit to this office while on his way to enjoy a well earned vacation at Metropolis, Ill., He reports the past as a prosperous year at the Seminary, and the outlook hopeful.

—The Rev. Dr. Parrott and wife of McCool, have been assisting Rev. T. W. Lewis of the Methodist Episcopal Church South in a protracted meeting at Lexington Miss. He called upon our pastor there and delivered an address on Temperance. The good deed is taking root. We want to hear of every thing like this, it makes good reading.

—Rev. Wm. Johnson, of Simpsonville, in a recent meeting at Pewee cornered a Baptist minister on point of Bible statement and floored in presence of the audience as we are told. There is very little use or good in these debates, but when a man forces them he ought to be sure of his point. Johnson is not the best man we know of to run into controversiality.

—Rev. J. L. Pratt, writes us from Starksville Miss, July 7: Rev. I. B. Griffin, a member of the Miss, Conference pastor of Vicksburg charge has been in our city very ill for a month or more, with the family of Bro. Charley Morris. He suffered a great deal indeed but all is over, his suffering is ended. He passed away at 10 oclock, a. m., to-day, to that land of rest. Will write the particulars soon.

—From the Free Methodist, Chicago Ill., Oct 11, 1885: We take the following extract, Miss Emma V. Sweeten, whose maiden name was Johnson, was born in Almond, N. Y, Feb, 24, 1848, was united in marriage to M. H. Sweeten Sept, 30, 1865, and died at Yorkshire N. Y, Monday July 10, 1882. There was present at her funeral Brother Eggleston her pastor, the minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, also Bro. Burgess. Bro. Hogg, Bro. Perkins, Bro. Chamberlain, also took part in the service.—R. W. Hawkins.

—We have an eye single to do our share towards the raising of that million, that chaplain McCabe says, he wants. Our beloved elder Landry is abreast of the times and is doing a yeomans work for the church in the face of the cry of hard times. The negro race never had a better time than now. "Let us push on the line" yours truly in Christ. H. J. KNIGHT.

—Last November the following was voluntarily given to the pastor of our church at Martin, Tenn. We the undersigned white citizens of Martin most cheerfully recommend Rev. J. L. Massey to the favor of the people in whatever locality he may be placed, as a man and as a pastor. He has been located in our community for two years and he has accomplished much good among his people both by precept and example. We remain respectfully yours. Abe Akins, H. B. Hall, G. W. Martin, C. C. Rogers W. B. Gibbs, Sipser, J. A Parham, J. M. Wilks, L. G. McMillan. This was not asked for by the pastor.

From the Weekly Argus of Franklinville July 13, 1882: We take the following editorial: Mrs. M. Sweeten, aged 33, of Yorkshire, died Monday and was buried Thursday at that place. She had been unusually active in all Christian work. There was an unusually large gathering at the funeral services.

From a favorable impression caused by close acquaintance with the gentlemen, who is now upon the eve of leaving the city, we are induced to print the above. They show that Rev. M. H. Sweeten, an evangelist of the Free Mothodist Church, has been a married man, that he has been divorced by the death of his wife, and from the tone of these excerpts, the conclusion is warranted that he was then, and from his conduct in this city since last winter, that he is now a Christain gentleman. He has been quite active in Christian work here. Has often been able to render assistance to city Missionaries, in street, Marine, Hospital and Prison work. And has preached at large in churches of the city, white and colored.

Church Polity.

MR. EDITOR—Can a sinner be approved as Sunday School Superintendent in the Methodist Episcopal Church? SUBSCRIBER.

Answer—By "a sinner" we understand you to mean a person who is not in full connection with the Methodist Episcopal Church as a member. Such a person cannot be approved as the superintendent of a Methodist Episcopal Sunday School.

First—Because such approval would make him a member of the quarterly conference, and only full members of the church can be voting members there.

Second—Because the superintendent is a member of the district conference on those districts which hold them, and only members in full connection are eligible to membership in said conference.

It is the duty of the superintendent to nominate the teachers of his school, and it would be very risky for a church to give so important an interest into the charge of any one but a member. The spirit of the Discipline requires that the superintendent shall be a member of our church.

The quarterly conference cannot approve any other than a full member of the Methodist Episcopal Church as Sunday School Superintendent therein.

Rev. Larkin Carper's Relief Fund and Life.

Rev. Mack Henson, according to our suggestion, will write the life of Rev. Larkin Carper, late member of the West Texas Conference, and would be grateful to any one giving him prompt and well proven facts for his book. Bro. Carper lived and wrought at a time and in places of great inflammability, passion and controversy. Hence the writer will be constantly dealing with things which belong to the most critical and trying period of our church-work in the South, and will require not only absolute truth but the proof of it with every statement.

Such a book as must of necessity result from the investigations he will make, cannot fail to be of incalculable histrionic value to our church everywhere.

The conference has organized an association for the relief of Sister Carper who is doubly bereaved of one of the best of husbands, and all means of support at the same time.

It is a praiseworthy effort, even if it should not fully succeed in its aim. For this reason and because the SOUTHWESTERN had no better friend than Larkin Carper, who was one of its old time patrons, we fully and gladly publish the following circular. Read it and pray and act:

BENEFIT FUND

We the undersigned have organized for the purpose of raising a relief fund for the Widow and Orphans of the late Rev. Larkin Carper, (deceased) who has spent his many years of usefulness to elevate his race by preaching the gospel to them. In many instances the amount allowed for one year's services was much too small and at no time was it sufficient to accumulate a saving fund; therefore, an entertainment will be given at St. Paul's M. E. Church, Thursday night, Aug, 25, '85 for their benefit, who were left in a destitute condition. Tickets will be sold by persons duly authorized at fifty cents each. We earnestly solicit the friends, and especially the Pastors of the different charges within bounds of West Texas conference, to use their influence to raise the funds and forword the same to Dr. G. J. Starnes, corresponding secretary, on or before the 25th of August, or as soon thereafter as practicable. All funds may be sent by postoffice money order, registered letter or postal note.

J. J. Q. NEIMORE and JAMES WESTMORELAND, Secretaries;

EDWARD GARRISON, Treasurer;

Dr G. J. STARNES, Corresponding Secretary;

A. I. McGRAW, Assistant Chairman; Rev. MACK HENSON, Chairman.

Schools and Colleges.

Clark University.

REV. L. H. WELCH.

Having enjoyed the refined pleasure of a recent visit to Clark University, under the fostering care of your church, I cannot avoid acquainting the public with my exalted opinion of the Institution. This testimonial offering will not add one cubit to its scholastic height or importance, but I present it upon its own merits, not soliciting any praise or favor for its appearance in your columns. This Mr. Editor may be regarded as an humble effort to give honor unto whom honor is justly due. While directing a series of religious meetings in Atlanta, Dr. Gaius and Elder Graham cordially invited me to accompany them to Clark University. I readily accepted their brotherly invitation. The day was subsequently fixed and necessary arrangements made. The day of our intended visit dawned beautifully and we were soon comfortably seated in a well varnished hack and on our way. I anticipated no pleasure beyond that of the trip, and seeing a few acquaintances among the students. A few minutes after starting, my attention was called from objects along the road side, to a distant hill upon which stood two comfortable and commodious buildings, peeping through a few trees spared by the "axman" for ornament and shade. In close proximity were quite a number of two, three and four roomed cottages, erected for the use and convenience of students, families, especially those pursuing a divinity course. They are cozy, neat and wisely adapted to the purpose for which they were intended. The most pleasing and commendable feature about them is, that they exhibit the [illegible] perhaps many of the students have made in their knowledge required in the [illegible]. I never was surprised, so wonderful work [illegible] our eyes. I had been previously impressed that it was an infant institution, but the infant has grown too large for its cradle. There is no infant that can be compared to it for its development and age. Its health and prodigious growth may, in part, be attributed to the efficiency of its scholastic system. Its several departments have been in active and effective operation all the year, preparing young men and women for usefulness in the pulpit and school room. Professor Thirkield, Thayer and Crogman, are three of its learned, experienced and successful educators. They have no superiors in Christian excellence, affability and brotherly kindness. If pupils fail to advance in study, under their able tuition, nature has not blessed them with a capacity for study; their methods of instruction are thorough, practical and impressive. The personal appearance of the students was commendable and complimentary, The industrial department is the most complete in its arangements and operations, of any I had the pleasure of examining in my travels. The model home branch of this department is the most perfect in the South. There is nothing to prevent the young ladies attending Clark University, from being model house keepers. Prof Thayer, President of the University, is the originator of the model home idea, for the better training of the young ladies. His name will be associated with this branch of industry, during the existence of this, and many other institutions. The future of Clark is brightening with every rising sun. Yours for the moral, intellectual and spiritual elevation of my race.

Sunday School Work in Louisiana.

BY REVS ERNEST LYON AND M. C. B. MASON, OF NEW ORLEANS.

At the bidding of Bishop W. F. Mallalieu, D. D., we again commenced a series of Sunday School meetings, beginning at Thomson's Chapel, in the city, last Thursday night.

There was quite a large number of children and grown people gathered, presenting a very lively and interesting spectacle. The subjects discussed were:

The Sunday School, and how to make it a success, by M. C. B. Mason; and the duty of parents to the Sunday School and to their children, by Ernest Lyon. God's spirit was powerfully manifested, and our efforts met with signal success. twenty four having arose spontaneously and requested the prayers of the church in their behalf.

On Wednesday, the 15 h, taking the train at the corner of Baronne and Canal, we arrived at the West End in time to take the steamboat Grover Cleveland for Mandeville, a watering place situated on the coast of Lake Pontchartrain, thirty-three miles from New Orleans. Several steamers are kept busy plying its waters, transporting its scores of passengers, who are continually running away from the heat and dust of crowded New Orleans. We were glad to meet on board Miss Lily Phillipson, a former schoolmate of ours; also Miss Mary Oggleton, an old acquaintance.

We were met at the wharf by the happy and thriving pastor of Mandeville, Bayou LaCombe, and the Turpentine Orchard, Rev. C. D. C. Bryant and his affable wife.

Among the many things which made the trip to Mandeville very pleasant was our visit to the famous Chinchuba and Terrugenous Springs. At 7 o'clock in the evening the lake regions suffered from a severe windy spasm, which lasted for an hour and a half, the effects of which we thought would prove detrimental to the object of our visit. But the wind abating almost as suddenly as it sprung up gave the people a chance to assemble. We need not say that we were at our post long before our audience convened, so that we were ready to greet them. We had quite a successful gathering; and in every way possible efforts were made to accomplish deep and permanent results. The spirit of the Lord was manifest, and his power unmistakably felt. MORE ANON.

Books and Current Literature

The interest that children often take in matters requiring patient research has been again exemplified by the recent prize page of "feet without owners," in St. Nicholas More than four thousand children in this country and Great Brittain studied over the puzzling feet and sent in lists of the animals to which they judged them to belong. It is surprising how near to accuracy were very many of the lists. Books of natural history, cyclopedias and dictionaries, even zoological collections, have carefully been studied by young investigators in their search for exactness. The correct answers and the names of the contributors of successful lists are to be given in the August St. Nicholas.

The Converted Catholic for April gives evidence of ability and discretion on the part of its Editor. This monthly seeks the conversion of Romanists to Evangical religion, and is conducted by Father O'Conner who was for many years a Roman Catholic Priest, but is now Pastor of a Converted Catholic Congregation in New York City. The subscription is $1.00 a year. Address James A. O'Connor. No. 60 Bible House, New York.

The numbers of The Living Age for July 18th to 25th contain The First Epoch in the Italian Renaissance, and A Visit to the Temple of Heaven at Peking. London Quarterly; Wyclif and the Bible, Fortnightly; The Irish Parliament of 1782, Nineteenth Century; Stuart Pretenders, Scottish Review; Bismark as a Diplomatist, and The Russian Armament, Temple Bar; From "Reminiscences of my life," by MARY HOWITT, Good Words; The Matchmakers Euclid, Longman's; A Brother of the Misericordia, and Bee and Ant Phenomena, Chamber's Journal; Music and Musicians, and Nature in London, All The Year Round; Eighth Centenary of Gregory VII, Saturday Review; Marmalade Making, and The Civilization of Savages, St. James Gazette; The Franco-Chinese Treaty and British Trade, Economist; Afloat with a Florida Sponger, Field; with instalments of "A House Divided Against Itself," "Fortune's Wheel," "Schwartz: a History," "A Passenger from Shanghai," and poetry. Littell & Co., Boston, are the publishers.

The Crest of the Continent, by Ernest Ingersoll Published by R R. Donnelley & Sons, Chicago. This work contains the record of a summer ramble in the Rocky Mountains and beyond. It is dedicated to the people of Colorado. There are 344 pages, thirty-seven chapters, and seventy-nine illustrations, a very useful map of Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, and New Mexico. Our copy is a 12mo, in cloth, rich ink and gold sides. Price, $1. The literary and artistic character of the work is superb. Any one wishing to go over the scenes it so fully and clearly describes will find in it an invalnable companion. The Denver and Rio Grande rail is clearly seen to penetrate the whole ronte.

The Life of Rev. John Inskip, by Rev. W. McDonald and John E. Searles. Published by McDonald & Gill, office of the Christian Witness, 36 Broomfield street, Boston, Mass. Price, $1 25. This is a 350 page 12mo. volume, with twenty-four chapters, brown cloth and gold gilt cover. The type is clear and readable. A fine steel engraving of the subject is the frontispiece. Mr. Inskip was one of a large and ever increasing company of men in the United States, who, feeling themselves impelled to a special line of work, devoted themselves to it, and won renown. Messrs. McDonald and Searles have written the work, which constitutes this volume, together, each taking a distinct phase of the subject. It is well done. Themselves admit what all of us know—that material for their work was scattered aronnd in rich profusion. They were fortunate in gathering such facts as most fittingly tell the story of a life spent in human enterprises. It is a bonntiful treasure of useful and exemplary labors, and it will be widely read, and with great interest.

Never neglect daily private Bible reading, and when you read remember that God is speaking to you, and that you are to believe and act upon what he says. I believe all backsliding begins with the neglect of these two rules. (John v, 39.)

For Hay-Fever

What some think of the AIR MEDICATOR AND INJECTOR, made by the Medicated Air Remedy Co., 36 Arcade, Cincinnati, Ohio

Augnst 29, 1884.

To the Medicated Air Remedy Co.—Gentlemen: I have been using the Air Medicator and Injector for Hay Fever, and can say I am fully satisfied that, if used right, it is a grand relief to any sufferer from Hay Fever. I have been a subject for the past eight years and found no relief until now from the use of your instrument.

SALLIE E. EDWARDS,
Boone Block, Covington, Ky.

Medical Air Remedy Co,:—Gentlemen: I have used your Air Medicator and Injector in several cases in the treatment of Nasal Catarrh, and have seen it used in several cases of Hay-Fever, and am convinced that it meets the requirements more perfectly than any instrument I have ever seen used, and am satisfied that with proper medical agents it will accomplish the cure of many of those diseases.

T. N. WISE, M. D.

To The Medicated Air Remedy Company.—Gentlemen: Having become acquainted with the Air Medicator and Injector and watched its operation for some time past, I am convinced that it is the most perfect method of treating Hay-Fever or asthma, and will undoubtedly relieve, with the proper medicines, any case of Hay-Fever.

M. HEERMANCE, Druggist,
S. W. Cor. 4th and Scott Sts.,
Covington, Ky.,

The Medicated Air Remedy Co.—Gentlemen: I have used the McGregor instrument to inject medicated air into the nasal passages with great benefit to several of my patients, and I think it the best instrument that I have seen for that purpose, and with the proper medical agents will do great good in Hay-Fever and other diseases of the air passages.

JAMES S. WISE, M. D.
Covington, Ky., August 20, 1884.

To The Medicated Air Remedy Co.—Gents: A short time since I suffered with a severe earache. I tried almost every remedy I ever heard of. At last I was recommended to use your Air Medicator and Injector, which I did, and found almost immediate relief. I have also seen your instrument used by many others for various diseases of the head, such as Neuralgia, Catarrh, Hay-Fever, etc., and was astonished at its immediate and wonderful power. I have no doubt if the proper medication is applied it will cure any disease of the head. Yours Respectfully,

WILLIAM P. GRAYBILL, Practical Druggist.

The Air Medicator and Injector is a simple, inexpensive instrument by which air is medicated and forced into the passages of the head, thus relieving the most stubborn case of Hay Fever.

The number of The Living Age for June 6th and 13th contain Modern Geneva, Quarterly; Gainsborough, London Quarterly; Count Cavour's Letters, British Quarterly; How the Blind Dream, and The Duke of Wellington as Prime Minister, National; French Views on English Writers, Macmillan; London in May, Blackwood; A Summer Day at Stratford on-Avon, Temple Bar; Dr. Liddon on Progress, Spectator; The Huguenot Society, Saturday Review; In the Florida Pine Woods, All the Year Round; The Dangers of the Indian Jungle, Chambers; Death of Lord Dudley, Telegraph; An Indigo Plantation in Bengal, Field; Chinese Insect White Wax, Nature; Glass in China and Japan, Pottery Gazette; with installments "A House Divided Against Itself," "Mrs. Dymond," and "Fortune's Wheel," and poetry. Littell & Co., Boston, are the publishers.

Melodious Sonnets, by John R. Sweeny and Wm. J. Kirkpatrick. Published by John J. Hood, of Philadelphia, 1018 Arch street. This is a 12mo., illustrated, board cover, 128 pages. It contains 157 sacred songs, many of them new, and all with music to suit. Price 35c. Mailed to any address, $30 per hundred, by express. This belongs to a numerous but ever useful and joy-making class of books. We wish it a good sale.

Prof. E. M. Blakeley has been quite sick at Oakland, Tex., where he has charge of a large school, but by the skilful treatment of Dr. N. H. Middleton, he was soon able to be in the school-room again.

Lactart in the Harvestfield.

The following from a letter received by the Avery Lactate Company from Hon. J. M. McCullough, Cincinnati, under date June 9, is of interest to farmers. He says: "During my trip I shall spend much of my time on farms throughout the West, and when harvesting begins, as it will next week, I shall have Lactart in use in many harvest fields. I think so highly of it as a drink that, had I the making of the laws governing labor, I would require every employer to provide Lactart as part of the daily drink of his help. This would increase both the physical and mental power of the laborer or employe, and prove a good financial investment for the employer as well." Mr. McCullough's point is that Lactart not only counteracts the enervating effects of the warm and sometimes brackish water which farmers are often compelled to drink in the field, but renders it wholesome and invigorating, sustaining strength and serving as a protection from sunstroke.

Boston University graduates this year one hundred and twenty-two. Of these 17 are from the College of Liberal Arts, 11 from the College of Agriculture, 14 from the School of Theology, 48 from the School of Law, 26 from the School of Medicine, and 6 from the School of All Sciences. Twenty-seven of the whole number were young women.

Order LACTART of your Druggist or grocer. Refreshing and delicious—25 and 50 cents.

Miss J P. Moore, missionary of the Baptist Women's Home Mission Society, and vice president of Louisiana, has entered Plaquemine, where she expects to make a strong fight for temperance, and also to open a reading room for Negroes.

A household necessity—LACTART, 25 and 50 cents.

The Christian Recorder is always the same—good.

The Guide to Holiness has an inquiry room, and in the June number a number of important answers are given, to which Christians would do well to give attention.

PE-RU-NA is sold by all druggists. Price $1 per bottle, six bottles $5. If you cannot get it from your druggist, we will send it on receipt of regular price We prefer you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it do not be persuaded to try something else, but order from us at once as directed. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, O.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; It produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. July 16-1y.

New York has 500 and Washington 180 churches. New Orleans has 65 Negro churches of the Methodist and Baptist denomination alone.

Thirty Years Record — Endorsed by Physicians.

Few people are aware of the alarming Dreadful once of kidney diseases, especially among those who have arrived at, or are past middle age. It is declared on good authority that fully one-half the deaths in this country are either directly or indirectly the result of idney disease of some sort.

A great majority of men above forty years of age are afflicted with some sort of affection of the kidneys or bladder and these diseases are on the increase. Persons are often seriously affected before they know of it themselves and thus these insidious disorders get a good foothold before anything is done to dislodge them.

Dropsy, Gravel, Diabetes, Bright's Disease, Incontinence, Debility, Catarrh of the Bladder, Albumenuria, etc. are among the many forms of these diseases, Most of these are very difficult to cure, defying the powers of the most eminent of the best physicians obtainable, and are pronounced by many to be incurable.

Physicians state that many forms of Kidney Diseases are very difficult to detect, as, in diseases of this form, oftentimes there are no symptoms of a marked nature. This is one of the reasons why they are so difficult to cure.

Hunt's [Kidney and Liver] Remedy is a specific for Kidney and Liver troubles, Bladder and Urinary Diseases, Dropsy, Gravel, Diabetes and all of that class of disorders.

It cures biliousness, headache, jaundice, liver and stomach troubles, dyspepsia, constipation and piles

It cures intemperance, nervous diseases, general debility, female weaknesses and excesses.

It is thoroughly reliable, highly recommended, works promptly, relieves at once, and was never known to fail. USE IT AT ONCE.

Sold by all Druggists
HUNT'S REMEDY CO., Providence, R. I.
C. N. CRITTENTON,
General Agent, New York.

PEMBERTON'S
The WORLDS
Great Nerve TONIC
FRENCH WINE COCA

The wonderful Invigorator and EXHILARANT, to impart Health, Strength and Vigor to Mind and Body. The Ideal Nerve Tonic and Intellectual Beverage, highly endorsed by the elite of the Medical Profession; for the cure and prevention of Mental and Physical Exhaustion, Chronic and Wasting Diseases, Dyspepsia, Kidney and Liver Affections, Heart Disease, Melancholia, Hysteria, Neuralgia, Sick Headache, Throat and Lung Affections, Tired Feelings, etc. This marvelous Tonic acts like a charm. For Convalescents and Invalids this delightful Invigorant is the sine-qua-non. The Invigorating and Strength-restoring properties of French Wine Coca are truly wonderful, and excel all other Tonics and Stimulants. One trial will charm and excite your enthusiasm. For sale by Druggists. Send for Book on Coca, and Pemberton's Wine Coca. Price, $1.00 per bottle.
J. S. PEMBERTON & CO., M'f'g Chemists, Atlanta, Ga.
july30-13teow 10

WE WANT 1,000 MORE BOOK AGENTS FOR THE PERSONAL HISTORY OF
U. S. GRANT,
Send for SPECIAL TERMS TO AGENTS, or secure agency at once by sending 50 cts. in stamps for outfit. Address
FORSHEE & McMAKIN,
july30-4t Cincinnati, O.

Medical Department of the Tulane University OF LOUISIANA.
Formerly, 1847-1884, University of Louisiana.
Possesses unrivaled advantages for practical instruction, since the law secures it superabundant material from the great Charity Hospital with its 700 beds, 8000 sick admitted and 10 000 visiting patients annually. Students are freely admitted to and are taught at the bedside of the sick, as in no other institution. For Circular or additional information, address
S. E CHAILLE, Dean.
P. O. Drawer 261, New Orleans, La.
jy8-1m

CHRISTIAN
MEN and WOMEN Wanted are
AS AGENTS
For the New and Fast-selling Edition of the
JAMIESON, FAUSSET & BROWN BIBLE COMTENTARY.
4 vols., nearly 4,000 pp. Maps and Illustrations. In cloth, $8; half morocco, $10 per set.
Best terms and exclusive territory. Permanent employment given after a satisfactory trial.
Jerome B. Names & Co.,
154 St. Clair street, Toledo, Ohio.
The work is heartily recommended.
MAR5-39t

GRATEFUL PRAISE!
A NEW S. S. BOOK. By J. H. Fillmore.
Pure in sentiment, rich in music Sample copy, in boards, 25 cents; per dozen by express, $2.60; per dozen by mail, $4. Specimen pages free
FILLMORE BROS.
No. 185 Race street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

HEADQUARTERS
—FOR—
Sunday-school Supplies
Consisting of
GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with and without music.
Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, Bible Dictionaries.
Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books, Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Text Books, etc., etc. Also a large assortment of Books suitable for Libraries or presents to children. PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $2 45 to $12 00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock
W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent
94..... Camp Street, ...94
25tf NEW ORLEANS.

Plantation Melodies
—AND—
REVIVAL HYMNS.
By MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D.
WITH AN INTRODUCTION
By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.
Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.
Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and portrait. Sent, post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents.
Address, PHILLIPS & HUNT
32 Natchez street, New Orleans

SITUATIONS To subscribers Circulars free. Home Study—60 Professors Corr. University, 68 LaSalle St. Chicago, Ill. jy30-4t

AGENTS WANTED for the MISSOURI STEAM WASHER!

It will pay any intelligent man or woman seeking profitable employment to write for Illustrated Circular and terms of Agency for this Celebrated Washer, which by reason of its intrinsic merit is meeting with such wonderful success
J. WORTH, ST. LOUIS, MO., or CHICAGO, ILL.
july30

Statue of "Liberty Enlightening the World."

The Committee in charge of the construction of the base and pedestal for the reception of this great work, in order to raise funds for its completion, have prepared a miniature Statue six inches in height—the statue brouzed; pedestal, nickel-silvered—which they are now delivering to subscribers throughout the United States at One Dollar Each.

This attractive souvenir and Mantel or Desk ornament is a perfect fac simile of the model furnished by the artist

The statuette in same metal, twelve inches high, at Five Dollars Each, delivered.

The designs of Statue and Pedestal are protected by U S Patents, and the models can only be furnished by this Committee. Address, with remittance,
RICHARD BUTLER, Sec'y.
American Committee of the Statue of Liberty.
33 Mercer street, New York.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Look Before You Leap.

H. HERBERT BLUNT.

O, look before you leap,
Into the abyss deep.
There no pardon can reach,
Or lost character bleach.

O, look before you leap
Into dishonor, to reap
Seemingly life's pleasures,
Dishonor's base treasures.

O, look before you leap
Into dishonor's heap;
Ages of reform cannot
Ever dishonors rot.

O, look before you leap
Into dread Fancy's deep.
Into its ocean wide
'Neath its untiring tide.

O, look before you leap
In the billowy sea.
The recklessness of life,
Sin and inconstant strife.

O, look before you leap,
Ruined, from misfortune's heap.
Seek resolution's creek,
Fortitude on thy cheek.

New Orleans, La.

Domestic Hygiene.

Hair, and How to Care for It.

GEO. L. CURTIS, M. D.

An elegant suit of hair, covering the head, and well cared for, is a beautiful sight. Not only is it a useful article, perfectly adapted to fill the office designed by nature for it there is no known way by which to compensate for the loss of hair from the head, or for restoring ing it.

Hair is not confined to the head alone, but it covers the entire body from head to foot, excepting the palms of the hands and fingers, the soles of the feet and toes, the lips and the upper eyelids, and upper surface of the last joint of each finger and toe. The eyes are fringed with lashes and surmounted by brows; the ears are protected by thick stiff hairs to strain the air entering the ear, and to prevent insects from entering; the nostrils are protected by similar hairs, which perform an office all important to good air entering the air passages. The hairs of the body are not all of the same appearance, for some are long, others are short and stiff, while others are fine and downey.

The hairs of the body are usually set somewhat "obliquely in the skin and take a definite direction as they lie on the surface. The general course of the hair may be traced on the face, arms, and even the head. "They present currents or sweeps that have nearly always the same direction."

To each root or hair-bulb passes an artery, a vein and nerve. It is believed by the later physiologists that hairs by their nerves are the medium of general sensation. At any rate, no other medium for general sensation has been discovered, besides the phenomena as with respect to hairs standing on the end in case of fear or alarm, and of partially allaying excitement by rubbing the hair are evidences of it.

Each hair is developed in a closed sack, and the point perforates the skin, just the same as the first or milk teeth, by being pushed up and out of the way by "each deeply seated papilla." When the second growth of hair is pushed out another hair does not grow in its place. In cases of sickness, as in fevers, the hair may fall off because it breaks off close to the scalp, but unless the roots or bulbs are lost the hair will grow again; but if the bulbs are destroyed hair will not grow from [illegible] again.

Diseases of the scalp [illegible] affect the hair. [illegible] or as some call it, "nervous superficial affection," [illegible] by irregular patches, [illegible] repeatedly [illegible] The hair be[illegible] small white scales [illegible] fall, or dandruff, [illegible] becomes wet about the [illegible] [illegible] though it is very [illegible] The [illegible] this affection [illegible] is to wash the head with water, using castile soap, and after drying the hair well, rub or kneed the scalp with the fingers. It may require several times of such washing to cure the disease.

Porriga, a scurf or scall in the head, is a more difficult hair disease. This is dne to a parasite vegetable "forming a tube around the roots of the hair." Of those vegetable parasites there are several forms, but all may be spoken of under the same head. When it attacks a hair it grows around the base next the skin, and like an ivy clinging to an oak, it chokes it to death. This parasite may be carried from head to head by comb and brush, and possibly by sleeping on a pillow occupied by one who is affected. The parasite can be killed by shaving the head several times, and the use of some stimulating ointment or liniment. It cannot be cured by one shaving, or one application of ointment, but it will require constant and persistant effort.

The use of hair oils is greatly recommended by some parties, mostly those who have an interest in their sale; but the profuse use is certainly an injury. Nature provides its own method of oiling the scalp and hair, and if the skin is in a good condition the amount of oil thrown ont is all-sufficient. When much oil is used there is a gathering of dust and dirt, and the hair becomes matted, and the oil glands are obstructed. This condition can be changed by the use of soap and water.

It is a great misfortune to have the hair fall from the head prematurely. Baldness is to some extent a sign of decay. Let those who possess a good suit of hair be thankful and take good care of it.

The medicine that can search and root out every ill of kidneys or liver, is Hunt's Remedy.

Letters From the Laity.

J. E. Williams, Hackberry, Tex., writes: "Children's Day was celebrated at this place (Brown's Chapel) with encouraging results. The 'programme' for the day was carried out in full, and at the proper juncture an interesting and profitable address, touching the necessity and importance of celebrating Children's Day, was made by Dr. N. H. Middleton, of Oakland, Tex., who was followed by Prof. W. J. Stevens, of Hackberry, Tex. Notwithstanding the hard times and scarcity of money we raised for the educational fund $5. In the afternoon our beloved pastor, B. E. Cooper, preached a soul-thrilling sermon from the 15th chapter of Luke, 31st verse; after which we thrilled his soul with $8 45. After the sermon six infants were baptized, seven persons joined the church, four of whom were Sabbath School scholars. The following night we had a glorious time in what was called 'Children's Day Love Feast.' Twelve persons said that they were brought to Christ by means of the Sabbath School. Sixteen said that they had not come to Christ by means of the Sabbath School, but had been made better Christians thereby. There were preachers and lay members of the Baptist denomination present who expressed themselves well pleased, one of whom followed our pastor's sermon in a strong appeal to the parents to "bring up their children in the way that they should go," and to bring them early to Christ, as he said: "Suffer little children to come unto me," etc. The pastor in order to make it as much of a success as possible (financially) has concluded to celebrate the day at each charge in the circuit; therefore the educational collection above mentioned is from the children and friends of one charge.

"I think the Oakland and Brown's Chapel Circuit is destined in the near future to be one of the best in the West Texas Conference."

Mason Walker, of Flatonia, Tex., writes: "I have been a local preacher for three years. I believe in giving local preachers a chance to do practical work for the saving of souls. Class No. 5 has sixteen members, and they are doing good in support of our pastor."

G. C. Washington, secretary of Mt. Zion Sunday School, Glencoe, La., writes: "The Children's Day was observed, and we had a real good time. The exercises were conducted nicely. The children were provided with a nice basket, well supplied with cakes and chickens. After the exercises we retired and had a nice time consuming the many kinds of refreshments which were prepared for the occasion. The pastor being absent on a trip to Donaldsonville the meeting was conducted by the local preachers and the superintendent; but one thing surprised me, and that was the parents and old people did not seem to appreciate their children as they should, but rather lay idle at home all day Sunday. The Lord will always help those who will help themselves. We realized in our collections $6 35. God help us to do better next time. I must say the old people, with some exception, at Glencoe, pay but very little attention to the educational advancement of their children. I pray God that we may ever strive to go upward and onward until we reach the last round in the ladder. We were unable to have any exercises in the afternoon, as the weather turned out bad. The Sunday School is in a prosperous condition under the care of Bro. J. Taylor, superintendent, and Miss Sylvina Harrison, assistant superintendent. They are both doing all they can for the education and prosperity of the young and old in Glencoe.

The Central evidences of Christianity, published by the American Tract Society, 150 Nassau St, New York, price $1.00. There are 320 pages, containing a well bound 12 mo volume. six papers make up the subject matter of the work. The first is Christ, the Central Evidence of Christianity, by Principal Cairnes Second, The Unity of the Character of the Christ of the Gospels, by Prebendary Row. Third, the Anthentic ity of the Four Gospels, by Prebendary Row. Fourth, Historical Evidences of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ, by Prebendary Row. Fifth, Christianity and Miracles at the Present Day, by Principal Cairns, and Sixth the Witness of Man's Moral Nature to Christianity, by Dr. Thomson. The arguments used in these papers are clear and strong A brief resume of each is fonnd on a seperate page preceding the paper. The book as a whole is one which we can cordially recommend especially to preachers.

Hunt's Remedy cures billious headache, costiveness, and dyspepsia, and purifies the blood.

The numbers of The Living Age for July 4th and 11th contain James Russell Lowell, Letters from a Private Soldier in Egypt, and Genius and Insanity, Nineteenth Century; The Muse of History, Contemporary; The Liberal Movement in English Literature, and A Vigil in Stonehenge, National; The Torpedo Scare, Blackwood; Johann Sebastan Bach, "The Father of German Music," and Curiosities of Music, Leisure Hour; Erckmann Chatrain, Gentleman's; The Queen's Drawing Room, Saturday Review; Lord Beaconsfield's Youth, Spectator; Curiosities of Taxation, All the Year Round; with instalments of "A House Divided Against Itself," "Mrs. Dymond," "Fortune's Wheel," and "Unexplained," and poetry. Littell & Co., Boston, are the publishers.

For a healthful, refreshing summer drink use LACTART. It promotes digestion and prevents dyspepsia. 25 and 50 cents. Druggists and Grocers.

Summer Excursions.

To get the most pleasure, to recuperate or to store up knowledge are questions at this time engrossing the attention of people who wish to make each season yield them something in the way of health, pleasure or knowledge or all of these combined. The C. I. St. L. & C. Ry. (Kankakee Line) which is also known as the "Big Four," has placed on sale Summer Excursion tickets to Denver, Pueblo, and Colorado Springs in Colorado, Milwaukee, Madison, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Yellow Stone Park and the many other popular resorts in Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Dakota and Wyoming Territory. Call on or address the nearest Ticket or Passenger Agent, C. I. St. L. & Ry for rates, routes, time-folders, illustrated guide books, &c.
W. H. PAGE, Trav. Passr. Agent, N. W. cor. Fourth and Vine sts., Cincinnati, O.
GRANT K. LOWRY, Trav. Pass. Agent, Wilmore, Ky.
JOHN EGAN, Genl. Pass. and Ticket Agent, Cincinnati, O. taug20

From the Bloody Ground.

TOLLESBORO, KY.

DR. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, Ohio.—I keep the largest stock of medicines of any store in Lewis county, with the exception of a drug store at Vanceburg, our county seat, and am selling a great deal of your PERUNA and MANALIN. It is giving the best satisfaction of any medicine that I ever handled. In one case the constable for the precinct, has been very sick and low spirited for a long time. For several years he has tried all the doctors here, and we have some good ones, and they did him no good. After much persuasion I sold him two bottles of PERUNA and MANALIN. He took half of the medicine. I could see a great change in him, and now he is as sound a man apparently as there is in this vicinity, and he says he is entirely well. He is a number one man and is highly respected. He is satisfied that your medicine saved his life, after all the doctors and all medicines had failed. Being unacquainted with you, I refer you to John Shillito & Co., Altor, Pinckard & Co., and other business houses of Cincinnati.

R. L. GILLESPIE, P. M.

Messrs. Adamson & Shipley, of Waynesburg, Pa., write: "Please send us some "Ills of Life" immediately. We are having a big run on your medicine, PERUNA. Instead of dying out, like most medicines, in course of time, it seems to be growing in favor. We sell lots of it. Please send the books soon."

Messrs. Wirthorn & Urban, of Allegheny City, Pa., write: "Having a large sale for your PERUNA and MANALIN, we have also many calls for your book, "Ills of Life." Please send us a supply of them, German and English, and oblige."

S. Wolf & Son, Wilmot, O., write: "Gentlemen: We handle your goods, and they give good satisfaction."

A. G. Seliards, Greenup, Ky., says: "Gentlemen: I am handling your medicines, and having a good trade on them."

J. C. Saunders, Martinsburg, W Va., writes: "Gentlemen: Your PERUNA sells fast and gives good satisfaction here. We sell more PERUNA than any other preparation we handle."

W. Bauer, St. Mary's, Pa., writes: "My son is still improving in health. Your PERUNA is just the thing for him."

H. L. Day & Co., New Vienna, Ohio write: "S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, Ohio.—Gentlemen: Your PERUNA sells as well as any medicine with us. Quite a number have told us that PERUNA is the best thing they ever used."

Chautauqua Periodicals.

Chautauqua Assembly Daily Herald,

An eight page paper, printed on a steam power press on the Assembly grounds at Chautauqua, every morning during the meeting in August; 19 numbers in the volume, containing stenographic reports of more than 70 lectures on science, philosophy, religion and practical questions besides reports of lectures meetings, debates and class-room drills. An invaluable collection.
The first number will appear Saturday, Aug. 1.
Subscription price, ... $1 00
In clubs of five or more at one time . . . 90

THE CHAUTAUQUAN,

A first-class Literary Magazine. The organ of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle, containing one-half of the Required Readings of the course with the special departments of Local Circles, Questions and Answers on the Books in the course C. L. S. C. Work and Notes on the Required Readings.
A Literary Department of great merit, furnishing articles from the foremost writers of the country.
Subscription price, ... $1.50
In clubs of five or more at one time . . . 1.35
Vol. VI will begin with the October number.

Chautauqua Boys and Girls.

A Daily Paper for the Boys and Girls, to be issued at Chautauqua in August. Pictures of Chautauqua life. Full accounts of all children's meetings.
Subscription price . . . . . 50c.
In clubs of five or more, ... 40c

COMBINATION OFFERS:

The Chautauquan and Assembly Daily Herald $2.25
The Chautauquan, Assembly Daily Herald and Chautauqua Boys and Girls $2 70

Address: DR. T. L. FLOOD, Editor and Proprietor.
je 25-8t Meadville, Pa

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9–12, 1883.
Sixty Addresses by American Educators.
Edited by REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.
8vo. 272 pp. Price, stiff paper . . $1. 25
Cloth, ... 1 75
The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:

1. Education and Man's Improvement.
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America.
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Panperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War.
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—ten tables.

It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents. The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak. The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index.
Sent postpaid on receipt of price.
Phillips & Hunt.
37 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

OLD ONE HUNDRED.

MRS. TENA BURTON,
100 . . . . . Franklin Street 100
Lodging,
With or Without Board.
mar26-6m

OPIUM MORPHINE HABIT EASILY CURED. BOOK FREE. DR. J. C. HOFFMAN Jefferson, W
mar5-52t

RAILROADS.

Chesapeake & Ohio R. R.

—VIA—
WASHINGTON
—TO—
BALTIMORE,
PHILADELPHIA,
and NEW YORK.
THE ONLY LINE WITH
Pullman Sleeping Cars
—FROM—
Louisville, Cincinnati and Lexington
—TO—
WASHINGTON
WITHOUT CHANGE.
Schedule in effect October 12, 1884.

EASTWARD.	No 4 Daily.	No. 6 ex Snoday
Leave Cincinnati	8 10 p m	8 30 p m
Leave Louisville	7 15 p m	7 00 a m
Leave Lexington	10 40 p m	11 45 a m
Leave Winchester	11 15 p m	12 25 p m
Due Mt. Sterling	12 08 a m	1 36 p m
Due Ashland	3 26 a m	5 55 p m
Due Huntington	4 00 a m	6 40 p m
Leave Huntington
Due Charleston	6 36 a m	10 00 p m
Due Clifton Forge	1 30 p m	6 40 a m
Due Staunton	3 57 p m	9 26 a m
Due Charlottesville	5 20 p m	11 05 a m
Due Richmond	9 15 p m	3 75 p m
Arrive Newport News	10 45 a m	6 30 p m
Due Washington	9 50 p m
Arrive New York	6 30 a m

WESTWARD.	No. 3 Daily.	No. 1. exSunday
Leave New York	10 00 a m	12 00 mt
Due Washington	5 10 p m	9 10 a m
Leave Newport News	3 50 p m
Leave Richmond	6 25 p m	9 35 a m
Due Charlottesville	10 00 p m	1 45 p m
Due Staunton	11 42 p m	4 57 p m
Due Clifton Forge	1 45 a m	6 40 p m
Due Charleston	9 00 a m	4 25 a m
Due Huntington
Leave Huntington	9 40 a m	6 20 a m
Due Ashland	10 19 a m	7 02 a m
Due Mt. Sterling	1 57 p m	11 05 a m
Leave Winchester	2 30 p m	11 45 a m
Arrive Lexington	3 21 p m	12 45 p m
Arrive Louisville	7 10 p m	5 20 p m
Arrive Cincinnati	6 05 p m	5 35 p m

Lexington Div. trains run by Central time. Main line trains East of Huntington run by Eastern time, which is one hour faster than Central time.
Nos. 1 and 6 run daily, except Sunday. Sleeping cars between Huntington and Clifton Forge.
Nos 3 and 4 run daily, and do not stop for local business. Pullman Sleeping cars and Solid Train between Louisville and Washington and Cincinnati and Richmond without change.
Nos 2 and 5 run daily between Richmond and Clifton Forge. Do not run between Clifton Forge and Richmond.
No 1 leave Norfolk except Sunday, 7 40 a m, Old Point 8 15 a m, Newport News 8 45 a m, arrive at Richmond at 11 35 a m.
No. 2 leave Richmond except Sunday, 8 20 a m, arrive Newport News 10 45 a m. Old Point 11 10 a m, Norfolk 11 45 a m.
Old Dominion Steamers leave Norfolk on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or Saturday at 6 00 p m; arrive in New York next afternoon.
For Rates Tickets, Baggage Checks apply to any office of C. & O. R'y; or Depot or Ticket office of connecting lines.
C. W. SMITH, Gen'l Manager.
H. W. FULLER, Gen'l Pass. Agt.

Ohio & Mississippi R. R

—The Direct and Fast Line to—
Cincinnati,
Louisville,
Washington,
Baltimore,
New York and the East,
In Connection with the
"Great Jackson Route,"
Makes the following
FAST TIME:

STATIONS.	Daily
Leave New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss.	12:38 a m
Canton	1:30 a m
Durant	2:52 p m
Grenada	4:50 a m
Coffeeville	5:25 a m
Water Valley	6:00 a m
Oxford	6:43 a m
Holly Springs	7:54 a m
Grand Junction	9:15 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St. L & N. O.	11:05 a m
Milan " " "	12:20 p m
Martin " " "	1:32 p m
Fulton " " "	2:00 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:30 p m
Carbondale "	6:58 p m
DuQuoin "	7:45 p m
Ashley "	8:28 p m
Centralia "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:26 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi.	9:29 p m
" Louisville, "	6:50 a m
" Cincinnati "	7:05 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.
Passengers living on the line of the C. St. L. & N. O. R. R. will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.
The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.
2 DAILY TRAINS
FROM ODIN
To WASHINGTON in 27 Hours,
To BALTIMORE in 28 Hours.
This is 5 Hours quicker than the fastest time by any other line.
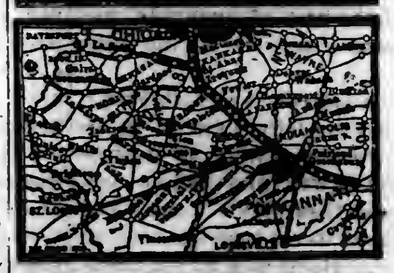
The Day Express runs entire train consisting of Day Coaches and Palace Sleeping Cars from St. Louis to Washington and Baltimore without change.
The Night Express has Sleepers through without change. No other line from St. Louis offers a Double Daily Through Train Service to the National Capital.
W. W. PEABODY,
President and General Manager.
W. B. SHATTUC,
General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio. jy31tf

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.



The old reliable route to all Eastern cities Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leaves:	Arrives.
Express	8:00 a m	7:45 a m
Coast Accommodation	3:35 p m	9:10 a m
Fast Mail	8:20 p m	7:30 p m

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. C. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.
W. R. Knisbern, Ticket Agent; J. T. Harahan, General Manager; John Kilkeny, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; O. M Dunn, Superintendent, N. O. and M. Division.
ap26-1y

RAILROADS.

C. I. St. L. & C. 4
KANKAKEE LINE.

4 PASSENGER TRAINS each way per day between Cincinnati and Indianapolis.
3 PASSENGER TRIANS each way per day between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Chicago.
2 PASSENGER TRIANS each way per day, between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette, Kankake, Seneca and Davenport, Ia.

KANKAKEE LINE
Entire trains run through without change between Cincinnati Indianapolis, Lafayette and Chicago. Pullman Sleepers and elegant Reclining Chair Cars on Night trains. Parlor Cars on Day Trains.

SHELDON ROUTE.
Commodious Reclining Chair Cars run through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Peoria, Ills. and Keokuk, Ia. Close connection for Burlington, Ia.

KANKAKEE & SENECA ROUTE.
The ONLY LINE running Elegant coaches through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Davenport, Ia.

CONNECTIONS
At Cincinnati, in Central Union Depot, with all trains of the Cincinnati Southern Railway. (Queen & Crescent Route) thus avoiding the tedious omnibus transfer incident to all other lines.
At Indianapolis, in Union Depot, with all lines diverging.

Through Tickets and Baggage Checks to all Principal Points,
Can be obtained at any ticket office, O. I. St. L. & C. Ry., also via this line at all Coupon Ticket Offices throughout the country.

See Agents of this Company for Rates, Routes, &c. or write Grant K. Lowry, Trav Pass Agt. Wilmore Ky.
JOHN EGAN,
Gen'l Pass. and Tkt. Agent, Cincinnati, O.

BIG
J Great Jackson Route.

Illinois Central R. R. Co.

Double Daily Passenger Trains.

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Passenger No. 2. 9:15 a.m.	Pass'gr No. 1. 7:00 a m
No. 4 St. L. & Chi Express 6:00 p. m.	No. 3. Ohio. N O Lim. Ex 9:00 a.m
No. 6 Sun Ex. 7:30 a m	No. 5 Sun Ex. 3:20 p.m

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.
Ticket Office: Cor. Carondelet and Canal, (Pickwick Club Building.)
WM. MURRAY,
General Southern Passenger Agent.
J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT KENNEDY, Ticket Agent.

C & O

The Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company have moved their ticket management and business rooms to No. 235 Fourth avenue.

C. O. & S. W. R. R.

THE SOUTHERN TRUNK LINE
—TO—
Louisville, Cincinnati, Washington, Baltimore,
And the Short Line to
Cairo, St. Louis, Chicago and the Northwest.
The Direct Route to
Eastern Seaboard Cities, Texas, Arkansas and the Southwest.
Chesapeake, Ohio & Southwestern R. R.
For Owensboro, Henderson, Paducah and Memphis and all points South and Southwest. Ticket office, 235 Fourth avenue, Depot, corner of Fourteenth and Main streets.

	Express Daily	Accom Daily ex Sunday
Leave Louisville	7 50 a m	4 10 p m
Arrive at Cecelia	10 20 a m	6 45 p m
" Elizabethtown	10 10 a m	7 05 p m
" Grayson Springs	11 12 a m	.....
" Litchfield	11 28 a m	.....
" Central City	2 00 a m	.....
" Owensboro	5 05 a m	.....
" Nortonsville	3 27 p m	.....
" Hopkinsville	9 50 p m	.....
" Madisonville	4 37 p m	.....
" Henderson	6 10 p m	.....
" Evansville	8 10 p m	.....
" Tradewater	4 07 p m	.....
" Princeton	4 47 p m	.....
" Paducah	7 00 p m	.....
" Mayfield	8 27 p m	.....
" Fulton	9 29 p m	.....
" Cairo	10 45 p m	.....
" Rives	10 10 p m	.....
" Memphis	3 20 a m	.....
" Louisville	7 00 p m	9 35 a m

Tickets now on sale at depot at lowest rates. Call on or address R. H. TALLEY, Ticket Agent, Memphis, Tenn.
Or B. F. MITCHELL, Gen. Pass. Agt, Louisville, Ky.

ARE YOU GOING TO
KANSAS, MISSOURI, COLORADO, CALIFORNIA OR ANY OF THE WESTERN STATES?
If so you should avail yourself of the advantages that are now offered by the Kansas City Route, the only direct route from the South to the West and Northwest. This line runs its entire trains, with Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars and free Reclining Chair Cars, from Memphis to Kansas City, saving many hours time over any other route. If you are going West you will save money by purchasing your tickets via Memphis and the Kansas City Route. Send for large map of this Short Route; mailed free. Address,
J. E. LOCKWOOD.
Kansas City Mo.
Or, H. D. ELLIS, Ticket Agent.
31 Madison street, Memphis, Tenn.

General News Items.

Over $9,000,000 were paid out for pensions in May.

Police and Communists of Paris have had another conflict.

There are 10,000 tetotalers in the railway service of Great Britain and 12,000 among the sailors in the naval service.

Texas.—The House passed the Constitutional Amendment resolution 71 to 16, bnt it was defeated in the Senate, 14 in favor to 7 against. It required 21 votes, or two thirds of the whole Senate to secure its passage.

The colored vote in the Southern States is as follows: Georgia, 143,471; Mississippi, 130,278; Virginia, 128,883; Alabama, 228,423; Louisiana, 107,027; North Carolina, 204,018; Tennessee, 80,250; Texas, 72,939; Kentucky, 58,742; Arkansas, 46,826; Florida, 33,842.—Little Rock Sun.

East Tennessee capitalists are preparing to develop some of the marble beds of that region. There is an abundance of marble there, easy to be had and of snperior valne. A company is also to be formed to work the marble quarry at New Market, Va.

Mr. A. M. Lang, with twenty years of experience with poultry, tells the Cincinnati Gazette that he "would rather have 25 two year old common barnyard hens to place on 325 eggs, than any $50, $75, or $150 incubator he ever saw." But the experience of some men is not a guide for all. It he has never made a careful trial of incubators he is not well qualified to speak of them.

Loved by Ladies.

Ladies love delicate and delicious perfume. In Parker's Hair Balsam they not only satisfy this taste, but have an article which arrests falling hair, removes dandruff restores the original color and imparts a beautiful gloss, softness and life. Does not soil the linen, is not adye, cleanly and economical.

Springfield, Ill., June 4.—The Senate this morning passed the House Civil Rights Bill, which gives colored people the same rights as whites in hotels, restaurants, theaters and other public places. It provides that for any violation, the person offending shall pay not less than $25 nor more than $500 to the person aggrieved, and shall also be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall pay a fine not to exceed $500, or shall be imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

Sick and billious headache, and all derangements of the stomach and bowels, cured by Dr Pierce's Pellets'—or a tibillious granules. 25 cents a vial, no cheap boxes to allow waste of virtues. By druggists.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for the following parties: My mother's name is Sarah Hutchinson and father's name is Lot Proctor. My sisters are Harriet and Elizabeth Hutchinson. My brother, Harrison Richard, was killed in Shaggyville town. I left all the above named parties in Logan county, Ky. Any information address Wm. Porter, care of the M. E. Church, at Navasota, Grimes county, Tex. The inquirer is a blind member of the M. E. Church.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire through your paper for my people, who I left in the State of Georgia about thirty five years ago. About four years ago I received a letter from Bro. Isaac Spradley, who was still living in that State, but I have wrote several times to him, and can't hear a word from him; but Bros. Willie and Edward Spradley, and Sister Katy Spradley I have not heard a word from them since I left them thirty five years ago. Then I was very small. I heard that my aunt, Rosetta Spradley, was living in the State of Florida. Our mother, Betsey Christmas, is dead. When I last saw them my name was Priscilla Christmas, but I now go by the name of Priscilla Benjamin. Any information from any of the above named persons will be happily received. Write in care of Rev. G. W. Smith, Bay St. Louis, Miss.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my people whom I left in Cassville county, N. C., in 1869. I went to Blue Ridge Mountain, McDowell county, N. C. I have a mother and brother that I wish to find. My mother's name is Martha. She formerly belonged to John Irven, and married Edmond Johnson. My brother was name John. Address any information to Moses Irven, New Albany, Union county, Miss., in care of L. J. Terrell.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire through your paper for my sister. Her name was Carolee Harris, or Carolee Gayarre. Charles Gayarre was our owner before the war. I think that he sold her to a man by the name of Hyman Hart, in Osyka, Miss. When she left Osyka, Miss., I heard that she went to Texas. I was too yonng to know much about it. My father and mother were living in New Orleans. My mother's name was Susan and my father's name was Wilson Harris. We would be happy to hear from them. My name is Virginia Williams My sisters names are Alice and Ellen. My residence is 681 Dryades street, New Orleans, La. Should you hear of their whereabouts of my sister, address me, in care of Rev. John Qualls, First Street M. E, Church, New Orleans, La.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my brotner. His name is Augustine Narcisse. He left here with the Twenty-Sixth Louisiana Regiment, Company A, and served as a cook. He was captnred at Vicksbnrg, Miss., Jnly 4, 1863. Any information will be thankfully received. Address Martelan Robinson, care of Asbury M. E. Church, Rev. H. J. Wright, pastor.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inqnire of Mr. John Stewart if he conld tell me anything abont Sallie that yonr father bought from Mr. Cornelius Vanghn. When she was sold to your father she was about ten years old Any information that yon can give me will be thankfully received. I and brother Wm. Anderson are at Lexington, Ky. My mother's name is Caroline. Direct your letter to Lexington, Ky., No 2 South Upper street. Mr. John Stewart, if you can't remember the names please write to your brother, Wm. L. Stewart, whom, I am informed, lives in Chicago, Ill.

LACTART is the best and most healthfnl acid drink in the world. 25 and 50 cents.

The Methodist Advocate steadily improves on itself. It has a wide field and cultivates it well.

Prophylactic Fluid.

THE GREAT FAMILY MEDICINE.

Wonderful Healing Properties of

DARBYS PROPHYLACTIC FLUID

HEALING, CLEANSING, DISINFECTING.

IN CASE -OF- Accidents.

For Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, etc., it is invaluable and gives instant and permanent relief. It immediately allays pain. Nothing is necessary but to apply it directly to the parts affected. It will keep down Inflammation, Gangrene or Proud Flesh, and in a short time will heal without applying anything else. This was fully proved in the military hospitals during the late war. It has performed astonishing cures both in the case of men and animals afflicted with chronic sores. It cleanses and heals obstinate Ulcers, Boils, Carbuncles, Erysipelas and running sores of every kind. It destroys the disagreeable effluvia, arising from Cancers, Abscesses, Ulcers and every kind of purulent discharge.

FOR THE TOILET AND NURSERY. In the water used in bathing add a small quantity of Darbys Prophylactic Fluid. It is a cleansing lotion for the skin—healing, purifying and refreshing. Removes all taint of Perspiration from the body and whitens and softens the skin. Cures eruptions, Blotches, Prickly Heat, etc. Used as a dentifrice it purifies the breath, preserves the teeth and cures toothache, sore gums, canker, and deodorizes bad breath. Sore or inflamed Eyes are speedily cured. Perfectly harmless, used internally or externally.

FOR ANIMALS—HORSES, DOGS, ETC. Scratches, Sores, Galls, Bruises, Cuts or Wounds of any kind quickly and permanently healed by washing with the Fluid. Dr. J. HOUGH, the distinguished Veterinary Surgeon, says: "I find Darbys Prophylactic Fluid all that it is represented. As a local application I believe it to be without an equal." For Colic and Scours it acts like magic." Distemper, Diarrhœa and Worms in dogs quickly cured. It destroys all insect life, vermin on dogs and other animals—cleanses the skin—cures Mange, Scurvy and all kinds of skin diseases.

J. H. ZEILIN & CO., Philadelphia

june18-26t

Skin Diseases.—"Swayne's Ointment," "Swayne's Ointment" cures Tetter, salt Rheum, Ringworm, Sores, Pimples, Eczema, all Itchy Skin Eruptions, no matter how obstinate or long standing.

nov12-1yeow

M. E. Church Directory.

Southwestern Christian Advocate. Office 32 Natchez Street.

LA BARPE STREET CHURCH—Rev. Elijah Clarke, pastor Snoday services—Prayer meeting, 6 a m; Sn day-school, 9 a m; preaching at 11 a.m. 3 p m, and 7 p m; Class-meeting Tnesday night, at 7 o'clock; preaching Thursday night at 7 o clock; Communion first Sunday evenlog of ea h month, at 7 30.

FIRST GERMAN M. E. CHURCH—Corner St. Andrew and Frank lo street; Rev J. J. Kienle pastor Preaching at 10:30 a m, and Sunda -chool at 9 a m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.

SECOND GERMAN M. E. CHURCH—Eighth street; Rev Charles Schuler, pastor. Services Sabbath at 10:30 a m, and 7 p m; Snoday-school at 9 a m; Prayer meeting Wednesday evenings at 7:30.

ST. MATTHEW M. E CHURCH—On Varnet Street, Algiers, La. Sunday services: Preaching at 11 and 3; 7:30 at night. Prayer meeting 6:30 in the morning. Class meeting Wednesday, 7:30 p m Sunday-school at 1:30. R. O. Barrow, Pastor.

UNION CHAPEL M E. CHURCH—Services: Sundays, preaching 11 a m., 3 p. m. 7½ p. m. Sunday school at 1 o'clock. Class meeting Tuesday nights. Preaching Thursday nights. Prayer-meetings Friday nights. Stephen Duncan, Pastor, 42 Robinson street.

WESLEY CHAPEL—Liberty street, between Perdido and Poydras; Rev Marcus Dale, Pastor. Services: Sunday 6 a m; prayer meeting, preaching 11 a m; 3 and 7:0 p m; General Class and Love Feast monthly; preaching Thursday eve, 7:30; Class, Monday eve.

SIXTH STREET CHURCH—Between Laurel and Annonciation; Rev. E. Lyon, pastor. Services—Public worship Sabbath 11 a m, 3 and 7 p m. Communion every second Sunday at 7 p. m. Sunday-school 1 p m. Class-meeting Monday evening Preaching Wednesday evening. Prayer-meeting Friday evening. General Class first Monday night in every month. Prayer service at 5:30 a. m.

CAMP PARAPET CHURCH—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, Pastor. Sunday services—Prayer-meeting 6 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Sabbath at 1 p. m. Class-meetings. Thursday evening

HAVEN CHAPEL—JEFFERSON STREET. Carrollton, corner of Pinm street. Rev. M. O. B. Mason, Pastor. Services—Public worship at 11 a. m, 3 and 7 p. m, Sunday. Sunday-school ohool, 9 a. m. Class meeting Monday evening. General Class, second Sunday at 11 a. m, and communion at 7. Preaching Thursday evening.

New Orleans University A. F Hoyt, M. A., Acting President 1428 St. Charles Street

First Street Church—Rev. John Qualls, Pastor. Church corner First and Dryades Streets. Services: Sabbath—5 a. m., prayer meeting; 11, 3 and 7, public worship; communion monthly, on the first Sunday. Sunday-school 1 p. m. Class meeting Monday evening. General class every fourth Monday evening. Preaching Thursday nights.

MOUNT ZION M. E. CHURCH—James W Hudson, pastor. Regular services 11 a m, 3 and 7 p m; prayer meeting Monday eve at 4 p m. Tuesday night class meeting. Preaching Wednesday eve at 7 p m, and sacrament the third Sabbath of every month.

THOMSON CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Poet street, near Rampart, Sunday Services: preaching at 11, 3 and 7 Prayer meeting 8 in morning. Class meeting 3:30. Z. T. Gayden, pastor.

AMES M. E. CHURCH—Rev. Thomas Stalker, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sunday-school at 9.45 a. m. Prayer meeting, Thursday evening at 7 30.

PLEASANT PLAIN CHURCH—Perdido, bet. Johnson and Prieur streets, Rev. W.P. Forest, pastor. Services Sabbath: Preaching at 11 a m, 3:30 and 7:30 p m. Sunday-school at 9 a m; early prayer meeting at 5:30 a m: class at 5:30 p m; preaching Wednesday and prayer meeting Monday evenings. Sacrament every second Sabbath. Love feast quarterly.

General Church Directory.

CENTRAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Also College Church of Straight University A. M. A., corner Gasquet and Liberty streets, one block off Canal street. Services—Preaching Sundays at 11 a m and 7 p m; Sabbath-school 12:15 p m. Prayer meetings Tuesdays and Friday evenings at 7:30 p m. This church has a fine choir under good leadership, and is centrally located. Northern visitors and all true friends of the colored people are cordially invited to attend its services. Rev. G. W. Bothwell. M. A., pastor.

OUR CLUBBING LIST,

—1885—

Persons sending us cash with their orders can have the SOUTHWESTERN one year together with any one of the following publications, for amount opposite each as named:

Littell's Living Age	$9 00
Outing	3 00
Wide Awake	4 25
Babyland	1 75
Our Little Men and Women	2 25
The Pansy	2 00
Our Little Ones and the Nursery	2 25
American Agriculturist	2 50
Southern Cultivator	2 75
Popular Science Monthly	6 00
New York Medical Journal	6 00
Illustrated Christian Weekly	3 25
Harper's Magazine	5 00
Harper's Weekly	5 00
Harper's Bazar	5 00
Harper's Young People	3 00
American Reformer	2 00
Weekly Inter-Ocean	2 25
Babyhood	2 75

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez street, New Orleans.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS,

17 & 29 West 2d St., New York.

Have now ready

The History of the Negro Race in America.

From 1619 to 1881. Negroes as Slaves, as Soldiers and as Citizens,

Together with a preliminary consideration of the Unity of the Human Family, and Historica Sketch of Africa, and an account of the Negro Government of Sierra Leone and Liberia. By George W. Williams, first colored member of the Ohio Legislature, and late Judge Advocate of the G. A. R., of Ohio.

Popular Edition; two volumes in one, large octavo, with portrait on steel of the author. $4.

"It is a prodigious compilation, so comprehensive that every student will welcome it, and so just in its whole scope that criticism of special points can not impair it.—World, New York.

"It ought to be read by every colored man in America."—Journal, Indianapolis.

"He has accomplished a noble service for his race."—Zion's Herald, Boston.

☞ This book can be ordered through the office of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, New Orleans, La.

CORPULENCY Recipe and notes how to harmlessly, effectually and rapidly cure obesity without sensl starvation dietary, etc. European Mail, Oct 24th, says "Its effect is not merely to reduce the amount of fat, but by effecting the source of obesity to induce a radical cure of the disease Mr. W. makes no charge whatever; any person, rich or poor, can obtain his work gratis by sencing 6 cts. to cover postage to F. C RUSSELL, Esq., Woburn House, Store street Bedford Sq., London, Eng. may21-13t

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.

Bells For Churches, Schools, Etc.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
24 inches	165 lbs.	300 lbs.	$35 00
26 "	200 lbs.	350 lbs.	45 00
28 "	225 lbs.	375 lbs.	55 00
32 "	375 lbs.	550 lbs.	80 00
36 "	525 lbs.	750 lbs.	100 00
40 "	800 lbs.	1100 lbs.	145 00
44 "	1060 lbs.	1400 lbs.	180 00
48 "	1335 lbs.	1800 lbs.	230 00
54 "	2050 lbs.	2800 lbs.	350 00

Bells for Schools, Farms, Etc. without mountings.

18 inches	75 lbs.	$13 00
20 inches	100 lbs.	18 00
24 inches	165 lbs.	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named, which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.

The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.

On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 37 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.
Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.
VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.
mar5-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.
The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade.
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.
Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,
TROY, N. Y.
nov23-1yr

McShaneBellFoundry
Manufacture these celebrated Bells and Chimes for Churches, Tower Clocks, &c., &c. Price-list and circulars sent free. Address
HENRY McSHANE & CO.
oct23-1y Baltimore, Md.

Baltimore Church Bells
Since 1844 celebrated for Superiority over others, are made only of Purest Bell Metal, (Copper and Tin,) Rotary Mountings, warranted satisfactory. For Prices, Circulars, &c. address BALTIMORE BELL FOUNDRY, J. REGESTER & SONS, Baltimore, Md.
apr30 26teow

An Offer Never Equaled!
THE WEEKLY EDITION
—OF—
The TIMES DEMOCRAT,
NEW ORLEANS,
—AND—
THE WEEKLY EDITION
—OF—
TheNEW YORK WORLD,
NEW YORK,
FOR ONE YEAR
Only $2.20.
OR
THE TWO WEEKLIES
—AND A—
Waterbury Watch and Chain
FOR $4.20.

Either Weekly alone is worth more than the price asked for both, as they contain reviews of the news of the world, a vast amount of select literary matter, exhaustive commercial reports, in fact everything is embraced that tends to make a

First-class Family Newspaper.

The subscription price to Weekly Times-Democrat alone is $1.50 for 12 months; 75 cents for 6 months, or 50 cents for 3 months.

Every family in New Orleans not taking the Daily TIMES-DEMOCRAT should keep posted in the

NEWS OF THE WORLD,

by taking these Weeklies, and as an inducement we offer a good serviceable watch for the small addition mentioned above.

The WATERBURY WATCH is a stemwinder, and will run twenty-eight hours. The case is NICKLE-SILVER, and will always remain as bright as a new silver dollar. The Watch has a heavy beveled edge and a crystal face. The works of the Watch are made with the finest automatic machinery. Every watch is tested in varying positions, and is perfect before leaving the factory. Each Watch is put up in a handsome new improved SATIN-LINED CASE, for safe transportation through the mails

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Taken at the office of THE TIMES-DEMOCRAT, or by mail, when accompainied by subscription price.

For the Cheapest and Choicest
Family & Fancy Groceries,
SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE Hams, Bacon, &c., &c.,
—GO TO—
William A. Sullivan's GROCERY
Corner of
Washington and Hampson Streets
CARROLLTON, LA.
nov23-1y

A PRIZE Send six cents for postage, and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help you to more money right away than anything else in this world. All, of either sex, succeed from first hour. The broad road to fortune opens before the workers, absolutely sure. At once address, TRUE & Co., Augusta, Maine. feb19-26t

PHILLIP SAAL,

Dealer in Fancy and Staple Groceries. A Specialty of Butter, Tea Coffee, and Fine Family Groceries.

503 Dryades Street, (near St. Andrew st.,) New Orleans, La.
jan1-1y

Crescent Insurance Company.

Incorporated as a Mutual Company in 1849. Re-organized as a Stock Company in 1880.

CASH CAPITAL.....$600,000.

Has paid paid nearly TEN MILLIONS for losses since 1849. Annual and Term Policies issued on Desirable Fire Business.

W. R. Lyman, President, Chas. H. Dolsen, Vice President, Chas. E. Rice, Sec'y

TRUSTEES

Joseph Bowling,	Sam H. Kennedy,	Geo. W. Sentell,	Alfred Moulton,	W. B. Conger
W. R. Lyman,	U Marinoni,	Chas. H. Dolsen,	John Calder,	A. H. Stewart
S. O. Coulon,	Harry L. Flash,	Wm. A. Phelps,	J. J. Reiss,	Louis Prados
Lnolen Delery,	Charles Newman,	N. D. Wallace,	Sigmund Katz,	M. Gillis
R. F. W. Buchman,	C. K. David,	Wm. Garig,	A. Rosenfeld,	John D. Flahe
Chas E. Rice,	Joseph Kohn,	Chas. M. Whitney,	James T. Rodd.

☞ See our Agents throughout the South. oct9 1y

AN ADVERTISING AGENCY.

Newspapers.

Catalogue.

Advertisement.

Our Lists.

Estimates.

Printing Office.

Our System.

Payment.

We receive and keep on file over 12,000 Newspapers published in every State and Province in America. Over 1000 Daily papers alone arrive every morning. Each paper is examined by careful clerks and the insertions entered in record books. Under our system an advertiser is sure to receive the full value for his money.

We publish the "American Newspaper Catalogue," a volume of 900 pages elegantly bound in cloth, and containing a complete list of the publications of every character in the United States and Canada. On one line we give place of publication, name of paper, class or denomination, age and circulation. In it are catalogued 14,000 periodicals. Sent free on receipt of $1.50.

We can secure the prompt insertion of any advertisement in any publication at the lowest attainable prices. We keep constantly invested over $200,000 "in space" in the best lines of newspapers. Our special lists of Papers will be found especially useful in making up lists for pushing any special lines.

We have, for the convenience of advertisers, made up our Religious List containing the names of all the leading denominational papers with prices. Our Agricultural List containing the names of all the prominent agricultural papers with prices. Our Local List of 1,300 County and City Weeklies and Dailies, arranged by States with publishers' prices and the prices at which we can insert advertisements. These Lists are mailed free on application.

We will furnish to any reputable advertiser who will apply, an estimate showing exact cost of any proposed line of advertising, and when desired, will make up lists and write advertisements, provided the amount desired to be expended is named. We have had a wide experience, and can suggest lines of papers best adapted to the wants of an advertiser.

We keep constantly supplied with the newest styles of type best adapted to the display of advertisements. Send us your copy and we will return with estimate & proof from type without extra charge.

Our organization for correctly following an advertisement in the newspapers is perfect, and our patrons can be assured that correct work from every publisher will be exacted.

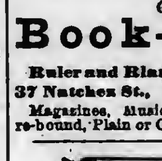
To any advertiser entitled to credit, or any one who can furnish us proper references, we will extend any reasonable line of credit. Publishers pay us a commission for all the business we send them, and any advertiser can be assured of obtaining through us lower prices than can be obtained from publishers direct. In no instance do we charge advertisers any addition to publishers' rates.

Edwin Alden & Bro.,

N.W. Cor. 5th & Vine Sts., CINCINNATI.
140 Nassau Street, NEW YORK.

Newspaper Advertising Agents.

GEORGE LANDRY,



Undertaker.

292.....Rampart Street.....292
(Between Hospital and Barracks streets)
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Entrepreneur de Pompes Funebres.
All orders promptly and carefully executed a moderate prices.
sept25-tf A. LABAT, Ass't Manager.

J. T. Newman, M. D.,
—PRACTICING—
Surgeon and Physician,
315 Felicity Street,
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
☞ Makes a specialty of treating colored people. jan15-1y

E. W. Scheffel,
GENERAL
Book-Binder,
Ruler and Blank Book Manufacturer.
37 Natchez St., [up-stairs] New Orleans.
Magazines, Music, Periodicals and Old Books re-bound, Plain or Ornamental. jan23

Bibles at 1-2 and Old Testaments at less than 1-3 the prices of the English editions, and equal to the English in type, paper, printing and accuracy. First agent sent out reports an order at every call for two weeks. Rare chance for agents to make money. Send $1.00 for outfit. TERMS VERY LIBERAL. The Henry Bill Pub. Co., Norwich, Conn.
may14-tf

WANTED LADIES AND GENTLEMEN who wish to make $8 to $4 a day easily at their own homes. Work sent by mail. No canvassing. Address with stamp Crown M'f'g. Co., 294 Vine St., Cin'ti, O.
jy15 4t

20 YEARS OF CONGRESS. BY JAMES G. BLAINE
1,000,000 Copies will soon be sold. The only history of our Government from 1861 to 1881. Hon. John S. Wise, M. C. from Virginia, says: "Whoever takes it up, no matter whether he be Mr. Blaine's friend or enemy, will never put it down until he has read the whole." $200 per month to good responsible agents. Apply at once, The Henry Bill Publishing Company, Norwich, Conn.
dec30-26t

The Great Church LIGHT.

PRINK'S Patent Reflectors give the Most Powerful, the Softest, Cheapest and the Best Light known for Churches, Stores, Show Windows, Parlors, Banks, Offices, Picture Galleries, Theatres, Depots, etc. New and elegant designs. Send size of room. Get circular and estimate. A liberal discount to churches and the trade.
I. P. PRINK, 551 Pearl St., N. Y.
jy15-3t eow

A BIG OFFER To introduce them, we will GIVE AWAY 5,000 Self-Operating Washing Machines. If you want one send us your name, address, and express office at once. THE NATIONAL CO., 26 DEY STREET, N. Y.
jy8-2teow

eod28-2

AGENTS WANTED for Twenty Years of Congress, 1861—1881, by James G. Blaine. Hon. J. S. Wise of Va. says: "Whoever takes it up, no matter whether he be Mr. Blaine's friend or enemy, will never put it down until he has read the whole." Agents make from $200 to $1000 per month. Address, The Henry Bill Pub. Co., Norwich, Conn.
apr9-tf

Pianos & Organs Of all makes direct to customers from headquarters, at wholesale prices. All goods guaranteed. No money asked till instruments are received and fully tested. Write us before purchasing. An investment of 2 cents may save you from $50.00 to $100.00. Address JESSE FRENCH, Nashville, Tenn. Wholesale Distributing Dep't for the South.
feb19-1y

AGENTS WANTED for the MISSOURI STEAM WASHER. I want intelligent men or women needing profitable employment to write for illustr. Circular and terms of Agency. A great labor, clothes and soap saver. Exclusive territory and sample Washer sent on a weeks trial. Pays capable Agents Big Money. J. WORTH, St. Louis, Mo.
jan22 26t

FEMALE COMPLAINTS
Treated scientifically at home, as very small expense, with absolutely no pain, no exposure, no unnecessary questions. Permanent cure guaranteed. Book and question blank free. Address with stamp, Dr. C. N. BROCKINGTON, (Mention this paper.) 589 4th Ave., Louisville, Ky.

CATARRH
Causing Loss of Smell, Offensive Breath, Sore Throat, Deafness, Hay Fever, Cough and Consumption, cured in from one to three months, even though bones of nose are affected. No snuffs, washes, douches, inhalers or atomizers used. Book and blank free. Address with stamp, Dr. C. N. BROCKINGTON, [Mention this paper.] 589 4th Ave., Louisville, Ky.
oct2 1yr

It is THE GREAT SOUTHERN REMEDY for all bowels. It is one of the most pleasant and effective remedies for all summer complaints. At the season when violent attacks of the bowels are so frequent, some speedy relief should be at hand. The wearied mother losing sleep in nursing the little one teething, should use this medicine. 50 cts. a bottle. Send 2c. stamp to Walter A. Taylor, Atlanta, Ga., for Riddle Book.

Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein will cure Coughs, Croup and Consumption. Price, 25c. and $1 a bottle.

OPIUM and WHISKY HABIT cured at home without pain. Book of particulars sent Free. B. M. WOOLLEY, M. D., Atlanta, Ga.
apr2-5 26

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co. 106 Wall Street, N. Y.

Sunday-School and Children.

Dear Brethren of the Louisiana Conference: Allow me to impress upon you the importance of keeping a constant eye to the Sunday School work of your several charges. There is no department under your care which demands closer attention, or more sacrificing labor. Most of the great and good men now in the lead in the Christian Church, got their first impressions for the work they delight so much in doing in the Sunday School.

Give it due attention, brethren, and you will see immediate good results.

Let me call your attention to the action of the last session of our conference regarding this important work, when it was made our duty to hold conventions of Sunday School workers for the promotion of the work. (See Conference Journal, pages 247 248.) Most of the district conferences are yet to meet, which affords ample opportunity for further agitation and pushing the work which Bishop Mallalieu and Bro. Gillet have given such an impetus. Your brother and colaborer,

J. F. MARSHALL,
President Sunday School Society,
Louisiana Conference.

Miss Mary E. Dent writes: "Since I have been reading the SOUTHWESTERN I am moved to write and tell you that I am interested in Christian work. We are glad we are able to have a colored pastor, and that he is able to do the work so well.

Morgantown, Ky.

Even the little girls admire and read the SOUTHWESTERN. We have many admirers. Now, if each of them, little and big, would send us one new cash subscriber, how we should admire and love them, and laugh and be happy over it.

Molly Cheek, Evelin Donald son, Martha Harris and Lizzie Clarke, four little girls, got up an entertainment, June 27, from which they netted $4 90 for the Sunday School of Bowman M. E. Church. This, with other money in the treasury, enabled us to pay for our Sunday School supplies up to Jan. 1st. We wish in this to encourage other Sunday School scholars to work for the Lord.

D. MCFARLAND,
Superintendent Sunday School M. E. S. S.

In the Southwest.

Rev. Edward Wills, founder and pastor of the University street Baptist church, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I strongly endorse [illegible] complete- [illegible]dly disor- [illegible]lity." It is [illegible].

[illegible] Dowd and Miss Sherrod and Miss [illegible] Jackson were united in marriage, together in holy [illegible]ony, Rev. [illegible] officiating.

[illegible] audience of the bride in Fen- [illegible] July 14, 1885, Mr. Elias [illegible] Phinney Jenkins were [illegible] M. E. Hunter, officiating.

[illegible] bride's mother

[illegible]

Shubuta, Miss., June 25, 1885, Mr. Nehemiah Dobson and Miss Mahalia Jackson were united in married; Rev. P. Bine officiating.

On June 6, 1885, Mr. Peter Dickson to Miss Rebecca Johnson. Mr. Peter Dickson is one of the young men of our church. At the residence of Mrs. Elkins and Voluntine H. Labranch to Miss Adline Elkins; Rev. G. A. Payne officing.

For all diseases of the kidneys and liver, physicians prescribe Hunt's Remedy.

Obituary.

Sister Aggie Pullam, Bro. Donhe Canron and Bro. Tom Benton all died in faith in the Lord, in 1885, in Columbus, Miss. J. W. PARKS.

Sisters Calley Noles, Ada Noles and Geranna Fields died in the triumph of faith; also Sister Maria Randal. Sister Gladney, 108 years old, has passed away; she was a member of the church. Sister Sedley Booker has also gone leaving three children to mourn her loss.

M. PROCTOR.

Aberdeen, Miss.

You should have a case of LACTART sent direct to your summer resort. You will find it a paying investment. Sold by druggists and grocers.

Conference Notices.

Plan of Episcopal Visitation.—1885. Fall Conferences.

[ALPHABETICAL.]

CONFERENCE.	PLACE.	TIME.	BISHOP.
Alabama	Edwardsville, Ala.	Nov 26	Mallalieu
Arizona Miss.	Tucson, Arizona.	Sept 17.	Fowler
Austin	Denton, Texas.	Dec 10.	Foster
Black Hills Miss.	Rapid City, Dak.	Aug. 20.	Ninde
Blue Ridge	Gastonia, N. C.	Oct. 1.	Mallalieu
Bulgaria Miss.	Rustchuk, Bul.	Oct. 1.
California	Stockton, Cal.	Sept. 3.	Fowler
Central Alabama	Mobile, Ala.	Dec. 10	Mallalieu
Central China mis'n	Kiukiang, China.	Oct. 14
Central German	Columbus, Ohio.	Sept 10.	Harris
Central Illinois	Fairbury, Ill.	Sept 24.	Warren
Central New York	Syracuse, N. Y.	Oct 3.	Merrill
Central Ohio	Fostoria, O.	Sept 17.	Harris
Central Tennessee	Tullahoma, Tenn.	Oct 15	Mallalieu
Chicago German	Manitowoc, Wis.	Sept 17	Bowman
Cincinnati	Cincinnati, O.	Sept 3.	Harris
Colorado	Pueblo, Col.	Aug 20	Andrews
Dakota miss'n	Brent, Dak.	Oct 8.	Foss
Des Moines	Des Moines, Ia.	Sept 17.	Foss
Detroit	Pontiac, Mich.	Sept 10	Warren
East Ohio	Barnesville, O.	Sept 17.	Foster
East Tennessee	Knoxville, Tenn.	Oct 23	Harris
Erie	Sharon, Pa.	Sept 10.	Merrill
Foochow	Foochow, China.	Nov 19.
Genesee	Lima, N Y.	Oct 1.	Hurst
Georgia	Ellijay, Ga.	Nov 19	Mallalieu
Holston	Johnson City, Tenn	Oct 15.	Hurst
Illinois	Rushville, Ill.	Sept 17.	Ninde
Indiana	Spencer, Ind.	Aug 27.	Harris
Iowa	Mt. Pleasant, Ia.	Sept 10.	Ninde
Japan	Tokio, Japan.	Aug 20.
Kentucky	Covington, Ky.	Oct 1.	Harris
Michigan	Grand Rapids, Mich.	Sept 17.	Warren
Minnesota	Rochester, Minn.	Oct 1.	Andrews
Nebraska	Seward, Neb.	Sept 17	Andrews
Nevada miss'n	Bishop's Ck, Nev.	Aug 20.	Fowler
New Mexico miss'n	Santa Fe, N. Mex.	Oct 1.	Fowler
" Spanish	Peralta, New Mex.	Sept 24.	Fowler
North China mis'n	Peking, China.	Sept 24.
North Dakota	Wahpeton, Dak.	Sept 17.	Walden
North Nebraska	Ponca, Neb.	Sept 3.	Andrews
North Ohio	Berea, Ohio.	Sept 3.	Merrill
North West German	LeSeur, Minn.	Sept 24	Andrews
North West Indiana	Valparaiso, Ind.	Sept 3.	Foss
North West Iowa	Storm Lake, Ia.	Sept 24.	Foss
North West Swedish	Dayton, Ia.	Sept 3.	Bowman
Nova Scotia	Cambridge, Wis.	Sept 10	Bowman
Ohio	Delaware, Ohio.	Sept 24.	Foster
Oregon	Roseburg, Oreg.	Aug 27.	Walden
Pittsburgh	Allegheny City, Pa.	Sept 17.	Merrill
Puget Sound	Tacoma, W. T.	Aug 13.	Waldan
Rock River	Elgin, Ill.	Oct 8.	Fowler
St. Louis German	St. Louis, Mo.	Sept 10	Foss
Savannah	Savannah, Ga.	Dec 3	Mallalieu
South Indiana	Crookville, Ind.	Sept 24.	Harris
South California	Santa Barbara, Cal	Sept 10.	Fowler
South German	San Antonio, Tex.	Nov 19.	Foster
South Illinois	Edwardsville, Ill.	Sept 24.	Ninde
Tennessee	Gallatin, Tenn.	Oct 22	Mallalieu
Texas	Houston, Tex.	Nov 26.	Foster
Upper Iowa	Toledo, Ia.	Oct 1.	Warren
West German	Claytonia, Neb.	Sept 3.	Ninde
West Nebraska	Kearney, Neb.	Sept 10	Andrews
West Texas	Austin, Tex.	Dec 3.	Foster
West Virginia	Charleston, W. Va.	Sept 24.	Merrill
Wisconsin	Dodgeville, Wis.	Sept 24	Bowman
Wisconsin	Waukesha, Wis.	Oct 1.	Bowman

By order of the Board of Bishops.

WM. L. HARRIS, Secretary.

St. Louis, Mo., May 18, 1885.

Baton Rouge District—Louisiana Conference.

Third Round.

Clinton	Aug	21
Macedonia	"	22
Comite	"	23
Norwood and Sweet Home	"	25-26
Wesley Chapel	"	27
Mt. Carmel	"	29
Jackson	Sept.	1
Plains	"	5
Mt. Pleasant	"	6
Jones Creek	"	9
Stony Point	"	12-13
East Baton Rouge	"	14
Dutch Store	"	15
Plaquemine	"	19
Rosedale	"	21
Musson	"	23
West Baton Rouge	"	26
Union Chapel	Oct.	1
Bayou Letsworth	"	2
Lake Providence	"	4

S. PRIESTLEY, P. E.

Palestine District.

Fourth Round.

Sabine and Shelby	Aug.	22-23
San Augustine	"	24-25
Jacksonville	"	20-30
Hawkins	Sept.	5- 6
Mineola	"	12-13
Crockett	"	19-20
Madison circuit	"	26.27
Leona	Oct.	3- 4
Hopewell and Shiloh	"	10-11
Cotton Gin	"	17-18
Fairfield	"	24-25
Butler	Oct. 31, Nov.	1
Rocky Mound	"	7- 8
Palestine	"	14-15

G. W. SMITH, P. E.

Gulf District Camp Meeting.

Ocean Springs Camp Meeting will open on the 10th and close on the 21st inst., at Ocean Springs, Miss., on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad. Mr. O. M Dunn Superintendent of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad has promised to have the two day trains stop at the Camp Ground. The morning train from New Orleans and the evening train from Mobile will be the only trains that will stop.

Bishop W. F. Mallalieu, D D., Rev. Dr. M. W. Taylor, editor, Rev. A. E. P. Albert, Rev. M. Dale, and Rev. John Qualls are invited to attend the camp meeting, the ministers in charge of the Gulf District, and also [illegible] of the Mississippi Conference are invited.

R. CASSIDY, P. C.
W. McDONALD, P. E.
Committee.

Notice.

The district conference for Huntsville District, Central Alabama Conference, will convene in Scottsboro on Thursday before the second Sunday in August. All the members of the conference are cordially invited and urged to be present with their reports and money.

A. S. LAKIN, P. E.

Huntsville, Ala., July 16, 1885.

Notice.

The District Conferences will be held September 3 d instead of the 4th. As the 4th is Friday business will begin Thursday; and the opening Sermon Wednesday night, Sept. 2. Brethren, please make this correction at once

W. H. DAVIS, P. E.

San Antonio District Conference.

The District Conference for San Antonio District will meet at Mt. Pleasant, 10 miles south of Seguin, on September 16, at 8 o'clock p. m., and close Sunday night, the 20th. Arrangements will be made to take every member of the district conference from Seguin to Mt. Pleasant free of charge, provided they come to Seguin Wednesday. All others will find transportation at reasonable rates. All persons who attend and are entertained by the committee will be expected to contribute something toward the expense of the entertainment.

PROGRAMME.

What is repentance?—E Jones.
Saving faith—J F Jacobs.
Mode of baptism—E Duncan.
Holiness or perfect love—W Goodwin.
Sketch of a sermon, Matt. 7, 7—S W Harvey.
How to get Sunday-school scholars converted—G W Townsend.
Paragraph 553 of the Discipline—J H Holden.
Preparation for the pulpit—W Reed.
Historical sketch of San Antonio District—J R Carnes.
Importance of our frontier work—J Brawley.
The Third Commandment—R Dukes.
The Fourth Commandment—J T Gibbons.
The Seventh Commandment—A M Mason.
Benefits of the Centennial Conference—M Henson.
Bishop Taylor, his prospects of success—A R Norris.

The local preachers will prepare themselves on subjects of their own selection.

Opening sermon by W Goodwin, Wednesday night. Temperance mass meeting Saturday night; addresses by J R Carnes and J T Gibbons.

Sunday Convention Friday night, addresses by M Henson and G W Townsend. Missionary meeting Saturday night—A M Mason and A R Norris.

Saturday and Sunday mornings at 9 o'clock Model Sunday-school conducted by M Henson.

All the local preachers and exhorters in the district are especially requested to be present as it will be their only chance to have their license renewed this year.

G. W. RICHARDSON, P. E

NOTICE.—Change of Time.

The Annual Camp meeting of the Cleveland charge, that was to have commenced at Lewis' Camp Ground, one mile from Tyner's Station Tenn., on the E. T. V. & G. R. R. on Saturday, before the first Sunday in August, 1885, by request of a goodly number of friends, has been changed from the 1st to the 4th Sunday day in August, 1885. I hope all will notice the change and govern themselves accordingly. L. M. MOORES, Pastor.

Bowling Green District Conference.

The first district conference of the Bowling Green District, Lexington conference, will be held at Eddyville, Lyon county, Ky., commencing July 21st and ending Aug. 3, 1885. The conference will open promptly at 10:30 o'clock a. m. The conference sermon will be preached by Rev. D. Hickman. The district Missionary sermon will be preached by Rev. Ezra D Miller. Rev. M W Taylor will be present and represent the interests of the SOUTHWESTERN. Revs. Courtney, White, Locke and Jones are cordially invited to attend the present session of our district conference. We trust that we shall have a full attendance of the members of the district. Brethren, what have you done for the benevolent collections? We hope to hear from you in the district conference touching this important matter.

A. BOOKER, P. E.

Jackson District—Mississippi Conference.

Third Round.

Vicksburg ct	Aug.	6
Vicksburg	"	8- 9
Mayersville	"	13
Rolling Fork	"	15-16
Bolton	"	22-23
Edwards	"	29 30
Clinton	Sept.	1
Steen's Creek	"	3
Jackson	"	5- 6
Jackson circuit	"	5- 6
Canton	"	12 13
Canton circuit	"	12-13
Madison	"	14
Pelahatchie	"	17
Brandon	"	19 20
Trenton	"	22
Lake	"	24
Forrest	"	26 27
Morton, at Silvester	"	29
Hickory	Oct.	3- 4
Chunkey	"	3- 4

The first district conference for the Jackson district, Mississippi Conference, M. E. Church, will convene in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Bolton, Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, Aug 20, 1885. A large attendance is earnestly requested to be present. J. M. SHUMPERT, P. E.

Morristown District—East Tennessee Conference.

Fourth Round.

Knoxville ct	Aug.	1- 2
Clinton and Coal Creek ct	"	8- 9
Greenville	"	15-16
Arcadia	"	22-23
Johnson City	"	29-30
Morristown sta	Sept.	5- 6
Tazewell	"	12-13
Warrensburg	"	19-20
Russellville	"	26-27
Knoxville sta	Oct.	3- 4
Newport	"	10-11
Mossy Creek	"	14-15
Dandridge	"	18-19

The district conference will be held at Coal Creek, in Anderson county, Tennessee, commencing on the 5th day of Aug., 1885, and the pastors will please try to bring up all of the assessments for benevolent causes to the district conference.

S. J. HARRIS, P. E.

Baton Rouge District—Home Mission Work.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Home Mission work for the Baton Rouge District, will commence Sept. 24, in Baton Rouge. The President of each auxiliary society is expected to be present with full reports. The following is the programme:

Annual sermon—S Priestley.
Difficulties of the work—Hester Williams
Pastor's relation to the work—R Thompson.
Pastor's influence in Sunday-school—C A Taylor
Statistical account of the work by each auxiliary President.
Is the mission work reaching the children—Geo W Wells.
Are our women a success in home mission work?—General discussion.
Does the mission work help the pastor?—M P Franklin.

Rev. W. P. Forest, of Pleasant Plains, New Orleans, is expected to be present, also Mrs. Marcus Dale and M C. B. Mason, of New Orleans.

HESTER WILLIAMS,
District Manager Baton Rouge District.

Programme

Of the first Tennessee District Conference which will convene at Mason Tipton circuit, Tenn., Aug. 25, 1885:

The opening sermon will be preached by W L Taylor, on Tuesday night.
Faith in the Holy Trinity—S B Dunlay.
The resurrection of Christ—J B Bradford.
Temperance—W L Taylor.
Will the soul be utterly destroyed—A F Lane.
Regeneration—H Dunlap.
Purgatory—G G Harden.
Christian men's goods—R Palmer.
Steward's work—D Collier.
The sacrament—A Burdett.
Baptism—J A W Moore
Methodist Literature—J L Massey.
Membership of the church—E M Manslon.
Means of grace, part 1, chaptor 3—J F R Summerhill
The mission of the M E Church—J W Hall.
Church debts and how to contract them—G W Marsh.
Is there a hell?—A Swift.
The attributes of God—C L Fields.
How to conduct revivals—A Porter.

The local preachers and exhorters will choose their own subjects.

Our District Sunday-school Institute will begin on Friday. We hope to have all the charges represented by the superintendents, and statements of how he or she conducts Sunday school. Bring your journals, etc.

E. M MANSION, Sec.
J. A. W. MOORE,
J. W. HALL
Committee.

Notice.

The Houston District Camp meeting, Texas Conference, to be held at the Asbury-Simpson Camp Ground near Harrisburg, will commence July 16. As all the preachers of the Houston district have had nine months notice it is expected they will be camped on the ground with their congregations the first day. As the ground is convenient for other districts and a part of the West Texas Conference we give all their pastors and congregations a hearty invitation to come and join us.

P. MORGAN,
Sec'y Camp Meeting Association.

Notice.

The Sunday-school convention will convene at Hempstead July 23rd. All the superintendents and pastors on each charge on the Navasota District are expected to attend. W. B. PULLAM, P. E.

Houston, July 2.

Chattanooga District—East Tennessee Conference.

Fourth Round.

Soddy	July	18-19
Big Spring	"	25-26
Ebenezer	Aug.	1 2
Sweetwater	"	8 9
Washington	"	15 16
Kingston	"	22 23
Robertsville	"	29 30
Chattanooga station	Sept.	5 6
Jasper	"	12 13
Riceville	"	19 20
Cleveland	"	26 27
Chattanooga ct	Oct.	3 4
Georgetown	"	10-11

The district conference will convene in Roane co., Tenn., Aug. 20, at 9 a. m., a full attendance is desired. The pastors will please notify the local preachers and exhorters, superintendents of Sunday-schools and class-leaders from each charge to represent the Sunday-school work and class meetings. All members of the district conference should come with written reports. E. PROVINE, P. E.

Programme

Of the Sunday school convention to be held at Clark's Chapel, August 15, 1885. Come one, come all. A grand procession will march from the church to the grove. Services will be opened at 8 o'clock a. m., by Rev. C. H. Bullington, Address of welcome by G. G. Gordon.

Rev. B F Whitley—Needs of the Sunday-school
Dr. W H Ballard—Punctuality.
R T Gordon—The need of education.
J R Reasonover—Duty of the teacher.
A F Whitley—Progress of Negroes.
Rev. O Green—Duty of parents.
G L Oakley—Duty of the secretary.
G S Manier—How to conduct a Sunday-school.
R W Baird—Best method of teaching.
J C McKinley—Education.
C B Whitley—Temperance.
B J Anderson—Foundation of Sunday-school.
B E James—Benefit of Sunday-school.
Rev. C H Bullington—Character of young men and ladies.
A C Allen—Should parents attend Sunday-school.
M Allen—Why young men and ladies do not attend Sunday school.

There will be a grand barbecue.

R. A. DOWELL, Supt.
G. G. GORDON, Sec'y.

TO HAVE HEALTH THE LIVER MUST BE IN ORDER.
DR. SANFORD'S
LIVER
INVIGORATOR
Is a Reliable Remedy for Liver Complaints and ills caused by a deranged or torpid condition of the Liver, as Dyspepsia, Constipation, Biliousness, Jaundice, Headache, Malaria, Rheumatism, etc. It regulates the bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the system, assists digestion. AN INVALUABLE FAMILY MEDICINE. Thousands of testimonials prove its merit. ANY DRUGGIST WILL TELL YOU ITS REPUTATION.
ap 30 13teowwr

Just Published.

ISAAC W. WILEY,

LATE BISHOP OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

A MONOGRAPH

Edited by RICHARD S. RUST, D. D., LL. D.

8vo. Pp. 240,

Portrait and Engraving of Foochow Mission Cemetery.

Beveled boards, Silk Cloth, $1.50.

This volume is now ready. It contains twelve sketches, prepared by as many different writers, each presenting a separate phase of the Bishop's history and character, as follows.

I. Early Life and Ministry, Henry A. Buttz, D. D., Madison, N. J.
II. Mission Life. Erastus Wentworth, D.D., Sandy Hill, N. Y.
III. The Educator. William V. Kelley, D. D., Middletown, Conn.
IV. Editor and Author. Bishop J. M Walden, LL. D, Chattanooga, Tenn
V. The Bishop. Bishop Stephen M. Merrill, D. D, Chicago, Ill.
VI. Residence in New England, Prof. Luther T. Townsend, D. D., Boston, Mass.
VII. Freedmen's Aid Society. Richard S. Rust, Cincinnati.
VIII. Woman's Home Missionary Society. Elizabeth L. Rust D. D., Cincinnati.
IX. The Philanthropist. Marshall W. Taylor, D. D., New Orleans, La.
X. The Literary Character. Samuel W. Williams, A. M., Cincinnati.
XI. The Orator. James M Buckley, D. D., New York.
XII. The Man. Isaac W. Joyce, D. D, Cincinnati.

These are followed by an account of the closing scenes of his life and the memorial services held in Cincinnati and elsewhere, with extracts from the editorial sketches published in our Church papers. The volume fittingly concludes with the prayer offered by Bishop Wiley at the close of the last General Conference. In the great variety of style and the topics introduced, as well as in the outlines of a life devoted to the cause of Christ and his Church, the reader will discover no lack of interest, and will find much to profit and instruct. Send order at once. Put the book into the hands of your family, and into the Sunday-school library.

Cranston & Stowe,
Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis.

We want our ministers all over the South to send and get this Book. There is in it much which is of especial importance to our colored preachers and people.—EDITOR.

Central Tennessee College,
NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE. Chartered in 1866.

Under the Auspices of the Freedmen's Aid Society of the M. E. Church.

—COURSES OF STUDY—

ENGLISH, NORMAL, BUSINESS, ACADEMIC, COLLEGIATE, THEOLOGICAL, MEDICAL, LAW AND INDUSTRIAL.

Pharmacy and Dentistry to be added soon.

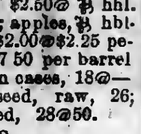
More than twenty teachers connected with all the departments, and over four hundred students enrolled last year. Six buildings, conveniently and pleasantly located. The private rooms of the young men and young women are in different buildings.

Any person of good moral character may be admitted as a student, at any time, but it is better to enter at the beginning of the school year. Theological students are granted reduced rates.

Special attention given to training teachers.

The Session Begins Monday, September 7, 1885.

Medical and Law Departments, October 5, 1885.



EXPENSES—Tuition $1 per month, four weeks. Tuition, board, room, fuel, etc., school month, $8.50 to $10. Tuition for the session in Medical and Law Departments, $30.

For further information, circulars or catalogues, address.

j.15 REV. J. BRADEN, Nashville, Tenn.

COLUMBIA ATHENÆUM A School for Young Ladies.
COLUMBIA, TENN. Healthy Location; handsome grounds (22 acres); Capacious buildings, well lighted, heated and ventilated; fine Library, Apparatus and Equipment; 17 teachers; thorough and complete course of Instruction. Best advantages in Music, Elocution, Painting, etc. No sectarianism. 34th annual session begins Monday, September 7th, 1885. Prices reasonable. Illustrated Catalogue Free.
jn1 30-4t

KENTUCKY MILITARY INSTITUTE.

At Farmdale P. O., Franklin Co., Ky., six miles from Frankfort. Has the most healthful and beautiful location in the State. Lit by gas as well as heated by steam. A full and able College Faculty. Expenses as moderate as any first-class college. Forty-first year begins September 7th. For catalogues, etc., address as above.
COL. R. D. ALLEN, Supt.
j.23 8t

NEW ORLEANS MARKET.

SOUTHWESTERN OFFICE, June 27, 1885.

LEADING STAPLES.

Readers will remember that the quotations given are for round lots, and higher prices must be paid for small orders.

COTTON, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 8½; Middling 9 15 16; Good Middling, 10 3-16; Middling fair, 11 7-16.

SUGAR, ℔ lb—Yellow clarified, 5¼@5½; White clarified, 5¼@5½; Common 4¼@4½; MOLASSES, in hhls, ℔ gallon—Common, 17@22; fair, 23@25; choice, 41@43c.

RICE, Louisiana, ℔ lb—Common, 4¼@4½ fair, 5@5½; choice, 5¼@6.

MOSS, ℔ lb—Mixed, 2@2½; gray, 1@2; black, 3@4½.

GROCERIES.

BUTTER, ℔ lb—Western 20@21.

COFFEE, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 7½; prime, 9½

CHEESE, ℔ lb—Western factory —@8

CORN MEAL, ℔ bbl—Choice, $3.25.

FLOUR, ℔ bbl.—Fancy, 4.37½; Choice 5.15; Family, $5@—.

LARD, ℔ lb—Choice, 6¼.

SALT, ℔ Sack—Coarse, 70c.; Fine, 90c;

ESCULENTS—Irish potatoes, ℔ bbl., $1 00@1 25; sweet potatoes, $2.50@ ℔ bbl. onions, ℔ bbl. $2 25@2.50; apples, ℔ bbl. $3.00@$4.00; cabbages, $2.00@$2.25 per crate; sour krout, $4.50@7 50 per barrel

OILS, ℔ gallon—Coal, in cases, 18@—; coal, in bbl. 13@—; linseed, raw, 26; boiled, 63@65; cotton seed, 28@50.

PROVISIONS.

MESS PORK, ℔ bbl—Choice, $11.12½.

BACON, ℔ lb—Breakfast, 9½; shoulders, 6@—; sides, short rib, 6¾; sides, long clear, 6¾; hams, sugar-cured, 9@9½.

DRY SALT MEAT, ℔ lb—Clear rib sides, 5.6; clear sides, 5.6; shoulders, 3 7@3.9.

POULTRY AND EGGS.

Louisiana Poultry — Grown chickens 3.00@3.27; young $1.50@$2.00; ducks, $2.00@2.50; geese $4.@$4 50; turkeys $9.@12.

Western Eggs 11@12c per dozen

Louisiana Eggs 12@12½c per dozen.

Feathers—Best live geese feathers 40@55c. ℔ lb. second grades 15@25c.

Educate your daughter at the Columbia Athenæum, Columbia, Tenn. Handsome grounds and shady groves beautifully situated. Unsurpassed for comfort, health and safety. Instruction thorough and practically useful. Be sure and send for catalogue before deciding.

Glendale Boy's School
A first-class Home School. New term commences Thursday Sept. 17th, 1885. Send for terms and particulars. E. A. HAIGHT, Principal, Kirkwood, Mo.
jy23-8t

EDUCATIONAL.

COLLEGE OF
Physicans and Surgeons,
BALTIMORE, MD.
This school offers to Medical students unsurpassed clinical and other advantages. Send for catalogue to
Dr. THOS. OPIE, Dean,
jy8.1m 179 N. Howard Street.

Albemarle Female Institute,
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA
Full corps of superior teachers; course of instruction thorough and extensive; location healthful and accessible; scenery beautiful; surroundings most attractive; terms very moderate; order catalogue.
W. P DICKINSON, Principal.
jy15-1m

1855. THE NATIONAL NORMAL. 1885.
UNIVERSITY Tuition Expenses $2.50 to $5.00 a week. Over 2,500 enrolled. Over 20 dp'ts maintained. All professions provided for. Legal Diplomas conferred. Over 5,000 Teachers and Bookkeepers trained here have been helped to good situations. Any young Man or Woman can pursue here any study with Less expense of Time & Money than at any other Institution in the U. S. Catalogue and full Information free. HOLBROOK
Address Pres. ALFRED Lebanon, Warren Co., O.
july8-4teow

Washington and Lee
UNIVERSITY,
LEXINGTON, VA.
Instructions in the usual academic studies and in the professional schools of Law and Engineering. Location healthful; expenses moderate. Session opens Sept. 17. For catalogue, address "Clerk of the Faculty." G. W. C. LEE, jy8-2m President.

Law School
OF
WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY.
Gen. G. W. C. LEE, President.
Instruction by text books and printed lectures, with courses of lectures on special subjects [illegible] tuition and fees $80 for session of nine months, beginning Sept. 17. For catalogue and full information address Chas. A. Graves, Prof. of Law, Lexington, Va. jy8-2in

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 20---NO 32. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, AUGUST 6, 1885 WHOLE NUMBER 821

THE SOUTHWESTERN
PUBLISHED BY
THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,
37 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor

Terms: $1.50 per Year, Cash in Advance; after Three Months, $2; to Pastors, $1. Six Months, $1; Three Months, 50c.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

All matter not of a business nature must be addressed to the editor.

ADVERTISING RATES:
(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	8 cents.
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	6 "
Six months (26 times)	5 "
One year (52 times)	4 "
Marriage Notices	25 "
Special Notices	8 cents, net cas

Editorial Notes.

While on the verge of life I stand,
And view the scenes on either hand,
My spirit struggles with its clay,
And longs to wing its flight away.

Where Jesus stands my soul would be,
I long that upper world to see;
Earth, twine no more about my heart,
For 'tis far better to depart.

The manhood of a nationality is strong in proportion to the virtue of its founders.

The great fault of the Negro is that he has been striving to be a gentleman before he has fairly become a man.

The Central Methodist grows more fraternal and no less newsy and denominationally perpendicular for its age. Prosperity to Bro. Meek.

Africa presents the Negro's greatest opportunity. Many of us are thinking of it. Let us have a great many articles on Africa.—W. O. Lynch.

Cadet Whittaker has been admitted to practice law in South Carolina. Does this mean that a mouth only, not ears, are required in the legal practice?

Of all the periodicals coming to us designed for the use of, and edited by ladies, none excel Electra. It is, as it claims to be, a magazine of pure literature. We wish it success abundantly.

Internal forces of Methodism, a very able Centennial address, by Rev. E. W. Caswell, delivered at the Centenuial of American Methodism, held in Taylor Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Portland, Oregon, May 5, 1885, has been received.

Prof. P. H. Clark, of Cincinnati, is a candidate for register of the treasury, the place now occupied by Hon. Fred. Douglass.—Gate City Press.

Ah, when was Mr. Douglass register of the treasury. We had conceived the idea that Hon. B. K. Bruce filled that position. Douglass is register of deeds, etc.

The Christian Weekly, June 6, has a fine cut representing an Indian ploughing, and seven Indian women earnestly viewing the novelty. These are the pictures which tend to bring white and red into clever fellowship. Less of war and more of agriculture will [illegible] and extend our Christian [illegible] with permanence and [illegible]

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Origin and Design of Children's Day.

REV. J. M. NEVILS.

Methodism was introdnced into America in 1766.

The 100th anniversary of that event was observedby the Methodis Episcopal Chnrch in 1866. It was then decided to create a Children's Connectional Educational Fnnd.

The proceeds of which should be applied in aiding needy Sunday school scholars to secure an advanced education.

For that object about $60,000 was then raised. But as it was forseen that the claim on the fund would increase with the multiplication of Sunday-schools, and the growing demands of the church for Christian workers, a plan was adopted for the constant increase of the fund or its proceeds. In the development of that plan the General Conference of 1872 appointed the second Sunday in June to be everywhere observed as Children's Day, on which a collection should be taken in aid of the Sunday School fnud of the Board of Education. Prior to that no such general observance as Children's Day had ever been known, but since that time it has been extensively adopted, and has proved very interesting. It should, therefore, be a joyous day; but it should also be an occasion for praise, for prayer, and for instruction. Hence, sweet hymns should be sung, God's word should be read, and choice sentiments uttered. As the board of the general educational fund it had its raise in the year 1865. At the General Conference of 1868 it was found that the children's offering for education made during the centenary celebration of 1868 amounted to $56,674 40, and the general educational fund amounted to $9,155 32; total, $65,829 72. The board was chartered in 1869.

Running throngh a period of the last five years, and looking at the receipts from all sources of the amounts of moneys, shows a yearly income as follows, viz:

1880	$2,079 24
1881	9,256 86
1882	18,026 56
1883	32,718 42
1884	56,181 65

The year closing Nov. 1; but it was not ended, for there was more to come. This year we want to raise $1,000,000.

Dear children and friends of education, let us do all we can in this great work. Our discipline says it shall be the duty of the preacher in charge of a circuit or station to take one public collection annually in each society in aid of the work of education. The money so received shall be paid over to such auxiliary of the board of education as the annual conference may direct, or in the absence of the annual conference direction to the treasnry of the parent board. It is recommended that the second Sunday in June be everywhere observed as Children's day, and that wherever practicable a collection be taken in the Sunday School in aid of the Sunday School fund of the Board of Education. In case it be deemed advisable to take the public educational collection on Children's Day, all contributions of the day, unless otherwise designated by the donors, shall be equally divided between the objects named in sections 5 and 6, on page 262.

Our schools among the freedmen are twenty one, with 106 teachers, and 3623 young men and women in attendance, a large proportion of whom are studying to be preachers and teachers. Among our Southern white people there are eighteen institutions in which are eighty-six teachers, and over 2000 young men and women. So we have thirty-nine institutions in these Southern lands, with 192 teachers, and 6000 young men and women as students.

Those schools are mostly supported by the Freedmen's Aid Society.

Let us look at our own school. Rust University, in this State, in Holly Springs, beautifully located in the Northern part of the city, about half a mile from the courthouse, where Gen. Grant had his headquarters during the late war. Now the Mississippi Conference has its headquarters there. About 500 have gone out from there as teachers. Some are eating the fruits of Rust University and cursing the tree.

Let us as Sunday School scholars crowd her gates with thankful songs. High as the heavens our voices raise, and the earth, with her ten thonsand tongues, shall fill her courts with sounding praise. What is the strength of our church and Sunday Schools? About 19,000 churches, with 12,000 regular ministers, 21,000 Sunday Schools and counting officers, teachers and scholars together we have more than 1,900,000. Oh, what an army. We have in the State of Mississippi, in our church, 3950 probationers, 23,440 full members, 362 local preachers, 73 traveling preachers, 61 elders (with about 60 effective); total, 27,872; churches, 326. Twenty years ago we had no churches or members in this State. Behold what the Lord has done! Look at our Sunday Schools and scholars—508 schools, 1443 officers and teachers with 15,443 scholars of all ages; total, 16,886. From these are to come the future ministers, teachers and statesmen. In order to do the great work of the coming nation our boys and girls must have educated brain, mind, heart, soul, hands and feet. We are to do all we can in our day to prepare them for the work. By giving our means to aid our young people in obtaining a Christian education we do a noble work. Of the 1300 students who have been helped by the Board of Education most all were grown up Sunday School scholars. Many have become teachers, forty are missionaries in other countries, and 200 or more are ministers in sixty conferences. Never were the calls to aid in Christian education so numerous and urgent as it is today. Had the fund been larger much more good might have been done. Some good young men and women have had to leave the schools for lack of a little help. Now, dear friends, this is the first time this year you have been asked to give to this cause, and if you do not give you may never be asked again. So now is the only time you have. Will you give all you can to day? It has been well said, that it is more of a blessing to give than to receive. So blessed is the cheerful giver. For Christ, our Master's sake, do all the good you can to all the people you can in all the places you can, at all the times you can, and as long as ever you can.

If you cannot give your thousands,
You can give the widow's mite,
And the least you do for Jesus
Will be precious in His sight.

Hernando, Miss.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Negro and Buckra.

REV. HENRY M. TURNER,
Bishop African Methodist Episcopal Church.

In your issne of the 15th instant I noticed an editorial entitled, "Ought We to Be Called Negroes," in which you express indifference as to whether it is a proper term or not, etc, since it is in common use and answers a purpose. I rather like the term, because it signifies black. The phrase, "colored people," cannot be properly applied to black people, as neither black nor white are colored. They are both the extremes of color. The term Negro is a Portuguese or Spanish word, manufactured from the Latin niger, and means black. Now, as this term has been brought into use by the white races to designate our color and status, why not let us apply our term buckra to the white races? The word buckra in the Guinea African dialect means white. Then we would have a name comprehensive and of easy accent for both complexions or races—the Buckra race and the Negro race!

The whites could take no more exception at the term applied to them than the blacks. Buckra means white, and Negro means black. Moreover, buckra is the proper term of the black races for white, while Negro is the proper term of the white races for black. One is as much a language as the other, or a dialect as the other. For my part I have used the term buckra for nearly forty years in conversation. Have refrained from it in my writings, as it was not generally understood, except in South Carolina, and in portions of other Southern States; but hereafter I shall use it with my pen as freely as with my mouth. They are both idiomatic terms any way. Neither is Saxon nor proper English.

Atlanta, Ga.

[Our preference for the word Negro is established by its constant use in this paper with a capital N. —ED.]

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Future of the Negro Race.

REV. S. R. HUGHES.

The race whose brawny hand tilled and cultivated the American soil for over two centuries, whose blood fertilized the cotton fields of the South, and whose fidelity to his master's family, amid the clash of arms, is still boasted of by the learned and benevolent men of the South. For a race so loyal to master, country and God, to be denounced by Mr. Tombs as being uneducable and a scrub race, and to claim it to be a decree of God that the race should die out, is unprecedented, and is a great injustice to the race. Now, the Bible says: "Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit." The folly of Mr. Tombs' argument is that it proves nothing. Then to answer Mr. Tombs I shall not attempt to prove anything, but merely make assertions contradictory to the statements he has made, and let the public weigh each in a balance and decide which is wanting as to truthfulness.

Mr. Tombs says there is no danger of war in the future between the races. What causes war but injustice and fraud? The spark of war now exists in the bosom of the oppressed race, and only requires time and continuance of injustice and fraud to fan it into a flame; and when the cry to arms is heard God, who is on the side of right, will raise up for the so-called "scrub race" a Moses to lead and a Joshua to conquer.

Mr. Tombs also says: "The Negro race is uneducable, and that the effort to educate him is foolish, because it increases crime." A glance at the history of the educated Negroes, and a retrospective view of the world's history, will show that this statement carries with it its own refutation.

Mr. Tombs thinks the Negro will die out, because, he says, it is the history of all inferior races. We do not admit the universal proposition that it is an inferior race; hence we denounce the conclusion. He says: "They are dying out now." According to the census we are astonished at the increase.

Again he says: "If God had not intended to make the Negro an inferior race He would not have created him black."

It is a question whether or not the Negro was created black or became so by physical influences; but suppose he was created black, then I question Mr. Tombs' inspiration as to God's motive for thus creating him. We admit that the Negro will do well tilling the soil for himself. We cannot admit as a whole the proposition that the Southern whites are the best friends to the Negro, because in doing so, Mr. Tombs would be included, who thinks it foolishness and engendering crime to educate him. Surely he is not a friend who ignores self culture:

"Old friends are the best." But "What is friendship but a name,

A charm that lulls to sleep,
A shade that follows wealth and fame,
And leaves the wretch to weep."

Though Mr. Tombs stands on the boundary line between two worlds of light, he fails to see the signs of our times.

Washington D C.,

For the Southwestern.

Our Benevolent Collections.

REV. A. E. P. ALBERT, B D.

The time is now at hand when every church in this section should begin at once to raise the various benevolent collections. To delay until fall or winter, until crops are harvested, cotton is sold or sugar-making is over—in other words to wait until the finsh times come—is to commit an almost unpardonable blunder. Better to gather up the fragments monthly or quarterly than to run the risk of complete failure in waiting for the "good times coming." The failure of previous years, in consequence of rainy days, bad roads, cold weather, and uncomfortable churches, should impress every one with the prime importance of attending to these matters now. Another consideration is that, out of their poverty, the people give quite as much if not more than out of ample stores. Many who would give five cents out of twenty five cents in the stringent season, could scarcely be persuaded to give twenty-five cents out of twenty-five dollars in the times of greatest prosperity after the crops have been harvested and sold, and the large legal tender bills glut their purses. Such is the case, however, as many experienced pastors can testify. Another thought is that a large number of our people become more and more stingy and close-fisted as their worldly goods increase. Brethren, this ought not so to be. The way to wealth and enduring prosperity leads another way. The Word of God, of which not a jot or title shall fail, is as true to-day as ever. The scriptural direction of growing rich is clear and forcible: "He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. Every man as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give not grudgingly, or of necessity, for God loveth a cheerful giver." The world is to be evangelized and conquered for Christ. The kingdoms of this world must become the kingdom of our Lord and his Christ. God chooses to effect these results by human instrumentalities. Every Christian man, woman and child is in duty bound to share his responsibility in this glorious work. Some called of God to preach or teach in the house of God or foreign fields must "go" gladly, publishing the glad tidings of salvation; while others should share in the work by sending the men and means to the accomplishment of the heavenly task. "Go work to day in my vineyard" is the scripture command to every son in the Gospel. Wake up, brethren! Let us cease to be strangers and stagnant pools, taking in all and giving proportionately nothing; but let us rather become fountains of living waters, imparting life and joy to all who would share our bounties.

We have been helped sufficiently long to begin to help ourselves and others yet perishing for bread of life. Give importance to every cause, the Freedmens Aid Society, which educates our ministers and teachers, our lawyers, physicians, mechanics, and our mental and morally approved leaders; the Missionary Society which assists in the support of ministers laboring in destitute sections; the church Extension Society, which assists in building needy churches; the Tract Society and Sunday School Mission, which scatters like so many snowflakes, the hundred of thousands of tracts and papers in our Sunday schools; the Bible Society which furnishes destitute families with the word of God free or at nominal rates. The Educational Society which helps, solely, students for the ministry; the Conference Claimants collection, for our superannuated ministers and the orphans and widows of deceased ministers are also worthy of special mention. The Episcopal Fund should not be neglected in the future as they have been in the past. Another vital interest that should press upon the heart of every Methodist preacher is his solemn responsibility to see that the SOUTHWESTERN, our official organ, is faithfully supported. Let us all give Dr. Taylor that hearty support which his talents deserve, and which we are in duty bound to give. Remember that a dozen cash subscriptions are more valuable than whole volumes of words of commendation. Send in the subscriptions with the cash. Let every one, lay and clerical, including every committee, wake up to the present responsibilities. We do not want committees, like buttons on coat sleeves, for ornament but like those on our coat, on piercing cold and windy day, for actual usefulness. Let every one now get about his Father's business; and He will bless us with success and enduring prosperity.

It don't pay to have fifty workmen ragged, to have one saloon keeper dressed in broadcloth, and flush with money.

THE HERO OF APPOMMATOX CONQUERED

General Grant Dead.

LAST SCENES.

MOUNT MCGREGOR, July 23.—A few minutes before eight o'clock Drs. Douglas, Shrady and Sands stood on the cottage veranda conversing of the condition of General Grant and discussing the probabilities of his death and the limit of life left the sick man. Mrs. Sartoris and Stenographer Dawson were conversing a little distance away, when Henry, the nurse stepped hastily upon the piazza and spoke quietly to the physicians. He told them he thought the General was very near to death. The medical men hastily entered the room where the sick man was lying and approached his side Instantly upon scanning the patient's face Dr. Douglas ordered the family to be summoned to the bedside.

HASTE

Was made, and Mrs. Grant, Mr. Grant and wife, U. S. Grant, jun., and wife and Mrs. Colonel Grant were beside the doctors at the sick man's cot. Mrs. Sartoris and Mr. Dawson had followed the doctors in from the piazza, and the entire family was present except Colonel Fred Grant. Hasty summons were sent for him, but he entered the sick while the messenger was searching for him. The Colonel seated himself at the head of the bed, with his left arm resting upon the pillow at the head of the General, who was breaking rapidly and with slightly grasping respirations

Mrs. Grant, calm but with intense agitation bravely suppressed, took a seat close by the bedside. She leaned slightly upon the cot, resting upon her right elbow, and gazed with tear blinded eyes into the General's face. She found there, however, no token of recognition, for the sick man was peacefully and painlessly

PASSING INTO ANOTHER LIFE.

Mrs. Sartoris came behind her mother, and leaning over her shoulder, so witnessed the close of life in which she had constituted a strong element of pride. Directly behind Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Sartoris, and at a little distance removed, stood Drs. Douglass, Shrady and Sands, spectators of a closing life their efforts and counsel had so prolonged.

On the opposite side of the bed from his mother, and directly before her stood Jesse Grant and U. S. Grant, jun., and near the corner of the cot, on the same side as Jesse, and near to each was Mr. N. E Dawson, the general's stenographer and confidential secretary. At the foot of the bed, and gazing directly down into the General's face, was Mrs. Colonel Fred Grant, Mrs. U. S. Grant jun., and Mrs. Jesse Grant, while somewhat removed from the family circle, Henry the nurse, and Harrison Tirrell, the General's body servant, were respectively watching the closing life of the patient. Dr. Newman had repaired to the hotel for breakfast, and was not present. The General's little grand children, U. S. Grant, jr., and Nellie, were sleeping the sleep of children in the nursery room above. Otherwise the entire family were gathered at the bedside of the dying man.

The members of the group had been summoned a moment sooner than was prudent. The doctors noted, on entering the room and pressing to the bedside, that already the purplish tinge which is one of nature's signals of

FINAL DISSOLUTION,

Had settled beneath the finger nails. The hand that Dr. Douglas lifted was fast growing colder than it had been through the night. The pulse had fluttered beyond the point where the physician could distinguish it from the pulse beats in his own finger tips. The respiration was very rapid, and was a succession of shallow panting inhalations; but, happily, the approaching end was becoming clear of the rattling fullness of the throat and lungs, and as the respirations grew quicker and more rapid at the close they also became less labored and almost noiseless. This fact was in its results a comfort to the watchers by the bedside, to whom was spared the scene of an agonizing or other than

A PEACEFUL DEATH.

The wife almost constantly stroked the face, forehead and hands of the dying General, and at times, as the passionate longing to prevent the event so near would rise within her, Mrs. Grant pressed both his hands, and, leaning forward, tenderly kissed the face of the sinking man.

Colonel Fred Grant sat silently, but with evident feeling, though his bearing was that of a soldierly son at the death-bed of a hero father. U. S. Grant jun., was deeply moved, but Jesse bore the scene steadily, and the ladies, while watching with wet cheeks, were silent as befitted the dignity of a life such as was closing before them.

The morning had passed five minutes beyond eight o'clock and there was not one of the strained and waiting watchers but who could mark the nearness of the life tide to its final ebbing. Dr. Douglas noted the nearness of the supreme moment and quietly approached the bedside and bent above it, and while he did so the sorrow of the gray haired physician seemed closely allied with that of the family. Dr. Shrady also drew near. It was seven minutes after eight o'clock, and the eyes of the General were closing. His breathing grew more hushed as the last functions of the heart and lungs were hastened to the closing of the Ex President's life. A peaceful expression seemed to be deepening in the firm and strong lined face, and it was reflected as a closing comfort in the sad hearts that beat quickly under the stress of loving suspense.

THE LAST BREATH.

A minute more passed and was closing as the General drew a deeper breath. There was an exhalation like that of one relieved of long and anxious tension.

The members of the group were impelled each a step nearer the bed and waited to note the next respiration; but it did not come then—it never came. There was absolute stillness in the room, and a hush of expectant suspense. No sound broke the silence save the singing of birds in the pines outside the cottage, and the measured throbbing of the engine that all night had waited by the little mountain depot down the slope.

"IT IS ALL OVER,"

Quietly spoke Dr. Douglas; and there came then heavily, to each witness the realization that General Grant was dead.

Then the doctors withdrew, the nurse closed the eyelids and composed the dead General's head, after which each of the family group, one after another, came and touched their lips upon the quiet face so lately stilled.

Dr. Shrady passed out upon the piazza, and as he did so he met Dr. Newman hastening up the steps.

"He is dead," remarked Dr. Shrady quietly.

The fact of having been absent from the side of the dying man and his family at the last was a cause of sorrow and sad regret to the clergyman who had waited all night at the cottage. He had been summoned from his breakfast a moment too late, and reached the cottage only in time to minister to the family sorrow and gaze upon the scarcely hushed lips of the dead General, to whom Dr. Newman's love had bound him in such close ties and relations. Those who saw and knew, and all who learn of the clegyman's absence from the deathbed, quickly speak the impulse of hearty sympathy.

THE LAST INDICATIONS OF CONSCIOUSNESS.

Soon after Drs. Douglas and Shrady left the death bed they conversed feelingly of the latter hours of General Grant's life. The pulse first had indicated failure and the intellect was last to succumb its clearness and conscious tenacity, and that after midnight last night though a circumstance at three o'clock, indicated cognizance. "Do you want anything, father?" questioned Colonel Fred at the hour. "Water," whispered the General, huskily. But when offered water and milk they gurgled in his throat and were ejected, and that one word of response was the last utterance of General Grant.

Dr. Douglas remarked that the peculiarity of General Grant's death was explained by the remarkable vitality that seemed to present an obstacle to the approach of death. It was a gradual passing away of the vital forces, and a reflex consciousness, the doctor thought, was retained to the last. The General died of sheer exhaustion, and a perfectly painless sinking away.

"Yes," interjected Dr. Shrady, quietly, "the General dreaded pain when he felt that he had begun sinking, and he asked that he should not suffer. The promise was made, and it has been kept. Since he commenced to sink on Tuesday night he was

FREE FROM PAIN.

Toward the last no food was taken, but when a wet cloth was pressed to his lips he would suck from it the water to moisten his mouth.

During the General's last night Dr. Shrady was constantly within call. Dr. Douglas was all night at the cottage, Dr. Sands slept at the hotel after midnight.

BURIAL.

A week ago the General is said to have intimated that should he die here during hot weather he would prefer that his remains should remain here until cooler weather, the purpose being to spare his family a sad and fatiguing journey in sultry weather. It is doubtful, however, if this suggestion is fully carried out, though it is not unlikely that the remains may repose here some days. This, however, is entirely at the disposal of Colonel Fred Grant, to whom is left the entire control of all arrangements relative to his father's remains. It is not unlikely that a proposition from the city of New York to accord a burial plot for the General and his wife when she, too, shall have passed away might be considered by the Colonel. The impression that Washington may be chosen as the burial spot is believed to be founded on the present inclination of Colonel Grant. The only condition made by the General, and that as long ago as June 24th, was that his remains should be interred where those of Mrs. Grant might in time lie beside his own.

Military Honors.

General Sheridan on the Burial of General Grant—Funeral Observances at Army Posts.

FORT RENO, I. T, July 23—The news of the death of General Grant reached General Sheridan this morning by means of a dispatch sent from the office of the Associated Press in Chicago. In reference to inquiries concerning the arrangements for the funeral General Sheridan said: "I am so far away from Washington that I will have to depend on those in charge to carry out any orders the President may give the army relative to General Grant's funeral. During his critical illness last March, and on an intimation from personal friends of the family that it would be agreeable, the Commissioner of the Soldiers Home requested the privilege of having the General's remains interred at the Home. It is hoped the family will grant it," continued General Sheridan, "so that his ashes may rest near the Capital of the Nation, guarded by the veterans of the war in which his greatest honors were won."

General Sheridan sent the following telegrams upon receipt of the sad information:

FORT RENO, I. T., July 23, 1885.

To Colonel F. D. Grant, Mount McGregor, N. Y: Will you please express to Mrs. Grant my grief at the loss of my dearest friend and comrade, and my sincere sympathy and condolence with her in this hour of her great distress? P. H. Sheridan, Lieutenant General.

FORT RENO, I. T. July 23, 1885.

To General R. C. Drum, Washington, D. C.: My duties here will not permit my return in time for the funeral of my deceased friend and comrade, General U. S. Grant. Lieutenant Colonel G. W. Davis, of my staff, knows my views in reference to the obsequies. Have them carried out so far as they do not conflict with the directions of the President. I want to be named as one of the pall-bearers.

P. H. Sheridan, Lieutenant General.

Washington, July 23—Adjutant-General Drum by command of Lieutenant General Sheridan, issued the following order:

"In compliance with the instance of the President, on the day of the funeral, at each military posts the troops and cadets will be paraded and the order read to them, after which all labors for the day will cease.

"The National flag will be displayed at half staff.

"At dawn of day thirteen guns will be fired, and afterward at intervals of thirty minutes, between the rising and setting of the sun a single gun, and at the close of day a National salute of thirty-eight guns. The officers of the army will wear crape on the left arm and on their swords, and the colors of the battallion of engineers, of the several regiments and of the United States Corps of Cadets will be put in mourning for the period of six months.

"The date and hour of the funeral will be communicated to Department Commanders by telegraph, and by them to their subordinate commanders."

THE PRESIDENT'S DISPATCH.

The telegram sent by President Cleveland to Mrs. Grant at Mount McGregor was as follows:

"Accept this expression of my heartfelt sympathy in this hour of your great affliction. The people of the Nation mourn with you, and would reach, if they could, with kindly comforts the depths of the sorrow which is yours alone, and which only the pity of God can heal."

PROCLAMATION.

The President, a few minutes past eleven o'clock this morning, issued the following proclamation:

By the President of the United States—Proclamation.

The President of the United States has just received the sad tidings of the death of that illustrous citizen and ex President of the United States, General Ulysses S. Grant, at Mt. McGregor, in the State of New York, to which place he had lately been removed in the endeavor to prolong his life.

In making this announcement to the people of the United States the President is impressed with the magnitude of the public loss of a great military leader, who was in the hour of victory magnanimous, amid disaster serene and self sustained; who in every station, whether as a soldier or a Chief Magistrate, twice called to power by his fellow countrymen, trod unswervingly the pathway of duty, undeterred by doubts—single-minded and straightforward. The entire country has witnessed with deep emotion his prolonged and patient struggle with a painful disease, and has watched by his couch of suffering with tearful sympathy. The destined end has come at last, and the spirit has returned to its Creator who sent it forth. The great heart of the nation that followed him when living with love and pride, bows now in sorrow above him dead, tenderly mindful of his virtues, his great patriotic services, and the loss occasioned by his death. In testimony of respect to the memory of General Grant it is ordered that the Executive Mansion and departments at Washington be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days, and that all public business shall on the day of the funeral be suspended. The Secretary of War and of the Navy will cause orders to be issued for appropriate military and naval honors to be rendered on that day.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this 23rd day of July, A. D. 1885, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and tenth. GROVER CLEVELAND

By the President.

T. F. BAYARD, Secretary of State.

Letters From the Laity.

Mr. W. G. Allen, Huntsville, Ala., writes: "Rev. A. W. McKinney, our pastor, is doing a noble work. He is a true Christian gentleman, and a man in the right place. He has very nearly brought our church to completion, which has been unfinished for several years. His aim is to get it completed by the 1st of August. It will be worth $1000 when done. The Sunday school has increased from 75 to 160 since he has been here. His heart is in the work, and the fruits of his labor answers to the statement. He has a large, active congregation, all of whom love and appreciate him for the noble manner in which he has conducted the government of the church. Our children say that last Sunday will not be forgotten. The programme proposed by him was remarkable, and left no small impression on the minds of the children. Rev. A. S. Lakin, the presiding elder of the Huntsville district, was present, and with his broad views and noble counsel added greatly to the occasion. The elder is a man of war against sin and the devil, and he is doing a grand work throughout the district, and leaves a good impression.

H. W. Simmons writes from Murfreesboro, Tenn.: "Murfreesboro is an historical place. Situated in the central part of the State of Tennessee, 32 miles south of Nashville, on the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railroad, it was once the capital of the State. During the late struggle Murfreesboro became famous, for here the battle of Stone River or Murfreesboro was fought. In what ever way one goes from here his attention is arrested by the sight of forts, entrenchments, etc. Three miles north on the Nashville and Murfreesboro turnpike is the National Cemetery, with its flag ever flying, and telling all that behold it that the battles are fought and the victory won, and those who were once bound by the oppression of slavery are forever free. Once each year—May 30—the friends of the cause of freedom meet to pay respect to the sleeping dust of those braves who fought, bled and died for the cause of liberty. On the 30 h of last month, though a showery day, before 8 o'clock, people from near and far, were meeting there to hear the several speakers of the day. We had prayer by Rev. E. Tyree, of the A. M. Church After which the Hon. David Key read a very interesting paper, touching on the harmony brought about by the late war. Rev. Tyree, the next speaker, in his usual style, carried his hearers high in their thoughts, and then gave them to understand that this cause is theirs. All went away filled with enthusiasm to aim at a higher and better life. After the speaking dinner was next to be had. Dr. Whitfield, of Murfreesboro, gave Revs. Tyree and Hunt, the writer and wife, an invitation to partake of the repast prepared. The rolls, meats, strawberries, cakes, etc, showed to us that the doctor did not fail to strike a stream of good luck when he wooed and won Miss Ida Anderson, now Mrs. Whitfield, to himself. Mrs. Whitfield belongs to one of the best families of Murfreesboro, and is a firm Methodist. At night there was a festival given at the church of the writer, which stands near by, and $22 25 were realized. Our church work is moving on, and we hope, ere the year shall close, to gain many souls for the Master's kingdom.

It cost Philadelphia over $1,700 to get back her liberty bell.

From the Districts,

Lexington District, St. Louis Conference.

REV. W. H. H. BROWN, P. E.

The work among the colored brethren is looking up. We have in the State fifty eight preachers, and about 6000 members, with property accordingly. We hope for an intermediate school so as to raise the masses of our people. There is not a school under any of our churches where our youth can go.

Marshall, Mo.

Chattanooga District.

E. PROVINE, P. E.

BRETHREN,—Three months and a few days will bring us to the Annual Conference. Now, dear brethren, push all your collections. Send your Freedmen aid collection to Rev. J. S. Hill, president of Morristown Seminary, Morristown, Tenn., as we are making improvements on the school property. The collections are greatly needed. Let us have no blanks in our statistics this year.

Chattanooga, Tenn

La Teche District—Louisiana Conference.

A. E. P. ALBERT, P. E.

Dedicatory services of new churches on the La Teche District will take place as follows:

Hubertville, Aug. 6, 7, 8 and 9. Revs. Richards, Pickett, Luster, Smith, Fields, Claiborne, Hilton, Drs. Godman and Albert will officiate.

Ville Platte, Aug. 20, 21, 22 and 23. Revs. Bibbs, Morant, Anderson, Auguste and Albert will conduct the services.

Bunkie, Aug. 27, 28, 29 and 30. Revs. Randolph, Dyer, Green, Monroe, Bolden, G. W. Williams, B. M. Johnson, Marshall, Larkins, Henry Johnson and Albert will officiate.

Lafayette, Sept. 17, 18 19 and 20. Revs. Johnson, Smith, Luster, Richards, Pickett, Fields, Anderson, Morant, Bibbs and Albert will conduct the services.

Sorrell, Oct. 1, 2, 3 and 4, under the direction of Revs. Richards, Fields, Pickett, Smith, Hilton, Claiborne, Drs. Godman and Albert. Brethren whose names are herein mentioned will be expected to be on hand with their local preachers, and all their members and friends that they can influence, to attend these services.

The exercises, which will consist of preaching, lectures, Sunday School, missionary, temperance and other anniversaries will begin daily at 1 P m, and at night. Let the pastors of churches to be dedicated begin a series of meetings in their churches the Sabbath preceding these dedicatory services, and invite all neighboring churches of other denominations to attend. The general public are invited to these services, which we hope to make of exceptional interest in many ways, especially in seeking for an outpouring of spiritual power and gracious revivals of religion. Let everybody come. Brethren are exhorted to prepare for quarterly meeting, by holding revival services the whole week preceding and including quarterly meeting days.

Let every friend or member be summoned to duty; and let every benevolent collection be taken up, and reported in the quarterly conference, all will be expected to pay some portion of their indebtedness to the SOUTHWESTERN at the district or quarterly conference. Push forward to ultimate success, every interest.

The cholera epidemic is gradually making its way toward Portugal, and there is apparently nothing to impede its course. The sanitary cordons have proved ineffectual, and the scourge has appeared at Cordova, Gerona and Lerido.

A celebrated physician declares that "Hunt's Remedy will cure any case of kidney disease that can be cured."

The M. E. Church.

Official Note.

To Pastors and Sunday School Superintendents: The thanks of the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church are due and hereby presented to the thousands of churches and Sunday schools throughout our Connection that this year observed Children's Day in accordance with the recommendation of our Church Discipline. From very many of them remittances have already been made in proper form. In all such cases official receipts have been sent to serve as vouchers at Conferences, and careful entries have been made for public credits in our next annual report. We have now to request that all collections not yet paid in may be sent forward to Corresponding Secretary as soon as convenient. For various reasons it is desirable that full returns be made before the close of the Board's financial year, Oct 31.

It has been proved in many ways that the friends and supporters of our cause throughout the Church desire to have their offerings properly acknowledged in the annual reports, and we equally desire that they may be, not only as an act of justice to the donors, but also as an encouraging exhibit of a new and growing benevolence. But in order to do this the returns must be made with a reasonable promptness and in proper form. All interests are best subserved when the remittances are made to the Corresponding Secretary in the full form of the reporting tickets sent out to pastors. The vouchers returned in all such cases count as cash with Conference treasurers.

Experience has proved that, when payments are held over to be made at Conferences, owing to the pressure and inconvenience in which a vast amount of business has to be done there is danger of some confusion in accounts and an aggregation of payments from which it is impossible to determine how to give particular credit. When such payments are deferred till the Spring Conferences, even though correctly reported, it is impossible to give the credits till the following year. Such a long delay will have an unfavorable influence upon the next Children's Day collection, and probably subject the Board to undeserved censure.

Besides, under the recent change of our charter, allowing the immediate appropriation of collections in aid of students, there is an additional and urgent reason for the timely paying over of funds so that they may be available for that object. The entire amount of the Board's appropriation for loans to students during the current half year is conditioned on the receipt of this year's collections. If, therefore, any Conference shall withhold its collections beyond the opening of the school year, now at hand, its own students will be put in a position of dependence on receipts from other Conferences. For the foregoing and other reasons, the Board makes known its desire to receive the collections made for Children's Educational Fund in 1885 as early as practicable on the part of its friends, but it desires none of the money which should be paid to Conference Education Societies.

WM. L. HARRIS, Pres.
D. P. KIDDER, Cor. Sec.
805 Broadway, New York, July, 1885.

Work in India.

Rev. E. W. Parker, Chaudausi, India, March 4, writes of an itinerating tour to Shajehanpur, Tilhur and Pilibhit. His time was fully occupied in examining schools and baptizing those scholars who were prepared to accept Christianity. He says: "These native brethren do work me very hard when I get into their circuit, and can get nothing to ride in except an ox cart, and usually I can't stop to ride after such a team. I have just visited one of Bro. D. P. Kidder's schools and baptized eight very promising young converts. These little schools are doing great good. Vidder is one of our best workers, true and faithful. He plans his work and does it equal to any man we have. He wants a magic lantern and pictures very much. There little streams of Christian influence are multiplying, and have already united to form the powerful current which is to cleanse India from her idolatry.

Norway.

The Rev. J. A. Johnson reports in a recent letter a remarkable revival in the city of Lanre, which had continued for seven weeks previous to the date of his letter, April 10. The crowded meetings were held in one of the largest churches in the city, and consisted of daily prayer meetings at 3 p. m., preaching for children at 6:30 p. m., and general preaching at 8 p. m. Many souls have been awakened and saved.

The brethren are much encouraged in reference to the fund to be raised for the Theological School. Five sixths of the 10,000 crowns are now secured.

"Ministerial Support."

In reply to several communications received by the Bishops at their late meeting in St. Louis, the Secretary was instructed to publish the following in our Church papers, namely:

"It is the judgment of the Bishops that the sums reported in the column for "Ministerial Support" in the statistical tacles should express only the amount contributed by the people of the several pastoral charges for that purpose, and should not include any moneys paid by the Missionary Society to aid in the support of the ministry."

By order of the Board of Bishops.
WM L. HARRIS, Secretary.
New York, July 15.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

MR. EDITOR—Please allow space in your valuable colums for a short explanation through the SOUTHWESTERN: We have found our relatives that have been lost for thirty years. We feel happy, and father is expecting to pay them a visit soon. Grant that this paper may find its way throughout the land, to find lost friends that were sold as beasts of the forest. Brethren, we are the people to be faithful. Yours truly,

E. INGRAHAM.
Willis, Tex., July 19.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire through your interesting paper for my people. My mother belonged to Jake McCarter, but was sold to Allen Glover; also Bro. Isaac and Sister Sarah were sold at the same time. The last time I heard from them they were near Moplis, Marengo County, Ala Sister Alicia remained with the old owner, Jake McCarter, Bros. Bird and Peter went by the name of Whitley, the name of their old owner, Bill Whitley. My last account of them they were between Jackson, Miss. and Columbus. Any information concerning them address Shep Rinfroe, Tehuacana, Texas.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my father. His name was Alfred White, belonging to Mr. Daniel White. My mother Fanny once belonged to Mr. Samuel Chester, who lived in Manchester, Clay County, Ky., and being for sale Mr. White also bought her. I have a sister, Minnie, and she now lives in Covington. My present name is Maria Coleman; I married a man named Ben. Coleman. We live at 65 East Third street, Covington, Kenton County, Ky.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my people. My mother's name was Mary Liza Gross, stepfather's name Major Gross, Brother Henson Bons, half-sister named Mary Liza Brown, Uncle Manuel Clinton. We all used to live in St. Mary County, Maryland. We lived near Sintungus and a postoffice by the name of Frap. My owners was Richard Clark, and his wife was Mary Liza Clark. Mary Liza Clark sold me to James Linglau, and he sold me to a trader, and I was sold again and brought to Mississippi in 1849, where I now live. My name when I left there was Sally Bons, but now my name is Sally Anderson. I hope all your readers will take pleasure in helping me to find my people. Any one knowing of the thereabonts of my people address W. S. Anderson, (my son), Aberdeen, Miss.

The M. M. and W. M. A. and B Association.

L. M. HAGOOD.

Bro. L. N. Taylor's letter last week was very friendly indeed. Yes, it is true that our home was the home of the poor Methodist preachers. None of God's poor ever turned away friendless or forsaken. Father never neglected, that I can remember, to encourage every boy or man in need of friends a recommendation. He never discouraged any man. We have known each other for some years; I helped to get the good brother into the annual Conference, &c., but none of this touches the point at issue. He did give us the names of some of the present officers, but did not say whether they were the founders or whether they were recently elected. If they were the founders, being "members of lodges," Presiding Elders, and paying church debts, and getting the good people to send them away to Baltimore, does not not prove their ability to properly organize and perpetuate a society into whose care the hard earned means of the "Methodist men and women" are to be placed. In some cases the less a man knows about political and domestic economy the better leader he is. None doubts the ability of these men, when the M. E. Church sets them apart for a specific work, for that special work. But because a man is an excellent whistler it does not follow therefore that he is an excellent singer. Men to man, guide and perpetuate a gigantic affair—for it takes in (in its name) every man and woman, white and black, in the M. E. Church—like this is intended to be, must have had experience, and now have executive financial and mental ability beyond mediocrity. If there is any base for us to rest upon and bring the sinking hopes for the future prosperity of our people connected with benevolent organizations among us upon it, let us know it. If not, for the sake of the future reputation of the race, as well as the moral character of our clergy, let us drop it. Its name is far reaching indeed. And yet a good organization, formed on correct benevolent and business principles, would probably succeed as well under any other name. I do not want the M. E. Church thought, even by our people, responsible for any organization whose only benefits accrue after death; for it is not so in the plan of redemption. For, even in this world men do get their rewards. I want this organization to stand out on its own merits until we shall have cleared away the debris and found terra firma; to prove its stability and permanence, and these rest upon the executive, financial and intellectual ability of its founders and projectors.

"Who hath not owned, with rapture smitten frame
The power of grace, the magic of a name.
Wbat's in a name! That which we call a rose.
Bylany other name would smell as sweet."

In addition to those killed during the recent recurrence of earthquake shocks in the Vale of Cashmere, the same district has been visited with disastrous floods, which have seriously damaged the crops. Heavy rains have prevailed in Bombay and vicinity, causing the destruction of several miles of railway.

The latest rumor concerning the Mehdi is that he died of small-pox at Gobra on June 20.

General News Items.

A private expedition under a former Prussian officer is being organized in Berlin to explore German New Guinea.

At their State election the Kentucky people will vote upon the question of calling a convention to revise the constitution.

It is said that the Russian Government contemplates levying a poll tax upon every foreigner who remains more than a fortnight in the empire.

The Tampa (Fla) Tribune tells of a cloud of mosquitoes that so obscured the sun as to make it necessary for the people to light their lamps in the middle of the day.

The ravages of cholera in Spain continue to be appalling. The epidemic is increasing in the provinces of Madrid, Saragossa, Segovia and Murcia, and has extended to Heresca and Caceres.

A mob of 150 men rode into the village of Minden, La., at midnight, and, having forced the depnty sheriff to admit them to the jail, riddled two colored prisoners, held for murder, with bullets.

An Ohio farmer, the other day, met in a lonely country locality a young woman attired in a night-gown. Naturally, he asked her who she was, when she replied: "Nobody, I died this morning." The farmer waited to hear no more, but made tracks for the nearest settlement at a pace rivaling the speed of Bonner's fastest trotter.

President Cleveland has issued a proclamation declaring invalid the leases of lands for grazing purposes in the Cheyenne and Arapahoe reservations, Indian Territory, and ordering the removal of all cattle held by persons other than Indians from such land within forty days. This action was advised by Gen. Sheridan, at whose suggestion the President has also designated Capt. Lee, of the Ninth Infantry, to act as agent of the Cheyennes and Arapahoes at Darlington. Gen. Sheridan telegraphs Gov. Martin, of Kansas, that the irritation among these tribes was the result of bad control, and that there is no longer any danger of an outbreak.

A correspondent to the London Times, writing from Sicily, says the people delight in witnessing pain. The common way of putting a trapped rat to death is to throw some petroleum over it and set it alight; the trap is then opened and the poor animal runs in agony about the street until it dies, among the admiring shouts of the people. The usual way of transporting fowls is to tie all the legs together in a bunch, hang their heads downward, split the bunch in two, and throw it over the back of an ass or across a man's shoulders. The poor birds utter screams of pain until they are exhausted. Twelve or fifteen hours of this kind of suffering is often inflicted. Mules and horses are harnessed in such a way that they are constantly suffering from raw and bleeding wounds caused by chafing.

Statue of "Liberty Enlightening the World."

The Committee in charge of the construction of the base and pedestal for the reception of this great work, in order to raise funds for its completion, have prepared a minature Statue six inches in height—the statue bronzed; pedestal, nickel-silvered—which they are now delivering to subscribers throughout the United States at One Dollar Each.

This attractive souvenir and Mantel or Desk ornament is a perfect fac simile of the model furnished by the artist.

The statuette in same metal, twelve inches high, at Five Dollars Each, delivered.

The designs of Statue and Pedestal are protected by U. S. Patents, and the models can only be furnished by this Committee. Address, with remittance,

RICHARD BUTLER, Sec'y.,
American Committee of the Statue of Liberty.
33 Mercer street, New York.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.

Trade Mark. QUALITY P PURITY NOT QUANTITY. On Every Bottle.

—THE BEST TONIC.

This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.

It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do.

It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.

☞ The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other.

Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches.
History of the U. S.—Ridpath $3 00
Scripture History—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net 60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) Net 5
History of ethodism.—Stevens 3 60
(Abridged edition.)
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Edition of 1884 .....
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter 1 50

To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol. 1) sett 5 00

Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography 2 25
Freemen's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs 2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scripture chapters I XXX—Harman 4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol 1) sett 7 50
Plain Account of hristian Perfection.—Wesley 30
Ancient History.—Thelheimer. Net 1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill, Net 1 00
Written Sermons.

To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.) .....
Christian Purity—Foster 1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast 1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris 3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol 1.—Reid 3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. (chapters XXI-LII)—Harman 4 60
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope 1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer. 1 60
Lessons in Logic,—Sevens. Net 40

To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher 5 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged). Stevens 3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory 85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol. II.—Reid 3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII—Harman 4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope Vol. III. 7 50
Atonement in Christ.—Miley 1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn 2 50
Intellectual Science—Porter 3 00
Homilectics.—Kiddor 1 50
Written Sermon .....

To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst 3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson 1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters XIX XLIV Harman 4 00
Systematic Theology. Theological Institutes Part II—Watson 6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler 1 50
Written Exegesis .....

To be read:
Life and Epistles of St Paul.—Conybeare and Howson (Abridged Edition) 1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry .....
History of Rationalism—Hurst 3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst ..... $ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) 05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield 2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884) .....
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation—Walker 1 25

To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter 1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson 1 50
Portrait of St. Paul.—Fletcher 75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines .....
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield 2 50
Christian Baptism.—Morrill 1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst 50
Ancient History.—Thalheimer .....

To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson 1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath 3 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged Edition). —Stevens 3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible. Sacraments .....
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield 2 50
Plain Account of hristian Perfection.—Wesley .....
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill.. 1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven .....
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer. 1 60

To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol I.) Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Nast 1 25
Era of the Protestant Revolution.—Seebohm. 75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII.—Wakefield 2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.). 45
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter.. 3 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years .....

To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II. Checks to Antinomianism.—Fletcher 5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher 2 50
Protestant Foreign Missions.—Christlieb... 1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez St. New Orleans.

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Pictures Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1885 at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Expressly for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful picture

Our Little Men and Women.

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY,

An Eight page Weekly, for Boys and Girls.

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day as Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, AUG. 6, 1885.

Agents are held responsible for all subscriptions, and we need the money. Begin collections now do not wait until conference time.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton and other female social revolutionists, seem to dislike the Christian's God, because they think he is a batchelor. They want and insist upon a religion with a female God in it. Should they succeed in getting it, we nominate Mrs. Stanton for first goddess.

One of our colored subscribers living on a farm in Kentucky informs us that he could hardly ever get to read his paper, the white people for whom he worked calling for it every mail day. He says they said it was a much better paper than theirs, and that it contained all the rules of Christian duty.

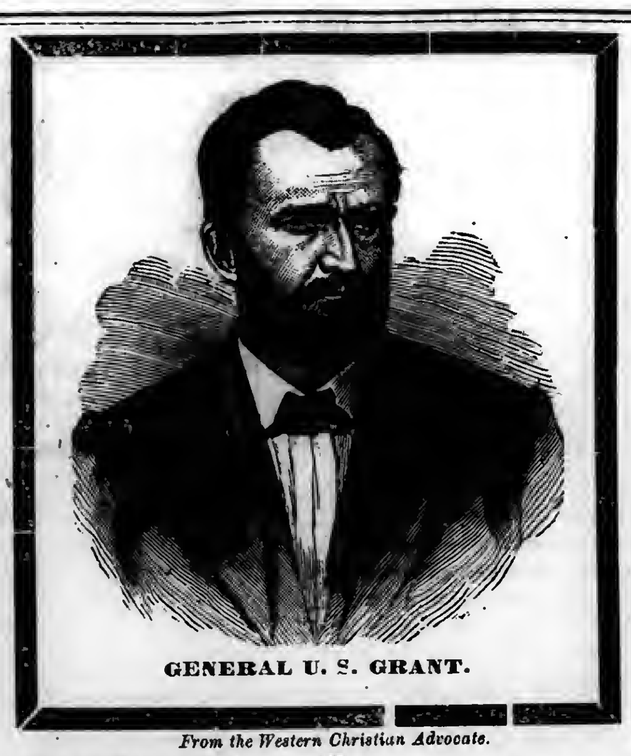
Mr. Samuel Kirby, a patron of the SOUTHWESTERN, is a man of note. He lives upon and governs a stock farm of more than 200 acres, besides 36 acres which he owns. He will exhibit three head of his own stock in the next county fair. He is quite highly esteemed in the community where he lives.

Alarmists are ever complaining of the Negro spendthrift. They forget that economy is acquired only by experience. When the Negro stepped from slavery into political manhood, he had all things new to learn, and all things old to unlearn. What were virtues in thralldom are often vices in freedom. His spendthrift is rather a happy element; it better accords with his emotional nature. He must buy his frugality and economy. Let him pay for his experience, and pay what he pleases.

Our Periodicals.

Haus und Herd presents all its old and several new attractions. In the June number a fine picture of General Grant adorns the first page, and shows that patriotic Germans still highly estimate the old commander.

Our "Church Extension Service of Song" is the best thing yet sent out from any of our department headquarters. Every church, quarterly, district and annual conference should secure a supply of them for use in the Church Extention rally or anniversary occasion. The statistical matter alone is invaluable, but it is only a small part of the value of this pamphlet. Arranged by Rev. Dr. A. J. Kynett, and for sale at 1026 Arch street, Philadelphia, at $2.



The Oxford Lynching.

The Oxford lynching as reported by Bro. Crump, who was on the spot and prayed with poor Harrison, the victim, is an ugly case.

A great crime had been committed by some one. There were circumstances pointing to the man who was then and there deliberately killed. But did anybody know him to be guilty? If there was the least doubt of guilt, who was entitled to the benefit of it but the accused. Suppose another person did commit the crime, and it should one day become known, as in other instances has been the case, then what? Cannot the courts of Mississippi be depended on in cases like that at Oxford to hang a mere Negro? Or is it needful to have this exposition of disregard for the forms of law in order to impress the Negroes with a sense of their helpless condition, and to inspire them with fear?

For twenty long years these horrible killings have gone on, being committed almost daily, until at last the Lord's day and the Lord's house are made the time and place of its occurrence.

Has the influence of the Sabbath and the church become less or unlawful killing more sacred in the eyes of these actors? Who knows Harrison was guilty?

GENERAL U. S. GRANT.

From the Western Christian Advocate.

GENERAL GRANT,
The Conqueror of Appomatox. Conquered at Mt. McGregor.

Thursday morning, July 23, at 8:08 o'clock, Gen. Ulysses Simpson Grant passed into heaven and into history. Viewed from any point of observation he was an illustrious citizen, whose victories in peace were scarcely of less renown than those he won in war. He conquered his way up through poverty and obscurity to the first rank as a civilian and a soldier.

His armies were grander, and his victories mightier, than any the world has known before his time and land.

Nor Napoleon, nor Wellington, nor Hannibal, nor Alexander, nor the great Caesar will be regarded as his peer, when the unbiased chronicler shall fill out the impartial, unprejudiced and faithful record of his brilliant career.

Gen. Grant was a true man among men. True to himself, his family, his country and his God.

He was greatly abused and traduced in life; but his abusers and traducers have bestowed upon him dead a measure of praise greatly in excess of their abuse and traduction in his life time.

It is well for them and due to him that in his death, if not in his life, they should acknowledge, as by this outburst of praise they do, that he was not as they reported him to be. Our late war introduced to the world four men whose names must remain forever in memory, and be revered as long as they remain. These names are those of Lincoln, Sumner, Grant and Conkling. They were not original abolitionists, but when they understood the real character and purpose of the slave power, they came to be its relentless foes. They espoused the cause of the Negro, not as of the Negroes, nor yet because the Negroes were Negroes, but as a National duty, as a military and a political necessity. It was not philanthropy so much as patriotism which inspired their opposition to slavery, and their friendship for the slave. With them it was a law that the Negro, if free, must be endowed with every right of freedom, and defended in their maintenance. We do not forget that these men were sometimes divided in judgment, but their divisions were touching means, not ends. As to ends they were one and indivisible.

To Gen. Grant as a soldier the Negroes are under bonds of perpetual gratitude. He opened the Union lines and received them when penniless and friendless they fled from slavery. He confronted and repelled the pursuer who sought to reclaim and re-enslave them. He opened the United States commissary, and from thence brought forth food and raiment for them. He enrolled them upon the rosters of his army, and sheltered them from every foe. He taught them how to fight whomsoever assailed their freedom under the stars and stripes, and to be men.

As President he called them to the exercise of citizenship. He gave them political position and prestige. He sustained them by the military power of the country, and in every way recognized them as men and fellow-citizens.

No man was more thoroughly beloved by the rank and file of Negroes than Gen. Grant. No man ever will be. They wanted him for President, for counsellor—even king; anything and for any number of terms. Now, from gilded mansion to squalid hut, seven millions of Negroes, with swimming eyes, mingle with the nations of the earth, bent and uncovered, in reverent memory of Gen. Grant. Washington was the father of his country partly in chains, but Grant goes down into history as the Hero-Savior of his country without a slave or a chain.

He favored every plan for the betterment and uplifting of his Negro countrymen.

They could approach him at all times and places, and were sure of both audience and respectful treatment. In all his noble career there is no record that he ever offended the sensitiveness of our very sensitive race by either act or word of disparagement concerning them. This great man wrote no line with reference to the Negroes in his life that they would now blot out of the historic age. It was most fitting, indeed, that through all his long and severe suffering there should be near his body, watching over his life night and day, one of that race for whose disenthrallment he watched away countless nights and bravely faced missiles of death in the tented field. It was fit, too, that when the last moment had come, when the old commander was to give up his sword with more glory than when he had received that of Gen. Lee; that there should stand near him, next to his family, his minister and his physician, one of that race for whose freedom he contributed so much. Helped by him in life the Negroes in turn were there to help him in his sickness and death. They stand first among the mourners of earth's nations. The earth has lost its greatest soldier, the United States their chief citizen commander; his family the truest of fathers and husbands.

But the Negroes; what have they lost? In the death of Gen. Grant the Negroes have lost a friend in whose whole public life there is not one word or deed inconsistent with their real interest as a free people and a part of the American nation.

There have been and there are to be memorial services every where, and 'tis properly so; but let every Negro church be in mourning, let every eye be filled with tears, let every pulse beat faster, and every breathing be more laborèd now. Let chants and dirges toll our grief in sad and mournful numbers, and let orations utter his praise in every Negro congregation everywhere throughout the land.

General Grant has died, not as earth's great men usually die. He was surrounded by no spiritual cloud. He was a professed Christian, a man of prayer and faith. He was a Methodist, and in his closing hours of life drew the Rev. John P. Newman, his steadfast friend and faithful pastor, near, and then, as it were, shut himself in with his family and his God. This example will grow upon us as the years roll by. We shall learn from it that true courage and heroic fortitude is born of Christian trust and confidence. We weep for our fallen Commander, Brother and Friend. But our weeping is not as those who have no hope.

A New Agricultural Fair Association.

The following gentlemen met on Sunday, April 26, in the United Brothers of Friendship Hall, Covington, Kenton county, Ky., and organized an Agricultural Fair Association for the colored people thereof, viz.: Washington Rippleton, W. A. Gaines, John Hillman, John H. Dickson, Henry Million, W. H. Parham, J. T. Clay, Samuel Steele, J. T. Overton, Charles Wright, J. S. Wilson, Martin Haggart, S. Thomas, Charles Evans, Howard Haggert, and Benjamin Hathway.

The officers are: President, W. J. Gaines; secretary, W. H. Parham; vice-president, Thomas Wilson; assistant secretary, Albert Hardin; treasurer, J. W. Hillman. The capital stock is $3000, divided into $3 shares, to which subscriptions were made as follows, viz.: Rippleton, Gaines, Hillman, Dickson, Parham, Clay, Overton, Thomas and Hathway each five shares; Steele, Wright and M. Haggert three shares each; Wm. Evans and H. Haggert each two shares. No member can hold more than ten shares.

A committee on constitution and by laws were appointed as follows, vic: Parham, H. Haggert, Clay, Dickson and Overton. The directors are Rippleton, Adam Smoot, Henry Johnson, John Warner, Wright, Charles Steele, Dickson, Thomas, Burt, Johnson, Clay, Samuel Steele, Overton and Hathway.

There are a number of worthy and competent gentlemen with whom we are well acquainted on this list.

It is praiseworthy in the colored people that they are beginning to turn their attention to institutions which have for their purpose the betterment of life rather than those which have as their sole purpose a preparation for sickness and death.

In general an industrious, forethinking people will be able to lay aside something for the time of sickness, age and death. Whatever the exigencies incident to the period immediately after emancipation may have demanded, in view of the high death rate, and extreme poverty of the race at that period, we are now assured by our doubled and rapidly increasing population, that the Negro is a living and not a dying race. It is therefore expedient that it organize against rather than for death.

But while we could wish and believe that ordinarily this enterprise would succeed there is an extraordinary circumstance connected with its initial meeting which we not only regret, but sincerely hope may meet with emphatic condemnation to the extent of even defeating its purpose entirely, if it cannot be otherwise cured of this reprehensible feature.

We refer to its meeting for organization on the Sabbath.

The sure way for the colored people or any people to forfeit the claims upon the support and patronage of all love, order and morality, is for them to cut loose from the sacred moorings and holy anchorage which cluster about and cling to the Christian Sabbath.

It is a shame and a reproach to the United Brothers of Friendship, which is a large and useful organization, largely composed of Christian men and women, who were told upon joining it, that religious scruples were to be held sacred and regarded, that any one of its halls should be opened, as in this case, for purposes which are a palpable violation of the Sabbath, and could have as easily attended on some other day.

There is no excuse to offer for this affront to Christian conscience, except that the gentlemen who met there did not care to lose the time to do it in the week.

Several of these gentlemen are quite wealthy, and all of them are in good living circumstances, and hence only carelessness or disregard for opinion of the Christian public can be given as a reason for this action.

We wish they never hold another meeting on Sunday, and ceasing to do that we wish them abundant success, and that there may be a multiplicity of such organizations, the legitimate, and ultimate object of which is both lawful, landable, and has for its end the improvement of the people interested

Our preachers should wake the echoes in every pulpit against Sabbath desecration; and first be sure to avoid it, or that which leads to it themselves.

Domestic Education.

By D. A. Payne, Bishop of the African M. E. Church. Introduction by Richard S. Rust, Secretary of the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and for some time teacher in Wilberforce College, principal training school of the African Methodist Episcopal Church. By Cranston & Stowe, Cincinnati, O.

The advance pages of this work are before us to the 128th page and the 15th chapter. It is to be a neat 16mo., well bound, and put up in a workmanlike manner, as everything sent out from our Book House is. The author proposes to talk about "Christian Education in its Domestic Form." This has been his absorbing theme for a long and busy life time. With accomplishments second, perhaps, to no man of his race now living, with adaptations and experience and habits of life eminently fitting him for his task, the author has given us a volume which must prove useful in all the directions he has intended and in one that he has not. It will prove the power of the Negro to hold his idea when writing upon somewhat occult speculative and philosophical subjects. Bishop Payne has succeeded well with the work in hand. His last will probably prove his best of several books, the ripe fruit of a thoughtful life will be found there. He has written for the home, and if we are not mistaken the home will read, receive and be bettered by the lesson he has here given it. He has put fifty five years of careful observation into this volume and it cannot fail to be both useful and interesting reading.

Dr. Rust has risen to his grandest heights in his introduction to the work. It is characteristic of the man, and worthy of the occasion and the subject. In a long acquaintance with him, affording ample opportunity for the study, we think we have learned his character, and we think the paper reveals it in its true light.

INTRODUCTION.

On invitation of my esteemed friend and brother, the Rev. D. A. Payne, D. D, LL. D, the venerable senior bishop of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, I submit a few considerations as an introduction to his interesting and able discussion on Domestic Education.

This service becomes a pleasant one in view of our long and intimate friendship, which commenced in 1858, when I entered upon my duties as president of the Wilberforce University, and which has continued without the slightest interruption until the present hour.

Bishop Payne took an active part in the establishment of the university, aided it by pen, purse, and speech; was its true and steadfast friend in the most trying period of its history, and when the institution passed into the hands of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, he became its honored president. His advice and counsel were of great value to me in the discharge of the critical duties connected with my office. Conscientious and upright in all the relations of life, refined and cultivated by study and travel, intensely interested in securing educational advantages for the preparation of young men for the Christian ministry, self sacrificing and enthusiastic in efforts for the salvation of the world, the authors character is worthy of imitation, and his book merits careful study. The subject discussed is one of transcendent importance, and the ability and thoroughness with which the discussion is conducted will command the respect of intelligent people, and secure the happiest results. It will shed light upon all questions pertaining to the happiness of home, the efficiency of the school, and the permanence of the republic.

The most valuable instrumentality in the education of our children is their early training at home by their parents, and this must be commenced as soon as they enter this world, and continued until childhood is merged in manhood. We must act upon the great truth which led one of the master painters of Italy to begin in his art back at the grinding and mixing of his paints, that no unskillfulness in the preparation of the colors should be found on completion to have marred the beauty, or dimmed the clearness of works which were to challenge the admiration of prosperity.

God has consecrated the early period of life to the religious training of the child by the parent, so that in all time to come holy influence may linger in the mind and restrain its possessor from folly and crime. God in wisdom holds back the development of the passions in childhood, and thus gives the parent a chance to pre-empt the child for Christ before the Devil can place a mortgage on it.

The most important part of life is childhood, and during this period, impressions may most easily be made, and with the greatest difficulty effaced. We may carefully sketch characters upon the sand of the sea-shore, and the next dash of the returning surge may obliterate them. But impressions made by the mother on the tender mind of the child shall never be effaced. It may appear paradoxical, but I venture to remark that more of the human family are ruined in the nursery than in subsequent life, and the sentiment is in harmony with revelation, which offers a happy and useful life as the reward of early training. The child's mind is receptive, and the wrong feelings of the parent are reproduced in the child and become a part of its being. There is not a cloud of anger that flits over the countenance of the parent that does not disturb the gentle spirit of the watchful child.

The power of early training is recognized in the bitter condemnation of those who break away from its restraints and become vile, and in the praise awarded to those who in spite of its neglect become good and useful citizens.

It is axiomatic in education that what is first in point of time is first in importance, and the interest that gathers around the subject of early training should exceed that of any subsequent period of life. Early culture should not be entrusted to inexperienced strangers; the love and solicitude of the parents are demanded. Of all the eloquence of earth there is none that moves the soul like the melting strains of maternal love. Says a beautiful writer: "The smile of the mother which is reproduced upon the face of the infant upon her bosom, is only an emblem of that likeness of her heart in which his heart is formed. Every one carries to his grave certain elements of character, breathed into his soul by his mother while he was fondled in her arms." Every child receives from its parents impressions and peculiarities of thought and life which no subsequent effort can entirely overcome. Every look and word and act tells upon the little ones at home. There is a kind of ink which, when first used, is scarcely perceptible, but it becomes blacker as it dries, till at length it becomes so black that you may burn the substance on which it is written and the letters will still be legible in the very ashes. Faint emblem of the mother's influence! Napoleon once said to Madame Campan, The old systems of education are good for nothing; what is wanted for the proper training of young persons in France! With keen discernment and great truth that intelligent and accomplished lady replied in one word, Mothers. The word struck the emperor, and he exclaimed: "Behold an entire system of education. You must have mothers that know how to train their children."

One reason why your schools accomplish so little may be found in the fact that it requires so much time and labor to break up bad habits contracted in early life at home. When parents who commence the education of their children shall do it as wisely as the fondest affection and the maturest judgment can dictate, and then place them under the care of the public teacher, who is properly fitted for and alive to the great responsibilities of his work, then a brighter era will dawn upon our educational interests, and a nobler race of men and women will bless the world. It is wrong to reproach the teacher for no completing with becoming beauty and symmetry a work characterized in its early stages by so many defects.

It is a crime for parents to allow their children to go from the fireside to the cold world with bad habits and wicked propensities. With the best preparation possible life is a bitter struggle against temptation and vice, and early religious training and Christian character furnish the only safeguard against the perils to which the young are exposed.

R. S. RUST,
Cor. Sec. Freedmen's Aid Society of the M. E. Church.
Cincinnati, O., March, 1885.

Personal.

—Mr. Harvey Lacy, the celebrated bird fancier, of Georgetown, Ky., carries a large and varied stock of pigeons, white rabbits and Guinea pigs. His trained carrier pigeon carried off the first prize lately at Nashville, Tenn. He is a colored man.

—Mr. James Bailey, of Georgetown, Ky., a colored man and a master builder, has under contract nearly $20,000 worth of building, and has been in the last few days compelled to refuse a $9000 contract. He employs both white and colored hands, and cannot secure efficient colored ones enough.

—Rev. J. H. Stanley of New Zion Church, near Newtown, Scott county, Kentucky, has a most comfortable situation. They own, free of debt, a good church, parsonage, school house, graveyard, two acres of land, stable, and supply a horse and buggy for the pastor's use. Sixteen copies of the SOUTHWESTERN make weekly visits.

—Rev. Scott Ward and family are settled in their charge at Georgetown, Ky. Mrs. Ward has grown stout and even more handsome than of yore. Miss Saloma, their oldest daughter, is quite accomplished, and officiates as organist in the Sunday School of her father's charge. The two boys are well grown, and Miss Cindarella, the baby, is a sparkling and beautiful little jewel. They are well received, and are entering upon what we hope will prove a successful year's work.

Rev. Isaac Hardaway, of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, residing at Bewleyville, and stationed this year at Georgetown, Ky., has been rejected by the membership of his charge. It is because of no fault in him, as he is a good but quiet preacher. The charge contains only nineteen members, and is not able to support a pastor without outside aid, or being placed in a circuit with other [illegible] and presiding [illegible] and Rev. J. W. [illegible] attend to this case. Our church, and the Masonic Lodge of Georgetown, aided Bro. Hardaway what they could, but it was insufficient to move him back home where he has determined to go.

—Bro. Stonewall Jackson, of New Zion Church, a worthy and leading member, has lived in Scott county, Kentucky, in sight of his birthplace for fifty one years. He owns six acres of good land, is a medal gardener, his being the best garden we have anywhere seen. He built all save four main rooms of his large residence, and all his out buildings, with his own hands, unaided by a square, and when his health was too infirm to handle hemp. He is now worth $2500, all acquired within the last eleven years. Being burned out some time ago, the community arose spontaneously, white and colored people contributing to restore his losses. He was a slave, but never submitted to the lash. He is highly valued as a citizen and a Christian.

Church Polity.

MR. EDITOR—Can you tell me where I can get a prayer book and for how much?—SUBSCRIBER.

The Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church contains some beautiful forms of prayer, which, for clearness of expression, fervency of spirit and purity of doctrine has no superior in any book of prayer. They can be used to great advantage by persons who wish to study how to approach and converse with Deity. These prayers are found Dis. 1884, p 211, ¶ 401; p. 217, ¶ 402; p: 230 ¶ 404; p. 240, ¶ 405; p. 248, ¶ 406; p. 254, ¶407; p. 257, ¶ 407; p. 259, ¶407; p. 270, ¶ 408; p. 272, ¶408; p. 280, ¶ 410, and p. 291, ¶411. The Discipline also contains several useful directions touching the duty of prayer as a means of grace, and requires the performance of this duty by all our members. See Dis 1884, p. 29, ¶ 34; p. 80, ¶126, sec. 1. Our Catechism also contains a few forms of prayer suitable for early beginners. You can get either of these books from any of our book rooms The Catechism, in paper cover, will cost from 3 cents to 5 cents. The Discipline will cost you 30 cents. Get them both.

Schools and Colleges.

It is expected that courses for beginners in Hebrew, Arabic and Assyrian (should there be any demand for them), will be given under the supervision of Prof. Haupt, by Mr. Adler and Mr. Hnizinga, as Fellows in Shemitic Languages. —In the Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md., 1885.

New Orleans University.

A. F. HOYT.

Sister Stalker, wife of Rev. Thomas Stalker, pastor of Ames Chapel, has already sent $50 to Rev. J. C. Hartzell, D.D., toward paying the $100 she subscribed at the Louisiana Conference for New Orleans University. Rev. A. F. Hoyt has sent $30 toward the $100 he subscribed for the university. Many of the students are assisting to raise this $100.

Through the kind effort of Rev. A. E. P. Albert, D.D., we have received five boxes of books from Rev. D. F. Barnes, of the Michigan Conference.

Still the good work goes on.

Meridian Academy.

S. A. COWAN.

MR. EDITOR—At this writing I am in Macon town, on my way to Cooksville, Miss., where I shall take charge of a free public school. Coming from Atlanta, Ga., here, I stopped a few days in Meridian, and was the guest of a friend and fellow student of Rust University, Holly Springs, who is the principal teacher in the Meridian Academy. Out of enjoyment I went into enjoyment.

Our school in Atlanta just closed I was in time to witness the closing exercises of the Meridian school. The examination of classes Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, June 10, 11 and 12, in algebra, arithmetic, etc., was first best.

The exhibition was in session three nights. I heard it whispered on the streets of Meridian that the examination and exhibition excelled anything of the kind heretofore. Everybody with whom I met or had anything to say, spoke favorably of the school.

The present outlook bids fair for a large attendance of the school at its opening of the fall term.

May prosperity attend the school in every respect.

June 14, which was "Children's Day," was observed at this place The worthy superintendent of the Sunday School, Prof. J. H Brooks, A. B, ably conducted the services. At the morning hour I made a talk to the school on education. At 3 p. m. the pastor, J. B. Walden, preached the children's sermon. Collection for the day, $15 50.

Good News for New Orleans University.

Dr. Hartzell writes that the plans for the new building for the New Orleans University are finished, and that the contract for the work has been let to Adams Brothers, of Chattanooga, Tenn., architects and builders, who have erected large and splendid buildings for the society at Little Rock, Atlanta and elsewhere. The work will be begun at once, and will be pushed as fast as the money can be raised. The building will cost $25,000.

The board at Cincinnati has forbidden the contracting of any debts on the building. So now is the time for the friends of New Orleans University to rally and raise money. Bishop Mallalieu and Rev. L. P. Cushman will do what they can in New England. The Bishop has assumed to raise one-fourth of the amount as it is needed. The raising of the three fourths has been assumed by Dr. Hartzell, backed by the Louisiana Conference. The doctor has just received $500 from a gentleman in Ohio, and $2000 from a friend in Connecticut.

Every dollar promised by the pastors at the last session of the Louisiana Conference is needed now. Let every pastor fulfill his pledge at once.

Notes from the New Orleans University.

BY PROF. C. T. SIMPSON.

Our church has undertaken, through the Freedmen's Aid Society, an educational work here in New Orleans, which, on every account, ought to engage the earnest co-operation of all our presiding elders and preachers here and in the surrounding country. If they will not overlook or neglect the claims of this work and the intellectual needs of the young people on their charges, our brethren and friends will eagerly urge the cause of education in public, but especially in private will they urge, here a young man, there a young lady, to attend our church schools; and for those in this section the proper school to attend will be the New Orleans University.

The university has been doing some good work the past year, and the future is promising. A notable feature established this year is a set of premiums or prizes to be distributed among competing students in reward for excellence in essays and orations. At the essay contest and the oratorical contest $50, in the form of excellent and valuable books, were distributed to the successful competitors. It will be understood that the value of the books much exceeded $50, as they were purchased at a large reduction from the usual prices.

This feature of $50 premiums each year will be continued in the future. The money is the generous gift of Rev. W. F. Stewart, of North Evanston, Ill., as a memorial of dear children whom the Father has taken to the heavenly home. Our kind brother has given where the good done will be great and lasting.

The coming year Prof. W. G. Stewart, a graduate of the State Normal School at Ypsilanti, Mich., will have charge of the normal department. Teachers and those intending to teach should consult well for their own best interests They should be dissatisfied with the teaching they can do to-day, and should exert themselves to prepare for better work. If the reader is one of this class, consider if you cannot somehow get money enough to pay your expenses for a year at school. It will pay. It will pay financially, and also in the consciousness that you are improving in your mental faculties, and in your knowledge and teaching power.

Again, we call on our presiding elders and pastors not to let the multitude of their cares make them forgetful of our young people's great, pressing and alarming need of Christian education. These young people themselves should understand that they are totally unprepared for life, unless they obtain a somewhat extensive knowledge of the use of the English language and of other branches commonly studied in connection with this.

Many young men and women might attend school if they would exert themselves to get and save needful money, but they seem to have no ambition in this direction. Very likely their pastor or some friend might persuade them to look higher. Unless they are persuaded in some way or other, in a few years the experience of life without an education will give them cause to regret their great mistake and negligence, and this regret they will suffer all their life long, especially when they observe how their friends and acquaintances have been, in so many ways, benefited by education.

All parents and guardians should understand for what failure they are preparing their children in the future, unless they see to it that in some way or other they get a good education. Start them as best you can, and in a few years they will be able to provide largely for themselves. The best investment any one can make is in the education of a young man or a young woman. In particular every one ought to know that genuine education requires considerable time, but its effects are also correspondingly lasting.

In conclusion we invite all our friends who are thinking of attending school, and all parents, guardians, and others who are intending to send any young people to school, to write to us at once. Let us hear from you. New Orleans University is established for the good of the people here in Louisiana and in the adjoining States; but, in order to do them the most good, the young people must flock to it in large numbers.

Preparations are being made to begin a large, new building soon. This will give us accommodations which we greatly need, and which we and all our friends are anxiously awaiting. Do not wait, however, for the new building. Make up your mind at once to come to school this fall, and begin your preparation immediately.

General Church News.

Dr. Newman, in a business note to Mr. Wm. Abbott, says: "General Grant is improving. His spiritual condition is good." Dr. Newman is lecturing, assisting at dedications, etc.

At Wesley Park, Niagra Falls, will be held a grand Temperance Convention, July 14 to 25; a missionary conference, July 28 to August 7; a camp meeting by the Holiness Association of Canada, August 8 to 17; and an international camp-meeting, August 17 to 31.

Isaac Charles, Ida and Rebecca Lane have all been engaged in teaching during the past year. Jennie has charge of the office work of the Christian Index, the official organ of the C. M. E. Church, of which her father, Bishop Lane, is the chief manager. Jennie is making quite a success as a business woman.

BARTHOLDI'S BIG GIRL

The Prejudices Met By a Canvasser for the Pedestal Fund.

The Bartholdi pedestal fund is nearly complete. The statue has arrived and soon New York harbor will be graced by the most magnificent colossal statue the world has ever seen.

"Liberty Enlightening the World!" What a priceless blessing personal liberty is. It is the shrine at which people, ground under the heel of tyranny in the older worlds, worship with a fervency that Americans can scarcely realize; it is a principle for which Nihilists willingly die the death of dogs; and fit and proper it is that at the very entrance of the Bay of New York this emblematic statue should flash a welcome to the world.

The press is entitled to the credit of this achievment. Mr. Philip Beers, who has been making a circuit of this country on behalf of the Pedestal fund, says that the fund will certainly be raised, as the World does not know the word fail.

Mr. Beers says that he has found the most pronounced generosity among those of foreign birth. They seem more appreciative of liberty than do our native born. Moreover, among some a strange prejudice seems to exist.

"Prejudice? In what particular."

"I have ever found that however meritorious a thing may be, thousands of people will inevitably be prejudiced against it. I have spent most of my life on the road and I know the American people 'like a book.' In 1879 a personal misfortune illustrated this prevailing prejudice. I was very ill, had suffered for several years with headache, fickle appetite, dreadful backache, cramps, hot head, cold hands and feet and a general break down in the system. I dragged myself back to New York, seeking the best professional treatment. It so happens that among my relatives is a distinguished physician who upbraided me roundly for preaching so much about my own case. Finally with some spirit, I remarked to him:

"Sir, you know that much of your professional wisdom is pretense. You are controlled by prejudice. You cannot reach a case like mine and you know it, can you?"

"I had him; and he finally conceded the point, for it was bright's disease of the kidneys which had prostrated me, and the schoolmen admit they cannot cure it. Having cured myself, however, in 1879, and not having seen a sick day since, my relative finally admitted that Warner's safe cure, which accomplished this result, was really a wonderful preparation. Had President Rutter, of the Central Hudson used it, I am certain he would be alive to-day, for he could not have been in a worse condition than I was."

"I have found similar prejudices among all classes concerning even so laudable a scheme as this pedestal fund."

Mr. Beer's experience and the recent death of President Rutter, of the Central Hudson railroad, of an extreme kidney disorder, proves that the physicians have no real power over such diseases, and indicates the only course one should pursue if, as the late Dr. Willard Parker says, headache, sickness of the stomach, dropsical swellings, back ache, dark and offensive fluids, prematurely impaired eyesight, loss of strength and energy occur, for they unmistakably indicate a fatal result, if not promptly arrested.

"Yes, sir-ee, every cent needed for the pedestal will be raised. Of course it will be a great triumph for the World, but would it not have been an eternal disgrace had our people failed to provide for this pedestal."

It is better to go so high that you will fear to fall, than to stay so near the ground that it would not hurt you to fall.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Lynching in a Churchyard on Sunday.

REV. B. L. CRUMP.

On last Sunday evening a crowd numbering 400 witnessed the hanging, by Judge Lynch, of Harrison Tunstal, a negro man who was arrested this morning charged with a heinous crime which was attempted on the person of a young white lady of the town of Oxford. The lady was rudely awakened from her slumber about 2 o'clock, a. m., and dragged from her room through the hall into an adjoining room, and warned if she made any outcry he would kill her. Her sister, who was with her, hearing the noise, lighted a lamp and rushed out in time to get a glance of the man. When arrested and brought before the ladies it is said he gave conflicting accounts as to his whereabouts on the past night. The matter was referred to a committee of twelve citizens, who all day long, up to 5 o'clock, stayed the hands of violence. At 5 o'clock the Courthouse bell rang, and a large crowd assembled to hear the report of the committee. While the evidence strongly pointed to his guilt, it was not so conclusive but there existed a reasonable doubt. Wherenpon the father of the young lady arose and said that a number of the committee did believe in his guilt, and all that was wanted was help, and the work would be done. The chairman once more arose, and moved that the people stand by the committee, but the crowd did not accept the report, and about thirty or forty men went to the jail and brought forth Harrison with his hands bound behind him, and made for a large oak in the yard of the Methodist Church (South), and hastily erected a scaffold on the hind wheel of a wagon, the plank resting on the church fence. The rope was thrown over a limb, and when he mounted, the noose was adjusted to his neck. He was asked if he had anything to say. He said a thing happened last night, and he was accused of it. I suppose I will have to suffer for it, but I am not guilty. He said pray for me, pray for me. The writer of this prayed for him, and Harrison prayed with him. After prayer he bid them all good by. The wagon was run out from under him, and the body dropped a distance of five feet. I hope I shall never see anything like it again. Oh, just to think of hanging a man on Sunday. Please pray for us here in Oxford.

Oxford, Miss., July 12, 1885.

Books and Current Literature

Rev. E. S. Lewis, of the Arkansas Conference, has our thanks for the minutes of that body. The work is neatly done in all respects.

WITHOUT A HOME. A novel. By E. P. Roe. With illustrations by H. McVickers. Dodd, Mead & Co., publishers, New York. Price 25 cents.

With a fine conception, graceful diction, and a noble purpose in view, the author has given us in fiction a most powerful argument and thrilling narrative, which illustrates the fatal consequences of opium eating. The volume sent is an 8 mo. paper cover, highly illustrated.

SERVICE FOR JESUS. A monthly record of the Lord's work, under Dr. Charles Cullis. Vol 1, No. 1. Price $1 per year. Published by the Willard Tract Repository: Beacon Hill Place, Boston; 239 Fourth avenue, New York.

This work is in the interest of that extreme phase of Christian work known as faith cures. It asks the patronage of all who desire to be more fully advised of the progress this increasing class of Christians are making. The subject itself is one about which there is much division of opinion, and room for mush; but since the only way to form just conclusions concerning it is to investigate it thoroughly, we trust that this new candidate for public favor may obtain a good circulation. If it is to be judged by this initial number both the matter and spirit will agree with the profession.

His Way.

God let us go on our way alone
Till we are homesick and distressed,
And humbly then come back to own
His way is best.

He lets us thirst by Horeb's rock,
And hunger in the wilderness,
Yet at our feeblest, faintest knock
He wants to bless.

He lets us faint in far off lands,
And feed on husks and feel the smart,
Till we come home with empty hands
And swelling heart.

But then for us the robe and ring,
The Father's welcome and the feast,
While over us the angels sing—
Tho' last and least.

—Selected.

Letters from the Pastors.

Rev. R. H. Patton writes from Paulding, Miss.: "Mr. Editor—Just allow me to say that my churches are in a blooming condition, and the Sunday Schools are also doing well, and everything is moving in fine style. We want to do more this year for the Lord than ever before. Heaven is just before us, and we are marching on our pilgrim's journey. So pray for me."

[Letters of this length and more frequently sent are in order and high favor in our office.—ED.]

Rev. T. G. Montgomery, of Shreveport, La., writes: "We have closed our protracted meeting with five converts and two by letters. We have had fourteen join the church. The Lord has blessed us with his presence. Pray that the good work may continue."

Rev. J. W. Robinson writes from Waco, Texas: "I entered upon this work early in December, and received a generous reception at each of the appointments. The work is in good shape, and everything glides along smoothly. My predecessor deserves praise for faithful services here. Short crops have hindered us in financial matters; bnt the people are giving myself and family a comfortable support. They pay my house rent, my grocery bills, and from all over the circuit they bring to my door wood, corn, meat, eggs, milk, chickens and butter. All told, this is a good circuit and a grand people. At East Waco we have purchased a lot and began to build. In fact we have got the house up. Then on Sabbath evening, March 21, a cyclone razed it to the ground, tearing into many pieces, throwing it east, west, north and South. To this I could not heartily say amen; bnt we are going to work and rebuild it at once. [This is a good chance for charity—ED.] Rev. C. L. Madison, of the Austin district, was my presiding elder for two years, and in that time I did not have a moment's tronble with him. He is a gentleman, and a Christian in every respect, and is a fatherly adviser, a wise counselor. He is well versed in church jurisprudence. His district has improved in every respect. Wherever he be or wherever he goes may God bless his labors, and in the end give him the victory. Rev. W. H. Davis, our newly appointed presiding elder, is a young man full of promise, with twenty-five years of growth, and good work before him. He visited my work, and held my quarter January 24 and 25; had a grand time. Every one seemed to admire his candor and appreciate his services. This district must and shall lead financially this year. It shall not come dragging up with the bell off any more. I have lifted part of my small assessment ($41.)"

Rev. L. L. Shumpert writes from Jackson, Miss.: "Our protracted meeting is just closed. The rains interfered with us very much. We had seventeen converts and twenty-five accessions. God is bringing his church from the wilderness. [illegible] gave us many nice things [illegible] we have been here. God [illegible] good people. I am well [illegible] with this congregation. [illegible] brethren, pray for me."

[illegible] is a model letter. It tells [illegible] story in a nut shell. Write [illegible] this kind if you can, but write—ED.]

Rev. Wm. Smith writes from Glencoe, La.: "On being appointed to the Glencoe charge this year by our worthy Bishop Mallalieu, I had heard so much about Glencoe until I was a little inclined to dread the appointment, but being always ready to take a good Christian's advice, Bro. Dale encouraged me by saying, Bro. Smith go to Glencoe, and you will find a good people there. I ventured, knowing that the Lord promised me that he would be with me until the world's end. On my arrival at Glencoe, in company with Bro. McCary, I found the people there quite different from what I supposed. The officers and members of the church received me as a Christian, and we are still going hand in hand, doing the will of the Master. The first sermon I preached after my arrival $25 was collected to move my family, and before I went for my family, who were in Donaldsonville, the official brothers came together and raised $25 more, which made $50 they gave me to defray the moving expenses of my family. After I had moved my family, and got everything comfortable, I saw that there were sinners to be saved. I called the church together, and expressed my purpose. They told me to go forward, and they would stand by my side. We opened our protracted meeting, and the Lord blessed our efforts by giving us twenty-two converts and thirty odd backsliders reclaimed. Since my appointment to Glencoe I have added seventy-five to the church. Pray that the Lord may ever bless us in the good work of the Master. Mount Zion in Glencoe has her sails hoisted for the city of the living God. Come and go with us. I added thirty two new subscribers to the list for the SOUTHWESTERN, and will send more in a few days. The Sunday School is in a prosperous condition, numbering 130 scholars. The superintendent, Bro. Taylor, is wide awake, and the teachers, seem to take much interest in trying to improve the school. We are all living as Christians ought to live.

Rev. A. Jackson, of Denison, Texas, writes: "On April 22 a terrific cyclone visited us which did considerable damage. Our church was blown down, and the parsonage moved off its foundation. A tree growing near the parsonage was all that saved it. When it struck the tree it could not go any farther. A Mr. Potts, and five of his children, and also myself and three children, were in the church at the time. The house came down on us, bnt through the mercy of God none of us were killed, though Mr. Potts, one of his little children, and myself were hurt. Several persons were killed, and many badly hurt. We are all thankful that we escaped with so little injury. We want to build the church up again as soon as possible, and I will heartily thank all the preachers and friends, who read this, if they will help us by sending me the small sum of $1 or 50 cents. Address Rev. A. Jackson, box 637, Denison, Texas. It has been said that we will never be able to build again, but we mean to try by the help of God.

Rev. C. W. Ivey writes from Mashula, Miss.: "My quarterly conference convened at 3 p. m., with Mr. J. Campbell in the chair. Prayer by R. Cutts. The roll was called, and all of the brethren were present but a few. Mr. R. Cutts was made secretary. The class leaders all had the quarterly blanks well filled out. The steward reports $52 for pastor, and the district steward reports $9 55 for elder. It is estimated that there will be $422 for ministerial support this year. The full membership this quarter is 21; expelled, 8; received 1 by letter. The future looks bright.

Rev. R. Anderson, of Opelousas, La., writes: "Everything is moving on nicely; have had thirty converts added to the church this year."

Rev. W. Jamison, of Eddyville, Ky., writes: "I am doing well. Revival is going on. Have had two converted, and four to join the church up to this writing. Everything bids fair."

Rev. L. J. Terrell, of New Albany, Miss., writes: "On the night of the 5th of May we were visited by a surprise party, containing the following persons: Charlotte Williams, Nancy Pinson, Fannie Martin and Eliza Pinson. We had a splendid time. The sisters of Albany know how to make a minister and his wife feel welcome."

Rev. P. B. McDonald writes from Bastrop, La.: "We are alive here, having just closed a protracted meeting at Bechell, which continued nearly three weeks. Thirty nine are added to the church, thirty-three claim to be converted to Christ, four backsliders reclaimed, one from the Baptist Church, and one from the Colored Church of America. Last Sunday, the 19th, we had a grand time. At 10 a. m. nineteen were baptised aronnd the altar. At 11 a. m. preaching for the young converts. The theme was, "Regard the Little Things; text, St. Luke, 16 10. The Lord was pleased to send His Holy Spirit among us, and many souls were made happy. At 3 p. m. six little children were bronght up and baptised. Bros. B. M. Hubbard and J. H. Reed are making their good marks through this section of country."

Rev. Abner Thomas, of Burleson county, writes: "We are doing very well considering the hard times. There is not much money in the county, and that causes us to get along bad; but we are looking forward to a better day. The The presiding elder was here on the 18th and 19th of April. He preached a fine sermon at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, administered the Lord's supper to 115 souls. He also preached again at night. I have not made much progress with the church this year. Have taken into the church ten on probation and five in full membership.

Rev. P. Blue writes from Shubuta, Miss: "I think I should say in defense of myself and other pastors of the Mississippi Conference, who have been encouraged to raise benevolent moneys by telling their people that their names would appear in the conference minutes, and then after having their books in proper form and well written, the name of charge, pastor, superintendent and contribntors all plainly written and placed in the hands of the statistical secretary ought to appear in the minutes in whole and not in part. I always try to do as I say to my people, and when the people read the minutes they think the pastor has been neglectful, and I say to the people of Enterprise charge that your names went in the statistical secretary's hands in proper form. The conference secretary is not at fault in this matter, bnt the statistical secretary."

Rev. Oscar Williams writes from Bayou Gonla, La.: "We had a good time at our quarterly meeting. The elder preached us a good sermon on the Lord's Prayer. The membership was small at the beginning, but is now increasing. The people of the town are kind and manifest an interest in the church. Some gentlemen lately presented it a set of lamps which cost $1 50. The people here have been tanght by the Baptists not to give money, and they don't like to do it: bnt I am trying to learn them to be benevolent. We have a fine Sunday School, with four teachers and thirty pupils. Now we want a good supply of books and church paper.

A celebrated doctor says that "other preparations as substitutes for Hunt's Kidney Remedy, are worthless in comparison to it."

America Ahead.—Peculiar Characteristics of Americans—The Evils and How Restored.

In this age of bustle and hurry, an age devoted to great projects and enterprises, the American people are taking the lead in the furtherance of noble works, and in the advancement of the sciences and arts. In these they deserve to take a high rank, and through the united works of millions, the American continent is fast being transformed from its untamed state and being placed on an equality with the older continents beyond the ocean. The American people are fast, under these influences, developing into a nervous, energetic race, remarkable for its vim and business qualifications; yet there is danger that in the course of years these very elements may combine to the ruination of the physical character of the people, and leave them feeble and altogether different from their forefathers. General debility is now much more common than formerly, and seems to be on the increase among the masses. Many remedies have been extensively advertised for this wide-spread complaint, but none of these have been so successful or met with such general favor as the remedy manufactured by Dr. S. B. Hartman, and named by him PERUNA.

Mr. S S. Goudy, of Massillon, Stark county, Ohio, writes: That he has been troubled with general debility and dyspepsia for several years; that he was induced to try PERUNA for his complaints, and that after using three bottles of the medicine he was greatly relieved. It braced him right up and gave him energy, and restored him to his youthful vigor. He ascribes his cure to PERUNA, and says it is a wonderful remedy.

Adolph Bakhaus & Co., Springfield, O., writes: "We are having a good sale for PERUNA. It sells as well as any medicine we have, and gives the very best satisfaction."

Mrs. G. W. Needham, Newtonville, Clermont County, Ohio, says: "I have been a great sufferer for the last six or seven years, with general debility and change of life. I was very much reduced. I have taken four bottles of PERUNA, which has restored me to perfect health and strength. We think PERUNA a safe and grand medicine."

PERUNA is sold by all druggists. Price $1 per bottle six bottles $5. If you cannot get it from your druggist, we will send it on receipt of regular price We prefer you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it do not be persuaded to try something else, but order from us at once as directed. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, O.

Chautauqua Periodicals.

Chautauqua Assembly Daily Herald,

An eight page paper, printed on a steam power press on the Assembly grounds at Chautauqua, every morning during the meeting in August; 19 numbers in the volume, containing stenographic reports of more than 70 lectures on science, philosophy, religion and practical questions heald s reports of lectores meetings, debates and classroom drills. An invaluable collection.
The first number will appear Saturday, Aug. 1.
Subscription price, - - - - $1 00
In clubs of five or more at one time - - 90

THE CHAUTAUQUAN,

A first-class Literary Magazine The organ of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle, containing one-half of the Required Readings of the course with the special departments of Local Circles, Questions and Answers on the Books in the course C. L. S. C. Work and Notes on the Required Readings.
A Literary Department of great merit, furnishing articles from the foremost writers of the country.
Subscription price, - - - - $1.5)
In clubs of five or more at one time - - 1.35
Vol. VI will begin with the October number.

Chautauqua Boys and Girls

A Daily Paper for the Boys and Girls, to be issued at Chautauqua in August Pictures of Chautauqua life. Full accounts of all children's meetings
Subscription price - - - - 50c
In clubs of five or more, - - - - 40c

COMBINATION OFFERS:
The Chautauquan and Assembly Daily Herald.....$2.25
The Chautauquan, Assembly Daily Herald and Chautauqua Boys and Girls.....$2 70
Address: DR. T. L. FLOOD, Editor and Proprietor. Meadville, Pa
je 25-8t

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9-12, 1883.
Sixty Addresses by American Educators.
Edited by REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.
8vo. 272 pp. Price, stiff paper..$1. 25
Cloth..... 1 75
The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:

1. Education and Man's Improvement.
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America.
5. Illitoracy, Wealth, Pauperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War.
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—ten tables.

It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index.
Sent postpaid on receipt of price.
Phillips & Hunt.
37 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

OPIUM MORPHINE HABIT EASILY CURED. BOOK FREE. DR. J. C. HOFFMAN Jefferson, W mar6-53t

RAILROADS.

Chesapeake & Ohio R. R.
—VIA—
WASHINGTON
—TO—
BALTIMORE, PHILADELPHIA, and NEW YORK.
THE ONLY LINE WITH
Pullman Sleeping Cars
—FROM—
Louisville, Cincinnati and Lexington
—TO—
WASHINGTON
WITHOUT CHANGE.
Schednle in effect October 12, 1884.

EASTWARD.	No 4 Daily.	No. 6 ex Sunday
Leave Cincinnati	8 10 p m	8 30 p m
Leave Louisville	7 15 p m	7 00 a m
Leave Lexington	10 40 p m	11 45 a m
Leave Winchester	11 15 p m	12 25 p m
Due Mt. Sterling	12 08 a m	1 36 p m
Due Ashland	3 26 a m	5 55 p m
Due Huntington	4 00 a m	6 40 p m
Leave Huntington
Due Charleston	6 36 a m	10 00 p m
Due Clifton Forge	1 30 p m	6 40 a m
Due Staunton	3 57 p m	9 26 a m
Due Charlottesville	5 20 p m	11 05 a m
Due Richmond	9 15 p m	3 75 p m
Arrive Newport News	10 45 a m	6 30 p m
Due Washington	9 50 p m
Arrive New York	6 30 a m

WESTWARD.	No. 3 Daily.	No. 1, ex Sunday
Leave New York	10 00 a m	12 00 knt
Due Washington	5 10 p m	9 10 a m
Leave Newport News	3 50 p m
Leave Richmond	6 25 p m	9 35 a m
Due Charlottesville	10 00 p m	1 45 p m
Due Staunton	11 42 p m	4 57 p m
Due Clifton Forge	1 45 a m	6 40 p m
Due Charleston	9 00 a m	4 25 a m
Due Huntington
Leave Huntington	9 40 a m	6 20 a m
Due Ashland	10 19 a m	7 02 a m
Due Mt. Sterling	1 57 p m	11 05 a m
Leave Winchester	2 30 p m	11 45 a m
Arrive Lexington	3 20 p m	12 45 o m
Arrive Louisville	7 10 p m	5 20 p m
Arrive Cincinnati	6 05 p m	5 35 p m

Lexington Div. trains run by Central time. Main line trains East of Huntington run by Eastern time, which is one hour faster than Central time.
Nos. 1 and 6 run daily, except Sunday. Sleeping cars between Huntington and Clifton Forge
Nos 3 and 4 run daily, and do not stop for local business. Pullman Sleeping cars and Solid Train between Louisville and Washington and Cincinnati and Richmond without change.
Nos. 2 and 5 runs daily between Richmond and Clifton Forge Do not run between Clifton Forge and Richmond
No. 1 leave Norfolk except Sunday, 7 40 a m, Old Point 8 15 a m, Newport News 8 45 a m, arrive at Richmond at 11 35 a m
No. 2 leave Richmond except Sunday 8 20 a m, arrive Newport News 10 45 a m Old Point 11 10 a m. Norfolk 11 45 a m
Old Dominion Steamers leave Norfolk on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or Saturday at 6 00 p m; arrive in New York next afternoon.
For Rates Tickets, Baggage Checks apply to any office of C. & O. R'y; or Depot or Ticket Office of connecting lines
C. W. SMITH, Gen'l Manager.
H. W. FULLER, Gen'l Pass. Agt

Ohio & Mississippi R. R
—The Direct and Fast Line to—
Cincinnati, Louisville, Washington, Baltimore, New York and the East,
In Connection with the
"Great Jackson Route,"
Makes the following
FAST TIME:

STATIONS.	Daily
Leave New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss.	12:38 a m
Canton	1:30 a m
Durant	2:52 p m
Grenada	4:50 a m
Coffeeville	5:25 a m
Water Valley	6:00 a m
Oxford	6:43 a m
Holly Springs	7:54 a m
Grand Junction	9:15 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St L & N. O.	11:05 a m
Milan " " "	12:20 p m
Martin " " "	1:32 p m
Fulton " " "	2:00 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:30 p m
Carbondale "	6:58 p m
DuQuoin "	7:45 p m
Ashley "	8:28 p m
Centralia "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:26 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi.	9:29 p m
" Lonisville, "	6:50 a m
" Cincinnati "	7:05 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.
Passengers living on the line of the C. St. L. & N. O. R. R. will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.
The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.
2 DAILY TRAINS
FROM ODIN
To WASHINGTON in 27 Hours,
To BALTIMORE in 28 Hours.
This is 5 Hours quicker than the fastest time by any other line.
The Day Express runs entire train consisting of Day Coaches and Palace Sleeping Cars from St. Louis to Washington and Baltimore without change.
The Night Express has Sleepers through without change. No other line from St. Louis offers a Double Daily Through Train Service to the National Capital.
W. W. PEABODY, President and General Manager.
W. B. SHATTUC, General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio. jy31tf

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.
The old reliable route to all Eastern cities Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leaves:	Arrives.
Express	8:00 a m	7:45 a m
Coast Accommodation	3:35 p m	9:10 a m
Fast Mail	8:20 p m	7:20 p m

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. C. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.
W. B. Kniskern, Ticket Agent; J. T. Harahan, General Manager; John Kilkeny, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; O. M Dunn, Superintendent N. O. and M. Division. ja26-1y

RAILROADS.

C. I. St. L. & C. 4 KANKAKEE LINE

4 PASSENGER TRAINS each way per day between Cincinnati and Indianapolis.
3 PASSENGER TRIANS each way per day between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Chicago.
2 PASSENGER TRIANS each way per day, between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette, Kankake, Seneca and Davenport, Ia.

KANKAKEE LINE
Entire trains run through without change between Cincinnati Indianapolis, Lafayette and Chicago. Pullman Sleepers and elegant Reclining Chair Cars on Night trains. Parlor Cars on Day Trains.

SHELDON ROUTE.
Commodious Reclining Chair Cars run through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Peoria Ills. and Keokuk, Ia. Close connection for Burlington, Ia.

KANKAKEE & SENECA ROUTE.
The ONLY LINE running Elegant coaches through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Davenport, Ia.

CONNECTIONS
At Cincinnati, in Central Union Depot, with all trains of the Cincinnati Southern Railway. (Queen & Crescent Route) thus avoiding the tedious omnibus transfer incident to ALL other lines.
At Indianapolis, in Union Depot, with all lines diverging.

Through Tickets and Baggage Checks to all Principal Points,
Can be obtained at any ticket office, O. I. St. L. & C. Ry., also via this line at all Conpon Ticket Offices throughout the country.

☞ See Agents of this Company for Rates, Routes, &c., or write Grant K. Lowry, Trav Pass Ag't. Wilmore, Ky.
JOHN EGAN, Gen'l Pass. and Tkt. Agent, Cincinnati, O.

BIG
J Great Jackson Route.
Illinois Central R. R. Co.
Double Daily Passenger Trains.

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Passenger No. 2 9:15 a.m.	Pass'gr No. 1..7:00 a m.
No. 4 St. L. & Cbl. Express..6:00 p. m.	No. 3. Colo. N O Lim. Ex. 9:00 a.m.
No. 6 Sun Ex...7:30 a m	No. 5 Sun Ex. 8:20 p.m

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.
Ticket Office: Cor. Carondelet and Canal, (Pickwick Club Building.)
WM. MURRAY, General Southern Passenger Agent.
J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT KENNEDY, Ticket Agent.

C & O
The Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company have moved their ticket management and business rooms to No. 225 Fourth avenue.
C. O. & S. W. R. R.
THE SOUTHERN TRUNK LINE
—TO—
Louisville, Cincinnati, Washington, Baltimore,
And the Short Line to
Cairo, St. Louis, Chicago and the Northwest.
The Direct Route to Eastern Seabord Cities, Texas, Arkansas and the Southwest.
Chesapeake, Ohio & Southwestern R. R.
For Owensboro, Henderson, Paducah and Memphis and all points South and Southwest. Ticket office, 225 Fourth avenue; Depot, corner of Fourteenth and Main streets.

	Express Daily	Accom Daily ex Sun'y
Leave Louisville	7 50 a m	4 10 p m
Arrive at Cecelia	10 20 a m	6 45 p m
" Elizabethtown	10 10 a m	7 05 p m
" Grayson Springs	11 12 a m	.....
" Litchfield	11 23 a m	.....
" Central City	2 00 a m	.....
" Owensboro	5 05 a m	.....
" Nortonsville	3 27 p m	.....
" Hopkinsville	9 50 p m	.....
" Madisonville	4 37 p m	.....
" Henderson	6 10 p m	.....
" Evansville	8 10 p m	.....
" Tradewater	4 07 p m	.....
" Princeton	4 47 p m	.....
" Paducah	7 00 p m	.....
" Mayfield	8 27 p m	.....
" Fulton	9 29 p m	.....
" Cairo	10 45 p m	.....
" Rives	10 10 p m	.....
" Memphis	3 20 a m	.....
" Louisville	7 00 p m	9 35 a m

Tickets now on sale at depot at lowest rates. Call on or address R H TALLEY, Ticket Agent Memphis, Tenn.
Or B. F. MITCHELL, Gen. Pass. Agt, Louisville, Ky.

ARE YOU GOING TO
KANSAS, MISSOURI, COLORADO, CALIFORNIA OR ANY OF THE WESTERN STATES?
If so you should avail yourself of the advantages that are now offered by the Kansas City Route, the only direct route from the South to the West and Northwest. This line runs its entire trains, with Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars and free Reclining Chair Cars, from Memphis to Kansas City, saving many hours time over any other route. If you are going West you will save money by purchasing your tickets via Memphis and the Kansas City Route. Send for large map of this Short Route; mailed free. Address,
J. E. LOCKWOOD, Kansas City, Mo.
Or, H. D. ELLIS, Ticket Agent. 34 Madison street, Memphis, Tenn.

Domestic Hygiene.

Helpful Hints.

Soak salt fish in sour milk.

Use beef suet for frying meats, etc.

Boil meat slowly, it is more tender.

Put salt meat in cold water to cook.

To scale fish dip them in hot water.

Put slices of lemon on broiled fish.

Glaze roasts with stock boiled down.

Soak onions one hour before cooking.

Use lukewarm water in making bread.

Meat put in sour milk will keep for days.

Keep fresh meat in cool air over night.

Salt increases the heat in boiling potatoes.

Suet added to a beef stew will make more gravy.

If meat bakes too fast cover with buttered paper.

Soak oatmeal and cracked wheat over night.

Soak old potatoes in cold water before cooking.

To warm up soup set the vessel in hot water and heat slowly.

Thin muslin tied over jars keeps out insects and admits air.

Unslacked lime near meat preserves it by keeping the air dry.

Do not put salt in milk gravy till it is done or it will curdle.

Dip tough beefsteak in vinegar two hours before it is cooked.

When bread will not retain the dent of the finger it is ready for the oven.

Half a cup of vinegar in the water will make an old fowl cook quickly.

If meat is not perfectly fresh put a piece of charcoal in the water while it is boiling.

When making dumplings for soup put in one at a time and they will not stick together.

Mush to fry will brown better if the meal is mixed with milk and then poured into boiling water.

Never boil oysters in milk, but cook them in water, then season and pour them in dish with hot milk.

Keep meat in warm weather in a stone jar with a wet cloth around jar and another wet cloth on top. The evaporation reduces the temperature.

To keep fowls from spoiling sprinkle with powdered borax, wash off before cooking, or put a piece of charcoal in them and sprinkle with black pepper.—Home and Farm.

A Printer's Error.

Sweet are the uses of adversity, the printer's copy said, but he set it up, sweet in the uses of advertising. Sweet, indeed, to those who in sickness and suffering have seen the advertisement of some sovereign remedy, which upon trial has brought them from death's door. 'The best thing I ever saw in my paper was the advertisement of Dr Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," is again and again the testimony of those who have been healed by it of long disease, bronchial affections, tumors, ulcers, liver complaints and the ills to which the flesh is heir.

Must The Chinese Go.

The Chinamen in America are probably, with the exception of Quakers, the most industrious sober, quiet and law-abiding class of population. For which of these attributes must they go.

They do not support taverns and saloons they do not crowd our jails, penitentiaries, and almshouses, they do not loaf round the streets begging under pretence that "they have eaten nothing for two days." For which of these omissions must they go?

The weak minded and selfish inhabitants of British Columbia are as fierce in their outcries against the Chinese as ever Kearney of the Sand Lots (now of rotten memory) was, and to please them a parliamentary commission was sent to examine into the facts of the case. Happily, this commission included three French Canadian statesmen, in the French race have ever shown themselves toward inferior races or foreign nations. The result of the examination reported is that the Chinese are fully as industrious, well-behaved and law-abiding as the other classes of the population; that they are the means of effecting public improvements, constructing railroads, etc, and that British Columbia could not well do without them The farmers and other employers of labor know all this, although they are brow beaten by politicians into joining the insensate cry that the Chinese must go. In all experience with Chinese in New York New Jersey, and other places where they abound, their willingness to receive instruction, and their gratitude to their instructors are conspicuous; and their faculty for keeping out of police courts is most noteworthy, except when some patriotic, half drunk Celtic police hauls a Chinaman before a police magistrate for the crime of being beaten—The Witness.

Loved by Ladies.

Ladies love delicate and delicious perfume. In Parker's Hair Balsam they not only satisfy this taste, but have an article which arrests falling hair, removes dandruff restores the original color and imparts a beautiful gloss, softness and life. Does not soil the linen, is not a dye, cleanly and economical.

Columbus is buried in two places. That is, Havanna says he is buried there, and San Domingo also claims his bones, and an International Congress is to be called to decide the case.

Summer Excursions.

To get the most pleasure, to recuperate or to store up knowledge are questions at this time engrossing the attention of people who wish to make each season yield them something in the way of health, pleasure or knowledge or all of these combined. The C. I. St. L. & C. Ry. (Kankakee Line) which is also known as the "Big Four," has placed on sale Summer Excursion tickets to Denver, Pueblo, and Colorado Springs in Colorado, Milwaukee, Madison, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Yellow Stone Park and the many other popular resorts in Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Dakota and Wyoming Territory. Call on or address the nearest Ticket or Passenger Agent, C. I. St L. & Ry for rates, routes, time-folders, illustrated guide books, etc.

W. H. PAGE, Trav. Pass. Agent, N. W. cor Fourth and Vine sts., Cincinnati, O.
GRANT K. LOWRY, Trav. Pass. Agent, Wilmore, Ky.
JOHN EGAN, Gen'l. Pass. and Ticket Agent, Cincinnati, O. tauy20

Skin Diseases.—"Swayne's Ointment," "Swayne's Ointment" cures Tetter, salt Rheum, Ringworm, Sores, Pimples, Eczema, all Itchy Skin Eruptions, no matter how obstinate or long standing.
nov13,1yeow

OLD ONE HUNDRED.
MRS. TENA BURTON,
100.....Franklin Street.....100
Lodging,
With or Without Board.
mar26-6m

CHRISTIAN
MEN and WOMEN Wanted are
AS AGENTS
For the New and Fast-selling Edition of the
JAMIESON, FAUSSET & BROWN BIBLE COMTENTARY.
4 vols, nearly 4,000 pp. Maps and illustrations. In cloth, $8; half morocco $10 per set.
Best terms and exclusive territory. Permanent employment given after a satisfactory trial.
Jerome B. Names & Co.,
154 St. Clair street, Toledo, Ohio.
The work is heartily recommended.
mar5-39t

WE WANT 1 000 MORE BOOK AGENTS FOR THE PERSONAL HISTORY OF
U. S. GRANT,
Send for PDOIAL TERMS TO AHENTS, or secure agency at once by sending 50 cts. in stamps for outfit. Address
FORSHEE & McMAKIN,
July30-4t Cincinnati, O.

GRATEFUL PRAISE!
A NEW S. S. BOOK. By J. H. Filmore.
Pure in sentiment, rich in music Sample copy, in boards, 25 cents; per dozen by express, $3.60; per dozen by mail, $4. Specimen pages free.
FILLMORE BROS.
No. 185 Race street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

HEADQUARTERS
—FOR—
Sunday-school Supplies
Consisting of
GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with music without music.
Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, Bible Dictionaries.
Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books; Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Text Books, etc., etc. Also a large assortment of Books suitable for Libraries or presents to children. PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $2 65 to $12 00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock
W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent
94.....Camp Street,.....94
25tf NEW ORLEANS.

Plantation Melodies
—AND—
REVIVAL HYMNS.
By MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D.
WITH AN INTRODUCTION
By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.
Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.
Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and portrait. Sent, post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents.
Address, PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez street, New Orleans

M. E. Church Directory.

SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE Office 52 Natchez Street.

LAFAYETTE STREET M. E. CHURCH—Rev. E. J. Clarke, pastor. Sunday services—Class meeting, 6 a m; Sunday-school, 9 a m; preaching at 11 a m, 3 p m, and 7 p m; Class meeting, Tuesday night, at 7 o'clock; preaching Thursday night at 7 o'clock; Communion first Sunday evening of each month at 7 30.

FIRST GERMAN M. E. CHURCH—Corner St Andrew and Frank in streets; Rev J. J. Kienle pastor. Preaching at 10 30 a m, and Sunday-school at 9 a m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.

SECOND GERMAN M. E. CHURCH—Eighth street; Rev Charles Schuler pastor Services: Sabbath at 10,30 a m, and 7 p m; Sunday-school at 9 a m; Prayer meeting Wednesday evenings at 7:30.

ST. MATTHEW M. E. CHURCH—On Verret Street, Algiers, La. Sunday services: Preaching at 11 and 3; 7 30 at night. Prayer meeting 9 30 in the morning. Class meeting Wednesday, 7:30 p m Sunday-school at 1:30 p m. C. Barrow, Pastor

UNION CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Services: Sundays, preaching 11 a m., 3 p. m. 7½ p. m. Sunday school at 1 o'clock. Class meeting Tuesday nights Preaching Thursday nights. Prayer meetings Friday nights. Stephen Duncan, Pastor, 42 Robinson street.

WESLEY CHAPEL—Liberty street, between Perdido and Poydras; Rev Marcus Dale, Pastor. Services: Sunday 6 a m; prayer meeting, preaching 11 a m; 3 and 7 30 p m; General Class and Love Feast monthly; preaching Thursday eve, 7:30; Class, Monday eve.

SIXTH STREET CHURCH—Between Laurel and Annunciation; Rev. F. Lyon, pastor. Services—Public worship Sabbath 11 a m., 3 and 7 p m Communion every second Sunday at 7 p. m. Sunday-school at 1 p m. Class-meeting Monday evening Preaching Wednesday evening. Prayer-meeting Friday evening. General Class first Monday night in every month. Prayer service at 5:30 a. m.

CAMP PARAPET CHURCH—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, Pastor. Sunday services—Prayer-meeting 6 a m. Preaching at 11 a m 3 and 7 p. m. Sabbath at 1 p m. Class-meetings. Thursday evening

HAVEN CHAPEL—JEFFERSON STREET, Carrollton, corner of Plum street. Rev. M C B Mason, Pastor Services—Public worship at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Sunday Sunday-school 9 a m. Class meeting Monday evening. General Class, second Sunday at 11 a. m., and communion at 7. Preaching Thursday evening.

New Orleans University A. F. Hoyt, M. A., Acting President 1428 St Charles Street

First Street Church—Rev. John Qualls, Pastor Church corner First and Dryades Streets. Services: Sabbath—5 a. m, prayer meeting; 11, 3 and 7, public worship; communion monthly, on the first Sunday. Sunday-school 1 p m. Class meeting Monday evening General class every fourth Monday evening. Preaching Thursday nights

MOUNT ZION M. E. CHURCH—James W Hudson, pastor Regular services 11 a m, 3 and 7 p m; prayer meeting Monday eve at 4 p m. Tuesday night class meeting. Preaching Wednesday eve at 7 p. m, and sacrament the third Sabbath of every month.

THOMSON CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Post street, near Rampart. Sunday Services: preaching at 11, 3 and 7 Prayer meeting 6 in morning. Class meeting 3.30. Z. T. Gayden, pastor.

AMES M. E. CHURCH—Rev. Thomas Stalker, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m Sunday-school at 9 45 a. m. Prayer meeting, Thursday evening at 7 30.

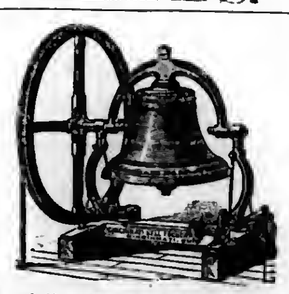
PLEASANT PLAIN CHURCH—Perdido, bet. Johnson and Prieur streets, Rev. W. P Forest, pastor. Services Sabbath: Preaching at 11 a m, 3:30 and 7:30 p m. Sunday school at 9 a m; early prayer meeting at 5:30 a m class at 5:30 p m; preaching Wednesday and prayer meeting Monday evenings. Sacrament every second Sabbath. Love feast quarterly.

General Church Directory.

CENTRAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Also College Church of Straight University A. M. A., corner Gasquet and Liberty streets, one block off Canal street. Services—Preaching Sundays at 11 a m and 7 p m; Sabbath school 1:15 p m. Prayer meetings Tuesdays and Friday evenings at 7:30 p m. This church has a fine choir under good leadership and is centrally located. Northern visitors and all true friends of the colored people are cordially invited to attend its services. Rev. G. W. Bothwell M. A., pastor.

OUR CLUBBING LIST,
—1885—

Persons sending us cash with their orders can have the SOUTHWESTERN one year together with any one of the following publications, for amount opposite each as named:



Littell's Living Age	$9 00
Outing	3 00
Wide Awake	4 25
Babyland	1 75
Our Little Men and Women	2 25
The Pansy	2 00
Our Little Ones and the Nursery	2 25
American Agriculturist	2 50
Southern Cultivator	2 75
Popular Science Monthly	6 00
New York Medical Journal	6 00
Illustrated Christian Weekly	3 25
Harper's Magazine	5 00
Harper's Weekly	5 00
Harper's Bazar	5 00
Harper's Young People	3 00
American Reformer	2 00
Weekly Inter Ocean	2 25
Babyhood	2 75

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez street, New Orleans.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS,
17 & 29 West 2d St., New York.
Have now ready
The History of the Negro Race in America.
From 1619 to 1881. Negroes as Slaves, as Soldiers and as Citizens,
Together with a preliminary consideration of the Unity of the Human Family, and Historical Sketch of Africa, and an account of the Negro Government of Sierra Leone and Liberia. By George W. Williams, first colored member of the Ohio Legislature, and late Judge Advocate of the G. A. R., of Ohio.
Popular Edition; two volumes in one, large octavo, with portrait on steel of the author, $4
"It is a prodigious compilation, so comprehensive that every student will welcome it, and so just in its whole scope that criticism of special points can not impair it.—World, New York.
"It ought to be read by every colored man in America."—Journal, Indianapolis.
"He has accomplished a noble service for his race."—Zion's Herald, Boston.
☞ This book can be ordered through the office of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, New Orleans, La.

CORPULENCY Recipe and notes how to harmlessly, effectually and rapidly cure it, without semi starvation dietary, etc. European Mail, Oct 24th, says, "Its effect is not merely to reduce the amount of fat, but by affecting the source of obesity to induce a radical cure of the disease Mr. R. makes no charge whatever; any person, rich or poor, can obtain his work gratis by sending 6 cts. to cover postage to F. O. RUSSELL, Esq. Woburn House, Store street Bedford Sq., London, Eng. may21 13t

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.

Bells For Churches, Schools, Etc.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
24 inches	165 lbs	300 lbs	$350 00
26 "	200 lbs	350 lbs	45 00
28 "	225 lbs	375 lbs	55 00
32 "	375 lbs	550 lbs	80 00
36 "	525 lbs	750 lbs	100 00
40 "	800 lbs	1100 lbs	145 00
44 "	1060 lbs	1400 lbs	180 00
48 "	1345 lbs	1800 lbs	230 00
51 "	2050 lbs	2800 lbs	350 00

Bells for Schools, Farms, Etc.
without mountings.

18 inches	75 lbs	$13 00
20 inches	100 lbs	18 00
24 inches	165 lbs	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named, which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.

The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.

On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 37 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.
Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.
VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.
mar5-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.
The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade.
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.
Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,
TROY, N. Y.
nov29-1yr

McShane Bell Foundry

Manufacture those celebrated Bells and Chimes for Churches, Tower Clocks, &c., &c. Price-list and circulars sent free. Address
HENRY McSHANE & CO.
oct23-1y Baltimore, Md.

Baltimore Church Bells
Since 1844 celebrated for Superiority over others, are made only of Purest Bell Metal, (Copper and Tin,) Rotary Mountings, warranted satisfactory. For Prices, Circulars, &c., address BALTIMORE BELL FOUNDRY, J. REGESTER & SONS, Baltimore, Md.
apr30 26teow

An Offer Never Equaled!
THE WEEKLY EDITION
—OF—
The TIMES DEMOCRAT,
NEW ORLEANS,
—AND—
THE WEEKLY EDITION
—OF—
The NEW YORK WORLD,
NEW YORK,
FOR ONE YEAR
Only $2.20.
OR THE TWO WEEKLIES
—AND A—
Waterbury Watch and Chain
FOR $4.20.
Either Weekly alone is worth more than the price asked for both, as they contain reviews of the news of the world, a vast amount of select literary matter, exhaustive commercial reports, in fact everything is embraced that tends to make a
First class Family Newspaper.

The subscription price to Weekly Times-Democrat alone is $1 50 for 12 months; 75 cents for 6 months, or 50 cents for 3 months.

Every family in New Orleans not taking the Daily TIMES-DEMOCRAT should keep posted in the

NEWS OF THE WORLD,

by taking these Weeklies, and as an inducement we offer a good serviceable watch for the small addition mentioned above.

The WATERBURY WATCH is a stemwinder, and will run twenty-eight hours The case is NICKLE-SILVER and will always remain as bright as a new silver dollar. The Watch has a heavy beveled edge and a crystal face. The works of the Watch are made with the finest automatic machinery. Every watch is tested in varying positions, and is perfect before leaving the factory. Each Watch is put up in a handsome new improved SATIN-LINED CASE, for safe transportation through the mails

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Taken at the office of THE TIMES-DEMOCRAT, or by mail, when accompanied by subscription price.

For the Cheapest and Choicest
Family & Fancy Groceries,
SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE Hams, Bacon, &c., &c.,
—GO TO—
William A. Sullivan's GROCERY
Corner of
Washington and Hampson Streets
CARROLLTON, LA.
nov23-1y

A PRIZE Send six cents for postage, and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help you to more money right away than anything else in this world. All, of either sex, succeed from first hour. The broad road to fortune opens before the workers, absolutely sure. At once address, TRUE & Co., Augusta, Maine. feb19-26t

PHILLIP SAAL,
Dealer in Fancy and Staple Groceries. A Specialty of Butter, Tea Coffee, and Fine Family Groceries.
503 Dryades Street, (near St. Andrew st.,) New Orleans, La.
jan1-1y

Crescent Insurance Company.
Incorporated as a Mutual Company in 1849. Re-organized as a Stock Company in 1880.
CASH CAPITAL..... .....$600,000.
Has paid paid nearly TEN MILLIONS for losses since 1849. Annual and Term Policies issued on Desirable Fire Business.
W. B. Lyman, President, Chas. H. Dolsen, Vice President, Chas. E. Rice, Secty
TRUSTEES
Joseph Fowling, W. B. Lyman, S. C. Coulon, Lucien Dalery, R. F. W. Bachman, Chas E Rice, Sam H. Kennedy, U Marinoni, Harry L. Flash, Charles Newman, C. K. David, Joseph Kohn, Geo. W Sentell, Chas. H. Dolsen, Wm. A. Phelps, N D. Wallace, Wm. Garig, Chas. M. Whitney, Alfred Moulton, John Calder, J. J. Reies, Sigmund Katz, A. Rosenfeld, James T. Rodd. W. B. Conger, A H. Steward, Louis Prados, M Gillis, John D. Fiske ☞ See our Agents throughout the South.
oct9 1y

AN ADVERTISING AGENCY.

Newspapers.
Catalogue.
Advertisement.
Our Lists.
Estimates.
Printing Office.
Our System.
Payment.

We receive and keep on file over 12,000 Newspapers published in every State and Province in America. Over 1000 Daily papers alone arrive every morning. Each paper is examined by careful clerks and the insertions entered in record books. Under our system an advertiser is sure to receive the full value for his money.

We publish the "American Newspaper Catalogue," a volume of 900 pages elegantly bound in cloth, and containing a complete list of the publications of every character in the United States and Canada. On one line we give place of publication, name of paper, class or denomination, age and circulation. In it are catalogued 14,000 periodicals. Sent free on receipt of $1.50.

We can secure the prompt insertion of any advertisement in any publication at the lowest attainable prices. We keep constantly invested over $200,000 "in space" in the best lines of newspapers. Our special lists of Papers will be found especially useful in making up lists for pushing any special lines.

We have, for the convenience of advertisers, made up our Religious List containing the names of all the leading denominational papers with prices. Our Agricultural List containing the names of all the prominent agricultural papers with prices. Our Local List of 1,300 County and City Weeklies and Dailies, arranged by States with publishers' prices and the prices at which we can insert advertisements. These Lists are mailed free on application.

We will furnish to any reputable advertiser who will apply, an estimate showing exact cost of any proposed line of advertising, and when desired, will make up lists and write advertisements, provided the amount desired to be expended is named. We have had a wide experience, and can suggest lines of papers best adapted to the wants of an advertiser.

We keep constantly supplied with the newest styles of type best adapted to the display of advertisements. Send us your copy and we will return with estimate a proof from type without extra charge.

Our organization for correctly following an advertisement in the newspapers is perfect, and our patrons can be assured that correct work from every publisher will be exacted.

To any advertiser entitled to credit, or any one who can furnish us proper references, we will extend any reasonable line of credit. Publishers pay us a commission for all the business we send them, and any advertiser can be assured of obtaining through us lower prices than can be obtained from publishers direct. In no instance do we charge advertisers any addition to publishers' rates.

Edwin Alden & Bro.,
N.W. Cor. 5th & Vine Sts., CINCINNATI.
140 Nassau Street, NEW YORK.

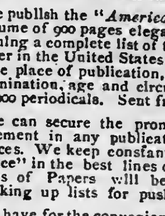
Newspaper Advertising Agents.

GEORGE LANDRY,

Undertaker.
292.....Rampart Street.....292
(Between Hospital and Barracks streets)
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Entrepreneur de Pompes Funebres.
All orders promptly and carefully executed a moderate prices.
sept25-tf A. LABAT, Asst Manager.

J. T. Newman, M. D.,
—PRACTICING—
Surgeon and Physician,
315 Felicity Street,
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
☞ Makes a specialty of treating colored people. jan15-1y

E. W. Scheffel,
GENERAL
Book-Binder,
Ruler and Blank Book Manufacturer.
37 Natchez St., [up-stairs] New Orleans.
Magazines, Music, Periodicals and Old Books re-bound, Plain or Ornamental. jan22



Bibles at 1-2 and Old Testaments at less than 1-3 the prices of the English editions, and equal to the English in type, paper, printing and accuracy. First agent sent out reports an order at every call for two weeks. Rare chance for agents to make money. Send $1.00 for outfit. TERMS VERY LIBERAL.
The Henry Bill Pub. Co., Norwich, Conn.
may14-tf

WANTED LADIES AND GENTLEMEN who wish to make $3 to $4 a day easily at their own homes. Work sent by mail. No canvassing. Address with stamp Crown M'f'g. Co., 294 Vine St., Cin'ti, O.
jy15 4t

20 YEARS OF CONGRESS. JAMES G. BLAINE
1,000,000 Copies will soon be sold. The only history of our Government from 1861 to 1881. Hon. John S. Wise, M. C. from Virginia, says: "Whoever takes it up, no matter whether he be Mr. Blaine's friend or enemy, will never put it down until he has read the whole." $200 per month to good responsible agents. Apply at once, The Henry Bill Publishing Company, Norwich, Conn.
dec30-52t

The Great Church LIGHT.
FRINK'S Patent Reflecters give the Most Powerful, the Softest, Cheapest and the Best Light known for Churches, Stores, Show Windows, Parlors, Banks, Offices, Picture Galleries, Theatres, Depots, etc. New and elegant designs. Send size of room. Get circular and estimate. A liberal discount to churches and the trade.
I. P. FRINK, 551 Pearl St., N. Y.
jy15-3t eow

Glendale Boy's School
A first-class Home School. New term commences Thursday Sept. 17th, 1885. Send for terms and particulars. E. A. HAIGHT, Principal, Kirkwood, Mo.
jy23-8t

"A THING OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER." FOR PRESERVING, RESTORING AND Beautifying the Complexion Use Recorine Stimulus, Tar, Freckles, Pimples, Blackheads, Blotches, &c. OPINIONS OF NOTED LADIES. LOTTA—It is the best preparation for the face that I ever used. Now use no other. CLARA LOUISE KELLOGG—It gives me pleasure to add my name to the list of those who recommend your "Liquid Pearl," and express the satisfaction it afforded me. The LIQUID PEARL has been received by the ladies of all countries with the highest marks of approbation. Only 50 cents a bottle, sold by all druggists. Perfumed. CHAMPLIN & CO., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. eod28-2

AGENTS WANTED for Twenty Years of Congress, 1861—1881, by James G. Blaine.
Hon. J. S. Wise of Va. says: "Whoever takes it up, no matter whether he be Mr. Blaine's friend or enemy, will never put it down until he has read the whole." Agents make from $200 to $1000 per month. Address, The Henry Bill Pub. Co., Norwich, Conn.
apr9-tf

Pianos & Organs
Of all makes direct to customers from headquarters, at wholesale prices. All goods guaranteed. No money asked till instruments are received and fully tested. Write us before purchasing. An investment of 2 cents may save you from $50.00 to $100.00. Address
JESSE FRENCH, Nashville, Tenn.,
Wholesale Distributing Dep't for the South.
feb19-1yr

FEMALE COMPLAINTS
Treated scientifically at home, at very small expense, with absolutely no pain, no caustics, no unnecessary examinations. Permanent cure guaranteed. Book and question blank free. Address with stamp. Dr. C. N. BROCKINGTON, (Mention this paper.) 809 4th Ave., Louisville, Ky.

CATARRH
Causing Loss of Smell, Offensive Breath, Sore Throat, Deafness, Hay Fever, Cough and Consumption, cured in from one to three months, even though bones of nose are affected. No snuffs, washes, douches, inhalers or atomizers used. Book and blank free. Address with stamp. Dr. C. N. BROCKINGTON, [Mention this paper.] 809 4th Ave., Louisville, Ky.
oct2 1yr

It is THE GREAT SOUTHERN REMEDY for the bowels. It is one of the most pleasant and efficacious remedies for all summer complaints. At a season when violent attacks of the bowels are so frequent, some speedy relief should be at hand. The wearied mother, losing sleep in nursing the little one teething, should use this medicine. 50 cts. a bottle. Send 2c. stamp to Walter A. Taylor, Atlanta, Ga., for Riddle Book.

Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein will cure Coughs, Croup and Consumption. Price, 25c. and $1 a bottle.

OPIUM and WHISKY HABITS cured at home without pain. Book of particulars sent Free.
B. M. WOOLLEY, M. D., Atlanta Ga.
apr2-52

PAYSONS INDELIBLE INK.
No preparation and only a common pen needed. Established 50 Years. Superior and popular for decorative work on linen. Received Centennial Medal & Diploma. Sold everywhere.
jan29-26teow

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co. 106 Wall Street, N. Y.

jy23-1y

Sunday-School and Children.

THIRD QUARTER STUDIES IN THE KINGS

B. C. 907. Lesson VI. Aug. 9. The Prophets of Baal. 1 Kings 18, 1-19-29. Commit to memory verses 19-21.

(Prepared by Rev. E. Lyon, pastor of Sixth Street M. E. Church)

HOME READINGS.

M—The prophets of Baal; 1 Kings 18, 19 29.

Tu—The prophets consulted; 1 Kings 22, 1 14

W—Unity in serving; Matt. 6, 19 34.

Th—A choice required; Joshua 24, 14 28.

F—Alone yet mighty; Romans 11, 1-10.

S—Answer to David by fire; 1 Chron. 21, 18 30.

S—The vanity of idols; Psa. 115, 1-18.

QUESTIONS FOR HOME STUDY.

What did Elijah tell Ahab to do?

When they came what did Elijah say to them?

What did he plan to do that the people might see and know the true God?

Who was to have one of the altars?

Who the other?

What then?

Who was to decide it?

After the prophets had made their altar just as Elijah said what did they do?

Were they in earnest?

At noon what did Elijah say?

What did the prophets of Baal do?

Did Baal answer?

Golden Text: If the Lord be God, follow him; but if Baal then follow him; 1 Kings 18, 21.

WORDS WITH LITTLE PEOPLE.

If you were asked to-day how long you were going to be undecided whether you would serve God or Satan what would you answer? It is either God or Satan. It cannot be both. If you have not before say now, this summer day: "O, Son of God, who lov'st even me, I will be thine alone; and all I have and all I am shall henceforth be thine own."

Doctrinal Suggestion—The folly of idolatry.

Winchester has two Methodist Sunday-schools, though because of their being both held at the same hour we could only visit one when there June 28. We enjoyed it.

In the Southwest.

Rev. Edward Wills, founder and pastor of the University street Baptist church, St. Louis, Mo, writes: "I strongly recommend Parker's Tonic to my brother ministers and others. Two bottles completely relieve me in the case of a badly disordered liver, and general debility. It is splendid for nervous prostration.

Marriages.

On July 23, 1885, near Cookville, Tenn., by Rev. J. Braden, Rev. Samuel Knight, of the Tennessee Conference, and Miss Evalina England.

June 20, 1885, in the M. E. Church, Mr. [illegible] Wade to Miss Fannie Williams. [illegible] 1885, at the M. E. Church, Mr. [illegible]mes and Miss Georgia A. Taylor, [illegible] A. D. Payne, Grenada, Miss., officiating.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; It produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

July 16-1y.

Obituary.

Bro. Samuel Robinson died July 10, 1885, at the age of 75 years. He was a member of Pleasant Plains M. E. Church, New Orleans, La., and was a faithful member of the Church for 60 years. He died happy in the Lord. He leaves a loving wife and a host of friends.

W. P. FOREST.

Conference Notices.

Plan of Episcopal Visitation.—1885. Fall Conferences.

[ALPHABETICAL.]

CONFERENCE.	PLACE.	TIME.	BISHOP.
Alabama	Edwardsville, Ala.	Nov 26	Mallalieu
Arizona Miss.	Tucson, Arizona	Sept 17	Fowler
Austin	Denton, Texas	Dec 10	Foster
Black Hills Miss	Rapid City, Dak.	Aug. 20	Ninde
Blue Ridge	Gastonia, N. C.	Oct 1	Mallalieu
Bulgaria Miss.	Rustchuk, Bul.	Oct. 1	——
California	Stockton, Cal.	Sept. 3	Fowler
C'l Alabama	Mobile, Ala.	Dec. 10	Mallalieu
C'l China mis'n	Kiukiang, China	Oct. 14	——
C'l German	Columbus, Ohio	Sept 10	Harris
C'l Illinois	Fairbury, Ill.	Sept 24	Warren
C'l New York	Syracuse, N. Y.	Oct 8	Merrill
C'l Ohio	Fostoria, O.	Sept 17	Harris
C'l Tennessee	Tullahoma, Tenn.	Oct 15	Mallalieu
Chicago Germ'n	Manitowoc, Wis.	Sept 17	Bowman
Cincinnati	Cincinnati, O.	Sept 3	Harris
Colorado	Pueblo Col.	Aug 20	Andrews
Dakota miss'n	Blont. Dak.	Oct 8	Foss
Des Moines	Des Moines, Ia.	Sept 17	Foss
Detroit	Pontiac, Mich.	Sept 10	Warren
East Ohio	Barnesville, O.	Sept 17	Foster
East Tennessee	Knoxville, Tenn.	Oct 22	Hurst
Erie	Sharon, Pa.	Sept 10	Merrill
Foochow	Foochow, China	Nov 19	——
Genesee	Lima, N Y.	Oct 1	Hurst
Georgia	Ellijay, Ga.	Nov 19	Mallalieu
Holston	Johnson City, Tenn	Oct 15	Hurst
Illinois	Rushville, Ill.	Sept 17	Ninde
Indiana	Spencer, Ind.	Aug 27	Harris
Iowa	Mt. Pleasant, Ia.	Sept 10	Ninde
Japan	Tokio, Japan	Aug 20	——
Kentucky	Covington, Ky.	Oct 1	Harris
Michigan	Grand Rapids, Mich.	Sept 17	Warren
Minnesota	Rochester, Minn.	Oct 1	Andrews
Nebraska	Seward, Neb.	Sept 17	Andrews
Nevada mis'n	Bishop's Ck, Nev.	Aug 20	Fowler
N Mexico mis'n	Santa Fe, N. Mex.	Oct 1	Fowler
Spanish	Peralta New Mex.	Sept 24	Fowler
N China mis'n	Peking, China	Sept 24	——
N. Dakota	Wahpeton, Dak.	Sept 17	Walden
N. Nebraska	Ponca, Neb.	Sept 3	Andrews
N. Ohio	Berea Ob'o	Sept 3	Merrill
N-w German	LeSeur, Minn.	Sept 24	Anorewe
N-w Indiana	Valparaiso, Ind.	Sept 3	Foss
N-w Iowa	Storm Lake, Ia.	Sept 24	Foss
N-w Swedish	Dayton, Ia	Sept 3	Bowman
Norw'n a Danish	Cambridge, Wis.	Sept 10	Bowman
Ohio	De aware, Ohio	Sept 24	Foster
Oregon	Roseburg, Oreg.	Aug 27	Walden
Pittsburgh	Allegheny City, Pa.	Sept 17	Merrill
Puget Sound	Tacoma, W. T.	Aug 13	Walden
Rock River	Elgin, Ill.	Oct 8	Fowler
St. Lous Germ't	Louis, Mo.	Sept 10	Foss
Savannah	Savannah, Ga.	Dec 3	Mallalieu
S. E. Indiana	Brookville, Ind.	Sept 24	Harris
S. California	Santa Barbara, Cal	Sept 10	Fowler
S. German	San Antonio, Tex.	Nov 19	Foster
S. Illinois	Edwardsville, Ill.	Sept 24	Ninde
Tennessee	Gallatin, Tenn.	Oct 22	Mallalieu
Texas	Houston, Tex.	Nov 26	Foster
Upper Iowa	Toledo, Ia.	Oct 1	Warren
West German	Claytonia, Neb.	Sept 3	Ninde
W. Neb. mis'n	Kearney, Neb.	Sept 10	Andrews
West Texas	Austin, Tex	Dec 3	Foster
West Virginia	Charleston, W. Va.	Sept 24	Merrill
W. Wisconsin	Dodgeville, Wis.	Sept 24	Bowman
Wisconsin	Wankesha, Wis.	Oct 1	Bowman

By order of the Board of Bishops.

WM. L. HARRIS, Secretary.

St. Louis, Mo,, May 18, 1885.

Okolona District—Mississippi Conference.

Third Round.

Caledonia	Aug.	22-23
Columbus charge	"	22 23
Columbus circuit	"	20
Aberdeen	"	29 30
Athens	"	29 30
West Point	Sept.	1
Aberdeen ct	"	2
Aberdeen mission	"	3
Okolona	"	5- 6
Okolona ct	"	5- 6
Buena Vista	"	7
Union Grove	"	9
West Point ct	"	10
Tupelo	"	12 13
Pontotoc	"	15
New Albany	"	17
Ripley	"	19 20
Corinth	"	26 27
Corioth ct	"	26-27
Booneville	"	28
Houston	"	30
Tampico	Oct.	3- 4
Starkville	"	3- 4
Starkville ct	"	5
Sturges	"	6
Webster	"	8
Smithville	"	10-11

D. A. WILLIAMS, P. E.

Gulf District—Mississippi Conference.

Third Round.

Crystal Springs	Aug.	1- 2
New Hope	"	8- 9
Union Church	"	12-13
Fayette and Fayette circuit	"	15-16
Hamburg and Meadville	"	18-19
Liberty	"	22 23
Spring Chapel	"	27 28
Hattiesburg and Purvis	"	29 30
Pass Christian	Aug. 31, Sept.	1
Vernal	"	5- 6
Pascagoula	"	8- 9
Handsboro and Ocean Springs	"	12-13
Brookhaven and Hazlehurst	"	19-20
Summit and Magnolia	"	26 27
China Grove	Oct.	3- 4
Georgetown	"	10-11

W. McDONALD, P. E.

Notice.

Camp meeting opens on July 26 h and continues until August 14, half a mile north of Hempstead, Texas, at a beautiful place with a well of water which is capable of supplying water to thousands of people. Preachers of all denominations are invited. Come one, come all.

E. JEFFERSON.

LaTeche District—Louisiana Conference.

Third Round.

Hubertville (dedication)	Aug 6-9-Sept	24
Ville Platte	Aug.	20-13
Eola	"	22-23
Cheneyville	"	23-24
Booneville	"	29 30
Bunkie (dedication)	"	27-30
Evergreen	"	27
Birdlong	"	26
Stuart Chapel	"	31
Spring Creek	Sept.	1
LeCompte	"	2
Alexandria	"	4- 6
Pineville	"	5- 6
Avoca	"	7
Waxia	"	9
Opelousas	"	12-13
Washington	"	13-14
Lafayette, dedication,	"	17-20
St. Martinsville	"	20-21
Cade	"	23
Grenoe	"	25-27
Jeanerette	"	27-28
St. Peter	"	29
Sorrell, dedication	Oct.	1- 4

A. E. P. ALBERT, P. E.

Programme

Of the Jackson District, Mississippi Conference:

Introductory sermon, Aug. 20—A Davie.

Methodism, its doctrines and usage—J J Garrett.

Our work in the South—I W Davis.

Temperance, how to promote it—J B Baldwin.

Sunday-schools and how to conduct them—P H Davis.

Holiness and sanctification—L L Shumpert.

What constitutes pastoral success—Henry Henderson.

The benevolent collections—J M Shumpert.

Do benevolent and other societies injure the Church—A McBeth.

How to succeed in revivals—Simpson Jossel.

Evidences of conversion—A Handy.

Baptism, mode and subjects—E Graves.

Freedmen's Aid Society and Rust University—R McAlpin.

Duty of Class leaders—B Stewart.

Stewards and their duty—C Stewart.

The other ministers may select their own subjects, and let all the members, local preachers, exhorters, class leaders and Sunday-school superintendents be present at the opening of the session, on August 20, 1885, at Bolton.

J. M. SHUMPERT, P. E.

Baton Rouge District—Louisiana Conference.

Third Round.

Clinton	Aug	21
Macedonia	"	22
Comite	"	23
Norwood and Sweet Home	"	25-26
Wesley Chapel	"	27
Mt. Carmel	"	29
Jackson	Sept.	1
Plains	"	5
Mt. Pleasant	"	6
Jones Creek	"	9
Stony Point	"	12-13
East Baton Rouge	"	14
Dutch Store	"	15
Plaquemine	"	19
Roseda'e	"	21
Musson	"	23
West Baton Rouge	"	26
Union Chapel	Oct.	1
Bayon Letsworth	"	2
Lake Providence	"	4

S. PRIESTLEY, P. E.

Palestine District.

Fourth Round.

Sabine and Shelby	Aug.	22-23
San Augustine	"	24-25
Jacksonville	"	20 30
Hawkins	Sept.	5- 6
Mineola	"	12-13
Crockett	"	19-20
Madison circuit	"	26.27
Leona	Oct.	3- 4
Hopewell and Shiloh	"	10-11
Cotton Gin	"	17 18
Fairfield	"	24-25
Butler	Oct. 31, Nov.	1
Rocky Mound	"	7 8
Palestine	"	14-15

G. W. SMITH, P. E.

Gulf District Camp Meeting.

Ocean Springs Camp Meeting will open on the 10th and close on the 21st inst., at Ocean Springs, Miss., on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad. Mr. O. M Dunn, Superintendent of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad has promised me to have the two day trains stop at the Camp Ground. The morning train from New Orleans and the evening train from Mobile will be the only trains that will stop.

Bishop W. F. Mallalieu, D.D., Rev. Dr. M. W. Taylor, editor; Rev. A. E. P. Albert, Rev. M. Dale, and Rev. John Qualls are invited to attend our camp meeting. the ministers in charge of the Gulf District, and also any of the ministers of the Mississippi Conference are invited.

N. CANNON, P. C.
W. McDONALD, P. E.
Committee.

Notice.

The district conference for Huntsville District, Central Alabama Conference, will convene in Scottsboro on Thursday before the second Sunday in August. All the members of the conference are cordially invited and urged to be present with their reports and money.

A. S. LAKIN, P. E.

Huntsville, Ala., July 16, 1885.

Notice.

The District Conference will be held September 3rd instead of the 4th. As the 4th is Friday business will begin Thursday; and the opening Sermon Wednesday night, Sept. 2. Brethren, please make this correction at once

W. H. DAVIS, P. E.

San Antonio District Conference.

The District Conference for San Antonio District will meet at Mt. Pleasant, 10 miles south of Seguin, on September 16, at 8 o'clock p. m., and close Sunday night, the 20th. Arrangements will be made to take every member of the district conference from Seguin to Mt. Pleasant free of charge, provided they come to Seguin Wednesday. All others will find transportation at reasonable rates. All persons who attend and are entertained by the committee will be expected to contribute something toward the expense of the entertainment.

PROGRAMME.

What is repentance?—E Jones.

Saving faith—J T Jacobs.

Mode of baptism—E Duncan.

Holiness or perfect love—W Goodwin.

Sketch of a sermon, Matt. 7, 7—S W Harvey.

How to get Sunday-school scholars converted—G W Townsend.

Paragraph 553 of the Discipline—J H Holden.

Preparation for the pulpit—W Reed.

Historical sketch of San Antonio District—J R Carnes.

Importance of our frontier work—J Brawley.

The Third Commandment—R Dukes.

The Fourth Commandment—J T Gibbons.

The Seventh Commandment—A M Mason.

Benefits of the Centennial Conference—M Henson.

Bishop Taylor, his prospects of success—A R Norris.

The local preachers will prepare themselves on subjects of their own selection.

Opening sermon by W Goodwin, Wednesday night. Temperance mass meeting Saturday night; addresses by J R Carnes and J T Gibbons.

Sunday Convention Friday night, addresses by M Henson and G W Townsend. Missionary meeting Saturday night—A M Mason and A R Norris.

Saturday and Sunday mornings at 9 o'clock Model Sunday-school conducted by M Henson.

All the local preachers and exhorters in the district are especially requested to be present as it will be their only chance to have their license renewed this year.

G. W. RICHARDSON, P. E

NOTICE.—Change of Time.

The Annual Camp meeting of the Cleveland charge, that was to have commenced at Lewis' Camp Ground, one mile from Tyner's Station Tenn., on the E. T. V. & G. R. R. on Saturday, before the first Sunday in August, 1885, by request of a goodly number of friends, has been changed from the 1st to the 4th Sunday in August, 1885. I hope all will notice the change and govern themselves accordingly. L. M. MOORES, Pastor.

Bowling Green District Conference.

The first district conference of the Bowling Green District, Lexington conference, will be held at Eddyville, Lyon county, Ky., commencing July 21st and ending Aug. 3, 1885. The conference will open promptly at 10.30 o'clock a. m. The conference sermon will be preached by Rev. D. Buckner. The district Missionary sermon will be preached by Rev. Ezra D Miller. Rev. M W Taylor will be present and represent the interests of the SOUTHWESTERN. Revs. Courtney, White, Lockard and Jones are cordially invited to attend the present session of our district conference. We trust that we shall have a full attendance of the members of the district. Brethren, what have you done on the subscriptions? We hope to hear from you in the district conference touching this important matter.

A. BOOKER, P. E.

Jackson District—Mississippi Conference.

Third Round

Vicksburg ct	Aug	6
Vicksburg	"	8- 9
Mayersville	"	13
Rolling Fork	"	15-16
Bolton	"	22-23
Edwards	"	29 30
Canton	Sept.	1
Reed's Creek	"	3
Jackson	"	5- 6
Jackson circuit	"	5- 6
Canton	"	12 13
Canton circuit	"	12-13
Madison	"	14
Pelahatchie	"	17
Brandon	"	19 20
Trenton	"	22
Lake	"	24
Forrest	"	26 27
Morton, at Silvester	"	29
Hickory	Oct.	3- 4
Causkey	"	3- 4

The first district conference for the Jackson district, Mississippi Conference, M. E. Church will convene in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Bolton, Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, Aug 20, 1885 A large attendance is earnestly requested to be present. J. M. SHUMPERT, P. E.

Morristown District—East Tennessee Conference

Fourth Round.

Knoxville ct	Aug	1- 2
Clinton and Coal Creek ct	"	8- 9
Greenville	"	15-16
Arcadia	"	22-23
Johnson City	"	20-30
Morristown sta	Sept.	5- 6
Tazewell	"	12-13
Warrensburg	"	19-20
Russellville	"	26 27
Knoxville sta	Oct.	3- 4
Newport	"	10-11
Mossy Creek	"	14-15
Dandridge	"	18-19

The district conference will be held at Coal Creek, in Anderson county, Tennessee, commencing on the 5th day of Aug., 1885, and the pastors will please try to bring up all of the assessments for benevolent causes to the district conference.

S. J. HARRIS, P. E.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET.

SOUTHWESTERN OFFICE, June 27, 1885.

LEADING STAPLES.

Readers will remember that the quotations given are for round lots, and higher prices must be paid for small orders.

COTTON, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 8¼; Middling 9 15 16; Good Middling, 10 3-16; Middling fair, 11 7-16.

SUGAR, ℔ lb—Yellow clarified, 5¼@5¾; White clarified, 5¾@5¾; Common 4¼@4¼;

MOLASSES, in bbls, ℔ gallon—Common, 17@22; fair, 23@25, choice, 41@43c.

RICE, Louisiana, ℔ lb—Common, 4¼@4¾ fair, 5@5¾; choice, 5¾@6.

MOSS, ℔ lb—Mixed, 2@2½; gray, 1@2; black, 3@4½.

GROCERIES.

BUTTER, ℔ lb—Western 20@21.

COFFEE, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 7¾; prime, 9¾

CHEESE, ℔ lb—Western factory —@8

CORN MEAL, ℔ bbl—Choice, $3.25.

FLOUR, ℔ bbl.—Fancy, 4.37½; Choice 5.15; Family, $5@——.

LARD, ℔ lb—Choice, 6¾.

SALT, ℔ Sack—Coarse, 70c.; Fine, 90c;.

ESCULENTS—Irish potatoes, ℔ bbl.. $1 00@1 25; sweet potatoes, $2.50@ ℔ bbl. onions, ℔ bbl. $2 25@2.50; apples, ℔ bbl. $3.00@$4.00; cabbages, $2.00@$2.25 per crate; sour krout, $4.50@7 50 per barrel

OILS, ℔ gallon—Coal, in cases, 18@—coal, in bbl. 13@—; linseed, raw, 26; boiled, 63@65; cotton seed, 28@50.

POULTRY AND EGGS.

Louisiana Poultry—Grown chickens 3.00@3.27; young $1,50@$2.00; ducks, $2.00@2.50; geese $4.@$4 50; turkeys $9.@12.

Western Eggs 11@12c per dozen

Louisiana Eggs 12@12½c per dozen.

Feathers—Best live geese feathers 40@55c. ℔ lb. second grades 15@25c.

The Nurse at the Bedside of the Sick

Will find a safeguard and purifier in Darby's Prophylactic Fluid, It will thoroughly purify the air of the sick room and destroy all disease germs arising from the patient, the bed, night chairs, etc. The patient will obtain refreshing relief by being sponged with a small quantity of the Fluid diluted with water. For safety, cleanliness and comfort in the sick room the Fluid is indispensable.

"PERFECTION"

Interior Glass Fount Student Lamp

[Pat. Nov. 22, '81.]

Combining with our Self-Acting Valve and Non-Heating Burner, the one thing needed to make an ABSOLUTELY PERFECT LAMP.

No running over of the oil nor leaking of the fount.

Ask for Perfection Glass Fount STUDENT LAMP.

Manufactured and for sale, at wholesale only, by the Manhattan Brass Co.,

First Ave. and 28th St., N. Y.

Send for Illustrated explanatory Circular.

New Orleans University,

——UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE——

Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

DEPARTMENTS:

COLLEGIATE, PREPARATORY,
BELLES LETTRES, NORMAL,
MODEL, POST-GRADUATE

OPEN SEPTEMBER 16, 1885.

Medical Department Opens October 1, 1885.

Young ladies and gentlemen thinking of attending school should write at once for catalogue and further information.

Address REV. A. F. HOYT,
1428 St. Charles Street, New Orleans, La.
aug6 3m

Central Tennessee College,

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE. Chartered in 1866.

Under the Auspices of the Freedmen's Aid Society of the M. E. Church.

—COURSES OF STUDY—

ENGLISH, NORMAL, BUSINESS, ACADEMIC, COLLEGIATE, THEOLOGICAL, MEDICAL, LAW AND INDUSTRIAL.

Pharmacy and Dentistry to be added soon.

More than twenty teachers connected with all the departments, and over four hundred students enrolled last year. Six buildings, conveniently and pleasantly located. The private rooms of the young men and young women are in different buildings.

Any person of good moral character may be admitted as a student, at any time, but it is better to enter at the beginning of the school year. Theological students are granted reduced rates.

Special attention given to training teachers.

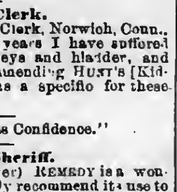
The Session Begins Monday, September 7, 1885.

Medical and Law Departments, October 5, 1885.

EXPENSES—Tuition $1 per month, four weeks. Tuition, board, room, fuel, etc., school month, $8.50 to $10. Tuition for the session in Medical and Law Departments, $30.

For further information, circulars or catalogues, address.

jy 15 REV. J. BRADEN, Nashville, Tenn.



COLUMBIA ATHENÆUM

A School for Young Ladies.

COLUMBIA, TENN. Healthy Location; handsome grounds (20 acres); Capacious buildings, well lighted, heated and ventilated; fine Library, Apparatus and Equipment; 17 teachers; thorough and complete course of instruction. Best advantages in Music, Elocution, Painting, etc. No sectarianism. 34th annual session begins Monday, September 7th, 1885. Prices reasonable. Illustrated Catalogue Free.

jul 30-4t

KENTUCKY MILITARY INSTITUTE.

At Farmdale P. O., Franklin Co., Ky., six miles from Frankfort. Has the most healthful and beautiful location in the State. Lit by gas as well as heated by steam. A full and able College Faculty. Expenses as moderate as any first-class college. Forty-first year begins September 7th. For catalogues, etc., address as above.

COL. R. D. ALLEN, Supt.

jy 23 6t

In England the publication of the Scriptures is still under an ancient restraint. Only the presses of the great universities can print copies of the Bible. Now and then a private firm in England brings out an edition of the Bible by adding a few notes and calling it a commentary.

OFFICIAL.

It en ourages sleep, creates an appetite, braces up the system, and renewed health is the result.

"Every cloud has a silver lining."

HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY cures pain in the Side, Back or Loins, General Debility, Female Diseases, Disturbed Sleep, Loss of Appetite and Bright's Disease.

"Shallow brooks are often noisy."

HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY is purely vegetable, and meets a want never before furnished to the public, and the utmost reliance may be placed in it Disease is soon shaken, by Hunt's Remedy taken.

OFFICIAL TESTIMONY.

Postmaster.

H. S. Whitney, Assistant Postmaster, Putnam, Conn., writes—"I have suffered untold agony with kidney and liver complaint; my water was very bad, at times I actually passed blood. HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY has benefited me more than all other medicines I used."

"Home love is the best love."

Town Clerk.

T. Othniel Geiger, Town Clerk, Norwich, Conn., 80 years old, writes—"For years I have suffered with diseases of the kidneys and bladder, and have no hesitancy in recommending HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY as a specific for these complaints."

"Punctuality begets Confidence."

Deputy Sheriff.

HUNT'S (Kidney and Liver) REMEDY is a wonderful medicine. I cordially recommend its use to those suffering from dropsy or kidney troubles.—Geo. B. Robinson, Deputy Sheriff, Bangor, Me.

"A willing heart lightens work."

Sheriff.

Mr. Isaish Cook sheriff of Skowhegan, Me., writes—"I have been afflicted for over twenty years with a weakness of the kidneys and liver. The first bottle of HUNT'S (Kidney and Liver) REMEDY relieved all pains in the back and sides."

Price $1.25. Send for Illustrated Pamphlet to HUNT'S REMEDY CO., Providence R. I

Sold by all druggists.

C. N. CRITTENTON, Central Agent, New York.

Sedgwick STEEL WIRE Fence

Is the best general purpose wire fence in use. It is a strong net-work without barbs. Don't injure stock. It will turn dogs, pigs, sheep, and poultry, as well as horses and cattle. The best fence for Farms, Gardens, Stock ranges, and Railroads. Very neat, pretty styles for Lawns, Parks, School-lots, and Cemeteries. Covered with rust-proof paint, or made of galvanized wire as preferred. It will last a life-time. It is better than boards or barbed wire in every respect. Give it a fair trial; it will wear itself into favor. The Sedgwick Gates made of wrought Wire pipe and steel wire, defy all competition in lightness, neatness, strength, and durability. We make the best, cheapest, and easiest working all-iron automatic or self-opening gate, and the neatest cheap iron fences now made. The Boss folding poultry coop is a late and useful invention. The best Wire Stretcher, Cutting Pliers, and Post Augers. We also manufacture Russell's excellent Wind Engines for pumping, and Geared Engines for grinding, etc. For prices and particulars ask Hardware Dealers, or address, mentioning paper,

SEDGWICK BROS., Richmond, Ind.

aug6-eowtf

EDUCATIONAL.

COLLEGE OF

Physicans and Surgeons,

BALTIMORE, MD.

This school offers to Medical students unsurpassed clinical and other advantages. Send for catalogue to

Dr. THOS. OPIE, Dean,
jy8.1m 179 N. Howard Street.

Albemarle Female Institute,

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA

Full corps of superior teachers; course of instruction thorough and extensive; location healthful and accessible; scenery beautiful; surroundings most attractive; terms very moderate; order catalogue.

W. P DICKINSON, Principal.

jy15-1m

1855. THE NATIONAL NORMAL. 1885.

UNIVERSITY Entire Expense $2.50 to $3.00 a week. Over 2,500 enrolled.

Over 20 dep'ts maintained. All professors provided for. Legal Diplomas conferred. Over 5,000 Teachers and Bookkeepers trained here have been helped to good situations. Any young Man or Woman can pursue here any study with Less expense of Time & Money than at any other institution in the U. S. Catalogue and full information free. HOLBROOK

Address Pres. ALFRED Lebanon, Warren Co., O.

july8-4teow

Washington and Lee

UNIVERSITY,

LEXINGTON, VA.

Instructions in the usual academic studies and in the professional schools of Law and Engineering. Location healthful; expenses moderate. Session opens Sept. 17. For catalogue, address "Clerk of the Faculty." G. W. C. LEE, jy8-2m President.

Law School

OF

WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY.

Gen. G. W. C. LEE, President.

Instruction by text books and printed lectures, with course of lectures on special subjects by eminent jurists. Tuition and fees $80 for session of nine months, beginning Sept. 17. For catalogue and full information address Chas. A. Graves, Prof. of Law, Lexington, Va. jy8-2m

Glendale Boy's School

A first-class Home School. New term commences Thursday Sept. 17th, 1885. Send for terms and particulars. E. A. HAIGHT, Principal, Kirkwood, Mo.

jy23-8t

Medical Department of the Tulane University

OF LOUISIANA.

Formerly, 1847-1884, University of Louisiana.

Possesses unrivaled advantages for practical instruction, since the law secures it superabundant material from the great Charity Hospital with its 700 beds, 8000 sick admitted and 10 000 visiting patients annually. Students are freely admitted to and are taught at the bedside of the sick, as in no other institution. For Circular or additional information, address

S. E CHAILLE, Dean.

P. O. Drawer 261, New Orleans, La.

jy8-1m

Send for Price List and Circular!

AUTOMATIC

"NO TENSION" SEWING MACHINE.

NOISELESS—LIGHTEST RUNNING.

Most Beautiful and Durable Work, AND DOES NOT INJURE HEALTH.

Willcox & Gibbs S. M. Co., 658 Broadway, N. Y.

nov6-16t eow

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 20---NO 33 NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, AUGUST 13, 1885 WHOLE NUMBER 822

THE SOUTHWESTERN
PUBLISHED BY
THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,
37 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor

Terms: $1.50 per Year, Cash in Advance; after Three Months, $2; to Pastors, $1. Six Months $1; Three Months, 50c.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

All matter not of a business nature must be addressed to the editor.

ADVERTISING RATES:
(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	6 cents,
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	6 "
Six months (26 times)	5 "
One year (52 times)	4 "
Marriage Notices	25 "
Special Notices	8 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

Beyond the world a city stands,
A city here not made with hands,
Where God the Savior reigns;
'Tis built for sinners, bought with blood,
Redeemed and sanctified to God,
And cleansed from all their stains.

The cities of the world must fall,
However solid, they must all
The common ruin share.
But yonder city still appears,
Unchangeable through endless years—
For God himself is there.

It is not necessary for one to be wicked because he is weak.

Copies of the New Zealand Methdist, a sprightly paper, comes, and is cordially welcomed to our office.

"You are making the SOUTHWESTERN the leading Negro paper in America.—R. F. BOYD, Tennessee.

The United States Bureau of Education has placed us under renewed obligations for important documents.

The interior of the North can boast of pure air, pleasant spring water, delicious fruit, and hospitable citizens.

The Methodist Episcopal church at Starkville, Miss., is to be dedicated the fifth Sunday in August, the pastor, Rev. I. L. Pratt, officiating, assisted by this editor.

"Though I am a Baptist, yet there is so much in your paper of common interest that I shall esteem it a great favor if you will send it to me."—JOANA P. MOORE, Plaquemine, La.

We learn from Bro. Lockhart that the school-house in Milford, Texas, where his people had been worshipping, was burned on June 30, and that he is now without a meeting place for his people.

The minutes of the Little Rock Conference have been received through the kindness of the secretary, Prof. Mason. It presents a neat, orderly appearance. More attention is given to the public exercises than usual.

John Roach, America's great shipbuilder has made an assignment. By the suspension of his business 2400 workmen loose employment. It is not a failure which will carry ruin to him or any one else in its track by reason of unpaid liabilities. Mr. Roach owns it his property sells for anything like its value there will be much of it to pay two dollars every one he owes.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Trip to Sparta.

J. BRADEN, D.D.

July 21, a hot morning; real summer. The train is well filled with people leaving for the springs and mountains. The little folks are plenty. They are fleeing for their lives. How our cities slaughter the innocents. We are out of the city, gliding along on the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railroad. Right in front of me sits a colored lady. Nobody is hurt. She is neatly dressed. A little Caucasian lady takes a seat beside her. Nobody faints. All is peace. So mote it be. Sixty nine miles southeast of Nashville, and the train stops at Tullahoma, which is said to be nearly 800 feet higher than Nashville. Many of the passengers stop here to go to the various springs that abound in this vicinity. This is a growing, thriving town. We have a flourishing church and school here, with a good outlook for the future for both. Bro. Park is pastor of the church, and Dr. Pierce in charge of the college. Bro. Maynard's variety store is the place to buy anything from a pin to a threshing machine, cheap. We take the McMinnville branch of the road, and for over thirty miles in a northeast direction, we ride through a country, mostly uncultivated, not heavily timbered, with a grayish white soil, said to be capable of being made productive with good cultivation. Quite a number of northern families settled here just after the war, but owing to various causes did not remain. Others are gradually opening farms here. The climate is good, and well adapted for fruit. There is plenty of room for settlers. We pass McMinnville. Our church was strong there sixteen years ago, and we had a large white membership. The whites have left, and our colored brethren are now in possession of the fine brick building formerly occupied by our white congregation. Immigration gave us our white congregation mostly; emigration took them away. Through a rolling country, much of it under cultivation, and having an air of thrift, we are at Sparta, after another thirty miles ride. This is the county seat of White county. The depot is half a mile from the village, which has, perhaps, about 500 inhabitants, and four or five churches. We have no church now, but Bro. S. Knight, the pastor of our colored work, will soon have a neat frame church built, in a very convenient and beautiful location.

The writer addressed a good congregation of our colored people in the M. E. Church South which had been kindly offered for this purpose, on the subject of their schools, education, and their advancement. The address was complimented with the closest attention, although it was hot, very hot, for the mountains. The brethren secured a place for the writer to stop near the station. Two of the brethren came to see him, and sat on the porch with him conversing on matters of business. The next morning the landlord kindly and politely informed him that he might have the use of a building across the road, as it was probable a good many of the brethren would call and see him during the day, as some of the boarders did not think it quite the thing to have Nig—colored folk—about the front part of the house. We did not repent in sackcloth and ashes for having talked on the porch to a couple of Christian gentlemen, but went off with one of them in a buggy in hunt of a wife. He thought he knew the way to his future mother-in-law's house, and drove on. We were to be there by 11 o'clock; 12 o'clock found us in the woods; 1 o'clock and we are driving up hill and down, on roads that never had the wheels of a livery rig on them before. We pass a school-house, and are as much of a curiosity as Barnum's dead elephant. A little before 2 o'clock we reached the place, and found the bride and a large company not quite in despair. Bro. Knight did not get lost; he only took the wrong road. There was no time for explanations. We were three hours after time, and Rev. Samuel Knight and Miss Evaline England, in that little log cabin, crowded with relatives and neighbors, black and white, are husband and wife. A good dinner, congratulations, good byes, and we are off again to Sparta. Twelve miles to speak to Miss M. Marchblank's school, at 5 o'clock. It is hot; twelve miles in less than two hours. We get within a short distance of the school-house and meet the children and friends. Too late. So much for missing the road. Supper at Bro. Clark's was excellent, and the writer preached in Sparta to a good congregation. Some of our people are buying homes, and some have secured small farms and are doing well. There is no Kansas fever among the colored people, although the front porch is still denied them. A few more farms, more education, a little more money, a few more front porches to their houses, and front door and front porch privileges will be granted American citizens of African descent. Good-bye Sparta, and the pleasant front porch. Six miles toward home a new church for our white work is pointed out. We need a score of them, and a score of men full of the Holy Ghost, hungry to save men for this mountain region of Tennessee. The field is white for the harvest. Back to Tullahoma; an excellent dinner at the hospitable house of Bro. and Sister Maynard, a hearty shake-hands with Bros. J. Carter, presiding elder of the McMinnville district; H. J. Park, pastor of our church, and Dr. Pierce, president of the Tullahoma College, and we drop down the 800 feet to Nashville just as the sun is dipping in a glorious flood of light behind the western hills.

Nashville, July 25, 1885.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Woman's Rights.

MRS. L. C. BRADEN.

As this seems to be one of the unsolved problems of the day it is not amiss to study it. What woman shall do and what she shall know have long perplexed the brains of wise ones. Such questions would not trouble any minds were it not that a want is felt. Woman is not all that she should be. Why?

God created man and woman in His own "image and likeness," so of course they were at the creation perfect in every way. They were in their proper relations to each other—free and equal. Because "it was not good for man to be alone" she was made a helpmeet for him; an associate, one to co operate with him. Does any one think that God made man to do the work of the world, and made woman solely to be his servant? That idea came to man as the result of the fallen nature.

After the fall, God's word to her was, "And he shall rule over thee," which was prophetic of what would be the result of sin. He would oppress her. This was literally fulfilled as they went forth from God, and to day wherever God is not worshiped woman is a slave.

In India, in parts where they have not received the Gospel, woman is kept in seclusion, and has not the privilege of mental improvement, and she becomes the victim of superstition and ignorance, and easily yields to false views of life, which only serve to rivet her chains. When a little girl is born into the family it is considered a misfortune, just because she is a girl, and from her birth to her death she knows nothing but oppression.

What is true of India, is true of other countries where they have not the light of the Gospel. Where woman is degraded, men cannot rise above her level, for she lays the foundation of the home and makes her impress on the children.

In this favored land of ours women may enjoy superior privileges. The Bible may be in every household, and God may be worshiped according to the dictates of every conscience, but still we read of much discord, of crime, and of sin in high places, and terrible suffering from intemperance, etc.

What if woman in the midst of such turbulence? Is she enjoying the right that God has given her? Has she culture and refinement; and has she found out that she is free to teach the ignorant, comfort the mourners, and lift up the downtrodden, and is she happy in the favor of God?

It is fitting that we think of these things, for sin, that has always oppressed woman is in the world still, and it is her right to say whether she shall feel the yoke.

It is thought by some that the ballot in the hands of woman, would be a weapon for her defense, and perhaps it would be, but this is disputed and objections are raised that really seem plausible, yet it does seem as if she, being intelligent and competent, should be allowed to discharge a citizen's duty, and not be ranked with irresponsible persons and criminals.

It has been suggested by those who oppose, that should women vote she would have less time to give thought to the training of her children, and then too she might want to hold office, and that would break up the family altogether, and woman become coarse, unfeminine and a brawler, and what not. Does not the solution of the different problems lie in a higher Christian culture, and a better living, and stronger faith. Without woman lives in accordance to the teaching of the Bible she cannot have her rights under any circumstances. The ballot even would not help her. If woman is truly led by the Holy spirit her work is given her of God, and she is satisfied. Christianity is to make woman strong in her womanly tenderness, and under its influence, she cannot become unfeminine, and unfeeling, no matter what may be her work.

It is the right of woman to rise high in the scale of Christian experience. In God she will find her rights, for near him every yoke is broken, and the oppressed go free.

Nashville, Tenn.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

How to Live.

REV. F. A. SIMS.

We should walk in the path of righteousness, and keep the word of the Lord. We must not think when trouble comes that we can no more serve the Lord. If we trust Him we may abide in Him and He in us. No one can be against us, for He is able to move everything that will harm us. We see it is better to shun temptation in this world. We shall have the victory in the end to come. Then let us have the faith of that good prophet, Joseph. He had the faith when the Jews crucified Christ to go and beg his body and bury it in his own new tomb. So you see, my dear brethren and sisters, if we have faith in the Lord we can do much good. But our faith is so weak that it falls as a blooming flower, when the sun beams upon it. Let us seek the Lord and He will bless us in the end. As members of this association let us make this work successful in the future. If we only had the heart to bear our afflictions as good old Job I venture to say that God would bless us more, and we would feel His love more in the spirit. He is one that will hear and answer our prayers all the time. It is only the faith we need. So, my friends, let us all work and pray. Let us prove to those who know not the Lord that we are His by our works. Wait and march on; by and by the wall will fall. So that when that great day shall come that we may be as Job was when the Lord made him welcome to His kingdom and took him out of misery. Job said to the earth, "My flesh you can have; my soul you shall never reach." If we do not be able to speak as Job let us be so that God can say to us on that day, "Well done thou good and faithful servant," come up higher, I will make you a ruler of many things as you have been a ruler over a few things. Then we shall drink from the fountain of life, that water we shall no more thirst. So you see, my friends, it is the faith we need.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Work and Wait, the Change Will Come.

REV. GEO. W. NORRIS.

The public school of Queen City have had their examination day. I did not attend the examination, but was at the exhibition at night, and if ever I witnessed a Negro minstrel show this was one. I will tell what they did, and you can judge for yourself. They had a guitar and played it when the teacher and children would sing their minstrel songs, and act like monkeys, with some of their faces blackened. Dear friends, it was degrading to our people. There was a good many white people there. At the close they said it was a good show. It was not given in our church, but in the Baptist Church. A member of our church said that his daughter should stop this session; that he did not approve of such exhibitions. However, he heartily indorses the school and the excellent manner in which it has been conducted, and spoke favorably of the wonderful progress the school had made. Such children as those can't get in the Sabbath School. What will become of them. Ignorance seems to overshadow them.

For the Southwestern.

My Duty As a Christian.

REV. W. C. HARDEMAN.

My duty as a Christian consists in a consecration of my whole soul and body to the Lord; to hold the faith and keep a good conscience. Do I attend all the external duties of a Christian such as my church requires? Am I absent from worship only when impossibilities prevent? Am I kind and courteous to all I chance to meet? Do I readily hold out a hand to a fallen brother? Do I carry a cheerful face and good counsel to the despondent? Now, these are some of the external duties of a Christian. Are they done with that spirit which loves the praise of men, or with a heart overflowing with love to God and His work? thereby showing the fruit of the good Spirit. Have I done all these things as unto the Lord? Am I just and upright in all my dealings? Do I accomplish something each day for the Lord? Am I getting nearer the Cross? Do I walk by faith and not by sight? Am I striving to be perfect "even as my Father is perfect, which is in heaven?" If to all these things I can answer in the affirmative, happy am I. To be cognizant of these things I must call down Divine aid in my meditation upon, and a deep spiritual searching into all my thoughts and deeds. The warfare with Satan is an all-sure evidence of the happy reward to come. Satan is an artful and malignant spirit. He is always ready by some device to cheat the soul. When near the Cross he sometimes whispers, "Ye are a better Christian than some other brother or sister." He comes with vanity, vainness, and a multitude of other little sins that gets into the heart, and takes away the essence of Christian duty. My duty as a Christian bids me arise, be engaged, by faithful and humble devotion rise above the conventionalities of the devil by putting on the whole armor of God. Let me recognize the fact that toils and sufferings in the Christian field of duty shall serve to sweeten the breeze that wafts my soul to glory when the work is over. Oh, glorious thought for such a privilege to labor for the Lord.

Bolton, Tex.

The United Presbyterian General Assembly, at Topeka, Kan., in response to a memorial asking that instrumental music in churches of that denomination be declared illegal, has adopted the following: "While making no demand for the removal of instruments already introduced, it is the feeling that the law of charity requires brethren to refrain from grieving the heart and wounding the conscience of any dear brother who feels that the use of an instrumental accompaniment in worship is a corruption of that worship, and that further than this, the prayer of the memorialists be not granted."

A celebrated doctor says that "Hunt's Remedy is a sure cure for heart diseases, and there is no substitute for it."

Letters from the Pastors.

Rev. J. D. Logan writes from Brookhaven, Tex.: "That his church is small, but has a working membership. Their last quarterly conference was a good season, and Elder Webb reasoned out of the Scriptures with effectiveness and power. The collection was $7 25. Three additions, three probationers, one a convert, was admitted.

Rev. E. B. Richards writes from Hubertville, La.: "I found here eighteen names, about twelve of whom were looking up to the Lord. I believe the Lord heard our prayers, and is coming to our help. The cloud is moving, and day is breaking. The Lord is in front of the battle and has given us twenty souls. We have on hand $30 to build with, and are praying for more. By the help of God we want to build a church this year."

Rev. S. B. Danley writes from Martin, Tenn.: "Our third quarterly conference was held May 9 and 10 Elder Price, unable to be present, Elder E. M. Manson was with us. We had a successful time, and the Lord manifested himself to us as He doth not to the world. We said we would have meeting a few nights, and greater and greater was the interest manifested. In the meantime the much loved elder (Price) came by way of St. Louis to meet the Bishop. Such a time has never been seen in Martin. We closed after sixteen nights' labor, with thirty-two converts and twenty-nine additions.

Rev. D. G. Butler writes from St. John parish, La.: "I arrived at this point Feb. 3, 1885, and upon my arrival I found a small church, twenty by thirty feet, and the membership eighteen. I then called upon this little flock to come together, constituting the number above mentioned. We then proceeded in making a covenant in prayer to God for the progress of the church spiritually and temporally; and I must say it resulted in good. Six weeks ago I began a protracted meeting, which up to date has resulted in the conversion of twenty five souls—twenty five souls who are now making themselves active of the M. E. Church, and there are now ten more at the mercy seat waiting for the troubling of the waters. I feel that we have been visited here in the powers of the Holy Ghost, and thank the Lord we are still continuing in this good work. During this grand time we have been visited by our beloved presiding elder, whose presence did us much good. The presiding elder, Emperor William, preached two able and effective sermons. He first held our quarterly conference and preached at 3 o'clock p. m. and 7:30 p. m., which resulted in much good. He will be with us again on July 12, and I anticipate a grand time on his arrival. I have organized a fine Sunday School here, numbering seventy scholars, out of which seven have been converted. I believe in Sunday Schools. There is a power in this Sunday School. We are almost prepared to commence building our parsonage. We have almost money enough in hand to complete our parsonage that we are trying to build. We have here a very small church. It is not large enough to accommodate our people. I don't think we can do anything toward making our church any larger this year. We are struggling to complete our parsonage, which will soon begin. In conclusion I will say the future prospects for a large congregation in this parish are bright. Pray that we may continue in this great religious movement. I omitted to say that the gentlemen and ladies of our parish, who do not as yet belong to the church, have put their shoulders to the wheel, and promise to help us in building our parsonage and making our church larger. I would further conclude by asking the cooperation of your prayers to God behalf of the progress of the church, and that the Lord may bless these gentlemen and ladies who have put their shoulders to the wheel so nobly in helping us.

Rev. R. J. Campbell writes from Belleville, Tex.: "Elder W. B. Pullam held his second quarterly conference on May 30, 1885. The members were all present, and reports were received from local presiding elders, stewards and class leaders. The elder preached an excellent sermon on Sunday, and sacrament was given to seventy eight persons. The elder preached Monday night, and threw open the doors of the church and twenty-nine joined on probation, two converts and one reclaimed. The elder's collection was $6 18. Thank God the church in Belleville circuit is prospering."

Rev. J. F. R. W. Summerhill writes from Springfield, Tennessee: "Our work here has been greatly embarrassed for want of money, though the prospects for the incoming quarter is better. The third quarterly conference for the Mansfield circuit convened at Evergreen church, May 26, Rev. J. P. Price, presiding elder in the chair. Ten members answered to their names. As it is a busy time with farmers they were not all out. We have had more sickness and death this quarter than any previous quarter. I made 156 visits to 46 families. I found 88 adults in these 46 families, and 118 children. About half of these children attend Sunday School."

Rev. E. B. Richards writes from Hubertville, La.: "Our revival is still in progress. Fourteen have been converted to God. The altar is nightly crowded with penitent souls, and the interest continues unabated."

Rev. B. Bolden writes from Cheneyville, La.: "Eight precious souls have professed religion. Many more are at the anxious seat, and the church is spiritually alive. The Sunday School also is reviving."

Rev. A. Luster writes from Jeanerette, La.: "Ever since the Bishop visited us our church here has been ablaze with spiritual power. Our presiding elder, Rev. E. P. Albert, remaining with us a night after the Bishop left us, opened the revival services for us. It has continued to this day with unflagging interest. Seventeen have been converted. Many more are seeking Christ."

Rev. John H. Smith, of Lake Providence, La., writes: "It has been very cold here, and a great deal of rain, snow and hail have fallen, but the Lord has blessed us, however, and we intend to come to the front. Our presiding elder was with us on the 4th and 5th of April, and held our first quarterly meeting. Bro. N. Burton was also with us, and preached at 3 o'clock, and at 7 o'clock administered the Lord's supper to fifty one. We have gained seven souls since the annual conference, and have given the presiding elder $18. The presiding elder gave the Sunday School and the Woman's Home Missionary Society a good talk in regard to self-respect."

Rev. V. M. Cole writes from Millican, Tex.: "The past six months the church has not been doing so well, as a great many members left and went to the African on account of some old things not well to mention in the last year; but after they understood the principal things about the church they all have come back but one, and he will come back if I can get to plant some Methodist seed in his heart—love, peace and joy—and let old things alone that have been done, look to the Lord for future good. Brother, pray that God may give me success.

Rev. J. D. Walden writes from Meridian, Miss.: "Elder J. Campbell held our second quarterly conference, May 30, 1885. He preached us a fine sermon, and we had a time rejoicing. Like Peter it was good to be here. Two hundred and six persons partook of the Lord's supper. Accessions to the church, 35; paid the pastor, $123; paid the elder, $20 50. We are in good condition. I have made this letter short, and I hope you will publish it."

Rev. A. Moore, of Pearl river, La., writes: "We are now in the midst of a great revival. Two weeks' meeting has added to this church fourteen happy souls, and the good work still goes on. Our presiding elder was with us on the 28th and 29th, and his heart was made glad to hear so many witnesses for Christ. In every direction you can hear the cries going up, glory! glory to God. They say there was never such a revival for several years."

Rev. F. D. Bowers, of Darrowville, writes: "Our first quarterly conference was held on the 5th of April. Our presiding elder preached a heart searching sermon from the 16th chapter of St. John, 20th verse: "Ye shall weep and lament, and be sorrowful; your sorrow shall be turned into joy." The reports were found correct. The people are poor, but with their young and very industrious pastor they are doing all they can to cancel all the debts of the church, and with a little help from the church extension, expect in a few days to be free of debt. Pray for our success. We are poor but striving Methodists."

Rev. D. Shelley writes from Fortson Postoffice, La.: "I have been two weeks in my protracted meeting. I will give you an account of my success. I was blessed with twelve converts, four backsliders reclaimed, and twenty-four on probation.

Rev. M. Cooper writes from Heidelberg, Miss.: "On the 21st of May my elder, J. Campbell, was with me and held the quarterly conference. I preached at 3 o'clock in the evening. Collections for the elder, $4 65; for the pastor, $2-40; for editorial, $2"

Rev. A. D. Payne writes from Grenada, Miss.: "A few weeks ago we commenced a protracted meeting which continued nearly three weeks, and during which time the Lord blessed us with fourteen converts and seventeen accessions to the church. When we closed there were quite a number of seekers at the altar. May 30 Rev. J. C. Eckles, the presiding elder, held my second quarterly conference, and on Sunday, May 31, preached at 3 o'clock to a large congregation, and administered the sacrament to ninety-seven persons. His sermon was noble. Pray for us, brethren, that the Lord may greatly magnify his hand upon us."

Rev. Lee Reed writes from Luling, Tex.: "There are on this work 386 full members, enough to do anything they might desire to do, and pay their pastor and presiding elder $9 a year. Last year they paid about one-third of that amount, and thought they were doing splendidly. Our second quarterly conference convened on the 23d and 24th of May. The reports of the leaders showed raised for pastor $51 95, just about half of the quarterly assessment. The pastor's report showed $9 50 raised for benevolent purposes, as follows: For bishops, $2; conference claimants, $1; tracts, $1; Sunday School Union, $1; Bible cause, $1; church extension, $3 50. Also received into full membership since the last quarter, 9; conversion and received on probation, 35. The presiding elder preached for us on Sunday, the 24th of May, about the effects of strong drink, and it made a wonderful impression. At 3 o'clock he preached again on works, comparing the works of the Methodist Episcopal Church with other evangelical denominations. He completely carried us, proving that there had not been done by any denomination in this country or any other the work that the Methodist Episcopal Church had done, according to the time he had occupied the same ground. A night Rev. W. H. Stevens, of Waelder and Peach Creek, preached for us a good sermon, and the elder called the sinners forward for prayer. About twenty came forward, and from this we protracted the meeting. Up to date we have twenty three converted. The good work goes on still. This makes a total of fifty eight conversions this year. Last year I was instrumental in saving one hundred souls, and I want to save one hundred more this year. The local preachers and exhorters deserve credit for the faithful manner in which they have labored with me. Work will be resumed on our new house of worship this week. We want to have it ready for dedication by the 31 of December, so we can have Bishop Foster to preach the dedication sermon."

Rev. Wm. Davis writes from Jackson, La., Magnolia M. E. Church: "I was appointed to this place Feb. 2, and took charge of my church for the first time on the second Sunday in February. I found the people with open hands and hearts to receive me. I was a little dissatisfied at first at my appointment. It looked like the future would be a dull one; but I have made up my mind to stand to my church, let come what may, the Lord being my helper. Since I have done that the clouds have broken away. Our presiding elder was with us on the 28th of February, and held the quarterly conference. The people were delighted with his first visit. Elder Lemay has done good work, and left a good impression in this community. I was not present at the first quarterly conference on account of the illness of my wife; but I have taken hold of the work now with new vigor. We are having a glorious time in Jackson. We have twenty anxious souls at the altar of prayer at this time, and a large congregation every night. We had a basket meeting on the second Sunday in April, notwithstanding the enemies of our church tried to keep the people away. Our collection was $21 45. At night Sister J. C. Jackson and the members of the choir presented me a large pound cake and several other presents which were highly appreciated. These presents were got up by Sisters Amanda Coptol, Carnes, McQuinn and Luciuda Hunter. Sisters Riley, Boyd and Coptol are getting a spring suit for the pastor. I will do this year as I have always done, trust in the Lord and work for my church.

Rev. J. W. Lewis, of Woodlawn, writes: "We are alive. I was appointed to Woodlawn Feb. 4, 1884, by our venerable and beloved Bishop I. W. Wiley, who has gone to his reward. We found the church at a low ebb and a heavy debt hanging over our heads, and the members discouraged, but we seemed to hear the voice of God saying I will be with you. With courage we went forward, trusting God, and before the year ended we had paid over half the debt. The preacher has been well cared for. We have also raised over $150 for the Woman's Home Missionary Society. Now, sir, this is our second year. I was reappointed Feb. 2, 1885, by our dear Bishop, W. F. Mallalieu. No words of mine can do justice to this man. If we look at him as a man, an educator, or a preacher or bishop, we recognize him as standing in lofty eminence. We heard him say, when at conference, that we, as pastors and preachers, ought to begin preaching revival sermons. A few weeks ago we waged war against Satan's camp. The first night we opened six mourners came to the altar, and at the end of the first week four of the six were converted. We gave out prayer meeting for 4 o'clock Sunday, but at 3 o'clock the church was crowded with members, mourners and sinners, and three precious souls cried out, 'I know that my Redeemer lives. Sunday night we gave a second call, and twenty-eight young men and women came forward, crying, 'what must I do to be saved?' We pointed them to the lamb of God, who only could save them, and they believed our words. To day, thank God, we boast of thirty-two precious souls converted. Fifteen probationers have been received, and every department of the church is moving on grandly and apparently pleasantly with us. Yet we do not know whether we have pleased everybody since we have been here. Too much cannot be said of the members of Woodlawn. They are live whole souled Methodists, and workers and what Methodist rules are: The second day in April our beloved presiding elder, E Williams, held our first quarterly conference. The reports were in acceptable order. The words of the presiding elder will not soon be forgotten. The third Sunday we baptized at the altar nine persons. Sunday, May 3, was a day long to be remembered and never to be forgotten. We had a grand baptizing in Bayou Lafourche, which was witnessed by a large crowd. At 11 o'clock our church was unable to hold the people. At night we administered the sacrament to seventy five. On Friday, the 1st, we had a convert's love feast. How our hearts rejoiced while listening to them tell how they left the gates of hell. Our Sunday School has doubled since the conference, and is organized according to the form laid down in the discipline. Under the missionary rule its management and control is committed to a young man of promise, who is superintendent. He has a fine corps of teachers. In conclusion we desire to return thanks to the preachers, both Methodist and Baptist, for assisting us in our protracted effort.

Rev. Willis H. Jackson, of Brenham, Tex., writes "of a visitation of the holy spirit at a recent meeting, bringing two precious souls into the army of Christ and twenty-two probationers. I wish that your editor could have been with us on the 14th at Bro. Reddick's Sunday School picnic in a grove near Brenham, conducted by Superintendent R. Nelson. It gave satisfaction to all present. Dr. Taylor it would have made your heart leap with joy to hear that pretty little May Queen, Sallie Nelson, only eleven years old, repeating her speech of ancient Greece, touching all the way down through several centuries, and taking in Mr. Robert Raikes, the founder of Sunday Schools. Then to see her maid of honor, just quite eight years, rise with a beautiful crown in her hands, saying a crowning speech that astonished all that heard her. Of the singing I need not say anything. Miss Anna Gibbs knows what to do. Every good sort of amusement was indulged in. But, Doctor, here they are spreading the table cloths under those pin oaks, that were nice on every side. We were invited to attend, but were not able to do but one man's part, though that were well done. I thought of the able editor, and what he would say about the sister's nice tables and the dainties that filled them. Dr. T. if you can pass Brenham some time you would make our hearts glad. We Negroes need one thousand Taylors like you."

Rev. Charles Monroe, of Eola, writes: "Our first quarterly meeting was held April 18, 1884. Presiding elder, A. E. P. Albert was with us. Our quarterly love feast was a season of refreshment. On Sunday, at 11 a. m., the elder preached us an excellent sermon which will not soon be forgotten. Fifty six partook of the Lord's supper. Our new church is finished, and our people are highly pleased with it. We are preparing to build at Sunflower. At that point we have no church. We want the Church Extension to donate us one hundred dollars."

Rev. S. Gates, of Columbus, Tex., writes: "My quarterly conference was held April 11. I was unable to be out on account of a severe rising from a decayed tooth. Elder P. M. Carmichael met at the parsonage and gathered the facts relative to the quarterly conference. Everything was ready and passed off nicely. Sunday, at 3 o'clock p. m., Elder Carmichael preached a noble sermon. At 7.30 p. m. Prof. Fortson, of Victoria, preached an able sermon, after which the Lord's supper was administered to a large number of waiting souls. On Monday night the elder gave the love feast. The church was packed to its utmost capacity. The writer was able to take a part in the feast. It was one of the old fashioned Methodist love feasts, which will be remembered here long. Many testified for the Lord, while others wept for joy, and praised God. The members of the church, or a great many told me they had not experienced such a time for many years. Every true Methodist knows the value of these meetings. Here I concluded to have preaching for a few nights. After I started the congregation increased every night. The meeting resulted in twenty-three conversions. During our protracted effort I had twenty six to connect themselves with our church. Rev. P. Gates, of the Columbus circuit, and Rev. M. C Cavenas, of Weimar, and Rev. E Henderson, of Lagrange, rendered valuable services. Our Sunday School is moving on finely, and increasing every Sunday. Nearly all the converts are members of the Sunday School. I am looking for an abundant harvest, and praying and hoping for the same. The people here last year were visited with three overflows, and one this year. A great many who took the SOUTHWESTERN last year say they can't take it before fall on account of their crops being destroyed by water.

Rev. John Qualls writes from Wiman's Chapel, New Orleans, La.: "I received my appointment from our beloved Bishop Mallalieu, and at once went to work. Finding the church in good condition I need not speak of the Rev. T. G. Montgomery. We all know his kind and winning ways among the people. Our protracted meeting lasted three weeks; the result is thirty-one converts and many backsliders reclaimed; eight from other churches joined us. Sacrament was given on the first Sunday in April to 330 persons. Quite a good many were absent on account of sickness. The Sabbath School is coming fast to the front. Even old people have been formed into classes. The preacher and Bro. Y. H. Campbell are moving things on that line. The Sunday School joins the preacher and superintendents in hearty thanks for books forwarded to them from Dr. Gillett, Sunday School agent for the South and West. We pray God may spare him long to do good work for the Master. Last, though not least, that blessed man of God, Rev. L. P. Cushman, who knows nothing but hard, earnest labor, and toils for the upbuilding of the Messiah's kingdom, held his first quarterly conference with us March 10, 1885, and had a good time. On Sunday he preached a sermon which at once won the hearts of the congregation and stirred them up to deeper works of grace. The preacher and trustees are in sympathy as to the repairing of the church. Brethren, we desire your prayers that the work may prosper, and the glory of God be revealed to men

"Over and Over Again."

Repetition is sometimes the only way to impress a truth upon the mind. Accordingly take notice that Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets," (the original Little Liver Pills) continue to be wonderfully effective in cases of sick and nervous headache, constipation, indigestion rush of blood to the head, cold extremities, and all ailments arising from obstruction of the bodily functions. Their action is thorough yet gentle, and the ingredients being entirely vegetable, they can be taken with impunity into the most delicate stomach. All druggists.

From the Districts.

A. Booker, Bowling Green District, Lexington Conference: "We baptized young Bro. Hickman on the 13th instant, at Litchfield, Ky., young Bro. Bowren at Hardinburg, Ky., and young Bro. Miller, at Hawsville, will be baptized at our next quarterly meeting."

Central Alabama Conference, Ashville District, O. Nelson, presiding elder: "The district has the lead. We have in less than two years time organized in this district the M. E. Church in four enterprising towns where it has not been before. At Talladega we have captured all the town, and the A. M. E Zion Church have come home to the old M. E. Church and say they have just got in the right place after a long stay from home. We have Rev. F. Johnson as pastor at Talladega, who is doing good work at that place. He is much loved by all, and is prononnced a good preacher. May he live to do much in the world for the Master's cause. He has taken Talladega and turned it from Zion to the home of all Methodists. Rev. A. N. Jackson, of Gadsden, has also turned things aronnd, and has taken the town for Christ and His kingdom. Bro. Jackson is a good preacher also. I assigned to each preacher what he must do in order to help raise a million dollars. Do not let the slackness be on your part—those of the Ashville District. Each man must strive to accumulate the amount opposite his respective place of duty. The amount that we must raise, dear brothers, has been told at each quarterly meeting. Therefore be up and doing.

Ashville, $4; Ashland, $3 75; Birmingham, $4 50; Blonnt Springs, $2 75; Bluntsville, $3; Centre, $3 30; Collinsville, $3 75; Enon, $4 50; Gadsden, $3 50; Howell's Cross Road, $4 20; Talladega, $4; Wedowee, $3; Village Springs, $3 75.

Letters From the Laity.

Rev. I. N. Williams writes from Thibedaux, La.: "We are having a good time here. Our church is greatly revived."

Isabella Howells writes from Montgomery, Tex.: "The Navasota district, Plantersville circuit, has the reputation of being a very good one. Whether that is true or not I cannot say. One thing I can assure your readers the old revival fire is burning brightly in Bethlehem Church. Three weeks of singing, praying, and preaching have been going on vigorously and with good effect. Sinners have been convicted, converted and baptized in the name of the Holy Trinity, and we doubt not many will be the crowns of the preacher in charge and working members. By a unanimous vote yesterday afternoon the meeting is to be continued another week, and at night God honored the faith of his children by sending near forty to the mourners' bench. So you see, dear editor, the "arm of the Lord is not shortened." "Paul planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase." May He give the church grace to use her privileges right, and nurse well the souls given to her care and keeping. Such is the polity of our grand old Methodism that the New Testament arrangement is carried out in our churches to-day. One sows and another reaps. The Woman's Home Missionary Society was well represented. Quite a number of names were taken for membership, and a deal of interest was excited in mission work. May God bless the pastor and his flock, save the seekers, and awaken many, many more for Christ's sake.

G. Morrow, St. Paul's Church, Manor circuit, Tex., writes: "Surely God is pleased with Children's Day service. Sunday, June 14, I met my Sunday School and congregation, using the programme prepared by D. P. Kidder. After going through the morning service, and having a few speeches from the different scholars, Rev. G. Norman gave an educational address, showing the importance of a Christian education. He then opened the doors of the church, and there were four infants and one adult presented for baptism. After baptism we adjourned for dinner. The parents of the children had everything nice to eat, and plenty to carry home. It seems to me that God witnessed everything that was done If Children's Day is continued it will be of great benefit to them, and we will take this portion of the field for Christ. Our collection was $5 60. If our crops were not threatened with ruin our collection, I believe, would have been better. I want our church to know that we are not dead. Rev. M Parker is our own pastor at present.

Reminiscences of Gen. Grant,

By Rev. J. P. Newman, D. D.

APPROACHING THE END.

Shortly after midnight, just before the general died, Dr. Newman walked from the porch into the room. He was followed by Mrs. Grant and all the family, walking on tip toe so as not to disturb the general, who seemed to be sleeping. Walking up to the bedside, Dr. Newman reached out his hand and placed it upon the general's head, It was cold, and the dew of death was on his brow. The general slowly opened his eyes and looked in the doctor's face. At the foot and the side of the bed stood the family anxiously watching for any signs of recognition. There was none. The general closed his eyes and turned his face in the direction where Mrs. Grant was standing. Then Dr. Newman bowed his tall form and fell upon his knees close by the old warrior's side. All the family then knelt aronnd the bed, and the voice of prayer uttered by Dr. Newman broke the solemn stillness of the midnight hour, and was wafted heavenward through the rustling music of the pine-trees. The burden of the petition was that the ending of the journey of the sick man over the river Jordan might be as peaceful as the beginning, and that God would strengthen the family to bear its irreparable loss with a portion of the fortitude shown in the life history of the dying man. Subdued sobs were heard when the prayer was ended, but the general remained with closed eyes, as if he did not know what was going on.

When the end came, Dr. Newman was at the hotel eating his breakfast. As soon as he was informed of the fact, he hastily returned to the cottage. After her first passionate outburst of grief by the bedside was over, Dr. Newman took Mrs. Grant gently by the arm and led her to the sofa. Nellie joined her there and consoled her with words of comfort, and all the children gathered around her with their faces buried in their handkerchiefs. Drs Douglas, Sands, and Shrady then withdrew from the room, and Dr. Newman led Mrs. Grant out of the room into one adjoining and the children followed soon after. Dr. Newman rushed to the telegraph office and sent a dispatch to his wife at Round Lake. His face was flushed with emotion, as he said: "The prayer that the general might die peacefully has been answered, for such a quiet death I never saw before."

The body of the deceased general was not greatly emaciated. During the last weeks of his illness the general had not assimilated his food, and his body was but little nourished by the food that had been given to him, although it was of a most nutritious character.

Dr Newman says, in speaking about the obsequies, that according to the general's expressed desire he will be buried according to the Methodist ritual, and that the exercises will be brief and simple. This request was made by the general sometime previous to his death, and it will be carried out to the strict letter.

HIS RELIGIOUS HABITS.

Dr. J. P. Newman says: "He was brought up in the Methodist Episcopal Church. His father's house was the home of Methodist preachers for over 40 years. The general's earliest recollections were associated with the clergy. He had to care for their horses. He remembered that the horses were good ones, and that their owners always insisted on their having plenty of oats, Many a time he was sent out by his father to take off the saddlebags and put up the horses. Once a preacher was to move from the neighborhood in which the Grants lived. He was to take his family and furniture in a wagon for 20 miles, and wanted some one to drive for him. Apply ing to the general's father for a driver, the old gentleman detailed Ulysses, then a lad, for that work. Afterward the preacher reported to the boy's father that never in his life had he such a good and silent driver. The general's father was a farmer at that time. In later years he lived in Covington, Ky He was a churchgoer always, serving in the Methodist Church as trustee, steward, and class leader. Wherever he went he was a ruling spirit in Church affairs. He was a man of sterling character, strong will, high purposes, and at times arbitrary. His mother was modest, intelligent, and sunny in spirit. The general inherited her nature. All of his sisters were devout Methodists. One of them, Mrs. Cramer, married a Methodist preacher, late minister of the government at Berne, Switzerland. The general was thus indoctrinated in the faith of the Church. He held to those great principles of Christianity all his life. Accepting the Bible as the Word of God to man, he regarded Christianity as divine. But his mind tended to the sunny side of Christianity. The beneficent results of the Gospel promised to him the glory of the Messiah, the universal triumph of Christianity.

"I became his pastor in 1869 I have been his guest many times, and at all times, in the White House at Washington or at his cottage in Long Branch, he always had family prayer, in which he usually requested me to lead. I have been with him in private and in public, and with all classes of people, yet I have never heard him utter a profane word or indulge in an improper story, nor have I ever seen him smile approvingly at an immodest story which some person present happened to have the audacity to relate. He was altogether the purest man in conversation of whom I ever had knowledge. During my pastorate of six years in Washington, which included the greater part of his presidency, he was a regular attendant at church. Storm of no kind ever kept him away. He was the most attentive and appreciative listener I ever had.

"Recurring to his love of family prayer, I recall a visit to his Long Branch cottage; where daily he had prayer after breakfast. One morning an English gentleman called while we were at the table. He remained so long that there was no opportunity that day for morning devotions. The next morning the President brought the old family Bible into the breakfast-room with him. Handing it over to me, he said: 'Doctor, we were cheated out of our prayer yesterday, but to make sure that it shall not happen again, we will have devotions after this before breakfast.'

"Once I asked him, I remember, what he considered his most providential experience. Without hesitation he said: My resignation from the army in 1854. I was then a captain. If I had staid in the army I would have still been a captain on frontier duty at the outbreak of the war and would have been deprived of the right to offer my services voluntarily to the country. That opportunity shaped my future.'

"In connection with the sick room I have spoken of the prayerful spirit that pervaded it. I might add that the general never allowed suggestions for the relief of his infirmities to interfere with his reverence for the Sabbath. On Saturday night lately, when he was nervous and weary and very restless, his son, the colonel, hoping to divert his mind, suggested some amusement. The general brightened at the idea of diversion, but presently, with a grave face, he inquired the hour. It was nearly midnight. Never mind,' the general said, with perfect resignation; 'it is too close to the Sabbath to commence any diversion.—From the Western Christian Advocate.

PHILANTHROPY.

Special to the Commercial Gazette.

Mt. McGregor, N. Y. July 28.—Dr. Newman talked at some length to-day, as to his first acquaintance with General Grant. "The first time I ever saw General Grant," said he, "was on the Sunday immediately after his election to the Presidency in the fall of 1868 I had been South since 1864, having been intrusted with the duty of reorganizing our Church in the States of Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi. In the fall of 1868 I went to Philadelphia to attend a church meeting, and while there was invited to preach in the Metropolitan Church in Washington. I accepted. Among the congregation I noticed General Grant, who was a member of the church. In the pew with him sat his brother-in-law Colonel Dent. My text was from the sixteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of the Book of John, 'I have conquered the world." I heard after the services that Colonel Dent asked the General, as they went out of the church, how he liked the sermon, and that the General spoke highly of it. The next day I received an invitation to call on him that evening at his house in I street, the house in which General Sherman lived afterwards, and in which Mayor Emory lives now.

"I went there accompanied by Rev. Mr. Brown, an old Methodist minister, who was a clerk in one of the departments then, and of whom General Grant was very fond. Mr. Brown went with me to introduce me to the General. We were shown into the library, and the General soon joined us, excusing Mrs. Grant, as she was receiving a call from some neighbors. General Grant at once commenced questioning me as to the political, social and ecclesiatical condition of the South. It was just after Johnson had stripped the South of troops with all that that implies. The General's questions were short and terse and wonderfully incisive. It was astonishing how clearly these short quiet queries cut to the very core of the subject.

"Well,' said he, after we had talked about an hour, what is it that you want down there?"

"We want protection to life and property, and to free political speech and action.'

"You shall have it,' he said firmly. 'You shall have it."

"His manner was grave and quiet as it habitually was, and he was very thoughtful and earnest. I went South again after that and remained until the spring of 1869, when I was notified that I had been chosen Chaplain of the Senate. When I reached Washington I was chosen pastor of the Metropolitan M. E. Church, of which General Grant was Chairman of the Board of Trustees, We recognized the church on Easter Sunday of that year and General Grant, Chief Justice Chase and a number of the most prominent men of the Nation were present at the reorganization. General Grant always took a great interest in church matters. He was the most regular attendant by all odds that we had in the congregation. He could always be counted, especially if it was a disagreeable, stormy Sunday. He very often sent me checks for considerable sums to be distributed among the poor, and he always accompanied these contributions with a note saying, 'Say nothing whatever about this.' I used to make him tabulated statements of the way the money had been applied, and he took great interest in seeing where he had been the means of doing good."

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

WILL CURE

HEADACHE
INDIGESTION
BILIOUSNESS
DYSPEPSIA
NERVOUS PROSTRATION MALARIA
CHILLS AND FEVERS
TIRED FEELING
GENERAL DEBILITY
PAIN IN THE BACK & SIDES
IMPURE BLOOD
CONSTIPATION
FEMALE INFIRMITIES
RHEUMATISM
NEURALGIA
KIDNEY AND LIVER TROUBLES

FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS

The Genuine has Trade Mark and crossed Red Lines on wrapper.

TAKE NO OTHER.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministery. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches.
History of the U. S.—Eldpath	$3 00
Scripture History.—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net	60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) Net	5
History of Methodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.)	3 00
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Edition of 1884
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol. I) sett	5 00
Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs	2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scripture (chapters I XXX—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol I) sett	7 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill, Net	1 00
Written Sermons.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
Christian Purity—Foster	1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harrie	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introdnction to the Holy Scriptures. (chapters XXI-LII)—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology.—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
Lessons in Logic,—Stevens. Net	60
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism (Abridged). Stevens	3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory	85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church Vol. II.—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introdnction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII.—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope. Vol. III.	7 50
Atonement in Christ.—Miley	1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn	2 50
Intellectual Science—Porter	3 00
Homiletics.—Kidder	1 50
Written Sermon.
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst	3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters XIX-XLIV. Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Theological Institutes. Part II.—Watson	6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written Exegesis.
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St. Paul.—onybeare and Howson (Abridged Edition)	1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry
History of Rationalism—Hurst	3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst	$ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884)
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.—Walker	1 25
To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St. Paul.—Fletcher	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill	1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst	50
Ancient History.—Thalheimer
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	3 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged Edition).—Stevens	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible. Sacraments
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield	2 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill	1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven	90
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 00
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol I.) Introdnction to the Gospel Records.—Nast.	1 25
Era of the Protestant Revolution.—Seebohn.	75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII.—Wakefield	2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.)	45
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II. Books to Antinomianism.—Fletcher	5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher	2 00
Protestant Foreign Missions — Christlieb	1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,

PHILLIPS & HUNT.
37 Natchez St, New Orleans.

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hin Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Pictures Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1885 at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Express for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful picture

Our Little Men and Women

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY,

An Eight page Weekly, for Boys and Girls

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week days Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, AUG. 13, 1885.

Wide Awake for June is good enough to cheer the heart and brighten the eye of any boy or girl.

The Watchman is very interesting and thoroughly denominational, after the Baptist way. It is always thoroughly Christian in charity and faith.

You are making a very hand some and readable paper. We enjoy its weekly visits very much. I hope the day is not far distant when a copy will be found in every Methodist family in this South land."—J. S. HILL, Tennessee.

The church militant is the pillar and the ground of the truth. The usefulness of this pillar is greatly reduced, because it is broken into so many denominational fragments. "But when that which is perfect is come, that which is imperfect shall be done away."

Another and a very well known minister writes: "Had I time I would join you in your battle against continuous and progressive amalgamation. But go on, you are more than a match for all I have seen or heard said on the other side."—L. O. W.

Prof. J. S. Hill, of Morristown Seminary, Tennessee, has been faithfully at work there, and is compensated for his efforts by the conversion of 250 of his students in the past four years. Some one is converted there every week. Parents who want their children religiously educated should remember this.

We hear considerable about our white work in Mississippi of late. We have no distinctively white work in that State. The Mississippi colored conference has four or five white pastors serving under a white presiding elder, along with ten or twelve colored pastors on the Holly Springs district. And all of these constitute our mixed, not white work, in Mississippi.

You can decide whether a school is giving satisfaction to the colored people when there is a chance for competition by the number of pupils who attend it, in comparison with those who attend other similar schools in the same vicinity. The estimate in which the President is held will usually be the measure of power and influence for usefulness attained by any school among the Negroes.

We Don't Advertise Them.

Men who are well known as unprincipled, immoral, political bummers, who have been several times arrested for disgraceful conduct, and who are supposed to have several wives in several States, are not the sort of men in demand as either leaders or pastors of the Negroes. Such a man could not be pastor of a Methodist Episcopal Church. We may not be able to present more talent and wealth than others, but it is our privilege to excel all in virtue.

If such men as we have characterized above are acceptable to any church as ministers, or in any community or congregation as pastors, let it be so. Such may by imposing upon ignorance or credulity, assume places, professions and functions which belong to men of honor. But we are not called upon to advertise their brazen impudence in the SOUTHWESTERN, and our friends might as well spare themselves the trouble of writing us glowing accounts of the exploits of such persons. We know them; and we know that the only thing they are really sincere in is the desire to conceal their true character.

The Negroes need protection from the ecclesiastical machinery by which these lepers are hurled from one locality to another, and permitted thus to scatter the virulent poison of their protracted debauch among innocent people.

Let Them Lap and More of It.

There are now one hundred and three annual conferences of the ministers of the Methodist Episcopal church in the year. Of these the Delaware, Washington, Lexington, Tennessee, East Tennessee, Central Alabama, Savaunah, South Carolina, North Carolina, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, West Texas, Little Rock and Liberia are chiefly composed of colored members. The Ohio and Indiana districts of the Lexington, the Philadelphia district of the Delaware, and the Wheeling district of the Washington Conference have congregations in the States of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, and the question has been asked, Why should these conferences leap over into those States where there are well organized white conferences, and by lapping districts already formed enhance the cost by increasing the number of presiding elders?

We might answer these questions by replying that the same necessity exists for these districts that there does for those in the States of Kansas and Missouri where we have no colored conference, and yet have colored presiding elders and districts exclusively of colored members for them to travel.

While there is a necessity for colored congregations and colored ministers there will be a necessity for such sub Episcopal oversight as can effectually and naturally supervise every detail of their interests. The experiment has proven that colored pastors and presiding elders succeed better with colored churches than white ones can.

The knowledge of this fact induced Mr. Asbury to take Harry Hosier along with him to preach to the black people, and to recommend Richard Allen for the Negro pastorate in Philadelphia.

It is not inconsistent with the very essence of organic union to have these white and colored churches interlacing, and these districts overlapping, or these white and black pastors working along side of each other.

What is needed is that they shall be friendly and helpful to each other. Let their be such cordial recognition given by each to the other in every case as will effectually establish the connectional unity, and so far as any local wants are concerned they will be met in consequence of this.

And to this extent neighbor churches, whether of the same or different denominations, may harmoniously co-operate with each other also; but there are other points at which those of the Methodist Episcopal church will touch each other. They will concentrate their strength spiritual and temporal for connectional enterprises. The poor will share the wealth of the rich, and the formal, the spiritual unction of the devout through their contributions to the funds and the government of the same ecclesiastical organization. The high moral position of our church is a perpetual inspiration to all parts and classes of its members to grow in that direction. Its powerful social position and influence is a constant covering to its members in those sections where other influences less potential for good would prevail but for its presence. Its vast wealth, and the unparalleled liberality of its wealthy members insures all its members the means of securing correct theological and moral instruction, the like of which could not in any comparative degree be secured to them of the colored race without this or some similar connection with the white people. So this connectional unity must go on, and so must this overlapping of districts, this increasing and greatly multiplying of congregations, black and white, and this sending out of pastors suited to the service which they designed to render in all the States more than ever. The more of them we have the better. Only we need ministers and presiding elders thoroughly prepared by and in the Methodist way to do the work.

Rescue the Perishing.

This morning, stepping into the rear of our church in Flemingsburg, Ky., we saw a young robin sitting on some old lumber. Just opposite, under the edge of an old house, sat an anxious looking cat. On the fence, near the young bird, sat its mother, and the father was flying about in an agitated and nervous manner all the while. We asked a young man to help us catch the bird, which he did, placing it on the top of a small house in the yard. Oh, what a fluttering, flying, and crying the old bird kept up while this was being done. They did not understand that we were endeavoring to save their loved one. Hence, their disposition to fight us was not only excusable but commendable. After a little while they came to the young one and led it away. We watched them as far as we could see, and every movement evinced happiness in all, because the little one was safe. The cat was not happy, but we had done the greatest good to the greatest number, and we were happy. Had we done a like service in saving one of the old cat's kittens, she, like the birds, would have been very happy. So should we be ever on the alert to rescue the perishing of our fellow men. Sometimes they may, through ignorance of our motives, misunderstand and withstand us; but we must persist, knowing that we not only mean good, but the result of our success will be good for all concerned. Every effort to do evil should be firmly met and defeated by counter efforts to overcome evil with good. Evildoers, if placed, instead of their victims, would gladly receive such relief as we rendered the bird. The cat wanted a victim, and the bird life. We aided the victim and saved a life. Finally, the joy of beholding a fellow-creature, saved through our exertions and love, will at last prove no less a blessing to the Savior than the saved; therefore let us be ever on the outlook for lost, ruined, and perishing ones that we may find, succor and rescue them.

Is the President a Lunatic?

President Cleveland is not aware of having tendered "Rev." George W. Bryant the mission to Liberia. Where does the Negro editor of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette get his authority for announcing the tender of that position to, and its declination by Mr. Bryant? There is nothing of it. Bryant is a Republican, and Cleveland is a Democrat. The President should look around for some respectable colored man, who is, and was a Democrat before the last national election, and send him as minister to Africa. And that is about what Mr. Cleveland intends to do.

Peter H. Clark has all the needful qualities, and it seems, in all probability, will be sent there. Mr. Bryant has never been thought of where appointments are made. He is a doctor and a preacher, and these are burdens enough for one man.

North Carolina Notes.

A traveler makes the following complimentary observations in North Carolina. They are pleasant and our readers in that section will doubtless read them with interest and pleasure. We hope what little discrimination there is will speedily pass away and manhood be the seal of manly recognition: In two-thirds of the State slavery was little more than nominal. Nothing I have heard here surprised me more than the relations of intelligent colored men on their before the war experience. Half of them say they were as free then as now. About Fayetteville especially, they say, slavery was the mildest possible form of personal guardianship. There and around Newbern colored men acquired some education, bought their freedom, transacted business, and even owned slaves. In Guilford County and adjacent sections, where the Quakers were numerous, Negro slavery gradually assumed a type like the relation of guardian and ward. In these places, if anywhere, slavery did in fact take on the character once falsely claimed for it everywhere that of a "patriarchal institution."

These facts and many others I have from Rev. R S. Rives. (In the Carolinas they pronounce it Reaves,) the eloquent well informed minister, of Zion's A. M. E. Church in this city. At his residence I met an aged elder of the colored Methodists, who told me of the time in his early life, when colored men voted in this State. I was astonished and incredulous till he produced the proof that in the first third of this century free colored men had the right to vote in North Carolina; that abolition meetings could once be held more safely than temperance meetings, while a resolution for gradual emancipation lacked but a few votes of passing the general assembly! And yet I have heard it said a thousand times that colored men never voted before 1867, and could myself have sworn to it for truth. Just see how easy it is to be ignorant. It dosen't cost a cent of cash money.

The minister and his elders were enthusiastic in praise of the white people of North Carolina. "We do not," said he, "object to what they do, but only to what they say. You may take one of these men on the street who is cursing the 'niggers' till you'd think he was a blood drinker, and go to him in work or business and, and no man could be fairer to a colored man. We don't have a bit of trouble at elections or any where else. We love the white folks of North Carolina, and you can see with your own eyes that they love us, for they never hire a white servant as long as they can get a colored one. They insist that we must not emigrate from the State, and their best and smartest men are the fathers of a good many little octoroons, which, of course they wouldn't be unless they loved us!"

I must add to this the universal testimony of the whites that the colored people of this section have made astonishing progress since the war in property, morals and intelligence. Certainly not more than one-tenth of those in this vicinity are pure blacks, and probably much less. Mr. Rives' church will seat 1,100 persons, and when it is full there are certainly not a hundred really black ones in the congregation. In Charlotte, and near this vicinity, are a little over 5,000 of whom, 1,600 are professing Christians, embodied in the following churches: One Episcopal, one Presbyterian, two Baptist, and four Methodist, the latter including two-thirds of all. Mr. Rive's particular church has 800 communicants. In the schools there is nominally no distinction between white and colored, but practically there is a good deal, especially in sections where colored children are too much scattered to command a separate school. Nevertheless, at this time there is a larger percentage of the colored children of the State in public schools than of the white. The whites say this is because so many of their race attend private schools. In this city are eight colored teachers, averaging some seventy pupils each, I should judge, as their schools seem to be very full.

From the New Orleans Christian Advocate. A State Prohibition Convention for Louisiana will be held in Shreveport, August 19. We hope the convention will be largely attended. Let every parish send a representative and set forth such a declaration of principles as will unite all friends of reform for a glorious victory. The North Louisiana parishes are awake and one after another will take their stand in the prohibition column. More than everything else this great State needs relief from the curse of the liquor traffic. We invoke the earnest, zealous co-operation of the preachers of all churches, creeds and colors, in emancipating this commonwealth from the thraldom of the saloon.

Personal.

—Rev. L. M. Hagood, of Cincinnati, has written a manual of the discipline in catechical form.

—Henry A. Ahrens, son of Dr. J. B. A. Ahrens, of the M. E. Church South, has been licensed to preach.

—B. J. Griffin, Esq., conveyed the remains of his brother Rev. I. B. Griffin to Abbeville where they are to repose.

—Rev. H. W. White owns a thoroughbred mare, and two year old sorrel colt which he declines to sell for $1.300.

—Mrs. Carrie, wife of Rev. W. H. Vaughn, of Versailles, Ky., is growing firm in health and enjoys her new ressdence exceedingly well.

—Rev. R. J. Cook, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Knoxville Tennessee, has the reputation of being a very effective speaker.

—Rev. Jesse Price, of the Tennessee conference, has a sick family. He is closing up his fourth year as presiding elder very prosperously.

—Prof. Chinn, of Lexington, Ky., will write a book into which he will put the results of 12 years reading in science and of 6 years in the history of our late war.

—Rev. W. H Lawrence, of Sulphur and Patten Creek Charge, Kentucky, proposes to build a new church and pay off all debts on the old church this year.

—Rev. J. Allen Ross has been changed from Warsaw to Frankfort, Ky., where he is making earnest efforts to remove difficulties and build a church —The writer of wanting a colored professor for the New Orleans University failed to sign his name and hence the article cannot be published in the SOUTHWESTERN.

—Bishop. H. W. Warren, and Mrs. Dr. R. S. Rust, are highly appreciated in East Tennessee. The Morristown Seminary has literary societies named in honor of each of them.

—Mrs. Mary, wife of Rev. Matthew Johnson, of the Lexington Conference, has just made her debut as a public lecturer and her first effort was well received.

—General. C. B Fisk is, and has been for some time quite ill, and unable to be about; he is an esteemed friend of SOUTHWESTERN, after whom our best wishes and prayers constantly go out.

—After 65 days of almost continuous traveling, on the Shreveport district of which he is the presiding Elder, Rev. P. Landry has returned to his home at Donaldsonville, La., in good health.

—Mrs. Marcelite, born Landry, wife of Prof. I. M. Terrell of Fort Worth, Texas, with Wendell, age 17 months is making her first visit to her father's home. She left it two years since to begin the foundation of a home of her own.

—Dr. L. B. Caldwell, of Athens, Tennessee, is regarded as a fine lecturer. He delivered recently a lecture in Knoxville on "Soul Food," which it is said was "intensely interesting from beginning to end."

—Rev. S. G. Turner, of Lagrange Ky., in addition to his pastoral duties, attends several acres of corn and potatoes, which he says he intends to raise to aid the people. His elder informs us that Brother Turner's is now the leading charge on his district.

—Rev. S. H. Nevils, of Hazlehurst, and Rev. J. M. Shumpert, of Jackson district, Miss., Methodist Episcopal, and Rev. Mr. Moore, of Jackson, Miss., African Methodist Episcopal Church, were railway passengers with this Editor and family, June 15. They report things prosperous in their State.

—Letters of condolence from Rev. Daniel Jones, of Winchester, Ky., and Rev. J. W. Hamilton, of Summerville, Mass, were thankfully recieved, and their cordial words of love reciprocated by this editor and wife.

—Mrs. E. S. Spriggs, an active Methodist worker was constantly with Bro. Griffin, in and before his illness, with perfect knowledge of all the facts, she has furnished an interesting account of his last sickness and death.

—Rev. Edward Dunlap colored of Midway, Ky., is said to be 138 years old, and his wife 130. He is sick at present, and Mr. Theadore Wilson, of Lexington, Ky., has gone to remain with him in his sickness.

—Rev. Charles Pyles, of Madisonsville, Ohio., whose absence from home has caused some fears of his safety, is well and visiting friends on the Louisville, Indiana and Bowling Green districts, Lexington Conference we learn.

—Mr. Theodore Wilson, of Asbury Chapel, Lexington informed us on July 14th, that up to that time as head of a troop of collectors for said church, he had recieved but had not turned over to the officers $400, in soliciting boxes most of which he said had been contributed in and around Midway, Ky.

—Mr, Willis F. Martin, of the Grand Hotel, Indianapolis, Ind., was in Winchester Ky., from Tuesday, June 23, to Monday, 29, attending the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Harriet Martin, the who died June 22, and was buried the 24th inst. She was a member of the Baptist Church, and the burial service was performed by Elder J. F. Hummons.

—Rev. J. B. M. Connell, No. 230 N. Limestone street, Lexington, Ky., was lately rector of St. Andrews P. E. congregation in that city. He is a native of Santa Cruz, West Indies; has served as pastor in Memphis, Tenn, and Raleigh, N. C. He is now principal of one of the public schools, and is laboring to establish a Protestant Episcopal Mission among the colored people. He believes in Christian purity.

—A. D. Payne, Grenada, Miss., writes: "I notice in this week's paper a note from Bro. P. Blue, in which he says that it was the duty of the Statistical Secretary to put in the minutes the names of those who gave benevolent money." Most of the brethren know that the statistical table is a blank only to be filled by the secretary and with no places for names. I am surprised that an old minister should know no better. The Bishops instructed me to give the books with the names to the President of Rust University which I did.

—Miss Joana P. Moore, vice president of the Louisiana Baptist Womens Home Missionary Society, formerly of New Orleans, has of late been pushing the interests she loves and represents in the moral regions. Where she desires to have the SOUTHWESTERN an old time helper in the good work follow her. This lady may always feel assured that the SOUTHWESTERN will have much of common interest to Christian workers. Her favorable testimony is one among thousands which we thankfully receive, gratefully acknowedge, and hope to merit.

—Rev. J. W. Gazaway, of Cleveland, O., denies any personal knowledge of offensive language being used by Judge Foraker, in his late suit for the admission of his daughter, Eva, to the Springfield public schools, and Rev. R. G. Mortimore, is equally certain that the Judge did not leave Delaware college because he, a Negro, attended it. Now what we are interested in finding out is, how these gentlemen allowed any such ungrounded reports to become public. Let us hear no more of this after the election is over.

—Mr, Nathan Parker, blacksmith and grocer, of Flemmingsburg, Ky., is worth $6 000 in property and business. He is now 35 years of age, and in perfect health, is temperate in his habits, and contributes to every charitable object that presents itself. He says he often gives to needy white people, he does not discriminate as to that. He loves colored women better than any others, and has a beautiful, brown colored wife. He worked four years against heavy opposition to learn his trade and received a wage of $12,00 per year. When first married he and his wife slept on the floor and had only one room, now he occupies a residence with six main rooms completely furnished, the first floor with brussels carpet on every room. He now has more houses than he first had beds.

—"Success to SOUTHWESTERN, you are doing good work."—J. Braden, Penn.

Church Polity.

MR EDITOR—Is all our churches entitled to a ritual and hymnal free of charge? If so, where do they get them?—SUBSCRIBER.

Answer—1. Every church can get our ritual and hymn book in the cheapest style for 50 cents each; and they can get them in better styles proportionately cheap. It cost something to print them, and they cannot be given away. If we make anything above what they cost us the profit so made is divided with your conference for the support of your superannuated preachers.

2 It is the duty of each presiding elder and "preacher to see that every charge is supplied with our own books and literature." Dis. Page 108, par. 183, sec. 6 and page 84, par. 134, sec. 2. "Be diligent to spread the books, and you will have the use of them." The ritual and hymnal of our church ought to be in your study and pulpit.

Schools and Colleges.

For the Southwestern.

The Boys Ought to Go to School

MASTER J D. CLARK.

Education is one of the most useful things a person can gain. I wish all the colored and white boys in the country would devote their mind to study. We now have a chance to get some education, and we ought to improve it. They should learn to abstain from wine, beer gardens and gambling houses. I am a boy nineteen years old, and a student in Tillotson Congregational Institute at Austin, Texas. I have found the difference between educated and uneducated people. There are a good many nice schools in the South, of which this is one. Before I left my home at Brenham I did not know the use of an institute like this. This knowledge, at least, I have gained by going there.

Austin, Tex.

The Closing Exercises of Clark University.

REV. S. A. COWAN.

This University, which stands among the foremost of our schools in the South, is located in a very beautiful grove of oaks and pines two miles south of Atlanta Georgia, one of the highest cities of the Southeast, connected by many rail roads coming in from all directions, which gives much wealth to the city, has just closed a very prosperous years work.

Rev. E O. Thayer, the president and his excellent and proficient corps of teachers, have worked very hard to advance the interest of the university, and their efforts have not been in vain.

It is with pride, and thanks given to God that we note that ninety five per cent of these students are leading Christian lives, and the greater part of them were led to Christ through their teachers while in the University. The most of these young men and women that have been attending Clark University, go out to teach in the public and Sunday Schools, some to preach the Gospel, and thus [illegible] are taught, better things directly and indirectly through our schools and colleges.

The baccalaurette sermon was preached by the president, Rev. E. Thayer, at 11 a m., June 7th. The sermon was clear, forcible, [illegible] and will be long remembered by the students and the [illegible] who were present.

At 3 p. m. the school was densely [illegible] to listen to an address by Mrs. Elizebeth Rust on the Womens Home Missionary Society.

Her whole heart and soul has gone out to the thousands of wretched, and destitute homes of our mothers throughout the South. When we think of these miserable homes, and go back just one generation, and behold these mothers in bondage, robbed of those characteristics which, adorns and beautifies and makes true mothers, and then study the aim and object of this society, can we but say that it has those elements in it which will bring blessings to many of these unfortunate homes throughout the South.

It is well known that good moral habits are essential to the healthfulness of the home, and these can be best taught by the watchful mother whose training has come from a pure cultured source.

The annual sermon was preached at 7:30 p. m., by Rev. R. S. Rust.

The students, friends, and teachers went to their rooms, feeling a very delightful and profitable day, had been spent in our University, and only wish that we could have the Dr, and his wife with us oftener. The oral examinations of the classes were held June 8th and 9th, at which the friends and examining committee might see the improvement of the students in their various classes.

The students are required to pass a written examination; in event, any student falls below seventy per cent, he is required to pursue the same study again. The president and faculty are determined to make their work thorough and send out such students as will reflect great credit upon the institution and the race to which they belong.

Monday night, June 8th, the graduating class held public exercises in the chapel which was enjoyed by those present.

Tuesday night a very large crowd assembled to witness the prize declamation contest. Eight young men and women contended for the prize, and as we sat and listened to these young men and women we could only say the judges must decide, for we are unable to pass our judgment upon the speakers, and could only say as each one left the stand "well done thou good and faithful servant.

The judges decided that H. Sebastian Doyle should have the first prize. The judges could hardly agree as to who should have the second prize but finally decided in favor of Miss. Maria J. Johnson, but as Miss. Nannie C. Thompson performed her part so well she too was awarded a prize.

Wednesday June 10th, the commencement day, was one of great importance, for many had looked forward to that day with great interest. Notwithstanding a very heavy rain was falling which prevented many from attending who would have been there, yet we had as many as we could seat. The graduating class consisted of seven members whose orations were delivered in a very able manner. Edward W. Lee graduated from the full collegiate course. Sarah A. Harper scientific, Hattie W. Robinson and Annie E. Arnold high normal, Levi W. Whitehead and S. E. Moses business course, and Miss Kittie R. Mitchell music course. Another prosperous years work has been accomplished.

Woman's Home Missionary Society.

The quarterly meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society was held Monday, July 6, in the M. E. Church at East Cambridge. Mrs. E. Cooper presided, and prayer was offered by Mrs. S. L. Grady.

After the usual quarterly reports, Bishop Mallalieu addressed the audience on his recent experience and observations in the South and Southwest. He spoke of the need of the W. H. M. Society, to accomplish a work for which no other society had provided. The work of the Industrial Homes in which the Society is so largely engaged at present, he fully endorsed, giving a very vivid picture of one which he had visited. "But," he said, "the society need not confine itself the industrial homes. It is needed, also, in suppying and supporting teachers for the little schools which are being opened all over the South, independent of the schools of the Freedmen's Aid Society, for colored and poor white children." He gave some account of the work which is being done by one of the missionaries which the W. H. M. Society is supporting in New Orleans. "This Society," he said, is doing the grandest work of any society in any land on the face of the globe." It is finishing up the work which the war of the Rebellion began, and which can only be finished by the aid of women.

Mrs. Cooper supplemented his remarks saying that the society does not confine its efforts to work in the South, but is also working for women in Utah, Alaska, among the Chinese on our western coast, and for the helpless and degraded women and children all over our land. The solos sung by Mrs. Taylor were very beautiful and touching. A number of names were taken for membership, and also for subscriptions to Woman's Home Missions, the organ of the society.

A. W. JOHNSON.
Cor. Sec. W. H. M S.

—Zion's Herald.

Books and Current Literature

URSULAS' BEGINNINGS. By Howe Benning Published by the American Tract Society: 150 Nassau street, New York. Price, $1 25.

This work is finished in dark purple cloth and gold. Has 296 pages modestly illustrated; and has sixteen chapters. It is a 12mo. vol. It is a pleasing story, well told, illustrating the beginning, ups and downs, ins and outs of ordinary Christian life to its triumphant end. Any young Christian can read it with profit, especially so for girls.

JEAN McDONALD'S WORK. By Jennie Harrison. Five illustrations. Published by the American Tract Society, 150 Nassau street, New York.

This is a 12mo., 384 pages, with thirty-seven chapters and five illustrations, and neatly bound in tea green printed cloth and gold. The work will no doubt prove most helpful in the homes of any who will read it. It passes through all the phases of unhappy and happy home life. Its characters are so drawn out that husband and wife may each easily find beneath them a needed lesson. It aims at home improvement. It would elevate the home by the removal of the seeming causes of family estrangement and separation. All our young married, or to be married folk, had better get it.

The Pulpit Treasury for June is promptly on our table, and is as fresh and full of promise as a June morning. Dr. Witherspoon, one of the great preachers of the South, is represented by a portrait, sermon, sketch of his life and a view of his church. Dr. Haygood discourses on God's Law of Love. Rev. C. Vince on The Father and the Little Ones—a service for Children's Day. Drs. Aikman and King furnish suitable reflections on National Blessings and Spiritual Emancipation—for Independence Day. Leading Thoughts of Sermons, full of spiritual marrow, are by Drs. MacArthur, Foster, Barrows, Moore, Meyer and Bishop Merrill. Yearly, $2.50. To Clergymen, $2. Single copies, 25 cents. E. B. TREAT, Publisher, 771 Broadway, New York.

On July 1st was issued from the press of Craig & Barlow, 170 Madison St., Chicago, a large work, entitled "Fifty Years in the Church of Rome," by the venerable Father Chiniquy, who has spent many years of his life in its production. It will be a comprehensive presentation of Romanism, in all its aspects—civil, social, and religious—and contains fact of thrilling interest to all lovers of liberty. The chapters relating the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, are startling in character. The book is likely to cause controversy. We hear that it has been pronounced by eminent statesmen in this country and Great Britain, Canada, and Australia, who have read advanced sheets, as timely and important. It will be sold by subscription only. Price $5.

THE BAD BOY AT HOME.—The "Bad Boy," of whom we have all heard and some of us know, has at last arrived "At Home;" and a record of his humorous experience is found in a new book just issued, entitled "The Bad Boy At Home," and it contains more fun than we have ever seen between two covers before. It is handsomely illustrated, and his experience in trying to become an Editor are particularly funny. Bound in paper covers. Price 25 cents, and it is sold by all dealers, or it will be mailed on receipt of that amount by J. S. Ogilvie & Co. The Publishers, 31 Rose Street, New York.

Floral Tracts,—The American Tract Society has prepared a new issue, consisting of floral tracts in packages of 120 pages each, assorted. The price is 20 cents, net postage 2 cents, sold only in packages. They are very pretty and spendid for letter or pocket use.

Is there Danger from the Negro?

In "An Appeal to Cæsar," by Judge Tourgee, the question of the future of the colored element is discussed from a somewhat different point of view. Without committing himself as to the increase or decrease of the colored element in the country at large, in proportion to the whites, the author finds, upon a somewhat superficial study of the statistics bearing upon the question, that in the South Atlantic and Gulf States the Negroes have increased decidedly in proportion to the whites, while in those States which he classes as border States they have lately decreased. This massing of the Negroes in what may, for convenience, be denominated the cotton States, coupled with the steady sharpening of the line of separation between the two races—a line which as the author claims, becomes more and more accentuated as the inferior race increases in number and advances in education—will lead to inevitable conflict between the two races. As the Negro becomes unmerically the stronger and, through education, appreciates more fully his present position, he will commence a struggle for the mastery, and then the days of the Ku klux will be eclipsed in blood and slaughter. Such is the condition to which these ill-fated States are hurrying. To ward off this impending evil, Judge Tourgee urges upon the General Government the work of educating the blacks. Such, in brief, is the "Appeal to Cæsar."

Education seems to be regarded as a universal panacea for all the ills of the people, but in this case, according to the author's own statement of the situation, the education of the Negroes would but precipitate the impending conflict Our only safety would seem to be in leaving them in ignorance.—Mr. Henry Gannett, in Popular Science Monthly for June.

"O, Lor' Hit'Im Again!"

In the early days of Methodism in Scotland, a certain congregation where there was but one rich man, desired to build a new chapel. A church meeting was held. The old rich Scotchman rose and said: "Brethren. we diuna need a new chapel; I'll give £5 for repairs."

Just then a bit of plaster falling from the ceiling hit him on the head.

Looking up and seeing how bad it was, he said: "Brethren, it's worse than I thought; I'll make it 50 pun'."

"Oh, Lord!" exclaimed a devoted brother on a back seat, "hit im again!"

The Church Missionary Society, England, held its annual meeting in Exeter Hall. The receipts for the year were £231,541 The general expenditure was £207,583, besides payment from special funds.

PLAGUE-STRICKEN PLYMOUTH!

Does a Similar Danger Threaten Everyone of Us

How Public Attention is Directed to Personal Perils.

"Judge," said a young lawyer to a very successful senior, "tell me the secret of your uniform success at the bar."

"Ah, young man, that secret is a life study, but I will give it to you on condition that you pay all my bills during this session of court."

"Agreed, sir," said the junior.

"Evidence, indisputable evidence,"

At the end of the month the judge reminded the young man of his promise.

"I recall no such promise."

"Ah, but you made it."

"Your evidence, please!"

And the judge, not having any witness, lost a case for once!

The man who can produce indisputable evidence wins public favor. I had an interview yesterday with one of the most successful of American advertisers, whose advertising is most successful because always backed by evidence.

"What styles of advertising do you use?" I asked H. H. Warner, Esq.

"Display, reading matter and and paragraphs of testimonials."

"Have you many testimonials?"

In answer he showed me a large cabinet chock full. "We have enough to fill Boston, New York, Chicago, St. Louis and Philadelphia morning papers."

"Do you publish many of them?"

"Not a tithe. Wonderful as are those we do publish, we have thousands like them we cannot use. 'Why not?' Let me tell you. 'Warner's safe cure has' probably been the most successful medicine for female disorders ever discovered. We have testimonials from ladies of the highest rank, but it would be indelicate to publish them. Likewise many statesmen, lawyers, clergymen, doctors of worldwide fame have been cured, but can only refer to such persons in the most guarded terms, as we do in our reading articles."

"Are these reading articles successful?"

"When read they make such an impression that when the 'evil days' of ill health draw nigh they are remembered, and Warner's safe cure is used."

"No sir, it is not necessary now, as at first to do such constant and extensive advertising. A meritorious medicine sells itself after its merits are known. We present just evidence enough to disarm skeptics and to impress the merits of the remedies upon new customers. We feel it to be our duty to do this. Hence, best to accomplish our mission of healing the sick, we have to use the reading-article style. People won't read plain testimonials."

"Yes, sir, thousands admit that had they not learned of Warner's safe cure through this clever style they would still be ailing and still impoverishing themselves in fees to unsuccessful 'practitioners,' It would do your soul good to read the letters of thanksgiving we get from mothers grateful for the perfect success which attends Warner's safe cure when used for children, and the surprised gratification with which men and women of older years and impaired vigor, testify to the youthful feelings restored to them by the same means."

"Are these effects permanent?"

"Of all the cases of kidney, liver urinary and female diseases we have cured, not two per cent, of them report a return of disorders. Who else can show such a record?"

"What is the secret of Warner's safe cure permanently reaching so many serious disorders?"

"I will explain by an illustration: The little town of Plymouth, Pa., has been plaguestricken for several months because its water supply was carelessly poisoned. The kidneys and liver are the sources of physical well being. If poluted by disease, all the blood becomes poisoned and every organ is affected and this great danger threatens every one, who neglects to treat himself promptly. I was nearly dead myself of extreme kidney disease, but what is now Warner's safe cure cured me, and I know it is the only remeedy in the world that can cure such disorders, for I tried everything else in vain. Cured by it myself, I bought it and, from a sense of duty, presented it to the world. Only by restoring the kidneys and liver can disease leave the blood and the system."

A celebrated sanitarian physician once said to me. "The secret of the wonderful success of Warner's safe cure is that it is sovereign over all kidney, liver and urinary diseases, which primarily or secondarily make up the majority of human ailments. Like all great discoveries it is remarkably simple."

The house of H. H. Warner & Co, stands deservedly high in Rochester, and it is certainly matter of congratulation that merit has been recognized all over the world, and that this success has been unqualifiedly deserved.

PEN POINT.

General Church News.

It dont pay to have one citizen in the lunatic asylum because another citizen sold him liquor.

The Shah of Persia has given $800 to the erection of a new Presbyterian Mission Church in Hamadan.

The Baptists of Philadelphia have surpassed all the other denominations of that city in the matter of church extension during the last two years.

The Seventh Day Adventists seem to be gaining in strength in New York. They have recently established missions in New York, Buffalo, Albany and Syracuse.

Never let a day pass without trying to do something for Jesus. Every night reflect on what Jesus has done for you, and then ask yourself, What have I done for him. (Matt. v, 13 16)

Never believe what you feel, if it contradicts God's Word. Ask yourself, "Can what I feel be true if God's Word is true?" and if both can not be true, believe God, and make your own heart the liar. (Rom. iii, 5; 1 John 5. 10, 11)—Brownlow North.

An immense Buddist temple, burned twenty years ago, is being rebuilt at Kioto, Japan. It is of the most expensive wood and will cost more than three million dollars, raised entirely by voluntary contributions.

At Umwalla, Kaffraria, the late Rev. Tiyo Soga, sixteen years ago, had gathered 43 children as the nucleus of a church. To day the congregation is represented by 652 members, and 170 waiting for baptism.

During the year there have been three hundred additions to the Baptist Church from the Cherokee Indians, making the membership 2,000. There are 6,000 members of the denomination in the Indian Territory.

Eight natives of New Guinea have recently been ordained to preach the gospel to their countrymen. The acquisition of New Guinea by Great Britain has put more responsibility upon the missionary societies laboring on the island. The outlook for missions is encouraging.

PEMBERTON'S

The WORLDS Great Nerve TONIC

FRENCH WINE COCA

The wonderful Invigorator and EXHILARINE, to impart Health, Strength and Vigor to Mind and Body. The Ideal Nerve Tonic and Intellectual Beverage, highly endorsed by the elite of the Medical Profession; for the cure and prevention of Mental and Physical Exhaustion, Chronic and Wasting Diseases, Dyspepsia, Kidney and Liver Affections, Heart Disease, Melancholia, Hysteria, Neuralgia, Sick Headache, Throat and Lung Affections, Tired Feelings, etc. This marvelous Tonic acts like a charm. For Convalescents and Invalids this delightful invigorant is the sine-qua-non. The invigorating and Strength-restoring properties of French Wine Coca are truly wonderful and excel all other Tonics and Stimulants. One trial will charm and excite your enthusiasm. For sale by Druggists. Send for Book on Coca, and Pemberton's Wine Coca. Price, $1.00 per bottle.

J. S. PEMBERTON & CO., M'f'g Chemists, Atlanta, Ga.

july30-13teow

The Congo Mission.

BY REV. S. DRYDEN PHELPS, D. D.

Where rolls the Congo River,
In soft, majestic flow;
Or where its waters quiver
In foaming falls below;
O'er all its lengthened borders,
Where millions live and die,
Oppressed by sin's disorders,—
"Come, help us!" is the cry.

Shall commerce pierce the region,
Lead there an eager train?
Shall traffic, with its legion,
Brave death itself for gain?
And shall the Lord's anointed,
By blood and Spirit sealed,
To save the world appointed,
Be slow to take the field?

Awake, ye hosts of Zion!
Behold the favored hour;
Your Captain's word rely on:
His strength shall be your power.
Forth to the land before you,
His harbingers have gone;
And now, his banner o'er you,
He calls, "Come on, come on!

Give, saints, as God hath given,
And see, as your reward,
Dun pagan darkness riven
And Christ received as Lord;
For, while the conflict rages,
A contrite cry in gloom,
Shall burst the chains of ages,
And rise to bud and bloom.

—The Christian Secretary

Domestic Hygiene.

Sunstrrokes.

GEO. L. CURTIS, M D.

As the rays of a moaning summer sun fall upon our heads and we are compelled to seek the shade with a feeling of depression, weariness and exhaustion, one is led to inquire for the cause of such bad feelings. Occasionally in the heated term men and women fall in an insensible condition, and linger a short time to die, or if they recover to become ever after unduly sensitive to the influences of the sun's heat. In most cases of suppressed recovery, the foundation is laid for diseases that sooner or later culminate in death.

"Sunstroke is the name for a sudden attack, in extreme hot weather, after exposure to the direct rays of sun, or great heat in the shade combined with stagnant and impure air. The attack is characterized by loss of consciousness followed frequently by stertor and convulsions, death taking place, in a large proportion of cases, within the space of a few minutes or a few hours. In these cases they seem to be ranged under three morbid conditions, 1 Exhaustion. "The vital powers are prostrated" and the heart refuses to perform its office in the circulation of blood. 2. Congestion, or as some have called it "conjestive appoplexy." 3. There is a combination of exhaustion and appoplexy. On a postmortem the changes of tissue are not uniform, nor are they always marked. Sometimes the covering of the brain are congested. The arteries and capillaries of the brain are occasionally unduly injected. The lungs sometimes are congested. In a few cases the the heart is flaccid and softened, though generally it is rigidly contracted. The blood evinces some changes. Its "alkalinity is diminished," it "coagulates imperfectly," and shows less of the life sustaining principle (oxygen) than usual. There are usually present some premonitions of an attack, which if carefully observed, and proper attention paid to them, an attack may be averted. There is more or less pain in the head, an unpleasant vertigo or swimming in the head, a fullness and oppression of the stomach often extending to the bowels, followed by sickness, with generally inability to vomit. The sight becomes dim, and in so doing a marked change in color occurs in the surrounding objects; they becoming of a uniform gray, but occasionally turning to blue, purple, green or white. The bladder becomes suddenly irritable in some cases just preceding an attack, a great weakness fastens itself upon some organ. Dimness of vision is followed by unconsciousness, and thus by a remarkable rise in temperature, which sooner or later burns up the vital forces, unless speedily relieved by cooling restoratives.

These are conditions favorible to sunstroke which if avoided would greatly lessen danger from such attacks. The following conditions pave the way for sunstrokes, viz:

First—Drinking of intoxicating liquors, wine and beer included, even in moderation.

Second—Long exposure to the direct sun's rays, and also exhaustive work in a room heated by the sun's rays, and with imperfect ventilation.

Third—An unsuitable kind and quantity of clothing.

Fourth—An embarrassed circulation of the blood from tight clothing or belts over the neck, chest or abdomen.

Fifth—Sleeplessness from any cause, and exhanstion that follows.

Sixth—Exhaustion, coupled with anxiety, fear, anger, or any of the depressing moral states.

Seventh—It has been held by some that drinking of cold water in large quantities, while exposed to excessive heat from the sun, prepares the system for sunstroke. It becomes dangerous by too greatly chilling the stomach, which soon produces congestion, by means of which the resistance of the system is lessened.

Eighth—"A full habit of body, or any tendency to fatty heart," or injury of the lungs, are predisposing conditions of sunstroke.

All of these conditions, except the last, may be controlled, and sunstroke averted. Really, there is no necessity for any person being overwhelmed by the sun's heat. Precautions are within our reach.

When a person feels the first symptom of dizziness and exhaustion he ought to lie down in the shade, bathe the head in cold water, take lumps of ice in the mouth, and gen lysponge the body with cold water. As soon as the temperature is reduced the person ought to be allowed perfect rest until the feeling of exhaustion is wholly removed.

If the case is bad from the commencement, use the same remedies, and send for a competent physician as soon as possible.

While in the heated term, men and women cannot be too careful of exposure to the sun's rays in an exhausted condition.

Hunt's [Kidney and Liver] Remedy is excellent in all of the diseases of females. For delicate women, no medicine equals it.

The M. E. Church.

Woman's Home Missions.

Dutchtown, May 9, 1885—The Woman's Home Missionary Society met at Mount Hope M E. Church at Dutchtown, La., under the leadership of Mother Hester. The following officers were elected and delivered addresses relative to the progress of the society: Sister Lucy Green, president; Maria Buckner, Henry Cornish, Francis Willis, Amy Johnson, May Oldhams, Susan Chefny, Robert Buckner, Margaret Johnson; Alfred Grey, Secretary.

Prophylactic Fluid.

GREAT GERM DESTROYER!

DARBYS PROPHYLACTIC FLUID

Disinfectant, Deodorizer and Antiseptic.

USE IT IN EVERY SICK-ROOM FOR SAFETY, CLEANLINESS AND COMFORT.

IN ALL CONTAGIOUS DISEASES it arrests their spread by DEODORIZING the apartments, rendering the air pure and wholesome; by DISINFECTING the discharges from the patient and the vessels receiving them; by DESTROYING all poisonous matter, malaria, gas and disease germs.

CONTAGION DESTROYED.

A second case of SCARLET FEVER has never been known to occur where the Fluid was used FREELY. YELLOW FEVER has been CURED with it after BLACK VOMIT had TAKEN PLACE. Its use in SMALL POX will PREVENT PITTING. The worst cases of DIPHTHERIA have YIELDED to it.

Attendants on the Sick will secure Protection from Infectious Diseases by using the Fluid.

Perfectly harmless, used internally or externally.

As an Internal Disinfectant and Detergent.

Taken or injected or used as a wash it allays Inflammation and corrects offensive discharges. The Fluid is a certain cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery and Inflammation of the bowels. Being Alkaline in its nature, it will often afford complete relief from Heartburn, Acidity of the stomach and Dyspepsia.]

ENDORSED—J. Marion Sims, M. D., Hon. Alex. H. Stephens, Bishop Geo. F. Pierce and others.

Send for Pamphlet containing Its History and Uses, with Testimonials. Address

J. H. ZEILIN & CO., Philadelphia.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire about my people, Frank, Bartle and Charles Redick. When last heard from they were in Martin county, North Carolina. My name was Sarah Redick, now Sarah Hanlay. Any information will be gladly received. Please send word to Elder Mecomer, pastor of Simpson Chapel, M. E. Church, corner of Howard and Second streets, Indianapolis, Ind.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for the following parties: My father and uncle; my father is named Clay Finner; my uncle's name is Jacob Finner. They formerly belonged to Joe Finner, in Tippah county, near Ripley, Miss. The last I heard of him he was in Aberdeen, Miss. My mother's name was Aime Finner, and when she was sold from Clay Finner she had three children. Their names are Susan, Margaret and John. We now go by the name Cooper. Address A. J. Cooper, Holly Springs, Miss.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my family. When I left the eastern shore of Maryland my name was Ann Maria Bowsier and my mother's name was Henrietta Bowsier. My father's name is Isaac Bowsier, and belonged to Ben Killer, father of John Williams, back of Baltimore. I have four brothers named Philip, Robert, James and William Bowsier, Address Mrs. Ann Maria Williams, Rosedale, La.

IT IS A SPECIFIC FOR Kidney & Liver Troubles, Bladder, Urinary and Liver Diseases, Dropsy, Gravel and Diabetes.

IT IS RELIABLE in curing Bright's Disease, Pains in the Back, Loins or Sides, Retention or Non-Retention of Urine.

HIGHLY RECOMMENDED.

It cures Biliousness, Headache, Jaundice, Sour Stomach, Dyspepsia, Constipation and Piles.

IT WORKS PROMPTLY and cures Intemperance, Nervous Diseases, General Debility, Excesses and Female Weakness.

USE IT AT ONCE.

It restores the KIDNEYS, LIVER and BOWELS, to a healthy action and CURES when all other medicines fail. Hundreds have been saved who have been given up to die by friends and physicians.

Price $1.25. Send for Illustrated Pamphlet to HUNT'S REMEDY CO., Providence, R. I.

5 SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Statue of "Liberty Enlightening the World."

The Committee in charge of the construction of the base and pedestal for the reception of this great work, in order to raise funds for its completion, have prepared a minature Statne six inches in height—the statue bronzed; pedestal, nickel-silvered—which they are now delivering to anbscribers throughout the United States at One Dollar Each.

This attractive souvenir and Mantel or Desk ornament is a perfect fac simile of the model furnished by the artist.

The statnette in same metal, twelve inches high, at Five Dollars Each, delivered.

The designs of Statue and Pedestal are protected by U. S. Patents, and the models can only be furnished by this Committee. Address, with remittance.

RICHARD BUTLER, Sec'y.,
American Committee of the Statue of Liberty.
33 Mercer street, New York.

DAWSON'S INDELIBLE INK.

No preparation and only a common pen needed. Established 50 Years. Superior and popular for decorative work on linen. Received Centennial Medal & Diploma. Sold everywhere.

jan26-52tsow

Diabetes Cured.

New Orleans Picayune, Jan. 20, 1884.

Mr. Mathias Doll, business place No. 23 North Peters street, residence Royal street, between Jeanne and Bartholomew, New Orleans, has been a most intense sufferer from kidney trouble (diabetes) for the last six long and weary years. He said to us: "Even earlier than that I frequently suffered from pain in the back, and frequent making of water, but gave it no thought until about the time stated, when the almost constant desire to make water became unendurable. The pain in the back, and sometimes in the legs, made me so lame at times that I could scarcely walk. I consulted one of the best doctors in this city, and was under his constant treatment for one entire year without deriving the least benefit. I then consulted from time to time, during the last five or six years, six other physicians, each one standing in the front rank of the medical profession in New Orleans, and though I sometimes was a little relieved of some excruciating suffering, yet upon the whole I was not only no better, but in many respects much worse. My limbs became so swollen and sore that I could not cross my legs when sitting on a chair—all of which, they said, was caused by diabetes. I then tried some highly lauded patent medicine. But they all turned out to be humbugs. I had given up all hopes of ever getting relief, much less being cured, when I noticed in the papers some wonderful cures that PERUNA had made in this city, as prescribed by Dr. Hartman, giving the name and address of each person treated. I called to see him; he at once prescribed his PERUNA, which is not over three weeks ago. I am so much better that if I would not improve any more, I would not for any amount that I had not placed myself under his treatment. All my pain and lameness is gone. The swelling and stiffness in my legs has disappeared, and instead of making water every fifteen minutes, I now make it once in three hours during the day, and only twice in a whole night. I am, indeed, quite well again. Don't hesitate, don't say humbug, but get the PERUNA at once and take it as its printed label directs, or, if you think this is only an advertisement, and not strictly true, call and see me and see for yourself."

Mrs. Huldah Riple, Smethport, McKean county, Pa., writes: "DR. S. B. HARTMAN, & Co., Columbus, O. I have used your PERUNA and it has done me a great deal of good. Have recommended it to many of my friends, who have since expressed themselves as wonderfully pleased with its virtues."

PE-RU-NA is sold by all druggists. Price $1 per bottle, six bottles $5. If you cannot get it from your druggist, we will send it on receipt of regular price We prefer you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it do not be persuaded to try something else, but order from us at once as directed. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, O.

Chautauqua Periodicals.

Chautauqua Assembly Daily Herald,

An eight page paper, printed on a steam power press on the Assembly grounds at Chautauqua, every morning during the meeting in August; 19 numbers in the volume, containing stenographic reports of more than 70 lectures on science, philosophy, religion and practical questions heald a reports of lectures meetings, debates and classroom drills. An invaluable collection.

The first number will appear Saturday, Aug. 1.
Subscription price, ... $1 00
In clubs of five or more at one time . . . 90

THE CHAUTAUQUAN,

A first-class Literary Magazine. The organ of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle, containing one-half of the Required Readings of the course with the special departments of Local Circles, Questions and Answers on the Books in the course. C. L. S. C. Work and Notes on the Required Readings.

A Literary Department of great merit, furnishing articles from the foremost writers of the country.

Subscription price, ... $1.50
In clubs of five or more at one time . . 1.35
Vol. VI will begin with the October number.

Chautauqua Boys and Girls

A Daily Paper for the Boys and Girls, to be issued at Chautauqua in August Pictures of Chautauqua life. Full accounts of all children's meetings

Subscription price 50c
In clubs of five or more, ... 40c

COMBINATION OFFER:

The Chautauquan and Assembly Daily Herald.....$2.25
The Chautauquan, Assembly Daily Herald and Chautauqua Boys and Girls.....$2 70

Address: DR. T. L. FLOOD, Editor and Proprietor.
je 25-8t Meadville, Pa

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9-12, 1883.

Sixty Addresses by American Educators

Edited by REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.

8vo. 272 pp. Price, stiff paper..$1.25
Cloth..... 1 75

The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:

1. Education and Man's Improvement.
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America.
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Panperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War.
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—ten tables.

"It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index.

Sent postpaid on receipt of price.

Phillips & Hunt.
37 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

OPIUM MORPHINE HABIT EASILY CURED. BOOK FREE. Dr. J. C. HOFFMAN Jefferson, W
mar5-52t

RAILROADS.

Chesapeake & Ohio R. R.

—VIA—
WASHINGTON
—TO—
BALTIMORE,
PHILADELPHIA,
and NEW YORK
THE ONLY LINE WITH
Pullman Sleeping Cars
—FROM—
Louisville, Cincinnati and Lexington
—TO—
WASHINGTON
WITHOUT CHANGE.

Schedule in effect October 12, 1884

EASTWARD.	No 4 Daily.	No. 6 ex Sunday
Leave Cincinnati	8 30 p m	8 3. p m
Leave Louisville	7 15 p m	7 00 n m
Leave Lexington	10 40 p m	11 45 a m
Leave Winchester	11 15 p m	12 25 p m
Due Mt. Sterling	12 08 a m	1 36 p m
Due Ashland	3 26 a m	5 55 p m
Due Huntington	4 00 a m	6 40 p m
Leave Huntington
Due Charleston	6 36 a m	10 00 p m
Due Clifton Forge	1 30 p m	6 40 p m
Due Staunton	3 57 p m	9 26 a m
Due Charlottesville	5 20 p m	11 05 a m
Due Richmond	9 15 p m	3 05 p m
Arrive Newport News	10 45 a m	6 30 p m
Due Washington	9 50 p m
Arrive New York	6 30 a m

WESTWARD.	No. 3 Daily.	No 1 ex Sunday
Leave New York	10 00 a m	12 0 n't
Due Washington	5 10 p m	9 10 a m
Leave Newport News	3 50 p m
Leave Richmond	6 25 p m	9 35 a m
Due Charlottesville	10 00 p m	1 45 p m
Due Staunton	11 42 p m	4 57 p m
Due Clifton Forge	1 45 a m	6 4 p m
Due Charleston	9 00 a m	4 25 a m
Due Huntington
Leave Huntington	9 40 a m	6 20 a m
Due Ashland	10 12 a m	7 02 a m
Due Mt. Sterling	1 57 p m	11 05 a m
Leave Winchester	2 30 p m	11 45 a m
Arrive Lexington	3 20 p m	12 45 p m
Arrive Louisville	7 10 p m	5 2 p m
Arrive Cincinnati	6 05 p m	5 35 p m

Lexington Div. trains run by Central time. Main line trains East of Huntington run by Eastern time, which is one hour faster than Central time.

Nos. 1 and 6 run daily, except Sunday. Sleeping cars between Huntington and Clifton Forge

Nos 3 and 4 run daily, and do not stop for local business. Pullman Sleeping cars and Solid Train between Louisville and Washington and Cincinnati and Richmond without change.

Nos 2 and 5 runs daily between Richmond and Clifton Forge Do not run between Clifton Forge and Richmond

No 1 leave Norfolk (except Sunday, 7 40 a m, Old Point 8 15 a m, Newport News 8 45 a m, arrive at Richmond at 11 35 a m

No. 2 leave Richmond except Sunday 8 20 a m, arrive Newport News 10 45 a m Old Point 11 10 a m, Norfolk 11 45 a m

Old Dominion Steamers leave Norfolk on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or Saturday at 6 00 p m; arrive in New York next afternoon.

For Rates Tickets, Baggage Checks apply to any office of C. & O. R'y; or Depot or Ticket Office of connecting lines

C. W. SMITH, Gen'l Manager.
H. W. FULLER, Gen'l Pass. Agt

Ohio & Mississippi R. R

—The Direct and Fast Line to—

Cincinnati,
Louisville,
Washington,
Baltimore,
New York and the East,

In Connection with the
"Great Jackson Route,"
Makes the following
FAST TIME:

STATIONS.	Daily
Leave New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss	12:38 a m
Canton	1:30 a m
Durant	2:52 p m
Grenada	4:50 a m
Coffeeville	5:25 a m
Water Valley	6:00 a m
Oxford	6:43 a m
Holly Springs	7:54 a m
Grand Junction	9:15 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St. L & N. O.	11:05 a m
Milan " " "	12:20 p m
Martin " " "	1:32 p m
Fulton " " "	2:00 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:30 p m
Carbondale "	6:58 p m
DuQuoin "	7:45 p m
Ashley "	8:28 p m
Centralia "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:26 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi.	9:29 p m
" Louisville, "	6:50 a m
" Cincinnati "	7:05 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.

Passengers living on the line of the C. St. L. & N. O. R. R. will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.

The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.

2 DAILY TRAINS
FROM ODIN
To WASHINGTON in 27 Hours,
To BALTIMORE in 28 Hours.

This is 5 Hours quicker than the fastest time by any other line.

The Day Express runs entire train consisting of Day Coaches and Palace Sleeping Cars from St. Louis to Washington and Baltimore without change

The Night Express has Sleepers through without change. No other line from St. Louis offers a Double Daily Through Train Service to the National Capital.

W. W. PEABODY,
President and General Manager.
W. B. SHATTUC,
General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio. jy31tf

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

The old reliable route to all Eastern cities Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leaves	Arrives.
Express	8:00 a m	7:45 a m
Coast Accommodation	3:35 p m	9:10 a m
Fast Mail	8:20 p m	7:30 p m

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. C. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.

W. B. Kniskern, Ticket Agent; J. T. Harahan, General Manager; John Kilkeny, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; O. M Dunn, Superintendent N. O. and M. Division. a25-1y

RAILROADS.

C. I. St. L. & C. KANKAKEE LINE. 4

4 PASSENGER TRAINS each way per day between Cincinnati and Indianapolis.

3 PASSENGER TRAINS each way per day between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Chicago

2 PASSENGER TRAINS each way per day between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette, Kankakee, Seneca and Davenport Ia.

KANKAKEE LINE

Entire trains run through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Chicago. Pullman Sleepers and elegant Reclining Chair Cars on Night trains. Parlor Cars on Day Trains.

SHELDON ROUTE.

Commodious Reclining Chair Cars run through without change betw en Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Peoria Ills. and Keokuk, Ia Close connection for Burlington, Ia.

KANKAKEE & SENECA ROUTE.

The GAY LINE running Elegant coaches through without change between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Davenport, Ia.

CONNECTIONS

At Cincinnati, in Central Union Depot, with all trains of the Cincinnati Southern Railway (Queen & Crescent Route) thus avoiding the tedious omnibus transfer incident to ALL other lines.

At Indianapolis, in Union Depot, with all lines diverging.

Through Tickets and Baggage Checks to all Principal Points,

Can be obtained at any ticket office, C. I. St. L. & C. Ry., also via this line at all Coupon Ticket Offices throughout the country.

See Agents of this Company for Rates, Routes, &c., or write Grant K. Lowry, Trav Pass Ag't, Wilmore Ky.
JOHN EGAN,
Gen'l Pass. and Tkt. Agent, Cincinnati, O.

BIG J Great Jackson Route.

Illinois Central R. R. Co.

Double Daily Passenger Trains

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Passenger No. 2 9:15 a.m.	Pass'gr No. 1..7:00 a m
No. 4 St. L. &	No. 3. Chic.
Chi Express..9:30 p. m.	N O Lim. Ex. 9.00 a m
No. 6 Sun Ex...7:30 a.m	No. 5 Sun Ex 8:20 p m

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.

Ticket Offices: Cor. Carondelet and Canal, (Pickwick Club Building.)

WM. MURRAY,
General Southern Passenger Agent.

J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT KENNEDY, Ticket Agent.

C & O

The Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company have moved their ticket management and business rooms to No. 225 fourth avenue.

C. O. & S. W. R. R.

THE SOUTHERN TRUNK LINE
—TO—
Louisville, Cincinnati, Washington, Baltimore,
And the Short Line to
Cairo, St. Louis, Chicago and the Northwest.
The Direct Route to
Eastern Seaboard Cities, Texas, Arkansas and the Southwest.

Chesapeake, Ohio & Southwestern R. R.

For Owensboro, Henderson, Paducah and Memphis and all points South and Southwest. Ticket office, 225 Fourth avenue; Depot, corner of Fourteenth and Main streets.

	Express Daily	Accom Daily ex Sun'y
Leave Louisville	7 50 a m	4 10 p m
Arrive at Cecelia	10 20 a m	6 45 p m
" Elizabethtown	10 10 a m	7 05 p m
" Grayson Springs	11 12 a m	.....
" Litchfield	11 23 a m	.....
" Central City	2 00 a m	.....
" Owensboro	5 05 a m	.....
" Nortonsville	3 27 p m	.....
" Hopkinsville	9 50 p m	.....
" Madisonville	4 37 p m	.....
" Henderson	6 10 p m	.....
" Evansville	8 10 p m	.....
" Tradewater	4 07 p m	.....
" Princeton	4 47 p m	.....
" Paducah	7 00 p m	.....
" Mayfield	8 27 p m	.....
" Fulton	9 29 p m	.....
" Cairo	10 45 p m	.....
" Rives	10 10 p m	.....
" Memphis	3 20 a m	.....
" Louisville	7 00 p m	9 35 a m

Tickets now on sale at depot at lowest rates. Call on or address R. H TALLEY. Ticket Agent Memphis, Tenn.
Or B. F. MITCHELL, G.n. Pass. Agt, Louisville, Ky.

ARE YOU GOING TO
KANSAS, MISSOURI, COLORADO, CALIFORNIA OR ANY OF THE WESTERN STATES?

If so you should avail yourself of the advantages that are now offered by the Kansas City Route, the only direct route from the South to the West and Northwest. This line runs its entire trains, with Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars and free Reclining Chair Cars, from Memphis to Kansas City, saving many hours time over any other route. If you are going West you will save money by purchasing your tickets via Memphis and the Kansas City Route. Send for large map of this Short Route; mailed free. Address,

J. E. LOCKWOOD.
Kansas City, Mo.

Or, H. D. ELLIS, Ticket Agent.
81 Madison street, Memphis, Tenn.

SINCE 1885.

The Universal Verdict of the People. Voices from Every State and Territory in the Union.

The Clergy, Medical and Legal Professions Bear Solid Testimony to the Efficiency of Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic.

Blood Will Tell, but it Must be Cold Blood!

Dr. Harter's is the Only True Iron Tonic. The Best Blood Purifier On Earth.

DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC
Is undoubtedly the purest and most reliable Iron medicine on the market to day. The form of Iron employed in its manufacture is the easiest of assimilation, and the most acceptable to the stomach. It enters readily into the circulation of the Blood, and its felicitous effects are felt throughout the entire body.

If you accept any preparation of Iron expecting it to be as good as DR. HARTER'S you must expect to be deceived. Take none but the genuine.

If any Druggist offers you Iron Medicine with the remark, "It is just as good as DR HARTER'S IRON TONIC, he either does it through a gross misrepresentation made him by the manufacturer, or from sordid motives of his own. In either case, investigate, a fraud is being attempted at your expense, prosecute and convict the guilty party, and we will reward you liberally. Protection to your customers and justice to ourselves demand prompt and vigorous action, and we ask your hearty co-operation.

Mr. A. E. Angier, an influential lawyer of Atlanta, Ga., who is well and favorably known throughout the State, writing June 24, 1885, says: "A prominent druggist of this city, and an intimate and personal friend of mine, made to me, privately, substantially this remark: Suppose you try DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC by way of a change. The history of it is this: DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC gained a celebrity some years ago, and, as is usual, other preparations entered the field to ride into popular favor on the reputation already achieved by DR. HARTER'S preparation." This, coming from a person of Mr. Angier's prominence, has weight with it, and is true in every particular.

PIRACY

The unprecedented success of Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic, the great good it has accomplished, the universal relief it has given the sufferer, coupled with the phenomenal sale—running annually into millions of bottles—has excited the envy and rapacity of disreputable dealers in different sections of the country, and there are being offered for sale and palmed off on the suffering and unsuspecting Iron Medicines that are not only worthless, but positively poisonous. Druggists, either through ignorance or greed for gain, will often attempt to force on a customer such an article, with the remark that it is just as good as Harter's. In warning you against these, we do it for your good and our protection.

Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic was first placed at the disposal of the public in 1855, and to-day it stands out singly in advance of the long category as the greatest Blood Medicine on earth.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN.

Every lady desires to be considered handsome. The most important adjunct to beauty is a clear smooth, soft and beautiful skin. With this essential a lady appears handsome, even if her features are not perfect.

Ladies afflicted with rough or discolored skin, blotches, etc., should lose no time in procuring a bottle of Harters Iron Tonic. This will positively give a clear and healthy complexion.

WE RECOMMEND

Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic to every woman who is weak, nervous and discouraged; particularly to those who have thin pale lips, cold hands and feet, and who are without strength and ambition.

Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic will quiet the nerves, give strength to the body induce refreshing sleep, improve the quality of the blood, and purify and brighten the complexion. Remember that Dr. Harter's is the only true Iron Tonic. It will cure entirely the worst form of female complaints, Falling and Displacements, and consequent weakness, and is particularly adapted to the change of life. It will regulate the Monthly Periods and cause them to pass without pain.

FALSE MODESTY

The natural timidity of women can be overcome, and regardless of sufferings, they prefer to suffer on rather than to submit to the examinations of a physician. To all cases so submitted Dr Harter's Iron Tonic is indeed a god send. No more necessity of embarrassing consultations or examinations. You alone know your trouble, and having the remedy at hand are certain of a cure, if timely use is made of it.

Byron, Miss., Aug, 1884.—I have used Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic in a great variety of cases. From its admirable composition its use is indicated in a wide range of diseases. It gives excellent satisfaction. S. F. Barnes, M. D.

Cincinnati, O., August 4, 1883.—I consider Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic an excellent remedy, both in regard to stomachic and general effects. The combination is [illegible] and in my experience is followed by good results. P. Fenchelmer, M. D.

[illegible], O., May 20, 1882.—Dr. Harter, Dear Sir:—Please send to my address Dr. Harter's IronTonic, [illegible] to my family. My wife [illegible] health; I consulted our [illegible] who recommended your Iron Tonic. After she had taken two bottles of the Tonic, she was entirely well. Yours, etc., J. N. Six.

OUR HONOR

is pledged not to advertise a dishonest drug, or any unworthy article. We have a conscience in this matters. No man's money can tempt us from this rule. From time to time we have called attention to Dr. Harter's Medicines. We did not write a line until we had tested their virtues. We felt safe in commending them, and are glad to know our judgement is sustained. Mr. Miller, the brother of our worthy Mayor, now speaks. As the readers of this paper know, he is one way and two worthy. He is related to one of the most reputable and influential families in this county. He following is his testimony:

READ THIS!

"My health failed me until fall of 1879. I found my system deranged, and my liver in a full of malarial poison. I tried every remedy suggested and received no benefit. Life had about become a burden, and I was disposed to yield to despair. But in May last my attention was called to Dr Harter's Medicines. I took a box of the Liver Pills, and being so much improved, used the Fever and Ague Specific. My health is now about restored. I feel like a new man, and in gratitude make this statement.

"I should begin at once to use the Iron Tonic, expecting soon to be as robust and vigorous as ever in life. Most heartily do I recommend these Medicines to my friends. R. B. Miller.

—Corsicana, Tex, Methodist, August. 1, 1880.

Poison in the blood, from whatever source, the scrofulous taint, Venereal Disease or Syphilis, any form of Blood poisoning, are too frequently treated by reckless use of mercury, producing a mercurial disease, which is oftentimes more obstinate than the primary trouble—in other words, the remedy is worse than the disease. Again we caution you against such preparations. Harter's Iron Tonic is mild and effectual. It will positively cure any form of blood disorder. The following are a few of the most common symptoms:

Erysipelas, Pimples, Face Grubs, St. Anthony's Fire, Pustules, Sties, Blotches, Boils, Scald Head, Scrofulous Sores, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Bones, etc. If you are afflicted with any of these maladies, one bottle of Harter's Iron Tonic will convince you of its power to relieve.

The Relation Harter's Iron Tonic Bears to the Blood,

The mechanical force that is exerted at each pulsation of the heart amounts to a pressure of thirteen pounds upon the entire change of blood that has to be pressed onward through the branching net-work of blood vessels. This gives an exertion of force that would be adequate in another form of application to lift 120 tons one foot high every twenty-four hours.

The blood is properly called "Life Fluid." This name applies everything. Keep this fluid pure in health, and no one can fail to be well, fat and hearty. The occasional use of Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic will keep the blood pure.

A Minister Suffers Twenty-five Years.

Hollywood, Ark., July 26, 1884.—Gentlemen: It gives me great pleasure to say that your medicine is more than you claim for it. I was afflicted for more than 25 years, and I tried every known remedy, and nothing did me any good until I used your Iron Tonic, which made a permanent cure. REV. E. WHITED.

I have used in in my practice since 1875, and consider it a most excellent Tonic in General Debility and Nervous Prostration. J. S. DORSEY, Bonham, Texas.

Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic never failed to do all that is claimed for it. DRS RIPLEY & WALTON, Philadelphia, Pa.

For Female Diseases, Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic is par excellence J. B. COX, St. Genevieve, Mo.

My stand-by remedy. Rev. J. P. WATSON, Troy, Ohio.

It Is An Outrage.

That any one should suffer from Liver trouble, when the remedy is to be had for the asking.

Louisville, Ky., March 16, 1885.—Dr. Harter: Dear Sir—After taking a few bottles of your Iron Tonic, I am entirely cured of Want of Appetite and Indigestion. I heartily recommend it to all suffering from the same complaints. I am very respectfully, MISS HETTIE ALLEN.

A Bit of Information.

It is often charged, and justly, too, that the majority of so-called Patent Medicines or Preparatory Articles are the empiric production of a quack and humbug.

Dr. Harter was not only thoroughly educated in his profession, but a constant student, free thinker, practicing under no code, laboring to relieve suffering humanity and employing any and all means to that end.

Dr. Harter, the originator of Dr. Harter's Celebrated Family Medicines, studied under one of the most successful practitioners of the Southwest, and graduated with distinguished honors at the following Medical Colleges:

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK, in 1845.

CASTLETON MEDICAL COLLEGE, of Castleton, Vt., in 1845.

ACKLEY MEDICAL COLLEGE, Cleveland, Ohio, in 1846.

JEFFERSON MEDICAL COLLEGE, in Philadelphia, in 1851.

CINCINNATI COLLEGE OF MEDICINE AND SURGERY, of Cincinnati, O., in 1856.

BELLEVUE MEDICAL COLLEGE, of New York, in 1866.

Send us your address on a postal card, and receive a sample of DR. HARTER'S LIVER PILLS, free. The only Anti-Constipation Pills in the World. Never gripe, never sicken, or leave the bowels constipated.

THE DR. HARTER MEDICINE COMPANY,
ST. LOUIS, MO,

M. E. Church Directory.

Southwestern Christian Advocate. Office 32 Natchez Street.

LAFAYETTE STREET CHURCH—Rev. Elijah Clarke, pastor. Sunday Services—Prayer meeting, 6 a m; Sunday-school, 9 a m; preaching at 11 a m. 8 p m, and 7 p m; Class-meeting Tuesday night, at 7 o'clock; preaching Thursday night at 7 o'clock; Communion first Sunday evening of each month, at 7 30.

FIRST GERMAN M. E. CHURCH—Corner St. Andrew and Franklin street; Rev J. J. Kiesle pastor Preaching at 10:30 a m, and Sunday-school at 9 a m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.

SECOND GERMAN M. E CHURCH—Eighth street; Rev Charles Shuler, pastor Services Sabbath at 10:30 a m, and 7 p m; Sunday-school at 9 a m; Prayer meeting Wednesday evenings at 7:30.

ST. MATTHEW M. E CHURCH—On Varnet Street, Algiers, La. Sunday services: Preaching at 11 and 3; 7:30 at night. Prayer meeting 6:30 in the morning. Class meeting Wednesday, 7:30 p m Sunday-school at 1:30. R. C. Berrow, Pastor

UNION CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Services: Sunday, preaching 11 a m, 3p.m 7½ p.m. Sunday school at 1 o'clock. Class meeting Tuesday nights. Preaching Thursday nights. Prayer-meetings Friday nights. Stephen Duncan, Pastor, 42 Robinson street.

WESLEY CHAPEL—Liberty street, between Perdido and Poydras; Rev Marcus Dale, Pastor. Services: Sunday 6 a m; prayer meeting, preaching 11 a m; 3 and 7:0 p m; General Class and Love Feast monthly; preaching Thursday eve, 7:30; Class, Monday eve.

SIXTH STREET CHURCH—Between Laurel and Annunciation; Rev. E. Lyon, pastor. Services—Public worship Sabbath 11 a m., 3 and 7 p m Communion every second Sunday at 7 p. m. Sunday-school 1 p m. Class-meeting Monday evening Preaching Wednesday evening. Prayer-meeting Friday evening. General Class first Monday night in every month. Prayer service at 5:30 a m.

CAMP PARAPET CHURCH—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, Pastor. Sunday services—Prayer-meeting 6 a m, Preaching at 11 a m., 3 and 7 p. m. Sabbath at 1 p m. Class-meetings. Thursday evening

HAVEN CHAPEL—JEFFERSON STREET. Carrollton, corner of Plum street Rev. M O B Mason, Pastor. Services—Public worship at 11 a. m, 3 and 7 p. m. Sunday. Sunday-school 9 a m. Class meeting Monday evening. General Class, second Sunday at 11 a. m, and communion at 7. Preaching Thursday evening.

New Orleans University A. F Hoyt, M. A., Acting President 1428 St Charles Street

First Street Church—Rev. John Qualls, Pastor. Church corner First and Dryades Streets. Services: Sabbath—5 a m, prayer meeting; 11, 3 and 7, public worship; communion monthly, on the first Sunday. Sunday-school 1 p m. Class meeting Monday evening General class every fourth Monday evening. Preaching Thursday nights.

MOUNT ZION M. E. CHURCH—James W Hudson, pastor Regular services 11 a m, 3 and 7 p m; prayer meeting Monday eve at 4 p m. Tuesday night class meeting. Preaching Wednesday eve at 7 p m. and sacrament the third Sabbath of every month.

THOMSON CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Poet street, near Rampart. Sunday Services: preaching at 11, 3 and 7 Prayer meeting 6 in morning. Class meeting 3:30. Z. T. Gayden, pastor.

AMES M. E. CHURCH—Rev. Thomas Stalker, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m Sunday-school at 9 45 a, m. Prayer meeting, Thursday evening at 7 30.

PLEASANT PLAIN CHURCH—Perdido, bet. Johnson and Prieur streets, Rev. W. P Forest, pastor. Services Sabbath: Preaching at 11 a m, 3:30 and 7:30 p m. Sunday-school at 9 a m; early prayer meeting at 5:30 a m: class at 5:30 p m; preaching Wednesday and prayer meeting Monday evenings. Sacrament every second Sabbath. Lovefeast quarterly.

General Church Directory.

CENTRAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Also College Church of Straight University A. M. A., corner Gasquet and Liberty streets, one block off Canal street. Services—Preaching Sundays at 11 a m and 7 p m; Sabbath-school 12:15 p m. Prayer meetings Tuesdays and Friday evenings at 7:30 p m. This church has a fine choir under good leadership and is centrally located. Northern visitors and all true friends of the colored people are cordially invited to attend its services. Rev. G. W. Bothwell, M. A, pastor.

OUR CLUBBING LIST,

—1885—

Persons sending us cash with their orders can have the SOUTHWESTERN one year together with any one of the following publications, for amount opposite each as named:

Littell's Living Age	$9 00
Outing	3 00
Wide Awake	4 25
Babyland	1 75
Our Little Men and Women	2 25
The Pansy	2 00
Our Little Ones and the Nursery	2 25
American Agriculturist	2 50
Southern Cultivator	2 75
Popular Science Monthly	6 00
New York Medical Journal	6 00
Illustrated Christian Weekly	3 25
Harper's Magazine	5 00
Harper's Weekly	5 00
Harper's Bazar	5 00
Harper's Young People	3 00
American Reformer	2 00
Weekly Inter-Ocean	2 25
Babyhood	2 75

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
37 Natchez street, New Orleans.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS,

17 & 29 West 2d St., New York.

Have now ready

The History of the Negro Race in America.

From 1619 to 1881. Negroes as Slaves, as Soldiers and as Citizens,

Together with a preliminary consideration of the Unity of the Human Family, and Historical Sketch of Africa, and an account of the Negro Government of Sierra Leone and Liberia. By George W. Williams, first colored member of the Ohio Legislature, and late Judge Advocate of the G. A. R., of Ohio.

Popular Edition; two volumes in one, large octavo, with portrait on steel of the author, $4

"It is a prodigious compilation, so comprehensive that every student will welcome it, and so just in its whole scope that criticism of special points can not impair it.—World, New York

"It ought to be read by every colored man in America."—Journal, Indianapolis.

"He has accomplished a noble service for his race."—Zion's Herald, Boston.

☞ This book can be ordered through the office of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, New Orleans, La.

CORPULENCY Recipe and notice how to harmlessly, effectually and rapidly cure obesity without semi starvation dietary, etc. European Mail, Oct 24th, says: "Its effect is not merely to reduce the amount of fat, but by affecting the source of obesity to induce a radical cure of the disease. Mr. R. makes no charge whatever; any person, rich or poor, can obtain his work gratis, by sending 6 cts. to cover postage to F. C. RUSSELL, Esq., Wohurn House, Store street Bedford Sq., London, Eng. may21-13t

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.

Bells For Churches, Schools, Etc.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
24 inches	165 lbs	300 lbs	$135 00
26 "	200 lbs	350 lbs	45 00
28 "	225 lbs	375 lbs	55 00
32 "	375 lbs	550 lbs	85 00
36 "	535 lbs	750 lbs	100 00
40 "	800 lbs	1100 lbs	145 00
44 "	1060 lbs	1400 lbs	180 00
48 "	1345 lbs	1800 lbs	230 00
51 "	2050 lbs	2800 lbs	350 00

Bells for Schools, Farms, Etc.
without mountings.

18 inches	75 lbs	$12 00
20 inches	100 lbs	18 00
24 inches	165 lbs	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named, which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.

The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.

On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 37 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.
Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.
VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.
mar5-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.
The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience Largest Trade.
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.
Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,
TROY, N. Y.
nov29-1yr

McShane Bell Foundry

Manufacture those celebrated Bells and Chimes for Churches, Tower Clocks, &c., &c. Price-list and circulars sent free. Address
HENRY McSHANE & CO.
oct23 1y Baltimore, Md.

Baltimore Church Bells
Since 1844 celebrated for Superiority over others, are made only of Purest Bell Metal, (Copper and Tin,) Rotary Mountings, warranted satisfactory. For Prices, Circulars, &c., address BALTIMORE BELL FOUNDRY, J. REGESTER & SONS, Baltimore, Md.
apr30 26teow

An Offer Never Equaled!

THE WEEKLY EDITION
—OF—
The TIMES DEMOCRAT,
NEW ORLEANS,
—AND—
THE WEEKLY EDITION
—OF—
The NEW YORK WORLD,
NEW YORK,
FOR ONE YEAR
Only $2.20.
OR THE TWO WEEKLIES
—AND A—
Waterbury Watch and Chain
FOR $4.20.

Either Weekly alone is worth more than the price asked for both, as they contain reviews of the news of the world, a vast amount of select literary matter, exhaustive commercial reports, in fact everything is embraced that tends to make a

First-class Family Newspaper.

The subscription price to Weekly Times-Democrat alone is $1 50 for 12 months; 75 cents for 6 months, or 50 cents for 3 months.

Every family in New Orleans not taking the Daily TIMES-DEMOCRAT should keep posted in the

NEWS OF THE WORLD,

by taking these Weeklies, and as an inducement we offer a good serviceable watch for the small addition mentioned above.

The WATERBURY WATCH is a stemwinder, and will run twenty-eight hours. The case is NICKLE-SILVER and will always remain as bright as a new silver dollar. The Watch has a heavy beveled edge and a crystal face. The works of the Watch are made with the finest automatic machinery. Every watch is tested in varying positions, and is perfect before leaving the factory. Each Watch is put up in a handsome new improved SATIN-LINED CASE, for safe transportation through the mails

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Taken at the office of THE TIMES-DEMOCRAT, or by mail, when accompanied by subscription price.

For the Cheapest and Choicest Family & Fancy Groceries,
SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE Hams, Bacon, &c., &c.,
—GO TO—
William A. Sullivan's GROCERY
Corner of
Washington and Hampson Streets
CARROLLTON, LA.
nov23-1y

A PRIZE Send six cents for postage, and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help you to more money right away than anything else in this world. All, of either sex, succeed from first hour. The broad road to fortune opens before the workers, absolutely sure. At once address, TRUE & Co., Augusta, Maine. feb19-26t

PHILLIP SAAL,

Dealer in Fancy and Staple Groceries. A Specialty of Butter, Tea Coffee, and Fine Family Groceries.

503 Dryades Street, (near St. Andrew st.,) New Orleans, La.
jan1-1y

Crescent Insurance Company.

Incorporated as a Mutual Company in 1849. Reorganized as a Stock Company in 1880.

CASH CAPITAL.....$600,000.

Has paid paid nearly TEN MILLIONS for losses since 1849. Annual and Term Policies issued on Desirable Fire Business.

W. R. Lyman, President, Chas. H. Dolson, Vice President, Chas. E. Rice, Sec'y

TRUSTEES.

Joseph Bowling,	Sam H. Kenedy,	Geo W Scott,	Alfred Moulton,	W. B. Conger
W. R. Lyman,	C. Morichaud,	Chas. H. Dolson,	John Calder,	A. H. Steward
S. C. Coulon,	Harry L. Flash,	Wm. A. Peters,	J. J. Reiss,	Louis Prados
Lucien Delery,	Charles Newman,	N. D. Wallace,	Sigmund Katz,	M. Gillis
R. F. W. Buchman,	C. K. David,	Wm. Harper,	A. Rossaffd,	John D. Fiske
Chas E. Rice,	Joseph Kohn,	Chas. M. Whitney,	James T. Rodd.

☞ See our Agents throughout the South. oct9 1y

New Orleans University,

—UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE—

Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

DEPARTMENTS:
COLLEGIATE, PREPARATORY,
BELLES LETTRES, NORMAL,
MODEL, POST-GRADUATE

OPEN SEPTEMBER 16, 1885.

Medical Department Opens October 1, 1885.

Young ladies and gentlemen thinking of attending school should write at once for catalogue and further information.

Address REV. A. F. HOYT,
1428 St. Charles Street, New Orleans, La.
aug6 3m

Central Tennessee College,

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE. Chartered in 1866.

Under the Auspices of the Freedmen's Aid Society of the M. E. Church.

—COURSES OF STUDY—

ENGLISH, NORMAL, BUSINESS, ACADEMIC, COLLEGIATE, THEOLOGICAL, MEDICAL, LAW AND INDUSTRIAL. Pharmacy and Dentistry to be added soon.

More than twenty teachers connected with all the departments, and over four hundred students enrolled last year. Six buildings, conveniently and pleasantly located. The private rooms of the young men and young women are in different buildings.

Any person of good moral character may be admitted as a student, at any time, but it is better to enter at the beginning of the school year. Theological students are granted reduced rates.

Special attention given to training teachers.

The Session Begins Monday, September 7, 1885.
Medical and Law Departments, October 5, 1885.

EXPENSES—Tuition $1 per month, four weeks. Tuition, board, room, fuel, etc., school month, $8 50 to $10. Tuition for the session in Medical and Law Departments, $30.

For further information, circulars or catalogues, address.
j 15 REV. J. BRADEN, Nashville, Tenn.

BETHEL Classical & Military ACADEMY

In a country noted for beauty and health. Course of study, 10 branches, surpassed in thoroughness by no academy in the South. Medical and Law Courses preparatory to the University of Va. Board, tuition, medical attendance, half session, $95. No extras. Address Maj. A. G. Smith, Bethel Academy P. O., Fauquier Co., Va

COLUMBIA ATHENÆUM A School for Young Ladies.

COLUMBIA, TENN. Healthy location; handsome grounds (20 acres); and Equipment; 17 teachers; thorough and complete course of instruction. Best advantages in Music, Elocution, Painting, etc. No sectarianism. 34th annual session begins Monday, September 7th, 1885. Prices reasonable. Illustrated Catalogue Free.
jul 30-4t

KENTUCKY MILITARY INSTITUTE.

At Farmdale P. O., Franklin Co., Ky., six miles from Frankfort. Has the most healthful and beautiful location in the State. Lit by gas as well as heated by steam. A full and able College Faculty. Expenses as moderate as any first-class college. Forty-first year begins September 7th. For catalogues, etc., address as above.
COL. R. D. ALLEN, Supt.
jy23-6t

GEORGE LANDRY,

Undertaker.

292.....Rampart Street.....292
(Between Hospital and Barracks streets)
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Entrepreneur de Pompes Funebres.
All orders promptly and carefully executed a moderate prices.
sept25-tf A. LABAT, Ass't Manager.

J. T. Newman, M. D.,
—PRACTICING—
Surgeon and Physician.
315 Felicity Street,
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
☞ Makes a specialty of treating colored people. jan15-1y

E. W. Scheffel,
GENERAL
Book-Binder,
Ruler and Blank Book Manufacturer.
37 Natchez St., [up-stairs] New Orleans.
Magazines, Music, Periodicals and Old Books re-bound, Plain or Ornamental. jan22

SITUATIONS To subscribers Circulars free. Home Study —60 Profes ors Corr. University. 84 LaSalle St. Chicago Ill jy30-4 now

Bibles at 1-2 and Old Testaments at less than 1-3 the prices of the English editions, and equal to the English in type, paper, printing and accuracy. First agent sent out reports an order at every call for two weeks. Rare chance for agents to make money. Send $150 for outfit. TERMS VERY LIBERAL. The Henry Bill Pub. Co., Norwich, Conn.
may14-tf

OPIUM and WHISKY HABITS cured at home without pain. Book of particulars sent Free. B. M. WOOLLEY, M. D., Atlanta, Ga.
apr9-tf

20 YEARS OF CONGRESS. 1,000,000 JAMES G. BLAINE

Copies will soon be sold. The only history of our Government from 1861 to 1881. Hon. John S. Wise, M. C. from Virginia, says: "Whoever takes it up, no matter whether he be Mr. Blaine's friend or enemy, will never put it down until he has read the whole." $200 per month to good responsible agents. Apply at once, The Henry Bill Publishing Company, Norwich, Conn. dec30 52t

"A THING OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER." FOR PRESERVING, RESTORING AND Beautifying the Complexion from Infancy to Age, Tan, Freckles, Pimples, Sallowness, Blotches, &c. OPINIONS OF NOTED LADIES. LOTTA—It is the best preparation for the face that I ever used. I now use no other. CLARA LOUISE KELLOGG—It gives me pleasure to add my name to the list of those who recommend your "Liquid Pearl," and express the satisfaction it afforded me. The LIQUID PEARL has been received by the ladies of all countries with the highest marks of appreciation. Only 50 cents a bottle. For sale by all druggists & Perfumers. CHAMPLIN & CO., Props., Boston, Mass.
ecd28-2

AGENTS WANTED for Twenty Years of Congress, 1861—1881, by James G. Blaine. Hon. J. S. Wise of Va. says: "Whoever takes it up, no matter whether he be Mr. Blaine's friend or enemy, will never put it down until he has read the whole." Agents make from $200 to $1000 per month. Address, The Henry Bill Pub. Co., Norwich, Conn.
apr9-tf

Pianos & Organs
Of all makes direct to customers from headquarters, at wholesale prices. All goods guaranteed. No money asked till Instruments are received and fully tested. Write us before purchasing. An investment of 2 cents may save you from $50.00 to $100.00. Address
JESSE FRENCH, Nashville, Tenn.,
Wholesale Distributing Dep't for the South.
feb19-1y

CATARRH

Send 50 cts. and symptoms for Trial Treatment, to last 20 days, by mail post-paid. Which will convince the most incredulous that Dr. Brockington positively and permanently cures at small expense, by a pleasant treatment, the worst cases of Catarrh, though the bones of the nose have become affected, causing Loss of Smell, Offensive Breath, Sore Throat, Deafness, Hay Fever, Cough, Bronchitis and Incipient Consumption. No Snuffs, washes, douches, inhalers or atomizers used. Over 7000 cases cured. The best internal treatment ever discovered for this dangerous disease. Address DR. C. N. BROCKINGTON, [Mention this paper.] 309 FOURTH AVENUE, LOUISVILLE, KY.
oct2 1yr

It is THE GREAT SOUTHERN REMEDY for the bowels. It is one of the most pleasant and efficacious remedies for all summer complaints. At a season when violent attacks of the bowels are so frequent, some speedy relief should be at hand. The wearied mother, losing sleep in nursing the little one teething, should use this medicine. 50 cts. a bottle. Send 2c. stamp to Walter A. Taylor, Atlanta, Ga., for Riddle Book.

Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein will cure Coughs, Croup and Consumption. Price, 25c. and $1 a bottle.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO. aug6-1y 106 Wall Street, N. Y.

Sunday-School and Children.

THIRD QUARTER STUDIES IN THE KINGS. B. C. 907. Lesson VII. Aug. 16. The Prophet of the Lord. 1 Kings 18, 30-46. Golden Text—The Lord he is the God. The Lord, he is the God. 1 Kings, 18, 39.

OUTLINE.

1 Preparation—v. 30-35.

2 The prayer—v. 36-37.

3 The answer—v. 38-46.

QUESTIONS FOR HOME STUDY.

After the prophets of Baal had failed to make their god hear what did Elijah say to the people?

"Come near to me."

When they came what did Elijah do?

He took 12 stones and repaired an altar of the Lord that was broken down.

Then what did he do?

He dug a trench around the altar, piled wood upon it, and placed the bullock on the wood.

What did he tell the people to do three times?

Fill four barrels with water and pour it upon the offering, filling the trench.

How could they get 12 barrels of water if it had not rained for more than three years?

When they had obeyed what did Elijah do?

He prayed to his God.

Did Elijah's God answer?

Yes; the fire from heaven fell, it burned the offering, the wood, the stones, the dust and the water in the trench.

When the people saw it what did they say?

(Repeat the Golden Text.

What did Elijah do next?

He told the people to seize all the prophets, not to let one escape, and take them to the brook Kishon at the foot of the mountain.

What for?

That they might be put to death for deceiving the people.

After the prophets had been destroyed, what did Elijah tell King Ahab?

To get ready to go home for a great rain was coming.

Was there any sign of rain?

No, but Elijah went to the top of Mt. Carmel, bowed his head to the ground and prayed.

After praying what did he say to his servant?

Go up and look toward the sea

What answer did the servant bring?

I see nothing.

How many times did Elijah pray and send his servant to look?

Seven times.

What did the servant answer the seventh time?

I see a little cloud, no larger than a man's hand, rising out of the sea.

What command did Elijah give?

Go and tell King Ahab to get in his chariot and ride home or the rain will stop him.

How about that little cloud the servant saw?

It grew larger and larger until the heavens were black, and then came a great rain.

What did Elijah do?

He gathered up his long robes and ran before the chariot to Jezreel's palace.

WORK WITH LITTLE PEOPLE.

Prayer—O, God, we thy little children believe in Thee; help us to love Thee; help us to praise Thee; help us all our lives to believe that Thou, and Thou only, art the Lord God." "Our Father who art in heaven."

Doctrinal Suggestion—The power of prayer.

How to be Beautiful.

Ladies, you can be sure of this: that you cannot have rosy cheeks and a clear complexion unless you are in good health. Disease always spoils beauty. Parker's Tonic purifies the blood, invigorates the organs, drives all bad humors out of the system, and makes the palest face attractive. Tell your husbands.

Obituary.

Sister Rosa Brooks died Jan. 29th, and her funeral was attended by our worthy pastor, J M. Nevils. Bro. Richard Davis, a worthy member of Mt. Pleasant church died March 6. Sister Jennie Harrison died May 30, aged 56 years. She leaves sisters, sons and daughters to mourn her loss. J. FULLILOVE.

Durant, Miss., June 6.

Miss Jennie Paris, a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Melvin, Ala., died July 13th, and was buried on the 14th inst., in the 18th year of her age. Just before death she said to her mother and brother, "will you come and go, the table is set." She rests in peace.

M. E. JOHNSON.

Sister Sally Hudson, aged 20 years, was born Aug. 24, 1865, died May 8, 1885. She was a member of the church. Sister Georgianna Matthews died May 28, 1885 She leaves a husband and three little children to to mourn her loss. Their loss is heaven's gain. James Sisco, aged about 21 years, died April 27. He was beloved by all. He leaves a wife and child to mourn his loss. C. W. WALTON.

Georgetown, Tenn.

Marriages.

At the residence of the bride's mother, twelve miles west of Hernando, Miss., June 30, 1885, Mr. David Bell to Miss Lillie Sanders; Rev. J. M. Nevils officiating. Mr. Bell owns a store, shop and residence here. Mrs. Bell is a school teacher. He is a member of the M. E. Church and she a member of the Baptist Church. We hope they will live long and happily together. J. M. N.

In a Washington letter to the New York Freeman it is stated that on Aug. 26, in Philadelphia, Miss M. P. Bozeman, of Washington, will be married to Mr. A. Pierre Albert, of New Orleans.

When everything else fails, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures.

Conference Notices.

Plan of Episcopal Visitation.—1885. Fall Conferences.

[ALPHABETICAL.]

CONFERENCE.	PLACE.	TIME.	BISHOP.
Alabama	Edwardsville, Ala.	Nov 26	Mallalieu
Arizona Miss.	Tucson, Arizona.	Sept 17.	Fowler
Austin	Denton, Texas.	Dec 10.	Foster
Black Hills Miss	Rapid City, Dak.	Aug. 20.	Ninde
Blue Ridge	Gastonia, N. C.	Oct 1.	Mallalieu
Bulgaria Miss.	Rustchuk, Bul.	Oct. 1.	——
California	Stockton, Cal.	Sept. 3.	Fowler
C'l Alabama	Mobile, Ala.	Dec. 10	Mallalieu
C'l China mis'n	Kiukiang, China.	Oc. 14	——
C'l German	Columbus, Ohio.	Sept 10.	Harris
C'l Illinois	Fairbory, Ill.	Sept. 24.	Warren
C'l New York	Syracuse, N. Y.	Oct 8.	Merrill
C'l Ohio	Fostoria, O.	Sept 17.	Harris
C'l Tennessee	Tullahoma, Tenn.	Oct 15	Mallalieu
Chicago German	Maniowoo, Wis.	Sept 17	Bowman
Cincinnati	Cincinnati, O.	Sept 3.	Harris
Colorado	Pueblo Col.	Aug 20	Andrews
Dakota miss'n	Blunt Dak.	Oct 8.	Foss
Des Moines	Des Moines, Ia.	Sept 17.	Foss
Detroit	Pontiac, Mich.	Sept 10	Warren
East Ohio	Barnesville, O.	Sept 17.	Foster
East Tennessee	Knoxville, Tenn.	Oct 22	Horst
Erie	Sharon, Pa.	Sept 10.	Merrill
Foochow	Foochow, China.	Nov 9.	——
Genesee	Lima, N Y.	Oct 1.	Hurst
Georgia	Ellijay, Ga.	Nov 19	Mallalieu
Holston	Johnson City, Tenn	Oct 15.	Hurst
Illinois	Rushville, Ill.	Sept 17.	Ninde
Indiana	Spencer, Ind.	Aug 27.	Harris
Iowa	Mt. Pleasant, Ia.	Sept 10.	Ninde
Japan	Tokio, Japan.	Aug 20.	——
Kentucky	Covington, Ky.	Oct 1.	Harris
Michigan	Grand Rapids, Mich.	Sept 17.	Warren
Minnesota	Rochester, Minn.	Oct 1.	Andrews
Nebraska	Seward, Neb.	Sept 17	Andrews
Nevada mis'n	Bishop's Ck, Nev.	Aug 20.	Fowler
N Mexico mis'n	Santa Fe, N. Mex.	Oct 1.	Fowler
" "	Spanish Peralta New Mex.	Sept 24.	Fowler
N China mis'n	Peking, China.	Sept 24.	——
N. Dakota "	Wahpeton, Dak.	Sept 17.	Walden
N Nebraska	Ponca, Neb.	Sept 3.	Andrews
N Ohio	Berea Ohio.	Sept 3.	Merrill
N-w German	LeSeur, Minn.	Sept 24	Andrews
N-w Indiana	Valparaiso, Ind.	Sept 3.	Foss
N w Iowa	Storm Lake, Ia.	Sept 24.	Foss
N-w Swedish	Dayton Ia	Sept 3.	Bowman
Norw'n Danish	Cambridge, Wis.	Sept 10	Bowman
Ohio	De aware, Ohio.	Sept 24.	Foster
Oregon	Roseburg, reg.	Aug 27.	Walden
Pittsburgh	Allegheny City, Pa.	Sept 17.	Merrill
Puget Sound	Tacoma, W. T.	Aug 13.	Walden
Rock River	Elgin, Ill.	Oct 8.	Fowler
St Lous Germ't	Louis, Mo.	Sept 10	Foss
Savannah	Savannah, Ga.	Dec 3	Mallalieu
S. E. Indiana	Brookville, Ind.	Sept 24.	Harris
S. California	Santa Barbara, Cal	Sept 10.	Fowler
S. German	San Antonio, Tex.	Nov 19.	Foster
S. Illinois	Edwardsville, Ill.	Sept 24.	Ninde
Tennessee	Gallatin, Tenn.	Oct 22	Mallalieu
Texas	Houston, Tex.	Nov 26.	Foster
Upper Iowa	Toledo, Ia.	Oct 1.	Warren
West German	Claytonia, Neb.	Sept 3.	Ninde
W Neb. mis'n	Kearney, Neb.	Sept 10	Andrews
West Texas	Austin, Tex	Dec 3.	Foster
West Virginia	Charleston, W. Va.	Sept 24.	Merrill
W. Wisconsin	Dodgeville, Wis.	Sept 24	Bowman
Wisconsin	Waukesha, Wis.	Oct 1.	Bowman

By order of the Board of Bishops.

WM. L. HARRIS, Secretary.

St. Louis, Mo., May 18, 1885.

Programme

The following is the programme of literary exercises of the Jackson District, Mississippi Conference, to convene at Bolton, Miss., Aug. 20, 1885:

Opening sermon—Rev. Aaron Davis.

To preach the Missionary Sermon—Rev. J M Shumpert.

Church Extension—J I Garrett.

Freedmen's Aid—I N Davis.

Education—A McBeth.

Temperance—L L Shumpert.

The SOUTHWESTERN ADVOCATE—Rev E Collins.

Visiting from house to house—Rev R M. Alpin.

The Sunday-school—P H Davis.

Stewards duty—Rev A Handy.

Class leaders duty—E Graves.

The best plan to raise the million for missions—Rev Simpson Jossel.

We will expect all the brethren to come prepared. It will be the largest conference held for some time. We hope to see Bro. Marshall W. Taylor here.

A. DAVIS,
P. DAVIS,
J. J. GARRETT.

Van Buren District.

Third Round.

Fayetteville	Sept.	12-13
Fayetteville circuit	"	19-20
Morrilton	"	24-25
Conway	"	26-27
Batesville	Oct.	3- 4
Newport and Jacksonport	"	10-11
Sweet Home	"	17-18
Little Rock circuit	"	24-25
Argenta	Oct. 31, Nov.	1-
Russellville circuit	"	3
Alma	"	7- 8
Van Buren	"	14-15
Fort Smith	"	15 16

Brethren, please push our collections, for in five months more our annual conference will meet again in Pine Bluff, Ark. W. R. R DUNCAN, P. E.

Chattanooga District—East Tennessee Conference.

Programme of literary and religious exercises for the Chattanooga District, East Tennessee Conference to convene at Rockwood, Roane county, Tenn., Aug, 20, at 9 o'clock a. m:

Opening sermon to be preached by Rev. C W Walton.

Pastoral visiting—Rev John T Henry.

The Character and work of the local preacher—Jas Yarnell.

What is the effect of an educated ministry—Rev A J Fletcher.

Relation of the Church to the temperance movement—Rev G W Cowan.

The duty of the district steward—

The duty of a class leader.

Can we raise our full assessment for missions—Rev L M Moores.

Church Extension work in the hands of the Chattanooga District—Rev P P Brooks.

Punctuality of ministers—Rev Alexander Roach.

The work of the Freedmen's Aid Society in the M. E. Church—Rev B H Johnson.

The fall of man—Rev Robt Masoner.

A call and preparation for the ministry—Rev John Yellender.

The duty of the pastor to the Sunday-school—John Crawford.

Family worship—S W Barnett.

The duty of our exhorter—Rev Richard Gallagher.

The duty of the superintendent to the Sunday-school—Wm Wilson.

The annual missionary sermon before the district conference—Rev P P Brooks.

How to take the benevolent collection—Rev B H Johnson.

Review of the work of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the South since 1865—Revs L M Moores and A J Fletcher.

The Sunday-school interest will be looked after and properly discussed during the conference. Let all the pastors arrange the appointments of the local preachers and exhorters so as to have them acted upon by the conference.

E. PROVINE, P. E.

L. M. MOORES, Sec'y.

San Antonio District.

Fourth Round.

Hondo	Sept.	12-13
Pleasanton, at Rossville	"	12-13
Lavernia and Mt. Pleasant	"	16 20
San Antonio	"	26 27
Floresville	Oct.	3 4
Goliad	"	10-11
Victoria	"	17 18
Victoria circuit	"	17 18
Cuero and Mission Valley	"	24 25
Morales	Oct 31, Nov.	1
Hallettsville	"	7- 8
Gonzales	"	14-15
Mt. Vernon	"	14 15
Belmont	"	21-22
Seguin	"	28-29
San Marcus	"	29 30

G. W. RICHARDSON, P. E.

Houston District—Texas Conference.

Fourth Round.

Trinity, Honston	Aog.	30-31
St. James, Honston	Aug. 30, Sept	1
Taberncle, Galveston	"	5- 6
St. Pauls, Galveston	"	6- 7
Mt Vernon, Honston	"	11 13
Sloan Street, "	"	13-14
Harrisburg	"	19 20
Spring	"	26-27
Richmond	Oct.	4- 6
Pittsville	"	10-11
Columbia	"	17-18
Brazoria	"	24-25
Oak Hill	Nov.	1- 2
Hockley	"	8- 9

District conference will convene at Richmond, Oct. 1, 1885.

F. C. MOORE, P. E.

Navasota District—Texas Conference.

Fourth Round.

San Felipe	Aug.	15-16
Patterson	"	22-23
Hempstead	"	29 30
Courtney	Sept.	2- 3
Plantersville	"	5- 6
Franklin	"	9-10
Hearne	"	12-13
Bryan	"	15 16
Bryan circuit	"	19 20
Caldwell	"	23 24
Millican	"	26 27
Navasota	Oct.	3 4
Anderson	"	10-11
Prairie Plain	"	17-18
Brenham	"	24-25
Brenham ct	Oct. 31, Nov.	1
Bellville	"	7- 8

The Navasota District Conference will convene at Anderson, on Oct 7, at 9 p. m. I hope all the preachers will be there this time, as they all failed before.

W. B PULLAM, P. E.

Programme

For the District Conference of the Huntsville district, to be held at Scottsboro, Ala., Aug. 13, 1885:

To preach the missionary sermon—J J Holland.

Written sermons—Matt. xxii, 3, Robert Carter. Luke xii, 35, John Lewis. 1 John v, 4, N Shakleford.

The work of the M. E. Church and Freedmen's Aid Society—A W McKlaney.

How to care for the sick and bury the dead—Dr. E D Berus.

Preacher's conduct—A Nichols.

Should our own literature be used and exclude all other literature from our Sunday-schools—N S Sterling.

What is the work of an exhorter in the M. E. Church—Frank Withers.

Sunday-schools—J C Sammons.

Church Extension—R McKinley.

Home missions—L Hyter.

Education—J J Holland.

The need of an educated ministry—M M McKinney.

Local preachers will please select their own subjects and come prepared.

M. M. McKINNEY, Sec'y.

Okolona District—Mississippi Conference.

Third Round.

Caledonia	Aug.	22-23
Columbus charge	"	22-23
Columbus circuit	"	20
Aberdeen	"	29 30
Athens	"	29 30
West Point	Sept.	1
Aberdeen ct	"	2
Aberdeen mission	"	3
Okolona	"	5- 6
Okolona ct	"	5- 6
Buena Vista	"	7
Union Grove	"	9
West Point ct	"	10
Tupelo	"	12 13
Pontotoc	"	15
New Albany	"	17
Ripley	"	19 20
Corinth	"	26-27
Corinth ct	"	26-27
Booneville	"	28
Hooston	"	30
Tampico	Oct.	3- 4
Starkville	"	3- 4
Starkville ct	"	5
Sturges	"	6
Webster	"	8
Smithville	"	10-11

D. A. WILLIAMS, P. E.

Gulf District—Mississippi Conference.

Third Round.

Crystal Springs	Aug.	1- 2
New Hope	"	8- 9
Union Church	"	12-13
Fayette and Fayette circuit	"	15-16
Hamburg and Meadville	"	18-19
Liberty	"	22 23
Spring Chapel	"	27 28
Hattesburg and Purvis	"	29 30
Pass Christian	Aug. 31, Sept.	1-
Vernal	"	5- 6
Pascagoula	"	8- 9
Handsboro and Ocean Springs	"	12 13
Brookhaven and Hazlehurst	"	19-20
Summit and Magnolia	"	26 27
Chira Grove	Oct.	3- 4
George town	"	10 11

W McDONALD, P. E.

Notice.

Camp meeting opens on July 26 h and continues until August 14, half a mile north of Hempstead, Texas, at a beautiful place with a well of water which is capable of supplying water to thousands of people. Preachers of all denominations are invited. Come one, come all.

E JEFFERSON.

LaTeche District—Louisiana Conference.

Third Round.

Hubertville (dedication)	Aug 6	9-Sept 24
Ville Platte	Aug.	20-13
Eola	"	22-23
Cheneyville	"	23-24
Booneville	"	29-30
Bunkie (dedication)	"	27 30
Evergreen	"	27
Birdtown	"	26
Stuart Chapel	"	31
Spring Creek	Sept.	1
LeCompte	"	2
Alexandria	"	4- 6
Pineville	"	5- 6
Avoca	"	7
Waxla	"	9
Opelousas	"	12-13
Washington	"	13-14
Lafayette, dedication	"	17-20
St. Martinsville	"	20-21
Cade	"	22
Grencoe	"	25-27
Jeanerette	"	27-28
St. Peter	"	29
Sorrell, dedication	Oct.	1- 4

A. E. P. ALBERT, P. E.

Programme

Of the Jackson District, Mississippi Conference:

Introductory sermon, Aug. 20—A Davis.

Methodism, its doctrines and usage—J I Garrett.

Our work in the South—I W Davis.

Temperance, how to promote it—J B Baldwin.

Sunday-schools and how to conduct them—P H Davis.

Holiness and sanctification—L L Shumpert.

What constitutes pastoral success—Henry Henderson.

The benevolent collections—J M Shumpert.

Do benevolent and other societies injure the Church—A McBeth.

How to succeed in revivals—Simpson Jossel.

Evidences of conversion—A Handy.

Baptism, mode and subjects—E Graves.

Freedmen's Aid Society and Rust University—R McAlgin.

Duty of Class leaders—B Stewart.

Stewards and their duty—C Stewart.

The other ministers may select their own subjects, and let all the members, local preachers, exhorters, class-leaders and Sunday-school superintendents be present at the opening of the session, on August 20, 1885, at Bolton.

J. M. SHUMPERT, P. E.

Looks So Untidy.

Nothing looks more untidy than the presence of scurf and dandruff in the hair and on the clothing. One bottle of Parker's Hair Balsam will heal the scalp and free it from this nuisance. Stops falling of the hair, promotes new growth and makes it soft, glossy and silky. Best of dressing. Deliciously perfumed.

Mrs. Jane Patterson, of Ringgold, Idaho, recently died from a rattlesnake bite received thirty years ago.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. July 16-1y.

WE WANT 1,000 MORE BOOK AGENTS FOR THE PERSONAL HISTORY OF

U. S. GRANT,

Send for PDUIAL TERMS TO AHENTS, or secure agency at once by sending 50 cts. in stamps for outfit. Address

FORSHEE & McMAKIN,
july30-4t Cincinnati, O.

Smith's C. Shortlidge's Media Academy

School Opens Sept. 8th.
Whole Expense, $400.
Quarterly Payments, $100 each.

Admits and classifies young men and boys at any time; fits them for Business, any College, Polytechnic School, for West Point or Annapolis. Advanced classes organized in Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Surveying, Electrical and Civil Engineering, Astronomy, Higher Mathematics, Classics, &c. No examination for admission. Private tutoring and special drill for backward students. Single or double rooms completely furnished. All students board with the Principal. Fixed price covers everything, even books, &c. SMITH'N C. SHORTLIDGE, A. B. and A. M. (Harvard College Graduate), Media, Pa., 13 miles from Philadelphia.

aug13-4.

NEW ORLEANS MARKE

SOUTHWESTERN OFFICE, June 27, 1885.

LEADING STAPLES.

Readers will remember that the quotations given are for round lots, and higher prices must be paid for small orders.

COTTON, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 8¼; Middling 9 15 16; Good Middling, 10 3-16; Middling fair, 11 7-16.

SUGAR, ℔ lb—Yellow clarified, 5¼@5½; White clarified, 5¾@5¾; Common 4¼@4¼; MOLASSES, in bbls, ℔ gallon—Common, 17@22; fair, 23@25; choice, 41@43c.

RICE, Louisiana, ℔ lb—Common, 4¼@4¾ fair, 5@5¼; choice, 5¼@6.

MOSS, ℔ lb—Mixed, 2@2½; gray, 1@2; black, 3@4¼.

GROCERIES.

BUTTER, ℔ lb—Western 20@21.

COFFEE, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 7½; prime, 9¼

CHEESE, ℔ lb—Western factory —@8

CORN MEAL, ℔ bbl—Choice, $3.25.

FLOUR, ℔ bbl.—Fancy, 4.37½; Choice 5.15; Family, $5@——.

LARD, ℔ lb—Choice, 6¾.

SALT, ℔ Sack—Coarse, 70c.; Fine, 90c;.

ESCULENTS—Irish potatoes, ℔ bbl.. $1 00@1 25; sweet potatoes, $2.50@ ℔ bbl. onions, ℔ bbl. $2 25@2.50; apples, ℔ bbl. $3.00@$4.00; cabbages, $2.00@$2.25 per crate; sour kront, $4.50@7 50 per barrel

OILS, ℔ gallon—Coal, in cases, 18@—coal, in bbl. 13@—; linseed, raw, 26; boiled, 63@65; cotton seed, 28@50.

POULTRY AND EGGS.

Louisiana Poultry—Grown chickens 3.00@3.27; young $1.50@$2.00; ducks, $2.00@2.50; geese $4.@$4 50; turkeys $9.@12.

Western Eggs 11@12c per dozen

Louisiana Eggs 12@12½c per dozen.

Feathers—Best live geese feathers 40@55c. ℔ lb. second grades 15@25c.

PROVISIONS.

MESS PORK, ℔ bbl—Choice, $11.12½.

BACON, ℔ lb—Breakfast, 9½; shoulders 6@—; sides, short rib, 6½; sides, long clear, 6¼; hams, sugar-cured, 9@9½.

DRY SALT MEAT, ℔ lb—Clear rib sides, 5.6; clear sides, 5.6; shoulders, 3 7@3 9.

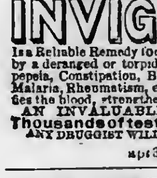
The weaker Sex

are immensely strengthened by the use of Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription," which cures all female derangements, and gives tone to the system. Sold by druggists.

Summer Excursions.

To get the most pleasure, to recoperate or to store up knowledge are questions at this time engrossing the attention of people who wish to make each season yield them something in the way of health, pleasure or knowledge or all of these combined. The C. I. St L. & C. Ry. (Kankakee Line) which is also known as the "Big Four," has placed on sale Summer Excursion tickets to Denver, Pueblo, and Colorado Springs in Colorado, Milwaukee, Madison, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Yellow Stone Park and the many other popular resorts in Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Dakota and Wyoming Territory. Call on or address the nearest Ticket or Passenger Agent, C. I. St L. & Ry for rates, routes, time-folders, illustrated guide books, &c.

W. H. PAGE, Trav. Pass'r. Agent, N. W. cor Fourth and Vine sts., Cincinnati, O.



GRANT K. LOWRY, Trav. Pass. Agent, Wilmore, Ky.

JOHN EGAN, Genl. Pass. and Ticket Agent, Cincinnati, O. aug20

A mixture of lard and snuff is the California remedy for stock This ointment does not need to be applied to the entire animal, but a ring of it two or three inches wide made completely around the neck will have the desired effect.

TO HAVE HEALTH THE LIVER MUST BE IN ORDER.

DR. SANFORD'S

INVIGORATOR

Is a Reliable Remedy for Liver Complaints and ills caused by a deranged or torpid condition of the Liver, as Dyspepsia, Constipation, Biliousness, Jaundice, Headache, Malaria, Rheumatism, etc. It regulates the bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the system, assists digestion. AN INVALUABLE FAMILY MEDICINE. Thousands of testimonials prove its merit. ANY DRUGGIST WILL TELL YOU ITS REPUTATION.

ap30-13t eowhr

OLD ONE HUNDRED.

MRS. TENA BURTON,

100.....Franklin Street.....100

Lodging,

With or Without Board.

mar26-6m

GRATEFUL PRAISE!

A NEW S. S. BOOK. By J. H. Fillmore.

Pure in sentiment, rich in music Sample copy, in boards, 25 cents; per dozen by express, $3 00; per dozen by mail, $4. Specimen pages free.

FILLMORE BROS.
No. 185 Race street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

AGENTS WANTED for the MISSOURI STEAM WASHER!

It will pay any intelligent man or woman seeking profitable employment to write for Illustrated Circular and terms of Agency for this Celebrated Washer, which by reason of its intrinsic merit is meeting with such wonderful success is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

J. WORTH, ST. LOUIS, MO., or CHICAGO, ILL.

july30

The Great Church LIGHT.

FRINK'S Patent Reflectors give the Most Powerful, the Softest, Cheapest and the Best Light known for Churches, Stores, Show Windows, Parlors, Banks, Offices, Picture Galleries, Theatres, Depots, etc. New and elegant designs. Send size of room. Get Circular and estimate. A liberal discount to churches and the trade.

I. P. FRINK, 551 Pearl St., N. Y.

jy15-3t eow

EDUCATIONAL.

COLLEGE OF

Physicans & Surgeons,

BALTIMORE, MD.

This school offers to Medical students unsurpassed clinical and other advantages. Send for catalogue to

Dr. THOS. OPIE, Dean,
jy8.1m 179 N. Howard Street.

ALCORN A. and M. COLLEGE

Has just closed one of the most successful years in its history, and is preparing to begin again on September 17, better supplied with helpful apparatus, books, etc., and otherwise more fully prepared to offer first-class higher educational privileges to the young colored men of the State, to which work it is dedicated than any previous time of its existence. The location is healthful.

Board $6.50 per Month. Tuition Free to all Mississippi Students, and $20 per annum to others

Those interested in education are requested to write for a catalogue to

J. H. BURRUS, M. A. President.
aug13 2m Rodney, Miss.

Albemarle Female Institute,

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA.

Full corps of superior teachers; course of instruction thorough and extensive; location healthful and accessible; scenery beautiful; surroundings most attractive; terms very moderate; order catalogue.

W P DICKINSON, Principal.

jy 15-1m

1855. THE NATIONAL NORMAL. 1885.

UNIVERSITY Entire Expense $2 50 to $3.00 a week. Over 2,500 enrolled.

Over 20 depts maintained. All professions provided for. Legal Diplomas conferred. Over 5,000 Teachers and Bookkeepers trained here have been helped to good situations. Any young Man or Woman can pursue here any study with Less expense of Time & Money than at any other institution in the U. S. Catalogue and full information free. HOLBROOK

Address Pres. ALFRED Lebanon, Warren Co., O.

jy24-4w

Washington and Lee

UNIVERSITY,

LEXINGTON, VA.

Instructions in the usual academic studies and in the professional schools of Law and Engineering. Location healthful; expenses moderate. Session opens Sept. 17 For catalogue, address "Clerk of the Faculty." G. W. C. LEE, President.

jy8 2m

Law School

OF

WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY.

Gen. G. W. C. LEE, President.

Instruction by text books and printed lectures, with courses of lectures on special subjects by eminent jurists. Tuition and fees $80 for session of nine months, beginning Sept. 17. For catalogue and full information address Chas. A. Graves, Prof. of Law, Lexington, Va jy8-2m

Glendale Boy's School

A first-class Home School. New term commences Thursday Sept. 17th, 1885. Send for terms and particulars. E. A. HAIGHT, Principal, Kirkwood, Mo.

jy24-8t

Hoge's Improved Circular Saw Mill.

Write for Circulars to Unexcelled for Accuracy Simplicity and Durability.

With Universal Log Beam Recutting Simultaneous Set Work. & Double Eccentric Friction Feed.

Price from $200 to $1,000.

Engines, Boilers, Shingle Machines, Planers and General Wood Working Machinery.

SALEM IRON WORKS, SALEM, N. C.

aug13-13t

CHRISTIAN

MEN and WOMEN Wanted are AS AGENTS

For the New and Enlarged Edition of the JAMIESON, FAUSSET & BROWN BIBLE COMMENTARY.

4 vols., nearly 4,000 pp. Maps and Illustrations. In cloth, $8; half morocco, $10 per set. Best terms and exclusive territory. Permanent employment given on a term satisfactory trial.

Jerome B. Names & Co.,
154 St. Clair street, Toledo, Ohio.

The work is heartily recommended.

mar5-39t

HEADQUARTERS

—FOR—

Sunday-school Supplies

Consisting of

GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with and without music.

Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, & Bible Dictionaries.

Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books, Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Text Books, etc., etc. Also a large assortment of Books suitable for Libraries or presents to children. PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $2 65 to $12 00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock

W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent

94..... Camp Street, ...94

25tf NEW ORLEANS.

Plantation Melodies

—AND—

REVIVAL HYMNS.

By MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D.

WITH AN INTRODUCTION

By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.

Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.

Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and portrait. Sent, post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents.

Address, PHILLIPS & HUNT
32 Natchez street, New Orleans

Skin Diseases.—"Swayne's Ointment," "Swayne's Ointment" cures Tetter, salt Rheum, Ringworm, Sores, Pimples, Eczema, all Itchy Skin Eruptions, no matter how obstinate or long standing.

nov13-1yeow

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 20---NO 34. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, AUGUST 20, 1885 WHOLE NUMBER 822

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

37 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor

Terms: $1.50 per Year, Cash in Advance; after Three Months, $2; to Pastors, $1. Six Months, $1; Three Months, 50c.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

All matter not of a business nature must be addressed to the editor.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	8 cents,
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	6 "
Six months (26 times)	5 "
One year (52 times)	4 "
Marriage Notices	25 "
Special Notices	8 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

Thrice happy man! thy Maker's care,
Shall keep thee from the fowler's snare,
Satan the fowler who betrays,
Unguarded souls a thousand ways.

Just as a hen protects her brood,
From birds of prey that seek their blood,
Under her feathers, so the Lord
Makes his own arm his people's guard.

A dull, dull mind and a foggy morning are alike impenetrable.

A spokeless wheel and a bookless preacher are equally worthless.

As too many cooks spoil the broth, so does too many hands the price of labor.

An amalgam race, like Jonah's gourd, must live, flourish and perish in a night.

"I like your paper. It is as good as ever. Send the news all over the world."—M. E. JOHNSON.

After a white woman marries a Negro what is she? Is she white or black, or in the estimation of people generally, what is she?

As African slavery was to the Negro so is alcoholic slavery to the youth of this land a great curse, and the cause, if not "the sum of all villainies."

A man who takes the choice bits of food in the presence of strangers at his own table, or behaves rudely to his family when visitors are with them, lacks manhood, manners and genial culture.

To meet a visitor at the wharf or train, and assist him with his burden, especially in young town or city, is an act of civility [illegible] each by reflection [illegible] and reverence [illegible] other.

The duty of each Negro is first [illegible] himself, get some books and find out what is in them.

[illegible] to get a house and lot.

[illegible] to improve the house [illegible]

[illegible] to get another house and lot.

[illegible], to get a farm.

[illegible] to get another farm.

[illegible] to make a deposit of [illegible]

[illegible] in building [illegible] colleges, sup[illegible] benevolence, and [illegible]

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Intermediate State of the Soul.

REV. J. W. HILL.

"Forth to the land of promise bound,
Our desert path we tread;
God's fiery pillar for our guide,
His captain at our head.

"E'en now we faintly trace the hills,
And catch their distant blue,
And the bright city's gleaming spires,
Rise dimly on our view.

"Soon as the desert shall be crossed,
The flood of death passed o'er,
Our pilgrim hosts shall safely land
On Canaan peaceful shore."

By the intermediate state I mean the state of the soul between death and the resurrection. Death is a separation of the soul from the body. The body returns to the earth as it was, and remains there for a time, but is finally raised and restored to far more than its mortal beauty and glory. A reunion will be affected between the body and soul thus changed.

But what is the condition of the soul while the body is mingling with the dust? This is a question which addresses itself with great force to a thoughtful mind. In considering it we have reached the conclusion that after death the soul exists separate from the body, with all its essential attributes, and properties. This is inferred from its spirituality. God is a spirit, and exists without a body; angels in like manner are spirits, and exist without bodies. We suppose the soul of man to possess the same essential properties as far as spirituality is concerned, which are possessed by God and the angels. If they are capable of existing without a connection with matter, the soul is equally capable of such existence. It is stated in the account of the creation, "The Lord God formed man of the dust of the earth, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living soul." It is evident from the account that the body was first formed, and the soul, a distinct thing, was added to the body. Death is a removal of this distinct and separate thing from the body. We suppose it capable, too, of a continued separate existence. The properties of the soul and the body are essentially distinct, the one is the mind, the other is matter, and each is capable of a separate existence apart from the other. With these facts in view it is evident that the soul is able to exist when disembodied. The Scriptures clearly teach such existence. Luke 16, 19, 23.

From this we draw the following inference:

First—The rich and poor man both died and were buried.

Second—The rich man lifted up his eyes in hell and saw Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

Third—A conversation is represented to have taken place between them. Now both Dives and Abraham had been buried; yet we find a conversation progressing between them which could only have been with their souls, for, as we have already shown, their bodies were dead and buried.

It may be urged that the mere souls of men are incapable of such existence, or communication as is attributed to these persons.

Whatever we may say of the mode of communication, it is very evident that it was between living beings while their bodies were dead and had been buried. Luke 23, 42, 43. "He poured salvation in a wretch that languished by his side."

The thief who addressed the prayer to the Savior died that day. The Savior died, and was buried that evening, and did not rise from the grave till the third day. How, then, could the thief have been with him in paradise that day unless by material presence. Ex., 3 and 6.

"God is not the God of the dead but of the living." This is a quotation of the Scripture previously cited, and it embodies the teaching of similar passages of Scripture in the Old Testament. The object of the quotation and the reference is to prove the decline which we are now considering, that notwithstanding Abraham, Isaac and Jacob had died and been gathered to their fathers in the grave, they still lived.

If these patriarchs still lived it is evident that theirs is not corporeal life it was their souls which lived.

Eccles., 12, 7. This text brings to view the origin of both the soul and body, as well as their final destination.

The body is from the earth, and returns to it at death. The spirit is the gift of God, and when absent from the body is present with the Giver.

The point to be observed is, that the spirit is represented as a distinct thing, in no way affected in its essential character by its separation from the body. Acts, 7, 59.

When Stephen was dead devout men buried him, but the Martyr's prayer was his spirit like that of the thief who lived with Christ. 2 Cor., 5, 6, 8.

The doctrine of these passages is to teach that while the people of God are here in the body, they are absent from the Lord, but when separated from the body they will be present with him. To be present with Christ, and to be in the flesh are two distinct states.

The Apostle, therefore, intends to teach that the Lord being capable of existing in a separate state from the body, is a distinct thing from the body. It may be absent from the body, but still live. 1 Thess., 4, 14.

Those who sleep in Jesus are the Saints who have died. The occasion here mentioned, upon which God will bring them with his anointed, is the judgment at the last day.

What will he bring? Not the bodies of his people. These will be raised from the grave, and meet the Lord in the air. What he will bring with him must then be the souls of his people in order to reunite them with their bodies. Rev., 9, 10.

This is, no doubt, highly figurative, and some allowance is to be made in its interpretation on that account, but still it must be wholly divested of meaning, unless it teaches the doctrine which we are considering. But that the souls of those who had been slain should be seen and heard, must they not have had a living existence? The import of the consideration, and the Scriptures which have been presented, are that in the intermediate state the soul may exist, and does exist separate from all the essential attributes and powers of the body, since it dies, while the soul still lives.

I conclude, therefore, that at death that believers and all those fitted for heaven are immediately transferred to paradise, and spend the intermediate time to the resurrection there. The promise to the thief on the cross implies this: "To day shalt thou be with me in paradise." If this promise was fulfilled, the thief was transferred to heaven at his death. The case of Lazarus is an illustration. He died, and was carried by angels to Abraham's bosom. The transfer seems to have followed immediately after death. We have no right to doubt that all believes at death are transferred to heaven at death, and spend the time intervening there. All unbelievers are transferred to hell, and spend their intermediate time to the resurrection there.

This is inferred from the history of the case of the rich man. The state of torment seems to have followed immediately after death. This theory is supported by 2 Pet., 2, 4, 7, and 9.

We conclude, therefore, that the souls of the righteous are carried immediately to heaven at death, and spend the intermediate state until the resurrection there. And that the souls of the ungodly are turned into hell, and remain there during the time between death and the resurrection at the judgment day.

"Why shou'd we start and fear to die,
What timorous worms we mortals are;
Death is the gate to endless joy,
And yet we dread to enter there."

Lexington, Mo.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Needs of the Negro Race.—No. 10.

R. F. BOYD, M. D.

PHYSICIANS.

We need ten thousand physicians to practice medicine among our people. When I say physicians I do not mean the "Injun" doctor, the "hoodo" doctor, the "voudoo" doctor, the "root" doctor, nor the "faith" doctor. I mean physicians who have completed their course of study in some regularly organized and recognized medical college. I mean physicians who have been licensed to practice the healing art because they can do so skillfully and scientifically.

Our physicians should be moral Christian gentlemen, for there is no man in a community able to wield greater influences for good than the family physician. He knows all the inside workings of the family, and is generally intrusted with their secrets. He is generally consulted upon all important measures before they are acted upon.

The sanitary condition of the community, and sometimes the lives of whole cities and towns are dependent upon the physician's knowledge of his profession. The doctor should be thoroughly educated and posted in all the latest improvements known to the profession for the alleviation of human suffering.

The Meharry Medical Department of the Central Tennessee College, at Nashville, Tenn., is the only thoroughly organized school in the Mississippi Valley, South of the Ohio river, that furnishes the colored people an opportunity of obtaining a medical education. It is the only medical college in all the South, among several millions of people, that we can call our own. It was organized in 1876, and has steadily increased its facilities, until now it not not only has the regular medical department, but also departments of pharmacy and dentistry. The graduates sent out from this school are well equipped and they have always met with a kind reception among the white physicians. The united testimony of the white doctors is that the gradnates of Meharry are intelligent and thoroughly prepared to practice the healing art. Our graduates are successfully practicing in most of the Southern and Western States, and they are receiving the support and encouragement of our people. One thing especially is being watched very closely where our graduates are practicing, the mortality superstition and ignorance of the laws hygiene are becoming less among our people. Preventatives as well as curatives are used. The grounds and the beautiful and commodious four story brick building now occupied by the college are the gift of the Meharry brothers in Indiana. The building was erected in 1879, completed and dedicated in 1880. In May, 1882, in their hall at Philadelphia, Pa., the college of physicians met, and after due consideration of colored physicians for the race, sent out a circular to the physicians and friends of medical education, indorsing the corps of professors, and recommending the Meharry Medical College, at Nashville, to their encouragement and support. They recommend that instead of increasing the number of medical colleges for our people that the benevolence of philanthropists be concentrated upon this institution. To this circular are subscribed the names of some of the foremost physicians and best medical authors in this country, and the brightest lights in the medical profession.

The Meharry Medical College is regularly recognized by the Bureau of Education at Washington, D. C. It has an efficient corps of nine professors, a judicious and extended curriculum, a good library of bound and unbound volumes, a cabinet of materia medica, containing all the principal drugs used in the practice of medicine, a laboratory well fitted up with all the material, such as is generally used by the student in testing, experimenting and investigation, and a good supply of microscopes and microscopic slides.

Our clinic practice has so greatly increased every year, until now we are asking our friends to aid us in erecting a hospital to accommodate the patronage of the college, and to afford our students an opportunity of obtaining a thorough, practical, and scientific medical education. This school is centrally located, and can accommodate students from all parts of the country. Our college is trying to supply the great need of educated colored doctors. "The harvest, indeed, is great, but the laborers are few." We are seeking young men to study medicine who can rise in the profession, and do credit to the college and this long oppressed race. There is no reason why there should not be a colored doctor in every town and thickly settled community in the South. The people are calling for educated physicians of our own race. Who will answer? The harvest, indeed, is great, but the laborers are few, I ask the young men of our race to prepare to gather in the harvest. Let none idly hear you saying. "There is nothing I can do, while the souls of men are dying, and the Master calls for you. Take the task he gives you gladly. Let His work your labor be. Answer quickly when He calleth, here am I, send me, send me." Decide at once, and ask God for strength to conquer, for

"There are foes to meet within and without,
There is error to conquer, strong and stout."

For the Southwestern.

Stop Before Your Pulpit is Removed.

REV. J. WORMLY.

I saw in the SOUTHWESTERN an account of the removal of a Methodist pulpit. It brought to my mind the wolf rapt in sheep's clothing. Pull off the sheep hide, wolves, before the harvest is past. Some preachers say before God and the bishop that they will abstain from tobacco, but move the pulpit of some, and you will see the broken law. Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God. When a man makes a vow, and knows at time he is making it that he does not intend to keep it, I do not think he is a pure man. This is why I write on this pulpit moving. In Waco, Tex., in 1885 at the annual conference, these words were spoken to me: When the Bishop asks me do you abstain from the use of tobacco, I am going to say yes. I knowing that he was a slave to it, I said what are you going to say that for. He says I will be at that time. That preacher does not know what the word abstain means.

There is no telling but if that man's pulpit was moved there would be enough dry cuds to make the women a bottle or two of snuff to take along with them. They could set with the bottles in one hand their mops in their mouths blessing the man that chewed the cud. God help us to lay aside all those faults that are both pernicious to the mind and detrimental to health, and give us patience to run the race that is set before us. I hope those of you that chew tobacco and hide the cuds under the pulpit will stop before your pulpits are removed.

Daville, Tex., 1885

The Gulf District Mississippi Conference on the Southwestern.

WHEREAS, The SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE has not proved a failure, but has proved an eternal blessing to all who have received it. It is the great telegraphic means by which the spiritual and temporal work of the church can be known.

Resolved, That we heartily indorse the work that has been put forth in our district for the SOUTHWESTERN.

Resolved, That we heartily indorse the great head of the church in their action of sending such a talented man to manage the SOUTHWESTERN for the people of the South.

Resolved, That we take the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE and encourage everybody that we can to take the paper and pray for the same.

J. H. COOK,
F. H NEVILS,
H. MAY,
Committee.

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 20---NO 34. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, AUGUST 20, 1885 WHOLE NUMBER 822

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY
THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,
37 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor

Terms: $1.50 per Year, Cash in Advance; after Three Months, $2; to Pastors, $1. Six Months, $1; Three Months, 50c.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

All matter not of a business nature must be addressed to the editor.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	7 cents,
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	6 "
Six months (26 times)	5 "
One year (52 times)	4 "
Marriage Notices	25 "
Special Notices	8 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

Thrice happy man! thy Maker's care,
Shall keep thee from the fowler's snare,
Satan the fowler who betrays,
Unguarded souls a thousand ways.

Just as a hen protects her brood,
From birds of prey that seek their blood,
Under her feathers, so the Lord
Makes his own arm his people's guard.

A dull, dull mind and a foggy morning are alike impenetrable.

A spokeless wheel and a bookless preacher are equally worthless.

As too many cooks spoil the broth, so does too many hands the price of labor.

An amalgam race, like Jonah's gourd, must live, flourish and perish in a night.

"I like your paper. It is as good as ever. Send the news all over the world."—M. E. JOHNSON.

After a white woman marries a Negro what is she? Is she white or black, or in the estimation of people generally, what is she?

As African slavery was to the Negro so is alcoholic slavery to the youth of this land a great curse, and the cause, if not "the sum of all villainies."

A man who takes the choice bits of food in the presence of strangers at his own table, or behaves rudely to his family when visitors are with them, lacks manhood, manners and genteel culture.

To meet a visitor at the wharf or train, and assist him with his burdens, especially in young toward older ministers, is an act of civility which compensates each by reflecting honor upon one, and reverence upon the other.

The duty of each Negro is first to get religion.

Second, get some books and find out what is in them.

Third, to get a house and lot.

Fourth, to improve the house and lot.

Fifth, to get another house and lot.

Sixth, to get a farm.

Seventh, to get another farm.

Eighth, to make a deposit of money in bank.

Ninth, to learn a trade.

Tenth, to get married.

Eleventh, to increase the family, and raise the children if possible.

Twelfth, to aid in building churches, endowing colleges, supporting general benevolence; and Twelfth, to enter politics.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Intermediate State of the Soul

REV. J. W. HILL.

"Forth to the land of promise bound,
Our desert path we tread;
God's fiery pillar for our guide,
His captain at our head.

"E'en now we faintly trace the hills,
And catch their distant blue,
And the bright city's gleaming spires,
Rise dimly on our view.

"Soon as the desert shall be crossed,
The flood of death passed o'er,
Our pilgrim hosts shall safely land
On Canaan peaceful shore."

By the intermediate state I mean the state of the soul between death and the resurrection. Death is a separation of the soul from the body. The body returns to the earth as it was, and remains there for a time, but is finally raised and restored to far more than its mortal beauty and glory. A reunion will be affected between the body and soul thus changed.

But what is the condition of the soul while the body is mingling with the dust? This is a question which addresses itself with great force to a thoughtful mind. In considering it we have reached the conclusion that after death the soul exists separate from the body, with all its essential attributes, and properties. This is inferred from its spirituality. God is a spirit, and exists without a body; angels in like manner are spirits, and exist without bodies. We suppose the soul of man to possess the same essential properties as far as spirituality is concerned, which are possessed by God and the angels. If they are capable of existing without a connection with matter, the soul is equally capable of such existence. It is stated in the account of the creation, "The Lord God formed man of the dust of the earth, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living soul." It is evident from the account that the body was first formed, and the soul, a distinct thing, was added to the body. Death is a removal of this distinct and separate thing from the body. We suppose it capable, too, of a continued separate existence. The properties of the soul and the body are essentially distinct, the one is the mind, the other is matter, and each is capable of a separate existence apart from the other. With these facts in view it is evident that the soul is able to exist when disembodied. The Scriptures clearly teach such existence. Luke 16, 19, 23.

From this we draw the following inference:

First—The rich and poor man both died and were buried.

Second—The rich man lifted up his eyes in hell and saw Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

Third—A conversation is represented to have taken place between them. Now both Dives and Abraham had been buried; yet we find a conversation progressing between them which could only have been with their souls, for, as we have already shown, their bodies were dead and buried.

It may be urged that the mere souls of men are incapable of such existence, or communication as is attributed to these persons.

Whatever we may say of the mode of communication, it is very evident that it was between living beings while their bodies were dead and had been buried. Luke 23, 42, 43. "He poured salvation in a wretch that languished by his side."

The thief who addressed the prayer to the Savior died that day. The Savior died, and was buried that evening, and did not rise from the grave till the third day. How, then, could the thief have been with him in paradise that day unless by material presence. Ex., 3 and 6.

"God is not the God of the dead but of the living." This is a quotation of the Scripture previously cited, and it embodies the teaching of similar passages of Scripture in the Old Testament. The object of the quotation and the reference is to prove the decline which we are now considering, that notwithstanding Abraham, Isaac and Jacob had died and been gathered to their fathers in the grave, they still lived.

If these patriarchs still lived it is evident that theirs is not corporeal life it was their souls which lived.

Eccles., 12, 7. This text brings to view the origin of both the soul and body, as well as their final destination.

The body is from the earth, and returns to it at death. The spirit is the gift of God, and when absent from the body is present with the Giver.

The point to be observed is, that the spirit is represented as a distinct thing, in no way affected in its essential character by its separation from the body. Acts, 7, 59.

When Stephen was dead devout men buried him, but the Martyr's prayer was his spirit like that of the thief who lived with Christ. 2 Cor., 5, 6, 8.

The doctrine of these passages is to teach that while the people of God are here in the body, they are absent from the Lord, but when separated from the body they will be present with him. To be present with Christ, and to be in the flesh are two distinct states.

The Apostle, therefore, intends to teach that the Lord being capable of existing in a separate state from the body, is a distinct thing from the body. It may be absent from the body, but still live. 1 Thess., 4, 14.

Those who sleep in Jesus are the Saints who have died. The occasion here mentioned, upon which God will bring them with his anointed, is the judgment at the last day.

What will he bring? Not the bodies of his people. These will be raised from the grave, and meet the Lord in the air. What he will bring with him must then be the souls of his people in order to reunite them with their bodies. Rev., 9, 10.

This is, no doubt, highly figurative, and some allowance is to be made in its interpretation on that account, but still it must be wholly divested of meaning, unless it teaches the doctrine which we are considering. But that the souls of those who had been slain should be seen and heard, must they not have had a living existence? The import of the consideration, and the Scriptures which have been presented, are that in the intermediate state the soul may exist, and does exist separate from all the essential attributes and properties of the body, since it dies, while the soul still lives.

I conclude, therefore, that at death that believers and all those fitted for heaven are immediately transferred to paradise, and spend the intermediate time to the resurrection there. The promise to the thief on the cross implies this: "To day shalt thou be with me in paradise." If this promise was fulfilled, the thief was transferred to heaven at his death. The case of Lazarus is an illustration. He died, and was carried by angels to Abraham's bosom. The transfer seems to have followed immediately after death. We have no right to doubt that all believes at death are transferred to heaven at death, and spend the time intervening there. All unbelievers are transferred to hell, and spend their intermediate time to the resurrection there.

This is inferred from the history of the case of the rich man. The state of torment seems to have followed immediately after death. This theory is supported by 2 Pet., 2, 4, 7 and 9.

We conclude, therefore, that the souls of the righteous are carried immediately to heaven at death, and spend the intermediate state until the resurrection there. And that the souls of the ungodly are turned into hell, and remain there during the time between death and the resurrection at the judgment day.

"Why should we start and fear to die,
What timorous worms we mortals are;
Death is the gate to endless joy,
And yet we dread to enter there."

Lexington, Mo.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Needs of the Negro Race.—No. 10.

E. F. BOYD, M. D.

PHYSICIANS.

We need ten thousand physicians to practice medicine among our people. When I say physicians I do not mean the "Injun" doctor, the "hoodo" doctor, the "voudoo" doctor, the "root" doctor, nor the "faith" doctor. I mean physicians who have completed their course of study in some regularly organized and recognized medical college. I mean physicians who have been licensed to practice the healing art because they can do so skillfully and scientifically.

Our physicians should be moral Christian gentlemen, for there is no man in a community able to wield greater influences for good than the family physician. He knows all the inside workings of the family, and is generally intrusted with their secrets. He is generally consulted upon all important measures before they are acted upon.

The sanitary condition of the community, and sometimes the lives of whole cities and towns are dependent upon the physician's knowledge of his profession. The doctor should be thoroughly educated and posted in all the latest improvements known to the profession for the alleviation of human suffering.

The Meharry Medical Department of the Central Tennessee College, at Nashville, Tenn., is the only thoroughly organized school in the Mississippi Valley, South of the Ohio river, that furnishes the colored people an opportunity of obtaining a medical education. It is the only medical college in all the South, among several millions of people, that we can call our own. It was organized in 1876, and has steadily increased its facilities, until now it not not only has the regular medical department, but also departments of pharmacy and dentistry. The graduates sent out from this school are well equipped and they have always met with a kind reception among the white physicians. The united testimony of the white doctors is that the graduates of Meharry are intelligent and thoroughly prepared to practice the healing art. Our graduates are successfully practicing in most of the Southern and Western States, and they are receiving the support and encouragement of our people. One thing especially is being watched very closely where our graduates are practicing, the mortality superstition and ignorance of the laws hygiene are becoming less among our people. Preventatives as well as curatives are used. The grounds and the beautiful and commodious four story brick building now occupied by the college are the gift of the Meharry brothers in Indiana. The building was erected in 1879, completed and dedicated in 1880. In May, 1882, in their hall at Philadelphia, Pa., the college of physicians met, and after due consideration of colored physicians for the race, sent out a circular to the physicians and friends of medical education, indorsing the corps of professors, and recommending the Meharry Medical College, at Nashville, to their encouragement and support. They recommend that instead of increasing the number of medical colleges for our people that the benevolence of philanthropists be concentrated upon this institution. To this circular are subscribed the names of some of the foremost physicians and best medical authors in this country, and the brightest lights in the medical profession.

The Meharry Medical College is regularly recognized by the Bureau of Education at Washington, D. C. It has an efficient corps of nine professors, a judicious and extended curriculum, a good library of bound and unbound volumes, a cabinet of materia medica, containing all the principal drugs used in the practice of medicine, a laboratory well fitted up with all the material, such as is generally used by the student in testing, experimenting and investigation, and a good supply of microscopes and microscopic slides.

Our clinic practice has so greatly increased every year, until now we are asking our friends to aid us in erecting a hospital to accommodate the patronage of the college, and to afford our students an opportunity of obtaining a thorough, practical, and scientific medical education. This school is centrally located, and can accommodate students from all parts of the country. Our college is trying to supply the great need of educated colored doctors. "The harvest, indeed, is great, but the laborers are few." We are seeking young men to study medicine who can rise in the profession, and do credit to the college and this long oppressed race. There is no reason why there should not be a colored doctor in every town and thickly settled community in the South. The people are calling for educated physicians of our own race. Who will answer? The harvest, indeed, is great, but the laborers are few, I ask the young men of our race to prepare to gather in the harvest. Let none idly hear you saying, "There is nothing I can do, while the souls of men are dying, and the Master calls for you. Take the task he gives you gladly. Let His work your labor be. Answer quickly when He calleth, here am I, send me, send me." Decide at once, and ask God for strength to conquer, for

"There are foes to meet within and without,
There is error to conquer, strong and stout."

For the Southwestern.

Stop Before Your Pulpit is Removed.

REV. J. WORMLY

I saw in the SOUTHWESTERN an account of the removal of a Methodist pulpit. It brought to my mind the wolf rapt in sheep's clothing. Pull off the sheep hide, wolves, before the harvest is past. Some preachers say before God and the bishop that they will abstain from tobacco, but move the pulpit of some, and you will see the broken law. Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God. When a man makes a vow, and knows at time he is making it that he does not intend to keep it, I do not think he is a pure man. This is why I write on this pulpit moving. In Waco, Tex., in 1885, at the annual conference, these words were spoken to me: When the Bishop asks me do you abstain from the use of tobacco, I am going to say yes. I knowing that he was a slave to it, I said what are you going to say that for. He says I will be at that time. That preacher does not know what the word abstain means.

There is no telling but if that man's pulpit was moved there would be enough dry cuds to make the women a bottle or two of snuff to take along with them. They could set with the bottles in one hand their mops in their mouths blessing the man that chewed the cud. God help us to lay aside all those faults that are both pernicious to the mind and detrimental to health, and give us patience to run the race that is set before us. I hope those of you that chew tobacco and hide the cuds under the pulpit will stop before your pulpits are removed.

Davilla, Tex., 1885

The Gulf District Mississippi Conference on the Southwestern.

WHEREAS, The SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE has not proved a failure, but has proved an eternal blessing to all who have received it. It is the great telegraphic means by which the spiritual and temporal work of the church can be known.

Resolved, That we heartily indorse the work that has been put forth in our district for the SOUTHWESTERN.

Resolved, That we heartily indorse the great head of the church in their action of sending such a talented man to manage the SOUTHWESTERN for the people of the South.

Resolved, That we take the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE and encourage everybody that we can to take the paper and pray for the same.

J. H. COOK,
S. H NEVILS,
H. MAY,
Committee.

From the Districts.

Ashville District, Central Alabama Conference.

A. N. JACKSON, Secretary.

This District Conference met in the Methodist Episcopal Church, Oxford, Alabama, July 23, 1885, with Rev. O. Nelson, Presiding Elder in the chair. The writer was elected secretary and 47 members answered to roll call. The chairman made some very strong remarks to the conference upon what would be expected of them while in Oxford as representative Christians; they should leave an impression for good, not to allow themselves to become loiterers, and street corner gossipers, nor was it expected of a Methodist Episcopal preacher to smoke or drink strong drink, etc. The several committees were appointed, also committees on the various benevoleuces of the church. Rev. L. Peters pastor of the C. M. E. Church and Prof. Tiggs were introduced who made kind remarks to the conference, welcoming it in their town. Rev. W. O. Lynch, of the Savannah Conference, was also introduced, and addressed the conference. The reports of the presiding elder and other members of the conference showed a marked improvement all along the line of the district, 380 conversions were reported with a large number of accessions. Finances are as good as could expect during these times of depression, the bretheen resolved that the "Million for Missions" shall not fall short on account of a failure of this district to raise at least the small amount asked of her.

Our Presiding elder is indeed keen to look after every benevolent department of the Church, and well ought he to be to save some little honor to the Central Alabama Conference. The Huntsville and Marion districts, I think, should blush with shame at their reports for missions at last conference—the former reporting $7 25, the latter $11.25. There is not a town appointment on either of these districts which could not have reported itself rither of these amounts. The blame is somewhere; and how these brethren can be always ready to draw from the teat of the Missionary Society and not do even as much to replenish her as the conference (Liberia) in Africa, is a mystery to me. The idea of a conference as old as this receiving $2500 appropriation and paying in $74 65!

Peace and harmony prevails on our district and our session was one of perfect accord. A fine lecture was delivered by Rev. W. O. Lynch, on the "Black Man's Place in History." While I do not agree with all that Bro. Lynch says in his lectures, I must admit they are very instructive. The good people of Oxford spared no pains to make the conference members happy while among them, and to largely attend every session thereof. Bro. Henderson, pastor here, has begun a good work. About a month ago, per appointment of presiding elder, he took charge and beginning where his predecessors, Revs. Phillips and Johnson, left off, he is in a fair way to finish up our church here, which, when done, will be an honor to the connection. His salary is small, but with the last two quarters of the missionary appropriation to this work he ought to do well—as I suppose he is entitled to it, as he is supplying the work to which it was given. A district school was considered and received favorable action. Appointments for Sunday were as follows: M. E. Church, 11 a. m., W. O. Lynch; M. E. Church, 3 p. m., S. B. Henderson; M. E. Church, 8 p. m., A. N. Jackson; C. M. E. Church, 11 a. m., S. D. Sanders; A. M. E. Zion Church, 11 a. m., W. M. Coleman; Congregational Church, 11 a. m., A. N. Jackson; Congregational Church, 8 p. m., W. O. Lynch. Sermons were also preached by J. W. Winn, Henry Dotson, H. D. Byrd and I. Townsend. Collection $35. Revs. Townsend, Sandors, Winn, and Coleman seem to be the more prominent ministers of the district, and are doing a good work, as are others. It is my first meeting with these brethren but they at once made me feel that I was at home and among friends. The next session will be held at Talladega, Ala. The ministers have promised the presiding elder his next conference suit of clothes, which I hope will be given.

Pine Bluff District—Little Rock Conference.

G. B. DONNELLY, P. E.

To all preachers and members of the M. E. Church in this district:—We, as Methodists, need, want and must have a spiritual harvest. The way to get it I have adopted; that is, the same old way; the way our fathers went; the way of prayer. Now, as the county protracted meetings will commence soon, and we need the harvest in them, let us ask the blessing. I say Thursday, the 13th of August. Let every Methodist in the above named fast and pray on that day. I and my prechers will fast also, and if we perish we perish. I shall do all in my power to visit every point on each pastor's work, and give a lecture or preach as the case may be. Brethren, please arrange the plan for these visits; tell your congregations. I want to see what I can do to help each brother on his work. Remember this, your humble servant, prays for you all both night and day. You must, if you succeed, pray yourselves.

Letters from the Pastors.

Rev. N. Poole writes from Daleville, Miss.: "Elder J. Campbell met my first quarterly conference on May 14. Three joined the church on probation. During the meeting the elder preached, it seems, as he had never preached before, and the Lord was in our midst. We had some of our white friends with us, who helped us in our collection. May the Lord bless them. Our church was well crowded. We had a good time. Many hungry souls were fed. The total collection for the presiding elder was $10. As to my work I thank God that it is in a living condition. My Sunday Schools are all at work and the churches are prospering. I have not done much at collecting money. I have on the eve of completion a splendid parsonage When finished it will be very comforting to the Methodist ministers who may supersede me."

Rev. George W. Baber writes from Lewisville, Ark: "Our beloved presiding elder, G. B. Donnelly, held our first quarterly conference on this work May 30 and 31, with a glorious time. We paid the elder $5 and the pastor $3 60; mission, 25 cents; church extension, 25 cents. Members received on probation, 3; conversions, 2 This place is growing fast with members."

Rev. H. Dunlap writes from Atoka, Tenn.: "I just closed my protracted meeting, and have twenty one converts. We had a good time. Rev. H. M. Key was with us, and he did a great deal of work."

Rev. J. H. Rylander, State Line, La., writes. "Our second quarterly conference was held May 30, 1885. The whole congregation attended. Rev. Stephen Priestley, presiding elder, conducted the exercises. The business of the quarterly conference was transacted in a very efficient style. The presence of the presiding elder on the occasion was gratifying. Our Sunday School is in a lively, increasing and prosperous condition, with seventy scholars enrolled; and we are favored with several good teachers. Among these are J. B. Creswell and Miss Julia Isabelle, of New Orleans. The latter is doing energetic work both in the Sunday and public schools. Our membership is small, and the times extremely hard. Notwithstanding, our outlook for a new church as favorable, and with the co-operation of the presiding elder we will have one. His encouragement to build a new church is highly appreciated. Sunday morning was a glorious time with the Sabbath School. The children came from all the neighboring settlements. The elder lectured them on education and moral culture, which made a fine impression. Elder Harris, of the Baptist Church, and Mr. Ramsey, a school teacher from Jackson, Miss., were present at 11 o'clock. We were content in listening to a significant sermon on the typical use of the blood of the lamb, and its token under the Jewish dispensation. For a while a part of the congregation seemed to be carried away in an ecstacy of joy. In an appreciation of the administration of our new presiding elder, Rev. Stephen Priestley, and that of his predecessors, I adhere to St. Paul's charge to Timothy: "Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honor; especially they that labor in the word and doctrine." Therefore too much honor cannot be conferred on the presiding elders of the Baton Rouge district. What words can express my feeling of gratitude to God for calling and setting apart such eminent divines as Revs Jos. Gould, Pierre Landry and Stephen Priestley to the presiding elderate."

Rev. W. Franklin, Steubenville, O., writes: "My church is booming. I am building up a good congregation at this point."

R. P. Fielding, Louisville district, Lexington conference, writes: "Our first quarterly conference was held June 6 and 7 under the old Methodist rule, at 11 o'clock a. m. The religious services were conducted by the presiding elder, Rev. W. W. Locke. At 2:30 p. m. the quarterly meeting opened with Bro. Locke in the chair. Mary E. Barbor was elected secretary. Reports were very good. We find in coming to this work that no care has been taken of it. There has been no leaders and steward's meeting held for a number of years. With eighty-six names on the record we can now only find thirty-six of them in good standing, with no Sunday School and no books, and the members almost discouraged, but some of them determined to die in the Methodist faith. In coming to this work we find it has been supplied for seven years with four preachers. We are having a hard time of it, but now and then light comes and we all have a good time. At 11 o'clock a. m., Sunday. Bro. Locke preached. At the close of the services the sacrament of the Lord's supper was administered to twenty-one adults and seven children. Paid to the presiding elder this quarter $5 66. We hope that our next quarterly conference will be a grander one. We take the SOUTHWESTERN, and love to see the mail days come."

Rev. E. Harris, Americus, Miss., writes: "We had a glorious revival; three conversions and fourteen joined the church. Times are hard, but the old church is on the rock."

Rev. E. Collins, Lake, Miss., writes: "This charge is in good condition. The people are loyal, and I have received thirteen in full membership, and one convert. Presiding elder, J. M. Shumpert, visited us April 14 and 15; and Rev. I. J. Garrett, of Forest, was also present. The outlook is fine. On May 15 we had a Sunday School concert, which was largely attended, and very interesting. There were pieces by the children, and a dialogue by Miss Nellie Harris and M. W. Daniel. The Sunday School is greatly encouraged, and are anxious to have another concert."

Rev. D. Shelby writes from Fortson, La.: "We ended our protracted meeting on the 1st of June. We had eighteen converts, five backsiders reclaimed, and twenty-four on probation. Our church is moving along nicely."

Rev. Moses White, Enterprise circuit, Miss., writes: "Children's Day was duly observed, and was a day long to be remembered by the Sabbath School children of the Enterprise circuit. The church was nicely decorated with beautiful flowers. The officers and teachers were in their places, and the programme prepared by the board of education was carried out in full. C. H. King, our faithful superintendent assisted by the writer, conducted the services. The pastor, at 3 p. m., preached from Eph. VI 1 A collection of $6 was the result of our efforts. Praise the Lord for Christian Education."

Rev. B. Carr, Belzoni, La., writes: "This new work has a large Sunday School of sixty-one members. We had a nice time on the first. The children are progressing and learning well."

Wm Bartley, Midway, Tex., writes: "I arrived on my work and found the people in good spirits, though the times are hard here, owing to bad crops the last two years. They are poor and much scattered, but are looking up and believing. They say they will do all they can, I have received ten into the church by letter and two by conversion. We had a grand time on our first quarter. Elder Smith preached a sermon that will long be remembered."

Rev. C. Wright, of Port Hudson, La., writes: "Elder Stephen Priestley was at Mt Pleasant Church last Sabbath, and a very large congregation was in attendance. We are always proud to see him."

Rev. R Hayes, of Shubuta, Miss., writes: "My second quarterly conference was held June 11. All reports were good. Rev. Bine preached to a large congregation. Elder's collection, $4. He administered sacrament to eighty-three. Bev. M. Hunter, of the A. M. E. Church, was with us."

Rev. Stephen Duncan, of Union Chapel, writes: "Our second quarter is ended, and still the church is in a growing, prosperous condition. My predecessor, the Rev. Stephen Priestley, is loved and respected by all the people, and as a consequence of his faithful, earnest work I found the church thoroughly united, and working in love and harmony together. As a result of two revivals thirty happy souls have been added to the church. During the sitting of our second quarterly conference the spirit of the Lord was truly manifested among us. Elder Cushman was on hand, and, as usual, with a happy heart and loving spirit. Bro. Cushman is loved and respected here among our members, and justly so, too, because of his earnest, unselfish work for all the churches on his district. May God ever bless him in his work is our prayer. The steward's report at the second quarterly conference showed a public collection of $564 70; elder's collection, $110 75; total, $675 45 Paid to pastor, $225, and $150 on the church extension debt. Of this amount Bishop Mallalieu paid $15, and Bro. Cushman $3, for which we return our sincere thanks. I also wish to return my warmest thanks to the good sisters of the church, who have just presented me a fine suit of clothes, costing $30. We have never been among more loving, willing, prompt and useful members during our ministry, and with the help of God, standing by aiding and sustaining us, we hope to push the battle even unto the gates of Gath.

Rev. A. N. Jackson, of Gadsden, Ala, writes: "Children's Day was observed here yesterday, and pronounced by all as grand. The 3 and 8 p. m services were devoted to this exercise by the Sunday School following the programme and selections from hints and helps obtained of the board of education. A collection was taken and remitted to Dr. Kidder to day. The Methodist Episcopal Church in this town, though young, is rapidly gaining influence and the favor of the citizens in general. Her once strong opposers now acknowledge that she is planted here, and here to stay. An unprecedented event took place here yesterday at 11 a. m. The Baptist Church and ours united with the C. M. E. Church for a union meeting. The Baptist pastor preached and a grand time we had. The same will take place at our church next Sunday, and at the Baptist the Sunday following.

Rev. H. J. Wright, of Natchitoches, La., writes: "Children's Day, June 14, was observed by us in grand style. The Sunday School teachers, but more especially Miss Cornelia Hason, Lucrecia Bell and Mrs. Jeannet Jefferson were foremost in decorating our church. A beautiful stage was erected by the hands of the pastor alone. No superintendent comes in sight when there is any work. Three arches were erected over the stage and the walls were adorned with wreathes and appropriate mottoes. The children turned out en masse. Seventy five spoke the programme edited by Dr. Kidder, of New York. They were freely distributed in the afternoon, and the programme carried out to the end with telling effect. At night the church was packed. When all the older ones spoke, Sister Betty Davis, one of our scholars, sixty five years old, spoke the 118th Psalm with much solemnity of feeling, which cheered us on the way. Our collection for the day was $10 05 The effect was grand. God bless the Children's Day. It is our third and last here."

S. Duncan, Union Chapel, New Orleans, writes: "Children's Day was duly observed here yesterday. Our people turned out en masse, and we had a delightful time. At 11 a. m. the following schools were present: Pleasant Plains, First African Baptist, Wesley Chapel, Haven Chapel, and our own school. The children from the various schools took part in the exercises by reciting selections and reading essays. Miss Palla M. Brewer, of Haven Chapel, read an essay on "Benefits Received from the Sunday School," which was well received. Prof. A. F. Hoy, of the New Orleans University, made a brilliant and stirring address on "Work for the Children in the Home, in the School, and in the Church." Rev. M. C. B. Mason, pastor of Haven Chapel, next in his usual eloquent and impressive manner upon "The Sunday School, What Is It, and What Makes It a Success?" At 3 p. m. Rev. A. M. Green, of the A. M. E Church, spoke upon the topic, "The Joy that Springs from Sunday School and Missionary Work." Bro. Green spoke in an eloquent and impressive manner, and left a lasting impression upon his many hearers. At 7:30 p. m. our church was packed, every seat being taken. Addresses were made by William Campbell, Miss Olivier Clark, S. A Mason, Edward Augustus and Y. Williams. Collection, $29 50.

Rev. M. Reddick, Brenham, Tex., writes: "Children's Day, June 14, was nicely carried out. The entire school, with its noble superintendent, R. Nelson, came together at 8:30 o'clock. The regular school lessons were conducted, and at 3 o'clock p. m. the programme came. This opening up of the new century brought many visitors to see us. The older ones came to celebrate this because when the next century rolled around they hope to be in heaven. Mr. Henry Browning, late of our school at Nashville, Tenn., presided at the organ. It was a scene of joy to all. I wish that your editor could have been with us. Collection, $8 79 for education. This Sunday School is waking up."

Rev. W. B. Harris, Germantown circuit, Bowling Green district, Lexington Conference, writes: "Our first quarterly meeting was held on the 9th instant. Rev A. Booker, our presiding elder, was with us. We had a joyful quarterly meeting. Receipts, $10; baptized, adults, 5; infants, 6; received into church, 5."

Rev. G. W. Thompson, Garland City, Ark., writes: "This is a small town, with one dry goods store, one grocery, and no depot. The citizens welcomed me to preach in a very comfortable little house, two stories high. I have organized a Sabbath School, and have seventeen scholars and one member. I have worked hard to get up an organization. When I first came an overflow interfered. A great deal of education and religion is needed in this section."

Rev. R. Weaver, of Hawkins, Tex., writes: "My second quarterly conference was held by G W. Smith, presiding elder. We had a nice time. The sacrament was taken by Baptists and Methodists in union. The elder gave a grand lecture on missions. Thirteen were added to the church this year. Children's Day was observed for the first time, and everybody was pleased with it."

Rev. J. F. Marshall, of Alexandria, La., writes: "Our Children's Day exercises were good, and made a fine impression upon the large mixed audience present for the occasion. Much credit is due Miss M. A. E. Thomas, superintendent; Mrs. C. L Armstead, teacher of vocal music, and Mr. Wm. Murray, organist, for their faithful and efficient labors which are producing such good results. Dr. Albert, our presiding elder, closed the day's exercises with an appropriate, able and encouraging address.

Rev. C P. Westbrook, Waco, Tex., writes: "The grand and glorious day arrived for the children of the Methodist Episcopal Church to enter upon the grand rally at St. James, in Waco, Tex. The day was strictly observed. Our exercises were divided into three parts. At 10:30 a. m. the school was called to order by the superintendent, Wm. Henry. The primary department began with their programme. They commended themselves nicely. After which Mr. Bradly, the superintendent of the A. M. E. Sunday School, was introduced, and spoke earnestly to the little people concerning their effort, and frankly confessed that he never saw anything like it. Mr. Hines, late of Prairie View School, being present, was introduced and spoke very encouragingly on the importance of attending Sunday School. Collection $4 50. Afterward the intermediate department gave their thrilling exercises, which made us feel as if we heard the precious words from our fathers. All the visitors seemed to be well pleased with the young soldiers. The superintendent and pastor then delivered addresses. A collection of $9 07 was made. In the evening, at 9:30 o'clock, the advanced students and teachers entertained us with declamations, recitations dialogues, essays, songs and solos. After which Rev. A. A. Horner, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, was introduced to the audience. He spoke of the great wisdom of God, and how He desired that men should think as He did. Of course after the trials of the day, and the excellent programme, they closed with our only source of joy. Collections, $7 10; total amount for Children's Day, $21 67. Pray for our success.

Prof. Elijah Henderson writes from Bellaire, Ohio: "As pastor, this is the commencement of my third year in this city. The Second M. E. Church is fully alive, with a good congregation and a grand Sabbath School that clearly demonstrated this fact on the Sabbath of June 14. It was Children's Day. We provided ourselves with our regular programme papers from our Book Room. Our church was beautifully decked with flowers.

The charming singing birds' services commenced at 10 o'clock a. m. Sermon from the text, Psalms, 34th chap., 11th verse, as follows: "Come ye Children, harken unto me, I will teach you the fear of the Lord. While your humble speaker continued to extend the cordial invitation to come, the seats and aisles were crowded with dear children that had already come with willing hands and countenances bright that told of the labors done in the Sabbath School. At 2:30 o'clock the Sabbath School officers and teachers engaged in the responsive reading programme; an essay by Miss Anne Henderson, subject, "Life," was good; Miss Laura Ransom, Thomas and John Carns, with various others of the juvenile class, spoke committed pieces. Great credit is due the teachers of the school. Miss Cora Kerr, Miss Minerva Henderson and Miss Mary F. King deserve great credit as teachers of our Sabbath School, and the committee for the proficient manner of conducting these classes; and last but not least that added pleasure to the occasion was Bro. Geo. Ransom. A handsome collection was taken up for the children's educational fund."

Rev. A P. Blakemore, Springfield, Tenn., writes: "Children's Day was one of the grandest I ever witnessed in my life. The programme opened with a gospel hymn; leader Miss H. Brandfort The reading of Scripture was in concert with the African Methodist and Baptist Sunday Schools, who joined us. Rev. W. J. Young, of the A. M. E. Church, repeated the Lord's prayer. Eliza Blakemore, aged six years, sang. Miss O. Allen, of Nashville, was the organist. E Baide, superintendent of the Missionary Baptist School, gave a fine talk on the duty of parents; Rev. W. J. Young on love; A. Hardin on what ought to be done for Sunday Schools. Four dollars was collected and forwarded to New York. The celebration closed with a good old Christian hand shake. Pray for our little band."

James Taylor, of New Richmond, O., writes: "We are in debt and cannot get out without some aid. Our camp meeting will begin the last Sunday in July, and continue to the first Sunday in August."

Rev. H. Henderson, Rolling Fork, Miss., writes: "When I came here we had four churches. Now we have five, and seven preaching points. This is a nice little church, thirty by twenty feet, and twenty members. All came over from the C. M. E. Church last Sunday The elder was with us May 23 and 24, and held second quarterly meeting. It was well attended, and the work found in good condition. We raised for pastor, $97 50; for the elder, $19 55."

Letters From the Laity.

Fanny Sherrill, Memphis, Tenn., writes: "We are having a good time this year. We have a good pastor; one whom we all love—Rev. J. W. Moore. Our Sunday school is improving since he has been with us. I attend Sunday school, and teach the Testament class. We had a Sunday School celebration May 22, and had a good time. At night we marched by torchlight. There were 139 lights. We had a good time. There are a good many young ladies and young men here who need education. We are getting our churches all out of debt."

C. B. Baldwin, Honston, Miss., writes. "On Children's Day we had beautiful marching, and a nice dinner. W. Renfroe, James Pullam and several others came for ward and delivered beautiful addresses concerning education. This is the second time we have observed Children's Day at Mount Olive Church, and we believe that Children's Day is becoming an institution of education. The church is beautifully decorated. A. A. [illegible], superintendent; Phillis Pullam, treasurer; J. N. Mimms, librarian; D A. Prophet, Sallie Buchanan and Alice Mimms, teachers. Pray for our success. Collection, 70 cents."

W. B. Gasby, Sabine and Shelby circuit, Tex., writes: "The elder visited us on the 13th and 14th ultimo; held our second quarterly conference, and we had a glorious time. Elder Smith aroused the brethren on the Circuit concerning missions, and urges us to do all we can toward helping to raise the million dollars. Our elder is not only loved by our church, but by the Baptist and C. M. E.'s, who are very strong in this portion of the country. The sacrament was administered to sixty-four. Our pastor, also Mr. S. Horn, was heartily received by all. Notwithstanding the hard times and other hindrances he is doing much good here at large. There has been a spirit of enthusiasm awakened among us, which speaks better for the future. Bro. Horn is a thorough going man. His tendency is to make peace and harmony among his people, regardless of denomination. We ask that the blessing of God may be upon him, and that his efforts may be crowned with success.

V. J. E. Grangent, Paulding, Miss., writes; "We observed Children's Day. We had a very large gathering. The seats were crowded with Sunday School scholars. At 11 o'clock our pastor, R. H. Patton, preached to us on the occasion, We had responsive reading, and reading by the superintendent and other gentlemen and officers of the school. We recited one hundred and thirty six verses from the Bible by heart. We collected the handsome little sum of $3, which the pastor will forward at his earliest convenience to the treasurer. Our church was very nicely decorated with sweet smelling flowers. It is a new thing to us, and everybody is well pleased. We anticipate a better time next June, should the good Lord see fit to let us live. The children admire it."

A. McGregor, secretary of Benolent Society No.11, writes: "Benevolent Society No. 11, of Murfreesboro, Tenn., had their annual sermon preached June 28, 1855, by Rev. H. Primm, of the Nashville district, and also C. L. Seward, of the Murfreesboro charge, and through the sermon he read his report, which showed up for one year's work. We had before the socities gathered the First Benevolent, the Sisters of Charity, the Daughters of Zion, and the Grand Lodge of Relief. Collections were taken up as follows: Benevolence, $4; Sisters of Charity $3,10; Grand Lodge $1,20; Daughters of Zion $1,10; Secretary $1,45; total $10,85.

Annual report of the Benevolent Society No. 11: Number of members on book, 143; paying members on books, 110; non paying members, 33; money collected, $294 35; paid out to sick, $232; funeral expenses, $66 50; for rent, $31; to secretary, $5; for one banner, $7 25; privilege tickets, $1 75 grand total, $339 50. The year ended June 28, 1885. Mrs. Cellie Calloie is president of this society."

C. E. Bradford, Wesley Chapel, Baton Rouge district, La., writes: "Our second quarterly conference was held May 28, by Presiding Elder Priestley. The reports were grand, and the elder gave encouragement. The elder preached and assisted at sacrament. Our pastor, G. Rogers, felt happy. We raised the elder's traveling expenses."

J. Allen, Deusonville, Miss., writes: "Since the arrival of Rev. C. L Crump the entire circuit have learned to love him. On Sunday he was with us and preached a wonderful sermon. On Children's Day the collection was $8 50 for the pastor; from the Sunday School, $3 30; total, $11 80. The people are in better spirits than they have been for many years. Received in the church this year, 35; converts, 4.

The M. E. Church.

A Million For Missions.

The Situation.

BY C. C. M'CABE.

Thousands of the ministry and laity of the Church are watching with the most intense interest the effort to raise one million of dollars for missions during the year 1885

The Spring Conferences are over, and we are able now to tell where we stand, and, to some extent, forecast the future. The treasurer's books show that he has received from January 1 to May 1, æ354,933 44. Therefore, if we succeed, we have $645,066 56 yet to raise to reach the goal.

Now, here are two tremendous "ifs" which I present for careful consideration:

1. If all the Presiding Elders' districts of the Fall Conferences will march up to the million dollar line, as indicated in the Missionary Chart, we shall have $446,616 more.

2. If the special efforts now being made by mass meetings, correspondence with individuals, and appeals to our 21,000 Sabbath-school for a supplementary collection, shall produce $178,450 56 the column will stand thus:

Already raised	$354 933 44
Fall Conferences brought up to the million dollar stan...	466,616 00
Special meetings, correspondence with dividuals, and appeals to 21,000 Sunday-schools	178,450 56
Gradd total	$1,000,00 00

Are there crowbars enough in all Methodism to move these two "ifs" out of the way?

Can it be done. Take the first "if." What presiding elder's district in all the West has an apportionment exceeding $1 per member.

Is there anything unreasonable in such an apportionment, or anything impossible or even very difficult about raising it.

Kindle the fire and try it. Some hearts will be prompted to give special thank offerings to God's cause this first year of our second century. Tell the people what the General Committee wants to do with this million dollars. How with this fund they will keep four thousand men and women preaching and teaching the Gospel all over the world, and reinforce them with a thousand more. Surely the people will respond to such an appeal.

It would be a good plan to take the collections early, then compare notes, and figure up, see how much more is needed to meet the million dollar apportionment, and then, by supplementary meetings, raise the balance to the last dollar.

Invite returned missionaries to aid in the work whenever they can be had. Returned missionaries of the London Missionary Society held four hundred and three meetings in London in two months.

Believe in the generosity of the people. On the evening of the 13th of May, 1884, a Methodist audience in Philadelphia gave $50,000 for the cause of Church extension.

Never imagine that all the big-hearted Methodists were in the Academy of Music that night. They can be found on every district.

As to the second "if:" We will tug at that with all our might. We are appealing with great confidence to the 21,000 Sabbath-schools of our church to aid us in this effort, by taking a supplementary collection, and we do hope that not one of them will deny us altogether. It is the cause of Christ that appeals to you. Your answer will be heard in heaven.

O Zion, put on thy strength! The night of five thousand slow revolving years that has hung over pagan world must be lit up with the Gospel of Jesus. Into these vast continents of gloom the messengers of hope and joy must penetrate to tell the myriads of dispairing souls the story of the cross. "Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty. God hath shined."

Light reveals beauty. Who can tell the pebble from the diamond till the light reveals the jewel? God shone out of Zion, and Ruth came out of the land of Moab to "put her trust under the shadow of Jehovah's wings."

Read our reports. Think of the thousands already won to God in heathen lands. That glorious victory on the banks of the Ganges, in presence of the enemies of Christ, won only a few weeks ago, ought to bring a special thank offering to God.

Two hundred and forty-eight believed and were baptised in the Christian faith in three days, and shouted "Victory to Jesus!"

Take this million-dollar collection out of the subjunctive mood Make it a certainty. What then? The debt would disappear. That bloodhound of a debt, which has followed us for years, swallowing up $40,000 in interest in a quadrennium, would disappear for ever.

The General Committee would be inspired to assume the aggressive. The whole subject and tenor of their discussions would be changed. Now they anxiously consider how they can keep the work within their probable income. The men whose credit is needed to sustain the Missionary Society in bank have many warnings to utter about that portentous debt. Appropriations are cut down that ought to be increased.

Frontier presiding elders plead in vain for additional appropriations to meet the demands of the work in the Territories. Their appeals are disregarded because it is thought they must be.

The Treasurer's adverse report blocks the way to all advance Give the committee this million, and all would be changed. Old missions would be strengthened in foreign lands and new ones projected. One hundred young men who now stand at the alters of the Church, saying, "Here am I; send me," would be told to get ready for marching orders.

Our Home Missions would feel the mighty inspiration. All over the West and into the South reinforcements would fly to the help of those already there. No brighter day ever dawned on Methodism than that will be in which it will be recorded: "The Missionary collections are brought up to a milion per annum."

We turn to the West with eager hearts. How the destiny of the Republic hung upon the patriotic devotion of the West during the great struggle for the Union! Their armies were swift and mighty. They never knew defeat. They marched from Mill Spring to Donelson, and from Donelson to Shiloh, and from Shiloh by the way of Iuka, and Chicamaugua down to Atlanta, and from Atlanta to the sea, and then, accustomed to everlasting victory, they sauntered by to Raleigh to receive the surrendered standards of Johnsons's army, and made the interview at Appomatox an absolute certainty.

Shall we not have some of that glorious courage, that wonderous enthusiasm, that consecretion of life and everything the human heart holds dear to one transcendent purpose! Shall we not have some of it in the work of God. Let it be once aroused fairly, and then by a swift march Methodism will pass on to her proper place at the front as the leader of all Protestant Christianity in missionary labor, success, and sacrifice throughout the world!

A Bargain in Corner Lots

Is what most men desire, but to keep from filling a grave in a cemetery lot ere half your days be numbered, always keep a supply of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" by you. When the first symptoms of consumption appear lose no time in putting yourself under the treatment of this invaluable medicine. It cures when nothing else will. Possessing, as it does, ten times the virtue of the best cod liver oil, it is not only the cheapest but far the pleasantest to take. It purifies and enriches the blood, strengthens the system, cures boils, pimples, eruptions and other humors. By druggists.

The Free Church of Scotland General Association at its late meeting resolved, after an exciting discussion, by a majority of one hundred, that any of its churches in which a large majority of the congregation desired it, could introduce instrumental music. The Irish Assembly, after a day of contention and the same strife over the question, in which a large party left the hall, agreed to postpone all discussion until next year.

I most cheerfully state that Darbys Prophylactic Fluid was furnished to and extensively used by the surgeons in charge of General Hospitals in the Confederate service with great benefit to the patients—all the surgeons making a favorable report: A great deal of it was used in the hospitals.

SAMUEL PRESTON MOORE, M. D.
Surgeon-General Confederate Army.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches.
History of the U. S.—Ridpath	$3 00
Scripture History—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net	60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) Net	5
History of Methodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.)	3 00
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church Edition of 1884
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol. I) sett	5 00
Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs	2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scripture chapters I XXX—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol 1) sett	7 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill. Net	1 00
Written Sermons.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
Christian Purity—Foster	1 50
Introdnotion to the Gospel Records—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introdnction to the Holy Scriptures. (chapters XXI-LII)—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
Lessons in Logic.—Sevons. Net	40
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged). Stevens	3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory	85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church Vol. II.—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introdnction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII.—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope Vol. III	7 50
Atonement in Christ.—Miley	1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn	2 50
Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Homilectics.—Kidder	1 50
Written Sermon
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst	3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introdnction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters XIX XLIV Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Theological Institutes Part II.—Watson	6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written Exegesis
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St Paul.—Conybeare and Howson (Abridged Edition)	1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry
History of Rationalism.—Hurst	3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst	$ 50
atechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
hristian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884)
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.—Walker	1 25
To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St Paul.—Fletcher	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill	1 00
